2 This waking care breaketh the sleepe, as a great sickennesse breaketh the sleepe.

3 The rich hath great labour in gathering riches together, and in his rest he is filled with pleasures.

4 The poore laboureth in liuing poorely, and when he leaueth off, he is still poore.

5 He that loueth gold, shall not be iustified, and hee that followeth corruption shall haue enaugh thereof.

Chap. 32. 6 * Many are destroyed by the reason of gold, and haue found their destruction before them.

14 Stretch not thine hand wherefoener it looketh, and thrust it not into the dish.

15 Consider by thy selfe him that is by thee, and marke euery thing.

16 Eate modestly that which is set before thee, and deuoure not lest thou be hated.

17 Leaueth thou off first for natures sake, and be not insatiable lest thou offend.

Chap. 37. 29. 19 * How litle is sufficient for a man wel taught: and thereby he belcheth not in his chamber, nor seeth any paine.

24 But against him that is a niggard of his meate, the whole cite shall murmur: the testimonies of his niggardnesse shall bee sure.

25 Shew not valiantnesse in wine: for * wine hath destroyed many.

26 The fornicie proueth the edge in the tempering: so doeth wine the hearts of the proude by drunkennesse.

27 * Wine soberly drunken is profitable for the life of a man: what is his life that is overcome with wine?

28 Wine was made from the beginning to make men glad, and not for drunkennesse. Wine measurably drunken and in time, bringeth gladnesse and cheerefullnesse of the mind.

29 But wine drunken with excessse maketh bitterness of mind, with brawlings and foldings.

30 Drunkennes increaseth the courage of a foole, till he offend: it diminisheth his strength, and maketh wounds.

31 * Rebuke not thy neighbour at the wine: and despise him not in his mirth: giue him no despitefull words, and presse not vpon him with contrary words.

C H A P. XXXII.

1 An exhortation to modestie. 3 Let the ancient speake. 14 To giue thanks after the repast. 15 Of the feast, faith, and confidence in God.

IF thou be made the master of the feast, I list not thy selfe vp, but be among them, as one of the rest: take diligent care for them, and so sit downe.

2 And when thou hast done all thy duty, sit downe, that thou mayest be merrie with them, and receiue a crowne for thy good behaviour.

3 Speake thou that art the elder: for it becometh thee, but with sound iudgement: and hinder not musike.

4 Powre not out words, where there is no audience, * and shew not forth wisdom out of time.

5 The consent of musicians at a banquet is as a signet of carbuncle set in gold.

6 And as the signet of an emerauld well trimmed with gold, so is the melodie of musike in a pleasant banquet.

7 Giue care and be still, and for thy good behaviour thou shalt be loued.

8 Thou that art yong, speake if neede bee, and yet scarcely when thou art twice asked.

9 Comprehend much in few wordes: in many things be as one that is ignorant: be as one that vnderstandeth, and yet hold thy tongue.

10 If thou be among * great men, compare not thy selfe vnto them, and when an elder speaketh, babble not much.

11 Before the thunder goeth lightning, and before a shamefast man goeth fauour.

12 Stand vp betimes and be not the last: but get thee home without delay.

13 And there take thy pastime, and doe what thou wilt, so that thou doe none euill, or vse proud words.

14 But aboute all things, giue thanks vnto him that hath made thee, and replenished thee with his goods.

15 Who so feareth the Lord, will receive his doctrine, and they that rise early, shall find fauour.

16 He that seeketh the Law, shall be filled therewith: but the hypocrite will be offended therat.

17 They that feare the Lord, shall find that which is righteous, and shall kinde iustice as a light.

18 An vngodly man will not be reformed, but without excuse according to his will.

19 A man of vnderstanding despiteh not himself: but a lewd and proud man is not touched with feare, even when he hath done rashly.

20 My sonne doe nothing without aduise ment: so shall it not repent thee after the deed.

21 Goe not in the way where thou mayest fall, nor where thou mayest stumble among the stones, neither trust thou in the way that is plaine.

22 And beware of thine owne children, and take heed of them that be thine owne household.

23 In euery good worke be of a faithfull heart: for this is the keeping of the commandements.

24 Who so beleueth in the Lord, keepeth the commandements, and he that trusteth in the Lord, shall take no hurt.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 The deliuerance of him that feareth God. 2 The answers of the wise. 12 Men is in the hand of God, as the clay is in the hand of the potter. 23 Use will feruours.

Here shall no euill come to him that feareth the Lord: but when he is in temptation, he will deliuer him againe.

2 A wife man hateth not the Law: but he that is an hypocrite therein, is as a ship in a storme.

3 A man of vnderstanding walketh faithfullly in the Law, and the Law is faithfull vnto him.

4 As the question is made, prepare the answer, and so shall thou be heard: be sure of the matter, and so answer.

5 The heart of the foolish is like a cart wheele: and his thoughts are like a rolling axle-tree.

6 As a wilde horse neyeth vnder euery one that sitteth vpon him, so is a scornfull friend.

7 Why dost one day exel another, seeing that the light of the dayes of the yere come of the sun?

8 The knowledge of the Lord hath parred them asunder, and hee hath by them disposed the times and solemne feasts.

9 Some of them hath he chosen and sanctified, and some of them hath be put among the dayes to number.

10 And all men are of the ground, and Adam was created out of the earth: but the Lord hath diuided them by great knowledge, and made their wayes diuers.

11 Some of them hath be blessed and exalted, and some of them hath be sanctified, & appropriate to himselfe: but some of them hath be curled and brought them low, & put them out of their estate.

12 As the clay is in the potters hand, to order it at his pleasure, so are men also in the hand of their Creatour, so that he may reward them as liketh him best.

13 Against euill is good, and against death is life: so is the godly against the sinner, and the vngodly against the faithfull.

14 So in all the workes of the most High, thou mayest see that there are euery two, one against another.

15 ¶ I am awaked vp last of all, as one that gathereth after them in the vintage In the blessing of the Lord I am increased, and haue filled my wine-press, like a grape-gatherer.

16 ¶ Behold, how I haue not laboured onely for my selfe, but for all them that seeke knowledge.

17 Heare me, O ye great men of true people, and hearken with your eares, ye rulers of the Congregation.

18 Giue not thy sonne and wife, thy brother and friend, power ouer thee while thou liuest, and giue not away thy substance to another, least it repeat thee, and thou entreat for the same againe.

19 As long as thou liuest, and hast breath, giue not thy selfe ouer to any person.

20 For better it is that thy children should pray vnto thee, then that thou shouldst looke vp to the hands of thy children.

21 In all thy works be excellent, that thine honour be neuer stained.

22 At the time when thou shalt end thy dayes and finish thy life, distribute thine inheritance.

23 ¶ The fodder, the whip, and the burden belong vnto the asse: and meat, and correction, and worke vnto thy seruant.

24 If thou let thy seruant to labour, thou shalt find rest: but if thou let him goe idle, he shall seeke libertie.

25 The yoke and the whip bow down the hard necke: so tame thine euill seruant with the whips and correction.

26 Send him to labour that he goe not idle: for idleness bringeth much euill.

27 Set him to worke, for he belongeth vnto him: if he be not obedient, put on more heavy fetters.

28 But be not exselsue toward any, and without discretion doe nothing.

29 ¶ If thou haue a faithfull seruant, let him bee vnto thee as thine owne soule: for in blood hast thou gotten him. If thou hast a seruant, intreat him as thy brother: for thou hast need of him as of thy selfe. If thou intreat him euill, and he run away, wilt thou seeke him?

CHAP. XXXIIII.

Of dreames. 13 The prayse of them that feare God. 18 The offerings of the wicked. 22 The bread of the needie. 27 God doth not allow the works of an vnfaithfull man.

The hope of a foolish man is vaine, and false, and dreames make fooles to haue wings.

2 Who so regardeth dreames, is like him that wil take hold of a shadow, & folow after the wind.

3 Euen so is it with the appeerings of dreames, as the likeness of a face is before another face.

4 Who can bee cleansed by the vncleane? or what truth can be spoken of a lyar?

5 Soothsayings, witchcraft and dreaming is but vanitie, and a mind that is occupied with fantasies, is as a woman that traualleth.

6 Where as such visions come not of the most High to trie thee, let not thine heart vpon them.

7 For dreames haue deceiued many, and they haue failed that put their trust therein.

8 The Law shall bee fulfilled without lies, and wisdom is sufficient to a faithfull mouth: what knowledge hath he that is not tried?

9 A man that is instructed, vnderstandeth much, and he that hath good experience, can talke of wisdom.

10 Hee that hath no experience, knoweth litle, and he that erreth, is full of craite.

11 When I wandered to and fro, I sawe many things, and mine vnderstanding is greater then I can expresse.

12 I was oft times in danger of death, yet I was deliuered by these things.

[Dreams]

13 ¶ The spirit of those that feare the Lord, shall live: for their hope is in him that can helpe them.

14 Who so feareth the Lord, feareth no man, neither is afraid: for he is his hope.

15 Blessed is the soule of him that feareth the Lord: in whom putteth hee his trust? who is his strength?

16 ¶ For the eyes of the Lord haue respect vnto them that loue him: he is their mightie protection, and strong ground, a defence from the heat, and a shadow from the noone day, a succour from stumbling, and an helpe from falling.

17 Hee setteth vp the soule, and lighteneth the eyes, he giueth health, life, and blessing.

18 ¶ He that giueth an offering of vrighteous goods, offereth a mocking sacrifice, and the gifts of the vrighteous please him not.

19 But the Lord is theirs only that patiently abide him in the way of truth and righteounesse.

20 The most High doth not allow the offerings of the wicked, neither is he pacified for sinne by the multitude of sacrifice.

21 Who so bringeth an offering of the goods of the poore, doth as one that sacrificeth the lonne before the fathers eyes.

22 The bread of the needfull is the life of the poore: hee defraudeth him thereof, is a murderer.

23 He that taketh away his neighbours living, slayeth him, and he that defraudeth the labourer of his hire, is a bloodhedder.

24 ¶ When one buildeth, & another breaketh downe, what profit haue they then but labour?

25 When one prayeth, and another curseth, whose voyce will the Lord heare?

26 ¶ He that waileth himselfe because of a dead body, and toucheth it againe, what availeth his wailing?

27 ¶ So is it with a man that fasteth for his sins, and committeth them againe: who will heare his prayer? or what doeth his fasting helpe him?

CHAP. XXXV.

1 Of true sacrifices. 2 The prayer of the fatherless, the widow, and him that humbleth himselfe.

3 ¶ Who to keepeth the Law, bringeth offerings enough: he that holdeth fast the commandments, offereth an offering of saluation.

4 Hee that is thankfull to them that haue wel deserved, offereth fine flour: and he that giueth almes, sacrificeth prayse.

5 To depart from euill, is a thankfull thing to the Lord, and to forsake vrighteounesse, is a reconciling vnto him.

6 ¶ Thou shalt not appeare emptie before the Lord.

7 For all these things are done because of the Commandement.

8 ¶ The offering of the righteous maketh the altar fat, and the smell thereof is sweete before the most High.

9 The sacrifice of the righteous is acceptable, & the remembrance thereof shall neuer be forgotten.

10 Giue the Lord his honour with a good and liberal eye, & diminish not the first fruits of thine haards.

11 ¶ In all thy gifts shew a ioyfull countenance, and dedicate thy tithes with gladnesse.

12 Giue vnto the most High according as he hath enriched thee, and looke what thine hand is able, giue with a cheerefull eye.

13 For the Lord recompenseth, and will giue thee seven times as much.

14 ¶ Diminish nothing of thine offering: for he will not receiue it, and abstaine from wrongfull sacrifices: for the Lord is the iudge, and regardeth no mans person.

15 He accepteth not the person of the poore, but he heareth the prayer of the oppressed.

16 He despiseth not the desire of the fatherles, nor the widow, when the powreth out her prayer.

17 Doth not the teares run downe the widowes cheeks? & her cry is against him that caused them: for from her cheekes doe they goe vp vnto heauen, and the Lord which heareth them, doth accept them.

18 ¶ He that serueth the Lord, shall be accepted with fauour, and his prayer shall reach vnto the clouds.

19 The prayer of him that humbleth himselfe, goeth through the cloudes, and createth not till it come neere, and will not depart till the most High haue respect thereunto to iudge righteously, and to execute iudgement.

20 And the Lord will not be slacke, nor the Almighty will tary long from them, till he hath smitten in sunder the loynes of the vmercifull, and awenged himselfe of the heathen, till he haue taken away the multitude of the cruell, and broken the scepter of the vrighteous, till he giue euery man alter his workes, and reward them after their desires, till he haue iudged the cause of his people, and comforted them with his mercie.

21 Oh how faire a thing is mercie in the time of anguish and trouble! it is like a cloud of raine that cometh in the time of a drought.

CHAP. XXXVI.

1 A prayer: God in the person of all faithful men, against those that persecute him. 2 For praise of a good woman.

3 ¶ Aue mercie vpon vs, O Lord God of all things, and behold vs, and shew vs the light of thy mercies.

4 And send thy feare among the nations which seeke not after thee, that they may know that there is no God but thou, and that they may shewe thy wonderous workes.

5 Lift vp thine hand vpon the strange nations, that they may see thy power.

6 As thou art sanctified in vs before them, so be thou magnified among them before vs.

7 That they may know thee, as we know thee: for there is none other God, but only thou, O Lord.

8 Renew the signes, and change the wonders: shew the glory of thy hand, and thy right arm, that they may shew forth thy wonderous actes.

9 Raise vp thine indignation, and powre out wrath: take away the aduersarie, and smite the enimie.

10 Make the time short: remember thine othe, that thy wonderous workes may be payed.

11 Let the wrath of the fire consume them that escape, & let them perish that oppress the people.

12 Smite in sunder the heads of the princes that be our enemies, and say, There is no other but we.

13 ¶ Gather al the tribes of Iacob together, that they may know that there is none other God but only thou, and that they may shew thy wonderous workes, & inherit thou them as from the beginning.

14 O Lord haue mercy vpon the people, that is called by thy Name, and vpon Israel, whom thou hast likened to a first borne sonne.

15 Oh, be mercifull vnto Ierusalem the cite of thy Sanctuary, the cite of thy rest.

16 Fill Zion, that it may magnifie thine oracles, and praise thy people with thy glory.

15 Gise witnesse vnto those that thou hast possessed from the beginning, and raise vp the prophesies that haue bin shewed in thy Name.

16 Reward them that waite for thee, that thy Prophets may be found faithfull.

17 O Lord, heare the prayer of thy seruants, according to the * blessing of Aaron ouer thy people, and guide thou vs in the way of righteousness, that all they which dwell vpon the earth may know that thou art the Lord the eternall God.

18 ¶ The belly deuoureth all meates, yet is one meate better then another.

19 As the throte tasteth venison, so doeth a wise mind discerne false words.

20 A froward heart bringeth griefe, but a man of experience will resist it.

21 A woman is apt to receiue every man: yet is one daughter better then another.

22 The beautie of a woman cheareth the face, and a man louth nothing better.

23 If there be in her tongue gentlenesse, meeknesse, and wholsome talke, then is not her husband like other men.

24 Hee that hath gotten a ¶ vertuous woman, hath begun to get a possession: she is an helpe like vnto himselfe, and a pillar to rest vpon.

25 Where no hedge is, there the possession is spoiled: and he that hath no wife, wandereth out and fro mourning.

26 Who will trust a thiefe that is alway ready, and wandereth from towne to towne? and like wise him that hath no rest, and lodgeth wherefoeuer the night taketh him?

CHAP. XXXVII.

1 How a man should know friends and counsellors.

2 To keepe his company that feareth God.

¶ Very friend saith, I am a friend vnto him also: but there is some friend, which is onely a friend in name.

3 Remaineeth there not heauinesse vnto death, when a companion, and a friend is turned to an enemy?

4 ¶ Wicked presumption, from whence art thou sprung vp to couer the earth with deceit?

5 ¶ There is some companion which in prosperitie reioyceth with his friend: but in the time of trouble he is against him.

6 There is some companion that helpeth his friend for the belly sake, and taketh vp the buckler against the enemy.

7 Forget not thy friend in thy mind, and thinke vpon him in thy riches.

8 ¶ Seek no counsel at him of whom thou art suspected, and disclose not thy counsel vnto such as hate thee.

9 ¶ Every counsellor praiseth his owne counsel: but there is some that counselleth for himselfe.

10 Beware of the counsellor, and be aduised afore ¶ whereto thou wilt vise him: for he wil counsell for himselfe, lest he cast the los vpon thee.

11 And say vnto thee, Thy way is good, and afterward he stand against thee, and looke what shall become of thee.

12 Aske no counsell for religion of him that is without religion, nor of Iustice, of him that hath no iustice, nor of a woman touching her of whom she is ielous, nor of a coward in matters of warre, nor of a merchant concerning exchange, nor of a buyer for the sale, nor of an enuyous man touching thankfulness, nor of the vnmercifull touching kindness, nor of an vnhonest man of honestie, nor of the slouthful for any labour, nor of an hireling for the smithing of a worke, nor of an idle seruant for much busines: hearken not vnto these in any matter of counsell.

13 But be continuall with a godly man whom thou knowest to keepe the Commandements of the Lord, whose minde is according to thy minde, and is sory for thee when thou stumblest.

14 Take counsell of thine owne heart: for there is no man more faithfull vnto thee then it.

15 For a mans mind is sometime more accustomed to shew more then seven watchmen that sit aboue in an hie tower.

16 And aboue all this, pray to the most High, that he will direct thy way in truth.

17 Let reason goe before every enterprise, and counsell before every action.

18 ¶ The changing of the countenance is a signe of the changing of the heart: foure things appeare, good and euil, life and death, but the tongue hath euermore the gouernment ouer them.

19 ¶ Some man is witty, and hath instructed many, and yet is vnprofitable vnto himselfe.

20 Some man will be wise in words, and is hated, yea, he is destitute of all good.

21 Because grace is not giuen him of the Lord: for he is destitute of all wisdom.

22 Another is wise for himselfe, and the fruits of vnderstanding are faithfull in his mouth.

23 A wife man instructeth his people, and the fruits of his wisdom faile not.

24 A wife man shall be plentifully blessed, and all they that see him, shall thinke him blessed.

25 The life of man standeth in the number of dayes: but the dayes of Isaac are innumerable.

26 A wife man shall obtaine credit among his people, and his name shall be perpetual.

27 My soune, proue thy soule in thy life, and see what is cuill for it, and permit it not to doe it.

28 For all things are not profitable for all men, neither hath every soule pleasure in every thing.

29 ¶ Be not ¶ greedy in all delights, and be not too hastie vpon all meates.

30 ¶ For excess of meates bringeth sicknesse, and gluttonie commeth into cholericke diseases.

31 By surfeit haue many perished: but hee that dieteth himselfe, longeth his life.

¶ Honour the Physician with that honour that is due vnto him, because of necessities: for the Lord hath created him.

2 For of the most High cometh healing, and he shall receiue gifts of the king.

3 The knowledge of the Physician lieth vpon his head, and in the sight of great men he shall bee in admiration.

4 The Lord hath created medicines of the earth, and he that is wise will not abhorre them.

5 ¶ Was not the water made sweet with wood, that men might know the vertue thereof?

6 So hath he giuen men knowledge, that hee might be glorified in his wonderous works.

7 With such doeth hee heale men, and taketh away their paines.

8 Of such doeth the Apothecarie make a confession, and yet he cannot finish his owne works: for of the Lord cometh prosperitie and wealth ouer all the earth.

13 The houre may come, that their enterprises may haue good successe.

14 For they also shall pray vnto the Lord, that he would prosper that, which is giuen for ease, and their physicke for the prolonging of life.

15 He that sinneth before his maker, let him fall into the hands of the Physician.

16 My sonne, powre forth teares ouer the dead, and beginne to mourne, as if thou hadst suffered great harme thy selfe, and then couer his body according to his | appoyntment, and neglect not his buriall.

17 Make a grieuous lamentation, and be earnest in mourning, and vse lamentation as he is worthy, and that a day or two, lest thou be euil spoken of, and then comfort thy selfe for thine heauinesse.

18 * For of heauinesse commeth death, and the heauinesse of the heart breaketh the strength.

19 Of the affliction of the heart commeth sorow, and the life of him that is afflicted, is according to his heart.

20 Take no heauinesse to heart: driue it away, and remember the last end.

21 Forget it not: for there is no turning againe: thou shalt doe him no good, but hurt thy selfe.

22 Remember his iudgement: thine also shalt be likewise, vnto me yesterday, and vnto thee to day.

23 * Seeing the dead is at rest, let his remembrance rest, and comfort thy selfe againe for him when his spirit is departed from him.

24 ¶ The wisdome of a learned man commeth by vsing well his vacant time, and he that ceaseth from his owne matters and labour, may come by wisdome.

25 How can he get wisdome that holdeth the plough, and he that hath pleasure in the goad, and in driuing oxen, and is occupied in their labours, and talketh but of the breed of bollocks?

26 He giueth his mind to make furrowes, and is diligent to eue the kine fodder.

27 So is it of every carpenter and workemaster that laboureth night and day: and they that cut and graue seales, and make sundry diuerities, and giue themselves to counterfeite imagerie, & watch to performe the worke.

28 The Smith in like maner abideth by his anuill, and doth his diligence to labour the yroo: the vapour of the fire drieth his flesh, and he must fight with the heat of the fornice: the noyse of the hammer is euer in his eares, and his eyes looke full vp on the thing that he maketh: he setteth his minde to make vp his works: therefore he watcheth to polish it perfectly.

29 So doth the potter sit by his worke: he turneth the wheele about with his feet: he is careful alway at his worke, and maketh his worke by number.

30 Hee fashioneth the clay with his arme, and with his feet he tempereth the hardnesse thereof: his heart imagineth how to couer it with lead, and his diligence is to clese the ouen.

31 All these hope in their hands, and euey one bestoweth his wisdome in his worke.

32 Without these cannot the cities be maintained, nor inhabited, nor occupied.

33 And yet they are not asked their iudgement in the counsell of the people, neither are they hie in the Congregation, neither sit they vpon the iudgement seats, nor vnderstand the order of iustice: they cannot declare matters according to the forme of the Law, and they are not meet for hard matters.

34 But they maintaine the state of the world, and their delire is concerning their worke and occupation.

CHAP. XXXIX.

1 A wise man. 16 The works of God. 24 Vnto the good, good things profit, but vnto the euill, euill good things are euill.

H E onely that applieth his mind to the Law of the most High, and is occupied in the meditation thereof, seeketh out the | wisdome of all the ancient, and exerciseth himselfe in the prophesies.

2 He keepeth the sayings of famous men, and entrench in also to the secrets of darke sentences.

3 He seeketh out the myserie of graue sentences, and exerciseth himselfe in darke parables.

4 He shall serue among great men, and appeare before the prince: he shall trauaile thorow strange countreys: for he hath tried the good and the euill among men.

5 He will giue his heart to resort early vnto the Lord that made him, and to pray before the most High, and will open his mouth in prayer, and pray for his finnes.

6 When the great Lord will, he shall be filled with the spirit of vnderstanding, that hee may powre out wise sentences, and giue thanks vnto the Lord in his prayer.

7 ¶ He shall direct his counsell, and knowledge: so shall he meditate in his secrets.

8 He shall shew forth his science and learning, and reioyce in the Law and couenant of the Lord.

9 Many shall commend his vnderstanding, and his memorie shall neuer be put out, nor depart away: but his name shall continue from generation to generation.

10 * The Congregation shall declare his wisdome, and shew it.

11 Though he be dead, he shall leaue a greater fame then a thousand: and if he liue still, he shall get the fame.

12 Yet wil I speake of moe things: for I am full as the moone.

13 Hearken vnto me ye holy children, & bring forth fruit as the rose that is planted by the brooks of the field.

14 And giue ye a sweet smell as | incense, and bring forth floures as the lillie: giue a smell, & sing a song of prayse: blese the Lord in all his works.

15 Giue honour vnto his Name, and shew forth his praise with the songs of your lips, & with harpe, and ye shall say after this maner, 16 * All the works of the Lord are exceeding good, and al his Commandements are done in due season.

17 And none may say, What is this? Wherefore is this? for at time conuenient they shall all be sought out: at his Commandement the water stood as an heape, and at the word of his mouth the waters gathered themselves.

18 His whole fauour appeared by his Commandement, and none can diminish that which he will saue.

19 The works of all flesh are before him, and nothing can be hid from his eyes.

20 He seeth from everlasting to everlasting : and there is nothing wonderfull vnto him.

21 A man need not to say, What is this? Wherefore is that? for hee hath made all things for their owne vic.

22 His blessing shall runne ouer as the streame, and moisten the earth like a flood.

23 As he hath turned the waters into saltnesse, so shall the heathen feele his wrath.

24 As his wayes are plaine and right vnto the iust, so are they stumbling blockes to the wicked.

25 For the good are good things created from the beginning, and euill things for the sinners.

26 * The principall things for the whole vse of mans life, is water, fire, and iron, and salt, and meale, wheat and hony, and milke, the blood of the grape, and oyle, and clothing.

27 All these things are for good to the godly : but to the sinners they are turned vnto euill.

28 There be spirits that are created for vengeance, which in their rigor lay on sure strokes in the time of destruction they thew forth their power, and accomplish the wrath of him that made them.

29 * Fire and hail, and famine, and death : all these are created for vengeance.

30 The teeth of wilde beaſts, and the scorpions, and the serpents, and the sword execute vengeance, for the destruction of the wicked.

31 They shall be glad to do his commandments : and when need is, they shall be ready vpon earth : and when their houre is come, they shall not ouer-passe the Commandement.

32 Therefore haue I taken a good courage vnto me from the beginning, and haue thought on these things, and haue put them in writing.

33 * All the workes of the Lord are good, and he giueth euery one in due season, and when need is :

34 So if a man need not to say, This is worse then that : for in due season they are all worthy praise.

35 And therefore praise the Lord with whole heart and mouth, and blisse the Name of the Lord.

CHAP. XL.

1 Many miseries in mans life. 14 Of the blessing of the righteous, and prerogative of the feare of God.

Great trouble is created for all men, and an heauie yoke vpon the sonnes of Adam from the day that they go out of their mothers wombe, till the day that they returne to the mother of all things,

2 Namely, their thoughts, & feare of the heart, and their imagination of the things they wait for, and the day of death,

3 From him I sitteth vpon the glorious throne, vnto him that is beneath in the earth, and ashes :

4 From him that is clothed in blue silke, and weareth a crowne, euen vnto him that is clothed in simple linnen.

5 Wrath and enuie, trouble and vnquietnesse, and feare of death, and rigour and strife, and in the time of rest the sleepe in the night vpon his bedde, change his knowledge, 6 A little or nothing is his rest, and afterward in sleepe he is as in a watch tower in the day : he is troubled with the visions of his heart, as one that runneth out of a battell.

7 And when all is safe, he awaketh, and maruileth that the feare was nothing.

8 Such things come vnto all flesh, both man and beaſt, but sene fold to the vngodly :

9 Moreouer, * death and blood and strife, and sword, oppression, famine, destruction, and punishment.

10 These things are all created for the wicked, and for their sakes came the * Flood also.

11 * All things that are of the earth shall turne to earth againe; and they that are of the * waters, shall returne into the sea.

12 * All bribes and vnrighteousnesse shall be put away, but * faithfulness shall endure for euer.

13 The substance of the vngodly shall be dried vp like a riuier, and they shall make a sound like a great thunder in the raine.

14 When he openeth his hand, he reioyceth; but all the transgressors shall come to nought.

15 The children of the vngodly shall not obtaine many branches : for the vncleane rootes are as vpon the hie rockes.

16 Their tender stalks by what water soener it be, or water banke, it shall be pulled vp before all other herbes.

17 * Friendlinesse is as a most pleintifull garden of pleasure, and mercie endureth for euer.

18 * To labour, and to bee content with that a Phil. 4. 13 man hath, is a sweet life : but he that findeth a treasure is a bone them both.

19 Children, and the building of the citie, maketh a perpetuall name : but an honest woman is counted aboute them both.

20 Wine and musike reioyce the heart; but the loue of wisdom is aboute them both.

21 The pipe and the psalterion make a sweete noise : but a pleasant tongue is aboute them both.

22 Thine eye desireth fauour and beautie : but a greene seede time rather then them both.

23 A friend and companion come together at opportunitie : but aboute them both is a wife with her husband.

24 Friends & helpe are good in the time of trouble : but almes shall deliuer more then them both.

25 Gold and siluer fasten the feet : but counsell is esteemed aboute them both.

26 Riches and strength lift vp the mind : but the feare of the Lord is aboute them both : there is no want in the feare of the Lord, and it needeth no helpe.

27 The feare of the Lord is a pleasant garden of blessing, and there is nothing so beautifull as it is.

28 * My sonne, leade not a beggars life, for better it were to die then to begge.

29 The life of him that dependeth on another mans table, is not to be counted for a life : for hee tormenteth himselfe after other mens meat : but a wise man, and well nurtured, will beware thereof.

30 Begging is sweete in the mouth of the vnschamefast, and in his belly there burneth a fire.

CHAP. XLI.

1 Of the remembrance of death. 3 Death is not to be feared. 8 A curse vpon them that forsake the Law of God. 12 Good name and fame. 14 An exhortation to giue heede vnto wisdom. 17 Of what sinnes a man ought to be ashamed.

Death, how bitter is the remembrance of thee ! Of to a man that lieth at rest in his possessions, death vnto the man that hath nothing to vex him, and that hath prosperitie in all things : yea vnto him that yet is able to receiue meate !

2 O death, how acceptable is thy iudgement vnto the needfull, and vnto him whose strength faileth, and that is now in the last age, and is vexed with all things, and to him that despaireth and hath lost patience !

3 Feare not the iudgement of death, remember them that hath bene before thee, and that come after : this is the ordinance of the Lord ouer all flesh.

Tt 3 4 And

4 And why wouldest thou be against the pleasure of the most High whether it be ten or an hundred, or a thousand yeezes, there is no defence for life against the graue.

5 ¶ The children of the vngodly are abominable children, and so are they that keepe company with the vngodly.

6 The inheritance of vngodly children shal perish, & their posterity shall haue a perpetual shame.

7 The children complaine of an vngodly father, because they are reproched for his sake.

8 Woe be vnto you, O ye vngodly, which haue forsaken the Law of the most High God: for though you increase, yet shall you perish, 9 If ye be borne, ye shall be borne to cursing: if ye die, the curse shall be your portion.

Chap. 40.
31.

10 * All that is of the earth, shall turne to earth againe: so the vngodly goe from the curse to destruction.

11 Though men mourne for their body, yet the wicked name of the vngodly shall be put out.

12 Haue regard to thy name: for that shall continue with thee above a thousand treasures of gold.

A good name.
Chap. 30.
29.

13 A good life hath the dayes numbered: but a good name endureth euer.

14 My children, keepe wisdom in peace: * for wisdom that is hid, & a treasure that is not seene, what profit is in them both?

15 A man that hideth his foolishnesse, is better then a man that hideth his wisdom.

Of shamefastnesse.

16 Therefore beare reuerence vnto my words: for it is not good in all things to be ashamed, neither are all things allowed as faithfull in all men.

17 Be ashamed of whoredome before father and mother: be ashamed of lies before the prince and men of authority:

18 Of sinne before the Iudge and ruler: of offence before the congregation and people: of vnrightheousnesse before a companion and friend,

19 And of their before the place where thou dwellest, and before the trueth of God and his covenant, and to leane with thine elbowes vpon the bread, or to be reprooued for giuing or taking.

20 And of silence to them that salute thee, and to looke vpon an harlot,

21 And to turne away thy face from thy kinsman: or to take away a portion, or a gift, or to be euill minded toward another mans wife,

22 Or to solicit any mans maid, or to stand by her bed, or to reproch thy friends with words,

23 Or to vpbraid when thou giest any thing, or to report a matter that thou hast heard, or to reueale secret words, 24 Thus maylt thou well be shamefast, and shalt finde fauour with all men.

CHAP. XLII.

2 The Law of God must be sanctified. 9 A daughter. 14 A woman. 18 God knoweth all things, yea eue the secrets of thine heart.

In what things we ought not to be ashamed.

Of these things be not thou ashamed, neither haue regard to offend for any person:

2 Of the Law of the most High, and his covenant, and of iudgement to iustifie the godly:

3 Of the cause of thy companion, and of strangers, or of distributing the heritage among friends:

4 To bee diligent to keepe true balance, and weight, whether thou haue much or little:

5 To sell merchandise at an indifferent price, and to correct thy children diligently, and to beate an euill servant to the blood:

6 To sit a good locke where an euill wife is, and to locke where many hands are:

7 If thou gine any thing by number & weight, to put all in writing, both that that is giuen out, and that that is receiued againe:

8 To teach the vnlearned and the vnwise, and the aged, that contend against the yong: thus shalt thou be well instructed, and approved of all men liuing.

9 ¶ The daughter I maketh the father to watch secretly, and the carefulnesse that hee hath for her, taketh away his sleepe in the youth, lest she should passe the floure of her age: and when she hath an husband, lest she should be hated:

10 In her virginities, lest shee should be defiled, or gotten with child in her fathers house, and when shee is with her husband, lest shee misbehaue her selfe: and when she is married, lest she continue vnfrautfull.

11 * If thy daughter be vnshamefast keepe her straitly, lest shee cause thine enemies to laugh thee to scorn, and make thee a common talke in the cite, and defame thee among the people, and bring thee to publike shame.

12 Behold not euery bodies beautie, and company not among women.

13 For as the moth commeth out of garments: so doeth wickednesse of the woman.

14 The wickednesse of a man is better then the good intreacie of a woman, to wit, of a woman that is in shame and reproch.

15 ¶ I will remember the workes of the Lord, and declare the things that I haue seene: by the word of the Lord are his workes.

16 The Sonne that shineth, looketh vpon all things, and all the worke thereof is full of the glory of the Lord, 17 Hath not the Lord appointed that his Saints should declare all his wonderous workes, which the Almightye Lord hath established to confirme all things by his Maiestie?

18 He seeketh out the depth, & the heart, and he knoweth their practices: for the Lord knoweth all science, and he beholdeth the signes of the world.

19 He declareth the things that are past, and for to come, and discloseth the paths of things that are secret.

20 * No thought may escape him, neither may any word be hid from him.

21 He hath garnished the excellent workes of his wisdom, and he is from euerslasting to euerslasting, and for euer: vnto him may nothing be added, neither can he be diminished: he hath no neede of any counsell.

22 Oh, how delectable are all his workes, and to be considered euen vnto the sparkes of fire!

23 They liue all and endure for euer: and when fouler need is, they are all obedient.

24 They are all double, one against another: he hath made nothing that hath any fault.

25 The one commendeth the goodnesse of the other, & who can be satisfied with beholding Gods glory?

CHAP. XLIII.

The secret of the creation of the workes of God. His high ornament is the clearest firmament, the beautie of the heauen so glorious to behold.

2 The Sonne also, a maruelous instrument when it appeareth, declareth at his going out the worke of the most High.

3 At noone it burneth the countrey, and who may abide for the heate thereof?

4 The Sonne burneth the mountaines three times more, then hee that keepeth a furnace with continuall continall heat: it casteth out the fiery vapors, and with the shining beames blindeth the eyes.

5 Great is the Lord that made it, and by his commandment he causeth it to runne hastily.

6 * The moone also hath hee made to appeare according to her season, that it should be a declaration of the time, and a signe for the world.

7 * The feasts are appointed by the Moone: the light thereof diminisheth vnto the end.

8 The month is called after the name thereof, and groweth wondrously in her changing.

9 It is a campe pitched on high, shining in the firmament of heauen: the beauty of heauen are the glorious starres, and the ornament that shineth in the high places of the Lord.

10 By the commandment of the holy One they continue in their order, and faile not in their watch.

11 * Looke vpon the rainebow, and praise him that made it: very beautiful is it in the brightnesse thereof.

12 * It compasseth the heauen about with a glorious circle, and the hands of the most High haue bended it.

13 * Through his Commandment hee maketh the snow to halte, and sendeth swiftly the lightning of his iudgement.

14 Therefore he openeth his treasures, and the clouds flie forth as the fowles.

15 In his power hath hee strengthened the clouds, and broken the hailstones.

16 The mountaines leape at the sight of him: the South winde bloweth according to his will.

17 The found of his thunder beateth the earth: so doeth the storme of the North: the whirlwind also, as birdes that flie, scattereth the snow, and the falling downe thereof is as the grasshoppers that light downe.

18 The eye maruel'eth at the beautie of the whitenesse thereof, and the heart is astonied at the stalne of it.

19 He also powreth out the frost vpon the earth like salt, and when it is frozen it sticketh on the tops of pales.

20 When the cold North winde bloweth, and yce is frozen of the water, it abideth vpon all the gatherings together of water, and clootheth the waters as with a brestplate.

21 It deuoureth the mountaines, and burneth the wildernesse, and destroyeth that that is Greene, like fire.

22 The remedie of all these is when a cloud commeth hastily, and when a dew commeth vpon the heat, it retireseth it.

23 By his worde hee stilleth the winde: by his counsell hee appeaseth the deepe, and planteth Islands therein.

24 They that faile ouer the sea tell of the perils thereof, and when we heare it with our eares wee marueile thereat.

25 For there be strange and wonderous workes, diuers maner of beastes, and the creation of whales.

26 Through him are all things directed to a good end, and are stablished by his word.

27 And when we haue spoken much, we cannot attaine vnto them: but this is the summe of all, that hee is all.

28 What power haue we to praise him? for hee is aboute all his workes.

29 The Lord is terrible, and very * great, and marueilous is his power.

30 Praise the Lord, and magnifie him as much as ye can, yet doeth hee farre exceed: exalt him with all your power, and be not wearie, yet can ye not attaine vnto it.

31 * Who hath teene him, that he might tell vs? John 1. 18. ysa.

32 For there are hidde yet greater things then these be, and we haue seene but a few of his workes.

33 For the Lord hath made all things, and giuen wisdome to such as feare God.

CHAP. XLIIII.

The praise of certaine holy men, Enock, Noe, Abraham, Isaac and Iacob.

Let vs now commend the famous men, and our fathers, of whom we are begotten.

2 The Lord hath gotten great glory by them, and through his great power from the beginning.

3 They haue borne rule in their kingdoms, and were renowned for their power, and were wise in counsell, and declared prophesies.

4 * They gouerned the people by counsell, and Exod. 18. by the knowledge of learning meet for the people, 25. in whose doctrine were wise sentences.

5 They inuented the melodie of musick, and expounded the verses that were written.

6 They were rich and mighty in power, and liued quietly at home.

7 All these were honourable men in their generations, and were well reported of in their times.

8 There are of them that haue left a name behind them, for that their praise shall be spoken of.

9 There are some also which haue no memoriall, * and are perished, as though they neuer had beene, and are become as though they neuer had beene borne, and their children after them. Gen. 7. 22.

10 But the former were mercifull men, whose righteousness hath not beene forgotten.

11 For whose possessey a good inheritance is reserved, and their seed is contained in the couenant.

12 Their stocke is contained in the Couenant, and their posteritie after them.

13 Their seed shall remaine for euer, and their prayse shall neuer be taken away.

14 Their bodies are buried in peace, but their name liueth for euermore. Chap. 39.

15 * The people speake of their wisdome, and the Congregation talke of their prayse. Enoch.

16 * Enoch pleased the Lord God: therefore hee was translated for an example of repentance to the generations. Gen. 5. 24. heb. 11. 5.

17 * Noe was found perfect, and in the time of wrath he had a reward: therefore was hee left as a remnant vnto the earth, when the Flood came. Gen. 6. 9. heb. 11. 7.

18 An euerglasting couenant was made with him, that all flesh * should perish no more by the Flood. Gen. 9. 12.

19 * Abraham was a * great father of many people: in glory was there none like vnto him. Abraham.

20 Hee kept the law of the most High, * and was in Couenant with him, and hee set the Couenant * in his flesh, and in tentation hee was found faithfull. Gen. 12. 3. and 15. 5. and 17. 4.

21 Therefore he assured him by an * oath, that he would blesse the nations in his seed, and that hee would multiply him as the dust of the earth, and exalt his seed as the starres, and cause them to inherit from sea to sea, and from the riuer vnto the end of the world. Gen. 21. 4. Gen. 22. 16, 17, 18.

22 * With Isaac did he confirme likewise, for Abraham his fathers sake, the blessing of all men, and the Couenant. Gal. 3. 8. Gen. 26. 3. 27.

23 And caused it to rest vpon the head of Iacob, and made him selfe known by * his blessings, and gave him an heritage, and diuided his portions * and parted them among the welde tribes. Gen. 28. 1. Gen. 32. 14.

T c 4 24 And

Ioseph. 24 And he brought out of him a merciful man, which found favour in the sight of all flesh.

CHAP. XLV.

The praise of Moyses, Aaron, and Phinees.

I Moyses. And Moyses the beloved of God and men brought forth, whose remembrance is blessed.

Exod. 11. 2 He made him like to the glorious Saints, and magnified him by the tear of his enemies.

3. Actes 7. 3 By his words he caused the wonders to cease, and hee made him glorious in the sight of kings, and gaue him commandements for his people, and shewed him his glory.

Exo. 6. 7. 4 Hee sanctified him with faithfulness and meeknesse, and chose him out of all men.

Num. 12. 5 He caused him to heare his voice. & brought him into the dark cloud, & there he gaue him the commandements before his face, euen the law of life and knowledge, that he might teach Iacob the couenant, and Israel his iudgements.

I Aaron. 6 Hee exalted Aaron, an holy man like vnto him, euen his brother of the tribe of Leui.

Exo. 4. 28. 7 An euerslasting Couenant made he with him, and gaue him the Priesthood among the people, and made him blessed through his comely ornament, and clothed him with the garment of honour.

8 He put perfect ioy vpon him, and girded him with ornaments of strength, as with breeches, and a tunicle, and an ephod.

Exod. 28. 9 He compassed him about with bells of golde, and with many belles round about, that when he went in, the sound might be heard, and might make a noise in the Sanctuary, for a remembrance to the children of Israel his people.

10 And with an holy garment, with gold also and blue silke, and purple, and diuers kinds of workes, and with a brestplate of iudgement, and with the signes of truth.

Vrim & Thum. 11 And with the worke of scarlet cunningly wrought, & with precious stones grauen like scales, and set in golde by goldsmithes worke, for memoriall, with a writing grauen after the number of the tribes of Israel.

12 And with a crowne of golde vpon the miter bearing the forme and marke of holiness, an ornament of honour, a noble worke garnished, and pleasant to looke vpon.

13 Before him were there no such faire ornaments: there might no stranger put them on, but onely his children, and his childrens children perpetually.

Leu. 8. 13. 14 Their sacrifices were wholly consumed euery day twise continually.

15 Moyses filled his hands and anointed him with holy oile: this was appointed vnto him by an euerslasting couenant, and to his seed, so long as the heauens should remaine, that hee should minister before him, and also to execute the office of the Priesthood, and bless his people in his name.

16 Before all men liuing the Lord chose him, that he should present offerings before him, and a sweet sauer for a remembrance to make reconciliation for his people.

Deut. 19. 17 He gaue him also his commandements and authoritie according to the lawes appointed, that he should teach Iacob the testimonies, and giue light vnto Israel by his Law.

Num. 16. 18 Strangers stood vp against him, and enuied him in the wilderness, euen the men that tooke Dauidans and Abiramspart, and the company of Core in fury and rage.

19 This the Lord saw, and it displeased him, and for his wrathfull indignation were they consumed:

hee did wonders vpon them, and consumed them with the fiery flame.

20 But he made Aaron more honourable, and Nam gaue him an heritage, and parted the first fruites of 8, the first borne vnto him: vnto him especially he appointed bread in abundance.

21 For the Priests did eate of the sacrifices of the Lord, which he gaue vnto him and to his seed.

22 Els had he none heritage in the land of his Dreus people, neither had he any portion among the people: for the Lord is the portion of his inheritance.

23 The third in glory is Phinees the sonne of Eleazar, because hee had zeale in the feare of the Lord, and stood vp with good courage of heart when the people were turned backe, and made reconciliation for Israel.

24 Therefore was there a couenant of peace made with him: that he should be the chiefe of the Sanctuary and of his people, and that he and his posteritie should haue the dignitie of the Priesthood for euer.

25 And according to the couenant made with Dauid, that the inheritance of the kingdom should remaine to his sonne of the tribe of Iuda: so the heritage of Aaron should be to the onely sonne of his sonne, and to his seed, God giue vs wisdom in our heart to iudge his people in righteousness, that the good things that they haue be not abolished, and that their glory may endure for their posteritie.

CHAP. XLVI.

The praise of Iosue, Caleb, and Samuel.

I Iesus sonne of Nane was valiant in the warres, and was the successor of Moyses in prophecies, who according vnto his name was a great sauiour of the elect of God, to take vengeance of the enemies that rose vp against them, and to set Israel in their inheritance.

2 What glory gaue he when he list vp his hand and drew out his sword against the cities?

3 Who was there before him like to him? for he fought the battels of the Lord.

4 Stood not the Sunne still by his meanes, and one day was as long as two?

5 He called vnto the most high gonernor when the enemies pressed vpon him on euery side, and the mightie Lord heard him with the hailstones, and with mightie power.

6 He rushed in vpon the nations in battell, and in the going downe of Becheron he destroyed the aduersaries, that they might know his weapons, and that he fought in the sight of the Lord, for he followed the Almighty.

7 In the time of Moyses also hee did a good worke: he and Caleb the sonne of Iephune stood against the enemy, and withheld the people from sinne, and appeased the wicked murmuring.

8 And of sixe hundred thousand people of foot, they two were preferred to bring them into the heritage, euen into the land that floweth with milke and honie.

9 The Lord gaue strength also vnto Caleb, which remained with him vnto his old age, so that he went vp into the high places of the land, and his seed obtained it for an heritage.

10 That all the children of Israel might see that it is good to follow the Lord.

11 Concerning the Iudges, euery one by name, whose heart went not a whoring, nor departed from the Lord, their memory be blessed.

12 Let their bones flourish out of their place, and their names by succession remaine to them that are most famous of their children.

13 ¶ Samuel the Prophet of the Lord, beloued of his Lord, *ordained kings, and annointed the princes ouer his people.

14 By the Law of the Lord he iudged the Congregation, and the Lord had respect vnto Iacob.

15 This Prophet was approued for his faithfulness, and he was known faithfull in his words and visions.

16 *He called vpon the Lord Almighty, when his enemies preailed vpon him on euery side, when he offered the sucking Lambe.

17 And the Lord thundred from heauen, and made his voice to be heard with a great noise.

18 So he discomfited the princes of the Tyrians, and all the rulers of the Philistims.

19 *And before his long sleepe he made protection in the sight of the Lord and his annointed, that hee tooke no substance of any man, no, nor foote as a shoe, and no man could asceide him.

20 *After his sleepe also he told of 5 kings death, & from the earth lift he vp his voice & prophesied that the wickednesse of the people should perish.

CHAP. XLVII.

The praise of Nathan, David, and Salomon.

1 Feet him rose vp ¶ Nathan to prophesie in the time of David.

2 For as the latte is taken away from the peace offering, so was ¶ David chosen out of the children of Israel.

3 *He played with the lions as with kids, and with beares as with lambs.

4 *Slew hee not a gyant when he was yet but a yong, and took away the rebuke from the people, when he lift vp his hand with the stone in the sling, to beate downe the pride of Goliath?

5 For he called vpon the most high Lord, which gaue him strenght in his right hand to slay that mightie warrior, & that he might set vp the horne of his people againe.

6 *So ¶ he gaue him the praise of ten thousand, and honoured him with ¶ great praises, and gaue him a crowne of glory.

7 *For he destroyed the enemies on euery side, and rooted out the Philistims his aduerariers, and brake their horne in sunder vnto this day.

8 Inal his works he praised the holy one & the most Hie with honorable words, & with his whole heart he sung songs, and loved him that made him.

9 *Hee set fingers also before the altar, and according to their tune hee made sweete songs, that they might praise God daily with their songs.

10 He ordained to keepe the feast dayes comely, and appointed the times perfectly, that they might praise the holy Name of God, and make the Temple to sound in the morning.

11 ¶ The Lord tooke away his sinnes, and exalted his horne for euer: he gaue him the couenant of the kingdom and the throne of glory in Israel.

12 After him rose vp a wise sonne, who by him dwelt in a large possession.

13 ¶ Salomon reigned in a peaceable time, and was glorious: for God made all quiet round about, that he might build an house in his Name, and prepare the Sanctuary for euer.

14 *How wise wast thou in thy youth, and wast filled with vnderstanding as with a flood!

15 Thy mind couered the whole earth, and hath filled it with graue and darke sentences.

16 Thy name went abroad in the yles, and for thy peace thou wast beloued.

17 *The countreys marueiled at thee for thy songs, & prouers, & similitudes, & interpretations.

18 By the Name of the Lord God, which is called the God of Israel, thou hast *gathered golde, as tinne, and hast had as much siluer as lead.

19 *Thou didst bow thy loines to women, and wast ouercome by thy body.

20 Thou didst staine thine honor, and hast defiled thy posteritie, and hast brought wrath vpon thy children, and hast felt sorrow for thy folly.

21 *So the kingdom was diuided, and Ephraim began to be a rebellious kingdom.

22 *Neuertheless the Lord leit not off his mercy, neither was he destroyed for his works, neither did he abolish the posteritie of his elect, nor tooke away the seede of him that loued him, but he left a remnant vnto Iacob, and a root of him vnto David.

23 Thus rested Salomon with his fathers, and of his seede he left behind him ¶ Roboam, euen the foolishnesse of the people, and one that had no vnderstanding, who turned away the people through his counsell, and ¶ Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, foole.

*Which caused Israel to sinne, and shewed Ephraim the way of sinne, 24 So that their sinnes were so much increased, that they were driuen out of the land.

25 For they fought out all wickednesse, till the vengeance came vpon them.

CHAP. XLVIII.

The praise of Elias, Eliseus, Ezekias, and Isaia.

¶ Hen I rood vp ¶ Elias the Prophet as a fire, and this word burnt like a lampe.

2 He brought a famine vpon them, and by his zeale hee diminished them: for they might not away with the commandements of the Lord.

3 By the word of the Lord he shut the heauen, and three times brought he the fire from heauen.

4 O Elias, how honourable art thou by thy wondrous deedes! who may make his boast to be like thee!

5 *Which hast raised vp the dead from death, and by the word of the most high out of the graue:

6 Which hast brought kings vnto destruction, and the honourable from their seat:

7 Which hearest the rebuke of the Lord in Sin, and in Horeb the iudgement of the vengeance:

8 *Which didst anoint kings, that they might recompense, and Prophets to be thy successors:

9 *Which wast taken vp in a whirlewinde of fire, and in a charer of fierie horses:

10 Which wast appointed *to reprene in due kednesse season, and to pacifie the wrath of the Lords iudgement before it kindled, and to turne the hearts of the fathers vnto the children, & to set vp the tribes of Iacob.

11 Blessed were they that saw thee, and slept in loue: for we shall liue.

12 *When Elias was couered with the storme, ¶ Eliseus was filled with the spirit, while he liued he was not meoued for any prince, neither could any bring him into subiection.

13 Nothing could ouercome him, *and after his death his body prophesied.

14 He did wonders in his life, and in death were his workes marueilous.

15 For all this the people repented not, neither departed they from their sinnes: *till they were caried away prisoners out of their land, and were scattered thorow all the earth, so that there remained but a very few people with the prince vnto the house of David.

16 Howbeit some of them did right, and some heaped vp sinnes.

17 ¶ Ezekias made his city strong, & conueyed

C H A P. XLIX.

Of Iosias, Ezekias, David, Ieremias, Ezechiel, Zorobabel, Iesus, Neemias, Enoch, Ioseph, Sem, and Seth.

Iosias. The remembrance of || Iosias is like the composition of the perfume that is made by the art of the apotecary: it is sweet as honye in al mouthes, and as muske at a banket of wine.

2 Hee behaued himselfe vprightly in the reformation of the people, and tooke away all abominations of iniquitie.

3 He * directed his heart vnto the Lord, and in the time of the vngodly he established religion.

4 All, except Dauid and Ezekias, & Iosias committed wickednesse: for euen the Kings of Iuda forsooke the Law of the most High, and failed.

5 Therefore hee gaue them || horne vnto other, and their honour to a strange nation.

6 Hee burnt the elect city of the Sanctuary, * and destroyed the streets thereof according to the || prophesie of || Ieremias.

7 For they * intreated him euill, which neuertheless was a Prophet, * sanctified from his mothers wombe, that he might roote out, and a sicke, and destroy, and that he might also build vp, and plant.

8 || Ezechiel * saw the glorious vision, which was shewed him vpon the charet of the Cherubims.

9 * For hee made mention of the enemies vnder the figure of the raine, and directed them that went right.

10 * And let the bones of the twelue Prophets flourish out of their places: and let their memory be blessed: for they comforted Iacob, and deliuered them by assured hope.

11 * How shall we praise || Zorobabel, which was as a ring on the right hand!

12 So was || Iesus also the sonne of Iosedec: these men in their time builded the house, and set vp the Sanctuary of the Lord againe, which was prepared for an euerlasting worship.

13 * And among the elect was Neemias whose renowne is great, which set vp for vs the wals that were fallen, and set vp the gates and the barres, and laid the foundations of our houses.

14 * But vpon the earth was no man created like Enoch: for he was taken vp from the earth.

15 Nether was there a like man vnto || Ioseph the gouernour of his brethren, and the vpholder of his people, whose bones were kept.

16 || Sem and || Seth were in great honour among men: and so was || Adam about euery liuing thing in the creation.

C H A P. L.

Of Simon the sonne of Onias. 22 An exhortation to praise the Lord. 27 The author of this booke.

Simon * the sonne of Onias the high Priest, which in his life let vp the house againe, and in his dayes established the || Temple.

2 Vnder him was the foundation of the double height laide, and the high wals that compasseth the Temple.

3 In his dayes the places to receiue water that were decayed were restored, and the brasie was about in measure as the sea.

4 Hee tooke care for his people that they should not fall, and fortified the city against the siege.

5 How honourable was his conuersation among the people, and when he came out of the house conuered with the vail!

6 He was as the morning starre in the mids of a cloud, and as the moone when it is full,

7 And as the Sunne shining vpon the Temple of the most High, and as the rainebow that is bright in the faire cloudes,

8 And as the flower of the roses in the spring of the yeere, and as lillies by the springs of waters, and as the branches of the frankincense tree in the time of Summer,

9 As a fire and incense in the censer, and as a vessel of masie golde, set with all manner of precious stones,

10 And as a faire olive tree that is fruitfull, and as a Cypresse tree which groweth vp to the cloud.

11 When he put on the garment of honour, and was clothed with all beauty, he went vp to the holy altar, and made the garment of holiness honorable.

12 When hee tooke the portions out of the Priests hands, hee himselfe flood by the heath of || altar, compassed with his brethren round about, as the branches doe the Cedar tree in Libanus, and they compassed him as the branches of the palme trees.

13 So were all the sonnes of Aaron in their glory, and the oblations of the Lord in their hands before all the congregation of Israel.

14 And that he might accomplish his ministerie vpon the Altar and garnish the offering of the most High, and Almighty, 15 He stretched out his hand to the drinke offering, and powred of the blood of the grape, and he powred at the foote of the altar a perfume of good fauour vnto the most high king of all.

16 Then shouted the sons of Aaron, and blowed with brasen trumpets, and made a great noise to be heard, for a remembrance before the most High.

17 Then all the people together halted, and fell downe to the earth vpon their faces, to worshipec their Lord God Almighty, and most High.

18 The fingers also sung with their voices, so that the sound was great, and the melody sweet.

19 And the people prayed vnto the Lord most High, with prayer before him that is mercifull, till the honour of the Lord were performed, and they had accomplished his seruice.

20 Then went hee downe, and stretched out his hands ouer the whole Cōgregation of the children of Israel, that they should giue prayse with their lips lips vnto the Lord, and reioyce in his Name.

31 He began againe to worship, that hee might receiue the blessing of the most High.

32 Now therefore giue praise all ye vnto God, that worketh great things euery where, which hath increased our dayes from the wombe, and dealt with vs according to his mercie,

33 That he would giue vs ioyfullnesse of heart, and peace in our dayes in Israel, as in old time, 34 That he would confirme his mercie with vs, and deliuer vs at his time.

35 ¶ There be two manner of people that mine heart abhorreth, and the third is no people:

36 They that sit vpon the mountaine of Samaria, the Philistins, and the foolish people that dwell in Scitis.

37 Iesus the sonne of Sirach, the sonne of Eleazar of Ierusalem, hath written the doctrine of vnderstanding and knowledge in this booke, & hath powred out the wisdome of his heart.

38 Blessed is he that exerciseth himselfe therein: and shall layeth vp thele in his heart, shall be wise.

39 For if he do these things, he shall be strong in all things, for he fettereth his steps in the light of the Lord, which giueth wisdome to the godly. The Lord be praised for evermore. So be it, to be it.

CHAP. II.

A prayer of Iesus the sonne of Sirach.

I Will confesse thee, O Lord and King, and praise thee, O God my Sauour: I will giue thanks vnto thy Name.

1 For thou art my defender and helper, and hast preserved my body from destruction, & from the snare of the slanderous tongue, and from the lips that are occupied with lies: thou hast holpen me against mine aduersaries,

2 And hast deliuered me according to the multitude of thy mercie, and for thy Names sake, from the roaring of them that were readie to deuoure me, and out of the hands of such as sought after my life, and from the manifold afflictions which I had,

3 And from the fire that choked me round about, and from the middes of the fire that I burned not,

4 And from the bottome of the belly of hell, from an vncleane tongue, from lying words, from false accusation to the king, and from the slander of an vnrighteous tongue.

5 My soule shall praise the Lord vnto death: for my soule drew neere vnto death, my life was neere to the hell beneath.

6 They compassed me on euery side, and there was no man to helpe me: I looked for the succour of men: but there was none.

7 Then thought I vpon thy mercy, O Lord, and vpon thine acts of old, how thou deliuerest such as wait for thee, and sauest them out of the hands of the enemies.

8 Then lifted I vp my prayer from the earth, and prayed for deliuerance from death, 9 I called vpon the Lord, the father of my Lord, that he would not leaue me in the day of my trouble, and in the time of the prond without helpe.

10 I will praise thy name continually, & will sing praise with thanksgiving: & my prayer was heard, 11 Thou saudest me from destruction, and deliueredst me from the euill time: therefore will I giue thanks and praise thee, and blesse the name of the Lord.

12 When I was yet young, or euer I went abroad, I desired wisdome openly in my prayer.

13 I prayed for her before the Temple, & sought after her vnto farre countreys, and shee was as a grape that waxeth ripe out of the floure.

14 Mine heart reioyced in her: my foot walked in the right way, and from my youth vp sought I after her.

15 I bowed somewhat downe mine eare, and receiued her, and gave me much wisdome:

16 And I profited by her, therefore will I ascribe the glory vnto him that giueth me wisdome.

17 For I am aduised to doe thereafter: I will be zealous of that that is good: so shall I not be confounded.

18 My soule hath wrestled with her, and I haue examined my workes: I lifted vp mine hands on high, and considered the ignorances thereof.

19 I directed my soule vnto her, and I found her in purenesse: I haue had mine heart ioined with her from the beginning, therefore shall I not be forsaken.

20 My bowels are troubled in seeking her: therefore haue I gotten a good possession.

21 The Lord hath giuen me a tongue for my reward, wherewith I will praise him.

22 Drawe neere vnto me, yee vnlearned, and dwell in the house of learning.

23 Wherefore are yee slow? and what say you of these things, seeing your soules are very thirstie?

24 I opened my mouth and said, * Buy her for 1/2, 55, 2. you without money.

25 Bow downe your necke vnder the yoke, and your soule shall receiue instruction: there is readie that ye may finde her.

26 Behold with your eyes, * how that I haue had but little labour, & haue gotten vnto me much rest.

27 Get learning with a great summe of money, for by her ye shall possesse much gold.

28 Let your soule reioyce in the mercy of the Lord, and be not ashamed of his praise.

29 Doe your duty betimes, and hee will giue you a reward at his time.

BARUCH.

CHAP. I.

1 Baruch wrote a booke during the captiuitie of Babylon, which hee read before Iechonias and all the people. To the Iewes sent the booke with money vnto Ierusalem to their other brethren, to the intent that they should pray for them.

2 And these are the words of the booke which Baruch the sonne of Nerias the sonne of Maasias, the sonne of Sedecias, the sonne of Aladaias, the sonne of Helcias wrote in at Babylon,

3 In the fifth yeere, and in the seuenth day of the moneth, what time as the Caldeans tooke Ierusalem, and burnt it with fire.

4 And Baruch did reade the words of this booke that Iechonias the sonne of Ioachim king of Iuda might heare, and all the people that were come to heare the booke.

5 And in the audience of the governor, & of the kings sonnes, and before the Elders, and before the whole people, from the lowest vnto y<sup>e</sup> hieft, before all them that dwelt at Babylon by the river Sid.

¶ Or, Sid. 5 Which

5 Which when they heard it, wept, fasted, and made prayers before the Lord.

6 They made a collection also of money, according to every mans power,

7 And sent it to Ierusalem vnto Ioachim the son of Helcias the sonne of Salom Priest, and vnto the other Priests, and to all the people which were with him at Ierusalem.

For, Sibon.

8 When he had received the vessels of the temple of the Lord, that were taken away out of the Temple, to bring them againe into the land of Iuda, the tenth day of the month | Suan, to wit, silver vessels, which Sedecias the sonne of Iosias king of Iudah had made.

10 And they said, Behold, we haue sent you money wherewith ye shall buy burnt offerings for sinne, and incense, and prepare a | meat offering, and offer vpon the altar of the Lord our God.

11 And pray for the life of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, and for the life of Baltasar his sonne, that their dayes may be vpon earth, as the dayes of heauen.

12 And that God would giue vs strength, and lighten our eyes, that wee may liue vnder the shadow of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, and vnder the shadow of Baltasar his sonne, that we may long doe them seruite, and finde fauour in their sight.

13 Pray for vs alswnto the Lord our God, (for we haue sinned against the Lord our God, and vnto this day the fury of the Lord, and his wrath is not turned from vs)

14 And reade this booke (which we haue sent to you to be rehearsed in the Temple of the Lord) vpon the feist dayes, and at time conuenient.

Chap. 2. 6.

15 Thus shall ye say, * To the Lord our God belongeth righteousness, but vnto vs the confusion of our faces, as it is come to passe this day vnto them of Iuda, and to the inhabitants of Ierusalem,

16 And to our Kings, and to our Princes, and to our Priests, and to our Prophets, and to our fathers, Dom. 9. 5.

17 Because wee haue * sinned before the Lord our God,

18 And haue not obeyed him, neither hearkened vnto the voice of the Lord our God, to walke in the commandements that he gaue vs openly.

19 From the day that the Lord brought our fathers out of the land of Egypt, euen vnto this day, we haue bene disobedient vnto the Lord our God, and we haue bene negligent to heare his voice.

20 * Wherefore these plagues are come vpon vs, and the curse which the Lord appointed by Moses his seruant at the time that he brought our fathers out of the land of Egypt to giue vs a land that floweth with milke and honie, as appeareth this day.

21 Neuerthelesse, wee haue not hearkened vnto the voice of the Lord our God, according to all the words of the Prophets, whom he sent vnto vs.

22 But every one of vs followed the wicked imagination of his owne heart, to serue strange gods, and to doe euill in the sight of the Lord our God.

C H A P. II.

1 The Iewes confesse that they suffered iustly for their sinnes. The true confession of the Christians. 11 The Iewes desire so haue the wrath of God turned from them. 32 He promisseth that he will call againe the people from captiuitie, and giue them a name and euerslasting restmēt.

THerefore the Lord our God hath performed this word, which he pronounced against vs, and against our Iudges that gouerned Israel, and against our kings, and against our princes, and against the men of Israel and Iuda.

2 To bring vpon vs great plagues, such as neuer came to passe vnder the whole heauen, as they that were done in Ierusalem, according to things, that were written in the Law of Moses.

3 That some among vs should * eate the flesh of his owne sonne, and some the flesh of his owne daughter.

4 Moreouer hee hath deliuered them to be in subiection to all the kingdomes, that are round about vs, to be as a reproch and desolation among all the people round about where the Lord hath scattered them.

5 Thus are they brought beneath, and not aboue, because we haue sinned against the Lord our God, and haue not heard his voice.

6 * To the Lord our God appertaineth righteousness, but vnto vs and to our fathers open shame, as appeareth this day.

7 For all these plagues are come vpon vs, which the Lord hath pronounced against vs.

8 Yet haue we not prayed before the Lord, that we might turne every one from the imaginations of his owne wicked heart.

9 So the Lord hath watched ouer the plagues, and the Lord hath brought them vpon vs: for the Lord is righteous in all his works, which hee hath commanded vs.

10 Yet haue wee not hearkened vnto his voice, to walke in the commandements of the Lord that he hath giuen vnto vs.

11 * And now, O Lord God of Israel, that hast brought thy people out of the land of Egypt with a mightie hand, & an hie arme, and with signes, and with wonders, and with great power, and hast gotten thy selfe a Name, as appeareth this day.

12 O Lord our God, wee haue sinned: we haue done wickedly: wee haue offended in all thine ordinances.

13 Let thy wrath turne from vs: for we are but a few left among the heathen, where thou hast scattered vs.

14 Heare our prayers, O Lord, and our petitions, and deliuer vs for thine owne sake, and giue vs fauour in the sight of them which haue led vs away.

15 That all the earth may know that thou art the Lord our God, and that thy name is called vpon Israel, and vpon their posteritie.

16 Therefore looke downe from thine holy temple, and thinke vpon vs: incline thine eare, O Lord, and heare vs.

17 * Open thine eyes, and behold: for the dead that are in the graues, and whose soules are out of their bodies, * giue vnto the Lord neither | praise nor righteousness.

18 But the soule that is vexed for the greatnesse of sinne, and he that goeth crookedly, and weake, and the eyes that faile, and the hungry soule will giue thee praise and righteousness, O Lord.

19 For we doe not require mercy in thy sight, O Lord our God, for the righteousness of our fathers, or of our kings,

20 But because thou hast sent out thy wrath and indignation vpon vs as thou hast spoken | by thy seruants the Prophets, saying,

21 *Thus saith the Lord, Bow down your shoulders, and serue the king of Babylon: so shall ye remaine in the land, that I gaue vnto your fathers.

22 But if ye will not heare the voice of the Lord to serue the king of Babylon, 23 I will cause to cease in the cities of Iuda, and in Ierusalem will I cause to cease the voice of mirth, and the voice of ioy, and the voyce of the bridegrome, and the voyce of the bride, and the lande shall be desolate of inhabitants.

24 But we would not hearken vnto thy voice, to serue the king of Babylon: therefore hast thou performed the words that thou spakest by thy seruants the Prophets, namely, that the bones of our kings, and the bones of our fathers should be caried out of their places.

25 And loe, they are cast out to the heat of the day, and to the cold of the night, and are dead in great miserie with famine, and with the sword, and in banishment.

26 And the Temple wherein thy Name was called vpon, thou hast brought to the state, as appeareth this day, for the wickednes of the house of Israel, and the house of Iuda.

27 O Lord our God, thou hast intreated vs according to equitie, & according to al thy great mercy,

28 As thou spakest by thy seruant Moyses, in the day when thou diddest command him to write thy Law, before the children of Israel, saying, 29 *If ye will not obey my voyce, then shall this great swarme and multitude be turned into a very few among the nations wher I will scatter them.

30 For I know that they will not heare me: for it is a stiffnecked people: but in the land of their captiuitie they shall remember themselves,

31 And know that I am the Lord their God: then will I giue them an heart to vnderstand, and eares, 32 And they shall heare, & praise me in the land of their captiuitie, and thinke vpon my Name.

33 Then shall they turne them from their hard backs, and from their euill works: for they shall remember the way of their fathers, which sinned before the Lord.

34 And I will bring them againe into the land, which I promised with an othe vnto their fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Iacob, and they shall be lords of it: and I will increase them: and they shall not be diminished.

35 And I will make an euermlasting couenant with them, that I will be their God, and they shall be my people: and I will no more driue my people of Israel out of the land that I haue giuen them.

C H A P. I I I.

1 The people continueth in their prayer begun for their deliuerance. 9 He praiseth wisdom vnto the people, shewing that so great aduersities came vnto them for the despising thereof. 36 Only God was the sinner of wisdom. 37 Of the incarnation of Christ.

O Lord Almighty, O God of Israel, the soule that is in trouble, and the spirit that is vexed, cryeth vnto thee.

2 Heare, O Lord, and haue mercie: for thou art mercifull, and haue pittie vpon vs, because we haue sinned before thee.

3 For thou endurest for euer, and wee vtterly perish.

4 O Lord Almighty, the God of Israel, heare now the prayer of the dead Israelites, and of their children which haue sinned before thee, and not hearkened vnto the voyce of thee their God, wherefore these plagues hang vpon vs.

5 Remember not the wickednes of our fathers, but thinke vpon thy power, and thy Name at this time.

6 For thou art the Lord our God, and thee, O Lord, will we praye.

7 And for this cause hast thou put thy feare in our hearts, that we should call vpon thy Name, and praise thee in our captiuitie: for wee haue considered in our minds all the wickednes of our fathers, that sinned before thee.

8 Behold, we are yet this day in our captiuitie, where thou hast scattered vs to be a reproch, and a curse, and subiect to payments, according to all the iniquities of our fathers, which are departed from the Lord their God.

9 O Israel, heare the Commandements of life, hearken vnto them that thou mayest learne wisdom.

10 What is the cause, O Israel, that thou art in thine enemies land, and art waxen old in a strange country?

11 And art desiled with the dead? and art counted with them that goe downe to the graues?

12 Thou hast forsaken the fountain of wisdom.

13 For if thou hadst walked in the way of God, thou shouldst haue remained safe for euer.

14 Learne where is wisdom, where is strength, where is vnderstanding, that thou mayest know also from whence cometh long continuance, and life, and where the light of the eyes, and peace is.

15 Who hath found out her place? or who hath come into her treasures?

16 Where are the princes of the heathen, and such as ruled the world vpon the earth?

17 They that had their pastime with the fowles of the heauen, that hoarded vp siluer & gold, wherein men trust, & made none end of their gatherings.

18 For they that coyned siluer, and were so careful of their worke, and whose inuention had done end, 19 Are come to nought, and gone down to hell, and other men are come vp in their steads.

20 When they were yong, they saw the light, and dwelt vpon the earth: but they vnderstood not the way of knowledge, 21 Neither perceived the paths thereof, neither haue their children receiued it: but they were farre off from that way.

22 It hath not bene heard of in the land of Chanaan, neither hath it bene seene in Theman, 23 Nor the Agarins that sought after wisdom vpon the earth, nor the merchants of Nerran, & of Theman, nor the expounders of fables, nor the searchers out of wilddom, haue known the way of wisdom, neither do they thinke vpon the paths thereof.

24 O Israel, how great is the house of God! and how large is the place of his possession!

25 It is great, and hath none end, it is high and vnumeasurable.

26 There were the giants, famous from the beginning, that were of so great stature, and so expert in warre.

27 Those did not the Lord chuse, neither gaue he the way of knowledge vnto them.

28 But they were destroyed, because they had no wisdom, and perished through their owne foolishnesse.

29 Who hath gone vp into heauen, to take her, and brought her downe from the cloudes?

30 Who hath gone ouer the sea to find her, and hath brought her rather then fine gold?

31 No man knoweth her wayes, neither considereth her paths,

32 But

32 But he that knoweth all things knoweth her, and he hath found her out with his vnderstanding: this same is he which hath prepared the earth for euermore, and hath filled it with foure footed beasts.

33 When he sendeth out the light, it goeth: & when he calleth it again, it obeyeth him with feare.

34 And the starres shine in their watch, and reioyce. When he calleth them, they say, Here wee be: and so with cheerefulnesse they shew light vnto him that made them.

35 This is our God, and there shall none other be compared vnto him.

36 He hath found out all the way of knowledge, and hath giuen it vnto Iacob his seruant, and to Israel his beloved.

37 Afterward hee was seene vpon earth, and dwelt among men.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The reward of them that keepe the Law, on the punishment of them that despise it. 12 A comfort of the people being in captiuitie. 19 A complaint of Ierusalem, and vnder the figure thereof the Church. 25 A consolation and comfort of the same.

This is the booke of the Commandements of God, and the Law that endureth for euer: all they that keepe it, shall come to life: but such as forsake it, shall die.

1 Turne thee, O Iacob, and take holde of it: walke by this brightnesse before the light thereof.

2 Giue not thine honour to another, nor the things that are profitable vnto thee, to a strange nation.

3 O Israel, we are blessed: for the things that are acceptable vnto God, are declared vnto vs.

4 Be of good comfort, O my people, which are the memoriall of Israel.

5 Ye are sold to the nations, not for your destruction: but because ye prouoked God to wrath, ye were deliuered vnto the enemies.

6 For ye haue displeased him that made you, offering vnto deuils and not to God.

7 Ye haue forgotten him that created you, euen the euerslasting God, and yee haue grieved Ierusalem that nourished you.

8 When the saw the wrath comming vpon you from God, he said, Hearken yee that dwell about Sion: for God hath brought me into great heauinesse.

9 I see the captiuitie of my sonnes and daughters, which the Euerlasting will bring vpon them.

10 With ioy did I nourish them, but I must leaue them with weeping and mourning.

11 Let no man reioyce ouer mee a widow, and forsaken of many, which for the finnes of my children am desolate, because they departed from the Law of God.

12 They would not know his righteousness, nor walke in the wayes of his commandements: neither did they enter into the paths of discipline, through his righteousness.

13 Come, ye that dwell about Sion, and call to remembrance the captiuitie of my sons & daughters, which the Euerlasting hath brought vpon them.

14 For he hath brought vpon them a nation strange, an impudent nation, & of a strange language.

15 Which neither reuerence the aged, nor pittie the yong: these haue caried away the deare beloved of the widowes, leauing me alone, & destitute of my daughters.

16 But what can I helpe you?

18 Surely hee that hath brought these plagues vpon you, can deliuer you from the hands of your enemies.

19 Goe your way, O children, goe your way: for I am left desolate.

20 I haue put off the clothing of peace, and put vpon me the sackcloth of prayer, and so long as I liue, I will call vpon the Euerlasting.

21 Bee of good comfort, O children, crie vnto God, and he will deliuer you from the power and hand of the enemies.

22 For I haue hope of your saluation through the Euerlasting, and ioy is come vpon me from the Holy one, because of the mercie which shall quickly come vnto you from our euerslasting Saviour.

23 For I sent you away with weeping & mourning: but with ioy and perpetuall gladnesse will God bring you againe vnto me.

24 Like as now the neighbours of Sion saw your captiuitie, so shall they also see shortly your saluation from God, which shall come vnto you with great glory and brightnesse from the Euerlasting.

25 My children, suffer patiently the wrath that is come vpon you from God: for thine enemy hath persecuted thee: but shortly thou shalt see his destruction, and thalt tread vpon his necke.

26 My darlings haue gone by rough wayes, and were led away as a flocke that is scattered by the enemies.

27 Be of good comfort my children, and cry vnto God: for he that led you away, hath you in remembrance.

28 And as it came into your mind to goe astray from your God, so endeavour your selues ten times more to turne againe, and to seeke him.

29 For he that hath brought thee these plagues vpon you, will bring you euerslasting ioy againe with your saluation.

30 Take a good heart, O Ierusalem, for he which gaue thee that name, will comfort thee.

31 They are miserable that afflict thee, and such as reioyce at thy fall.

32 The cities are miserable whom thy children serue: miserable is she that hath taken thy sonnes.

33 For as the reioycied at thy decay, & was glad of thy fall, so shall she be sory for her owne desolation.

34 For I will take away the reioycing of her great multitude, and her ioy shall be turned into mourning.

35 For a fire shal come vpon her from the Euerlasting, long to endure, and she shall be inhabited of deuils for a great season.

36 O Ierusalem, look toward the East, & behold the ioy that commeth vnto thee from thy God.

37 Lo, thy sonnes (whom thou hast let goe) come gathered together from the East vnto the West, reioycing in the word of the Holy one, vnto the honour of God.

CHAP. V.

1 Ierusalem is moued vnto gladnesse for the returne of her people, and vnder the figure thereof the Church.

Put off thy mourning clothes, O Ierusalem, and thine affliction, and decke thee with the worship and honor that commeth vnto thee from God for euermore.

2 Put on the garment of righteousness, that commeth from God, and let a crowne vpon thine head, of the glory of the Euerlasting.

3 For God will declare thy brightnesse to euery country vnder the heauen.

4 And God will name thee by his name for ever, The peace of righteousness, and the glory of the worship of God.

5 Arise, O Ierusalem, and stand vp on high, and looke about thee toward the East, and behold thy children gathered from the East vnto the West by the word of the Holy One, reioicing in the remembrance of God.

6 For they departed from thee on foote, and were led away of their enemies: but God will bring them again vnto thee, exalted in glory, as children of the kingdome.

7 For God hath determined to bring downe every high mountain, and the long enduring rocks, and to fill the valleys, to make the ground plaine, that Israel may walke safely vnto y<sup>e</sup> honor of God.

8 The woods and all sweet smelling trees shall overshadow Israel at the commandement of God.

9 For God shall bring Israel with ioy in the light of his Matetie, with the mercie and righteousness that commeth of him.

CHAP. VI.

A COPY OF THE EPISTLE THAT Ieremias sent vnto them that were led away captiues into Babylon by the king of the Babylonians, to certifye them of the thing that was commanded him of God.

BEcause of the finnes that ye haue committed against God, ye shall be led away captiues vnto Babylon, by Nabuchodonosor king of the Babylonians.

2 So when ye be come into Babylon, yee shall remaine there many yeeres, and a long season, euen seven generations, and alter that I will bring you away peaceably from thence.

3 * Now (shall ye see in Babylon gods of siluer, and of gold, and of wood, borne vpon mens shoulders, to cause the people to feare.

4 Beware therefore that yee in no wise be like the strangers, neither be ye afraid of them, when ye see the multitude before them, & behind them, worshipping them,

5 But lay ye in your hearts, O Lord, we must worship thee.

6 For mine Angel shall be with you, and shall care for your soules.

7 As for their tongue, it is polished by the carpen-ter, and they themselves are gilted, & laid ouer with siluer, yet are they but lies & cannot speake.

8 And as they take gold for a maid that loueth to be deckt, 9 So make they crownes for the heads of their gods: sometimes also the priests themselves conuey away the gold and siluer from their gods, and bellow it vpon themselves.

10 Yea, they giue of the same vnto the harlots, that are in their houses: againe, they decke these gods of siluer, and gods of gold, and of wood with garments like men.

11 Yet cannot they be preserued from rust and wormes, 12 Though they haue conered them with cloathing of purple, and wipe their faces because of the dust of the temple, wherof there is much vpon them.

13 One holleth a scepter, as though he were a certaine Iudge of the countrey: yet can he not slay such as offend him.

14 Another hath a dagger, or an axe in his right hand: yet is he not able to defend himselfe from battell, nor from threues: so then it is euident that they be no gods.

15 Therefore feare them not: for as a vessel that a man vseth is nothing worth when it is broken,

16 Such are their gods: when they bee set vp in their temples, their eyes be full of dust, by reason of the sect of those that come in:

17 And as the gates are shut in round about, vpon him that hath offended the king: or as one that should be led to be put to death: so the priests keepe their Temples with doores, and with locks, and with barres, lest their gods should be spoyled by robbers.

18 They light vp candles before them: yea, more then for themselves, wherof they cannot see one: for they are but as one of the posts of the Temple.

19 They confesse that euen their hearts are gnawen vpon: but when the things that creepe out of the earth, eat them and their clothes they feele it not.

20 Their faces are blacke through the smoke that is in the Temple.

21 The owles, swallowes, & birds flie vpon their bodies, and vpon their heads, yea, and the cats also.

22 By this ye may be sure that they are not gods: therefore feare them not.

23 Notwithstanding the gold that is about them to make them beautifull, except one wipe off the rust, they cannot shine: neither when they were molten, did they feele it.

24 The things wherein is no breath, are bought for a most high price.

25 * They are borne vpon mens shoulders, because they haue no feet, whereby they declare vnto men that they be nothing worth: yea, & they that worship them, are ashamed.

26 For if they fall to the ground at any time, they cannot rise vp againe of themselves, neither if one set them vpright, can they moue of themselves, neither if they bee bowed downe, can they make themselves straight, but they set gifts before them, as vnto dead men.

27 As for the things that are offered vnto them, their priests sell them and abuse them: likewise also the women lay vp of the same: but vnto the poore and sicke they giue nothing.

28 The menstruous women, and they that are in childbed, touch their sacrifices: by these things yee may know that they are no gods: feare them not.

29 From whence commeth it then, that they are called gods? because the women bring gifts to the gods of siluer, and gold, and wood.

30 And the Priests sit in their Temples, hauing their clothes rent, whose heads and beards are shauen, and being bare headed.

31 They roare and crie before their gods, as men doe at the feast of one that is dead.

32 The priests also take away of their garments, and clothe their wiues and children.

33 Whether it be euill that one doth vnto them, or good, they are not able to recompense it: they can neither set vp a king, nor put him downe.

34 In like manner they can neither giue riches, nor money: though a man make a vow vnto them, and keepe it not, they will not require it.

35 They can saue no man from death, neither deliuer the weaker from the mightie.

36 They cannot restore a blind man to his sight, nor helpe any man at his need.

37 They can shew no mercie to the widow, nor doe good to the fatherlesse.

38 Their gods of wood, gold, and siluer, are as stones that be hewen out of the mountaine, & they that worship them shall be confounded.

39 How

39 How should a man thinke or say that they are gods?

40 Moreouer the Chaldeans themselves dishonour them: for when they see a dumbe man, that cannot speake, they present him to Bel, 41 And desire that he would make him to speake, as though he had any feeling: yet they that vnderstand these things, cannot leaue them: for they also haue no sense.

42 Furthermore, the women girded with cords, sit in the streets, and burne straw.

43 And if any of them be drawn away, and lie with any such as come by, she casteth her neighbor in the teeth, because she was not so worthily reputed, nor her cord broken.

44 Whatsoeuer is done among them is lies: how may it then be thought or said, that they are gods?

45 Carpenters and goldsmiths make them, neither be they any other thing, but euen what the workman will make them.

46 Yea, they that make them, are of no long continuance: how should then the things that are made of them, be gods?

47 Therefore they leaue lies and shame for their posteritie.

48 For when there commeth any war, or plague vpon them, the priestes imagine with themselves, where they may hide themselves with them.

49 How then can men not perceiue, that they be no gods, which can neither defend themselves from warre, nor from plagues?

50 For seeing they be but of wood, and of siluer, and of golde, men shall know hereafter, that they are but lies, and it shall be manifest to all nations & kings, that they be no gods, but the works of mens hands, and that there is no worke of God in them.

51 Whereby it may bee knownen that they are no gods.

52 They can set vp no king in the land, nor giue saue vnto men.

53 They can giue no sentence of a matter, neither preferue from iniury: they haue no power, but are as crows betweene the heauen and the earth.

54 When there falleth a fire vpon the house of those gods of wood, and of siluer, and of golde, the priestes will escape and saue themselves, but they burne as the barks therein.

55 They cannot withstand any king or enemies: how can it then be thought or said, that they bee gods?

56 Moreouer, these gods of wood, of golde, and of siluer, can neither defend themselves fro theues nor robbers.

57 For, they that are strongest, take away their gold and siluer, and apparell, wherewith they bee clothed, and when they haue it, they get them away: yet can they not helpe themselves.

58 Therefore it is better to be a king, and so to shew his power, or els a profitable vessell in an house, whereby he that oweth it, might haue profit, then such false gods: or to bee a doore in an house, to keepe such things safe as be therein, then such false gods: or a pillar of wood in a palace, then such false gods.

59 For the sunne, and the moone, and the stars that shine, when they are sent downe for necessary vses, obey.

60 Likewise also the lightning when it shineth, it is euident: and the wind bloweth in euery countrey.

61 And when God commandeth the cloudes to goe about the whole world, they doe as they are bidden.

62 When the fire is sent downe from aboue to destroy hills and woods, it doeth that which it is commanded: but these are not like any of these things, neither in forme, nor power.

63 Wherefore men should not thinke, nor say that they be gods: seeing they can neither giue sentence in iudgement, nor doe men good.

64 Forso much now as ye are sure, that they be no gods, feare them not.

65 For they can neither curse, nor blesse kings:

66 Neither can they shew signes in the heauen among the heathen, neither shine as the moone, 67 The beasts are better then they: for they can get them vnder a court, and doe themselves good.

68 So ye may be certified that by no manner of means they are gods: therefore feare them not.

69 For as a skar-crow in a garden of cucumbers keepeth nothing, so are their gods of wood, and of siluer, and of gold:

70 And likewise their gods of wood, and gold and siluer, are like to a white thorne in an orchard, that euery bird sitteth vpon, and as a dead body that is cast in the darke.

71 By the purple also and brightnes, which shedeth vpon them, yee may vnderstand that they be no gods: yea, they themselves shal be consumed at the last, and they shal be a shame to the countrey.

72 Better therefore is the iust man that hath none idoles: for he shal be farre from reprove.

THE SONG OF THE THREE HOLY CHILDREN, which followeth in the third Chapter of Daniel after this place,

They fell downe bound into the mids of the hote fierie furnace.

CHAP. I.

35 The prayer of Azarias. 36 The crueltie of the king. 38 The flame deuoureth the Chaldeans. 39 The Angel of the Lord was in the furnace. 41 The three children praise the Lord, and prouoke all creatures to the same.

And they walked in the mids of the flame, praying God, and magnified the Lord.

25 Then Azarias stood vp, and prayed on this manner, and opening his mouth in the mids of the fire, said, 26 Blessed be thou, O Lord God of our fathers thy Name is worthy to be praised and honoured for euermore.

27 For thou art righteous in all the things that thou hast done vnto vs, and all thy works are true and thy wayes are right, and all thy iudgements certaine.

28 In all the things that thou hast brought vpon vs, and vpon Ierusalem the holy citie of our fathers, thou hast executed true iudgements: for by right and equitie hast thou brought al these things vpon vs, because of our sinnes.

39 For wee haue sinned and done wickedly, departing from thee: in all things haue wee trespassed, 40 And not obeyed thy commandements, nor kept them, neither done as thou hadst commanded vs, that we might prosper.
 41 Wherefore in all that thou hast brought vpon vs, and in euery thing that thou hast done to vs, thou hast done them in true iudgement:
 42 As in deliuering vs into the hands of our wicked enemies, and most hatefull traitours, and to an vnrighteous king, and the most wicked in all the world.
 43 And now we may not open our mouthes: we are become a shame and reproofe vnto thy seruants and to them that worship thee.
 44 Yet for thy Names sake, we beseech thee, giue vs not vp for euer, neither breake thy couenant, 45 Neither take away thy mercie from vs, for thy beloued Abrahams sake, and for thy seruant Isaacs sake, and for thy holy Israels sake, 46 To whom thou hast spoken and promised, that thou wouldest multiply their seed as the starres of heauen, and as the sand that is vpon the sea shore.
 47 For we, O Lord, are become lesse then any nation, and be kept vnder this day in all the world, because of our sinnes:
 48 So that now we haue neither Prince nor Prophet, nor gouernour, nor burnt offering, nor sacrifice, nor oblation, nor incense, nor place to offer the first fruits before thee, that we might find mercie.
 49 Neuertheles in a contrite heart, and an humble spirit let vs be receiued.
 50 As in the burnt offering of rams & bullocks, and as in ten thousand of fat lambs, so let our offering be in thy sight this day, that it may please thee: for there is no confusion vnto them that put their trust in thee.
 51 And now we follow thee with all our heart, and feare thee, and seeke thy face.
 52 Put vs not to shame, but deale with vs after thy louing kindnes, and according to the multitude of thy mercies.
 53 Deliuer vs also by thy miracles, and giue thy Name the glory, O Lord, 54 That all they that doe thy seruants euill, may be confounded: euen let them be confounded by thy great force and power, and let their strength be broken.
 55 That they may know that thou onely art the Lord God, and glorious ouer the whole world.
 56 ¶ Now the kings seruants that had caſt them in, ceased not to make the oven hot with Naphtha and with pitch and with tow, and with fagots, 57 So that the flame went out of the furnace, fortie and nine cubits.
 58 And it brake forth, and burnt those Chaldeans that it found by the furnace.
 59 But the Angel of the Lord went downe into the furnace with them that were with Azarias, and smote the flame of the fire out of the furnace.
 60 And made in the mids of the furnace like a myſt hissing wind, so that the fire touched them not at all, neither grieved, nor troubled them.
 61 Then these three (as out of one mouth) praised and glorified, and blessed God in the furnace, saying,
 62 Blessed be thou, O Lord God of our fathers, and praised, and exalted aboute all things for euer, and blessed be thy glorious and holy Name, and praised aboute all things, and magnified for euer.
 63 Blessed be thou in the Temple of thine holy glory, and praised aboute all things, and exalted for euer.

 64 Blessed be thou that beholdest the depths, & sittest vpon the Cherubims, and praised aboute all things, and exalted for euer.
 65 Blessed be thou in the glorious throne of thy kingdome, and praised aboute all things, and exalted for euer.
 66 Blessed be thou in the firmament of heauen, and praised aboute all things, and glorified for euer.
 67 All ye works of the Lord, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 68 O heauens, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 69 O Angels of the Lord, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 70 All ye waters that be aboute the heauen, blesse ye the Lord: praise him and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 71 All ye powers of the Lord, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 72 O Sunne & Moone, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 73 O starres of heauen, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 74 Euery shoure and dewe, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 75 All ye winds, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 76 O fire and heat, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 77 O winter and summer, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 78 O dewes and stormes of snow, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 79 Of frost and cold, blesse ye the Lord: prayse him, and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 80 O yce and snow, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 81 O nights & dayes, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 82 O light & darkenes, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 83 O lightnings and clouds, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 84 Let the earth blesse the Lord, let it praise him and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 85 O mountaines and hilles, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 86 All things that grow on the earth, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 87 O fountaines, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 88 O seas and floods, blesse ye the Lord: prayse him, and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 89 O whales, and all that moue in the waters, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 90 All ye soules of heauen, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 91 All ye beasts and cattell, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 92 O children of men, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 93 Let Israel blesse the Lord: praise him, and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 94 O Priests of the Lord, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him aboute all things for euer.
 95 O seruants of the Lord, blesse ye the Lord: praise praise him, and exalt him about all things for euer.

86 O spirits and soules of the righteous, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him about all things for euer.

87 O Saints and humble of heart, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him about all things for euer.

88 O Ananias, Azarias, and Misael, blesse ye the Lord: praise him, and exalt him about all things for euer.

uer: for he hath deliuered vs from the hell, and saued vs from the hand of death, and deliuered vs out of the mids of the furnace and burning flame: euen out of the mids of the fire hath he deliuered vs.

89 Confesse vnto the Lord that he is gracious: for his mercy endureth for euer.

90 All ye that worship the Lord, blesse the God of gods: praise him, and acknowledge him: for his mercy endureth world without end.

¶ THE HISTORIE OF || S V S A N N A, WHICH SOME ioyne to the end of Daniel, and make it the xij. Chapter.

8 The two gouernours are taken with the loue of Sufanna. 19 They take her alone in the garden. 20 They sollicite her to wickednesse. 23 She chuseth rather to obey God, though it be to the danger of her life. 34 She is accused. 45 Daniel doeth deliuer her. 62 The gouernours are put to death.

Here dwelt a man in Babylon, called Ioachim,
2 And hee tooke a wife whose name was Sufanna, the daughter of Helcias, a very faire woman, and one that feared God.

3 Her father and her mother also were godly people, and taught their daughter according to the Law of Moyses.

4 Now Ioachim was a great rich man, and had a faire garden ioyning vnto his house, and to him resorted the Iewes, because he was more honourable then all others.

5 The same yeere was appointed two of the ancients of the people to be Iudges, such as the Lord speaketh of, that the iniquitie came from Babylon and from the ancient Iudges, which seemed to rule the people.

6 These haunted Ioachims house, and all such as had any thing to doe in the Law, came thither vnto them.

7 Now when the people departed away at noone, Sufanna went into her husbands garden to walke.

8 And the two Elders saw her that she went in dayly and walked, so that their lust was inflamed toward her.

9 Therefore they turned away their minde, and cast downe their eyes that they should not see heaven, nor remember iust iudgements.

10 And albeit they were both wounded with her loue, yet durst not one shew another his griefe.

11 For they were ashamed to declare their lust, that they desired to haue to doe with her.

12 Yet they watched diligently from day to day, to see her.

13 And the one said to the other, Let vs goe now home, for it is dinner time.

14 So they went their way, and departed one from another, yet they returned againe, and came into the same place, and after that they had asked one another cause, they acknowledged their lust: then appointed they a time both together, when they might find her alone.

15 Now when they had spied out a conuenient time, that she went in, as her manner was, with two maydes onely, and thought to wash her selfe in the garden (for it was an hote season)

16 And there was no body there save the two Elders that had hid themselves, and watched for her. 17 She said to her maids, Bring me oyle & sope, and shut the garden doores, that I may wash me.

18 And they did as she bade them, and shut the garden doores, and went out themselves at a backe doore, to see the thing that she had commaunded them: but they saw not the Elders, because they were hid.

19 Now when the maids were gone forth, the two Elders rose vp, and ran vnto her, saying, 20 Behold, the garden doores are shut, that no man can see vs, and wee burne in loue with thee: therefore consent vnto vs, and lie with vs.

21 If thou wilt not we will beare witness against thee, that a yong man was with thee, and therefore thou didst send away thy maids from thee.

22 Then Sufanna sighted, and said, I am in trouble on euery side: for if I doe this thing, it is death vnto me; and if I doe it not, I cannot escape your hands.

23 It is better for me to fall into your hands, and not doe it, then to sinne in the sight of the Lord.

24 With that Sufanna cryed with a loud voyce, and the two Elders cryed out against her.

25 Then ranne the one, and opened the garden doore.

26 ¶ So when the seruants of the house heard the crye in the garden, they rushed in as the backe doore, to see what was done vnto her.

27 But when the Elders had declared their matter, the seruants were greatly ashamed: for there was neuer such a report made of Sufanna.

28 On the morrow after, came the people to Ioachim her husband, and the two Elders came also full of mischieuous imagination against Sufanna, to put her to death.

29 And said before the people, Send for Sufanna, the daughter of Helcias Ioachims wife. And immediately they sent.

30 So she came with her father and mother, her children, and all her kindred.

31 Now Sufanna was very tender & faire of face. 32 And these wicked men commanded to vncouer her face (for she was couered) that they might be satisfied with her beaultie.

33 Therefore they that were about her, and all they that knew her, wept.

34 Then the two Elders stood vp in the mids of the people, and laid their hands vpon her head.

35 Which wept, and looked vp toward heauen for her heart trusted in the Lord.

36 And the Elders said, As we walked in the garden alone, she came in with two maids, whom she sent away from her, and shut the garden doores.

37 Then a yong man which there was hid, came vnto her, and lay with her.

38 Then we which stood in a corner of the garden, seeing this wickednesse, ranne vnto them, and we saw them as they were together, 39 But we could not hold him: for he was stronger then we, and opened the doore and leaped out.

40 Now when we had taken this woman, we asked her what yong man this was, but she would not tell vs: of these things are we witnesses.

41 Then the assembly beleuened them, as those that were the Elders and Iudges of the people: so they condemned her to death.

42 Then Susanna cryed out with a loud voyce, and sayd, O everlasting God, that knowest the secrets, and knowest all things before they come to passe, 43 Thou knowest that they haue borne false witness against me, and behold, I must die, whereas I neuer did such things as these men haue maliciously imputed against me.

44 And the Lord heard her voyce.

45 ¶ Therefore when he was led to be put to death, the Lord raised vp the holy spirit of a yong childe, whose name was Daniel, 46 Who cryed with a loud voyce, I am cleane from the blood of this woman.

47 Then all the people turned them toward him, and saide, What meane these wordes that thou hast spoken?

48 Then Daniel stood in the mids of them, and said, Are ye such fooles, O Israelites, that without examination or knowledge of the truth, yee haue condemned a daughter of Israel?

49 Returne againe to iudgement: for they haue borne false witness against her.

50 Wherefore the people turned againe in all haste, and the Elders said vnto him, Come, sit downe among vs, and shew it vs, seeing God hath giuen thee the Office of an Elder.

51 Then said Daniel vnto them, Put these two aside, one farre from another, and I will examine them.

52 So when they were put asunder one from another, he called one of them, & said vnto him, O thou that art old in a wicked life, now thy sinnes which thou hast committed aforetime, are come to light.

53 For thou hast pronounced false iudgements, and hast condemned the innocent, and hast let the guilty goe free, albeit the Lord saith, *The innocent and righteous shalt thou not slay.

54 Now then if thou hast seene her, tell me, Vnder what tree sawest thou them companying together? Who answered, vnder a lentiske tree.

55 Then said Daniel, Verily thou hast lied against thine owne head: For loe, the Angel of God hath received the sentence of God to cut thee in two.

56 So he put him aside, and commanded to bring the other, and said vnto him, O thou seed of Canaan, and not of Iuda, beautie hath deceiued thee, and lust hath subuerted thine heart.

57 Thus haue ye dealt with the daughters of Israel, and they for feare companied with you: but the daughter of Iuda would not abide your wickednesse.

58 Now therefore tell me, Vnder what tree didst thou take them companying together? Who answered, vnder a Prime tree.

59 Then Daniel said vnto him, Verily thou hast also lied against thine head: for the Angel of God waiteth with the sword to cut thee in two, and so to destroy you both.

60 ¶ With that all the whole assembly cryed with a loude voyce, and praised God, which sauteh them that trust in him.

61 And they arose against the two Elders, (for Daniel had confuted them of false witness by their owne mouth)

62 *And according to the Lawes of Moyses, they dealt with them, as they dealt wickedly against their neighbour, and put them to death. Thus the innocent blood was sau'd the same day.

63 Therefore Helcias and his wife prayed God for their daughter Susanna, with Iocaim her husband, and all the kinned, that there was no dishonestie found in her.

64 From that day forth was Daniel had in great reputation in the sight of the people.

65 And king Astiages was laid with his fathers, and Cyrus of Persia reigned in his stead.

THE HISTORIE OF BEL AND OF THE DRAGON, which is the 14. Chapter of Daniel after the Latine.

NOwe when king Astiages was layd with his fathers, Cyrus the Persian received his kingdome.

2 And Daniel did eate at the kings table, and was honoured aboue all his friends.

3 Now the Babylonians had an idole called Bel, and there were spent vpon him every day, twelue great measures of fine flour, and fortie sheepe, and sixe great pots of wine.

4 And the king worshipped it, and went daily to honour it, but Daniel worshipped his own God. And the king said vnto him, Why doest thou not worship Bel?

5 Who answered and said, Because I may not worship idols made with hands, but the liuing God which hath created the heauen and the earth, and hath power vpon all flesh.

6 Then said the king vnto him, Thinkest thou not that Bel is a liuing god? seest thou not howe much he eateth and drucketh every day?

7 Then Daniel smiled, and said, O King be not deceiued: for this is but clay within, and brasie without, and did neuer eat any thing.

8 So the king was wroth, and called for his Priests, and said vnto them, If yee tell me not who this is that eateth vp these expences, yee shall die.

9 But if ye can certifie me that Bel eateth them, then Daniel shall die: for hee hath spoken blasphemie against Bel. And Daniel said vnto the king, Let it be according to thy word.

10 (Now the Priests of Bel were threescore and ten, beside their wives and children) and the king went with Daniel into the Temple of Bel.

11 So Bels priests said, Behold we will goe out, and set thou the meate there, O king, and let the wine be filled: then shut the doore fast, and scale it with thine owne signet.

12 And to morrow when thou comest in, if thou findest not that Bel hath eaten vp all, wee will suffer death, or els Daniel that hath lied vpon vs.

13 Now they thought themselves sure enough:

Y u a for

for vnder the table they had made a priuy entrance, and there went they in euery, and tooke away the things.

14 So when they were gone forth, the king set meates before Bel. Now Daniel had commanded his seruants to bring aibes, and these they strowed thorowout all the temple, in the presence of the king alone: then they went out, and shut the doore, and sealed it with the kings signet, and so departed.

15 Now in the night came the priests, with their wiues and children (as they were wont to doe) and did eate and drinke vp all.

16 In the morning betimes, the king arose, and Daniel with him.

17 And the king said, Daniel, are the seales whole? Who answered, Yea, O king, they be whole.

18 And as soon as he had opened the doore, the king looked vpon the table, and cryed with a loud voice, Great art thou, O Bel, and with thee is no deceit.

19 Then laughed Daniel, and held the king that he should not go in, and said, Behold now the punishment, and marke well whose footsteps are these.

20 And the king said, I see the footsteps of men, women and children: therefore the king was angry, 21 And tooke the Priests with their wiues, and children, and they shewed him the priue doores where they came in, and consumed such things as were vpon the table.

22 Therefore the king slew them, and deliuered Bel into Daniels power, who destroyed him and his temple.

23 ¶ Moreover, in that same place there was a great dragon which the Babylonians worshipped.

24 And the king said vnto Daniel, Sayst thou that this is of brass also? lo, he liueth, and eateth and drinketh, so that thou canst not say that hee is no liuing god: therefore worship him.

25 Then said Daniel vnto the king, I will worship the Lord my God: for he is the liuing God.

26 But giue me leave, O king, and I will slay this dragon without sword or staffe. And the king said, I giue thee leave.

27 Then Daniel tooke pitch, and fat, and haire, and did seeth them together, & made lumps thereof: this hee put in the dragons mouth, and so the dragon burst in sunder. And Daniel said, Beholde whom ye worship.

28 When the Babylonians heard it, they were wonderfull wroth, and gathered them together against the king, saying, The king is become a lew: for he hath destroyed Bel, and hath slaine the Dragon, and put the priests to death.

29 So they came to the king, and said, Deliuer vs Daniel, or els we will destroy thee and thine house.

30 Nowe when the king sawe that they pressed fore vpon him, and that necessitie constrained him, he deliuered Daniel vnto them:

31 Who call him into the lions denne, where he was sixe dayes.

32 In the den there were seven lions, and they had giuen them euery day two bodies, and two sheepe, which then were not giuen them, to the intent that they might deuoure Daniel.

33 ¶ Now there was in Iewrie a Prophet called Abbacuc, which had made pottage, and broken bread into a boll, and was going into the field for to bring it to the reapers.

34 But the Angel of the Lord said vnto Abbacuc, Go carry the meat that thou hast into Babylon, vnto Daniel which is in the lions den.

35 And Abbacuc said, I neuer saw Babylon, neither doe I know where the den is.

36 Then the Angel tooke him by the crowne of the head, and bare him by the haire of the head, and through a mightie wind set him in Babylon vpon the den.

37 And Abbacuc cried, saying, O Daniel, Daniel, take the dinner that God hath sent thee.

38 Then said Daniel, O God, thou hast thought vpon mee, and thou neuer failest them that seeke thee and loue thee.

39 So Daniel arose and did eate, and the Angel of the Lord set Abbacuc in his owne place againe immediatly.

40 Vpon the seuenth day, the king went to bewaile Daniel, and when he came to the denne, he looked in, and behold, Daniel sate in the middes of the lions.

41 Then cried the king with a loud voice, saying, Great art thou, O Lord God of Daniel, and there is none other besides thee.

42 And he drew him out of the denne, and call them that were the cause of his destruction into the denne, and they were deuoured in a moment before his face.

¶ THE FIRST BOOKE OF THE MACCABEES.

CHAP. I.

8 The death of Alexander the king of Macedonia.
11 Antiochus taketh the kingdome. 12 Many of the children of Israel make couenant with the Gentiles.
21 Antiochus subdueth Egypt and Jerusalem vnto his dominion, 30 Antiochus setteth up idoles.

After that Alexander the Macedonian, the sonne of Philip, went forth of the land of Chettim, and slewe Darius king of the Persians and Medes, and reigned for him, as hee had before in Grecia,

1 Hee tooke great warres in hand, and wanne strong holds, and slew the kings of the earth.

3 So went he thorow to the ends of the world, and tooke spoiles of many nations, in somuch that the world stood in awe of him: therefore his heart was puffed vp and was haury

4 Now when he had gathered a mighty strong holte,

5 And had reigned ouer regions, nations and kingdomes, they became tributaries vnto him.

6 After these things he fell sicke, and knew that he should die.

7 Then he called for the chiefe of his seruants, which had been brought vp with him of children, and parted his kingdome among them while hee was yet aliue.

8 So Alexander had reigned twelue yeres when he died.

9 And his seruants reigned euery one in his roum

10 And they all caused themselves to bee crowned after his death, and so did their children after them many yeres, and much wickednesse increased in the world.

11 For out of these came the wicked roote, from Antiochus.

Antiochus | Epiphanes, the sonne of king Antiochus, which had bene an hostage at Rome, and hee reigned in the hundreth and seven and thirtieth yere of the kingdome of the Greekes.

12 In those dayes went there out of Israel wicked men, which inticed many, saying, Let vs goe, and make a covenant with the heathen, that are round about vs: for since we departed from them, we haue had much sorow.

13 So this denie pleased them well.

14 And certaine of the people were ready, and went to the king, which gaue them license to doe after the ordinances of the heathen.

15 Then set they vp a place of exercise at Ierusalem according to the fashions of the heathen, 16 And made themselves vncircumcised, & forsooke the holy Covenant, and ioyned themselves to the heathen, and were sold to do mischief.

17 So when Antiochus kingdome was set in order, he went about to reigne ouer Egypt, that hee might haue the dominion of two Realmes.

18 Therefore he entred into Egypt with a mighty company, with chariots and Elephants, and with horsemen, and with a great Nauie, 19 And moued warre against Ptolomeus King of Egypt, but Ptolomeus was afraid of him and fled, and many were wounded to death.

20 Thus Antiochus wanne many strong cities in the land of Egypt, and tooke away the spoiles of the land of Egypt.

21 And after that Antiochus had smitten Egypt, he turned againe in the hundreth fourty and three yere, 22 And went vp toward Israel and Ierusalem with a mighty people,

23 And entred proudly into the Sanctuary, and tooke away the golden Altar, and the candlestick for the light, and all the instruments thereof, and the Table of the Shewbread, and the powring vessels, and the bowles, and the golden basins, and the vail, and the crownes, and the golden apparell, which was before the Temple, and brake all in pieces.

24 Hee tooke also the silver and golde, and the precious iewels, and hee tooke the secret treasures that he found, and when he had taken away all, he departed into his owne land, 25 After hee had murdered many men, and spoken very proudly.

26 Therefore there was a great lamentation in every place of Israel.

27 For the princes and the Elders mourned: the young women, & the young men were made feeble, and the beauty of the women was changed.

28 Every bridegrome tooke him to mourning, and thee that sate in the marriage chamber, was in heavinesse.

29 The land also was moued for the inhabitants thereof: for all the house of Iacob was couered with confusion.

30 After two yeeeres, the king sent his chiefe tax master into the cities of Iuda, which came to Ierusalem with a great multitude, 31 Who spake peaceable words vnto them in deceit, and they gaue credit vnto him.

32 Then hee fell suddenly vpon the citie, and smote it with a great plague, and destroyed much people of Israel.

33 And when he had spoyled the citie, he set fire on it, casting downe the houses thereof, and wals thereof on euery side.

34 The women and their children tooke they captiue, and led away the cattell.

35 Then fortified they the city of David with a great and thicke wall, and with mightie towers, and made it a strong hold for them.

36 Moreover, they set wicked people there, and vngodly persons, and fortified themselves therein.

37 And they stored it with weapons and vitayles, and gathered the spoile of Ierusalem, and laid it vp there.

38 Thus became they a fore snare, and were in ambushment for the Sanctuary, and were wicked enemies euermore vnto Israel.

39 For they shed innocent blood on euery side of the Sanctuary and defiled the Sanctuary, 40 In so much that the citizens of Ierusalem fled away because of them, and it became an habitation of strangers, being desolate of them whom thee had borne: for her owne children did leaue her.

41 Her Sanctuary was left waste as a wilderness: her holy dayes were turned into mourning, her sabbaths into reproch, and her honour brought to nought.

42 As her glory had been great, so was her dishonour, and her excellencie was turned into sorow.

43 Also the king wrote vnto all his kingdome, That all the people should be as one, and that euery man should leaue his lawes.

44 And all the heathen agreed to the commandement of the King.

45 Yea, many of the Israelites consented to his religion, offering vnto idoles, and defiling the Sabbath.

46 So the king sent letters by the messengers vnto Ierusalem, and to the cities of Iuda, that they should follow the strange lawes of the countrey,

47 And if they should forbid the burnt offerings and sacrifices, and the offerings in the Sanctuary,

48 And that they should defile the Sabbaths and the feasts,

49 And pollute the Sanctuary and the holy men, 50 And to set vp altars, and groves, and chapels of idoles, and offer vp swines flesh, and vncleane beasts,

51 And that they should leaue their children vncircumcised, and defile their soules with vncleannesse, and pollute themselves, that they might forget the Law, and change all the ordinances, 52 And that whosoever would not doe according to the commandement of the King, should suffer death.

53 In like manner wrote hee thorowout all his kingdomes, and set ouerseers ouer all the people, for to compell them to doe these things.

54 And he commanded the cities of Iuda to doe sacrifice, citie by citie.

55 Then went many of the people vnto them by heapes, euery one that forooke the Law, and so they committed euill in the land.

56 And they drue the Israelites into secret places, euen wheresoeuer they could flee for succour.

57 The fifteenth day of Calles, in the hundred and five and fortieth yere, they set vp the abomination of desolation vpon the altar, and they builded altars thorowout the cities of Iuda on euery side.

58 And before the doores of the houses, and in the streets they burnt incense.

59 And the bookes of the Law which they found, they burnt in the fire, and cut in peeces.

60 Whosoever had a booke of the Testament found by him, or whosoever consented vnto the Lawe, the Kings commandement was, that they should put him to death by their authoritie.

61 And they executed these things euery moneth that we die not all, as our brethern that were murdered in the secret places.

42 Then came vnto them the assembly of the Aſideans which were of the strongest men of Israel, all such as were well minded toward the Law.

43 And all they that were fled for persecution ioyned themselves vnto them, and were an helpe vnto them.

44 So they gathered a power, and smote the wicked men in their wrath, and the vngodly in their anger: but the rest fled vnto the heathen, and escaped.

45 Then Mattathias and his friends went about, and destroyed the altars, 46 And circumcised the children by force that were vncircumcised, as many as they found within the coasts of Israel.

47 And they pursued after the proud men and this ade prospered in their hands.

48 So they recovered the Lawe out of the hand of the Gentiles, and out of the hand of kings, and gae not place to the wicked.

49 Now when the time drew neere that Mattathias should die, hee said vnto his sonnes. Now is pride and persecution increased, and the time of destruction, and the wrath of indignation.

50 Now therefore, my sonnes, be ye zealous of the Lawe, and gae your liues for the Couenant of our fathers.

51 Call to remembrance what actes our fathers did in their time: to shall ye receiue great honour and an euermlasting name.

52 *Was not Abraham found faithfull in temptation, & it was imputed vnto him for righteousness?

53 *Ioseph in the time of his trouble kept the Commandement, and was made the lord of Egypt.

54 *Phineas our father because hee was zealous and seruent, obtained the Couenant of the euermlasting Priesthood.

55 *Iesus for fulfilling the word, was made the gouernour of Israel.

56 *Caleb, because hee bare witness before the congregation, receiued the heritage of the land.

57 *David because of his mercy, obtained the throne of the kingdom for evermore.

58 *Elias, because hee was zealous and seruent in the Law, was taken vp euen vnto heauen.

59 *Ananias, Azarias, and Misael, by their faith were deliuered out of the flame.

60 *Daniel, because of his innocencie, was deliuered from the mouth of the Lions.

61 And thus yee may consider thorowout all ages, that whosoever put their trust in him, shall not want strength.

62 *Feare not yee then the words of a sinnefull man: for his glory is but dung and wormes.

63 To day is hee set vp, and to morow he shall not be found: for hee is turned into his dust, and his purpose periseth.

64 Wherefore, my sonnes, take good hearts and shew your selues men for the Law: for by it shall you obtaine glory.

65 And behold, I know that your brother Simon is a man of counsell: gae care vnto him alway: hee shall be a father vnto you.

66 And Iudas Maccabeus hath bene mighty and strong euen from his youth vp: let him be your captain, and fight you the battell for the people.

67 Thus shall yee bring vnto you all those that obserue the Lawe, and shall auenge the iniuries of your people.

68 Recompensfully the heathen, and gae your selues to the commandement of the Law.

69 So he blessed them, and was laid with his fathers,

70 And died in the hundred forty and sixe yere, and his sonnes buried him in his fathers sepulchre at Modin: and all Israel made great lamentation for him.

C H A P. III.

1 Iudas is made ruler over the Iewes. 11 He killeth Apollonius and Seron the princes of Syria. 44 The confidence of Iudas toward God. 55 Iudas determineth to fight against Lyſias, whome Antiochus had made capitaine over his hoste.

Then Iudas his sonne, called Maccabeus, rose vp in his place,

2 And all his brethern helped him, and all they that held with his father, and fought with courage the battell of Israel.

3 So hee gate his people great honour: hee put on a breastplate as a giant, and armed himselfe, and set the battell in aray, and defended the campe with the sword.

4 In his acts he was like a Lion, and as a Lions whelp roaring after the pray.

5 For hee pursued the wicked, and sought them out, and burnt vp those that vexed his people.

6 So that the wicked fled for feare of him, and all the workers of iniquitie were put to trouble: and saluation prospered in his hand.

7 And hee grieved diuers kings, but Iakob reioyced by his acts, & his memoriall is blessed for euer.

8 He went also thorow the cities of Iuda, and destroyed the wicked out of them, and turned away the wrath from Israel.

9 So was hee renowned vnto the eades of the earth, and hee assembled together those that were ready to perish.

10 But Apollonius gathered the Gentiles, and a great host out of Samaria, to fight against Israel.

11 Which when Iudas perceived, he went forth to meete him, and smote him, and slew him, so that many fell downe slaine, and the rest fled.

12 So Iudas tooke their spoiles, and tooke also Apollonius sword, and fought with it all his life long.

13 ¶ Now when Seron a prince of the army of Syria heard that Iudas had gathered vnto him the Congregation and Church of the faithfull, & went forth to the warre, 14 He said, I will get me a name, and wil be glorious in the realme: for I will goe fight with Iudas, and them that are with him, which haue despised the Kings commandement.

15 So he made him ready to go vp, & there went with him a mighty hoste of the vngodly to helpe him, and to be auenged of the children of Israel.

16 And when he came neere to the going vp of Beth-horon, Iudas went forth to meete him with a small company.

17 But when they sawe the armie comming against them, they said to Iudas, How are we able, being so few, to fight against so great a multitude, and so strong, seeing we be sowary, and haue fasted all this day?

18 Then said Iudas, It is an easie thing for many to be shut vp in the hands of few, How are we able, difference before the God of heauen to deliuer by a great multitude, or by a small company.

19 For the victory of the battell standeth not in the multitude of the hoste, but the strength cometh from heauen.

20 They come against vs with a cruel and prond multitude, multitude to destroy vs, and our wiues, and our children, and to rob vs.

21 But we do fight for our liues, & for our lawes,

22 And God himselfe will destroy them before our face: therefore be not ye afraid of them.

23 And when hee had left off speaking, he leapt suddenly vpon them: so was Seron and his hoste destroyed before him.

24 And they pursued them from the going down of Beth-horon vnto the plaine: where there were slaine eight hundred men of them, and the residue fled into the land of the Philistims.

25 Then the feare and terrour of Iudas and his brethren fell vpon the nations round about.

26 So that his fame came vnto the king: for all the Gentiles could tell of the warres of Iudas.

27 ¶ But when King Antiochus heard these tidings, he was angry in his minde, wherefore he sent forth, and gathered all the power of his realme, a very strong armie.

28 And opened his treasure, and gaue his hoste a yeres wages in hand, commanding them to bee readie for a yere for all occasions.

29 Nevertheless, when he saw that the money of his treasures failed, & that the tributes in the country were small, because of the dissention & plagues that he had brought vpon the land, in taking away the lawes which had bene of olde time,

30 He feared lest he should not haue now at the second time as at the first, for the charges and gifts that he had giuen with a liberall hand atore: for in liberalitie, he farre passed the other kings that were before him.

31 Wherefore he was heauie in his minde, and thought to goe into Persia, for to take tributes of the countries, and to gather much money.

32 So he left Lyfias a noble man, & of the kings blood to ouerse the kings businesse, from the riuer of Euphrates vnto the borders of Egypt, 33 And to bring vp his sonne Antiochus till hee came againe.

34 Moreouer he gaue him halfe of his hoste, and elephants, and gaue him the charge of all things that he would haue done,

35 And concerning those which dwelt in Iudea and Ierusalem, that he should send an armie against them to destroy and roote out the power of Israel, and the remnant of Ierusalem, and to put out their memoriall from that place, 36 And to set strangers for to inhabite all their quarters, and part their land among them.

37 And the king tooke the halfe of the host that remained, and departed from Antiochia his royall city in the yere an hundredth fortie and seuen, and passed the riuer Euphrates, and went thorow the high countries.

38 Then Lyfias chose Ptolemus the sonne of Durimius, and Nicanor, and Gorgias, mightie men, and the kings friends.

39 And sent with them fortie thousand footmen and seuen thousand horsemen, to goe into the land of Iuda, and to destroy it as the king commanded.

40 So they went forth with all their power, and came and pitched by ¶ Emmaus in the plaine country.

41 Now when the merchants of the country heard the rumour of them, they tooke very much siluer and golde, and seruants, and came into the campe to buy the children of Israel for slanes, and the strength of Syria, and of strange nations ioyned with them.

42 ¶ Now when Iudas and his brethren saw that trouble increased, and that the host drew neere vnto their borders, considering the kings wordes, whereby he had commanded to destroy the people, and utterly abolish them, 43 They said one to another, Let vs redresse the decay of our people, and let vs fight for our people, and for our Sanctuarie.

44 Then the Congregation were soone ready gathered to fight, and to pray, and to desire mercie and compasison.

45 As for Ierusalem, it was not inhabited, but was as a wilderness. There went none that was borne in it, in or out at it, and the Sanctuarie was troden downe, and the strangers kept the fornesse, and it was the habitation of the heathens: and the mirth of Iacob was taken away: the pipe and the harpe ceased.

46 So they gathered themselves together, and came to Mafsa before Ierusalem: for in Mafsa was ¶ place where they prayed aforetime in Irael.

47 And they fasted that day, and put sackcloth vpon them, and cast ashes vpon their heads, and rent their clothes,

48 And opened ¶ booke of the Law, wherein the heathen sought to paint the likeness of their idola, 49 And brought the Priests garments, and the first fruites, and the tithes, and let there the Nazza-rites, which accomplished their dayes.

50 And they cryed with a loud voice toward heaven, saying, What shall we doe with these? and whither shall we carry them away?

51 For thy Sanctuarie is troden downe & defiled, and thy Priests are in heauinesse, & brought downe.

52 And behold, the heathen are come against vs to destroy vs: thou knowest what things they imagine against vs.

53 How can we stand before them, except thou helpe vs?

54 Then they blew the trumpets, and cryed with a loud voice.

55 And after this Iudas ordained captaines ouer the people, euen captaines ouer thousands, and captaines ouer hundreds, and captaines ouer fifties, and captaines ouer ten.

56 And they commaunded them that builded houses, or married wiues, or planted vineyards, or were fearefull, that they should returne euery one to his owne house, according to the Lawes.

57 So the hoste remoued, and pitched vpon the South side of Emmaus.

58 And Iudas said, Arme your selues, and be valiant men, and be ready against the morning to fight with these nations which are gathered together against vs, to destroy vs and our Sanctuarie.

59 For it is better for vs to die in battell then to see the calamities of our people, & of our sanctuarie.

60 Neuertheless, as the will of God is in heaven, so be it.

C H A P. IIII.

1 Iudas goeth against Gorgias, which heeth in wait.

2 He putteth Gorgias and his hoste to flight. 3 Lyfias inuadeth Iuda, 4 but Iudas drineth him out.

5 Iudas purifieth the temple, & dedicateth the altar.

6 Then tooke Gorgias five thousand foot men, and a thousand of the best horsemen, and departed out of the campe by night.

7 To inuade the campe of the Iewes, and to slay them suddenly: and the men of the fortesse were his guides.

8 Now when Iudas heard it, he remoued, and they that were valiant men, to smite the Kings armie which was at Emmaus, 4 Whiles yet the armie was disperfed from the campe.

5 In the meane feafon came Gorgias by night into Iudas campe: & when he found no man there, he fought them in the mountaines: for, faid he, they flee from vs.

6 But alfoone as it was day, Iudas fhewed himfelfe in the field with three thoufand men which had neither harneffe nor fwords to their mindes.

7 And they faw that the armies of the heathen were ftrong and well armed, and their horfemen about them, & that thefe were expert men of warre.

8 Then faid Iudas to the men that were with him, Feare ye not their multitude, neither be afraid of their affault.

9 Remember how our fathers were deliuered Exo. 14 * in the red fea, when Pharaoh purfued them with an armie.

10 Now therefore let vs crie vnto heauen, and the Lord will haue mercie vpon vs, and remember the covenant of our fathers, and will deftroy this holfe before our face this day.

11 So fhall all the heathen know that there is one which deliuereth and faveth Ifrael.

12 Then the ftrangers lift vp their eyes, and faw them comming againft them.

13 And they went out of their tents into the battell, and they that were with Iudas blew the trumpets.

14 So they ioyed together, & the heathen were difcomfited, and fled by the plaine.

15 But the hifmofed of them fell by the fword, Exo. 14 and they purfued them vnto Exo. 14 Gazeron, and into the plaines of Idumea, and of Azotus, and of Iamnia, fo that there were flaine of them about three thoufand men.

16 So Iudas turned againe with his hofte from purfuing them, 17 And faid vnto the people, Be not greedie of the fpoiles: for there is a battell before vs.

18 And Gorgias and the armie is here by vs in the mountaine: but ftand ye now faft againft your enemies, and ouercome them: then may yee fafely take the fpoiles.

19 As Iudas was fpeaking thefe words, there appeared one part which looked from the mountaine.

20 But when Gorgias faw that his were fled, and that Iudas fouldiers burnt the tents: (for the fmoke that was feene declared what was done.)

21 When they faw thefe things, they were fore afraid, and when they faw alfo that Iudas & his hofte were in the field ready to fet themfelves in aray, 22 They fledde euery one into the land of ftrangers.

23 So Iudas turned againe to fpoile the tents, where he gat much golde and filuer, and precious ftones, and purple of the fea, and greit riches.

24 Thus they went home, and fong Pfalmes, and praifed toward the heauen: for he is gracious, and his mercie endureth for euer.

25 And fo Ifrael had a great victorie in that day.

26 ¶ Now all the ftrangers that efaped, came and tolde Iyfas all the things that were done.

27 Who when he heard thefe things, was fore afraid and difcouraged: becaufe fuch things came not vpon Ifrael as he would, neither fuch things as the king had commanded him, came to paffe.

28 Therefore the next yeere following, gathered Iyfas threefcore thoufand chofen Exo. 14 men, and five thoufand horfemen to fight againft Ierufalem.

29 So they came into Exo. 14 Idumea and pitched their tents at Bethfura, where Iudas came againft them with ten thoufand men.

30 And when he faw that mightie army, he prayed, and faid, Bleffed bee thou, O Sauour of Ifrael, * which diddeft deftroy the affault of the mightie man by the hand of thy feruant Dauid, * and gaueft 2 Sam. 17 the holfe of the ftrangers into the hand of Jonathan 2 Sam. 17 the fonne of Saul, and of his armour bearer: 2 Sam. 17 13, 14.

31 Shut vp this armie in the hand of thy people of Ifrael, and let them be confounded with their power and with their horfemen.

32 Make them afraid, and confume their boldneffe and ftrength, that they may be aftonifhed at their deftruction.

33 Caft them downe by the fword of them that loue thee: then fhall all they that know thy name, praife thee with fongs.

34 So they ioyed together, & there were flaine of Iyfas hofte five thoufand men, and they fell before them.

35 Then Iyfas feeing his armie put to flight, and the manliueffe of Iudas fouldiers, and that they were readie either to liue or die valiantly, he went into Antiochia, and gathered ftrangers, and when he had furnifhed his armie, he thought againe (being prepared) to come againft Iudea.

36 Then faid Iudas and his brethren, Behold, our enemies are difcomfited, let vs now go vp to cleme, and to repaire the Sanctuarie.

37 So all the holfe gathered them together, and went vp into the mountaine of Sion.

38 Now when they fawe the Sanctuarie laide wafte, and the Altar defiled, and the doores burnt vp, and the fhubs growing in the courts, as in a foreft, or as on one of the mountaines, and that the Priells chambers were broken downe,

39 They rent their clothes, and made great lamentation, and caft afhes vpon their heads, 40 And fell downe to the ground on their faces, and blew an alarme with the trumpets, and cryed toward heauen.

41 Then Iudas commanded certaine of the men to fight againft thofe which were in the cafle, till he had cleafed the Sanctuarie.

42 So he chofe Priells that were vndefiled, fuch as delighted in the Law.

43 And they clenfed the Sanctuarie, and bare out the defiled ftones into an vnclene place, 44 And confulted what to doe wih the Altar of burnt offerings, which was polluted.

45 So they thought it was beft to deftroy it, left it fhould be a reproch vnto them, becaufe the heathen had defiled it: therefore they deftroyed the Altar, 46 And laid vp the ftones vpon the mountaine of the Temple, in a conuenient place, till there fhould come a Prophet, to fhewe what fhould be done with them.

47 So they tooke whole ftones, according to the Law, and builded a new Altar, according to the former.

48 And made vp the Sanctuarie, and the things that were within the Temple, and the courts, and all things.

49 They made alfo new holy veffels, & brought into the Temple the candleft cke, and the Altar of burnt offerings and of incenfe, and the Table, 50 And they burnt incenfe vpon the Altar, and lighted the lampes which were vpon the candlefticke: that they might burne in the Temple.

51 They fet alfo the fhewbread vpon the Table, and hanged vp the vafles, and finifhed all the works that they had begun to make.

52 And vpon the five and twentieth day of the ninth ninth moneth, which is called the moneth of Chassan, in the hundredth and eight and fourtieth yeere they rose vp betimes in the morning, 53 And offered sacrifice according to the Lawe, vpon the new altar of burnt offerings that they had made.

54 According to the time, and according to the day that the heathen had defiled it, in the same day was it made new with songs, and harpes, and lutes and cymbals.

55 And all the people fell vpon their faces, worshipping, and praising toward the heauen him that had giuen them good successe.

56 So they kept the dedication of the altar eight dayes, offering burnt offerings with gladnesse, and offered sacrifices of deliuerance and praise.

57 And deckt the forefront of the Temple with crownes of gold, and shields, & dedicated the gates and chambers, and hanged doores vpon them.

58 Thus there was very great gladnesse among the people, and the reproch of the heathen was put away.

59 So Iudas and his brethren, with the whole congregation of Israel, ordained that the dayes of dedication of the altar should be kept in their season from yeere to yeere by the space of eight dayes, from the five and twentie day of the moneth Chassan, with mirth and gladnesse.

60 And at the same time builded they vp mount Sion with hie wals and strong towres round about, lest the Gentiles should come, and tread it downe as they had done afore.

61 Therefore they set a garison there to keepe it, and fortified Bethsura to keepe it, that the people might haue a defence against Idumea.

CHAP. V.

Iudas vanquisheth the heathen that goe about to destroy Israel, & is helpe of his brethren Simon and Jonathan. 50 He ouerthroweth the cite of Ephron, because they denied him passage throu it.

NOW when the nations round about heard that the altar was builded, and the Sanctuary renewed as afore, they were fore grieved.

2 Therefore they thought to destroy the generation of Iacob that was among them, and began to slay and destroy the people.

Dr. Ar. Arabiane. 3 Then Iudas fought against the children of Esau in Idumea at Arabasene, because they besieged the Israelites, and he smote them with a great plague, and droue them to straits, and tooke their spoiles.

4 Hee thought also vpon the malice of the children of Ben, which had bene a snare and an hindrance vnto the people, when they lay in waite for them in the high way.

5 Wherefore he shur them vp in towres, and besieged them, and destroyed them vtterly, and burnt their towres with fire, with all that were in them.

6 Afterward went hee against the children of Ammon, where hee found a mightie power, and a great multitude with Timotheus their captaine.

7 So he had many battels with them, but they were destroyed before him, and so hee discomfited them.

8 And tooke Gazer with the townes thereof, and so turned againe into Iudea.

9 ¶ Then the heathen that were in Galaad gathered them together against the Israelites that were in their quarters, to slay them: but they fled to the castle of Datheman:

10 And sent letters to Iudas and to his brethren, saying, The heathen that are about vs, are gathered against vs, to destroy vs, 11 And they make them ready for to come, and to take the fortresse whereunto we are fled, and Timotheus is captaine of their hoste.

12 Come now therefore, and deliuer vs out of their hands: for many of vs are slaine.

13 And all our brethren that were at Tubin, are slaine, and they haue taken away their wiues, and their children, and their goods, and destroyed there almost a thousand men.

14 While these letters were yet a reading, behold there came other messengers from Galile with their clothes rent, which told the same tidings, 15 And said that they of Ptolemais, and of Tyrus and of Sidon, and of all Galile of the Gentiles were gathered against them to destroy them.

16 When Iudas & the people heard these words, a great congregation came together to consult what they might do for their brethren that were in trouble, and whom they besieged.

17 Then said Iudas to Simon his brother, Chuse thee out men, and goe and deliuer thy brethren in Galile, and I and my brother Jonathan will go into the countrey of Galaad.

18 ¶ So he left Iosephus the sonne of Zacharias, and Azarias to be captaines of the people, and to keepe the remnant of the hoste in Iudea, 19 And commanded them, saying, Take the ouersight of this people, and make no warre against the heathen, vntill we come againe.

20 And vnto Simon were giuen three thousand men to go into Galile, and to Iudas eight thousand men for the countrey of Galaad.

21 Then went Simon into Galile, and gaue diuers battels to the heathen, and the heathen were discomfited by him.

22 And hee pursued them vnto the gates of Ptolemais: and there were slaine of the heathen almost three thousand men: so he tooke their spoiles.

23 Thus they rescued them that were in Galile, and in Arabas with their wiues, and their children, and all that they had, and brought them into Iudea with great ioy.

24 ¶ Iudas Maccabeus also, and his brother Jonathan went ouer Iorden, and traualled thre daies iourney in the wilderness, 25 Where they met with the Nabathites, who received them louingly, and told them enery thing that was done vnto their brethren in the countrey of Galaad.

26 And how that many of them were besieged in Bosorra, and Bosorin, Aleimis, Chashon, Magi, and Carnaim (all these cities are strong and great)

27 And that they were kept in other cities of Galaad, and to morrow they are appointed to bring their hoste vnto these forts, and to take them, and to destroy them all in one day.

28 So Iudas and his hoste turned in all haste by the way of the wilderness toward Bosorra, and wanne the city, and slew all the males with the edge of the sword, and tooke all their spoile, and set fire vpon the cite.

29 And in the night hee remooued from thence, and went toward the fortresse.

30 And betimes in the morning when they looked vp, behold, there was an innumerable people bearing ladders and instruments of warre to take the fort, and had assaulted them.

31 When Iudas saw that the battell was begun, and that the cry of the city went vp to heauen with trumpets, and a great sound, 32 Then he said vnto the army, Fight this day for your brethren.

33 So hee went forth behind them with three companies, and they blew the trumpets, and cryed with prayer.

34 Then the host of Timotheus knew that it was Maccabeus, & they fled from him, & he smote them with a great slaughter, so that there was killed of them the same day almost eight thousand men.

35 ¶ Then departed Iudas vnto Maspha, & laid siege vnto it, and wan it, and slew al the males thereof, and spoyled it, and set fire vpon it.

36 From thence went hee and tooke Chasbon, Moyed, and Bofor, and the other cities in Galaad.

37 After these things gathered Timotheus another host, & he camped before Raphon beyond the flood.

38 Now Iudas had sent to espie the host, & they brought him word againe, saying, All the heathen that be round about vs are gathered vnto him, and the host is very great.

39 And he hath hired the Arabians to help them, and they haue pitched their tents beyond the flood, and are ready to come and fight against thee, So Iudas went to meete them.

40 Then Timotheus saide vnto the captaines of his hoste, When Iudas and his hoste come neere the flood, if hee passe ouer first vnto vs, wee shall not bee able to withstand him: for hee will be too strong for vs.

41 But if hee be afraide, and campe beyond the flood, we will go ouer vnto him, and shall preuaile against him.

42 Now when Iudas came neere to the flood, he caused the gouernours of the people to remaine by the flood, and commanded them, saying Suffer now to pitch a tent but let euery man come to y battell.

43 So he went first ouer toward them, and al the people after him, and all the heathen were discomfited before him, and cast away their weapons, and fled into the temple that was at Carnaim.

44 Which city Iudas wan, and burnt the temple with all that were in it: so was Carnaim subdued and might not withstand Iudas.

45 ¶ Then Iudas gathered all the Israelites that were in the country of Galaad, from the least vnto the most, with their wives and their children, and their baggage, a very great hoste to come into the land of Iuda.

46 So they came vnto Ephron, which was a great city by the way and strongly defended: they could not passe, neither at the right hand nor at the left, but must go thorow it.

47 But they that were in the city shut themselves in, and stopped vp the gates with stones: and Iudas sent vnto them with peaceable words, saying, 48 Let vs passe thorow your land, that wee may goe into our owne country, and none shall hurt you: wee will but only goe thorow on foote: but they would not open vnto him.

49 Wherefore Iudas commanded a proclamation to be made thorowout the host, that euery man should assault it according to his standing.

50 So the valiant men set vpon it, and assaulted the citie all that day and all that night, and the citie was giuen ouer into his hands:

51 Who slew all the males with the edge of the sword, & destroyed it, and tooke the spoyle thereof, & went thorow the city ouer them that were slaine.

52 Then went they ouer Iorden into the great plaine before Bethsan.

53 And Iudas gathered together those that were behind and gaue the people good exhortation (all the way thorow, till they were come into the land of Iuda.

54 Thusthey went vp with ioy & gladnesse vnto mount Sion, where they offered burnt offerings, because there were none of them slaine, but came home againe in safety.

55 ¶ Now while Iudas and Ionathan were in the land of Galaad, and Simon their brother in Galile before Ptolemais, 56 Ioseph the sonne of Zacharias, and Azarias the captaines hearing of the valiant acts, and battels which they had achieved, sayd, 57 Let vs get vs a name also, and goe fight against the heathen that are round about vs.

58 So they gaue their host a commaundement, and went toward Iamnia.

59 But Gorgias and his men came out of the citie to fight against them.

60 And Ioseph and Azarias were put to flight, and pursued vnto the borders of Iudea: and there were slaine that day of the people of Israel about two thousand men: so that there was a great overthrow among the people of Israel, 61 Because they were not obedient vnto Iudas and his brethren, but thought to doe some valiant thing.

62 Also they came not of the stocke of these men by whose hands deliuerance was giuen to Israel.

63 But y man Iudas & his brethren were greatly commended in the fight of all Israel, & of all the heathen, wherefore their name was heard of.

64 And the people came vnto them, bidding them welcome.

65 Afterward went Iudas forth with his brethren, & fought against the children of Ean in the land toward the South, where he wan Hebron, and the towres thereof, & he destroyed the citie thereof, and burnt the towres thereof round about.

66 Then remoued hee to goe into the land of the strangers, and went thorow Samaria.

67 At the same time were the priests of the citie slaine in the battell, which would shew their valiantnesse, and went forth to battell without counsell: and when Iudas came to Azotus in the strangers land, hee brake downe their altars, and burnt with fire the images of their gods, and tooke away the spoyle of the citie, and came againe into the land of Iuda.

CHAP. VI.

1 Antiochus willing to take the citie of Elimis, is driven away of the currens. 8 He fildth into sickness and death. 17 His sonne Antiochus is made king. 24 The manner to prouoke Elephanis to fight. 43 Eleazar his valiant act. 48 The siege of Sion.

Nowe when king Antiochus trauielled thorow the high countreys, he heard that Elimis in y country of Persia was a citie greatly renowned for riches, silver and gold,

2 And that there was in it a very rich Temple, whereas were coverings of gold, coats armours, & harnesse which Alexander king of Macedonia the sonne of Philip (that reigned first in Grecia) had left there.

3 Wherefore he went about to take the citie, and to spoyle it, but hee was not able: for the citizens were warned of the matter,

4 And rose vp against him in battell, and hee fled and departed thence with great heauinesse, and came againe into Babylon.

5 Moreover, there came one which brought him tidings in the countrey of Persia, that y armies that went went against the land of Iuda, were driven away,

6 And that Lyfias which went fourth first with a great power, was driven away of the Iewes, and that they were made strong by the armour, and power, and diuers spoiles which they had gotten of the armies whom they had destroyed,

7 And that they had pulled downe the abomination which he had set vp vpon the altar at Ierusalem, and fenced the Sanctuary with high walles, as it was afore, and Beth-sura his citie.

8 So when the king had heard these words, hee was astonished and soie moued: therefore he laid him downe vpon his bed, and fell sicke for very sorrow, because it was not come to passe, as hee had thought.

9 And there continued he many dayes: for his griefe was euer more and more, so that hee saw hee must needs die.

10 Therefore he sent for all his friends, and said vnto them, The sleepe is gone from mine eyes, and mine heart faileth for very care.

11 And I thinke with my selfe, into what aduersitie am I come? and into what floods of misery am I fallen now, whereas aforetime I was in prosperity, and greatly set by, by reason of my power?

12 And now I do remember the euils that I haue done at Ierusalem: for I tooke all the vessels of gold and silver that were in it, and sent to destroy the inhabitants of Iuda without cause.

13 I knowe that these troubles are come vpon me for the same cause, and behold, I must die with great sorow in a strange land.

14 Then called he for Philip, one of his friends, whom he made ruler of all his realme, 15 And gaue him the crowne, and his robe, and the ring, that he should instruct his son Antiochus, and bring him vp, till he might reigne himselfe.

16 So king Antiochus died there in the hundred and fortie and nine yeere.

17 ¶ When Lyfias knew that the king was dead, he ordeined Antiochus his sonne (whom hee had brought vp) to reigne in his fathers stead, and called him Eupator.

18 Now they that were in the castle at Ierusalem, kept in the Iherusalem round about the Sanctuary, and fought alwayes their hurt, and the strengthening of the heathen.

19 Therefore Iudas thought to destroy them, and called all the people together to besiege them.

20 So they came together and besieged them in the hundredth and fiftie yeere, and made instruments of shoute, and other engines of warre.

21 But certaine of them which were besieged, gat forth (vnto whome some vngodly men of Israel ioyned themselves)

22 And they went vnto the king, saying, How long wilt thou crale from executing iudgement, and avenge our brethen?

23 We haue bene readie to serue thy father, and to goe forward in those things that bee appointed, and to obey his commandmentes.

24 Therefore they of our nation fell from vs for this cause, and wheresoeuer they found any of vs, they slew them and spoiled our inheritance.

25 And they haue not onely laid hand vpon vs, but vpon all about their borders.

26 And behold, this day are they besieging the castle at Ierusalem to take it, and haue fortified the Sanctuary, and Beth-sura.

27 And if thou dost not prevent them quickly, they will doe greater things then these, and thou shalt not be able to overcome them.

28 When the king heard this, he was very angry, and called all his friends, the captaines of his army, and his horsemen, 29 And bands that were hired, came vnto him from the kings, that were confederate, and from the yles of the sea.

30 So the number of his armie was an hundredth thousand footmen, and twenty thousand horsemen, and two and thirtie elephants exercised in battell.

31 These came thorow Idumea, and drew nere to Beth-sura, and besieged it a long season, and made engines of warre: but they came out, and burnt them with fire, and fought valiantly.

32 Then departed Iudas from the castle, and removed the hoste toward Beth-zacarias ouer against the kings campe.

33 So the king arose very early, and brought the army and his power toward the way of Beth-zacarias, where the armie set themselves in aray to the battell, and blew the trumpets.

34 And to prouoke the elephants for to fight, they slewed them the blood of grapes and mulberries,

35 And they set the brasse according to the rages: so that by euery elephant there flood a thousand men armed with coats of male and helmets of brasse vpon their heads, and to euery beast were ordeined five hundred horsemen of the best,

36 Which were ready at all times whi reuoluer the beast was: and whither soeuer the beast went, they went also and departed not from him, 37 And vpon them were strong towers of wood, that couered euery beast, which were fastened thereon with instruments, and vpon euery one was two and thirtie men that fought in them, and the Indian char ruled him.

38 They set also the remnant of the horsemen vpon both the sides in two wings of the hoste to stirre them vp, and to keepe them in the valleys.

39 And when the innie shone vpon the golden shields, the mountaines glistered therewith, and gaue light as lampes of fire.

40 Thus part of the kings armie was spred vpon the high mountains and part beneath: so they marched forward warily and in order.

41 And all they that heard the noise of their multitude, and the marching of the company, and the rattling of the harness, were astonished: for the armie was very great and mightie.

42 Then Iudas and his hoste entred into the battell, and they slew sixe hundredth men of the kings armie.

43 ¶ Now when Eleazar the sonne of Iabaron, saw one of the elephants armed with royall harness, and was more excellent then all the other beasts, hee thought that the king should be vpon him.

44 Wherefore hee leoporded himselfe to deliuer his people and to get him a perpetuall name, 45 And ranne boldly vnto him thorow the mids of the hoste slaying on the right hand and on the left, so that they departed away on both sides.

46 So went hee to the elephants feete, and gaue him vnder him and slew him: then fell the elephant downe vpon him, and there he died.

47 But the other seeing the power of the king and the fiercenesse of his armie, departed from them.

48 ¶ And the kings armie went vp to meett them toward Ierusalem, and the king pitched his tents in Iudea toward mount Sion.

49 Moreouer the king tooke truce with them that were in Beth-sura: but when they came out of the city, because they had no victuals there, & were that that vp therein, and the land hath rested,

50 The king tooke Beth-sura, and set there a garrison to keepe it,

51 And besieged the Sanctuary many dayes, and made instruments to shoote, and other engines of warre, and instruments to cast fire and stones, and pieces to cast darts and slings.

52 ¶ They also made engines against their engines, and fought a long season.

53 But in the garners there were no victuals: for it was the seventh yeere, and then they that were in Iudea, and were deliuered from the Gentils, had eaten vp the residue of the store.

54 So that in the Sanctuary were few men left: for the famine came so vpon them, that they were scattered euery man to his owne place.

55 ¶ Now when Lysias heard that Philip (whom Antiochus the king whiles he liued, had ordeined to bring vp Antiochus his sonne, that he might bee king)

56 Was come againe out of Persia, and Media, and the kings hoste with him, and thought to take vnto him the rule of things,

57 He and his hostes, and were stirred forward by them in the castle to goe and teile the king, and the capitaines of the host, and to others saying, Wee decrease dayly, and our victuals are but small: and the place that we lay siege vnto, is strong, and the affaires of the Realme depend vpon vs.

58 Now therefore let vs lagre with these men, and take truce with them, and with all their nation,

59 And grant them to liue after their law, as they did afore, for they be grieued, and do all these things, because we haue broken their lawes.

60 So the king and the princes were content, and sent vnto them to make peace, and they receiued it.

61 When the king and the princes had made an othe vnto them, they came vpon this out of the fortresse.

62 And the king went vp to mount Sion: but when he saw that the place was well defended, hee brake his othe that he had made, and commanded to breake downe the wall round about.

63 Then departed he in all haste, and returned vnto Antiochus, where he found Philip hauing dominion of the citie: for he fought against him, and tooke the citie by force.

CHAP. VII.

1 Demetrius reigned after he had killed Antiochus and Lysias. 4 He troubleth the children of Israel thro-uow the counsell of certaine wicked persons. 37 The prayer of the Priestis against Nicanor. 41 Iudas killeth Nicanor, after he had made his prayer.

¶ In the hundred and one and fiftieth yeere, departed Demetrius the sonne of Seleucus from Rome and came vp with a few men vnto a citie of the Sea coast, and reigned there.

2 And when he came into the possession of his fathers kingdom, his souldiers took Antiochus and Lysias and brought them vnto him.

3 But when it was told him, he said, Shew mee not their faces.

4 So they put them to death. Now when Demetrius was set vpon the throne of his kingdom,

5 He came vnto him all the wicked, and vngodly men of Israel, whose capitaine was Alcimus, that would haue bene the high Priest.

6 These men accused the people vnto the king, saying, Iudas and his brethren haue slaine all thy friends, and driuen vs out of our owne land.

7 Wherefore send now some man whom thou trustest, that he may goe and see all the destruction which he hath done vnto vs, and to the kings land, and let him punish them with all their partakers.

8 Then the king chose Bacchides a friend of his, which was a great man in the realme, and ruled beyond the flood, and was faithfull vnto the king, and sent him,

9 And that wicked Alcimus, whom hee made hie Priest, and commanded him to bee auenged of the children of Israel.

10 So they departed, and came with a great host into the land of Iuda, and sent messengers to Iudas and his brethren deceitfully with peaceable words.

11 But they beleueed not their saying: for they saw that they were come with a great host.

12 Then a company of the gouernours assembled vnto Alcimus and Bacchides to intreat of reasonable poynts.

13 And the Asideans were the first that required peace among the children of Israel.

14 For, said they, He that is a Priest of the seede of Aaron is come with this armie: therefore he wil not hurt vs.

15 Then hee spake vnto them peaceably, and sware vnto them, and sayd, Wee will doe you no harme, neither your friends:

16 And they beleueed him: but hee tooke of them threecore men, and slew them in one day, according to the words that were written,

17 * They haue cast the bodies of thy Saints and their blood round about Ierusalem, and there was 2.
no man that would bury them.

18 So there came a feare & a trembling among all the people: for they said, There is neither truerth nor right: ouerselle in them: for they haue broken the appointment and othe that they made.

19 Then Bacchides remooued from Ierusalem, and pitched his tent at Beth-zecha, where he sent forth and tooke many of the men that had forsake ken him, and certaine of the people, whom he slew and cast into the great pit.

20 Then committed he the countrey vnto Alci-mus, and left men of warre with him to helpe him:
so Bacchides went vnto the king.

21 Then Alcimus strove for the Priesthood.

22 And all such as troubled the people, resorted vnto him: insumuch that they obtained the land of Iuda, and did much hurt in Israel.

23 Now when Iudas saw all the mischief that Alcimus and his companie had done among the Israelites more then the heathen,

24 He went forth round about all the borders of Iudea, and punished those that were fallen away, so that they came no more abroad in the coun-trei.

25 But when Alcimus saw that Iudas and his people had gotten the vpper hand, and knew that he was not able to abide them, hee went againe to the king, and accused them of wicked things.

26 Then the king sent Nicanor one of his chiefe princes, which hated Israel deadly, and commanded him that he should destroy the people.

27 So Nicanor came to Ierusalem with a great hoste, and sent vnto Iudas, and his brethren decei-tfully, with friendly words, saying,

28 Let there be no warre betwene me and you:
I will come with fewe men, to see howe yett doe, friendly.

29 So he came vnto Iudas, and they saluted one another peaceably: but the enemies were prepared to take away Iudas.

30 Neuerthelesse it was told Iudas, that he came vnto him vnder deceit: therefore hee feared him and

and would see his face no more.

31 When Nicanor perceived that his counsell was betrayed, hee went out to fight against Iudas, beside ¶ Carphasalama, ¶ Or, Carphasalama.

32 Where there were slaine of Nicanors hoste about five thousand men: so they fled vnto the city of Dauid.

33 After this came Nicanor vp vnto mount Sion, and some of the Priests with the Elders of the people went forth of the Sanctuary to salute him peaceably, and to shew him the burnt offering that was offered for the king.

34 But hee laughed at them, and mocked them, and counted them prophane and spake proudly, 35 And Iware in his wrath, saying, If Iudas and his hoste be not deliuered now into mine hands, if euer I come againe in safetie, I will burne vp this house. With that he went out in a great anger.

36 Then the Priests came in, and stood before the Altar in the Temple, weeping, and saying,

37 Forasmuch as thou, O Lord, hast choien this house, that thy Name might be called vpon therein, and that it should be an house of prayer, and petition for thy people, 38 Be auenged of this man and his hoste, and let them be slaine with the sword: remember their blasphemies, and suffer them not to continue.

39 ¶ When Nicanor was gone from Ierusalem, he pitched his tent at Beth-horon, and there an host met him out of Syria.

42 So destroy thou this hoste before vs to day, that all other may know that hee hath spoken wickedly against thy Sanctuary, and punish him according to his malice.

43 So the armies ioyned together in battell, the thirteenth day of the moneth Adar: but Nicanors hoste was discomfited, and hee himselfe was first slaine in the battell.

44 Now when his armie sawe that Nicanor was slaine, they cast away their weapons, and fled.

45 But they pursued after them a dayes iourney from Adasa vnto Gadera, blowing an alarme with the trumpets after them.

46 So they came forth of all the townes of Iudaea round about, and rushed vpon them, and threw them from one to another, so that they all fell by the sword, and there was not one of them left.

47 Then they tooke the spoiles, and the praye, and smote off Nicanors head, and his right hand which he held vp so proudly, and brought it with them, and hanged them vp afore Ierusalem.

48 So the people reioiced greatly, and kept that day as a day of great gladnesse.

49 And they ordeined to keepe yeerely that day on the thirteenth day of the moneth Adar.

50 Thus the lande of Iuda was in rest a little while.

Iudas also heard the fame of the Romanes, that they were mighty and valiant, and agreeable to all things that were required of them, and made peace with all that came vnto them,

3 And that they were men of great power, and they told them of their battels, and their worthy actes which they did among the ¶ Galatians, whom they had conquered, and made to pay tribute,

3 And what they had done in the countrey of Spaine: how that they had won there the mines of silver and gold,

4 And that by their counsell and gentle behaviour they were rulers in euery place, though the place was farre from them, and that they had discomfited, and giuen great ouerthrowes to the kings that came against them, from the vttermoost part of the earth, and that others gaue them tribute euery yeere.

5 How they had also discomfited by battell Philip and Peres kings of the ¶ Macedonians, and others that rose against them, and how they ouercame them,

6 And how great Antiochus king of Asia that came against them in battell, hauing an hundred and twentie Elephants, with horsemen and chariots, and a very great armie, was discomfited by them,

7 And how they tooke him aliuie, and ordeined him, with such as should reigne after him, to pay a great tribute, and to giue hostages, and a separate portion,

8 Euen the countrey of India, and Media, and Lydia, and of his best countries, which they tooke of him, and gaue them to king Eumenes.

9 Again, when it was told them that the Grecians were coming to destroy them, 10 They sent against them a captaine, which gaue them battell, and slew many of them, and tooke many prisoners with their wiues and children, & spoiled them, and conquered their land, and destroyed their strong holds, and subdued them to bee their bondmen vnto this day.

11 Moreouer, how they destroyed, and brought into subiection other kingdomes and yles, wholeouer had withstood them:

12 But that they kept amitie with their owne friends, and those that stayed vpon them: finally, that they conquered kingdomes both far and nere, inasmuch that whosoever heard of their renowne, was afraid of them.

13 For whom they would helpe to their kingdomes, those reigned, and whom they would, they put downe: thus were they in most high authority.

14 Yet for all this, that none of them ware a crowne, neither was clothed in purple, to be magnified thereby.

15 But that they had ordeined themselves a Councell, wherein three hundred and twentie men consulted dayly, and provided for the common affaires, to gouerne them well.

16 And that they committed their gouernement to one man euery yeere, who did rule ouer all their countrey, to whom euery man was obedient: and there was neither hatred nor enuy among them.

17 ¶ Then Iudas chose Eupolemus the sonne of Iohn, the sonne of Accus, and Iason the sonne of Eleazar, and sent them vnto Rome to make friendship, and mutual fellowship with them,

18 That they might take from them the yoke (for they sawe that the kingdomes of the Grecians would keepe Israel in bondage)

19 So they went vnto Rome, which was a very great iourney, and came into the ¶ Senate, where ¶ Or, they spake and said,

20 Iudas Maccabees with his brethren, and the people of the Iewes hath sent vs vnto you, to make a bond of friendship, and peace with you, and ye to register vs as your partakers and friends.

31 And the matter pleased them.

32 And this is the copie of the Epistle, that they wrote in tables of brasie, and sent to Ierusalem, that they might haue by them a memorie of the peace and mutuall fellowship.

33 Good successe be to the Romanes, and to the people of the Iewes by sea, and by land for euer: and the sword and enemye be from them.

34 If there come first any warre vpon the Romanes, or any of their friends thorowout all their dominion, 35 The people of the Iewes shall helpe them as the time shall be appointed with all their heart.

36 Also if they shall giue nothing to them that come to fight for them, nor serue them with wheat, nor weapons, nor money, nor ships, as it pleaseth the Romanes, but if they shall keepe their covenants without taking any thing of them.

37 Likewise also if warre come first against the nation of the Iewes, the Romanes shall helpe them with a good will, according as the time shall be appointed them.

38 Neither shall wheat be given vnto them that take their parts, nor weapons, nor money, nor ships, as it pleaseth the Romanes, who will keepe theie covenants without deceit.

39 According to these articles the Romanes made the bond with the people of the Iewes.

40 If after these poyntes the one partie or the other will adde or diminish, they may doe it at their pleasures: and whatsoeuer they shall adde or take away, shall be ratified.

41 And as touching the euil that Demetrius hath dooe vnto the Iewes, we haue written vnto him, saying, Wherefore layest thou thine heavy yoke vpon our friends, and confederatest the Iewes?

42 If therefore they complaine any more against thee, we will do them iustice, and fight with thee by sea and by land.

CHAP. IX.

1 After the death of Nicanor, Demetrius semeth to arme against Iudas: 18 Iudas is slaine. 31 Ionathan is put in the sted of his brother. 47 The battell betwene Jonathan and Bacchides. 53 Alcimus is smitten with the palseie, and dieth. 68 Hee cometh vpon Ionathan by the counsell of certaine wicked persons, and is ouercome. 70 The vnice of Jonathan with Bacchides.

IN the meane season when Demetrius had heard how Nicanor and his hoste had giuen the battell, hee sent Bacchides and Alcimus againe into Iudea, and his chiefe strength with them.

1 So they went forth by the way that is toward Galgala, and pitched their tents before Mefaloth, which is in Arbelis, and wan it, and slew much people.

3 And in the first moneth of the hundred fiftie and two yere, they laid their siege against Ierusalem.

4 But they raised their campe, and came to Betea, with twentie thousand footemen, and two thousand horsemen.

5 Now Iudas had pitched his tent at Eleasa, and three thousand chofen men with him.

6 And when they saw that the multitude of the armie was great, they were fore afraide, and many conueyed themselves out of the hoste, so that there abode no more of them, but eight hundred men.

7 When Iudas sawe that his hoste failed him, and that he must needs fight, hee was fore troubled in minde, that he had no time to gather them together, and was discouraged.

8 Neuerthelesse, he said vnto them, that remained, let vs rise, and goe vp against our enemies, if peradventure we may be able to fight with them.

9 But they would haue stayed him, saying, We are not able: but let vs rather saue our liues: turne backe now, seeing our brethren are departed: for shall we fight against them that are so few?

10 Then Iudas said, God forbid that we should doe this thing, to flee from them: if our time bee come, let vs die manfully for our brethren, and let vs not staine our honour.

11 Then the hoste remoued out of the tents, and stood against them, who had diuided their hosten into two troupes, and they that threw with slings, and the archers marched in the foreward, and they that fought in the foreward were all valiant men.

12 And Bacchides was in the right wing. So the armie drew neere on both sides, and blew the trumpets.

13 They of Iudas side blew the trumpets also, and the earth shooke at the noyse of the armies, and the battell continued from morning to night.

14 And when Iudas saw, that Bacchides and the strength of his armie was on the right side, he tooke with him all the hardie men, 15 And brake the right wing, and followed vpon them vnto mount Azotus.

16 Now when they which were of the left wing, saw that the right wing was discomfited, they followed Iudas behind, and them that were with him hard at the heeles.

17 Then was there a fore battell: for many were slaine of both the parties.

18 Iudas also himselfe was killed, and the remnant fled.

19 So Ionathan & Simon tooke Iudas their brother, and buried him in his fathers sepulchre in the citie of Modin.

20 And all the Israelites wept for him, and mourned greatly for him, and lamented many dayes, saying, 21 How is the valiant man fallen which deliuered Israel!

22 Concerning the other things of Iudas, both the battels and the valiant acts that hee did, and of his worthinesse, they are not written: for they were very many.

23 ¶ Now after the death of Iudas, wicked men came vp in all the coastes of Israel, and there arose all such as gaue themselves to iniquitie.

24 In those dayes was there a very great famine in the land, and all the country gaue ouer themselves with them.

25 And Bacchides did chofe wicked men, and made them lords in the land.

26 These sought out, and made search for Iudas friends, and brought them vnto Bacchides, which auenged himselfe vpon them, and mocked them.

27 And there came so great trouble in Israel, as was not since the time that no Prophet was seene among them.

28 Then came all Iudas friends together, and said vnto Ionathan,

29 Seeing thy brother Iudas is dead, and there is none like him to goe forth against our enemies, euen against Bacchides, and against them of our nation that are enemies vnto vs, 30 Therefore this day we chofe thee, that thou mayest bee our prince and capitaine in his place, to order our battell.

31 So Ionathan tooke the gouernance vpon him at the same time, and ruled in stead of his brother Iudas.

Or, against the enemies of our nation.

32 But when Bacchides knew it, he sought for to slay him.

33 Then Jonathan and Simon his brother perceiving that, fled into the wilderness of Thecua with all their companie, and pitched their tents by the water poole of Alphar.

34 Which when Bacchides vnderstood, he came ouer Iorden with all his hoste vpon the Sabbath day.

35 ¶ Now had Jonathan sent his brother John, a captaine of the people, to pray his friends the Nabathites, that they would keepe their baggage which was much.

10r, Lam.
bra. 36 But the children of Ambri came out of Medaba, and tooke Ioho, and all that he had, and when they had taken it, went their way.

37 After this came word vnto Jonathan, and to Simon his brother, that the children of Ambri made a great marriage, and brought the bride from Medaba with great pompe: for she was daughter to one of the noblest princes of Canaan.

38 Therefore they remembered Iohn their brother, and went vp and hid themselves vnder the covert of the mountaine.

39 So they lift vp their eyes and looked, and behold there was a great noyie, and much preparation: then the bridegome came forth, and his friends and his brethren met them with timbrels, and instruments of musick, and many weapons.

40 Then Iohns men that lay in ambush rose vp against them, and slew many of them, and the remnant fled into the mountains, so that they took all their spoyle.

41 Thus the marriage was turned to mourning, and the noise of their melodie into lamentation.

42 And so when they had auenged the blood of their brother, they turned againe vnto Iorden.

43 When Bacchides heard this, hee came vnto the border of Iorden with a great power vpon the Sabbath day.)

44 Then Jonathan saide vnto his companie, Let vs rise now, and fight against our enemies: for it is not to day as in time past.

45 Behold, the battell is before vs, and behind vs, and the water of Iorden on this side and that side, and the marie, and the forest, so that there is no place for vs to turne aside.

46 Wherefore cry now vnto heauen, that yee may be deliuered from the power of your enemies: so they ioyned battell.

47 Then Jonathan stretched out his hande to smite Bacchides: but he turned aside from him and recoled.

48 Then Jonathan and they that were with him, leapt into Iorden, and swimm'd ouer vnto the further bank: but the other would not passe thorow Iorden after them.

49 So in that day was slaine of Bacchides side about a thousand men.

50 Then he turned againe to Ierusalem, & built vp the strong cities in Iuda, as the castle of Iericho, and Emmaus, and Bethoron, and Bethel, and Thamartha, ¶ Parathoni, and ¶ Tepho, with high wallies, with gates, and with barres, ra. 51 And set garisons in them, that they might vse their malice vpon Israel.

52 He fortified also the citie Beth-sura, and Gazara, and the castle, and set a garison in them with prouision of victuals.

53 He tooke also the chiefeest mens sonnes in the countrey for hostages, and put them in the castle at Ierusalem to be kept.

54 ¶ Afterward in the hundredth fiftie and three yeere, in the second moneth, Alcimus commaunded that the wallies of the inner court of the Sanctuary should be destroyed, & he pulled downe the monuments of the Prophets, and began to destroy them.

55 But at the same time Alcimus was plagued, and his enterprises were hindered, and his mouth was stopped: for he was smitten with a palsey, and could no more speake, nor giue order concerning his shoule.

56 Thus died Alcimus with great torment at the same time.

57 And when Bacchides saw that Alcimus was dead, he turned againe to the King, and so the land of Iuda was in rest two yeeres.

58 Then all the vngodly men held a counsell, saying, Behold, Jonathan and his companie dwell at ease, and without care: wherefore let vs bring Bacchides hither, & he will take them all in one night.

59 So they went and consulted with him.

60 Who arose and came with a great host, and sent letters priuily to his aduersaries, which were in Iudea, to take Jonathan, and those that were with him: but they could not, for their counsell was knowne vnto them.

61 And they tooke fiftie men of the countrey, 10r, lam.
which were the chiefe workers of this wickedness, 10m.
and slew them.

62 ¶ Then Jonathan & Simon with their company departed vnto Beth-basin, which is in the wilderness, and repaired the decay thereof, and made it strong. 10r, Beth-basin.

63 When Bacchides knew this, he gathered all his host, and sent word to them that were of Iudea, 64 Then came hee and laid siege to Beth-basin, and fought against it a long season, and made instruments of warre.

65 But Jonathan had left his brother Simon in the city, and went forth into the countrey, & came with a certaine number, 66 And slew ¶ Odomerus and his brethren, and the children of Phasion in their tents: so he began to slay, and increased in power. 10r, Pba.

res.

67 Simon also and his companie went out of the citie, and burnt vp the instruments of warre.

68 And fought against Bacchides, and discomfited him, and vexed him sore, so that his counsell and journey was in vaine.

69 Wherefore he was very wroth at the wicked men that gaue him counsell to come into the countrey, and slewe many of them, and purposed to returne into his owne countrey.

70 Whereof when Jonathan had knowledge, he sent ambassadours vnto him to intreate of peace with him, & that the prisoners should be deliuered.

71 Which thing he accepted, and did according to his desire, and made an othe that he would neuer doe him harme all the dayes of his life.

72 So he restored vnto him the prisoners that he had taken atoretime out of the land of Iuda, and to returned and went into his owne land, neither did he come any more into their borders.

73 Thus the sword ceased from Israel, and Jonathan dwelt at Machmas, & began there to gouerne the people, and destroyed the vngodly men out of Israel.

And from the halfe of the fruite of the trees which is mine owne due ty, I so release them, from this day forth, none shall take any thing of the land of Iuda, or of the three gouernments which are added thereunto, as of Samaria and of Galile, from this day forth for euermore.

Ierusalem also with all things belonging thereto, shall be holy and free from the tenths and tributes.

Also I release the power of the castle which is at Ierusalem, & giue it vnto the high Priest, that he may set in it such men as hee shal chuse to keepe it.

Moreouer, I freely deliuer euery one of the Iewes that were taken away prisoners out of the land of Iuda throughout all my realme, and euery one of them shall bee free from tributes, yea, euen their cattell.

And all the feastes, and Sabbathes, and new moones, and the dayes appoynted, and the three dayes before the feast, and the three daies after the feast, shall be dayes of freedome, and liberty for all the Iewes in my realme,

So that in them no man shall haue power to do any thing, or to vex any of them in any maner of cause.

Also thirty thousand of the Iewes shall bee written vp in the kings heste, and haue their wages paid them, as appertaineth to all them that are of the kings armie, and of them shalbe ordained certaine to keepe the kings strong holds.

And some of them shalbe set ouer thy Kings most secret affaires, and their gouernours, and their princes shalbe of themselves, and they shal liue after their owne lawes, as the king hath commanded in the land of Iuda.

And besides this, the five thousand sicles of siluer which they receiued yeerely of the account appoynted for the entertainment of the Sanctuary these yeeres passed, euen these things shall be released, because they appertaine to the Priests that minister.

Item, whoeuer they bee that flee vnto the Temple at Ierusalem, or within the liberties thereof, and are indebted vnto the king for any manner of thing, thing, they shalbe pardoned, and all that they haue in my realme.

44 For the building also, and repaying of the workes of the Sanctuary, expences shall be giuen of the kings reuenues.

45 And for the making of the walles of Ierusalem, and fortifying it round about, that the hold in Iudea may be built vp, shall also the costs be giuen out of the kings reuenues.

46 ¶ But when Ionathan and the people heard these words, they gaue no credit vnto them, neither receiued them: for they remembered the great wickednes that he had done in Israel, and how fore he had vexed them.

47 Wherefore they agreed vnto Alexander: for hee was the first y had intreated of true peace with them, and so were confederate with him alway.

48 Then gathered king Alexander a great host, and camped ouer against Demetrius.

49 So the two Kings ioyned battell, but Demetrius host fled, and Alexander pursued him, and preuailed against them.

50 So that fore battell continued till the sunne went downe, and Demetrius was slaine the same day.

Ioseph. Ant. 13. chap. 6. 51 ¶ Then Alexander sent ambassadours vnto Ptolemeus the King of Egypt with these wordes, saying,

52 Forasmuch as I am come again to my realme, and am set in the throne of my fathers, & haue gotten the dominion, and haue destroyed Demetrius, and inioy my country,

53 Seeing that I haue euen giuen him the battell, and he and his army is discomfited by me, and I sit in the throne of his kingdom, 54 Let vs now make friendship together, & giue me now thy daughter to wife: so shal I be thy sonne in law, and giue thee rewards, and vnto her things according to thy dignity.

55 Then Ptolemeus the king gaue answer, saying, Happy be the day wherin thou art come againe vnto the land of thy fathers, & sickest in the throne of their kingdom.

56 Now therefore I will fulfill thy writing: but meet mee at Ptolemais, that wee may see one another, and that I may make thee my sonne in law, according to thy desire.

57 So Ptolemeus went out of Egypt with his daughter Cleopatra, and came vnto Ptolemais, in the hundred threescore and two yeere.

58 Where king Alexander met him, & he gaue vnto him his daughter Cleopatra, and married them at Ptolemais with great glory, as the maner of kings is.

59 ¶ Then wrote king Alexander vnto Ionathan, that he should come and meet him.

60 So he came honourably vnto Ptolemais, and there met he the two kings, & gaue them great presents of siluer and golde, and to their friends, and found fauour in their sight.

61 And there assembled certaine pestilent fellows of Israel, wicked men to accuse him: but the king would not heare them.

62 And the king commanded that they should take off the garments of Ionathan, and clothe him in purple, and so they did: and the king appointed him to sit by him.

63 And said vnto his priaces, Go with him into the mids of the city, & make a proclamation, That no man complaine against him of any matter, and that no man trouble him for any manner of cause.

64 So when his accusers saw his honor according as it was proclaimed, and that hee was clothed in purple, they fled all away.

65 And the King preferred him to honour, and wrote him among his chiefe friends, and made him a duke, and a partaker of his dominion.

66 Thus Ionathan returned to Ierusalem with peace and gladnesse.

67 ¶ In the hundred threescore and five yeere, came Demetrius the son of Demetrius, from Creta into his fathers laud.

68 Whereof when king Alexander heard, hee was very sory, and returned vnto Antiochia.

69 Then Demetrius appoynted Apollonius the gouernor of Coelosyria, who gathered a great host, and camped in Iamnia, and sent vnto Ionathan the high Priest, saying, 70 Darest thou, being but alone, lift vp thy selfe against vs? and I am laughed at, and reproched because of thee: now therefore why dost thou vaunt thy selfe against vs in the mountaines?

71 Now then, if thou trust in thine own strength, come down to vs into the plaine field, and there let vs try the matter together: for I haue the strength of cities.

72 Aske and learne who I am, and they shal take my part: and they shall tell thee that your foote is not able to stand before our face: for thy fathers haue bene twice chased in their owne land.

73 And now how wilt thou bee able to abide so great an hoste of horsemen and footemen in the plaine, where is neither stone, nor rocke, nor place to see vnto?

74 When Ionathan heard the words of Apollonius, he was moued in his mind: wherefore he chose ten thousand men, and went out of Ierusalem, and Simon his brother met him for to helpe him.

75 And he pitched his tents at Ioppe: but they shut him out of the citie: for Apollonius garrison was in Ioppe.

76 Then they fought against it, and they that were in the citie, for very feare let him in: so Ionathan wan Ioppe.

77 Apollonius hearing of this, tooke three thousand horsemen with a great hoste of foote men, and went toward Azotus, as though hee would go forward, and came immediatly into the plaine field, because he had so many horsemen, and put his trait in them.

78 So Ionathan followed vpon him to Azotus, and the army skirmished with his arriere band.

79 For Apollonius had left a shoulard horsemen behind them in ambush.

80 And Ionathan knewe that there was an ambushment behind him, and though they had compassed in his host, and shot darts at the people from the morning to the euening, 81 Yet the people stood still, as Ionathan had commanded them, till their horses were weary.

82 Then brought Simon forth his horse, and set them against the band, but the horses were weary, and he discomfited them, and they fled: so the horsemen were scattered in the field.

83 And they fled to Azotus, and came into the temple of Dagon their idole, that they might there saue themselues.

84 But Ionathan set fire vpon Azotus, and all the cities round about it, and tooke their spoiles, and burnt with fire the temple of Dagon, with all them that were fled into it.

85 Thus were slain and burnt about eight thousand men.

86 So Ionathan remoued the host from thence, and camped by Afralon where the men of the citie came forth, and met him with great honour.

87 After this went Ionathan and his hoste again to Ierusalem with great spoiles.

88 And when king Alexander heard these things, he began to doe Ionathan more honour, 89 And sent him a collar of gold, as the vse is to be giuen vnto such as are of the kings blood: he gave him also Accaron, with the borders thereof a possession.

C H A P. XI.

1 The difference betwene Ptolemus, and Alexander his sonne in law. 17 The death of Alexander.

19 Demetrius requesteth after the death of Ptolemus.

21 Sion is besieged of Ionathan. 42 Demetrius seeing that he cannot resist him, sendeth his armie againe. 54 Typhon moueth Antiochus against Demetrius.

And the King of Egypt gathered a great hoste like the land that lyeth vpon the sea shore, and many ships, and went abt through deceit to obaine the kingdom of Alexander, and to ioine it vnto his owne Realme.

2 Vpon this hee went into Syria with friendly words and was let into the cities, and men came forth to meet him: for king Alexander had commanded them to meet him, because he was his father in law.

3 Now when he entred into the city of Ptolemis, he left bands and garisons in every citie.

4 And when he came neere vnto Azotus, they shewed him the temple of Dagon that was burnt, and Azotus, and the suburbs thereof that were destroyed, and the bodies cast abroad, and them that he had burnt in the battell: for they had made heaps of them by the way where he should passe.

5 And they told the King what Ionathan had done, to the intent they might get him euill will: but the King held his peace.

6 And Ionathan met the King with great honor at loppe, where they saluted one another, and lay there.

7 So when Ionathan had gone with the King vnto the water that was called Bleutherus, he turned againe to Ierusalem,

8 So king Ptolemus gate the dominion of the cities by the sea vnto Seleucia vpon the sea coast, imagining wicked counsels against Alexander, 9 And sent ambassa sors vnto King Demetrius, saying, Come, let vs make a league between vs, and I will giue thee my daughter, which Alexander hath, and thou shalt reigne in thy fathers kingdom.

10 For I repent that I giue Alexander my daughter: for he goeth about to slay me.

11 Thus hee slandered Alexander, as one that should desire his Realme.

12 And he tooke his daughter from him, and gave her vnto Demetrius, and forsooke Alexander, so that their hatred was openly known.

13 Then Ptolemus came to Antiochia, where he set two crownes vpon his own head, of Asia, and of Egypt.

14 In the meane season was king Alexander in Cilicia: for they that dwelt in those places, had rebelled against him:

15 But when Alexander heard it, hee came to warre against him, and Ptolemus brought forth his host, and met him with a mighty power, and put him to flight.

16 Then fled Alexander into Arabia, there to be defended: so Ptolemus was exalted.

17 And Zabdiel the Arabian smote off Alexander head, and sent it vnto Ptolemus.

18 But the third day after king Ptolemus died: and they that were in the holds, were slaine one of another.

19 And Demetrius reigned in the hundred threescore and seuenth yeere.

20 ¶ At the same time gathered Ionathan them that were in Iudea, to lay siege vnto the castle, which was at Ierusalem, and they made many instruments of warre against it.

21 Then went there certaine vagodly persons (which hated their owne people) vnto king Demetrius, & told him that Ionathan besieged the castle.

22 So when he heard it, he was angry, and immediately came vnto Ptolemis, and wrote vnto Ionathan, that he should lay no more siege vnto it, but that he should meet him, and speake with him at Ptolemis in all haste.

23 Neuerthelesse, when Ionathan heard this, hee comman led to besiege it: he chose also certaine of the Elders of Israell and the Priests, & put himselfe in danger, 24 And tooke with him siluer and gold, and apparel, and diuers presents, and went to Ptolemis, vnto the king, and found fauour in his sight.

25 And though certaine vagodly men of his owne nation had made complaints vpon him,

26 Yet the king intreated him as his predecessors had done, and promoted him the sight of all his friends, 27 And confirmed him in the hie Priesthood with all the honourable things that hee had afore, and made him his chiefe friend.

28 Ionathan also desired the king that he would make Iudea free with the three gouernements, and the cuntry of Samaria, & Ionathan promised him three hundred talents.

29 Whereunto the king consented and gave Ionathan writing of the same, containing these words, 30 KING DEMETRIVS vnto his brother Ionathan, and to the nation of the Iewes sendeth greeting.

31 Wee send you hete a copy of a letter which wee did write vnto our cousin Lathenes concerning you, that ye should see it.

32 King Demetrius vnto Lathenes his father, sendeth greeting.

33 For the faithfulness that our friends, the nation of the Iewes keepe vnto vs, and for their good will towards vs, wee are determined to doe them good.

34 Wherefore we assigne to them the coasts of Iudea with the three gouernements Apherema, and Lydda, and Ramathe (which are added vnto Iudem from the cuntry of Samaria) and all that appertaineth to all them that sacrifice in Ierusalem, both concerning the payements which the king tooke yearly aforetime, both for the fruits of the earth, and for the fruits of the trees.

35 As for the other things appertaining vnto vs of the tenths and tributes, which were due vnto vs, and the customes of salt and crowne taxes which were payed vnto vs, we discharge them of all from henceforth.

36 And nothing hereof shall be reckoned from this time forth, and for euer.

37 Therefore see that yee make a copy of these things, and deliuer it vnto Ionathan, that it may be set vp vpon the holy Mount in an open place.

38 After this when Demetrius the king saw that his land was in rest, & that no resistance was made against him, he sent away all his host, every man to his his owne place, except certaine bands of strangers, whom hee brought from the yles of the heathen: wherefore all his fathers hoste hated him.

Or, E-
malcuel.

39 Now was there one Tryphon, that had bene of Alexanders part afore, which when hee saw that all the hoste murmured against Demetrius, he went to Simalcus the Arabian, that brought vp Antiochus the sonne of Alexander, 40 And layd fore vpon him, to deliuer him this yong Antiochus, that he might reigne in his fathers stead, he told him also what great euill Demetrius had done, and how his men of warre hated him, and he remained there a long season.

41 Also Ionathan sent vnto king Demetrius to driue them out which were in the castles at Ierusalem, and those that were in the fortresses: for they fought against Israel.

42 So Demetrius sent vnto Ionathan, saying, I will not onely do these things for thee, and thy nation, but if opportunitie serue, I will honour thee and thy nation.

43 Now therefore thou shalt do me a pleasure, if thou wilt send me men to helpe me: for all mine armie is gone from me.

44 So Ionathan sent him three thousand strong men vnto Antiochia, and they came vnto the king: wherefore the king was very glad at their coming.

45 ¶ But they that were of the city, euen an hundred and twenty thousand men, gathered them together in the mids of the city, and would haue slain the king.

46 But the king fled into the palace, and the citizens kept the streets of the city, and began to fight.

47 Then the king called to the Iewes for helpe, which came to him all together, and went abroad thorow the citie, 48 And slew the same day an hundred thousand, and set fire vpon the citie, and tooke many spoyles in that day, and deliuered the king.

49 So when the citizens saw that the Iewes had gotten the vpper hand of the citie, and that they themselves were disappointed of their purpose, they made their supplication to the king, saying,

Or, giue vs the

50 Grant vs peace, and let the Iewes cease from vexing vs and the city.

51 So they cast away their weapons, and made peace, and the Iewes were greatly honoured before the king, and before all that were in his realme, and they came againe to Ierusalem with great pray.

52 Then king Demetrius sat in the throne of his kingdome, and had peace in his land.

53 Neuertheless hee dissembled in all that euer hee spake, and withdrew himselfe from Ionathan, neither did hee reward him according to the benefits which hee had done for him, but troubled him very sore.

54 After this returned Tryphon, with the yong child Antiochus, which reigned and was crowned.

55 Then there gathered vnto him all the men of warre whom Demetrius had scattered, and they fought against him, who fled and turned his backe.

Or, Ele-
pobus.

56 So Tryphon rooke the Ibeasts and wan Antiochia.

57 And yong Antiochus wrote vnto Ionathan, saying, I appoint thee to bee the chiefe Priest, and make thee ruler ouer the foure gouernments, that thou mayest be a friend of the kings.

58 Vpon this he sent him golden vessels, to bee serued in, and gaue him leane to drinke in gold, & to weare purple, and to haue a collar of gold.

59 Hee made his brother Simon also captaine from the coasts of Tyrus vnto the borders of Egypt.

60 Then Ionathan went forth, and passed thorow the cities beyond the flood, and all the men of warre of Syria gathered vnto him for to helpe him: so he came vnto Afcalon, and they of the city receiued him honorably.

61 And from thence went hee vnto Gaza: but they of Gaza shut him out: wherefore he laid siege vnto it, and burned the suburbs thereof with fire, and spoiled them.

62 Then they of Gaza made supplication vnto Ionathan, and he made peace with them, and rooke of the sonnes of the chiefe men for hostages, and sent them to Ierusalem, and went thorow the countrey vnto Damascus.

63 And when Ionathan heard that Demetrius princes were come into Cades, which is in Galilee, with a great hoste, purposing to driue him out of the countrey, 64 Hee came against them, and left Simon his brother in the countrey.

65 And Simon besieged Beth-sura, and fought against it a long season, and shut it vp.

66 So they desired to haue peace with him, which he granted them, and afterward put them out from thence and tooke the citie, and set a garison in it.

67 Then Ionathan with his hoste came to the water of Genesar, & betimes in the morning came to the plaine of Azor.

68 And behold, the hosts of the strangers met him in the plaine, and had layd ambushments for him in the mountaines.

69 So that when they came against them, the ambushments rose out of their places, and skirmished.

70 So that all that were of Ionathans side, fled: and there was not one of them left, except Matathias the sonne of Abisalomus, and Iudas the sonne of Calphi, the captaines of the hoste.

71 Then Ionathan rent his clothes, & cast earth vpon his head and prayed, 72 And turned againe to them to fight, and put them to flight, so that they fled away.

73 Now when his owne men, that were fled, saw this, they turned againe vnto him, and helped him to follow after all vnto their tents at Cades, and there they camped.

74 So there were slaine of the strangers the same day about three thousand men, and Ionathan turned againe to Ierusalem.

CHAP. XII.

1 Ionathan sendeth Ambassadors to Rome, & to the people of Sparta, to renew their covenant of friendship. 24 Ionathan putteth to flight the princes of Demetrius. 40 Tryphon taketh Ionathan by deceit.

Ionathan now seeing that the time was meete for him, chose certaine men, & sent them vnto Rome, to establish and renew the friendship with them.

2 Hee sent letters also vnto the Spartians and to other places for the same purpose.

3 So they went vnto Rome, and entered into the Senate, and said, Ionathan the hie Priest and the nation of the Iewes sent vs vnto you, for to renew friendship with you, and the bond of loue, as in times past.

4 So the Romanes gaue them free passports, that men should lead them home into the land of Iude peaceably.

5 ¶ AND THIS is the copy of the letters that Ionathan wrote vnto the Spartians.

6 Ionathan the high Priest with the Elders of the nation, and the Priests, and the rest of the people of the Iewes, send greeting vnto the Spartians their brethren.

7 Heretofore were letters sent vnto Onias the high Priest, from Arius which the reigned among you, that yee would be our brethren, as the copie here vnder written specifeth.

8 And Onias intreated the ambassadour honourably, and receined the letters: wherein there was mention made of the bond of loue and friendship.

9 But as for vs we need no such writings: for we haue the holy books in our hands for comfort.

10 Neuerthelesse wee thought it good to send vnto you for the renewing of the brotherhood and friendship, lest we should be strange vnto you: for it is long since the time that you sent vnto vs.

11 Wherefore we remember you at all seasons continually, and in the feasts, and other dayes appointed, when we offer sacrifices and prayers, as it is meet and conuenient to thinke vpon our brethren.

12 And we reioyce at your prosperous estate.

13 And though wee haue bene inuironed with great troubles and warres, so that the Kings round about vs haue fought against vs, 14 Yet would we not be grieuous vnto you, nor to either of our confederates, and friends in these warres.

15 For we haue had help from heauen, that hath succoured vs, and wee are deliuered from our enemies, and our enemies are subdued.

16 Yet haue wee chosen Numenius the sonne of Amehous, and Antipater the sonne of Isan, and sent them vnto the Romanes, for to renew the former friendship with them, and league.

17 We commanded them also to goe vnto you, and to salute you, and to deliuer you our letters concerning the renewing of our brotherhood.

18 And now ye shall doe vs a pleasure to giue vs answere of these things.

19 And this was the copy of the letters which Anas the king of Sparta sent vnto Onias, 20 THE KING of the Spartians vnto Onias the high Priest sendeth greeting.

21 It is found in writing, that the Spartians and Iewes are brethren, and come out of the generation of Abraham.

22 And now for so much as this is come to our knowledge, yee shall doe well, to write vnto vs of your prosperitie.

23 As for vs, wee haue written vnto you, that your cattell and goods are ours, and ours are yours: these things haue wee commanded to be shewd vnto you.

24 Now when Jonathan heard, that Demetrius princes were come to fight against him with a greater host then afore, 25 He went from Ierusalem, and met them in the land of Hamath: for he gaue them not space to come into his owne countrey.

26 And hee sent spies vnto their tents, which came againe and told him that they were appointed to come vpon him in the night.

27 Wherefore when the Sun was gone downe, Jonathan commanded his men to watch, and to be in armes: ready to fight all the night, & sent watchmen round about the host.

28 But when the aduersaries heard that Jonathan was ready with his men to the battell, they feared, and trembled in their hearts, and kindled fires in their tents, and fled away.

29 Neuertheles, Jonathan & his company knew it not till the morning: for they saw the fires burning.

30 Then Jonathan followed vpon them, but hee could not ouertake them: for they were gone ouer the flood Eleutherus.

31 So Jonathan turned to the Arabians, which were called Zabedei, and slew them & tooke their spoyle.

32 Hee proceeded further also, and came vnto Damascus, and went thorow all the countrey.

33 But Simon his brother went forth, and came to Afcalon, and to the next holds, departing vnto loppe and wanne it.

34 For hee heard that they would deliuer the hold to them that tooke Demetrius part: wherefore he set a garison there to keepe it.

35 After this came Jonathan home, and called the Elders of the people together, & deuided with them for to build vp the strong holds in Iudea, 36 And to make the walles of Ierusalem higher, and to make a great mount betwixt the castle and the citie, for to separate it from the citie, that it might bee alone, and that men should neither buy nor sell in it.

37 So they came together to build vp the citie: for part of the wall vpon the brooke of the East side was fallen downe, and they repaired it, and called it Caphenatha.

38 Simon also set vp Adida in Sephela, & made it strong with gates and barres.

39 In the meane time Tryphon purposed to reigne in Asia, and to bee crowned when hee had slaine the king Antiochus.

40 But hee was afraid that Jonathan would not suffer him, but fight against him: wherefore he went about to take Jonathan, and to kill him: so hee departed, and came to Bethsan.

41 Then went Jonathan forth against him to the battell with fortie thousand choisen men, and came vnto Bethsan.

42 But when Tryphon saw that Jonathan came with so great an host, he durst not lay hold vpon him,

43 But receiued him honourably, and commended him vnto all his friendes, and gaue them rewards, and commanded his men of warre to bee as obedient vnto him as to himselfe, 44 And said vnto Jonathan, Why hast thou caused this people to take such trauaile, seeing there is no warre betwene vs?

45 Therefore send them now home againe, and chuse certaine men to waite vpon thee, and come thou with me to Ptolemais: for I will giue it thee, with the other strong holds, and the other garisons, and all them that haue the charge of the common affaires. so will I returne, and depart: for this is the cause of my coming.

46 Jonathan beleeued him, and did as hee said, and sent away his host, which went into the land of Iuda, 47 And retained but three thousand with him, whereof he sent two thousand into Galile, and one thousand went with himselfe.

48 Now alsoone as Jonathan entred into Ptolemais, they of Ptolemais shut the gates, and tooke him, and slew all them which the sword that came in with him.

49 Then sent Tryphon an hoste of footmen and horsemen into Galile, and into the great plaine to destroy all Ionathans company.

50 But when they knew that Jonathan was taken and slaine, and those that were with him, they encouraged one another, and came forth against them ready to the battell.

51 But when they which folowed vpon them saw

X x 3 that that it was a matter of life, they turned backe againe.

52 By this meanes all they came into the land of Iuda peaceably, and bewailed Ionathan & them that were with him, and feared greatly, and all Israel made great lamentation.

53 For all the heathen that were round about them sought to destroy them:

54 For they said, Now haue they no captaine, nor any man to helpe them: therefore let vs now fight against them, and roote out their memorie from among men.

C H A P. XIII.

1 After Ionathan was taken, Simon is chosen captaine. 17 Tryphon, taking his children, and money for the redemption of Ionathan, killeth him and his children. 31 Tryphon killeth Antiochus, and possesseth the realm. 36 Demetrius taketh struce with Simon. 43 Simon winneth Gaza. 50 Hee possesseth the tower of Sion. 53 He maketh his sonne Iobuc captaine.

Joseph. Ant. 12. pag. 9.
Now when Simon heard that Tryphon gathered a great host to come into the land of Iuda, and to destroy it,

2 And saw that the people was in great trembling and feare, hee came vp to Ierusalem, and gathered the people together,

3 And gaue them exhortation, saying, Ye know what great things I & my brethren, and my fathers house haue done for the Law, and the Sanctuarie, and the battels, and troubles that we haue seene.

4 By reason whereof all my brethren are slaine for Israels sake, and I am left alone.

5 Now therefore God forbid that I should spare mine owne life in any time of trouble: for I am not better then my brethren.

6 But I will auenge my nation, and the Sanctuarie, & our wines, & our children: for all the heathen are gathered together to destroy vs of very malice.

7 In hearing these words, the hearts of the people were kindled, 8 So that they cried with a loud voice, saying, Thou shalt bee our captaine in stead of Iudas and Ionathan thy brethren.

9 Fight thou our battels, and whatsoever thou commandest vs we will doe it.

10 So hee gathered all the men of wayre, making hast to finish the wallles of Ierusalem, and fortified it round about.

11 Then sent hee Ionathan the sonne of Abisalomus with a great hoste vnto Ioppe, which droue them out that were therein, and remained there himselfe.

12 Tryphon also remoued from Ptolemais with a great armie to come into the land of Iuda, and Ionathan was with him as prisoner.

Joseph. Ant. 12. pag. 9.
13 And Simon pitched his tents at Addidis vpon the open plaine.

14 But when Tryphon knew that Simon stood vp in the stead of his brother Ionathan, and that he would fight against him, hee sent messengers vnto him, saying,

15 Whereas we haue kept Ionathan thy brother, it is for money that hee is owing in the kings account, concerning the busines that hee had in hand.

16 Wherefore now send an hundred talents of silver, and his two sonnes for hostages, that when he is letten forth he will not turne from vs, and we will send him againe.

17 Neuertheles, Simon knew that he dissembled in his words: yet commanded hee the money and children to be deliuered vnto him, lest hee should be in greater hastred of the people of Israel:

18 Who might haue said, Because hee feared him not the money and the children, therefore is Iona- than dead.

19 So he sent the children & an hundred talents, but hee dissembled, & would not let Ionathan goe.

20 Afterward came Tryphon into the land to destroy it, and went round about by the way that leadeth vnto Adora: but wherefooeer they went, thither went Simon and his hoste.

21 Now they that were in the castle sent messengers vnto Tryphon, that hee should make haste to come by the wilderness, and to send them victuals.

22 So Tryphon made ready all his horsemen: but the same night fell a very great snow, so that hee came not because of the snow: but hee remoued and went into the countrey of Galaad.

23 And when hee came neere to Bascama, hee slew Ionathan, and he was buried there.

24 So Tryphon returned, and went into his own land.

25 Then sent Simon to take the bones of Ionathan his brother, and they buried him in Modia his fathers citie.

26 And all Israel bewailed him with great lamentation, and mourned for him very long.

27 And Simon made vpon the sepulchre of his father and his brethren a building high to looke vnto, of hewen stone behinde and before, 28 And set vp seven pillars vpon it: one against an other, for his father, his mother, and foure brethren.

29 And set great pillars round about them, and set armes vpon the pillars for a perpetuall memorie, and carued shippes beside the armes, that they might be seene of men sayling in the sea.

30 This sepulchre which hee made at Modia standeth yet vnto this day.

31 Now as Tryphon went forth with the yong king Antiochus, he slew him traiterously:

32 And reigned in his stead, and crowned himselfe king of Asia, and brought a great plague vpon the land.

33 Simon also built vpon the castles of Iuda, and compassed them about with high toweres, and great wallles euen with toweres, and gates, and bars, and laid vp victuals in the strong holds.

34 Moreover Simon chose certaine men, and sent them to king Demetrius, that hee would discharge the land: for all Tryphons doings were robberies.

35 Wherevpon Demetrius the king answered him, and wrote vnto him after this manner, 36 DEMETRIVS the king vnto Simon the high Priest, and the friend of kings, and to the Elders, & to y nation of the Iewes, sendeth greeting:

37 The golden crowne, and precious stone that ye sent vnto vs, haue we receiued, and are ready to make a stedfast peace with you, and to write vnto the Officers to release you of the things wherein we made you free.

38 So the things that we haue granted you, shall bee stable: the strong holds which ye haue builded shall be your owne.

39 Also we forgiue the ouersights & faults committed vnto this day, and the crowne-tax that ye ought vs: and whereas was any other tribute in Ierusalem, it shall be now no tribute.

40 And they that are meete among you to bee written with our men, let them bee written vp, that there may be peace betwene vs.

41 Thus the yoke of the heathen was taken from Israel in the hundred and seuenthy yeere.

42 And the people of Israel began to write in their their letters and publike instruments. IN THE FIRST yeere of Simon the hie and chiefe Priest, gouernour and prince of the Iewes.

43 In those dayes Simon camped against Gaza, and besieged it round about, where he set vp an engine of warre, and approached neere the citie, and built a tower, and tooke it.

44 So they that were in the engine, leapt into the citie, and there was great trouble in the citie,

45 Inasmuch that the people of the city rent their clothes, and clumbed vp vpon the walles with their wives and children, and cried with a lowde voyce, beseeching Simon to grant them peace, saying, 46 Deale not with vs according to our wickednesse, but according to thy mercy.

47 Then Simon pitied them, and would fight no more against them, but put them out of the city, & desired the houses wherein the idoles were, and so entered thereunto with Psalmes and thanksgiuing.

48 So when he had cast all the filthinesse out, he sent such men in it as kept the Law, and fortified it, and builded there a dwelling place for himselfe.

49 Now when they in the castle at Ierusalem were kept that they could not come forth, nor goe into the country, neither buy nor sell, they were very hungry, and many of them were famished to death, 50 Inasmuch that they besought Simon to make peace with them: which he granted them, and put them out from thence, and cleasued the castle from filthinesse.

51 And vpon the three and twenty day of the second moneth in the hundred seuentie and one yeere, they entered into it with thanksgiuing, & branches of palme trees, and with harpes, and with cymbals, and with viols and with Psalms and songs, because the great enemy of Israel was overcome.

52 And hee ordained that the same day should be kept euery yeere with gladnesse.

53 And he fortified the mount of the Temple that was beside the castle, where he dwelt himself with his company.

54 Simon also seeing that Iohn his sonne was now a man, he made him captaine of all the hostes, and caused him to dwell in Gazaris.

CHAP. XIII.

Demetrius is overcome of Arfaces. 11 Simon being captaine there is great quietnesse in Israel. 18 The covenants of friendship with the Romans and with the people of Sparta is renewed.

19 In the hundred seuentie and two yeere gathered king Demetrius his hostes, and departed vnto Media to get him helpe for to fight against Tryphon.

20 But when Arfaces the king of Persia and Media, heard that Demetrius was entered win his borders, he sent one of his princes to take him aline.

21 So hee went and overcame the armie of Demetrius, and tooke him, and brought him to Arfaces, which kept him in ward.

22 Thus all the land of Iuda was in rest so long as Simon liued: for he sought the wealth of his nation, therefore were they glad to haue him for their ruler, and to doe him worship alway.

23 Simon also wane the city of Ioppe to his great honour to be an haueu towne, and made it an continuance vnto the yles of the sea.

24 He enlarged also the borders of his people, and conquered the countreys.

25 He gathered vp many of their people that were prisoners, and he had the dominion of Gazaris and Beth-sura, and the castle which he cleasued from fil-thinesse, and there was no man that resisted him,

8 So that euery man tilled his ground in peace, and the land gaue her fruits, and the trees gaue their fruit.

9 The elders sate in the open places, and consulted all together for the common wealth, and the yong men were honourably clothed and armed.

10 Hee provided victuals for the cities, and all kind of munition, so that his glorious fame was renowned vnto the end of the world.

11 Hee made peace thorowout the land, and Israel had perfect mirth and ioy.

12 For euery man sate vnder his vine, and the fig trees, and there was no man to fray them.

13 There was none in the land to fight against them: for then the Kings were ouercome.

14 He helped all those that were in aduersitie among his people, hee was diligent to see the Law kept, and hee tooke away the vngodly and wicked.

15 Hee beautified the Sanctuary, and increased the vessels of the Temple.

16 When the Romaeas heard, and the Spartians had knowledge that Ionathan was dead, they were very sory.

17 But when they heard that Simon his brother was made high Priest in his stead, and how he had wonne the land againe with the cities in it, 18 They wrote vnto him in tables of brasse, to renew the friendship and bond of love which they had made with Iudas and Ionathan his brethren.

19 Which writings were read before the Congregation at Ierusalem, and this is the copy of the letters that the Spartians sent.

20 THE SENATORS and city of Sparta vnto Simon the great Priest, and to the Elders, and to the Priest sent to the residue of the people of the Iewes their brethren send greeting.

21 When your ambassadours that were sent vnto our people certified vs of your glory and honor, we were glad of their coming.

22 And haue registred their ambassage in the publike records in this manner, NVMENIVS the sonne of Antiochus, and Antipater the sonne of Iason, the Iewes ambassadours came vnto vs to renewe amitie with vs.

23 And it pleased the people that 5 men should be honourably intreated, and that the copy of their ambassage should bee registred in the publike records, that it might bee for a memoriall vnto the people of Sparta: and a copy of the same was sent vnto Simon the chiefe Priest.

24 After this Simon sent Numenius to Rome with a great shield of golde of a thousand pound weight to confirme the friendship with them.

25 Which when the people vnderstood, they said, What thanks shall we recompense againe vnto Simon and his children?

26 For he and his brethren, and the house of his father haue established Israel, and overcome their enemies, and haue confirme the libertie thereof: therefore they wrote this in tables of brasse, and set it vpon pillars in mount Sion.

27 The copy of the writing is this, In the eight of August, and twentie day of the moneth of Elul, in the hundred seuentie and two yeere, in the thirde yeere of Simon the high Priest, 28 In Saramel in the great congregation of the Priests, and of the people and of the gouernours of the nation, and of the Elders of the country, we would signifie vnto you that many battels haue bene fought in our country.

29 Wherein Simon the son of Mattathias (some of the children of Israhel & his brethren put themselves in danger, and resisted the enemies of their nation, that their Sanctuary and Lawe might be maintained, and did their nation great honour.

30 For Jonathan gathered his nation together, and became their high Priest, and is layed with his people.

31 After that would their enemies have invaded their country, and destroyed their land, and lay their hands on their Sanctuary.

32 Then Simon resisted them, and fought for his nation, and spent much of his owne substance, and armed the valiant men of his nation, and gaue them wages.

33 He fortified also the cities of Iudea, & Bethsura, that lieth vpon the borders of Iudea, (where the ordinance of their enemies lay sometime) and set there a garrison of the Iewes.

34 And he fortified Toppe, which lieth vpon the sea, & Gazara that bordereth vpon Azotus (where the enemies dwelt afore) & there he placed Iewes, and furnished them with things necessary for the reparation thereof.

35 Now when the people saw the faithfulness of Simon, and to what glory he thought to bring his nation vnto, they made him their gouernour, and the chiefe Priest, because hee had done all these things, and for the vprightnesse, and fidelitie that hee had kept to his nation, and that fought by all meanes to exalt his people.

36 For in his time they prospered well by him, so that the heathen were taken out of their country, & they also which were in the citie of Dauid at Ierusalem, where they had made them a castle, out of the which they went and desiled all things that were about the Sanctuary, and did great hurt vnto Religion.

37 And he set Iewes thir, and fortified it, for the assurance of the land and city, and rayfed vp the walles of Ierusalem.

38 And King Demetrius confirmed him in his high Priesthood for these causes, 39 And made him one of his friends, and gaue him great honour.

40 For it was reported that the Romanes called the Iewes their friends and confederates, and that they honourably receiued Simons ambassadours, 41 And that the Iewes & Priests consented that Simon should be their Prince, and high Priest perpetually till God rayted vp the true Prophet, 42 And that he should be their captaine, and haue the charge of the Sanctuary, and so set men ouer the workes, and ouer the country, and ouer the weapons, and ouer the fortresses, and that should make prouision for the holy things.

43 And that he should be obeyed of euery man, and that all the writings in the country should be made in his name, and that he should be clothed in purple, and weare gold, 44 And that it should not be lawfull for any of the people or Priests to breake any of these things or to withstand his wordes, or to call any congregation in the country without him, or be clothed in purple, or weare a collar of gold.

45 And if any did contrary vnto these things, or brake any of them, he should be punished.

46 So it pleased all the people to agree that it should bee done to Simon according vnto these wordes.

47 Simon also accepted it, & was content to be the high Priest, and the captain, & the prince of the Iewes, and of the Priests, & to bee the chiefe of all.

48 And they commanded to set vp this writing in tables of brasie, and to fasten it to the wall that compassed the Sanctuary, in an open place, 49 And that a copie of the same should be laid vp in the treasury, that Simon and his sonnes might haue it.

CHAP. XV.

1 Antiochus maketh a covenant of friendship with Simon. 11 Tryphon is pursued. 15 The Romanes write letters vnto Kings and nations in the defence of the Iewes. 27 Antiochus refusing the helpe that Simon sent him, breaketh his covenant.

Moreouer, King Antiochus the sonne of Demetrius sent letters from the yles of the sea vnto Simon the Priest and Prince of the Iewes, and to all the nation,

2 Containing these words, ANTIOCHVS the King vnto Simon the great Priest, and to the nation of the Iewes sendeth greeting.

3 For so much as certaine pestilent men haue vsurped the kingdome of our fathers, I am purposed to challenge the realme againe, and to restore it to the old estate, wherefore I haue gathered a great hoste, and prepared ships of warre,

4 That I may goe through the country, and be auenged of them which haue destroyed our country, and walked many cities in the realme.

5 Now therefore I doe confirme vnto thee all the liberties, whereof all the kings my progenitors haue discharged thee, and all the payments wherof they haue released thee.

6 And I giue thee leave to coyne money of thine owne stampe within thy country.

7 And that Ierusalem and the Sanctuary be free, and that all the weapons that thou hast prepared, and the fortresses which thou hast builded, & keepst in thine hands, shalbe thine.

8 And all that is due vnto the king, I forgiue it thee, from this time forth for euermore.

9 And when we haue obtained our kingdome, wee will giue thee and thy nation, and the Temple great honour, so that thy honour shall be knowne thorowout the world.

10 ¶ In the hundred seuentie and foure yeere went Antiochus into his fathers land, and all the bands came together vnto him, so that fewe were left with Tryphon.

11 So the King Antiochus pursued him, but he fled and came to Dora which lieth by the sea side.

12 For hee saw that troubles were toward him, and that the army had forsaken him.

13 Then camped Antiochus against Dora with an hundred and twenty thousand fighting men, and eight thousand horsemen.

14 So he compassed the city about, and the ships came by the sea. Thus they pressed by citie by land and by sea, in so much that they suffered no man to goe in nor out.

15 In the meane season came Numenius and his company from Rome, hauing letters written vnto the Kings and confederates from Simon the high Priest, and from the people of the Iewes, to renew friendship and the bond of loue.

16 IVCIVS the Consul of Rome vnto King Ptolemeus sendeth greeting.

17 The ambassadours of the Iewes are come vnto vs as our friends and confederates from Simon the high Priest, and from the people of the Iewes, to renew friendship and the bond of loue.

18 Who haue brought a shield of gold weighing a thousand pound.

19 Wherefore we thought it good to write vnto the kings and countreys that they should not go about to hurt them, nor to fight against them, nor their cities, nor their countrey, neither to maintain their enemies against them.

20 And we were content to receiue of them the shield.

21 If therefore there bee any pestilent fellowses fled from their countrey vnto you, deliuer them vnto Simon the high Priest, that he may punish them according to their owne Law.

22 The same things were written to Demetrius the king, and to Attalus, and to Arathes, and to Ariaces, 23 And to all the countreys, as ¶ Sampiames, and to them of Sparta, and to ¶ Delus, and to ¶ Mindus, and to Sicion, and to Caria. and to Samos, and to Pamphylia, and to Lycia, and to Halicarnassus, and to Rhodus, and to Phaselis, and to Coos, and to Siden, and to Corintia, and to Gnidon, and to Cyprus, and to Cyrene.

24 And they sent a copie of them to Simon the high Priest.

25 ¶ So Antiochus the king camped against Dor the second time, euer readie to take it, and made diuers engines of warre, and kept Tryphon in, that he could neither goe in nor out.

26 Then Simon sent him two thousand chosen men to helpe him, with siluer and gold, and much furniture.

27 Neuertheless, hee would not receiue them, but brake at the couenant which he had made with him afore, and withdrew himselfe from him,

28 And sent vnto him Athenobius one of his friends to commune with him, saying, Ye withhold Ioppe, and Gazara, with the castle that is at Ierusalem the cite of my realme, 29 Whose borders ye haue destroyed, and done great hurt in the land, and haue the gouernment of many places of my kingdome.

30 Wherefore now deliuer the cities which ye haue taken, with the tribute of the places which ye haue rule ouer without the borders of Iudea, 31 Or els giue me for them five hundred talents of siluer, and for the harme that ye haue done, and for the tributes of the places other five hundred talents: if not, wee will come, and fight against you.

32 So Athenobius the kings friend came to Ierusalem, and when he saw the honour of Simon, and the upboard of gold and siluer plate, and so great preparation, hee was astonished and told him the kings message.

33 Then answered Simon, and said vnto him, We haue neither taken other mens lands, nor withholden that which appertaineth to others, but our fathers heritage, which our enemies had vnrighteously in possession a certaine time.

34 But when we had occasion, we recovered the inheritance of our fathers.

35 And whereas thou ¶ requirest Ioppe and Gazara, they did great harme to our people, and threwe our countrey, yet will we giue an hundred talents for them. But Athenobius answered him not one word, 36 But turned againe angry vnto the king, and told him all these words, & the dignitie of Simon, with all that he had seene, and the king was very angry.

37 ¶ In the meane time fled Tryphon by ship vnto Orthonas.

38 Then the king made Cendebeus capitaine of the sea coast, and gaue him hands of footmen and horsemen, 39 And commanded him to remooue the hoste toward Iudea, and to build vp Cedron, and to fortifie the gates, and to warre against the people: but the king pursued Tryphon.

40 So Cendebeus came to Iamnia, and began to vex the people, and to invade Iudea, and to take the people prisoners, and to slay them, 41 And he built vp Cedron, where he set horsemen and garisons, that they might make outrodes by the wayes of Iudea, as the king had commanded him.

C H A P. XVI.

1 Cendebeus the capitaine of Antiochus hoste is put to flight by the sonnes of Simon. 11 Ptolemus the sonne of Abubus killeth Simon and his two sonnes as a banquet. 25 Iohn killeth them that he in waite for his life.

Then came Iohn vp from Gazara, and tolde Simon his father, what Cendebeus had done.

2 So Simon called two of his eldest sonnes, Iudas and Iohn, and said vnto them, I and my brethren, and my fathers house, haue euer from our youth vnto this day fought against the enemies of Israel, and the matters haue had good successe vnder our hands, and we haue deliuered Israel often times.

3 But I am now old, and yee by Gods mercy are of a sufficient age: be ye therefore in stead of mee, and my brother, and goe forth and fight for our nation, and the helpe of Heauen be with you.

4 So he chose twenty thousand fighting men of the countrey with the horsemen, which went forth against Cendebeus, and rested at Modin.

5 In the morning they arose and went into the plaine field: and behold, a mighty great host came against them both of footmen and horsemen: but there was a riuer betwixt them.

6 And Iohn ranged his armie ouer against him, and when he saw that the people was afraid to goe ouer the riuer, he went ouer first himselfe, and the men seeing him, passed thorow after him.

7 Then he diuided his men, and set the horsemen in the mids of the footmen.

8 For their enemies horsemen were very many: but when they blew the trumpets, Cendebeus fled with his hoste, whereof many were slaine, and the remnant gate them to the forresse.

9 Then was Iudas Iohns brother wounded: but Iohn followed after them till hee came to Cedron, which Cendebeus had built.

10 Also they fled vnto the towers, that were in the fields of Azotus, and those did Iohn burne with fire: thus were there slaine two thousand men of them, so he returned peaceably into ¶ land of Iuda.

11 ¶ Now in the field of Iericho was Ptolemus the sonne of Abubus made capitaine, and he had a bundance of siluer and gold.

12 (For he had married the daughter of the high Priest)

13 Therefore he waxed proud in his mind, and thought to rule the land, and thought to slay Simon and his sonnes by deceit.

14 Now as Simon went about thorow the cities of the countrey, and studied carefully for them, he came downe to Iericho with Mattathias, and Iudas his sonnes in the hundred fiftieth and fenen yeere, in the eleuenth moneth, which is the moneth Sibar.

15 Then the sonne of Abubus receiued them by treason into a little hold, called Dochus, which hee had built, where hee made them a great banquet, and and had hid men there.

16 So when Simon and his sons had made good chere, Ptolemeus stood vp with his men, & tooke their weapons, and entred into Simoa in the banquet house, and slew him with his two sonnes and certaine of his seruants.

17 Whereby he committed a great villenie, and recompensed euill for good.

18 Then wrote Ptolemeus these things, and sent to the king that he might send him an host to helpe him, and so would deliuer him the countrey with the cities.

19 He sent other men also vnto Gazara, to take Iohn, and sent letters vnto the captaines to come to him, and he would giue them siluer and gold, and rewards.

20 And to Ierusalem he sent other to take it, and the mountaine of the Temple.

21 But one ran before and told Iohn in Gazara, that his father and his brethren were slaine, and that Ptolemeus had sent to slay him.

22 When he heard this, he was sore astonished, and layd hands on the that were come to slay him, and slew them: for hee knew that they went about to kill him.

23 Concerning other things of Iohn, both of his warres, and of his noble acts (wherein he behaned himselfe manfully) of the building of wals which he made, and other of his deeds, 24 Behold, they are written in the Chronicles of his Priesthood from the time that he was made high Priest after his father.

THE SECOND BOOKE OF the Maccabees.

CHAP. I.

1 An Epistle of the Jewes that dwelt at Ierusalem, sent vnto them that dwelt in Egypt, wherein they exhort them to giue thanks for the death of Antiochus. 19 Of the fire that was bid in the pis. 24 The prayer of Nereias.

He brethren the Iewes which bee at Ierusalem, and they that are in the countrey of Iudea, vnto the brethren the Iewes that are thorowout Egypt, send salutation and greeting.

1 God be gracious vnto you, and remember his covenant made with Abraham and Isaac, and Iacob his faithfull seruants,

2 And giue you all an heart to worship him, and to doe his will with a whole heart, and with a willing mind,

3 And open your hearts in his Lawe and commandements, and send you peace,

4 And heare your prayers, and bee reconciled with you, and neuer forsake you in time of trouble.

5 Thus now we pray here for you.

6 When Demetrius reigned in the hundred threescore and ninth yeere, we Iewes wrote vnto you in the trouble and violence, that came vnto vs in those yeeres, after that Iason and his company departed out of the holy land and kingdom,

7 And burnt the porch, & shed innocent blood. Then we prayed vnto the Lord, and were heard: we offered sacrifices and fine floure, and lighted the lampes, and set forth the bread.

8 Now therefore keepe ye the dayes of the feast of the Tabernacles in the moneth Challeu.

9 In the hundred fourescore and eight yeere, the people that was at Ierusalem and in Iudea, and the counsell and Iudas vnto Aristobolus king Ptolemeus master, which is of the stocke of the anointed Priests, and to the Iewes that are in Egypt, sendeth greeting and health.

10 Inasmuch as God hath deliuered vs from great perils, wee thanke him highly, as though wee had overcome the king.

11 For he brought them into Persia by heapes, that fought against the holy citie.

12 For albeit the captaine and the armie that was with him seemed inuincible, yet they were slaine in the temple of Nanea, by the deceit of Naneas priests, 13 For Antiochus, as though he would dwell with her, came thither, hee, and his friends with him, to receive money vnder the title of a dowrie.

14 But when the priests of Nanea had layed it forth, and hee was entred with a small company within the temple, they shut the temple, when Antiochus was come in.

15 And by opening a priue doore of the vault, they cast stones as it were thunder vpon the captaine, and his, and hauing bruiised them in pieces, they cut off their heads, and threw them to those that were without.

16 God be blessed in all things, which hath deliuered vp the wicked.

17 Whereas wee are now purposed to keepe the purification of the Temple vpon the five and twentieth day of the moneth Challeu, we thought it necessary to certifie you thereof, that yee also might keepe the feast of the Tabernacles, and of the fire which was giuen vs when Neemias offered sacrifice, after that hee had built the Temple and the altar.

18 For when as our fathers were led away vnto Persia, the Priests that sought the honour of God, tooke the fire of the altar priuily, and hid it in an hollow pit, which was drie in the bottom, & there in they kept it, so that the place was vnkownen vnto euery man.

19 Now after many yeeres, when it pleased God that Neemias should be sent from the king of Persia, hee sent of the posteritie of those Priests which had hid it, to fetch the fire, and as they told vs, they found no fire, but thicke water.

20 Then commanded he them to draw it vp, and to bring it: and when the things appertaining to the sacrifices were brought, Neemias commanded the Priests to sprinkle the wood, and the things laid thereupon with water.

21 When this was done, and the time came that the Sunne shone, which afore was hid in the cloud, there was a great fire kindled, so that euery man marueiled.

22 Now the Priests and all prayed, while the sacrifice was consuming: Jonathan began, and the other answered thereunto.

23 And the prayer of Neemias was after this manner: O Lord, Lord God, maker of all things, which art fearefull, and strong, and righteous, and mercifull, and the onely and gracious King,

19 Only liberal, only iust and almighty and eu-erlasting, thou that deliuerest Israel from all trouble, and hast chosen the fathers, & sanctified them,

20 Receiue the sacrifice for thy whole people of Israel, and preferue thine owne portion and sanctifice it.

21 Gather those together that are scattered from vndeliner the that serue among the heathen: looke vpon them which are despised and abhorred, that the heathen may know that thou art our God.

22 Punish them that oppresse vs, and with pride doe vs wrong.

23 Plant thy people againe in thine Holy place as Moyses hath spoken.

24 And the Priests sang Psalmes thereunto.

25 Now when the sacrifice was consumed, Ne-emias commanded the great stones to be sprinkled with the residue of the water.

26 Which when it was done, there was kindled a flame, which was consumed by the light that shined from the altar.

27 So when this matter was knowne, it was told the king of Persia, that in the place where the Priests which were led away, had hid fire, there appeared water, wherewith Neemias and his company had purified the sacrifices.

28 The king tried out the thing, and closed the place about and made it holy.

29 And to them that the king fauoured, he gaue and bestowed many gifts:

30 And Neemias called the same place Eph-thar, which is to say, purification: but many men call it Nephthar.

CHAP. II.

1 How Ieremias hid the Tabernacle, the Arke and the altar in the hill. 2 Of the five bookes of Iason contained in one.

It is found also in the writings of Ieremias the Prophet, that he commanded them which were caried away, to take fire, as was declared, and as the prophet commanded them that were led into captivity.

2 Gining them a Law that they should not forget the commandments of the Lord, and that they should not erre in their minds, when they saw images of gold and silver with their ornaments.

3 These and such other things commanded hee them, and exhorted them that they should not let the law goe out of their hearts.

4 It is written also, how the Prophet by an oracle that he had, charged them to take the tabernacle and the Arke and follow him: and when hee came vp into the mountaine where Moyses went vp, and saw the heritage of God.

5 Ieremias went forth & found an hollow caue, whereln he laid the Tabernacle, and the Arke, and the altar of incense, and so stopped the doore.

6 And there came certain of those that folowed him, to marke the place: but they could not find it.

7 Which when Ieremias perceived, he repro-ued them, saying, For that place it shall bee vn-knowne, vntill the time that God gather his people together againe, and that mercy be shewed.

8 Then shall the Lord shew them these things, and the Maiesty of the Lord shall appeare, and the cloud also as it was shewed vnder Moyses, and as when Salomon desired that the place might bee honorably sanctified.

9 For it is manifest, that hee, being a wise man, offered the sacrifice of dedication, and consecration of the Temple.

10 And as when Moyses praied vnto the Lord, the fire came down from heauen and consumed the sacrifice: So when Salomon prayed, the fire came downe from heauen, & consumed the burnt offering.

11 And Moyses said because the sinne offering was not eaten, therefore it is consumed.

12 So Salomon kept those eight dayes.

13 These things also are declared in the writings & registers of Neemias, and how he made a librarie, & how he gathered the actes of the Kings, and of the Prophets, and the acts of Dauid, and the epistles of the kings concerning the holy gifts.

14 Euen so Iudas also gathered all things that came to passe by the warres that were among vs, which things we haue.

15 Wherefore if yee haue need thereof, send some to fetch them vnto you.

16 Whereas we then are about to celebrate the purification, we haue written vnto you, and ye shall doe well if ye keepe the same dayes.

17 Wee hope also that the God, which deliue-red all his people, and gaue an heritage to them all and the kingdom, and the priesthood, and the Sanctuary,

18 As he promised in the Law, will shortly haue mercy vpon vs, and gather vs together from vnder the heauen into his holy place: for hee hath saued vs from great perils and hath cleaused the place.

19 As concerning Iudas Maccabeus and his brethren, the purification of the great Temple, and the dedication of the altar,

20 And the warres against Antiochus Epiphanes, and Eupator his sonne,

21 And the manifest signes that came from heauen vnto those which manfully stood for the Iewes religion: (for though they were but few, yet they ranne thorow whole countreys, and pursued the barbarous armies,

22 And repaired the Temple that was renew-med thorowout all the world, and deliuered the city, and established the lawes that were like to be abolished, because the Lord was mercifull vnto them with all lenitie)

23 Wee will assay to abridge in one volume those things that Iason the Cyrenian hath declared in five bookes.

24 For considering the wonderfull number, and the difficulty that they haue that would bee occupied in the rehearsall of stories, because of the diuersitie of the matters,

25 We haue endeauoured that they that would read might haue pleasure, and that they which are studious, might easily keepe them in memorie, and that whoeuer read them, might haue profit.

26 Therefore to vs that haue taken in hand this great labour, it was no easie thing to make this abridgement, but required both sweat & watching.

27 Like as hee that maketh a feast, and seeketh other mens commodity, hath no small labour: so we also for many mens sakes are very well content to vndertake this great labour.

28 Leauing to the author the exact diligence of every particular, we will labour to goe forward according to the prescript order of an abridgement.

29 For as hee that will build a new house, must prouide for the whole building, but he that setteth out the plat, or goeth about to paint it, seeketh but only what is comely for the decking thereof:

30 Euen so I thinke for vs that it appertaineth to the first writer of a story to enter deeply into it, and to make mention of all things, and to bee curious in euery part:

31 But it is permitted to him that wil shorten it,
to

to vie few words, and to anioide those things that are curious therein

32 Here then will wee begin the story, adding thus much to our former wordes, that it is but a foolish thing to abound in wordes before the story, and to be short in the story.

C H A P. III.

2 Of the honour done vnto the Temple by the king of the Gentiles. 6 Simon offereth what treasure is in the Temple. 7 Heliodorus is sent to take them away. 26 Hee is stricken of God, and healed at the prayer of Onias.

WHat time as the holy city was inhabited with all peace, and when the lawes were very well kept, because of the godlinesse of Onias the high Priest, and hatred of wickednesse,

2 It came to passe that euen the Kings did honour the place, and garnished the Temple with great gifts,

3 Inasmuch that Seleucus King of Asia, of his own rents, bare all the costs belonging to the seruice of the sacrifices.

4 But one Simon of the tribe of Benjamin being appointed ruler of the Temple, contended with the high Priest concerning the iniquitie committed in the citie.

For the state and prouision.

5 And when he could not overcome Onias, hee gave him to Apollonius the son of Thrafeas, which then was gouernour of Coelosyria, and Phenice,

6 And told him that the treasure in Ierusalem was full of innumerable money, which did not belong to the prouision of the sacrifices, and that it were possible that these things might come into the Kings hands.

7 Now when Apollonius came to the king, and had shewed him of the money, as it was told him, the King chose out Heliodorus his treasurer, and sent him with a commandement, to bring him the foresaid money.

8 Immediately Heliodorus tooke his journey as though hee would visit the cities of Coelosyria and Phenice, but in effect to fulfill the kings purpose.

9 So when hee came to Ierusalem and was curiously receiued of the high Priest into the city, he declared what was determined concerning the money, and shewed the cause of his coming, and asked if these things were so indeed.

10 Then the high Priest told him that there were such things laide vp by the widows and fatherlesse, 11 And that a certaine of it belonged vnto Hircanus the sonne of Tobias a noble man, and not as that wicked Simon had reported, and that in all, there were but foure hundred talents of siluer, and two hundred of gold, 12 And that it were altogether impossible to do this wrong to them that had committed it of trust to the Holinesse of the place and Temple, which is honoured thorow the whole world, for holinesse and integritie.

13 But Heliodorus because of the kings commandement giuen him, said, That in any wise it must be brought into the kings treasure.

14 So hee appointed a day, and went in to take order for these things: then there was no small grieue thorowout the whole citie.

15 For the Priests fell downe before the altar in the Priests garments, and called vnto heauen vpon him which had made a Law concerning things giuen to be kept, that they should be safely preferred for such as had committed them to be kept.

16 Then they that looked the high Priest in the face, were wounded in their heart: for his countenance and the changing of his colour declared the sorow of his mind.

17 The man was so wrapped in feare and trembling of the body, that it was manifest to them that looked vpon him, what sorow he had in his heart.

18 Others also came out of their houses by heapes, vnto the common prayer, because the place was like to come vnto contempt.

19 And the women girt with sackcloth vnder their breasts filled the streets: and the virgins that were kept in, ran some to the gates, and some to the walles, and other looked out of the windowes.

20 And all held vp their hands toward heauen, and made prayer.

21 It was a lamentable thing to see the multitude that fell downe of all sorts, and the expedition of the high Priest being in such anguish.

22 Therefore they called vpon the almighty Lord, that he would keepe safe and sure the things which were laid vp for those that had deliuered them.

23 Neuertheless, the thing that Heliodorus was determined to doe, that did he performe.

24 And as he and his souldiers were now there present by the treasure, he that is the Lord of the spirits and of all power, shewed a great vision, so that all they which presumed to come with him, were astonishd at the power of god, and fell into feare and trembling.

25 For there appeared vnto them a horse with a terrible man sitting vpon him most richly habited, and hee ran fiercely, and smote at Heliodorus with his forefeete, and it seemed that hee that sat vpon the horse had harness of gold.

26 Moreover, there appeared two yong men, notable in strength, excellent in beautie, and comely in apparrell, which stood by him on either side, and scourged him continually, and gaue him many fore stripes.

27 And Heliodorus fell suddenly vnto the ground, and was couered with great darkenes: but they that were with him, took him vp, and put him in a litter.

28 Thus hee that came with so great company, and many souldiers into the same treasury, was borne out: for he could not helpe himselfe with his weapons.

29 So they did know the power of God manifestly, but hee was dumbe by the power of God, and lay, destitute of all hope and health.

30 And they praised the Lord that had honored his own place: for the Temple, which a litle afore was full of feare and trouble, when the Almighty Lord appeared, was filled with ioy and gladnesse.

31 Then straightwayes certaine of Heliodorus friends prayed Onias that hee would call vpon the most High to graunt him his life which lay readie to giue vp the ghost.

32 So the high Priest considering that the king might suspect that the Iewes had done Heliodorus some euill, hee offered a sacrifice for the health of the man.

33 Now when the high Priest had made his prayer, the same yong men in the same clothing appeared & stood beside Heliodorus, saying, Gue Onias the high Priest great thanks: for for his sake hath the Lord graunted thee thy life:

34 And seeing that thou hast bene scourged from heauen, declare vnto all men the mighty power of God: and when they had spoken these wordes, they appeared no more.

35 So Heliodorus offered vnto the Lord sacrifice, and made great vowes vnto him, which had granted him his life, and thanked Onias, and went againe with his hoste to the king.

36 Then testified he vnto euery man of the great works of God that he had seene with his eyes.

37 And when the king asked Heliodorus, who were meet to be sent yet once againe to Ierusalem, he said, 38 If thou hast any enimie or traitour, send him thither, and thou shalt receiue him wel scourged, if he escape with his life, for in that place, no doubt, there is a speciall power of God.

39 For he that dwelleth in heauen, hath his eye on that place, and defendeth it, and he beareth and destroyeth them that come to hurt it.

40 This came to passe concerning Heliodorus, and the keeping of the treasure.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Simon reporteth euill of Onias, 7 Iason obtaineth the office of the high Priest by corrupting the King, 27 and was by Menelaus defrauded by like bribing.

34 Onias is slaine traitorously by Andronicus.

His Simon now, of whom we spake afore, being a betrayer of the money, and of his owne natural country, reported euill of Onias, as though he had moued Heliodorus vnto this, and had bene the inuenter of the euill.

3 Thus was he bold to call him a traitour, that was so beneficiall to the citie, and to Egypt of his nation, and so zealous of his Lawes.

3 But when his malice increased so farre, that through one that belonged to Simon, murders were committed,

4 Onias considering the danger of this contention, and that Apollonius, as hee that was the gouernour of Coelosyria and Phenice, did rage, and increased Simons malice,

5 He went to the king not as an accuser of the citizens, but as one that intended the commonwealth both priuately and publickly.

6 For he saw it was not possible, except the king tooke order to quiet the matters, and that Simon would not leaue off his follie.

7 But after the death of Seleucus, when Antiochus called Epiphanes, tooke the kingdome, Iason the brother of Onias laboured by vnlawful meanes to be hie Priest.

8 For he came vnto the king, and promised him three hundred and threescore talents of siluer, and of another rent fourescore talents.

9 Beside this, he promised him an hundred and fiftie, if he might haue licence to set vp a place for exercise, and a place for the youth, and that they would vname the city of Ierusalem, Antiochians.

10 The which thing when the king had granted, and he had gotten the superiortie, hee began immediately to draw his kinsmen to the customes of the Gentiles.

11 And abolished the friendly priuiledges of the kings that the Iewes had set vp by Iohn the father of Eupolemus, which was sent ambassadour vnto Rome, to become friends, and confederates: he put down their lawes and policies, and brought vp new statutes and contrary to the Law.

12 For he presumed to build a place of exercise vnder the castle, and brought the chiefe young men vnder his subiection, and made them weare hats.

13 So there began a great desire to follow the manners of the Gentiles, and they tooke vp the fashions of strange nations, by the exceeding wickednesse of Iason, not the high Priest, but the vngodly person.

14 So that the Priestes were now no more diligent about the seruice of the altar, but despised the Temple, and regarded not the sacrifices, but made haste to be partakers of the wicked expences at the play after the casting of the stone.

15 For they did not set by the honour of their fathers, but liked the glory of the Gentiles best of all.

16 By reason wherof great calamity came vpon them: for they had them to be their enemies, and punishers, whose customs they followed so earnestly, and desired to be like them in all things.

17 For it is not a light thing to transgresse against the Lawes of God: but the time following shall declare these things.

18 ¶ Now when, the games that were vsed Or, Olympian sports were fift yere were played at Tyrus, the king being present, 19 This wicked Iason sent from Ierusalem men to looke vpon them, as though they had bene Antiochians, which brought three hundred drachmes of siluer for a sacrifice to Hercules: albeit they that carried them, desired they might not be bestowed on the sacrifice (because it was not comely) but to be bestowed for other expences.

20 So he that sent them, sent them for the sacrifice of Hercules: but because of those that brought them, they were giuen to the making of gallies.

21 ¶ Now Apellonius the sonne of Menestheus was sent into Egypt, because of the coronation of king Ptolemes Philometor: but when Antiochus perceived that he was enill affectioned toward his affaires, he sought his owne assurance, and departed from thence to soppe, and so came to Ierusalem.

22 Where hee was honourably receiued of Iason, and of the city, and was brought in with torchlight, and with great shoutings, and so he went with his hoste vnto Phenice.

23 Three yeres afterward Iason sent Menelaus, the foresaid Simons brother, to beare the money vnto the king, & to bring to passe certaine necessary affaires, whereof he had giuen him a memoriall.

24 But he being commended to the king, magnified him for the appearance of his power, & turned the Priesthood vnto himself: for he gaue three hundred talents of siluer more then Iason.

25 So he gaue the kings letters patents, albeit he had nothing in himself worthy of the hie Priesthood, but bare the stomack of a capell tyrant, and the wrath of a wild beast.

26 Then Iason which had deceived his owne brother, being deceiued by another, was compelled to flee into the countrey of the Ammonites.

27 So Menelaus gat the dominion: but as for the money that he had promised vnto the king, hee tooke no order for it, albeit Solstratus the ruler of the castle required it.

28 For vnto him appertained the gathering of the customes: wherefore they were both called before the king.

30 ¶ While these things were in doing, the Tharsians, and they of Mallot made insurrection, because they were giuen to the kings concubine called Antiochis.

31 Then came the king in all haste to appeale the businesse, leauing Andronicus a man of authoritie to be his lieutenant.

32 Now Menelaus supposing that he had gotten a con-a convenient time, stole certaine vessels of gold out of the Temple, and gaue certaine of them to Andronicus: and some he sold in Tyrus, and in the cities thereby.

33 Which when Onias knew of a suretie, he reproued him, and withdrew himselfe into a Sanctuary at Daphne by Antiochia.

34 Wherefore Menelaus, taking Andronicus apart prayed him to slay Onias: so when hee came to Onias, he counselled him craftily, giuing him his right hand with an oth: (howbeit he suspected him, and perswaded him to come out of the Sanctuary) so hee slew him incontinently without any regard of righteoufnesse.

35 For the which cause not only the Iewes, but many other nations also were grieved, and tooke it heauily for the vnrightheous death of this man.

36 And when the King was come againe from the places about Cilicia, the Iewes that were in the cite, and certaine of the Greeks that abhorred the fact also, complained because Onias was slaine without cause.

37 Therefore Antiochus was sorie in his mind, and he had compassion & wept, because of the mortellie and great discretion of him that was dead.

38 Wherefore being kindled with anger, hee tooke away Andronicus garment of purple, and rent his clothes, and commanded him to bee led thorowout the cite, and in the same place where he had committed the wickednesse against Onias, he was slaine as a murderer. Thus the Lord rewarded him his punishment, as he had deserved.

39 Now when Lyfimachus had done many wicked deeds in the cite through the counsell of Menelaus, & the bruit was spread abroad, the multitude gathered them together against Lyfimachus: for he had caried out now much vessell of gold.

40 And when the people arose, and were full of anger, Lyfimachus armed about three thousand, and began to vse vnlawfull power, a certaine tyrant being their captaine, who was no lesse decayed in wit, then in age.

41 But when they vnderstood the purpose of Lyfimachus, some gate stones, some great clubs, and some cast handfulls of dust, which lay by, vpon Lyfimachus men, and those that inuaded them.

42 Whereby many of them were wounded, some were slaine, and all the other chased away: but the wicked Churchrobber himselfe they killed besides the treasure.

43 For these causes an accusation was laid against Menelaus.

44 And when the king came to Tyrus, three men sent from the Senate, pleaded the cause before him.

45 But Menelaus being now conuincied, promised to Ptolemes the sonne of Dorimenes much money if he would perswade the King.

46 So Ptolemes went to the king into a court, where as he was to coole himselfe, and turned the Kings mind, 47 Insomuch that he discharged Menelaus from the accusation (notwithstanding hee was the cause of all mischiefe) and condemned those poore men to death, which if they had told their cause, yea, before the Scythians, they should haue bene heard as innocent.

48 Thus were they soone punished vnrighly, which followed vpon the matter for the cite, and for the people, and for the holy vessels.

49 Wherefore they of Tyrus hated that wickednesse, and ministered all things liberally for their buriall.

50 And so through the conetabulnesse of them that were in power, Menelaus remained in authoritie, increasing in malice, and declared himselfe a great traitour to the citizens.

C H A P. V.

2 Of the signes and tokens seene in Ierusalem. 6 Of the ende and wickednesse of Iason. 11 The pursuing of Antiochus against the Iewes. 15 The spoiling of the Temple. 27 Maccabeus fleeth into the wilderness.

About the same time Antiochus vnderooke his A second voyage into Egypt.

3 And then were there seene throughout all the cite of Ierusalem, forty dayes long, horsemen running in the aire, with robes of gold, & as bands of spearmen,

3 And as troups of horsemen set in aray, incounting and coursing one against another with shaking of shields, and multitude of darts, and drawing of swords, and shooting of arrowes, and the glittering of the golden armour seene, and harness of all sorts.

4 Therefore euery man prayed that those tokens might turne to good.

5 Now when there was gone forth a false rumour, as though Antiochus had bene dead, Iason tooke at the least a thousand men, and came suddenly vpon the cite, and they that were vpon the walles, being put backe, and the cite at length taken,

6 Menelaus fled into the castle, but Iason slewe his owne citizens without mercie, not considering that to haue the aduantage against his kinsmen, is greatest disadvantage: but thought that hee had gotten the victorie of his enemies, and not of his owne nation.

7 Yet he gate not the superiority, but at the last receiued shame for the reward of his treason, and went againe like a vagabond into the countrey of the Ammonites.

8 Finally, he had this end of his wicked conuersation, that he was accused before Areta, the king of the Arabians, and fled from cite to cite, being pursued of euery man, and hated as a forsaker of the Lawes, and was in abomination, as an enemy of his countrey and citizens, and was driuen into Egypt.

9 Thus he that had chased many out of their towne countrey, perished as a banished man, after that he was gone to the Lacedemonians: thinking there to haue gotten succour by reason of kindred.

10 And he that had cast many out vnburied, was thrown out himselfe, no man mourning for him, nor putting him in his graue: neither was he partner of his fathers sepulchre.

11 Now when these things that were done, were declared to the king, he thought that Iudas would haue fallen from him: wherefore he came with a furious mind out of Egypt, and tooke the cite by violence.

12 He commaunded his men of warre also, that they should kill, and not spare such as they met, and to slay such as went into their houses.

13 Thus was there a slaughter of yong men, and old men, and a destruction of men and women and children, and virgins, and infants were murdered:

14 So that within three dayes were slaine fiftie score thousand, and forty thousand taken prisoners, and there were as many sold as were slaine.

15 Yet was he not content with this, but durst go into the most holy Temple of all the world, hauing Menelaus that traitour to the Lawes, and to his own country, to be his guide,

16 And with his wicked hands tooke the holy vessels which other kings had giuen for the garnishing, glory and honour of that place, and handled them with his wicked hands.

17 So haughty in minde was Antiochus, that hee considered not, that God was not a little wroth for the finnes of them that dwell in the citie, for the which such contempt came vpon that place.

18 For if they had not bene wrapped in many finnes, hee alsoone as he had come, had suddenly bin punished, and put backe from his presumption, as Meliodorus was, whome Seleucus the King sent to view the treasury.

19 But God hath not choien the nation for the places sake, but the place for the nations sake.

20 And therefore is the place become partaker of the peoples trouble, but afterward shall it bee partaker of the benefits of the Lord, & as it is now forsaken in the wrath of the Almighty, so when the great Lord shall be reconciled, it shall be set vp in great worship againe.

21 ¶ So when Antiochus had taken eightene hundred talents out of the Temple, he gat him to Antiochia in al haste, thinking in his pride to make men faile vpon the dry land, and to walk vpon the sea: such an high mind had he.

22 But hee left deputies to vex the people: at Ierusalem, Philip a Phrygian by birth, in manners more cruell then he that set him there:

23 And at Garizin Andronicus: and with them Menelaus, which was more grieuous to the citizens then the other, and was despitfull against the Iewes his citizens.

24 He sent also Apollonius a cruell prince, with an army of two & twenty thousand, whom he commanded to slay those that were toward mans age, and to sell the women and the yonger sort.

25 So whē he came to Ierusalem, he fained peace, & kept him fill vntil the holy day of Sabbath, and then finding the Iewes keeping the feast, hee commanded his men to take their weapons.

26 And so he slew all them that were gone forth to the shew, and running through the city with his men armed, hee murdered a great number.

27 But Iudas Maccabues, being as it weree the strength, fled into the wildernes, and liued there in the mountaines with his company among the beastes, and dwelling there, & eating grasse, lest they should be partakers of the filthinesse.

CHAP. VI.

1 The Iewes are compelled to leaue the law of God.
4 The Temple is defiled. 10 The women cruellly punished. 18 The grieuous paine of Seleucus.

NOr long after this, sent the king an old man of Athens, for to compell the Iewes to transgresse the lawes of the fathers, and not to be gouerned by the law of God.

2 And to defile the Temple that was at Ierusalem, and to call it the Temple of Iupiter Olympius, and that of Garizin, according as they did that dwelt at that place, Iupiter that keepeth hospitality.

3 This wicked gouernment was sore and grieuous vnto the people.

4 For the Temple was full of dissoluition, and gluttony of the Gentiles, which dallied with harlots, and had to doe with women within the circuit of the holy places, and brought in such things as were not lawfull.

5 The altar also was full of such things, as were abominable, and forbidden by the Law.

6 Neither was it lawfull to keepe the Sabbaths, nor to obferue their ancient feastes, nor plainly to confesse himselfe to be a Iew.

7 In the day of the kings birth they were grieuously compelled perforce euery moneth to banquet, and when the feast of Bacchus was kept, they were constrained to goe in the procession of Bacchus with garlands of ywie.

8 Moreover, through the counsell of Ptolemus, there went out a commandement vnto the next cities of the heathen against the Iewes, that the like custome, and banquetting should be kept.

9 And who so would not conformance themselves to the manners of the Gentiles, should bee put to death: then might a man haue scene the present misery.

10 For there were two women brought forth, that had circumcised their finnes, who when they had led round about the city (the babes hanging at their breasts) they cast them downe headlong ouer the walles.

11 Some that were run together into denses to keepe the Sabbath day secretly, were discovered vnto Philip, and were burnt together, because that for the reuerence of the honourable day they were afraid to helpe themselves.

12 ¶ Now I beseech those which read this booke, that they bee not discouraged for these calamities, but that they iudge these afflictions, not to bee for destruction, but for a chastening of our nation.

13 For it is a token of his great goodnesse, not to suffer finnes long to continue, but straightwayes to punish them.

14 For the Lord doth not long wait for vs, as for other nations whome hee punisheth when they are come to the fulnesse of their finnes:

15 But thus hee dealeth with vs, that our finnes should not be heaped vp to the full, so that afterward he should punish vs.

16 And therefore he neuer withdraweth his mercy from vs: and though hee punish with aduersitie, yet doth he neuer forsake his people.

17 But let this be spoken now for a warning vnto vs: and now will we come to the declaring of the matter in few words.

18 ¶ Elcazar then one of the principal Scribes, an aged man, and of a well fauoured countenance, was constrained to open his mouth, and to eate swines flesh.

19 But he desiring rather to die gloriously then to liue with hatred, offered himselfe willingly to the torment and spit it out:

20 As they ought to go to death, which suffer punishment for such things, as is not lawfull to taste of for the desire to liue.

21 But they that had the charge of this wicked banquet, for that old friendship of the man, tooke him aside priuily, and prayed him that hee would take such flesh as was lawfull for him to vse, and as he would prepare for himselfe, and dissemble as though hee had eaten of the things appointed by the king, euen the flesh of the sacrifice.

22 That in so doing he might be deliuered from death and that for the old friendship that was among them, hee would receiue this fauour.

23 But hee began to consider discretely, and as became his age, and the excellencie of his ancient yeeres, and the honour of his gray haire, whereunto he was come, and his most honest conseruation from his childhood, but chiefly the holy Law made and giuen by God: therefore hee answered consequently quently, and willed them straightway to send him to the grate.

Or, eating of the flesh that was sacrificed.

24 For it becommeth not our age, said he, to dissemble, whereby many yong perous might thinke, that Eleazar being fourescore yeere olde and ten, were now gone to another religion,

25 And so through mine hypocrisie (for a little time of a transitory life) they might be decieved by me, and I should procure malediction and reproch to mine old age.

26 For though I were now deliuered from the torments of men, yet could I not escape the hand of the Almighty, neither alue nor dead.

27 Wherefore I will now change this life manfully, and will shew my selfe such as mine age requieth.

28 And so wil leaue a notable example for such as be yong, to die willingly & courageously for the honourable and holy Lawes. And when he had said these words, immediately he went to torment.

29 Now they that ledde him, changed the loue which they bare him before into hatred, because of the words that he had spoken: for they thought it had bene a rage.

30 And as hee was ready to giue the ghost, because of the strokes, hee sighed, and said, The Lord that hath the holy knowledge, knoweth manifestly, that whereas I might haue bene deliuered from death, I am scourged, and suffer these fore paines of my body: but in my minde I suffer them gladly for his religion.

31 Euen now after this manner ended he his life, leauing his death for an example of a noble courage, & a memoriall of vertue, not anely vnto yong men, but vnto all his nation.

CHAP. VII.

The punishments of the Ieuin brethren, and of their mother.

IT came to passe also, that seuen brethren with their mother were taken to be compelled by the King against the Law to taste swines flesh, and were tormented with scourges and whips.

1 But one of them which spake first, sayd thus, What seekest thou? and what wouldest thou know of vs? we are ready to die, rather then to transgresse the lawes of our fathers.

2 Then was the king angry, and commaunded to heat pans and caldrons, which were incontinently made hote.

3 And he commaunded the tongue of him that spake first, to be cut out, and to flay him, and to cut off the vtmost parts of his body in the sight of his other brethren and his mother.

4 Nowe when hee was thus mangled in all his members, he commaunded him to be brought aliuie to the fire, and to frie him in the pan: and while the smoke for a long time smoked out of the pan, the other brethren with their mother, exhorted one another to die courageously, saying in this manner,

5 The Lord God doeth regard vs, and indeede taketh pleasure in vs, as Moses declared in y song, wherein he testified openly, saying that God wil take pleasure in his seruants.

6 So when the first was dead after this manner, they brought the second to make him a mocking stocke: and when they had pulled the skinne with the haire out of his head, they asked him if he would eate, or be he punished in all the members of the body.

7 But her answered in his owne language, and sayd, No. Wherefore he was tormented forthwith like the first.

8 And when he was at the last breath, he sayd, Thou murderer takest this present life frō vs, but the king of the world wil raise vs vp, which die for his lawes, in the resurrexion of euerlasting life.

9 After him was the third had in derision, and when they had demanded his tongue, he put it out incontinently, and stretched forth his handes boldly.

10 And spake manfully, These haue I had from the heauen, but now for the Law of God I despise them, and trust that I shall receiue them of him againe.

11 Inasmuch that the king and they which were with him, maruelled at the yong mans courage, as at one that nothing regarded the paines.

12 Now when hee was dead also, they vexed and tormented the fourth in like manner.

13 And when he was now ready to die, hee said thus, It is better that we should change this which wee might hope for of men, and wait for our hope from God, that we may be raised vp againe by him: as for thee, thou shalt haue no resurrexion to life.

14 Afterward they brought the fift also, and tormented him, 15 Who looked vpon the king, and said, Thou hast power among men, and though thou be a mortall man, thou doest what thou wilt: but thinke not that God hath forsaken our nation.

16 But abide a while, & thou shalt see his great power, how he will torment thee and thy feed.

17 After him also they brought the sixt, who being at the point of death, said, Deceiue not thy selfe foolishly: for we suffer these things which are worthy to be wondered at for our owne sakes, because we haue offended our God.

18 But thinke not thou, which vndertakest to fight against God, that thou shalt be vn Timer.

19 But the mother was maruolous aboue all other, and worthe of honourable memory: for when she saw her seuen sonnes slaine within the space of one day, she suffered it with a good will, because of the hope that she had in the Lord.

20 Yea, she exhorted euery one of them in her owne language, and being full of courage, and widom, stirred vp her womanly affection with a manly stomacke, and said vnto them,

21 I cannot tell how ye came into my wombe, for I neither gaue you breath nor life: it is not I that set in order the members of your body.

22 But doubtlesse the Creatour of the world, which formed the birth of man, and found out the beginning of all things, will also of his owne mercy giue you breath and life againe, as ye now regard not your owne felnes for his Lawes sake.

23 Now Antiochus thinking himselfe despised, and considering the inuiolable words, while the yongest was yet aliuie, he did exhort him not only with words, but sware also vnto him by an othe, that he would make him rich and wealthy, if hee would forsake the Lawes of his fathers, and that he would take him as a friend, and giue him offices.

24 But when the yong man would in no case hearken vnto him, the king called his mother, and exhorted that she would counsell the yong man to saue his life.

25 And when he had exhorted her with many words, shee promised him that she would counsell her sonne.

26 So she turned her vnto him, launging the small tyrant to scorne, and spake in her owne language,

On my sonne, haue pity vpon me, that bare thee nine months in my wombe, and gaue thee sucke three yeeres, and nourished thee, and tooke care of thee vnto this age, and brought thee vp.

28 I beseech thee, my sonne, looke vpon the heauen, and the earth, and all that is therein, and consider that God made them of things that were not, and so was mankind made likewise.

29 Feare not this hangman, but shew thy selfe worthy such brethren, by suffering death, that I may receiue thee in mercy with thy brethren.

30 While he was yet speaking these words, the young man said, Whom wayt yee for? I will not obey the kings commandment: but I will obey the Commandment of the Law that was giuen vnto our fathers by Moyses.

31 And thou that imagine & all mischief against the Hebrewes shalt not escape the hand of God.

32 For wee suffer these things, because of our finnes.

33 But though the liuing Lord be angry with vs a litle while for our chastening and correction, yet will he be reconciled with his owne seruants.

34 But thou, O man without religion, and most wicked of all men, list not thy selfe vp in vaine, which art puffed vp with vncertaine hope, and listest thine hands against the seruants of God.

35 For thou hast not yet escaped the iudgement of almighty God, which seeth all things.

36 My brethren that haue suffered a litle paine, are now vnder the diuine conenant of Euerlasting life: but thou through the iudgement of God, shalt suffer iust punishments for thy pride.

37 Therefore I, as my brethren haue done, offer my body and life for the Lawes of our fathers, beseeching God that he will soone be mercifull vnto our nation, and that thou by torment and punishment maiest confesse that he is the only God.

38 And that in mee and my brethren the wrath of the Almighty, which is righteously fallen vpon all our nation, may cease.

39 Then the king being kindled with anger, raget more cruelly against him then the others, and tooke it grievously that he was mocked.

40 So he also died holily, & put his whole trust in the Lord.

41 Last of all after the sonnes, was the mother put to death.

42 Let this now bee enough spoken concerning the banquetts and extreme cruelties.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Judas gathered together his host. 2 Nicanor is sent against Judas. 3 Judas exhorteth his soldiers to constancy. 4 Nicanor is overcome. 5 The Peres give thanks after they haue put their enemies to flight, dividing part of the spoiles vnto the fathersless and vnto the widows. 6 Timotheus and Bacchides are discomfited. 7 Nicanor fleeth vnto Antiochus.

Then Judas Maccabeus, and they that were with him, went priuily into the towne, & called their kinfolks and friends together, and took vnto them all such as continued in the Iewes religion, and assembled fixe thousand men.

1. So they called vpon the Lord, that he would haue an eye vnto his people, which was vexed of enemy man, and haue pity vpon the Temple that was defiled by wicked men,

2. And that hee would haue compassion vpon the citie that was destroyed, and almost brought to the ground, and that he would heare the voyce of the blood that cried vnto him,

And that hee would remember the wicked slaughter of the innocent children, and the blasphemies committed against his name, & that he would shew his hatred against the wicked.

3. Nowe when Maccabeus had gathered this multitude, hee could not be withstood by the heathen: for the wrath of the Lorde was turned into mercy.

4. Therefore hee came at vnawares, and burnt vp the towne & cities: yet he tooke the most commodious places, and slew many of the enemies.

5. But specially hee vied the nights to make such assaults, inasomuch that the braute of his manlinesse was spread euery where.

6. So when Philip saw that this man increased by litle and litle, and that things prospered with him for the most part, he wrote vnto Ptolemeus the gouernor of Coelosyria and Phenice, to helpe him in the kings businesse.

7. Then sent hee speedily Nicanor the sonne of Patroclus a speciall friend of his, and gaue him of all nations of the heathen, no lesse then twenty thousand men to root out the whole generation of the Iewes, and ioyned with him Gorgias a captain, which in matters of warre had great experience.

8. Nicanor also ordeined a tribute for the king of two thousand talents, which the Romanes should haue, to be taken of the Iewes that were taken prisoners.

9. Therefore immediately hee sent to the cities on the sea coast, prouoking them to buy Iewes to be their seruants, promising to sel footefoote & ten for one talent: but he considered not the vengeance of Almighty God that should come vpon him.

10. When Iudas then knewe of Nicanors coming, he told them that were with him of the coming of the army.

11. Now were there some of them fearful, which trusted not vnto the righteousness of God, but fled away, and abode not in that place.

12. But the other sold all that they had left, and besought the Lord together, to deliuer them from that wicked Nicanor, which had sold them, or euer he came neere them.

13. And though hee would not doe it for their sakes, yet for the couenant made with their fathers, and because they called vpon his holy and glorious Name.

14. And so Maccabeus called his men together, about fixe thousand, exhorting them not to bee afraid of their enemies, neither to feare the great multitude of the Gentiles which came against them varightously, but to fight manly.

15. Setting before their eyes the injury that they had vniuilly done to the holy place, & the cruelty done to the city by derision, and the destruction of the orders established by their fathers.

16. For they said he, trust in their weapons, and boldnesse: but our confidence is in the Almighty God, which at a becke can both destroy them that come against vs and all the world.

17. Moreouer he admonished them of the helpe that God shewed vnto their fathers, as when there perished an hundred and fourescore and six thousand vnder * Sapeherib,

18. And of the battell that they had in Babylon against the Galatians, howe they came in all to the battell eight thousand, with fower thousand Macedonians: and when the Macedonians were slain, the eight thousand slew an hundred and twenty thousand through the helpe that was giuen them from heauen, whereby they had recieued many benefits.

21 Thus when he had made them bold w these words, and ready to die for the lawes & the countrey, he diuided his army into foure parts, 22 And made his owne brethren captaines ouer the army, so was Simon, and Ioseph, and Iouathas, giuing eck one fiftene hundred men.

23 ¶ And when Eleazarus had read the holy booke, and giuen them a token of the help of God, Judas which led the forward, ioyned with Nicanor,

24 And because the Almighty helped them, they slew about nine thousand men, and wounded and maimed the most part of Nicanors host, and so put all to flight,

25 And tooke the money from those that came to buy them, and pursued them farre: but lacking time, they returned:

26 For it was the day before the Sabbath, and therefore they would no longer pursue them.

27 So they tooke their weapons, and spoiled the enemies, and kept the Sabbath, giuing thanks and praying the Lord wonderfully, which had deliuered them that day, and powred vpon them the beginning of his mercy.

28 And after the Sabbath, * they distributed the spoyles to the sicke, and to the fatherlesse, and to the widowes, and diuided the residue among themselves and their children.

29 When this was done, and they all had made a generall prayer, they besought the merciful Lord to be reconciled at the length with his seruants.

30 Afterwarde with one consent they fell vpon Timotheus and Bacchides, and slew about twenty thousand, and wan high and strong holds, and diuided great spoyles, & gaue an equall portion to the sicke, and to the fatherlesse, and to the widowes, and to aged persons also.

31 Moreover, they gathered their weapons together, and layd them vp diligently in conuenient places, and brought the remnant of the spoyles to Ierusalem.

32 They slew also Philarches a most wicked person, which was with Timotheus, and had vexed the Iewes many wayes.

33 And when they kept the feast of victory in their countrey, they burnt Calisthenes that had set fire vpon the holy gates, which was fled into a litle house: so he receiued a reward meete for his wickednesse.

34 And that most wicked Nicanor, which had brought a thousand merchants to buy the Iewes, 35 He was through the helpe of y Lord brought downe of them whom he thought as nothing, inso much that he put off his glorious raiment, and fled overthwart the countrey like a fugitiue seruant, and came alone to Antiochia with great dishonour, through the destruction of his hoste.

36 Thus he that promised to pay tribute to the Romanes, by meanes of the prisoners of Ierusalem, brought newes that the Iewes had a defender, and for this cause none could hurt the Iewes, because they followed the lawes appointed by him.

C H A P. I X.

1 Antiochus willing to spoyle Persopolis, is put to flight.

2 As he persecuted the Iewes, he is stricke of the Lord.

3 The fauente repentance of Antiochus. 28 He dies miserably.

At the same time, came Antiochus againe with dishonour out of the countrey of Persia.

2 For when he came to Persopolis, and went about to rob the temple, and to subdue the city, the people ranne in a rage to defend themselves with their weapons, and put them to flight, & Antiochus was put to flight by the inhabitants, and returned with shame.

3 Now when he came to Ecbatane, hee vnderstood the things that had come vnto Nicanor and Timotheus.

4 And the being chafed in his fume, he thought to impute to y Iewes their fault, which had put him to flight, and therefore commanded his charet man to driue continually, & to dispatch the iourney: for Gods iudgement compelled him: for he had sayd thus in his pride, I will make Ierusalem a common burying place of the Iewes when I come thither.

5 But the Lord Almighty, and God of Israel smote him with an incurable and inuisible plague: for as soone as he had spoken these words, a paine of the bowels that was remediles, came vpon him, and sore torments of the inner parts,

6 And that most iustly: for he had tormented other mens bowels with diuers & strange torments.

7 Howbeit he would in no wise cease from his arrogancy, but swelled the more with pride, breathing out fire in his rage against the Iewes, & commanded to haste the iourney: but it came to passe that he fel downe from the charet that ran swiftly, so that all the members of his body were bruised with the great fall.

8 And thus he that a litle before thought hee might command y floods of the sea (so proud was he beyond the condition of man), and to weigh the high mountains in the balance, was now cast on the ground, and carried in an hollitter, declaring vnto all the manifest power of God.

9 * So that the wormes came out of the body of this wicked man in abundance: and whiles he was aliue, his flesh fell off for paine and torment, and all his army was grieued at his smell.

10 Thus no man could beare, because of his stink, him that a litle afore thought hee might reach to the starres of heauen.

11 Then hee began to leaue off his great pride and selfewill, when he was plagued, and came to the knowledge of himselfe by the scourge of God, and by his paine which increased euery moment.

12 And when hee himselfe might not abide his owne stinke, he sayd these words, It is meete to be subiect vnto God, and that a man which is mortall, should not think himselfe equal vnto God through pride.

13 This wicked person prayed also vnto the Lord, who would now haue no mercie on him, 14 And sayd thus, That hee would set at liberty the holy city, vnto the which hee made haste to destroy it, and to make it a burying place.

15 And as touching the Iewes, (whom hee had iudged not worthy to be buried, but would haue cast them out with their children to be deuoured of the foules and wild beasts) he would make them all like the citizens of Athens.

16 And whereas he had spoiled the holy Temple afore, he would garnish it with great gifts, and increase the holy vessels, and of his owne rents beare the charges belonging to the sacrifices.

17 Yea, and that hee would also become a Iew himselfe, and go thorow all the world that was inhabited, and preach the power of God.

18 But for all this his paines would not cease: for the iust iudgment of God was come vpon him, therefore despairing of his health, he wrote vnto the Iewes this letter vnderwritten, containing y forme of a supplication.

19 ¶ THE KING and prince Antiochus vs-

10r, God their defender.

11r, 12r, 13r, 10r, 11r, 12r, 13r, 10r, 11r, 12r, 13r to the Iewes his louing citizens, witheth much ioy and health and prosperitie.

20 If ye and your children see well, and if all things goe after your mind, I giue great thanks vnto God, hauing hope in the heauen.

21 Though I lie sicke, yet am I mindfull of your honour, and good will for the loue I beare you: therefore when I returned from the countrey of Persia, and fell into a fore disease, I thought it necessary to care for the common safety of all,

22 Not distrusting mine health, but hauing great hope to escape this sicknesse.

23 Therefore considering, that when my father led an hoste against the hie countreys, hee appointed who should succede him:

24 That if any controuerfie happened contrary to his expectation, or if that any tidings were brought that were grieuous, they in the land might know to whom the affaires were committed, that they should not be troubled.

25 Again, when I ponder how that the gouernours that are borderers and neighbours vnto my kingdome, wait for all occasions, and looke but for opportunitie, I haue ordained that my sonne Antiochus shall be king, whom I oft commended and committed to many of you, when I went into the high prouinces, and haue written vnto him as followeth hereafter.

26 Therefore, I pray you, and require you to remember the benefits that I haue done vnto you generally and particularly, and that euery man will be faithfull vnto me and to my sonne.

27 For I trust that he will be gentle, and louing vnto you according vnto my mind.

28 ¶ Thus the murder and blasphemers suffered most grieuouly, and as he had intreated other men, so hee died a miserable death in a strange countrey among the mountaines.

29 And Philip that was brought vp with him caried away his body, who fearing the sonne of Antiochus, wet into Egypt to Ptolemee Philometor.

CHAP. X.

1 Judas Maccabeus taketh the citie and the Temple. 10 The allies of Eupator. 16 The Iewes fight against the Idumeans. 24 Timotheus invadeth Iudea, with whom Iudas winneth battell. 29 Fruit men appeare in the aire to the helpe of the Iewes. 37 Timotheus is slaine.

Maccabeus now and his company through the helpe of the Lord, wanne the Temple and the citie againe,

2 And destroyed the altars and chappels that the heathen had builded in the open places,

3 And cleansed the Temple, and made another altar, and burned stones, and tooke fire of them, and offered sacrifices and incense two yeeres and sixe moneths after, and set fourth the lampes, and the shew bread.

4 When that was done, they fell downe flat vpon the ground, and besought the Lord, that they might come no more into such troubles: but if they sinned any more against him, that he himself would chasten them with mercie, and that they might not be delivered to the blasphemers, and barbarous nations.

5 Now vpon the same day that the strangers polluted the Temple, on the very same day it was cleansed againe, euen the five and twentie day of the same moneth, which is ¶ Challeu.

6 They kept eight dayes with gladnes, as in the feast of the Tabernacles, remembering that not long afore they held the feast of the Tabernacles, when they liued in the mountaines and dens like beasts.

7 And for the same cause they bare greene boughes, and faire branches and palmes, and sang Psalmes vnto him that had giuen them good successe in cleansing his place.

8 They ordained also by a common statute and decree, that euery yere those dayes should be kept of the whole nation of the Iewes.

9 And this was the ende of Antiochus called Epiphanes.

10 ¶ Now will we declare the acts of Antiochus Eupator, which was the sonne of this wicked man, gathering briefly the calamities of the warre that followed.

11 For when hee had taken the kingdome, hee made one Lysias, which had bene captaine of the hoste in Phenice, and Coelofyria, ruler ouer the affaires of the Realme.

12 For Ptolemeeus that was called Macron, purposed to doe iustice vnto the Iewes for the wrong that had bene done vnto them, and went about to behaue himselfe peaceably with them.

13 For the which cause hee was accused of his friends before Eupator, and was called oft times traitour, because he had left Cyprus that Philometor had committed vnto him, and came to Antiochus Epiphanes: therefore seeing that hee was no more in estimation, hee was discouraged and poysoned himselfe, and died.

14 ¶ But when Gorgias was gouernour of the same places, hee entertained strangers, and made warre oft times against the Iewes.

15 Moreover, the Idumeans that held the strong holds which were meet for their purpose, troubled the Iewes, and by the receiving them that were driuen from Ierusalem tooke in hand to continue warre.

16 Then they that were with Maccabeus, made prayers, and besought God that he would be their helper, and so they fel vpon the strong holds of the Idumeans, 17 And assaulted them sore, that they wanne the places, and slew all that fought against them on the wall, and killed all that they met with, and slew no lesse then twentie thousand.

18 And because certaine (which were no lesse then nine thousand) were fledde into two strong castles, hauing all manner of things convenient to sustaine the siege, 19 Maccabeus left Simon and Ioseph, and Zachaeus also, and those that were with them, which were enow to besiege them, and departed to those places which were more necessary.

20 Now they that were with Simon, being led with couetousnesse, were intreated for money (through certaine of those that were in the castle) and tooke seuentie thousand drachmes, and let some of them escape.

21 But when it was tolde Maccabeus what was done, he called the gouernours of the people together, & accused those men, that they had sold their brethren for money, and let their enemies goe.

22 So hee slew them when they were consuit of treason, and immediatly wanne the two castles:

23 And hauing good successe, as in all the warres that he tooke in hand, hee slew in the two castles moe then twenty thousand.

24 Now Timotheus whom the Iewes had ouercome afore, gathered an armie of strangers of all sorts, and brought a great troupe of horsemenn out of Asia, to winne Iewry by strength.

25 But when he drew neere, Maccabeus, and they that were with him, turned to pray vnto God, and sprinkled earth vpon their heads, and girded their reines with sackcloth, 26 And fell downe at the foote of the altar, and besought the Lord to be mercifull to them, and to be an enemye to their enemies, and to be an aduersarie to their aduersaries,* as the Law declarerth.

20. deut.

27 So after the prayet, they tooke their weapons and went on further from the citie, and when they came neere to the enemies, they tooke heede to themselves.

28 And when the morning appeared, they both ioyned together: the one part had the Lord for their refuge, and pledge of prosperitie, and noble victorie, and the other tooke courage as a guide of the warre.

29 But when the battell waxed strong, there appeared vnto the enemies from heauen hue comely men vpon horses with bridles of gold, and two of them ledde the Iewes, 30 And tooke Maccabeus betwixt them, and couered him on euery side with their weapons, and kept him safe, but shot darts and lightnings against the enemies, so that they were confounded with blindeesse, and beaten downe, and full of trouble.

31 There were slaine of foote men twenty thousand and five hundred, and sixe hundreth horsemen.

32 As for Timotheus himselfe, he fled vnto Gazara, which was called a very strong hold, wherein Chereas was capitaine.

33 But Maccabens and his company layd siege against the fortress with courage for foure dayes.

34 And they that were within, trusting to the height of the place, blasphemed exceedingly, and spake horrible words.

Or, the fine and sweetish day.

35 Neuertheless vpon the fiftith day in the morning, twenty young men of Maccabees company whose hearts were inflamed because of the blasphemies, came vnto the wall, and with bold stomackes smote downe those that they met.

36 Others also that climbed vp vpon the engines of warre against them that were within, set fire vpon the towers, and burnt those blasphemers quicke with the fires that they had made, and others brake vp the gates, and receiued the rest of the armie, and tooke the citie:

37 And hauing found Timotheus that was crept into a caue, they killed him, and Chereas his brother with Appollophanes.

38 When this was done, they prayed the Lord with psalmes and thanksgiving, which had done so great things for Israel, and giuen them the victorie.

C H A P. XI.

1 Lyfias goeth about: so ouercome the Iewes. 8 Succour is sent from heauen vnto the Iewes. 16 The letter of Lyfias vnto the Iewes. 20 The letter of King Antiochus vnto Lyfias. 27 A letter of the same vnto the Iewes. 34 A letter of the Romanes to the Iewes.

VERY shortly after this, Lyfias the kings steward and a kinsman of his, which had the gouernance of the affaires, tooke sore displeasure for the things that were done.

2 And when he had gathered about fourescore thousand, with all the horiemen, hee came against the Iewes, thinking to make the citie an habitation of the Gentiles.

3 And the Temple would hee haue to get money by, like the other temples of the heathen: for he would sell the Priests office euery yeere.

4 And thus being puffed vp in his minde, because of the great number of footmen, and thousands of horsemen, and in his fiftiescore elephants,

5 He came into Iudea, and drew neere to Bethsura, which was a castle of defence, fine furlongs from Ierusalem, and laid fore siege vnto it.

6 But when Maccabeus and his company knew that he besieged the holds, they, and all the people made prayers with weeping, and teares before the Lord, that he would send a good Angel to deliuer Israel.

7 And Maccabeus himselfe first of all tooke weapons, exhorting the other that they would iopard themselves together with him to helpe their brethren: so they went forth together with a courageous minde.

8 And as they were there besides Ierusalem, there appeared before them vpon horsebacke a man in white cloathing, shaking his harnesse of golde.

9 Then they prayed the mercifull God altogether, and tooke heart, insonmuch that they were ready not onely to fight with men, but with the most cruell beasts, and to breake downe walles of yron.

10 Thus they marched forward in aray, hauing an helper from heauen: for the Lord was mercifull vnto them.

11 And running vpon their enemies like Lyons, they slewe eleuen thousand footemen, and fixteene hundred horsemen, and put all the other to flight.

12 Many of them also being wounded, escaped naked, and Lyfias himselfe fled away shamefully, and so escaped.

13 Who as he was a man of vnderstanding, considering what losse he had had, and knowing that the Hebrewes could not be ouercome, because the Almighty God helped them, sent vnto them, 14 And promised that he would consent to all things which were reasonable, and perswade the king to be their friend.

15 Maccabeus agreed to Lyfias requests, hauing respect in all things to the common wealth, and whatsoever Maccabeus wrote vnto Lyfias concerning the Iewes, the king granted it.

16 For there were letters written vnto the Iewes from Lyfias containing these words, LYSIAS vnto the people of the Iewes sendeth greeting, 17 Iohn and I Abessalom, which were sent from Iohn, deliuered me the things that you demand by writing, and required me to fulfill the things that they had declared.

18 Therefore what things soeuer were meete to be reported to the king himselfe, I have declared them, and he granted that that was possible.

19 Therefore if ye behaue your selues as friends toward his affaires, hereafter also I will endeavour my selfe to doe you good.

20 As concerning these things, I haue given commandement to these men, and to those whom I sent vnto you, to commune with you of the same particularly.

21 Fare ye well, the hundred and eight and fortie yeere, the foure and twentieth day of the moneth Dioscorinthius.

22 ¶ Now the kings letters cōteined these words, KING ANTIOCHVS vnto his brother Lyfias sendeth greeting.

23 Since our father is translated vnto the gods, our will is, that they which are in our Realme, line quietly, that euery man may apply his owne affaires.

24 Wee vnderstand also, that the Iewes would not

not consent to our father, for to bee brought vnto the custome of the Gentiles, but would keepe their owne manner of liuing: for the which cause they require of vs, that we would infer them to liue after their owne lawes.

25 Wherefore our mind is that this nation shall bee in rest, and haue determined to restore them their Temple, that they may bee gouerned according to the custome of their fathers.

26 Thou shalt doe well therefore to send vnto them, and graunt them peace, that when they are certified of our minde, they may be of good comfort, and chearefully goe about their owne affaires.

27 And this was the Kings letter vnto the nation, KING ANTIOCHVS vnto the Elders of the Iewes, and to the rest of the Iewes sendeth Greeting.

28 If yee fare well, we haue our desire: we are also in good health.

29 Menelaus declared vnto vs that your desire was to returne home, and to apply your owne business.

30 Wherefore those that will depart, wee giue them free libertie, vnto the thirtieth day of the month of Panthicus, 31 That the Iewes may vie their own manner of liuing and lawes, like as afore, and none of them by any manner of wayes to haue harme for things done by ignorance.

32 I haue sent also Menelaus to comfort you.

33 Fare yee well: the hundreth and eight and fourtie yeere, the fiftenth day of the month of Panthicus.

34 ¶ The Romanes also sent a letter containing these words, QVINTVS MEMMIVS and Titus Manilius ambassadours of the Romanes, vnto the people of the Iewes send greeting.

35 The things that Iysias the kings kinsfman hath granted yea, we graunt the same also.

36 But concerning that which hee shall report vnto the King, send hither some with speed, when yehaue considered the matter diligently, that we may consult thereupon as shall be best for you: for we must goe vnto Antiochia.

37 And therefore make haste, and send some men, that we may know your mind.

38 Farewell: this hundred and eight and fortie yeere, the fiftenth day of the month of Panthicus.

CHAP. XII.

1 Timotheus troubleth the Iewes. 3 The wicked deed of them of Ioppe against the Iewes. 6 Iudas is angry of them. 9 He setteth fire in the haue of Iamnia. 20 The pursuit of the Iewes against Timotheus. 24 Timotheus is taken and let goe unhurt. 32 Iudas pursueth Gorgias.

¶ Hen the covenantes were made, Iysias went vnto the king, and the Iewes tilled their ground.

2 But the gouernours of the places, Timotheus, and Apollonius the sonne of Genneus, and Ieronimus, and also Demophon, and besides them Nicator the gouernour of Cyprus would not let them liue in rest and peace.

3 ¶ They of Ioppe also did such a vile act: they prayed the Iewes that dwelt among them, to goe with their wiues and children into the ships which they had prepared, although they had ought them none euill will.

4 And so by the common aduise of the citie they obeyed them, and suspect nothing: but when they were gone forth into the deepe they drowned more then two hundred of them.

5 Now when Iudas knew of this crueltie shewed against his nation, hee commaunded those men that were with him to make them readie.

6 And hauing called vpon God the righteous Iudge, hee went toorth against the murderers of his brethren, and set fire in the haue by night, and burnt the shippes, and those that fled thence hee slew.

7 And when the citie was shut vp, he departed although he would come againe, and root out all them of the citie of Ioppe.

8 ¶ But when hee perceived that the Iammites were minded to doe in like maner vnto the Iewes which dwelt among them, 9 He came vpon the Iammites by night, and set fire in the haue with the same, so that the light of the fire was seene at Ierusalempon a two hundred and fortie furlongs.

10 Now when they were gone from thence nine furlongs in their iourney toward Timotheus, about five thousand men of foot, and five hundred horsemen of the Arabians set vpon him.

11 So the battell was sharp, but it prospered with Iudas through the helpe of God: the Nomades of Arabia being overcome, besought Iudas to make peace with them, and promised to giue him certaine castell, and to helpe him in other things.

12 And Iudas thinking that they should indeed bee profitable concerning many things, graunted them peace: whereupon they shooke hands, and so they departed to their tents.

13 ¶ Iudas also assaulted a citie called Caspis, which was strong by reason of a bridge, & fenced round about with walles, and had diuers kinds of people dwelling therein.

14 So they that were within it put such trust in the strength of the walles, and in store of victuals, that they were the slacke in their doings, reuiling them that were with Iudas, and reproaching them: yea, they blasphemed, & spake such words as were not lawful.

15 But Maccabeus souldiers calling vpon the great prince of the world (which without any instruments or engines of warre, did cast down the walles of Iericho in the time of Iesus) gaue a fierce assault against the walles, 16 And tooke the citie by the will of God, and made an exceeding great slaughter, in somuch that a lake of two furlongs broad, which lay thereby, seemed to flow with blood.

17 ¶ Then departed they from thence seven hundred and fiftie furlongs, and came to Characa vnto the Iewes that are called Tubieni.

18 But they found not Timotheus there: for he was departed from thence, and had done nothing, and had left a parison in a very strong hold.

19 But Dositheus, and Sosipater, which were captaines with Maccabeus, went fourth and slew those that Timotheus had left in the fortresse more then ten thousand men.

20 And Maccabeus prepared and ranged his army by bands, and went courageously against Timotheus, which had with him an hundred and twentie thousand men of foote, and two thousand and five hundred horsemen.

21 When Timotheus had knowledge of Iudas coming, he sent the women and children, and the other baggage afore vnto a fortresse called Camion (for it was hard to besiege, and vneasie to come vnto because of the straits on all sides)

22 But when Iudas first band came in sight, the enemies were smitten with feare, and a trembling was among them through the presence of him that seeth all things, inasmuch that they fleeing one here another there, were oft times hurt by their owne people, and wounded with the points of their own swords.

23 But Iudas was very earnest in pursuing, and slew those wicked men, yea, hee slew thirte thousand men of them.

24 Timotheus also himselfe fell into the hands of Dositheus and Sosipater, whom hee besought with much craft to let him goe with his life, because hee had many of the Iewes parents, and the brethren of some of them, which if they put him to death, should be despised.

25 So when hee had assured them with many words, and promised that hee would restore them without hurt, they let him goe for the health of their brethren.

26 ¶ Then went Maccabeus toward Carnion, and Atargation, and slew fise and twenty thousand persons.

27 And after that hee had chased away and slaine them, Iudas remoued the hoste toward Ephrona strong citie, wherein was Lysias and a great multitude of all nations, and the strong young men kept the walles, defending them mightily: there was also great preparation of engines of war and darts.

28 But when they had called vpon the Lord which with his power breaketh the strength of the enemies, they wan the citie, and slew fise and twentie thousand of them that were within.

29 ¶ From thence went they to Scythopolis, which lieth sixe hundred furlongs from Ierusalem.

Or, Sy-chianus.

30 But when the Iewes which dwelt there testified that the Scythopolitans dealt lovingly with them, and intreated them kindly in the time of their aduersitie, 31 They gaue them thanks, desiring them to be friendly still vnto them: and so they came to Ierusalem, as the feast of the weekes approached.

32 ¶ And after the feast called Pentecost they went forth against Gorgias the gouernour of Idumea:

33 Who came out with three thousand men of foote, and foure hundred horsemen.

34 And when they ioyned together, a few of the Iewes were slaine.

35 And Dositheus one of the Baccenors, which was on horsebacke, and a mightie man, tooke Gorgias and laide hold of his garment, and drew him by force, because he would haue taken the wicked man aliue: but an horseman of Thracia fell vpon him, and smote off his shoulder, so that Gorgias fled into Marisa.

*Or, Mo-risa, or,
Maresa.
Or, with Gorgias.*

36 And when they that were with Eserin had foughten long, and were weary, Iudas called vpon the Lord, that he would shew himselfe to be their helper and captaine of the field.

37 And then hee began in his owne language, and sung Psalmes with a loud voice, inasmuch that straightwaies he made them that were about Gorgias to take their flight.

38 ¶ So Iudas gathered his host, and came into the citie of Odolla. And when the seventh daie came, they clenfed themselves (as the custome was) and kept the Sabbath in the same place.

39 And vpon the day following, as necessity required, Iudas and his company came to take vp the bodies of them that were slaine, and to burie them with their kinsmen in their fathers graues.

40 Now vnder the coates of euery one that was slaine they found iewels that had bene consecrate to idols of the Jamnites, which thing is forbid. den the Iewes by the Law. (Then euery man saw that this was the cause wherefore they were slaine.

41 And so euery man gaue thanks vnto the Lord, the righteous Iudge, which had opened the things that were hid.

42 And they gaue themselves to prayer, and besought him that they should not viterly be destroyed for the fault committed. Besides that, noble Iudas exhorted the people to keepe themselves from sinne, forasmuch as they law before their eyes the things which came to passe by the sinne of these that were slaine, 43 And hauing made a gathering thorow the companie, sent to Ierusalem about two thousand drachmes of siluer, to offer a sinne offering, doing very well and honestly, that hee thought of the resurrection.

44 For if he had not hoped that they which were slaine should rise againe, it had bene superfluous and vaine to pray for the dead.

45 And therefore hee perceived that there was great sauour laied vp for those that died godly. (It was an holy and good thought) So hee made a reconciliation for the dead, that they might be deliuered from sinne.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The coming of Eupator into Iudea. 4 The death of Menelaus. 10 Maccabeus going to fight against Eupator, moueth his soldiers vnto prayer. 15 He killeth fourteene thousand men in the tents of Antiochus. 21 Rhodocus the betrayer of the Iewes is taken.

IN the hundred fortie and nine yeere it was told Iudas that Antiochus Eupator was coming with a great power into Iudea,

2 And Lysias the steward & ruler of his affaires with him, hauing both in their army an hundred & ten thousand men of foote of the Grecians, and fise thousand horsemen, and two and twenty elephants, and three hundred chariots set with bookes.

3 Menelaus also ioyned himselfe with them, and with great deceit encouraged Antiochus, not for the safeguard of the country, but because hee thought to haue bene made the gouernour.

4 But the King of kings mooued Antiochus minde against this wicked man, and Lysias informed the king that this man was the cause of all mischiefe, so that the king commaunded to bring him to Berea, to put him vnto death, as the manner was in that place.

5 Now there was in that place a tower of fiftie cubites hie, full of althes, and it had an instrument that turned round, & on enery side it rolled downe into the ashes.

6 And there whosoeuer was condemned of a crime, or of any other grievous crime, was cast of all men to the death.

7 And so it came to passe that this wicked man should die such a death, & it was a most iust thing that Menelaus should want buriall.

8 For because hee had committed many sinnes by the altar, whose fire and althes were holy: hee himselfe also died in the ashes.

9 ¶ Now the king raged in his mind, and came to shew himselfe more cruell vnto the Iewes then his father.

10 Which things when Iudas perceived, he commaunded the people to cal vpon the Lord night and day, that if euer he had holpen them, he would now helpe them, when they should bee put from their law, from their country, & from the holy Temple.

11 And that hee would not suffer the people, which a little before began to recouer, to bee subdued vnto the blasphemous nations.

12 So when they had done this altogether, and besought the Lord for mercy with weeping and fasting, and falling downe three dayes together, Iudas exhorted them to make themselues ready.

13 And he being apart with the Elders, tooke counsell to goe forth afore the King brought his host into Iudea, and should take the citie, and commit the matter to the helpe of the Lord.

14 So committing the charge to the Lord of the world, he exhorted his souldiers to fight manfully, even vnto death for the Lawes, the Temple, the citie, their country, and the common wealth, and camped by Modin.

15 And so giuing his souldiers for a watchword, The victory of God, hee picked out the manliest young men, and went by night into the kings camp, and slew of the hoste fourteene thousand men, and the greatest elephant, with all that sate vpon him.

16 Thus when they had brought a great feare, and trouble in the campe, and all things went prosperously with them, they departed.

17 This was done in the breake of the day, because the protection of the Lord did helpe them.

18 ¶ Now when the king had tasted the manlinesse of the Iewes, he went about to take the holds by policie, 19 And marched toward Beth-sura, which was a strong hold of the Iewes: but hee was chased away, hurt, and lost of his men.

20 For Iudas had sent vnto them that were in it such things as were necessary.

21 But Rhodocus which was in the Iewes hoste disclosed the secrets to the enemies: therefore he was fought out, & when they had gotten him, they put him in prison.

22 After this did the king commune with them that were in Beth-sura, and tooke truce with them, and they departed, and ioyned battel with Iudas, who ouercame him.

23 But when he vnderstood that Philip (whom he had left to be ouersee of his businesse at Antiochia) did rebell against him, hee was astonied, so that he yeelded himselfe to the Iewes, and made them an othe to do all things that were right, and was appeased toward them, and offered sacrifice, and adorned the Temple, and shewed great gentleness to the place, 24 And embraced Maccabeus, and made him capitaine and gouernour from Ptolemais vnto the Gerreneans.

25 Neuerthelesse, when hee came to Ptolemais, the people of the citie were not content with this agreement: and because they were grieued, they would that he should breake the Couenants.

26 Then went Lysias vp into the Iudgement seat, and excused the fact as well as hee could, and perswaded them, & pacified them, and made them well affectioned, and came againe vnto Antiochia. This is the matter concerning the Kings journey, and his returne.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Demetrius moued by Alcimus sendeth Nicanor to kill the Iewes. 18 Nicanor maketh a compass with the Iewes, 29 which hee yet breaketh, through the motion of the King. 37 Nicanor commandeth Razis to be taken, who slayeth himselfe.

AFTER three yeeres was Iudas informed that Demetrius the son of Seleucus was come vp with a great power and naue by the haven of Tripolis, 2 When he had wonne the counrey, and slaine Antiochus and his Lieutenant Lysias.

3 Now Alcimus which had bene the hie Priest, and wilfully defiled himselfe in the time that all things were confounded, seeing that by no meanes he could saue himselfe, nor haue any more entrance to the holy Altar,

4 He came to king Demetrius in the hundreth fiftie and one yeere, presenting vnto him a crowne of gold, and a palme, & of the boughs which were vied solemnly in the Temple, and that day he held his tongue.

5 But when hee had gotten opportunitie and occasion for his rage, Demetrius called him to counsell, and asked him what deuises or counsels the Iewes leaned vnto.

6 To the which he answered, The Iewes that be called Asidians, whose capitaine is Iudas Maccabeus, maintaine warres, and make insurrections, and will not let the Realme be in peace.

7 Therefore I being deuiued of my fathers honour (I meane the high Priesthood) am now come hither, 8 Partly because I was well affectioned to the Kings affaires, and secondly because I fought the prohte of mine owne citizens: for all our people through their rashnesse are not a little troubled.

9 Wherefore, O King, seeing thou knowest all these things, make prouision for the counrey, and our nation which is abused, according to thine owne humanitie, that is ready to helpe all men.

10 For as long as Iudas liueth, it is not possible that the matter should be well.

11 When hee had spoken these wordes, other friends also hauing ill will at Iudas, let Demetrius on fire,

12 Who immediatly called for Nicanor the ruler of the elephants, and made him capitaine ouer Iudea, 13 And sent him forth, commanding him to slay Iudas, and to scatter them that were with him, and to make Alcimus hie Priest of the great Temple.

14 Then the heathen which fled out of Iudea from Iudas, came to Nicanor by Rockes, thinking the harme and calamities of the Iewes to bee their welfare.

15 Nowe when the Iewes heard of Nicanors comming, and the gathering together of the heathen, they sprinkled themselues with earth, and prayed vnto him which had appointed himselfe a people for cuer, and did alwayes defend his owne portion with euident tokens.

16 So at the commaundement of the capitaine, they remoued straightwaies from thence, and came to the towne of Deslan, 17 When Simon Iudas brother had ioyned battel with Nicanor, and was somewhat astonished through the sudden silence of the enemies.

18 Neuerthelesse, Nicanor hearing the manlinesse of them that were with Iudas, and the bolde stomacks that they had for their counrey, durst not prouee the matter with bloodshedding.

19 Wherefore he sent Posidonius, Or Theodotus. and Matthias before, to make peace.

20 So when they had taken long aduise ment Or, Mat. thereupon, and the capitaine shewed it vnto the multitude, they were agreed in one mind, and consented to the couenants.

21 And they appointed a day when they should particularly come together: so when the day was come, they set for euery man his roole.

22 Neuertheles, Iudas commanded certain men of armes to waite in conuenient places, lest there should suddenly arise any euill through the enemies: & so they communed together of the things whereupon they had agreed.

23 Nicanor while he abode at Ierusalem, did so hurt, but sent away the people that were gathered together.

24 He loued Iudas, and fauoured him in his heart.

Or, had Iudas be- fore his eyes.

25 He prayed him also to take a wife, and to be- get children: so hee married, and they liued to- gether.

26 But Alcimus perceiuing the loue that was betweene them, and vnderstanding the covenants that were made, came to Demetrius, and tolde him that Nicanor had taken strange matters in hande, and ordeined Iudas a traitour to the realme to bee his successeur.

27 Then the King was displeased, and by the re- ports of this wicked man he wrote to Nicanor, say- ing, that he was very angry for the covenants, com- manding him that he should send Maccabeus in all haste prisoner vnto Antiochia.

28 When these things came to Nicanor, he was astonished and sore grieved, that he should breake the things wherein they had agreed, seeing that that man had committed no wickednesse.

29 But beause it was not commodious to him to withstand the king, hee fought craftily to ac- complish it.

30 Notwithstanding, when Maccabeus percei- ued that Nicanor began to be rough vnto him, and that hee intreated him more rudely then hee was wont, hee perceiued that such rigour came not of good, and therefore he gathered a few of his men, and withdrew himselfe from Nicanor.

31 But the other perceiuing that he was preuen- ted by Maccabeus worthy policie, came into the great and holy Temple, & commanded the Priests which were offering their vsuall sacrifices, to deli- uer him the man.

32 And when they sware that they could not tell where the man was, whom he sought, 33 Hee stretched out his right hand toward the Temple, and made an oath in this manner, If ye will not deliuer me Iudas as a prisoner, I will make this Temple of God a plaine field, & will breake downe the Altar, and will erect a notable Temple vnto Bacchus.

34 After these words hee departed: then the Priests lift vp their hands toward heauen, and be- sought him that was euer defender of their na- tion, saying in this manner, 35 Thou, O Lord of all things, which hast need of nothing, wouldst that the Temple of thine ha- bitation should be among vs.

36 Therefore now, O most holy Lord, keepe this house euer vndefiled, which lately was cleaused, and stop all the mouthes of the vnrighteous.

37 Now was there accused vnto Nicanor, Razis one of the Elders of Ierusalem, a louer of the City and a man of very good report, which for his loue was called a father of the Iewes.

38 For this man aforesetimes, when the Iewes were minded to keepe themselves vndefiled and pure, being accused to bee of the religion of the Iewes, did offer to spend his body and life with all constancie for the Religion of the Iewes.

39 So Nicanor willing to declare the hatred that he bare to the Iewes, sent about five hundred men of warre to take him, 40 For hee thought by taking him to doe the Iewes much hurt.

41 But when this company would haue taken his castle, and would haue broken the gates by vi- olence, and commanded to bring fire to burne the gates, so that hee was ready to bee taken on euery side, he fell on his sword, 42 Willing rather to die manfully, then to giue himselfe into the hands of wicked men, and to sa- far reproch vnworthy for his noble stocke.

43 Notwithstanding, what time as he missed of his stroke for haste, and the multitude rushed in violently betweene the doores, he ranne boldly to the wall, and cast himselfe downe manfully among the multitude,

44 Which conueyed themselves lightly away, and gaue place, so that he fell vpon his belly.

45 Neuerthelesse, while there was yet breath in him, being kindled in his mind, he rose vp, and though his blood gulshed out like a fountaine, and he was very sore wounded, yet he ran thorow the mids of the people,

46 And gaue him to the top of an hie rocke: so when his blood was vtterly gone, he tooke out his owne bowels with both his hands, and threw them vpon the people, calling vpon the Lord of life and spirit, that he would restore them againe vnto him: and thus he died.

CHAP. XV.

1 Nicanor goeth about to come vpon Iudas on the Sabbath day. 2 The blasphemie of Nicanor. 3 Maccabeus expounding vnto the Iewes the vision, encoura- geth them. 4 The prayer of Maccabeus. 5 Mac- cabeus commandeth Nicanors head, and hands to bee cut off, and his tongue to bee giuen to the fishes. 6 The author excuseth himselfe.

NOWE when Nicanor knew that Iudas and his company were in the countrey of Samaria, he thought with all assurance to come vpon them vpon the Sabbath day.

2 Neuertheles, the Iewes that were compelled to go with him, said, O kill not so cruelly and bar- barously, but honour and sanctifie the day that is appointed by him that teacheth all things.

3 But this most wicked person demanded, Is there a Lord in heauen, that commanded the Sab- bath day to be kept?

4 And when they said, There is a liuing Lord which ruleth in the heauen, that commanded the seuenth day to be kept,

5 Then he said, And I am mighty vpon earth, to command them for to arme themselves, and to per- forme the kings busines. Notwithstanding he could not accomplish his wicked enterprife.

6 For Nicanor, lifted vp with great pride, pur- posed to set vp a memoriall of the victory obtained of all them that were with Iudas.

7 But Maccabeus had euer sure confidence, and a perfect hope that the Lord would helpe him,

8 And exhorted his people not to bee afraid at the coming of the heathen, but alway to remem- ber the help that had bene shewed vnto them from heauen, and to trust now also that they should haue the victorie by the Almighty.

9 Thus he encouraged them by the Law, and Prophets, putting them in remembrance of the battels that they had won afore, and made them more willing,

10 And stirred vp their hearts, and shewed them also the deceitfulness of the heathen, and how they they had broken their othes.

11 Thus he armed every one of them, not with the assurance of shields & speares, but with wholesome words and exhortations, and shewed them a drame worthy to be beleueed, and reioyced them greatly.

12 And this was his vision, He thought that he saw Onias (which had bene the his Priest, a vertuous and good man, reuerent in behaviour, and of sober conuerfation, well spoken, and one that had bene exercised in all points of godlineife from a childe) holding vp his hands toward heauen, and praying for the whole people of the Iewes.

13 After this there appeared vnto him another man which was aged, honourable and of a wonderfull dignitie and excellencie aboue him.

14 And Onias spake and said, This is a louer of the brethren, who prayeth much for the people, and for the holy citie, to wit, Ieremias the Prophet of God.

15 Hee thought also that Ieremias helde ont his right hand, and gaue vnto Iudas a sword of gold, and as he gaue it, he spake thus, 16 Take this holy iward a gift from God, wherewith thou shalt wound the aduersaries.

17 And so being conserued by the words of Iudas, which were very sweet and able to stirre them vp to valiantesse, and to encourage the hearts of the young men, they determined to pitch no campe, but courageously to fet vpon them, and manfully to assault them, and to try the matter hand to hand, because the city and the Sanctuary, and the Temple were in danger.

18 As for their wiues and children, and brethren, and kinsfolks, they set lesse by their danger: but their greatest and principall feare was for the holy Temple.

19 Again he that were in the citie, were carefull for the armie that was abroad.

20 Now whiles they all waited for the triall of the matter, and the enemies now met with them, and the hosts were set in aray, and the beasts were separated into conuenient places, and the horsemen were placed in the wings:

21 Maccabens considering the comming of the multitude, and the diuers preparations of weapons and the fiercenesse of the beasts, held vp his hands toward heauen, calling vpon the Lord that doeth wonders, and that looked vpon them, knowing that the victorie cometh not by the weapons, but that he gineth the victorie to them that are worthy, as seemeth good vnto him.

22 Therefore in his prayer, he said after this manner, O Lord, * thou that didst send thine Angel in the time of L. ekias king of Iudea, who in the hoste of Sennacherib slew an hundred fourscore and five thousand, 23 Scd now also thy good Angel before vs, O Lord of heauens, for a feare and dread vnto them.

24 And let them be discomfited by the strength of thine arme, which come against thine holy people to blasphemie. Thus with these words he made an end.

25 Then Nicanor and they that were with him, drew neere with trumpets and shoutings for ioy.

26 But Iudas and his companie praying and calling vpon God, encountered with the enemies, 27 So that with their hands they fought, but with their hearts they prayed vnto God, and slew no lesse then five and thirtie thousand men: for through the presence of God they were wonderously comforted.

28 Now when they left off, and were turning againe with ioy, they vnderstood that Nicanor himselfe was slaine for all his armour.

29 Then they made a great shout and a cry, praising the Almighty in their owne language.

30 Therefore Iudas which was euer the chiefe defender of his citizens both in body and minde, and which bare euer good affection toward them of his nation, commanded to smite off Nicanors head, with his hand and shoulder, and to bring it to Ierusalem.

31 And when he came there, he called all them of his nation, and fet the Priests by the altar, and sent for them of the castle, 32 And shewed them wicked Nicanors head, and the hand of that blasphemor, which hee had holden vp against the holy Temple of the Almighty with proud brags.

33 He caused the tongue also of wicked Nicanor to be cut in little pieces, and to be cast vnto the foules, and that the rewards of his madnes should be hanged vp before the Temple.

34 So euery man praised toward the heauen the glorious Lord, saying, Blessed be he that hath kept his place vndefiled.

35 He hanged also Nicanors head vpon the hie castle, for an euident and plaine token vnto all of the helpe of God.

36 And so they established altogether by a common decree, that they would in no case suffer this day without keeping it holy.

37 And that the least should bee the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is called Adar in the Syrians language, the day before Mardocheus day.

38 Thus farre as concerning Nicanors matters, and from that time the Hebrewes had the citie in possession. And here also will I make an end.

39 If I haue done wel, and as the story requireth, it is the thing that I desired: but if I haue spoken slenderly and barely, it is that I could.

40 For as it is hurtful to drinke wine alone, and then againe water: and as wine tempered with water, is pleasant and delighteth the taste: so the setting out of the matter delighteth the eares of them that reade the storie. And here shall be the end.

Heber at the age of 34. yeeres begate Phalech.

Phalech being thirtie yeeres, begate Regu.

Regu being 32. yeeres, begate Saruch.

Saruch being 30. yeeres, begate Nahor.

Nahor being 29. yeeres, begate Thare.

Thare being 70. yeeres, begate Abraham.

And Abraham departed from Chaldee when he was 70. yeeres old.

The said yeeres accounted are 363. yeeres and ten dayes.

From Abrahams departing from Vr in Chaldee, vnto the departing of the children of Israel from Egypt, are 430. yeeres gathered as followeth.

Abraham was in Charran five yeeres, and departed in the 75. yeere.

Hee begate Isaac when he was 103. yeeres old, and in the 25. yeere of his departing.

Isaac begate Iakob when he was 60. yeere old.

Iakob went into Egypt with all his familie, when he was 130. yeeres old.

Israel was in Egypt 210. yeeres, which remaine from that time.

Then rebate 80. yeeres from this: for so olde was Moses when he conducted the Israelites from Egypt.

So the rest of the yeeres, that is to say, 130. are diuided betwixt Amram and Chath.

Then Chath begate Amram at his age of 67. yeeres.

Amram being 65. yeeres, begate Moses, who in the 80. yeere of his age departed with the Israelites from Egyppt.

So this supputation is the 430. yeeres mentioned in the twelfth of Exodus, and the third to the Galatians.

From the going of the Israelites from Egypt vnto the first building of the Temple, are 480. yeeres, after this supputation and account.

Moses remained in the desert or wilderness 40. yeeres.

Iosue and Othniel ruled 40. yeeres.

Aioth 70. yeeres.

Debora 40. yeeres.

Geddon 40. yeeres.

Abimelech 3. yeeres.

Thola 23. yeeres.

Iair 22. yeeres.

Then were they without a captaine vnto the 18. yeere of Iephthe.

Iephthe 6. yeeres.

Abissam 7. yeeres.

Elon 10. yeeres.

Abaron 8. yeeres.

Heli Iudge and Priest 44. yeeres.

Samuel and Saul reigned 40. yeeres.

Dauid was king 40. yeeres.

Salomon in the fourth yere of his reigne began the building of his Temple. These are the 480. yeeres mentioned in the first of the Kings, and the first Chapter.

From the first building of the Temple vnto the captiuitie of Babylon are 419. yeeres & an halfe.

Salomon yet reigned 36. yeeres.

Roboam 17. yeeres.

Abia 3. yeeres.

Afa 41. yeeres.

Iosaphat 25. yeeres.

Ioram 8. yeeres.

Ochosias one yeere.

Athaliah the Queene 7. yeeres.

Ioaas 40. yeeres.

Amasias 20. yeeres.

Ozias 52. yeeres.

Iothan 16. yeeres.

Achas 16. yeeres.

Ezechias 29. yeeres.

Manasses 55. yeeres.

Amon two yeeres.

Iosias 31. yeeres.

Ioaahas 3. moneths.

Eliachim 11. yeeres.

Ioaachim, Ieconias 3. moneths.

And here beginneth the captiuitie of Babylon.

The summe of these yeeres are 419. yeeres.

Ierusalem was reedified and builded againe after the captiuitie of Babylon 143. yeeres.

The captiuitie continued 70. yeeres.

The children of Israel were deliuered and restored to their freedome in the first yeere of Cyrus.

The Temple was begun to bee builded in the second yeere of the said Cyrus, and finished in the 46. yeere, which was the first yeere of Darius. After that Darius had reigned 20. yeeres, Nehemas was restored to libertie, and went to build the citie, which was finished in the 32. yeere of the said Darius.

All the yeeres from building of the Temple againe, are 26. yeeres.

The whole sum of yeeres amonnt to 143. yeeres.

From the reedifying of the citie vnto the coming of Christ, are 483. yeeres, after this supputation or numbring.

It is mentioned in the 9. of Daniel, that Ierusalem should be built vp againe, & that from that time vnto the coming of Christ are 66. weekes, and euery weeke is reckoned for seven yeeres. So 69 weekes amonnt to 483. yeeres. For from the 32. yeere of Darius, vnto the 42. yeere of Augustus, in the which yere our Sautour Christ was borne, are iust and complete so many yeeres: whereupon we reckon, that from Adam vnto Christ, are 3974. yeeres, sixe moneths and ten dayes, and from the birth of Christ vnto this present yeere, is 1607. Then the whole summe and number of yeeres from the beginning of the world vnto this present yeere of our Lord God 1607. are iust 5581. and the said odde sixe moneths and ten dayes.

THE

THE HOLY GOSPEL OF IESVS CHRIST according to MATTHEVVE.

THE ARGVMENT.

In this history written by Matthew, Marke, Luke, and Iohn, the Spirit of God so gouerned their hearts, that although they were foure in number, yet in effect and purpose they so consent, as though the whole had bene composed by any one of them. And albeit in stile and manner of writing they be diuers, and sometime one writeth more largely than which the other doeth abridge: neuertheless in matter and argument they all tend to one end: which is, to publish to the world the fauour of God towards mankind through Christ Iesus, whom the Father hath giuen as a pledge of his mercy and love. And for this cause they insinuate their story G O S P E L, which signifies, Good tidings, forasmuch as God hath performed in deed that which the Fathers hoped for. So that hereby wee are admonished to forsake the world, and the vanities thereof, and with most affectioned hearts embrace this incomparable treasure freely offered vnto vs: for there is no joy nor consolation, no peace nor quietnesse, no felicity nor saluation, but in Iesus Christ, who is the very substance of this Gospel, and in whom all the promises are Yea, and Amen. And therefore consider the word is contained the whole new Testament: but commonly we vse this name for the history which the foure euangelists write, concerning Christs coming in the flesh, his death & resurrection, which is the perfect summe of our saluation. Matthew, Marke, and Luke are more copious in describing his life and death: but Iohn more laboureth to set forth his doctrine, wherein both Christs office, and also the vertue of his death & resurrection wisely appeare: for without this you know that Christ was borne, dead, and risen againe. Should nothing professe. The which thing notwithstanding that the three first touch partly, as bee also sometime intermeddle the historicall narration: yet Iohn chiefly is occupied herein. And therefore as a most learned interpreter writeth, that describe as it were, the body, and Iohn setteth before our eyes the soule. Wherefore the same aptly serueth the Gospel written by Iohn, the key, which openeth the doore to the vnderstanding of the others: for whosoever doth know the office, vertue, and power of Christ, shall read that which is written of the Sonne of God come to be the redeemer of the world, with most profit. Now as concerning the writers of this history, it is euident that Matthew was a Publicane or Custome gatherer, and was thence chosen of Christ to bee an Apostle. Marke is thought to haue bene Peters disciple, and to haue planned the first Church at Alexandria, where he died the eight yere of the reigne of Nero. Luke was a physician of Antiochia, and became Pauls disciple and fellow in all his traualles: he liued foure score and foure yeres, and was buried at Constantinople. Iohn was that Apostle whom the Lord loued, the sonne of Zebedee, and brother of James: hee died threescore yeres after Christ, and was buried nere to the cite of Ephesus.

CHAP. I.

1 The genealogie of Christ, that is, the Messias promised to the fathers, 18 Who was conceived by the holy Ghost, and borne of the virgine Mary, when shee was betrothed vnto Ioseph 20 The Angel saith flesh Iosephs minde, 21 Why he is called Iesus, and wherefore Emmanuel.

In the book of the generation of Iesus Christ the sonne of Dauid, the sonne of Abraham.

2 * Abraham begat Isaac.

* And Isaac begat Jacob. And * Jakob begate Iudas and his brethren.

3 * And Iudas begate Phares and Zara of Thamar. And * Phares begate Esrom. And Esrom begate Aram.

4 And Aram begate Aminadab. And Aminadab begate Naasson. And Naasson begate Salmon.

5 And Salmon begate Booz of Rachab. And Booz begate Obed of Ruth. And Obed begate

6 * And * Iesse begate Dauid the king. And * Dauid the king begate Salomon of her that was the wife of Vrias.

7 And * Salomon begate Roboam. And Roboam begate Abia, and Abia begate Asa.

8 And Asa begate Iosaphat. And Iosaphat begate Ioram. And Ioram begate Ozias.

9 And Ozias begate Ioatham. And Ioatham begate Achaz. And Achaz begate Ezekias.

10 And * Ezekias begate Manasses. And Manasses begat Amon. And Amon begat Iosias.

11 And * Iosias begat Iacim. And Iacim begate Iechonias and his brethren about the time they were caried away to Babylon.

12 And after they were caried away into Babylon, * Iechonias begate Salathiel. And * Salathiel begate Zorobabel.

13 And Zorobabel begate Abiad. And Abiad begate Eliacim. And Eliacim begate Azor.

14 And Azor begate Sadoc. And Sadoc begate Achin. And Achin begate Eliud.

15 And Eliud begate Eleazar. And Eleazar begate Matthan. And Matthan begate Iacob.

16 And Iacob begate Ioseph the husband of Mary.

17 And Ioseph begate Iesus, who is called Christ.

18 Thus are fulfilled the sayings of the Lord, which hee said by the prophet Ieremie, saying, Behold, I will bring her that is barren, and shee shall beare, and shee shall call the name of the child, Iesus.

For thus shall be called the sonne, who shall be borne to her, who is called the virgin.

For thus shall be called the sonne, who shall be borne to her, who is called the virgin.

Mary, of whome was borne I E S V S, that is call-led Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to Da-uid, are fourteene generations: and from Dauid vntill they were caried away into Babylon, fourteene generations: and after they were caried away into Babylon vntill Christ, fourteene generations.

18 ¶ Now the birth of Iesus Christ was thus,
Luk. 1. 27 When as his moether Mary was * betrothed to Io-seph, before they came together, there was found with child of the holy Ghost.

19 Then Ioseph her husband, being a iust man,
Den. 14. 1 and not willing to * make her a publike example, was minded to put her away secretly.

20 But whiles he thought these things, behold, the Angel of the Lorde appeared vnto him in a drem, saying, Ioseph the sonne of Dauid, feare not to take Mary for thy wife: for that which is conceiued in her, is of the holy Ghost.

21 And the shall bring forth a Sonne, and thou
Luk. 1. 31 shalt * call his name I E S V S: for he shall * saue
Mat. 1. 12 his people from their finnes.

22 And all this was done that it might be ful-
Phil. 2. 10. filled, which was spoken of the Lorde by the Prophet, saying,

23 * Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall Isa. 7. 14. beare a sonne, and they shall call his name Emma-
Isa. 9. 1. nuel, which is by interpretation, God with vs.

24 ¶ Then Ioseph being raised from sleepe, did as the Angel of the Lorde had enioyned him, and tooke his wife.

25 But hee knew her not, till shee had brought forth her first borne Sonne, and he called his name
I E S V S.

C H A P. II.

1 The time and place of Christs birth. 11 The wise men offer their presents. 14 Christ fleeth into Egypt. 16 The young children are slaine. 23 Ioseph surueth into Galile.

Luk. 2. 6. When * Iesus then was borne at Beth-lehem, in Iudea, in the daies of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the East to Ierusalem,

2 Saying, Where is the king of the Iewes, that is borne? for we haue seene his starre in the East, and are come to worship him.

3 When king Herod heard this, hee was troubled, and all Ierusalem with him.

4 And gathering together all the chiefe Priests and Scribes of the people, he asked of them where Christ should be borne.

5 And they said vnto him, At Beth-lehem in Iudea: for so it is written by the Prophet,

6 * And thou Beth-lehem in the land of Iuda,
Isa. 5. 2. art not the least among the princes of Iuda, for out
Luk. 7. 4. of thee shall come the gouernour that shall feed my people Israel.

7 Then Herod priuily called the wisemen, and diligently enquired of them the time of the starre that appeared,

8 And sent them to Beth-lehem, saying, Goe, and search diligently for the babe: and when yee haue found him, bring me word againe, that I may come also and worship him.

9 ¶ So when they had heard the king, they departed: and loe, the starre which they had seene in the East, went before them till it came and stood ouer the place where the babe was.

10 And when they saw the starre, they reioycd with an exceeding great ioy,

11 And went into the house & found the babe
10r. 1. 10. with Mary his mother, and fell downe, & worshipped him, and opened their treasures, and presented vnto him gifts, even gold, and incense, and myrrhe.

12 And after they were warned of God in a drem, that they should not goe againe to Herod, they returned into their country another way.

13 ¶ After their departure, behold, the Angel of the Lorde appeareth to Ioseph in a drem, saying, Arise, and take the babe and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be there till I bring thee word: for Herod will seeke the babe to destroy him.

14 So he arose and tooke the babe and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt.

15 And was there vnto the death of Herod, that it might be fulfilled, which was spoken of the Lorde by the * Prophet, saying, Out of Egypt haue I called my sonne.

16 ¶ Then Herod, seeing that he was mocked of the Wise men, was exceeding wroth, & sent forth, and slewe all the male children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two yere old and vnder, according to the time which he had diligently searched out of the Wise men.

17 Then was that fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophet Ieremias, saying,

18 * In Rama was a voice heard, mourning, and weeping, and great lamentation: Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they were not.

19 And when Herod was dead, behold, an Angel of the Lorde appeareth in a drem to Ioseph in Egypt,

20 Saying, Arise, and take the babe and his mother, and goe into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the babes life.

21 Then hee arose vp, and tooke the babe and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22 But when he heard that Archelaus did reigne in Iudea in stead of his father Herod, hee was afraid to goe thither: yet after he was warned of God in a drem, he turned aside into the parts of Galile.

23 And went and dwelt in a citie called Nazareth, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophets, which was, That he should be called a Nazarite.

C H A P. III.

1 The office, doctine, and life of Iohn. 7 The Pharises are reprobred. 8 The fruits of repentance. 13 Christ is baptized in Iordan, 17 and authorized by God his father.

And * in those dayes Iohn the Baptiste came and preached in the wilderness of Iudea,

2 And said, ¶ Repent: for the kingdome of heauen is at hand.

3 For this is he of whome it is spoken by the Prophet Esaias, saying, * The voice of him that cryeth in the wilderness, is, Prepare ye the way of the Lorde: make his paths straight.

4 * And this Iohn had his garment of camels haire, and a girdle of a skin about his loines: his meat was also locusts and wilde honey.

5 * Then went out to him Ierusalem and all Iu-dea, and all the region round about Iordan.

6 And they were baptized of him in Iordan, confessing their finnes.

7 Now when he saw many of the Pharises, and of the Sadduces come to his baptism, he said vnto them, ¶ O generations of vipers, who hath forewarned you to flee from the anger to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy amendment of life.

9 And thinke not to say with your selues, ¶ We haue Abraham to our father: for I say vnto you, that that God is able of these stones to raise vp children vnto Abraham.

10 And now also is the axe put to the roote of the trees: * therefore euery tree which bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewen downe, and cast into the fire.

11 * Indeed I baptize you with water to amendment of life: but hee that cometh after mee, is mightier then I, whose shoes I am not worthy to beare: hee will baptize you with the holy Ghost, and with fire.

12 Which hath his fanne in his hand, and will make cleane his flore, and gather his wheat into his garner, but wil burne vp the chaffe with vnquenchable fire.

13 * * Then came Iesus from Galile to Iordan, vnto Iohn, to be baptized of him.

14 But Iohn put him backe, saying, I haue need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

15 Then Iesus answering, said to him, Let bee now, for thus it becometh vs to fulfill all righteousness. So he suffered him.

16 And Iesus whē he was baptized, came straight out of the water. And lo, the heauens were opened vnto him, & Iohn saw the spirit of God descending like doue, and lighting vpon him.

17 And Ioe, a voyce came from heauen, saying,

* This is my * beloued Sonne, in whom I am well pleased.

C H A P. IIII.

1 Christ fasteth and is tempted. 11 The Angels minister vnto him. 17 He beginneth to preach. 18 Hee calleth Peter, Andrew, James and Iohn, and bealeth all the fische.

Then * was Iesus led aside of the Spirit into the wilderness, to be tempted of the deuil.

2 And when he had fasted forty dayes, and forty nights, he was afterward hungry.

3 Then came to him the tempter, and sayd, If thou bee the Sonne of God, commaund that these stones be made bread.

4 But he answering, said, It is written, * Man shall not liue by bread only, but by euery word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

5 Then the deuil tooke him vp into the holy citie, and set him on a pinacle of the Temple,

6 And said vnto him, If thou bee the Son of God, cast thy selfe downe: for it is written, * that he will cast his Angels charge ouer thee, and with their hands they shall liue thee vp, least at any time thou shouldest dash thy foot against a stone.

7 Iesus sayde vnto him, It is written againe, * Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

8 Again the deuil tooke him vp vnto an exceeding high mountaine, and shewed him all the kingdomes of the world, and the glory of them,

9 And said to him, All these will I giue thee, if thou wilt fall downe and worship mee.

10 Then said Iesus vnto him, Auoyd Satan: for it is written, * Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serue.

11 * Then the deuil left him: and behold, the Angels came and ministred vnto him.

12 * * And when Iesus had heard that Iohn was deliuered vp, he returned into Galile, 13 And leauing Nazareth, went and dwelt in Capernaum, which is neere the sea, in the borders of Zabulon, and Nephthalim, 14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the Prophet, saying,

* The land of Zabulon, & the land of Nephthalim by the way of the sea, beyond Iordan, Galilee of the Gentiles:

16 The people which sate in darkenes, saw great light, and to them that sate in the region and shadow of death, light is risen vp.

17 * From that time Iesus began to preach, and to say, Amend your liues: for the kingdome of heauen is at hand.

18 * * And Iesus walking by the sea of Galile, saw two brethren, Simon, which was called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea (for they were fishers)

19 And he said vnto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.

20 And they straightway leauing their nets, followed him.

21 And when he was gone forth from thence, hee saw two other brethren, James the sonne of Zebedeus, and Iohn his brother, in a ship with Zebedeus their father, mending their nets, and he called them.

22 And they without tarying, leauing the ship, and their father, followed him.

23 So Iesus went about all Galile, teaching in their Synagogues, and preaching the Gospel of the Kingdome, and healing euery sicknesse and euery disease among the people.

24 And his fame spread abroad thorow all Syria: and they brought vnto him all sicke people, that were taken with diuers diseases, and gripings, and them that were possessed with deuils and those which were lunatique, and those that had the palsy: and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes out of Galile, and Decapolis, and Ierusalem, and Iudea, and from beyond Iordan.

3 Christ teacheth who are blessed. 13 The salt of the earth, and light of the world. 16 Good works. 17 Christ came to fulfill the Law. 21 What is meant by killing. 23 Reconciliation. 27 Adulterie. 29 Offences. 31 Discerments. 33 Not to swear. 39 To suffer wrong. 44 To love our enemies. 48 Perfection.

And when he saw the multitude, he went vp into a mountaine: and when he was set, his disciples came to him.

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 * Blessed are the poore in spirit: for theirs is the kingdome of heauen. Luk. 6.20

4 * Blessed are they that mourne: for they shall be comforted. Isa. 61.2, 3, 7. & 8.

5 * Blessed are the meeke: for they shall inherit the earth. Luk. 6.21

6 * Blessed are they which hunger and thirst for righteousness: for they shall be filled. Psal. 37. 11.

7 * Blessed are the mercifull: for they shall obtaine mercie.

8 * Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. Psal. 24.4

9 * Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 * Blessed are they which suffer persecution for righteousness sake: for theirs is the kingdome of heauen.

11 * Blessed are ye when men reuile you, & persecute you, and say all manner of euill against you for my sake falsly.

12 Reioyce and be glad, for great is your reward in heauen: for so persecuted they the Prophets which were before you.

Mar. 9. 30 13 * Yee are the salt of the earth: but if the salt
Luke 14. haue lost his sauour, wherewith shall it be salted? It 34. is therefore good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be troden vnder foot of men.

14 Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill, cannot be hid.

Mar. 4. 21 15 * Neither doe men light a candle, and put it
Luke 8. 16 vnder a bushell, but on a candlestick, and it giueth

3. Pet. 2. 16 * Let your light so shine before men, that they which is in heauen.

17 Thinke not that I am come to destroy  $\frac{1}{2}$  law, or the Prophets. I am not come to destroy them, but to fulfill them.

Luke 16. 18 * For truly, I say vnto you, Till heauen and 17. earth perish, one iote, or one tittle of the Law shall not scape, till all things be fulfilled.

Lam. 2. 10 19 * Whosoever therefore shall breake one of these least commandements, and teach men so, hee shall bee called the least in the kingdome of heauen: but whosoever shall obserue and teach them, the same shall bee called great in the kingdome of heauen.

Luke 11. 20 For I say vnto you, Except your righteousnes 39. exceed the righteousness of the Scribes and Pharisees, ye shal not enter into the kingdome of heauen.

Exo. 2. 10 21 Ye haue heard that it was sayd vnto them of 13. deut. the old time, * Thou shalt not kill: for whosoever killeth, shalbe culpable of iudgement.

5. 17. 22 But I say vnto you, Whosoever is angry with his brother  $\frac{1}{2}$  vnadvisedly, shalbe culpable of iudgment. And whosoever saith vnto his brother, Raca, shalbe worthy to be punished by the counsell. And whosoever shall say, Foole, shalbe worthy to be punished with hell fire.

23 If thou then bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought a-and go thy way: first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

Luke 12. 25 * Agree with thine aduersary quickly, whilest

26 Verily I say vnto thee, Thou shalt not come out thence, till thou hast paid the vtmost farthing.

Brood. no. 27 ¶ Ye haue heard that it was said to them of that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

30 Also if thy right hand make thee to offend, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for better it is for thee that one of thy members perish, then that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

Cha. 19. 7. 31 It hath bene said also, * Whosoever shal put

30. to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is diuorced, committeth adultery.

33 Again, ye haue heard that it was said to the of old time, * Thou shalt not forswear thy selfe, but shalt performe thine othes to the Lord.

34 But I say vnto you, Swear not at all, neither by heauen, for it is the throne of God:

35 Neryet by the earth: for it is his footstool:
neither by Ierusalem. for it is the citie of the great King.

36 Neither shalt thou sweare by thine head, because thou canst not make one hayre white or blacke.

37 * But let your communication bee, Yea, yea:
Nay, nay. For whatsoeuer is more then these, commeth of euill.

38 ¶ Yee haue heard that it hath bene said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.

39 But I say vnto you, \* Resist not  $\frac{1}{2}$  euill, but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheeke, turne to him the other also.

40 And if any man will sue thee at the Law, and take away thy coat, let him haue thy cloke also.

41 And whosoever will compell thee to goe a mile, goe with him twaine.

42 ¶ Giue to him that asketh, and from him that would borrow of thee, turne not away.

43 Ye haue heard that it hath bene said, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy.

44 But I say vnto you, \* Loue your enemies:  $\frac{1}{2}$ bless them that curse you: doe good to them that hate you, \* and pray for them which hurt you, and persecute you,

45 * That you may bee the children of your Father that is in heauen: for he maketh his sunne to arise on the euill and the good, and sendeth raine on the iust and vniust.

46 ¶ For if ye loue them which loue you, what reward shall you haue? Doe not the Publicanes euen the same?

47 And if ye be friendly to your brethren only, what singular thing doe yee? doe not euen the Publicanes likewise?

48 Ye shal therefore be perfecte, as your Father which is in heauen, is perfecte.

CHAP. VI.

1 Of almes, 5 Prayer, 14 forgiuing our sinnes, 16 fasting, 19 He forbiddeth the carefull seeking of worldly things, and willet men to put their whole trust in him.

Take heede that ye giue not your almes before men, to be seene of them, or else yee shall haue no reward of your father which is in heauen.

2 * Therefore when thou giuest thine almes, thou shalt not make a trumpet to bee blown before thee, as the hypocrites doe in the Synagogues and in the streetes to be praised of men. Verily I say vnto you, they haue their reward.

3 But when thou doest thine almes, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth,

4 That thine almes may be in secret, and thy Father that seeth in secret, hee will reward thee openly.

5 And when thou prayest, be not as the hypocrites: for they loue to stand and pray in the Synagogues, and in the corners of the streetes, because they would be seene of men. Verily I say vnto you, they haue their reward.

6 But when thou prayest, enter into thy chamber, and when thou hast shut thy doore, pray vnto thy Father, which is in secret, and thy Father which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

7 Also when you pray, use no vaine repetiti-ons as the heathen: for they thinke to be heard for their much babbling.

8 Be yee not like them therefore: for your Father knoweth whereof ye haue need before ye aske of him.

9 After this manner therefore pray ye. *Our Father which art in heauen, hallowed be thy Name.
10 Thy kingdome come. Thy will be done euen in earth, as it is in heauen.
11 Giue vs this day our daily bread.
12 And forgie vs our debts, as we also forgiue our debtors.

13 And leade vs not into tentation, but deliuer vs from euill: for thine is the kingdome, and the power, and the glory, for euer, Amen.

14 * For if yee doe forgiue men their trespasses, your heauenly father will also forgiue you.

15 But if ye do not forgiue men their trespasses, no more will your Father forgiue you your trespasses.

16 Moreouer, when yee fast, looke not sowre as the hypocrites: for they disfigure their faces, that they might seeme vnto men to fast. Verely I say vnto you, that they haue their reward.

17 But when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and walsh thy face, 18 That thou seeme not vnto men to fast, but vnto thy father which is in secret: & thy Father which seeth in secret, will reward thee openly.

19 * Lay not vp treasures for your selues vpon the earth, where the moth and canker corrupt, and where theues digge thorow and steale.

20 * But lay vp treasures for your selues in heauen, where neither the moth nor canker corrupteth, and where theues neither digge thorow nor steale.

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 * The light of the body is the eye: if then thine eye be single, thy whole body shal be light.

23 But if thine eye be wicked, then all thy body shal be darke. Wherefore if the light that is in thee be darknesse, how great is that darknesse?

24 * No man can serue two masters: for either he shall hate the one and loue the other, or else hee shall leaue to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serue God and riches.

25 * Therefore I say vnto you, Be not carefull for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drinke: nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life worth more than meat? and the body then raiment?

26 Beholde the fowles of the heauen: for they sow not, neither reape, nor cary into the barnes: yet your heauenly Father feedeth them. Are yee not much better then they?

27 Which of you by taking care is able to adde one cubit vnto his stature?

28 And why care yee for raiment? Learne how the lilies of the field do grow: they labour not, neither spin:

29 Yet I say vnto you, that euen Salomon in all his glory was not araised like one of these.

30 Wherefore if God so clothe the graffe of the field which is to day, and to morrow is cast into the ouen, shall he not doe much more vnto you, O ye of little faith?

31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or what shall wee drinke? or wherewith shall we be clothed?

32 (For after all these things seeke the Gentiles) for your heauenly Father knoweth, that yee haue neede of all these things.

33 But seeke ye first the kingdome of God, and his righteousnesse, and all these things shall be ministred vnto you.

34 Care not then for the morow: for the morow shall care for it selfe: the day hath enough with his owne griefe.

CHAP. VII.

1 Christ forbiddeth rash iudgement. 6 Not to cast holy things to dogs. 7 To aske, seeke, and knocke. 12 The scope of the Scriptures. 13 The strait and wide gate. 15 Of false prophets. 16 The good tree and euill. 22 False miracles. 24 The house on the rocke, or vpon the sand.

I Vdge not, that ye be not iudged.

2 For with what iudgement yee iudge, yee shalbe iudged, and with what measure you mete, it shalbe measured to you againe.

3 And why seekest thou the mote that is in thy brothers eye, and perceiuest not the beame that is in thine owne eye?

4 * Or how saiest thou to thy brother, Suffer me to cast out the mote out of thine eye, and beholde, a beame is in thine owne eye?

5 Hypocrite, first cast out the beame out of thine owne eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brothers eye.

6 * Giue ye not that which is holy to dogges, neither cast ye your pearles before swine, lest they tread them vnder their feet, and turning againe all to rent you.

7 * Aske, and it shall be giuen you: seeke, and yee shall finde: knocke, and it shall be opened vnto you.

8 For whosoever asketh, receiuet: and he that seeketh, findeth: and to him that knocketh, it shalbe opened.

9 For what man is there among you, which if his sonne aske him bread, would giue him a stone?

10 Or if hee aske filth, will hee giue him a serpent?

11 If yee then which are euill, can giue to your children good gifts, how much more shall your father which is in heauen, giue good things to them that aske him?

12 * Therefore whosoever ye would that men should doe to you, euen so doe ye to them: for this is the Law and the Prophets.

13 * Enter in at the strait gate: for it is the wide gate, and broad way that leadeth to destruction: and many there be which goe in therat, 14 Because the gate is strait, and the way narrow that leadeth vnto life, and few there be that find it.

15 * Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheeps clothing, but inwardly they are rauening wolues.

16 Yee shall know them by their fruits. * Doe men gather grapes of thornes? or figs of thistles?

17 So euery good tree bringeth forth good fruit, and a corrupt tree bringeth forth euill fruit.

18 A good tree cannot bring forth euill fruit: neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

19 * Euery tree that bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewen downe, and cast into the fire.

20 Therefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

21 * Not euery one that sayth vnto mee, Lord, Lord, shal enter into the kingdome of heauen, * but he that doth my Fathers will which is in heauen.

22 Many will say vnto me in that day, Lord, Lord, haue we not by thy Name prophesied? and by thy Name cast out deuils? and by thy Name done many great workes?

23 And then will I professe to them, * I neuer knew you: depart ye from mee, ye that worke iniquitie.

24 Whosoever then heareth of me these words, * and doth the same, I will liken him to a wise man, which

25 And the raine fell, and the floods came, and the windes blew, and beat vpon that house, and it fell not: for it was groundd on a rocke.

26 But whosoever heareth these my words, and doeth them not, shall be likened vnto a foolish man, which hath builded his house vpon the sand:

27 And the raine fell, and the floods came, and the windes blew, and beat vpon that house, and it fell, and the fall thereof was great.

Mar. 1. 22 28 ¶ And it came to passe when Iesus had ended these wordes, the people were astonied at his doctrine.

29 For he taught them as one hauing authority, and not as the Scribes.

Mar. 1. 40 2 ¶ And lo, there came a leper, and worshipped him, saying, Master, if thou wilt thou canst make me cleane.

3 And Iesus putting forth his hand, touched him, saying, I will be thou cleane: and immediately his leprosie was cleansed.

4 Then Iesus sayde vnto him, See thou tell no man, but go, and shew thy selfe vnto the Priest, and offer the gift that ¶ Moyses commaunded for a witnesse to them.

Zen. 1. 4. 5 ¶ When Iesus was entred into Capernaum, there came vnto him a Centurion, beseeching him,

6 And said, Master, my seruant lyeth sicke at home of the palsey, and is grievously pained.

7 And Iesus sayde vnto him, I will come and heale him.

8 But the Centurion answered, saying, Master, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come vnder my roofo: but speake the word onely, and my seruant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man also vnder the authoritie of another, and haue souldiers vnder me: and I say to one, Goe, and he goeth: and to another, Come, and he cometh: and to my seruant, Doe this, and hee doeth it.

10 When Iesus heard that, he marueiled, & said to them that followed him, Verely, I say vnto you, I haue not found so great faith euen in Israel.

11 But I say vnto you, that many shall come from the East and West, and shall sit downe with Abraham, and Isaac, and Iacob in the kingdome of heauen.

12 And the children of the kingdome shall be cast out into vtter darkenesse: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

13 Then Iesus said vnto the Centurion, Goe thy way, and as thou hast beleueed, so bee it vnto thee. And his seruant was healed the same houre.

Mar. 1. 29 14 ¶ And when Iesus came to Peters house, he sawe his wifes mother laide downe, and sicke of a feuer.

15 And he touched her hand, and the feuer left her: so she arose, and ministred vnto them.

Mar. 1. 32 16 ¶ When the euen was come, they brought vnto him many that were possessed with deuils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sicke,

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by ¶ Eysay the Prophet, saying, He tooke our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

18 ¶ And when Iesus sawe great multitudes of people about him, he commaunded them to go ouer the water.

19 ¶ Then came there a certaine Scribe, and said vnto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

20 But Iesus said vnto him, The foxes haue holes, and the birds of the heauen haue nests, but the Son of man hath not whereon to rest his head.

21 ¶ And another of his disciples said vnto him, Master, suffer me first to goe, and bury my father.

22 But Iesus said vnto him, Follow me, and let the dead bury their dead.

23 ¶ And when he was entred into the ship, his disciples followed him.

24 And beholde, there arose a great tempest in the sea, so that the ship was conered with waves: but he was asleepe.

25 Then his disciples came, and awoke him, saying, Master, saue vs: we perill.

26 And hee sayd vnto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea, and so there was a great calme.

27 And the men marueiled, saying, What man is this, that both the winds and the sea obey him!

28 ¶ And when he was come to the other side, into the cuntry of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with deuils, which came out of the graues very fierce, so that no man might goe by that way.

29 And behold, they cried out, saying, Iesus thou Son of God, what haue we to doe with thee? Art thou come hither to torment vs before the time?

30 Now there was a farr off from them a great herd of swine feeding.

31 And the deuils besought him, saying, If thou cast vs out, suffer vs to go into the herd of swine.

32 And he said vnto them, Go. So they went out, and departed into the herd of swine: and beholde, the whole herd of swine was caried with violence from a sleepe downe place into the sea, and died in the water.

33 Then the herdmen fled, and when they were come into the citie, they tolde all things, and what was become of them that were possessed with the deuils.

34 And beholde, all the citie came out to meet Iesus: and when they saw him, they besought him to depart out of their coasts.

29 giueth two blinde men their sight, 31 maketh a dumb man to speake, 35 preacheeth and healeth in diuers places, 38 and exhorteth to prayers for the advancement of the Gospel.

2 Then he entred into a ship, and passed ouer, and came into his owne citie.

2 And ¶ lo, they brought to him a man sicke of the palsey, lying on a bedde. And Iesus seeing their faith, said to the sicke of the palsey, Son, be of good comfort: thy sinnes are forgiven thee.

3 And beholde, certaine of the Scribes said with themselves, This man blasphemeth.

4 But when Iesus saw their thoughts, hee sayd, Where-Wherefore thinke ye euill things in your hearts?

5 For whether is it easier to say, Thy finnes are forgiven thee, or to say, Arise, and walke?

6 And that ye may know that the Sonne of man hath authoritie in earth to forgive finnes (then said hee vnto the sicke of the palfie) Arise, take vp thy bed, and goe to thine house.

7 And he arose, and departed to his own house.

8 So when the multitude saw it, they maruelled and glorified God, which had giuen such authoritie to men.

9 ¶ And as Iesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man sitting at the recceit of custome, named Matthew, & said to him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

10 And it came to passe, as Iesus sate at meate in his house, behold, many Publicanes and sinners, that came thither, sate downe at the table with Iesus and his disciples.

11 And when the Pharises saw that, they said to his disciples, Why eateth your master with Publicanes and sinners?

12 Now when Iesus heard it, he said vnto them, The whole neede not a Physician, but they that are sicke.

13 But go ye and learne what this is, I will haue mercie, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but the sinners to repentance.

14 ¶ Then came the disciples of Iohn to him, saying, Why doe we and the Pharises fast oft, and your disciples fast not?

15 And Iesus said vnto them, Can the children of the marriage chamber mourne as long as the bridegrome is with them? But the dayes will come when the bridegrome shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast.

16 Moreover, no man pieceth an olde garment with a piece of new cloth: for that that should fill it vp, taketh away from the garment, & the breach is worse.

17 Neither do they put new wine into old vessels: for then the vessels would breake, and the wine would bee spilt, and the vessels should perishe: but they put new wine into new vessels, and so are both preferred.

18 ¶ Whiles he thus spake vnto them, behold, there came a certaine ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is now deceased, but come and lay thine hand on her, & she shall liue.

19 And Iesus arose and followed him with his disciples.

20 (And behold, a woman which was diseased with an issue of blood twelue yeeres, came behind him, and touched the hemme of his garment.

21 For the said in her selfe, If I may touch but his garment onely, I shall be whole.

22 Then Iesus turned him about, and seeing her did say, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole at that house.)

23 Now when Iesus came into the rulers house, and saw the minstrels and the multitude making a noise, 24 Hee said vnto them, Get yee hence: for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorne.

25 And when the multitude were put forth, he went in, & tooke her by the hand, & the maid arose.

26 And this bruite went thorowout all that land.

27 And as Iesus departed thence, two blinde men followed him, crying, and saying, O Sonne of David, haue mercie vpon vs.

28 And when hee was come into the house, the blind came to him, and Iesus said vnto them, Beleeue ye that I am able to doe this? And they said vnto him, Yea, Lord.

29 Then touched hee their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it vnto you.

30 And their eyes were opened: and Iesus charged them, saying, See that no man know it.

31 But when they were departed, they spread abroad his fame thorowout all that land.

32 ¶ And as they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumbe man possessed with a deuill.

33 And when the deuill was cast out, the dumbe spake: then the multitude maruelled, saying, The like was neuer seene in Israel.

34 But the Pharises said, ¶ He casteth out deuils through the prince of deuils.

35 ¶ And Iesus went about all cities & townes, teaching in their Synagogues, and preaching the Gospel of the kingdome, and healing euery sicke, nesse and euery disease among the people.

36 But when hee saw the multitude, he had compassion vpon them, because they were dispersed, and scattered abroad, as sheepe hauing no shepherd.

37 Then said hee to his disciples, ¶ Surely the harvest is great, but the labourers are few.

38 Wherefore pray the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

And hee called his twelue disciples vnto him, and gaue them power against vnclane spirits to cast them out, and to heale euery sicknesse, and euery disease.

2 Now the names of the twelue Apostles are these. The first is Simon, called Peter, and Andrew his brother: James the sonne of Zebedee, and Iohn his brother:

3 Philip, and Bartlemew: Thomas, and Matthew the Publicane, James the sonne of Alphaeus, and Lebbeus, whose surname was Thaddeus:

4 Simon the Cananite, and Iudas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

5 These twelue did Iesus send forth, and commanded them, saying, Goe not into the way of the Gentiles, and into the cities of the Samaritanes enter ye not.

6 But go rather to the lost sheepe of the house of Israel.

7 ¶ And as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdome of heauen is at hand.

CHAP. XI.

1 Christ preacheth, 2 Iohn Baptist sendeth his disciples vnto him. 3 Christes testimony concerning Iohn.

18 The opinion of the people concerning Christ & Iohn.
20 Christ vpbraideth the vnbaukt full cities. 25 The Gospel is revealed to the simple. 28 They that labour and are laden. 29 Christes yoke.

And it came to passe, when Iesus had made an end of commanding his twelue disciples, he departed thence to teach & to preach in their cities.

¶ * And when Iohn heard in the prison the workes of Christ, he sent two of his disciples, and said vnto him,

3 Art thou hee that should come, or shall wee looke for another?

4 And Iesus answering, said vnto them, Go, and shew Iohn what things ye haue heard and seene.

5 The blind receiue sight, and the halt goe, the lepers are cleansed, and the deafe heare: the dead are raised vp, * and the poore receiue the Gospel.

6 And blessed is hee that shall not be offended in me.

7 And as they departed, Iesus began to speake vnto the multitude, of Iohn, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken wth the wind?

8 But what went ye out to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Beholde, they that weare soft clothing, are in kings houses.

9 But what went ye out to see? A Prophet? Yea,
I say vnto you, and more then a Prophet.

10 For this is hee of whom it is written, * Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verely I say vnto you, among them which are begotten of women, arose there not a greater then Iohn Baptist: notwithstanding hee that is the least in the kingdome of heauen, is greater then he.

12 And from * the time of Iohn Baptist hitherto, the kingdome of heauen suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

13 For all the Prophets and the Law prophesied vnto Iohn.

14 And if ye will receiue it, this is * Elias which was to come.

15 ¶ He that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

16 * But whereunto shall I liken this generation?
It is like vnto little children which fit in the markets, and call vnto their fellows,

17 And say, we haue piped vnto you, and ye haue not danced, we haue ¶ mourned vnto you, and yee haue not lamented.

18 For Iohn came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a deuill.

19 The Sonne of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a glutton, & a drinker of wine, a friend vnto Publicanes and sinners: but wisdom is iustified of her children.

20 ¶ Then began hee to vpbraid the cities wherout of an euill treasure bringeth forth euill things.

36 But I say vnto you, That of euery idle word that men shall speake, they shal giue account thereof at the day of iudgement.

37 For by thy words thou shalt be iustified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

Cha. 16. 1 38 ¶ Then answered certaine of the Scribes luke 11. and of the Pharisees, saying, Master, wee would see a 29. 1. cor. signe of thee.

3. 22. 39 But hee answered, and said to them, An euill and adulterous generation seeketh a signe, but no signe shalbe giuen vnto it, saue the signe of the Prophet Ionas.

Jonas 1. 40 * For as Ionas was three dayes and three 17. and 2 nights in the whales belly: so shall the Sonne of 10. man bee three dayes and three nights in the heart of the earth.

41 The men of Nineue shall rise in iudgement with this generation, and condemne it: for they * repented at the preaching of Ionas: and behold, a greater then Ionas is here.

1. Kin. 10. 42 * The Queene of the South shall rise in iudgement
1. 1. chro. with this generation, and shall condemne it: for she came from the vtmost parts of the earth to 9. 1. heare the wisdom of Salomon: and behold, a greater then Salomon is here.

Luke 11. 43 ¶ Now when the vncleane spirit is gone out
24. of a man, bee walketh thorowout ¶ drie places, seeking rest, and findeth none.

Or. wil. 44 Then he saith, I wil retorne into mine house, diuines. from whence I came: and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished.

45 ¶ Then he goeth, and taketh vnto him seuen other spirits worse then his selfe, and they enter in, and dwell there, * and the end of that man is worse then the beginning. Euen so shall it bee with this wicked generation.

2. Pet. 2. 46 ¶ While he yet spake to the multitude, be-20. heb. 6. hold, his mother and his brethren stood without,
4. and 10. desiring to speake with him.

26. 47 Then one said vnto him, Behold, thy mother
Marke 3 and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speake 31. luke with thee.
8. 20.

48 But he answered & said to him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren?

49 And hee stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren.

50 For whosoever shall doe my Fathers will which is in heauen, the same is my brother and sister and mother.

CHAP. XIII.

3 The state of the kingdom of God set forth by the parable of the seed. 24 Of the tares. 31 Of the mustard seed. 33 Of the leuen. 44 Of the treasure hid in the field. 45 Of the parables. 47 and of the net. 57 The Prophet is contemned in his owne country.

Mar. 4. 1. luke 8. 4. 5. The same day went Iesus out of the house, and sate by the sea side.

2 And great multitudes resorted vnto him, so that hee went into a ship, and sate downe: and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3 Then he spake many things to them in parables, saying, Behold, a sower went forth to sow.

4 And as he sowed, some fell by the wayes side, and the fowles came and deuoured them vp.

5 And some fel vpon stony ground, where they had not much earth, and anon they sprang vp, because they had no depth of earth.

6 And when the Sunne rose vp, they were parched, and for lacke of rooting withered away.

7 And some fell among thornes, & the thornes sprung vp, and choked them.

8 Some againe fell in good ground, & brought forth fruit, one came an hundred fold, some fixtie fold, an l another thirtie fold.

9 He that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

10 ¶ Then the disciples came and said to him, Why speakest thou to them in parables?

11 And he answered and said vnto them, Because it is giuen vnto you, to knowe the secrets of the kingdome of heauen, but to them it is not giuen.

12 ¶ For whosoever hath, to him shall be giuen. Chap. 13. and he shall haue abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away, euen that he hath.

13 Therefore speake I to them in parables, because they seeing doe not see: and hearing, they heare not, neither vnderstand.

14 So in them is fulfilled the prophesie of Esaias, which prophesie saith, * By hearing ye shall heare, and shall not vnderstand, and seeing, ye shall see and shall not perceiue.

15 For this peoples heart is waxed fat, and their eares are dull of hearing, and with their eyes they haue winked, lest they should see with their eyes, and heare with their eares, and should vnderstand with their hearts, and should retorne, that I might heale them.

16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your eares, for they heare.

17 ¶ For verely I say vnto you, that many Prophets and righteous men haue desired to see those things which ye see, and haue not seene them, and to heare those things which ye heare, and haue not heard them.

18 ¶ Heare yee therefore the parable of the sower.

19 Whensoever a man heareth the word of the kingdome, and vnderstandeth it not, the euill one commeth and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart: and this is hee which hath received the seede by the way side.

20 And hee that receiued seede in the stonie ground, is hee which heareth the word, and incontinently with ioy receiueith it.

21 Yet hath he no roote in himselfe, and dureth but a season: for as soone as tribulation or persecution commeth because of the word, by and by he is offended.

22 And he that receiueith the seed among thornes, is hee, that heareth the word, but the care of this world, and the deceitfullasse of riches, choke the word, and he is made vnfruitfull.

23 But hee that receiueith the seede in the good ground, is he that heareth the word, and vnderstandeth it, which also beareth fruit, & bringeth forth, some an hundred fold, some fixtie fold, and some thirtie fold.

24 ¶ Another parable put he forth vnto them, saying, The kingdome of heauen is like vnto a man which sowed good seed in his field.

25 But while men slept, there came his enemy, and sowed tares among the wheat, & went his way.

26 And when the blade was sprung vp, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 Then came the seruants of the householder, and said vnto him, Master, sowdest thou not these good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 And he said to them, The enuious man hath done this. Then the seruants said vnto him, Wilt thou then that we goe and gather them vp?

29 But he said, Nay, lest while ye goe about to gather the tares, yee plucke vp also with them the wheate.

30 Let both grow together vntill the haruest, and in time of haruest I will say to the reapers, Gather yee first the tares, and bind them in sheaves to burne them; but gather the wheat into my barn.

31 ¶ Another parable put he forth vnto them, saying, The kingdome of heauen is like vnto a graine of mustard seede, which a man taketh and soweth in his field:

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is growen, it is the greatest among herbes, and it is a tree, so that the birdes of heauen come and build in the branches thereof.

33 ¶ Another parable spake he to them, The kingdome of heauen is like vnto leauen, which a woman taketh, and hideth in three pecks of meale, till all be leavened.

34 ¶ All these things spake Iesus vnto the multitude in parables, and without parables spake hee not vnto them, 35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophet, saying, *I will open my mouth in parables, and will vtter the things which haue bene kept secret from the foundation of the world.

36 Then sent Iesus the multitude away, and went into the house, and his disciples came vnto him, saying, Declare vnto vs the parable of the tares of the field.

37 Then answered he, and sayd to them, He that soweth the good seed is the Sonne of man.

38 And the field is the world, and the good seed they are the children of the kingdome, and the tares are the children of the wicked.

39 And the enemy that soweth them is the deuill, and the harvest is the end of the world, and the reapers be the Angels.

40 As then the tares are gathered, and burned in the fire, so it shall be in the end of this world.

41 The Sonne of man shall send forth his Angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdome all things that offend, and them which doe iniquitie, 42 And shall cast them into a furnace of fire. There shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

43 ¶ Then shall the iust men shine as the Sonne in the kingdome of the Father. He that hath eares heare, let him heare.

44 ¶ Again the kingdome of heauen is like vnto a treasure hid in a field, which when a man hath found, hee hideth it, and for ioy thereof departeth, and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

45 ¶ Again the kingdome of heauen is like to a merchant man that seeketh good pearles, 46 Who hauing found a pearle of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 ¶ Again, the kingdome of heauen is like vnto a draw net cast into the sea, that gathereth of all kinds of thinges.

48 Which when it is full, men draw to land, and sit and gather the good into vessels, and cast the bad away.

49 So shall it be in the end of the world. The Angels shall goe forth, and seuer the bad from among the iust.

50 And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

51 ¶ Iesus said vnto them, Vnderstand yee all these things? They sayd vnto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then sayd he vnto them, Therefore enerie Scribe which is taught vnto the kingdome of heauen, is like vnto an housholder which bringeth forth out of his treasure things both new and olde.

53 ¶ And it came to passe, that when Iesus had ended these parables, he departed thence,

54 ¶ And came into his owne country, and taught them in their Synagogues, so that they were astonied, and said, Whence cometh this wisdom, and great works vnto this man?

55 Is not this the Carpenters sonne? Is not his mother called Mary, and his brethren Iames and Ioses, and Simon, and Iudas?

56 And are not all these filters all with vs? Whence then hath he all these things?

57 And they were offended with him. Then Iesus said to them, ¶ A Prophet is not without honour, saue in his owne country, and in his owne house.

58 And he did not many great works there, for their vnbelieues sake.

CHAP. XIII.

2 Herods opinion concerning Christ. 10 Iohn is beheaded. 19 Christ feedeth his iohn and men with five loaves and two fishes. 23 Hee prayeth in the Mountaine. 25 Hee appeareth by night vnto his disciples upon the Sea. 31 and sauteh Peter. 33 They confesse him to bee the Sonne of God. 36 Hee healeth all that touched the hemme of his garment.

T. * that time Herod the Tetrarch heard of the fame of Iesus,

2 And said vnto his seruants, This is Iohn Baptist: he is risen againe from the dead, and therefore great works are wrought by him.

3 ¶ For Herod had taken Iohn, and bound him, and put him in prison, for Herodias sake, his brother Philips wife.

4 For Iohn said vnto him, It is not lawfull for thee to haue her.

5 And when hee would haue put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a Prophet.

6 But when Herods birth-day was kept, the daughter of Herodias daunced before them, and pleased Herod.

7 Wherefore hee promised with an oath that he would giue her whatsoever he would aske.

8 And hee before being instructed of her mother, said, Giue me here Iohn Baptists head in a platter.

9 And the king was foryewerthelesse, because of the oath, and them that sate with him at the table, he commanded it to be giuen her.

10 And sent, and beheaded Iohn in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a platter, and giuen to the maide, and shee brought it vnto her mother.

12 And his disciples came and tooke vp his bodie, and buried it, and went and told Iesus.

13 ¶ And when Iesus heard it, hee departed thence by ship into a desert place apart. And when the multitude had heard it, they followed him a foot out of the cities.

14 And Iesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moued with compassion toward them, and hee healed their sickes.

15 ¶ And when euen was come, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the houre is alreadie past: let the multitude depart, that they may goe into the townes, and buy them victuals.

16 But Iesus said to them, They haue no need to goe away: giue you them to eat.

17 Then said they vnto him, We haue here but five loaves and two fishes.

18 And he said, Bring them hither to me.

19 And hee commaunded the multitude to sit downe on the grasse, & tooke the five loaves & the 22 ¶ And straightway Iesus compelled his disciples to enter into a ship, & to goe ouer before him, while he sent the multitude away.

23 And assoone as hee had sent the multitude away, hee went vp into a mountaine alone to pray: * and when the euening was come, hee was there alone.

Mar. 6. 24 And the ship was now in the mids of the sea, and was tossed with waues: for it was a contrary winde.

25 And in the fourth watch of the night, Iesus went vnto them, walking on the sea.

26 And when his disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit, and cried out for feare.

27 But straightway Iesus spake vnto them, saying, Be of good comfort, It is I: Be not afraid.

28 Then Peter answered him, and said, Master, if it be thou, bid me come vnto thee on the water.

29 And hee said, Come. And when Peter was come downe out of the ship, he walked on the water to goe to Iesus.

30 But when he saw a mightie winde, he was afraid: and as he began to sinke, he cried, saying, Master, saue me.

31 So immediatly Iesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and sayd to him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?

32 And assoone as they were come into the ship, the wind ceased.

33 Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a trueth thou art the Sonne of God.

Mar. 6. 34 ¶ * And when they were come ouer, they came into the land of Genesaret.

35 And when the men of that place knew him, they sent out into all that countrey round about, and brought vnto him all that were sicke, 36 And besought him that they might touch the hemme of his garment onely: and as many as touched it were made whole.

C H A P. XV.

3 Christ excuseth his disciples, and rebuketh the Scribes and Pharisees for transgressing Gods Commandement by their owne traditions. 13 The plant that shalbe rooted out. 18 What things defile a man. 22 He deliuereth the woman of Canaanee daughter. 26 The bread of the children. 30 He healeth the sicke, 36 and feedeth foue thousand men beside women and children.

Then came to Iesus the Scribes and Pharisees, which were of Ierusalem, saying,

Mar. 7. 1. 2 * Why doe thy disciples transgresse the tradition of the Elders? for they wash not their hands when they eate & bread.

Or, meat. 3 But hee answered, and said vnto them, Why do ye also transgresse the Commandement of God by your tradition?

Exod. 20. 4 * For God hath commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: * and he that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

6.ephes. 5 But yee say, Whosoever shall say to father or mother, By the gift that is offered by mee, thou maist haue profitt, 6 Though he honour not his father or his mother, shalbe free: thus haue yee made the Commandement of God of no authoritie by your tradition.

7 Oh hypocrites, Eliaias prophesied well of you, saying,

8 * This people draweth neere vnto mee with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is farre off from me.

9 But in vaine they worship mee, teaching for doctrines, mens precepts.

10 * Then he called the multitude vnto him, and said to them, Heare and vnderstand.

11 That which goeth into the mouth, defileth not the man, but that which cometh out of the mouth, that defileth the man.

12 ¶ Then came his disciples and said vnto him, Perceiuest thou not that the Pharisees are offended in hearing thou saying?

13 But hee answered, and said, * Euery plant which mine heauenly Father hath not planted, shal be rooted vp.

14 Let them alone: they be the * blind leaders of the blinde: and if the blinde leade the blinde, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 ¶ * Then answered Peter, and said to him, Declare vnto vs this parable.

16 Then said Iesus, Are yee yet without vnderstanding?

17 Perceiue ye not yet, that whatsoeuer entreth into the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 But those things which procede out of the mouth come from the heart, & they defile the man.

19 For out of the heart come * euill thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false testimonies, slanders.

20 These are the things which defile the man: but to eate with vnwashed hands, defileth not the man.

21 * And Iesus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyrus and Sidon.

22 And behold, a woman, a Canaanite came out of the same coasts, and cried, saying vnto him, Haue mercy on mee, O Lord, the Sonne of Dauid: my daughter is miserably vexed with a deuill.

23 But he answered her not a word. Then came to him his disciples, and besought him, saying, Send her away, for she crieth after vs.

24 But he answered, and said, I am not sent, but vnto the * lost sheepe of the house of Israel.

25 Yet she came, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, helpe me.

26 And he answered, and said, It is not good to take the childrens bread, and to cast it to whelpes.

27 But shee said, Truth, Lord: Yet in indeed the whelpes eate of the crumbe which fall from their masters table.

28 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it vnto thee, as thou desirest. And her daughter was made whole at that houre.

29 ¶ So Iesus * went away from thence, and came neere vnto the sea of Galilee, and went vp into a mountaine, and sate downe there.

30 And great multitudes came vnto him, * hauing with them halt, blinde, dumbe, maimed, and many other, and cast them downe at Iesus feet, and he healed them, 31 Insomuch that the multitude wondered to see the dumbe speake, the maimed whole, the halt to goe, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Israel.

Chap. xvj. xvij. The transfiguration of Christ. 363

32 *Then Iesus called his disciples vnto him, and said, I haue compassion on this multitude, because they haue continued with me already three dayes, and haue nothing to eate: and I will not let them depart fasting, lest they faint in the way.

33 And his disciples sayd vnto him, Whence should we get so much bread in the wilderness, as should suffice so great a multitude?

34 And Iesus said vnto them, How many loaves haue yee? And they said, Seuen, and a few little fishes.

35 Then hee commaunded the multitude to sit downe on the ground, 36 And tooke the seuen loaves and the fishes, and gaue thanks, and brake thema, and gaue to his disciples and the disciples to the multitude.

37 And they did all eate, and were fulfilled: and they tooke vp of the fragments that remained, seuen baskets full.

38 And they that had eaten were foure thousand men, besides women and little children.

39 Then Iesus sent away the multitude, & tooke ship, and came into the parts of Magdala.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The Pharisees require a token. 6 Iesus warneth his disciples of the Pharisees doctine. 16 The confession of Peter. 19 The keyes of heauen. 24 The faithfull must beare the crosse. 25 To winne or lose the life. 27 Christs coming.

1 Hen *came the Pharisees and Sadduces, and did tempt him, desiring him to shewe them a signe from heauen.

2 But he answered and said vnto them, When is euening, ye say, Faire weather: for the skie is red.

3 And in the morning yee say, To day shall be a tempest: for the skie is red and lowring. O hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the skie, and can ye not discern the signes of the times?

4 *The wicked generation and adulterous seeketh a signe, and there shall no signe be giuen it, but the signe of the Prophet * Ionas: so he left them, and departed.

5 * And when his disciples were come to the other side, they had * forgot to take bread with them.

6 Then Iesus said vnto them, Take heede and beware of the leauen of the Pharisees and Sadduces.

7 And they thought in themselves, saying, It is because we haue brought no bread.

8 But Iesus knowing it, said vnto them, O ye of little faith, why thinke yee thus in your selues, because ye haue brought no bread?

9 Doe yee not yet perceiue, neither remember the fise loaves, when there were * fise thousand men, and how many baskets tooke ye vp?

10 Neither the seuen loaves, when there were * foure thousand men, and how many baskets tooke ye vp?

11 Why perceiue yee not, that I said not vnto you concerning bread, that you should beware of the leauen of the Pharisees and Sadduces?

12 Then vnderstood they that hee had not said that they should beware of the leauen of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and Sadduces.

13 * * Now when Iesus came into the coasts of Cesarea Philippi, hee asked his disciples, saying, Whom doe men say that I the Sonne of man am?

14 And they said, Some say, Iohn Baptist, and some, Elias: and others, Ieremias, or one of the Prophets.

15 He said vnto them, But whom say ye that I am?

16 Then Simon Peter answered, and said, * Thou art the Christ, the Sonne of the liuing God.

17 And Iesus answered, and said to him, Blessed art thou, Simon the sonne of Ionas: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it vnto thee, but my Father which is in heauen.

18 And I say also vnto thee, that thou art * Peter, and vpon this rocke will I build my Church: and the gates of hell shall not overcome it.

19 And * I will giue vnto thee the keyes of the kingdome of heauen, and whatsoever thou shalt binde vpon earth, shall bee bound in heauen: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth, shall be loosed in heauen.

20 Then hee charged his disciples, that they should tell no man that he was Iesus the Christ.

21 * From that time forth Iesus began to shew vnto his disciples that he must goe vnto Ierusalem, and suffer many things of the Elders and of the high Priests and Scribes, and bee slaine, and rise againe the third day.

22 Then Peter tooke him aside, and began to rebuke him, saying, Master, pittie thy selfe: this shall not be vnto thee.

23 Then hee turned backe, and said vnto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art an offence vnto mee, because thou understandest not the things that are of God, but the things that are of men.

24 Iesus then said to his disciples, * If any man will follow me, let him forsake himselfe and take vp his crosse, and follow me.

25 For * whoeuer will saue his life, shall lose it: and whoeuer shall lose his life for my sake, shall finde it.

26 * For what shall it profite a man though hee should winne the whole world, if he lose his owne soule? or what shall a man giue for recompense of his soule?

27 For the Sonne of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his Angels, and * then shall he giue to euery man according to his deeds.

28 * Verely I say vnto you, there bee some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they haue seene the Sonne of man come in his kingdome.

CHAP. XVII.

2 The transfiguration of Christ vpon the mountaine of Thabor. 5 Christ ought to be heard. 11. 13 Of Elias and Iohn Baptist. 15 Hee healeth the Lamitike. 20 The power of faith. 21 Prayer and fasting. 22 Christ selleth them before of his passion. 27 He payeth tribute.

1 Nd * after sixe dayes, Iesus tooke Peter, and James, and Iohn his brother, and brought them vp into an high mountaine apart,

2 And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the Sunne, and his clothes were as white as the light.

3 And behold, there appeared vnto them Moses and Elias talking with him.

4 Then answered Peter, & said to Iesus, Master, it is good for vs to bee here: if thou wilt, let vs make here three Tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

5 While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloude shadowed them: and behold, there came a voyce out of the cloude, saying, * This is my beloued Sonne, in whom I am well pleased: hear him.

6 And when the disciples heard that, they fell on their faces, and were fore afraid.

7 Then Iesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

maileffe debter.

25 And because he had nothing to pay, his master commaunded him to be sold, and his wife, and his children, and all that he had, and she debts to bee payd.

26 The seruant therefore fell downe, and besought him, saying, Master, appeale thine anger toward me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then that seruants master had compassion, and loosed him, and forgaue him the debt.

28 But when the seruant was departed, he found one of his fellowes which ought him an hundred pence, and he laid hands on him, and tooke him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 Then his fellow fell downe at his feete, and besought him, saying, Appeale thine anger towards me, and I will pay thee all.

30 Yet he would not, but went and caſt him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 And when his other fellowes saw what was done, they were very fory, and came, and declared vnto their master all that was done.

32 Then his master called him and said to him, O coul seruant, I forgaue thee all that debt, because thou praydest me.

33 Oughtest not thou also to haue had pittie on thy fellow, euen as I had pittie on thee?

34 So his master was wroth, and deliuered him to the gaolers, till he should pay all that was due to him.

35 So likewise shall mine heauenly Father doe vnto you, except yee forgiue from your hearts, each one to his brother their trespasses.

CHAP. XIX.

3 Christ teacheth for what cause a woman may be diuorced. 11 Continuency is the gift of God. 14 Hee requeth little children. 16 To obtaine life euertlasting. 24 That rich men can scarcely be saved. 28 He prometheth them which haue left all to followe him, life euertlasting.

And * it came to passe, that when Iesus had finished those sayings, he departed from Galilee, & came into the coast of Iudea, beyond Iorden.

2 And great multitudes followed him, and he healed them there.

3 * Then came vnto him the Pharisees, tempting him, and saying to him, Is it lawfull for a man to put away his wife for euery cause?

4 And hee answered, and layd vnto them, Haue ye not read, * that hee which made them at the beginning, made them male and female,

5 And said, * For this cause shall a man leaue father and mother, and cleaue vnto his wife, and they twaine shall be one flesh.

6 Wherefore they are no more twaine, but one flesh. Let no man therefore put asunder that which God hath coupled together.

7 They sayde to him, Why did then * Moses command to giue a bill of diuorcement, and to put her away?

8 He said vnto the. Moses because of the hardness of your heart, suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so.

9 I say therefore vnto you, * that whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for whoredome, and marrie another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her which is diuorced, doeth commit adultery.

10 Then said his disciples to him, If the matter be so betwene man and wife, it is not good to marry.

11 But he said vnto them, All men cannot receiue this thing, saue they to whom it is giuen.

12 For there are some chaste, which were so born of their mothers belly: and there bee some chaste which bee made chaste by men: and there bee some chaste which haue made themselves chaste for the kingdome of heauen. He that is able to receiue this let him receiue it.

13 * Then were brought to him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Iesus said, Suffer the little children, and forbid them not to come to mee: for of such is the kingdome of heauen.

15 And when he had put his hands on them, hee departed thence.

16 * And behold, one came and said vnto him, Good Master, what good thing shall I doe that I may haue eternall life?

17 And he said vnto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, euen God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keepe the commandments.

18 He said to him, Which? And Iesus said, * These, Thou shalt not kill: Thou shalt not commit adulterie: Thou shalt not steale: Thou shalt not beare false witnesse.

19 Honour thy father, and mother: and, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

20 * The yong man said vnto him, I haue obserued all these things from my youth: what lacke I yet?

21 Iesus said vnto him, If thou wilt be perfect, goe sell that thou hast, and giue it to the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come and follow me.

22 And when the yong man heard that saying, he went away sorrowfull: for he had great possessions.

23 Then Iesus said to his disciples, Verely I say vnto you, that a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdome of heauen.

24 And againe I say vnto you, It is easier for a camell to goe thorow the eye of a needle, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdome of God.

25 And when his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?

26 And Iesus beheld them, and said vnto them, With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.

27 * Then answered Peter and said to him, Behold, we haue forsaken all, and followed thee: what shall we haue?

28 And Iesus said vnto them, Verely I say to you, that when the Sonne of man shall sit in the throne of his maiestie, ye which followed me in the regeneration, * shall sit also vpon twelue thrones, and iudge the twelue tribes of Israel.

29 And whosoever shall forsake houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my Names sake, he shall receiue a hundred fold more, & shall inherite euertlasting life.

30 * But many that are first, shall be last, and the last shall be first.

1 Christ teacheth by a similitude, that God is debter vnto no man, and how he alway calleth men to his labour. 18 He admonisheth them of his passion. 20 He teacheth his to keepe ambition. 28 Christ payeth our ransom. 30 He giueth two blind men their sight.

For the kingdome of heauen is like vnto a certain husband, which went out at the dawning of the day to hire labourers into his vineyard.

2 And he agreed with the labourers for a peny a day, and sent them into his vineyard.

3 And hee went out about the third honre, and saw other standing idle in the market place.

7 They said vnto him, Because no man hath hired vs. He said to them, Goe ye also into my vineyard, and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receiue.

8 ¶ And when euen was come, the master of the vineyard said vnto his steward, Call the labourers and giue them their hire, beginning at the last, till shon come to the first.

9 And they which were hyred about the eleuenth houre, came and receiued every man a peny.

10 Now when the first came, they supposed that they should receiue more, but they likewise receiued every man a peny.

11 And when they had receiued it, they murmured against the master of the house,

23 And he said vnto them, Ye shall drinke indeed of my cup, and shall be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with, but to sit at my right hand and at my left hand, is not mine to giue: but it shall be giuen to them for whom it is prepared of my Father.

26 But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will bee great among you, let him bee your seruant.

27 And whosoever will be chiefe among you, let him be your seruant.

28 ¶ Euen as the Sonne of man came not to be serued, but to serue, and to giue his life for the ransom of many.

29 ¶ And as they departed frō Iericho, a great multitude followed him.

30 And behold, two blinde men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Iesus passed by, cryed, saying, O Lord, the sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on vs.

31 And the multitude rebuked the because they should hold their peace: but they cryed the more, saying, O Lord the sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on vs.

32 Then Iesus stood still, and called them, and sayd, What wilt thou that I should doe to you?

33 They said vnto him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened.

34 And Iesus moued with compassion, touched their eyes, & immediatly their eyes were opened, and they followed him.

CHAP. XXI.

7 Christ readeth into Ierusalem on an ass. 13 The buyers & sellers are chased out of the Temple. 15 The children with prophesie vnto Christ. 19 The figge withereth. 22 Faith requisite in prayer. 23 Iobns baptism. 28 The two sonnes. 33 The parable of the husbandmen. 42 The corner stone rified. 43 The Iewes rified, and the Gentiles receiued.

¶ And * when they draw neere to Ierusalem, and Mar. 11. 15. 16. were come to Bethphage, vnto the mount of Olives, then sent Iesus two disciples,

1 Saying to them, Go into the towne that is ouer against you, & anon ye shall find an asse bound, and a colt with her a leafe them, and bring them vnto me.

2 And if any man say ought vnto you, say yee that the Lord hath need of them, and straightway he will let them goe.

3 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophet, saying,

4 ¶ Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy King cometh vnto thee, meeke, and sitting vpon an asse and a colt, the foale of an asse vied to the yoke.

5 So the disciples went, and did as Iesus had commanded them,

6 And brought the asse and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and let him thereon.

7 And a great multitude spread their garments in the way: and other cut down branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way.

8 Moreover the people that went before, and they also that followed, cryed, saying, Hosanna, the sonne of Dauid: blessed be he that cometh in the name of the Lorde, Hosanna, shon which art in the highest heauens.

9 ¶ And when he was come into Ierusalem, all the city was moued, saying, Who is this?

10 And the people sayde, This is IESVS the Prophet of Nazaret in Galilee.

11 ¶ And Iesus went into the Temple of God, and cast out all them that bought and sold in the Temple, & ouerthrew the tables of the mony changers, and the seats of them that sold doves, 12 And said to them, It is written, * Mine house shall be called the house of prayer: but * yee haue made it a denne of theues.

13 ¶ Then the blind and the halt came to him in the Temple, and he healed them.

14 But when the chiefe Priests and Scribes saw the maruelles that he did, and the children crying in the Temple, and saying, Hosanna the sonne of David, they disdained, 16 And said vnto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Iesus said vnto them, Yea: read ye neuer,

* By the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast made perfit the praise?

17 ¶ So he left them and went out of the citie vnto Bethania, and lodged there.

18 And * in the morning as hee returned into the citie, he was hungry.

19 And seeing a figge tree in the way, hee came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaues onely, and said to it, Neuer fruit grow on thee henceforwards. And anon the figge tree withered.

20 And when his disciples saw it, they marueiled, saying, How soone is the figge tree withered!

21 And Iesus answered, and said vnto them, * Verily I say vnto you, if ye haue faith, and doubt not, ye shall not onely do that which I haue done to the figge tree, but also if ye say vnto this mountaine, Take thy selfe away, and cast thy selfe into the sea, it shall be done.

22 * And whatsoever ye shall aske in prayer, if ye beleue, ye shall receiue it.

23 ¶ And when he was come into the temple, the chiefe Priests & the Elders of the people came vnto him, as he was teaching, and said, By what authoritie doest thou these things? and who gaue thee this authoritie?

24 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, I also will aske of you a certaine thing, which if yee tell me, I will likewise tell you by what authoritie I doe these things.

25 The baptisme of Iohn, whence was it? from heauen, or of men? Then they reasoned among themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heauen, hee will say vnto vs, why did ye not then beleue him?

26 And if we say, of men, wee feare the people: for all hold Iohn as a Prophet.

27 Then they answered Iesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said vnto them, Neither tell I you by what authoritie I doe these things.

28 ¶ But what thinke yee? A certaine man had two sonnes, and came to the elder, and said, Sonne, goe and worke to day in my vineyard.

29 But he answered, and said, I will not: yet afterward he repented himselfe, and went.

30 Then came he to the second, and said likewise. And he answered, and said, I will sir: yet hee went not.

31 Whether of them twaine did the will of the father? They said vnto him, The first. Iesus said vnto them, Verily I say vnto you, that the Publicanes and the harlots shall goe before you into the kingdom of God.

32 For Iohn came vnto you in the way of righteousness, and ye beleueed him not: but the Publicanes and the harlots beleueed him, & ye, though ye saw it, were not moued with repentance afterward, that ye might beleue him.

33 ¶ Heare another parable. There was a certain husbandholder, * which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and I made a winepresse therein, and built a towre, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a strange country.

34 And when the time of the fruit drew neere, he sent his seruants to the husbandmen to receiue the fruits thereof.

35 And the husbandmen tooke his seruants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

36 Again he sent other seruants, more then the first: and they did the like vnto them.

37 But last of all hee sent vnto them his owne sonne, saying, They will reuerence my sonne.

38 But when the husbandmen sawe the sonne, they said among themselves, * This is the heire: Chap. 20. come, let vs kill him, & let vs take his inheritance. 3, 4, and

39 So they tooke him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and flew him. iob. 11, 33

40 When therefore the Lord of the vineyard shall come, what will he do to those husbandmen?

41 They said vnto him, He will cruelly destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard vnto other husbandmen, which shall deliuer him the fruits in their seasons.

42 Iesus said vnto them, Read ye neuer in the Scriptures, * The stone which the builders refused Psa. 118. the same is made the head of the corner? This was 22 after 40 the Lords doing, and it is marueilous in our eyes. 11 rom.

43 Therefore I say vnto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and shall be giuen to a nation which shall bring forth the fruits thereof. 1. pet. 3. 7.

44 * And whosoever shall fall on this stone, hee shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grinde him to powder.

45 And when the chiefe Priests and Pharises had heard his parables, they perceiued that hee spake of them.

46 And they seeking to lay hands on him feared the people, because they tooke him as a Prophet.

aine king which married his sonne,

3 And sent forth his seruants, to call them that were bidden to the wedding, but they would not come.

4 Again, hee sent forth other seruants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, behold, I haue prepared my dinner: mine oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come vnto the marriage.

5 But they made light of it, and went their wayes, one to his farme, and another about his merchandise.

6 And the remnant tooke his seruants and intrated them sharply, and flew them.

7 But when the king heard it, he was wroth, and sent forth his warriours, and destroyed those murderers, and burnt vp their citie.

8 Then said he to his seruants, Truly the wedding is prepared: but they which were bidden were not worthy.

9 Goe ye therefore out into the high wayes, and as many as ye finde bid them to the marriage.

10 So those seruants went out into the high wayes, and gathered together all that euer they found, both good and bad: so the wedding was furnished with guests.

11 Then the king came in to see the guests, and saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment.

12 And he said vnto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither, and hast not on a wedding garment? And he was speechlesse.

13 Then said the King to his seruants, Bind him hand and foote: take him away, and cast him into utter darkenesse: * there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Chap. 23. 42. & 23. 50.

carest for any man: for thou considerest not the person of men.

17 Tell vs therefore, how thinkest thou? Is it lawfull to giue tribute vnto Cesar, or not?

18 But Iesus perceived their wickednesse, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?

19 Shewe mee the tribute money. And they brought him a penny.

20 And he said vnto them, Whose is this image

21 They said vnto him Cæsars. Then said he vn-

22 And when they heard it, they marveled, and

Mar. 12. 23 ¶ The same day the Sadduces came to him, 28. Luke (which say that there is no resurrection) and asked
20. 37. him,

24 Saying, Master, ¶ Moses said, If a man die, ha-

25 Now there were with vs seven brethren, and the first married a wife, and deceased: and hauing no issue, left his wife vnto his brother.

26 Likewise also the second, and the third, vnto the seventh.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore in the resurrection, whose wife shall she be of the seven? for all had her.

29 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Ye are deceiued, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God.

30 For in the resurrection they neither marrie wives, nor wives are bestowed in mariage, but are as the Angels of God in heauen.

31 And concerning the resurrection of the dead, haue ye not read what is spoken vnto you of God, saying,

saying,

36 Master, which is the great commandment in the Law?

37 Iesus said to him, ¶ Thou shalt loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, with all thy soule, and with all thy minde.

38 This is the first & the great commandment.

39 And the second is like vnto this, ¶ Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

40 On these two commandments hangeth the whole Law, and the Prophets.

41 ¶ While the Pharises were gathered together, Iesus asked them,

42 Saying, What thinke yee of Christ? whose sonne is he? They said vnto him, Dauid's.

43 Hee said vnto them, How then doeth Dauid in spirit call him Lord, saying,

44 * The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool?

45 If then Dauid call him Lord, how is hee his 46 And none could answer him a word, neither durst any from that day forth, aske him any more

10 Be not called doctors: for one is your doctour, euen Christ.

11 But he that is greatest among you, let him be your seruant.

12 ¶ For whosoever will exalt himselfe, shall be brought low: and whosoever wil humble himselfe, shall be exalted.

13 ¶ Woe therefore be vnto you, Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites, because ye shut vp the kingdome of heauen before men: for ye your selues go not in, neither suffer yee them that would enter to come in.

14 ¶ Woe be vnto you Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites, for ye deuoure widows houses, euen vnder a colour of long prayers: wherefore yee shall receiue the greater damation.

15 Woe be vnto you Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites: for ye compass sea and land to make one of your profession: and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell, then you your selues.

16 Woe be to you blinde guides, which say,
Whosoever sweareth by the Temple, it is nothing:
but whosoever sweareth by the gold of the Temple, he is offendeth.

17 Ye fooles, and blind: whether is greater, the gold, or the Temple that sanctifieth the gold?

18 And whosoever sweareth by the Altar, it is nothing: but whosoever sweareth by the offering that is vpon it, offendeth.

19 Ye fooles and blind, whether is greater, the offering, or the Altar which sanctifieth the offering?

20 Whosoever therefore sweareth by the Altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.

21 ¶ And whosoever sweareth by the Temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein.

pronounced, &c.

22 * And hee that sweareth by heauen, sweareth by the Throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 ¶ Woe be to you Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites: for ye tithe mint & anise, and cummine, and leaue the weightier matters of the Law, as Iudgement and mercy, and fidelity. These ought ye to haue done, and not to haue left the other.

24 Ye blind guides, which straine out a gnat, and swallow a cammell.

25 ¶ Woe be to you Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites: for ye make cleane the vtter side of the cup and of the platter: but within they are full of bribery and exesse.

26 ¶ Thou blinde Pharise, cleanse first the inside of the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be cleane also.

27 Woe be to you Scribes and Pharises hypocrites: for ye are like vnto whited tombes, which appeare beautifull outward, but are within full of dead mens bones, and of all filthinesse.

28 So are ye also: for outwardly ye appeare righteous vnto men, but within ye are full of hypocritic and iniquitie.

29 ¶ Woe be vnto you Scribes and Pharises, hypocrites: for ye build the tombes of the Prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous, 30 And say, If we had bene in the dayes of our fathers, wee would not haue bene partners with them in the blood of the Prophets.

31 So then ye be witnesses vnto your selues, that ye are the children of them that murdered the Prophets.

32 Fulfill ye also the measure of your fathers.

33 O serpents, the generation of vipers, howe should ye escape the damnation of hell?

34 Wherefore, behold, I send vnto you Prophets, and wise men, and Scribes, and of them ye shall kill and crucifie: and of them shall ye scourge in your Synagogues, and persecute from citie to citie,

35 That vpon you may come all the righteous blood that was shed vpon y<sup>e</sup> earth, * from the blood of Abel the righteous, vnto the blood of Zacharias the sonne of Barachias, whom ye slew between the Temple and the Altar.

36 Verely I say vnto you, All these things shall come vpon this generation.

37 Ierusalem, Ierusalem, which killest the Prophets, and stonest them which are sent to thee, how often would I haue gathered thy children together * as the henne gathereth her chickens vnder her wings, and ye would not!

38 Behold, your habitation shall be left vnto you desolate.

39 For I say vnto you, Ye shal not see me henceforth, till that ye say, Blessed is he that commeth in the Name of the Lord.

2 Christ sheweth his disciples the destruction of the Temple. 5. 24 The false Christs. 13 To perseuere, 13 The preaching of the Gospel. 6. 29 The signes of the end of the world. 42 He warneth shew to wake. 44 The sudden coming of Christ.

¶ ND * Iesus went out and departed from the Temple, and his disciples came to him, to shew him the building of the Temple.

2 And Iesus said vnto them, See ye not all these things? Verely I say vnto you, * there shall not be here left a stone vpon a stone, that shall not be cast downe.

3 And as he saie vpon the mount of Oliues, his disciples came vnto him apart, saying, Tell vs when these things shall be, and what signe shall be of thy coming, and of the end of the world.

4 And Iesus answered and sayde vnto them, * Take heed that no man deceiue you.

5 For many shall come in my Name, saying, I am Christ, and shall deceiue many.

6 And yee shall heare of warres, and rumours of warres: see that yee bee not troubled: for all these things must come to passe, but the ende is not yet.

7 For nation shall rise against nation, & realme against realme, and there shalbe pestilence, and famine, and earthquakes in diuers places.

8 All these are but the beginning of sorrowes.

9 ¶ Then shall they deliuer you vp to be afflicted, and shall kill you, and ye shall be hated of all nations for my Names sake.

10 And then shall many bee offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

11 And many false prophets shall arise, and shall deceiue many.

12 And because iniquitie shall be increased, the loue of many shalbe cold.

13 * But he that endureth to the end, he shall be saued.

14 And this Gospel of the kingdom shalbe preached thorow the whole world for a witness vnto all nations, and then shall the end come.

15 ¶ When ye * therefore shall see the abomination of desolation spoken of by * Daniel the Prophet, standing in the holy place (let him that readeth, consider it)

16 Then let them which bee in Iudaea, flee into the mountaines.

17 Let him which is on the house top, not come downe to fetch any thing out of his house.

18 And hee that is in the field, let not him returne backe to fetch his clothes.

19 And woe shalbe to them that are with child, and to them that giue sucke in those dayes.

20 But pray that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the * Sabbath day.

21 For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not from the beginning of the world to this time, nor shalbe.

22 And except those dayes should be shortened, there should no flesh be saued: but for the elects sake those dayes shall be shortened.

23 * Then if any shall say vnto you, Loe here is Christ, or there, beleeue it not.

24 For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signes and wonders, so that if it were possible, they should deceiue the very elect.

25 Behold, I haue told you before.

26 Wherefore, if they shal say vnto you, Behold, he is in the desert, go not thither: Behold, he is in the secret places, beleeue it not.

27 For as the lightning commeth out of the East, and shineth into the West, so shall also the coming of the Sonne of man be.

28 * For where soeuer a dead carke is, thither will the Eagles resort.

29 * And immediately after the tribulations of those dayes, shall the Sonne be darkened, and the Moone shall not giue her light, and the starres shall fall from heauen, and the powers of heauen shalbe shaken.

30 * And then shall appeare the signe of the Sonne of man in heauen: and then shal all the kindreds of the earth mourne, and they shall see the

S. Matthew.

The virgins, and the talents

Somme of man come in the clouds of heauen with power and great glory.

1. Cor. 15. 31 * And hee shall send his Angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the foure windes, and from the one end of the heauen vnto the other.

32 Now learne the parable of the figtree : when her bough is yet tender, & it bringeth forth leaues, ye know that Summer is neere.

33 So likewise ye, when ye see all these things, know that the kingdom of God is neere, even at the doores.

34 Verily I say vnto you, This generation shall not passe till all these things be done.

Mar. 13. 35 * Heauen and earth shall passe away : but my words shall not passe away.

36 But of that day and houre knoweth no man, no not the Angels of heauen, but my Father onely.

37 But as the daies of Noe were, so likewise shall the coming of the Sonne of man be.

Gen. 7. 5. 38 * For as in the daies before the flood, they did eat and drinke, marry, and giue in marriage, vnto the day that Noe entred into the arke, 17. 16. 39 And knewe nothing till the flood came and tooke them all away : so shall also the coming of the Sonne of man be.

Luke 17. 40 * Then two men shalbe in the fields, the one shalbe receiued, and the other shalbe refused.

34. 35. 41 Two women shalbe grinding at the mill, the one shalbe receiued, and the other shalbe refused.

1. thef. 4. 42 * Wake therefore : for ye knowe not what houre your master will come.

Mar. 13. 43 Of * this be sure, that if the goodman of the house knewe what watch the thiefe would come, 1. thef. 3. 39 1. thef. hee would surely watch, and nor suffer his house to be digged thorow.

5. 2. reuel. 44 Therefore be ye also ready : for in the houre that ye thinke not, will the Sonne of man come.

Luke 13. 45 * Who then is a faythfull seruant and wife, whome his master hath made ruler ouer his household, to giue them meat in season ?

46 Blessed is that seruant, whom his master, when he cometh, shall finde so doing.

47 Verely I say vnto you, he shall make him ruler ouer all his goods.

48 But if that euill seruant shall say in his heart, My master doeth deferre his coming,

49 And begin to smite his fellowes, and to eate, and to drinke with the drunken,

50 That seruants master wil come in a day, when he looketh not for him, and in an houre that hee is not ware of,

10. 30. 51 And will cut him off, and giue him his portion with hypocrites : * there shalbe weeping and gnashing of teeth.

CHAP. XXV.

1 By the similitude of the virgins, Iesus teacheth euery man to watch. 14 And by the talents : to be diligent. 31 The last iudgements. 32 The sheepe and the goats. 35 The works of the faithfull.

THEN the kingdom of heauen shall be likened vnto ten virgins, which tooke their lampes, and went to meete the bridegrome.

2 And five of them were wise, and five foolish.

3 The foolish tooke their lampes, but tooke none oyle with them.

4 But the wise tooke oyle in their vessels with their lampes.

5 Now while the bridegrome tarried long, all slumbered and slept.

6 And at midnight there was a crie made, Behold, the bridegrome cometh : go out to meet him.

7 Then all those virgins arofe, & trimmed their lampes.

8 And the foolish saide to the wise, Giue vs of your oyle, for our lampes are out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Wee feare Christ. Wee feare lest there will not bee enough for vs and you : but goe ye rather to them that sell, and buy for your selues.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegrome came : and they that were ready went in with him to the wedding, and the gate was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to vs.

12 But he answered, and sayd, Verely I say vnto you, I know you not.

13 * Watch therefore : for ye know neither the day nor the houre, when the Sonne of man will come.

14 * For the kingdom of heauen is as a man that going into a strange country, called his seruants, and deliuered to them his goods.

15 And vnto one hee gaue five talents, and to another two, and to another one, to euery man after his owne abilitie, and straightway went from home.

16 Then hee that had receiued the five talents, went and occupied with them, and gained other five talents.

17 Likewise also, hee that receiued two, hee also gained other two.

18 But he that receiued that one, went and digged it in the earth, and hid his masters money.

19 But after a long season, the master of those seruants came and reckoned with them.

20 Then came he that had receiued five talents, and brought other five talents, saying, Master, thou deliueredst vnto me five talents : behold, I haue gained with them other five talents.

21 Then his master saide vnto him, It is well done, good seruant and faithfull, Thou hast bene faithfull in little, I will make thee ruler ouer much : enter in into thy Masters ioy.

22 Also he that had receiued two talents, came and said, Master, thou deliueredst vnto me two talents, behold, I haue gained two other talents with them.

23 His Master saide vnto him, It is well done, good seruant and faithfull, Thou hast bene faithfull in little, I will make thee ruler ouer much : enter in into thy masters ioy.

24 Then he which had receiued the one talent, came, and said, Master, I knew that thou wast an hard man, which reapest where thou sowedst not, and gatherest where thou strawdest not :

25 I was therefore afraide, and went and hidde thy talent in the earth : behold, thou hast thine owne.

26 And his master answered, and said vnto him, Thou euill seruant, and slothfull, thou knewest that I reape where I sowed not, and gather where I strawed not.

27 Thou oughtest therefore to haue put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming should I haue receiued mine owne with vantage.

28 Take therefore the talent from him, and giue it vnto him which hath ten talents, 29 * For vnto euery man that hath, it shalbe giuen & he shall haue abundance : and from him that hath not, euen that he hath, shalbe taken away.

30 Cast therefore that vnprofitable seruant into vttre * darkenesse : there shalbe weeping and gnashing of teeth.

31 ¶ And when the Sonne of man commeth in his glory, & all the holy Angels with him, then shall he sit vpon the throne of his glory.

32 And before him shall be gathered all nations, and hee shall separate them one from another, as a shepheard separateth the sheepe from the goats.

33 And he shall set the sheepe on his right hand, and the goats on the left.

34 Then shall the king say to them on his right hand, Come ye blessed of my Father: inherite yee the kingdome prepared for you from the foundations of the world.

35 ¶ For I was an hungred, & ye gaue me meat: I thirsted, and ye gaue me drinke: I was a stranger, and ye lodged me:

36 I was naked, and ye clothed me: I was sicke, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came vnto me.

37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or athirst, and gaue thee drinke?

38 And when saw we thee a stranger, and lodged thee: or naked, and clothed thee?

39 Or when saw we thee sicke, or in prison, and came vnto thee?

40 And the king shall answer and say vnto them, Verely I say vnto you, inasmuch as ye haue done it vnto one of the least of these my brethren, ye haue done it vnto me.

41 Then shall he say vnto them on the left hand, Depart from mee ye cursed into euermlasting fire, which is prepared for the deuill and his angels.

42 For I was an hungred, and ye gaue mee no meat: I thirsted, and ye gaue me no drinke:

43 I was a stranger, and ye lodged me not: I was naked, and ye clothed me not: sicke, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

44 Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sicke, or in prison, and did not minister vnto thee?

45 Then shall hee answer them and say, Verely I say vnto you, inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.

46 ¶ And these shall goe into euermlasting paine, but the righteous into life euermall.

CHAP. XXVI.

3 Conspiracie of the Priestes against Christ. 10 He uolets Magdalene. 26 The institution of the Lords Supper. 31 The disciples weakenesse. 48 The treason of Iudas. 62 The sword. 64 Because Christ cal- luhvna/le the Sonne of God, he is iudged worthy to die. 69 Peter denieth, and repenseth.

¶ And it came to passe when Iesus had finished all these sayings, he said vnto his disciples.

2 Ye know that within two dayes is the Passouer, and the Sonne of man shall be deliuered to be crucified.

3 ¶ Then assembled together the chiefe Priests, and the Scribes, and the Elders of the people into the hall of the hie Priest, called Caiaphas, 4 And consulted how they might take Iesus by subtilty, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest any vp- rore be among the people.

6 ¶ And when Iesus was in Bethania, in the house of Simon the Leper, 7 There came vnto him a woman, which had a boxe of very costly ointment, and powred it on his head as he sat at the table.

8 And when his disciples saw it, they had indig- nation, saying, What needed this waste?

9 For this ointment might haue been sold for much, and been giuen to the poore.

10 And Iesus knowing it, said vnto them, Why trouble yee the woman? for shee hath wrought a good worke vpon me.

11 ¶ For yee haue the poore alwayes with you, but me shall ye not haue alwayes.

12 For in that he powred this ointment on my body, he did it to bury me.

13 Verely I say vnto you, Whersoener this Gos- pel shall be preached thorowout all the world, there shall also this that he hath done, be spoken of for a memorie all of her.

14 ¶ Then one of the twelve called Iudas Isca- riot, went vnto the chiefe Priests, 15 And said, What wilt ye giue me, and I will de- liuer him vnto you? And they appointed vnto him thirtie pieces of siluer.

16 And from that time he sought opportunitie to betray him.

17 ¶ Now on the first day of the feast of vnle- auened bread, the disciples came to Iesus, saying vnto him, Where wilt thou that wee prepare for thee to eate the Passouer?

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say to him, The master sayeth, My time is at hand: I will keepe the Passouer at thine house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Iesus had giuen them charge, and made ready the Passouer.

20 ¶ So when the euen was come, he sat downe with the twelve.

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verely I say vnto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowfull, and be- gan euery one of them to say vnto him, Is it I, Mas- ter?

23 And he answered, and said, ¶ He that dippeh his hand with me in the dish, he shall betray me.

24 Surely the Sonne of man goeth his way, as it is written of him: but woe to that man, by whom the Sonne of man is betrayed: it had been good for that man if he had neuer been borne.

25 Then Iudas which betrayed him, answered, and said, Is it I, Master? Hee sayd vnto him, Thou hast said it.

26 ¶ And as they did eate, Iesus tooke the bread: and when he had giuen thanks, he brake it, and gaue it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat: this is my body.

27 Also he tooke the cup, and when they had gi- uen thanks, hee gaue it them, saying, Drinke ye all of it.

28 For this is my blood of the new Testament, that is shed for many for the remission of finnes.

29 I say vnto you, that I will not drinke hence- forth of this fruit of the vine vntill that day, when I shall drinke it new with you in my Fathers king- dome.

30 And when they had sung a Psalm, they went out into the mount of Oliues.

31 ¶ Then said Iesus vnto them, All ye shall be offended by me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepheard, and the sheepe of the flocke shall be scattered.

32 But after I am risen againe, I will go before you into Galilee.

33 But Peter answered, & said vnto him, Though that all men should be offended by thee, yet will I neuer be offended.

John 13. 34 * Iesus said vnto him, Verely, I say vnto thee, that this night before the cocke crow, thou shalt denie me thrise.

35 Peter sayd vnto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

Mar. 14. 36 ¶ Then went Iesus with them into a place which is called Gethsemane, and sayd vnto his disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

37 And he tooke Peter, & the two sonnes of Zebedeus, and began to waxe sorrowfull, and grievously troubled.

38 Then said Iesus vnto them, My soule is very heauy, euem vnto the death: tary ye here and watch with me.

39 So hee went a little further, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup passe from me, neuertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 After, he came vnto the disciples, and found them asleepe, and said to Peter, What could ye not watch with me one houre?

41 Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is ready, but the flesh is weak.

42 Again he went away the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup cannot passe away from me, but that I must drinke it, thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them asleepe againe: for their eyes were heauy.

44 So he left them, and went away againe, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then came he to his disciples, and said vnto them, Sleepe henceforth & take your rest: behold, the houre is at hand, and the Sonne of man is giuen into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let vs go: behold, he is at hand that betrayeth me.

Mar. 14. 47 ¶ And while he yet spake, lo, Iudas one of the twelue came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the hie Priests, and Elders of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed him, had giuen them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kisse, that is he, lay hold on him.

1st. Haile 49 And forthwith he came to Iesus, & said, I God saue thee, Master, and kissed him.

Rabbi. 50 Then Iesus sayd vnto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they and laid hands on Iesus, and tooke him.

51 And behold, one of them which were with Iesus, stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and strooke a seruant of the hie Priest, and smote off his care.

52 Then said Iesus vnto him, Put vp thy sword into his place: * for all that take the sword, shall Gen. 9.6. perish with the sword.

rem. 13. 53 Either thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he will giue me more then twelue legions of Angels?

1st. 33. 10. 54 How then should the Scriptures be fulfilled, which say, that it must be so?

55 The same houre said Iesus to the multitude, Yee be come out as I were against a thiefe, with words and staves to take me: I sate daily teaching in the Temple among you, and ye tooke me not.

Mark. 14. 56 But all this was done, that the Scriptures of the Prophets might be fulfilled. * Then all the disciples forsooke him, and fled.

1st. 18. 57 ¶ And they tooke Iesus, & led him to Caiaphas the hie Priest, where the Scribes and the Elders were assembled.

58 And Peter followed him as farre off vnto the high Priests hall, and went in, and sate with the seruants to see the end.

59 Now * the chiefe Priests and the Elders, and all the whole Council sought false witnesse against Iesus to put him to death.

60 But they found none, and though many false witness came, yet found they none: but at the last came two false witnesses, 61 And said, This man sayd, * I can destroy the Temple of God, and build it in three dayes.

62 Then the chiefe Priest arose, and said to him, Answerest thou nothing? What is the matter that these men witnesse against thee?

63 But Iesus helde his peace. Then the chiefe Priest answered, and said to him, I charge thee by the liuing God, that thou tell vs, if thou be Christ the Sonne of God.

64 * Iesus said to him, Thou hast said it: neuertheless I say vnto you, hereafter shall ye see the Sonne of man sitting at the right hand of the power of God, and come in the cloudes of heauen.

65 Then the hie Priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath blasphemed: what haue we any more need of witnesses? behold, now ye haue heard his blasphemy.

66 What thinke ye? They answered and said, He is worthy to die.

67 ¶ Then spate they in his face, & buffeted him: and other smote him with their rods, 68 Saying, Prophecie vnto vs, O Christ, who is he that smote thee?

69 ¶ Peter fast without in the hall, and a maid came to him, saying, Thou also wast with Iesus of Galilee.

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I wote not what thou sayst.

71 And when he went out into the porch, another mayde saw him, and said vnto them that were there, This man was also with Iesus of Nazaret.

72 And againe he denied with an oath, saying, I know not the man.

73 So after a while came vnto him they that stood by, and sayde vnto Peter, Surely thou art also one of them: for euen thy speech betrayeth thee.

74 Then began he to curse himselfe, & to sweare, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cocke crew.

75 Then Peter remembered the words of Iesus, which had sayd vnto him, Before the cocke crowe thou shalt deny me thrise. So he went out and wept bitterly.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Christ is deliuered vnto Pilate. 5 Iudas hangeth himselfe. 24 Christ is pronounced innocent by the iudge, and yet is condemned, and crucified among them. 46 He prayeth vpon the crosse. 51 The vail is rent. 53 The dead bodies arise. 57 Ioseph buryeth Christ. 64 Watchmen keepe the gate.

When * the morning was come, all the chiefe Priests and the Elders of the people tooke counsell against Iesus to put him to death,

2 And led him away bound, and deliuered him to Pontius Pilate the gouernour.

3 ¶ Then when Iudas which betrayed him, saw that he was condemned, hee repented himselfe, and brought againe the thirtie pieces of Gluer to the chiefe Priests and Elders,

4 Saying, I haue sinned betraying the innocent blood.

blood, But they ſayd, What is that to vs? ſee thou 5 And when he had caſt downe the ſiluer pieces into the Temple, he departed, and went and hauged himſelſe.
 6 And the chiefe Priests tooke the ſiluer pieces, and ſaid, It is not lawfull for vs to put them into the treaſure, becauſe it is the price of blood.
 7 And they tooke counſell, and bought with them a potters field, for the buriall of ſtrangers.
 8 Wherefore that field is called, *The field of blood, vntill this day.
 9 (Then was fulfilled that which was ſpoken by Ieremias the Prophet, ſaying, * And they tooke this ſiluer pieces, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Iſrael valued, 10 And they gaue them for the potters field, as the Lord appointed me)
 11 * And Ieſus ſtood before the gouernour, and the gouernour asked him, ſaying, Art thou the King of the Iewes? Ieſus ſayd vnto him, Thou ſayeſt it.
 12 And when he was accused of the chiefe Priests and Elders, he answered nothing.
 13 Then ſaid Pilate vnto him, Heareſt thou not how many things they lay againſt thee?
 14 But he answered him not to one word, inſomuch that the gouernour marueyled greatly.
 15 Now at the feaſt, the gouernour was wont to deliuer vnto the people a priſoner, whom they would.
 16 And they had then a notable priſoner, called Barabbas.
 17 When they were then gathered together, Pilate ſayd vnto them, Whether wil ye that I let looſe vnto you Barabbas, or Ieſus which is called Chriſt?
 18 (For hee knew well that for ennie they had deliuered him.
 19 Alſo when he was ſet down vpon the iudge-ment ſeate, his wife ſent to him, ſaying, Hauē thou nothing to doe with that iuſt man: for I haue ſuffered many things this day in a dreame by reaſon of him)
 20 * But the chiefe Priests and the Elders had perſwaded the people, that they ſhould aſke Barabbas, and ſhould deſtroy Ieſus.
 21 Then the gouernour answered, and ſaid vnto them, Whether of the twaine wil ye that I let looſe vnto you? And they ſaid, Barabbas.
 22 Pilate ſaid vnto them, What ſhall I do then with Ieſus which is called Chriſt? They all ſayd to him, Let him be crucified.
 23 Then ſayd the gouernour, But what euil hath he done? Then they cried the more, ſaying, Let him be crucified.
 24 When Pilate ſaw that hee auailed nothing, but that more tumult was made, hee tooke water and waſhed his hands before the multitude, ſaying,
 I am innocent of the blood of this iuſt man: looke you to it.
 25 Then answered all the people, and ſaid, His blood be on vs, and on our children.
 26 Thus let he Barabbas looſe vnto them, and ſcourged Ieſus, and deliuered him to be crucified.
 27 * Then the ſouldiers of the gouernour tooke Ieſus into the common hall, and gathered about him the whole band.
 28 And they ſtripped him, and put vpon him a ſcarlet robe,
 29 And platted a crowne of thornes, and put it vpon his head, and a reede in his right hand, and bowed their knees before him, and mocked him, ſaying, God ſaue thee king of the Iewes, 30 And ſpitted vpon him, and tooke a reed, and ſmote him on the head.

 31 Thus when they had mocked him, they tooke the robe from him, and put his owne raiment on him, and led him away to crucifie him.
 32 * And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, named Simon: him they compelled to beare his croſſe.
 33 * And when they came vnto the place called Golgotha, (that is to ſay, the place of death) ſcullies.)
 34 They gaue him vinegar to drinke mingled with gall: and when he had taſted thereof, he would not drinke.
 35 * And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, and did caſt lots, that it might be fulfilled, which was ſpoken by the Prophet, * They diuided my garments among them, and vpon my veſture did caſt lots.
 36 And they ſate and watched him there.
 37 * They ſet vp alſo ouer his head his cauſe written, THIS IS IESVS THE KING OF THE IEWES.
 38 * And there were two theeues crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left.
 39 * And they that paſſed by, reuiled him, wagging their heads,
 40 And ſaying, * Thou that deſtroyeſt the Temple, and buildeſt it in three dayes, ſaue thy ſelfe: if thou be the Sonne of God, come downe from the Croſſe.
 41 Likewise alſo the hie Priests mocking him, with the Scribes, and Elders, and Pharifees, ſaid, 42 He ſaued others, but he cannot ſaue himſelfe:
 if he be the King of Iſrael, let him now come down from the croſſe, and we will belecue him.
 43 * He truſteth in God, let him deliuer him now if he will haue him, for hee ſaid, I am the ſonne of God.
 44 That ſame alſo the theeues which were crucified with him, caſt in his teeth.
 45 Now from the ſixt houre was there darkenes ouer all the land vnto the ninth houre.
 46 And about the ninth houre Ieſus cried with a loud voyce, ſaying, * Eli, Eli, lamaſabachthan?
 that is, My God, my God, why haſt thou forſaken
 mee?
 47 And ſome of them that ſtood there, when they heard it, ſayd, This man calleth Elias.
 48 And ſtraightway one of them ran, and tooke a ſponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a ſteed, and gaue him to * drinke.
 49 Other ſaid, Let bee: let vs ſee, if Elias will come and ſaue him.
 50 Then Ieſus cryed againe with a loud voice, and yelded vp the ghoſt.
 51 And behold, * the vaile of the Temple was rent in twaine, from the top to the bottom, and the earth did quake, and the ſtones were clouen, 52 And the graues did open themſelues, and many bodies of the Saints which ſlept, aroſe, 53 And came out of the graues after his reſur-rection, and went into the holy Citie, and appeared vnto many.
 54 When the Centurion, and they that were with him watching Ieſus, ſawe the earthquake, and the things that were done, they feared greatly, ſaying, Truly this was the Sonne of God.
 55 * And many women were there, beholding
 him

him aſtate off, which had followed Ieſus from Galile, miniſtring vnto him.

56 Amongſt whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Iofes, and the mother of Zebedeus ſonnes.

Mar. 15. 57 ¶ And when the euen was come, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Iofeph, who had alſo himſelfe bene Ieſus diſciple.

luke 23. 58 Hee went to Pilate, and asked the body of Ieſus. Then Pilate commanded the body to be deliuered.

59 So Iofeph tooke the body, and wrapped it in a cleane linnen cloth, 60 And put it in his new tombe, which hee had heuen out in a rock, and rolled a great ſtone to the doore of the ſepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary ſitting ouer againſt the ſepulchre.

62 ¶ Now the next day that followed the Preparation of the Sabbath, the hie Prielts, and Phariſes aſſembled to Pilate, 63 And ſaid, Sir, wee remember that that deceiver ſaid, while hee was yet aliuē, Within three dayes I will riſe.

64 Command therefore, that the ſepulche bee made ſure vntill the third day, leſt his diſciples come by night, and ſcale him away, and ſay vnto the people, He is riſen from the dead: ſo ſhall the laſt error be worſe then the firſt.

65 Then Pilate ſaid vnto them, Ye haue a watch: goe and make it ſure as ye know.

66 And they went and made the ſepulchre ſure with the watch, and ſealed the ſtone.

CHAP. XXVIII.

6 Therefore reſurrection of Chriſt. 10 The brethren of Chriſt. 12 The high Prielts bribe the ſouldiers. 17 Chriſt appeareth to his diſciples, and ſendeth them forth to preach and to baptize, 20 Promiſing to them continuall aſſiſtance.

Mark. 16. 1 ¶ Now * in the 1 end of the Sabbath, when the firſt day of the weeke began to dawne, Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary came to ſee the ſepulchre.

2 And behold, there was a great earthquake: for the Angel of the Lord deſcended from heauen, and came and rolled backe the ſtone from the doore, and ſate vpon it.

3 And his countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as ſnow.

4 ¶ And for feare of him, the keepers were aſtonied, and became as dead inen.

5 But the Angel answered, and ſaid to the women. Feare yee not: for I know that yee ſeeke Ieſus which was crucified:

6 Hee is not here: for hee is riſen, as hee ſaid. Come ſee the place where the Lord was laid,

7 And goe quickly, and tell his diſciples that he is riſen from the dead: and behold, he goeth before you into Galile: there yee ſhall ſee him: loe, I haue told you.

8 So they departed quickly from the ſepulchre, with feare and great ioy, and did run to bring his diſciples word.

9 And as they went to tell his diſciples, behold, Ieſus alſo met them, ſaying, God ſaue you. And they came and tooke him by the feet, and worſhipped him.

10 Then ſaid Ieſus vnto them, Be not afraid, Go and tell my brethren that they goe into Galile, and there ſhall they ſee mee.

11 ¶ Now when they were gone, behold, ſome of the watch came into the citie, and ſhewed vnto the hie Prielts all the things that were done.

12 And they gathered them together with the Elders, and tooke counſell, and gaue large money vnto the ſouldiers, 13 Saying, Say, His diſciples came by night, and ſtole him away while we ſlept.

14 And if the gouernour heare of this, wee will perſwade him, and ſaue you harmeleſſe.

15 So they tooke the money, and did as they were taught: and this ſaying is noyed among the Iewes vnto this day.

16 ¶ Then the cleuen diſciples went into Galile, into a mountaine, where Ieſus had appointed them.

17 And when they ſaw him, they worſhipped him: but ſome doubted.

18 And Ieſus came and ſpake vnto them, ſaying, * All power is giuen vnto mee in heauen, and in earth.

19 ¶ Goe therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, & the Sonne, and the holy Ghoſt, 20 Teaching them to obſerue all things, whatſoeuer I haue commanded you, and lo, * I am with you alway, vntill the end of the world, Amen.

THE HOLY GOSPEL OF IESVS CHRIST, according to Marke.

CHAP. I.

2 The office, doctrine, and life of Iohn the Baptiſt. 9 Chriſt is baptized, 12 and tempted. 13 He preacheth, 17 calleth the ſcſſors. 23 Chriſt healeth the man with the withered ſide. 27 New doctrine. 29 He healeth Peters mother in law. 34 The devils know him. 41 He cleanſeth the leper, and healeth many others.

¶ The beginning of the Goſpel of Ieſus Chriſt the ſonne of God:

2 ¶ As it is written in the Prophets, Behold, I ſend my meſſenger before thy face, which ſhall prepare thy way before thee.

Iſa. 40.3 3 ¶ The voice of him that crieth in the wilderneſſe is, Prepare the way of the Lords: make his paths ſtraight.

4 ¶ Iohn did baptize in the wilderneſſe, and preach the baptiſme of amendment of life, for remiſſion of finnes.

5 And all the country of Iudea, and they of Ieruſalem went out vnto him, and were all baptized of him in the riuier Iorden, confeſſing their finnes.

6 ¶ Now Iohn was clothed with camels haire, and with a girdle of a ſkinne about his loines: and he did eate ¶ Locuſts and wilde honie,

7 ¶ And preached, ſaying, A ſtronger then I cometh after me, whoſe ſhoes I latchet I am not worthy to ſcoupe downe, and vnloofe.

8 Truth it is, I haue * baptized you with water: but he will baptize you with the holy Ghoſt.

9 ¶ And it came to paſſe in thoſe dayes, that Ieſus came from Nazaret a citie of Galile, and was baptized prayer.

baptized of Iohn in Iordan.

10 And assoone as he was come out of the water, Iohn saw the heauens clouen in twaine, and the holy Ghost descending vpon him like a doue.

11 Then there was a voice from heauen, saying, Thou art my beloued Sonne, in whom I am well pleased.

12 And immediately the spirit driueth him into the wilderness.

13 And hee was there in the wilderness fortie dayes, and was tempted of Satan: hee was also with the wilde beastes, and the Angels ministred vnto him.

14 ¶ Now after that Iohn was committed to prison, Iesus came into Galilee, preaching the Gospel of the kingdom of God, 15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent and beleeue the Gospel.

16 ¶ And as hee walked by the sea of Galilee, hee saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea (for they were fishers)

17 Then Iesus said vnto them, Follow me, and I will make you to be fishers of men.

18 And straightway they forsooke their nets, and followed him.

19 And when he had gone a litle further thence hee saw Iames the sonne of Zebedeus, and Iohn his brother, as they were in the shuppe, mending their nets.

20 And anon he called them: and they left their father Zebedeus in the shuppe with his hired seruants, and went their way after him.

21 ¶ So they entred into Capernaum, and straightway on the Sabbath day he entred into the Synagogue, and taught.

22 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authoritie, and not as the Scribes.

23 ¶ And there was in their Synagogue a man which had an vncleane spirit, and hee cryed, 24 Saying, Ah what haue wee to doe with thee, O Iesus of Nazaret? Art thou come to destroy vs? I know thee what thou art, even that holy One of God.

25 And Iesus rebuked him, saying, Holde thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And the vncleane spirit tare him, and cryed with a lowde voice, and came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, so that they demanded one of another, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for hee commaundeth the foule spirits with authoritie, and they obey him.

28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region bordering on Galilee.

29 ¶ And assoone as they were come out of the Synagogue, they entred into the house of Simon and Andrew, with Iames and Iohn.

30 And Simons wifes mother lay sicke of a feuer, and anon they told him of her.

31 And he came and tooke her by the hand, and lifted her vp, and the feuer forsooke her by and by: and she ministred vnto them.

32 And when euera was come, and the Sun was downe, they brought to him all that were diseased and them that were possessed with deuils.

33 And the whole citie was gathered together at the doore.

34 And hee healed many that were sicke of diuers diseases: and he cast out many deuils, and suffered not the deuils to say that they knew him.

35 And in the morning very early, before day, Iesus arose and went out into a solitary place, and yet night there prayed.

36 And Simon and they that were with him, followed after him.

37 And when they had found him, they said vnto him, All men seeke for thee.

38 Then hee said vnto them, Let vs go into the next townes, that I may preach there also: for I came out for that purpose.

39 And he preached in their Synagogues, throughout all Galilee, and cast the deuils out.

40 ¶ And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeled downe vnto him, and said to Iesus, If thou wilt, thou canst make me cleane.

41 And Iesus had compassion, and put forth his hand, and touched him, and said to him, I will, bee thou cleane.

42 And assoone as hee had spoken, immediately the leprosie departed from him, and hee was made cleane.

43 And after he had giuen him a strait commandement he sent him away forthwith, 44 And said vnto him, See thou say nothing to any man, but get thee hence, and thee thy selfe to the Priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things which Moses commaunded, for a testimoniall vnto them.

45 But when hee was departed, hee began to tell many things, and to publish the matter: so that Iesus could no more openly enter into the citie, but was without in desert places. and they came to him from euery quarter.

CHAP. II.

3 Hee healeth the man of the palfie. 5 He forgiveth finnes. 13 Hee calleth Lem the Customer. 16 Hee eateth with sinners. 18 Hee exhorteth his disciples, as touching fasting, and keeping the Sabbath day.

¶ Peter answered, saying, I have entred into Capernaum Mat. 9.1. againe, and it was noyfed that hee was in the house. Luke 5.18.

2 And anon many gathered together, inasmuch that the places about the doore could not receiue any more: and he preached the word vnto them.

3 And there came vnto him that brought one sicke of the palfie, borne of foure men.

4 And because they could not come neere vnto him for the multitude, they vncouered the rooffe of the house where hee was: and when they had broken it open, they let downe the bed wherein the sicke of the palfie lay.

5 Now when Iesus saw their faith, hee said to the sicke of the palfie, Sonne, thy finnes are forgiven thee.

6 And there were certaine of the Scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, 7 Why doeth this man speake such blasphemies? Who can forgive finnes but God onely? Ioh. 14.4.

8 And immediately when Iesus perceived in his spirit, that thus they thought with themselves, hee said vnto them, Why reason yee these things in your hearts?

9 Whether it is easier to say to the sicke of the palfie, Thy finnes are forgiven thee, or to say, Arise, and take vp thy bed and walke?

10 And that yee may know that the Sonne of man hath authoritie in earth to forgive finnes, (hee said to the sicke of the palfie)

11 I say vnto thee, Arise, and take vp thy bed, and gott thee hence into thine owne house.

12 And by and by he arose and took vp his bed, and went forth before them all, inasmuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We neuer saw such a thing.

13 ¶ Then hee went againe toward the sea, and all the people resorted vnto him, and hee taught them.

Mat. 9. 9. luk. 5. 27. 14 ¶ And as Iesus passed by, hee saw Leui the son of Alphaeus, sit at the receit of Customs, and said vnto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

15 ¶ And it came to passe, as Iesus sate at table in his house, many Publicanes and sinners sate at table also with Iesus and his disciples: for there were many that followed him.

16 And when the Scribes and Pharises saw him eate with the Publicanes and sinners, they said vnto his disciples, How is it that he eateth & drin- keth with Publicanes and sinners?

17 Now when Iesus heard it, he said vnto them, The whole haue no need of the Physician, but the sicke. ¶ I came not to call the righteous, but the sinners to repentance.

18 ¶ And the disciples of Iohn and the Pharises did fast, and came and said vnto him, Why doe the disciples of Iohn, and of the Pharises fast, and thy disciples fast not?

19 And Iesus said vnto them, Can the children of the marriage chamber fast, whiles the bridegroom is with them? as long as they haue the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

20 But the dayes will come when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast in those dayes.

21 Also no man soweth a piece of new cloth in an old garment: for els the new piece taketh away the filling vp from the olde, and the breach is worke.

22 Likewise, no man putteth new wine into old vessels: for els the new wine breaketh the vessels, and the wine runneth out, and the vessels are lost: but new wine must be put into new vessels.

27 And he said to them, The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath.

CHAP. III.

1 He healeth the man with the dried hand. 14 He chuseth his Apostles. 21 Christ is thought of the worldlings to be beside himselfe. 22 He casteth out the vnclane spirit, which the Pharises ascribed vnto the deuill. 29 Blasphemie against the holy Ghost. 35 The brother, sister, and mother of Christ.

Mat. 13.

9. 10.

luk. 6. 6.

¶ And he entred againe into the Synagogue, and there was a man which had a withered hand.

2 And they watched him, whether hee would heale him on the Sabbath day, that they might accuse him.

3 Then hee said vnto the man which had the withered hand, Arise: stand forth in the mids.

4 And he said to them, Is it lawfull to do a good deed on the Sabbath day, or to doe euill? to save the life, or to kill? But they held their peace.

5 Then he looked round about vpon them angrily, mourning also for the hardnesse of their hearts, and said to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And hee stretched it out: and his hand was restored as whole as the other.

6 ¶ And the Pharises departed, and straightway gathered a counsell with the Herodians against him that they might destroy him.

7 But Iesus auoyded with his disciples to the sea: and a great multitude followed him from Galile, and from Iudea, 8 And from Ierusalem, and from Idumea, and beyond Iordan: and they that dwelled about Ty- rus and Sidon, when they heard what great things hee did, came vnto him in great number.

9 ¶ And he commanded his disciples, that a ship should wait for him, because of the multitude, lest they should throng him.

10 For he had healed many, insomuch that they pressed vpon him, to touch him, as many as had plagues.

11 And when the vnclane spirits saw him, they fell downe before him, and cried, saying, Thou art the sonne of God.

12 And hee sharply rebuked him, to the ende they should not vter him.

13 ¶ Then hee went vp into a mountaine, and called vnto him whom hee would, and they came vnto him.

14 And hee appointed twelue, that they should bee with him, and that hee might send them to preach, 15 And that they might haue power to heale sickneses, and to cast out deuils.

16 And the first was Simon, and hee named Si- mon, Peter.

17 Then Iames the sonne of Zebedeus and Iohn Iames brother (and named them Boanerges, which is, the sonnes of thunder)

18 And Andrew, and Philip, and Bartlemew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and Iames the sonne of Alphaeus, and ¶ Thaddeus, and Simon ¶ the Cananite, 19 And Iudas Iscariot, who also betrayed him, and they came home.

20 And the multitude assembled againe, so that they could not so much as eate bread.

21 And when ¶ his kinsfolkes heard of it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they thought hee had bene beside himselfe.

22 ¶ And the Scribes which came from Ierusalem, said, Hee hath Beelzebub, and through the prince of deuils hee casteth out deuils.

23 But hee called them vnto him, and said vnto them in parables, How can Satan driue out Satan?

24 For if a kingdome be diuided against it selfe, that kingdome cannot stand.

25 Or, if an house be diuided against it selfe, that house cannot continue.

26 So if Satan make insurrection against him- selfe, and be diuided, he cannot endure, but is at an ende.

27 No man can enter iuto a strong mans house, and take away his goods, except he first binde that strong man, and then spayle his house.

28 ¶ Verely I say vnto you, all finnes shall bee forgiven vnto the children of men, and blasphemies, wherewith they blaspheme:

29 But hee that blasphemeth against the holy Ghost,

Ghost, shall neuer haue forgiveness, but is culpable of eternall damnation, 30 Because they said, He had an vnclene spirit.

31 ¶ Then came his brethren and mother, and stood without, and sent vnto him, and called him.

32 And the people fate about him, and they said vnto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren seeke for thee without.

33 But hee answered them, saying, Who is my mother, and my brethren?

34 And he looked round about on them which fate in compasse about him, and sayd, Behold my mother and my brethren.

35 For whosoever doth the wil of God, he is my brother, and my sister, and mother.

CHAP. IIII.

1 By the parables of the seed, and the mustard corne Christ sheweth the state of the kingdom of God. 12 A speciall gift of God to knowe the mysteries of his kingdom. 37 He stilleth the tempest of the sea which obeyd him.

And he began againe to teach by the Sea side, and there gathered vnto him a great multitude, so that he entred into a ship, & fate in the sea, and all the people was by the sea side on the land.

2 And he taught them many things in parables, and said vnto them ¶ in his doctrine,

3 Hearken: behold, there went out a Sower to sowe.

4 And it came to passe as he sowed, that some fell by the way side, and the fowles of the heauen came and deuoured it vp.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth, and by and by sprang vp, because it had not depth of earth.

6 But as soon as the Sunne was vp, it caught heat, and because it had no roote, it withered away.

7 And some fell among the thornes, and the thornes grew vp and choked it, so that it gaue no fruit.

8 Some againe fell in good ground, and did yeld fruit that sprang vp, and grew, and brought forth some thirtie fold, some sixtie fold, and some an hundred fold.

9 Then he said vnto them, He that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelue, asked him of the parable.

11 And he said vnto them, To you it is giuen to knowe the mysterie of the kingdom of God: but vnto them that are without, all things bee done in parables, 12 ¶ They that seeing, may see and not discern: and they hearing, may heare, and not vnderstand, left at any time they should turne, and their finnes should be forgiven them.

13 Again he said vnto them, Perceiue yee not this parable? how then should yee vnderstand all other parables?

14 The Sower soweth the word.

15 And these are they that receiue the seed by the wayes side, in whom the word is sown: but when they haue heard it, Satan commeth immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 And likewise they that receiue the seed in stony ground, are they which when they haue heard the word, straightwayes receiue it with gladnesse, 17 Yet haue they no roote in themselves, and endure but a time: for when trouble and persecution ariseth for the word, immediately they be offended.

18 Also they that receiue the seed among the thornes, are such as heare the word,

19 But the cares of the world, and the * deceit-fulness of riches, and the lustes of other things enter in, and choke the word, and it is vnfruitfull.

20 But they that haue receiued seede in good ground, are they that heare the word, and receiue it, and bring forth fruit, one cometh thirtie, another sixtie, and some an hundred.

21 ¶ Also hee said vnto them, * Is the candle lighted to bee put vnder a bushell, or vnder the table, and not to be put on a candlesticke?

22 ¶ For there is nothing hid that shall not bee opened: neither is there a secret but that it shall come to light.

23 If any man haue eares to heare, let him heare.

24 And he said vnto them, Take heed what yee heare. * With what measure you mete, it shall be measured vnto you, and vnto you that heare shall more be giuen.

25 ¶ For vnto him that hath shal it be giuen, and from him that hath not shall bee taken away, euen that he hath.

26 ¶ Also he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed in the ground, 27 And should sleepe, and rise vp night and day, and the seede should spring and grow vp, hee not knowing how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of her self, first the blade, then the eares, after that full cometh in the eares.

29 And as soon as the fruit sheweth it selfe, anon he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 ¶ He said moreover, Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God, or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It is like a graine of mustard seede, which when it is sown in the earth, is the least of all seedes that be in the earth:

32 But after that it is sown it groweth vp, and is greatest of all herbs, and beareth great branches, so that the fowles of heauen may build vnder the shadow of it.

33 ¶ And with many such parables he preached the word vnto them, as they were able to heare it.

34 And without parables spake he nothing vnto them, but he expounded all things to his disciples apart.

35 ¶ Now the same day when euen was come, he said vnto them, Let vs passe ouer vnto the other side.

36 And they left the multitude, and tooke him as he was in the ship: and there were also with him other ships.

37 And there arose a great storme of winde, and the waues dashed into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the sterne asleepe on a pillow: and they awoke him and said to him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?

39 And he arose vp, and rebuked the winde, and said vnto the Sea, Peace, and be still. So the winde ceased, and it was a great calme.

40 Then he said vnto them, Why are ye so fearefull? ¶ How is it that ye haue no faith?

41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one vnto another, Who is this, that both the winde and the Sea obey him!

Mat. 8. 28 And they came ouer to the other side of the sea into the countrey of the Gardarens.

2 And when he was come out of the ship, there met him incontinently out of the graues a man which had an vnclene spirit :

3 Who had his abiding among the graues, and no man could bind him, nor with chaines,

4 Because that when he was often bound with fetters and chaines, he plucked the chaines aunder and brake the fetters in pieces, neither could any man tame him.

5 And alwayes both night and day he cryed in the mountaines and in the graues, and strooke himselfe with stones,

6 And when he saw Iesus as farre off, he ran, and worshipped him,

7 And cryed with a loud voice, and said, What haue I to do with thee. Iesus the sonne of the most high God? I charge thee by God that thou torment me not.

8 (For he said vnto him, Come out of the man, thou vnclene spirit.)

9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10 And he prayed him instantly that hee would not send them away out of the countrey.

11 Nowe there was there in the mountaines a great herd of swine feeding.

12 And al the deuils beought him, saying, Send vs into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And incontinently Iesus gaue them leaue. Then the vnclene spirits went out, and entred into the swine, and the herd ranne headlong from the high banke into the sea (and there were about two thousand swine) and they were drowned in the sea.

14 And the swineheards fled, and tolde it in the cite, and in the countrey, and they came out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they came to Iesus, & saw him that had bene possessed with the deuill and had the Legion, sit both clothed and in his right mind: and they were afraide.

16 And they that saw it, tolde them what was done to him that was possessed with the deuill, and concerning the swine.

17 Then they began to pray him, that he would depart from their coasts.

18 And when he was come into the ship, he that had bene possessed with the deuill, prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit, Iesus would not suffer him, but said vnto him, Goe thy way home to thy friendes, and shew them what great things the Lord hath done vnto thee, and how hee hath had compassion on thee.

20 So he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis what great things Iesus had done vnto him: and all men did maruaile.

21 And when Iesus was come ouer againe by ship vnto the other side, a great multitude gathered to him, and he was nere vnto the sea.

22 * And behold, there came one of the rulers of the Synagogue, whose name was Jairus: & when he saw him, he fell downe at his feete,

23 And besought him instantly, saying, My little daughter lyeth at point of death: I pray thee that thou wouldest come and lay thine hands on her, that she may be healed and liue.

24 Then he went with him, and a great multitude followed him, and thronged him.

25 (And there was a certaine woman which was diseased with an issue of blood twelue yeeres, 26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and it auailed her nothing, but she became more woe.

27 When she had heard of Iesus, she came in the prease behinde, and touched his garment.

28 For she said, If I may but touch his clothes, I shalbe whole.

29 And straightway the course of her blood was dried vp, and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague.

30 And immediately, when Iesus did know in himselfe the vertue that went out of him, hee turned him round about in the prease, and said, Who hath touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples said vnto him, Thou seeest the multitude throng thee, and sayest thou, Who did touch me?

32 And he looked round about, to see her that had done that.

33 And the woman feared, and trembled: for she knew what was done in her, and she came and fell downe before him, and tolde him the whole truth.

34 And he said to her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole: goe in peace, and bee whole of thy plague.)

35 While hee yet spake, there came from the same ruler of the Synagogues house certaine, which said, Thy daughter is dead: why disteatest thou the Master any further?

36 Assoone as Iesus heard that word spoken, he said vnto the ruler of the Synagogue, Be not afraid: onely beleene.

37 And hee suffered no man to follow him, save Peter and James, and Iohn the brother of James.

38 So he came vnto the house of the ruler of the Synagogue, and saw the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

39 And he went in, and said vnto them, Why make ye this trouble and weepe? the childe is not dead but sleepeeth.

40 And they laughed him to scorne: but he put them all out, and tooke the father and the mother of the childe, and them that were with him, and entered in where the childe lay,

41 And tooke the childe by the hand, and said vnto her, Talitha-cumi, which is by interpretation, Maiden, I say vnto thee, arise.

42 And straightway the maiden arose, and walked: for she was of the age of twelue yeeres: and they were astonied out of measure.

43 And he charged them straightly that no man should knowe of it, and commaunded to giue her meate.

things? and what wisdom is this that is given vnto him, that euen such great works are done by his hands!

3 Is not this the Carpenter, Maries sonne, the brother of Iames and Ioses, and of Iuda, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with vs? and they were offended in him.

4 Then Iesus said vnto them, *A Prophet is not without honour but in his owne country, and among his owne kinned, and in his owne house.

5 And he could there doe no great works, saue that hee layd his hands vpon a few sicke folks, and healed them.

6 And he marvelled at their vnbeliefe, * and went about by the townes on euery side, teaching.

7 * And he called the twelue, and began to send them two and two, and gaue them power ouer vncleane spirits,

8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their iourney saue a staffe only: neither scrip, neither bread, neither money in their girdles, 9 But that they should be shod with sandals, and that they should not put on two coats.

10 And he said vnto them, Where soeuer yee shall enter in an house, there abide till ye depart thence.

11 * And who soeuer shall not receiue you, nor heere you, when you depart thence, * shake off the dust that is vnder your fecte, for a witnesse vnto them. Verely I say vnto you, it shall bee easier for Sodome or Gomorraha at the day of iudgement, then for that citie.

12 * And they went out, and preached that men should amend their liues.

13 And they cast out many deuils: and they appointed many that were sicke, with oyle, and healed them.

14 * Then King Herod heard of him (for his name was spread abroad) and said, Iohn Baptist is risen againe from the dead, and therefore great works are wrought by him.

15 Other said, It is Elias: and some said, It is a Prophet, or as one of the Prophets.

16 * So when Herod heard it, he said, It is Iohn whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.

17 For Herod himselfe had sent forth, and had taken Iohn, and bound him in prison for Herodias sake which was his brother Philips wife, because he had married her.

18 For Iohn said to Herod, * It is not lawfull for thee to haue thy brothers wife.

19 Therefore Herodias had a quarrel against him, and would haue killed him, but she could not:

20 For Herod feared Iohn, knowing that he was a iust man, and an holy, and reuerenced him, and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

21 But the time being conuenient, when Herod on his birthday made a banquet to his princes, and captaines and chiefe estates of Galilee:

22 And the daughter of the same Herodias came in and daunced, and pleased Herod and them that sate at table together, the king said vnto the maid, Aske of me what thou wilt, and I will giue it thee.

23 And hee swaie vnto her, Whatsoeuer thou shalt aske of mee, I will giue it thee, euen vnto the halfe of my kingdome.

24 * So she went forth, and said to her mother, What shall I aske? And shee sayd, Iohn Baptists head.

25 Then she came in straightway with haste vnto the king, and asked, saying, I would that thou shouldst giue mee euen now in a charger the head of Iohn Baptist.

26 Then the king was very sorry: yet for his oathes sake, and for their sakes which sate at table with him, he would not refuse her.

27 And immediately the king sent the hangman, and gaue charge that his head should bee brought. So he went and beheaded him in the prison, 28 And brought his head in a charger, and gaue it to the maide, and the maide gaue it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard it, they came and tooke vp his body, and put it in a tombe.

30 * And the Apostles gathered themselues together to Iesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

31 And he said vnto them, Come ye apart into the wilderness, and rest a while: for these were many commers and goers, that they had not leasure to eat.

32 * So they went by ship out of the way into a desert place.

33 But the people saw them when they departed, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and came thither before them, and assembled vnto him.

34 * Then Iesus went out, and saw a great multitude, and had compassion on them, because they were like sheepe that had no thepheard: * and he began to teach them many things.

35 * And when the day was now farre spent, his disciples came vnto him, saying, This is a desert place, and now the day is faire passed.

36 Let them depart, that they may goe into the villages and townes about, and buy them bread: for they haue nothing to eat.

37 But he answered and said vnto them, Giue ye them to eat. And they said vnto him, Shall wee goe and buy two hundred penyworth of bread, and giue them to eat?

38 * Then he said vnto them, How many loaves haue ye? goe and looke. And when they knew it, they said, Five, and two fishes.

39 So he commanded them to make them all sit downe by companies vpon the greene grasse.

40 Then they sate downe by rowes, by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And he tooke the five loaves and the two fishes, and looked vp to heauen, and gaue thanks, and brake the loaves, and gaue them to his disciples to set before them, and the two fishes he diuided among them all.

42 So they did all eat and were satisfied.

43 And they tooke vp twelue baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And they that had eaten, were about five thousand men.

45 * And straightwayes hee caused his disciples to go into the ship, and to go before into the other side vnto Bethsaida while he sent away the people.

46 Then as soone as he had sent them away, hee departed into a mountaine to pray.

47 * And when euen was come, the ship was in the mids of the sea, and he alone on the land.

48 And he saw them troubled in rowing (for the winde was contrary vnto them) & about the fourth watch of the night he came vnto them, walking vpon the sea, and would haue passed by them.

49 And when they saw him walking on the sea, they supposed it had bene a spirit, and cried out.

50 For they all saw him, and were sore afraid: but anon he talked with them, and said vnto them,

4 And when they come from the markets, except they wash they eate not : and many other things there bee which they haue taken vpon them to observe, as the washing of cups, and pots, and of brazen vessels and of tables.)

Or. bread 5 Then asked him the Pharises and Scribes, Why walke not thy disciples according to the tradition of the Elders, but eat ¶ meate with unwashen hands?

Isa. 29. 13 6 Then he answered and said vnto them, Surely Esai hath prophesied well of you, hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth mee with their lips, but their heart is farre away from me

7 But they worship me in vaine, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

8 For ye lay the commandment of God apart, and obserue the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and of cups, and many other such like things ye doe.

9 And he said vnto them, Well, ye reiect the commandment of God, that ye may obserue your owne tradition.

Exod. 20. 10 For Moses said, ¶ Honour thy father and thy mother : and, ¶ Whofoever shall curse father or mother, let him die the death.

9. prou. 14 ¶ Then he called the whole multitude vnto him, and said vnto them, Hearken you all vnto me, and vnderstand.

Mat. 15. 15 There is nothing without a man, y can defile him when it entred into him: but the things which proceed out of him, are they which defile the man.

16 If any haue eares to heare, let him heare.

17 And when he came into an house away from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he said vnto them, What ? are ye without vnderstanding also? Do ye not know that whatsoever thing from without entred into a man, cannot defile him, 19 Because it entred not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, which is the purging of all meats?

20 Then hee said, That which commeth out of man, that defileth man.

21 ¶ For from within, even out of the heart of Gentiles, proceed euill thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, 22 Thefts, couetousnesse, wickednesse, deceite, vnclennesse, ¶ a wicked eye, backbiting, pride, foolishnesse.

23 All these euill things come from within, and defile a man.

24 ¶ And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyrus and Sidon, and entred into an house, & would that no man should haue known: but he could not be hid.

25 For a certaine woman whose little daughter had an vnclenne spirit, heard of him, and came, and fell at his feet.

26 (And the woman was a Greeke, a Syrophenician by nation) and she besought him that he would cast out the deuill out of her daughter.

27 But Iesus said vnto her, Let the children first be fed: for it is not good to take the childrens bread, and to cast it vnto whelpes.

28 Then she answered, & said vnto him, Truth, Lord : yet indeed the whelpes eate vnder the table of the childrens crumbles.

29 Then he said vnto her, For this saying goe thy way : the deuill is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come home to her house, she found the deuill departed, and her daughter lying on the bed.

31 ¶ And he departed againe from the coasts of Tyrus and Sidon, and came vnto the Sea of Galilee thorow the mids of the coasts of Decapolis.

32 And they brought vnto him one that was deafe, and stammered in his speech, and prayed him to put his hand vpon him.

33 Then he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers in his eares, and did spit, and touched his tongue.

34 And looking vp to heauen, he sighed, and said vnto him, Ephphata, that is, Be opened.

35 And straightway his eares were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and hee spake plaine.

36 And hee commanded them that they should tel no man: but how much soener he forbade them, the more a great deale they published it, 37 And were beyond measure astonied, saying, ¶ He hath done all things well, he maketh both the deafe to heare, and the dumbe to speake.

CHAP. VIII.

2 The miracle of the seven loaves. 11 The Pharisees aske a signe. 15 The leaues of the Pharisees. 22 The blind receiveth his sight. 29 Hee was known of his disciples. 33 He reprooveth Peter, 34 and sheweth how necessary perfection is.

IN ¶ those dayes, when there was a very great multitude, and had nothing to eate, Iesus called his disciples to him, and said vnto them,

2 I haue compassion on the multitude, because they haue now continued with me three dayes, and haue nothing to eate.

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will feare faint by the way: for some of them came from farre.

4 Then his disciples answered him, ¶ How can a man satisfie these with bread here in this wildernes?

5 And he asked them, How many loaves haue ye? And they said, Seuen.

6 Then hee commaunded the multitude to sit downe on the ground: and hee tooke the seuen loaves, and gaue thanks, brake them, and gaue to his disciples to set before them, and they did set them before the people.

7 They had also a few small fishes: and when he had giuen thanks, he commanded them also to be set before them.

8 So they did eat and were sufficed, and they took vp of the broken meat that was left seuen baskets full.

9 (And they that had eaten, were about foure thousand.) so he sent them away.

10 ¶ And anon he entred into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 ¶ And the Pharisees came forth, and began to dispute with him seeking of him a signe from heauen, and tempting him.

12 Then he sighed deeply in his spirit and said, Why doeth this generation seeke a signe? Verely I say vnto you, ¶ a signe shall not bee giuen vnto this generation.

13 ¶ So hee left them, and went into the ship againe, and departed to the other side.

14 ¶ And they had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the shippe with them, but one loafe.

15 And hee charged them, saying, Take heede and beware of the leauen of the Pharisees, & of the leauen of Herod.

16 And they thought among themselves, saying, It is because we haue no bread.

17 And when Iesus knew it, he said vnto them, Why reason you thus, because ye haue no bread? perceiue ye not yet, neither vnderstand? haue yee your hearts yet hardened?

18 Haue ye eies and see not? and haue yee eares and heare not? and doe ye not remember?

19 ¶ When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of broken meat tooke ye vp? They said vnto him, Twelue.

20 And when I brake seuen among foure thousand, how many baskets of the leauings of broken meat tooke ye vp? And they said, Seuen.

21 Then he said vnto them, How is it that ye vnderstand not?

22 ¶ And hee came to Bethsaida, and they brought a blind man vnto him, and desired him to touch him.

23 Then he tooke the blind by the hand, and led him out of the towne, and spate in his eyes, and put his hands vpon him, & asked him if he saw ought.

24 And he looked vp, and said, I see men: for I see them walking like trees.

25 After that he put his hands againe vpon his eyes, & made him looke againe. And he was restored to his sight, & saw euery man asfarre off clerely.

26 And hee sent him home to his house, saying, Neither go into the towne, nor tell it to any in the towne.

27 ¶ And Iesus went out, and his disciples into the townes of Cesarea Philippi. And by the way he asked his disciples, saying vnto them, Whom doe men say that I am?

28 And they answered, Some say, Iohn Baptist: and some, Elias: and some, One of the Prophets.

29 And hee sayd vnto them, But whom say yee that I am? Then Peter answered, and said vnto him, Thou art the Christ.

30 And he sharply charged them, that concerning him they should tell no man.

31 Then he began to teach them that the Sonne of man must suffer many things, and should be reproved of the Elders, and of the hie Priests, and of the Scribes, and be slaine, and within three dayes rise againe.

32 And he spake that thing plainly. Then Peter tooke him aside, and began to rebuke him.

33 Then he turned back, and looked on his disciples, and rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou vnderstandest not the things that are of God, but the things that are of men.

34 ¶ And hee called the people vnto him with his disciples, and said vnto them, ¶ Whosoever will follow me, let him forsake himselfe, and take vp his crosse, and follow me.

35 For whosoever will saue his life, shall lose it: but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the Gospels, he shall saue it.

36 For what shall it profite a man, though hee should win the whole world, if he lose his soule?

37 Or what shall a man giue for recompence of his soule?

38 ¶ For whosoever shall be ashamed of me, and of my words among this adulterous and sinfull generation, of him shall the Sonne of man bee ashamed also when hee cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy Angels.

CHAP. IX.

3 The transfiguration. 7 Christ to be heard. 28 The dumbe spirit is cast out. 29 The force of prayer and fasting. 31 Of the death and resurrection of Christ. 33 The disposition who should bee the greatest. 38 Not to hinder the course of the Gospel. 42 Offences are forbidden.

And * he said vnto them. Verily I say vnto you, that there be some of the that stand here, which shall not taste of death, til they haue seene the kingdom of God come with power.

2 ¶ And fixe dayes after, Iesus tooke Peter, and Iames, and Iohn, and brought them vp into an high mountaine out of the way alone, and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment did shine, and was very white as snow, so white as no fuller can make vpon the earth.

4 And there appeared vnto them Elias with Moses, and they were talking with Iesus.

5 Then Peter answered, and said to Iesus, Master, it is good for vs to be heere, let vs make also three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 Yet he knew not what he said: for they were asraid.

7 And there was a cloud that shadowed them, and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, ¶ This is my beloued sonne: heare him.

8 And suddenly they looked rounde about, and sawe no more any man, saue Iesus onely with them.

9 ¶ And as they came downe from the mountaine, he charged them that they should tel no man what they had seene, saue when the Sonne of man were risen from the dead againe.

10 So they kept that matter to themselves, and demanded one of another, what the rising from the dead againe should meane?

11 Also they asked him, saying, Why say the Scribes, that * Elias must first come?

12 And he answered and said vnto them, Elias verely shall first come, and restore all things, and as it is written of the Sonne of man, hee must suffer many things and be set at nought.

13 But I say vnto you, that Elias is come, (and they haue done vnto him whatsoeuer they would) as it is written of him.

14 * And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the Scribes disputing with them.

15 And straightway all the people when they beheld him, were amased, and ranne to him, and saluted him.

16 Then he asked the Scribes, what dispute you among your selues?

17 And one of the company answered and said, Master, I haue brought my sonne vnto thee, which hath a dumbe spirit:

18 And wherefoeuer he taketh him, hee teareth him, and he someth and gnatheth his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out, and they could not.

19 Then he answered him and said, O faithlesse generation, how long now shall I be with you? how long now shall I suffer you? Bring him vnto me.

20 So they brought him vnto him: and as soone as the spirit saw him, he tare him, and he fell downe on the ground, wallowing, and foming.

21 Then he asked his father, How long time is it since he hath bene thus? And he said, Of a childe.

22 And oft times hee casteth him into the fire, and into the water to destroy him: but if thou canst doe any thing, helpe vs, and haue compassion vpon vs.

23 And Iesus said vnto him, If thou canst belecue it, all things are possible to him that beleueeth.

24 And straightway the father of the child, crying with teares, said, Lord, I belecue, helpe my vbeliefe.

25 When Iesus saw that the people came running together, hee rebuked the vnclene spirit, saying vnto him, Thou dumbe and deafe spirit, I charge thee come out of him, and eate no more into him.

26 Then the spirit cryed, and rent him sore, and came out, and hee was as one dead, inasmuch that many said, He is dead.

27 But Iesus tooke his hand and lift him vp, and he rose.

28 And when hee was come into the house, his disciples asked him secretly, Why could not wee cast him out?

29 And he said vnto them, This kind can be by no other meanes come forth, but by prayer and fasting.

30 * And they departed thence, and went through Galilee, and hee would not that any should haue knowne it.

31 For he taught his disciples & said vnto them, The Sonne of man shall be deliuered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him, but after that he is killed, he shall rise againe the third day.

32 But they vnderstood not that saying, and were afraide to aske him.

33 * After, hee came to Capernatim: and when he was in the house, hee asked them, What was it that ye disputed among you by the way?

34 And they helde their peace: for by the way they reasoned among themselves, who should be the chiefest.

35 And he sate downe and called the twelue, and said to them, If any man desire to be first the same shall be last of all, and seruant vnto all.

36 And he tooke a little child, and set him in the mids of them, and tooke him in his armes, and sayd vnto them, 37 Whofoeuer shall receiue one of such little children in my Name, receiueth mee: and whofoeuer receiveth me, receiueth not me, but him that sent me.

38 * Then Iohn answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils by thy Name, which followed not vs, and we forbade him, because hee followeth vs not.

39 * But Iesus said, Forbid him not: for there is no man that can doe a miracle by my Name, that shall lightly speake euill of me.

40 For whofoeuer is not against vs, is on our part.

41 * And whofoeuer shall giue you a cup of water to drinke for my Names sake, because yee belong to Christ, verely I say vnto you, hee shall not loose his reward.

42 * And whofoeuer shall offend one of these little ones that beleue in me, it were better for him rather, that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were cast into the sea.

43 * Wherefore if thine hand cause thee to offend, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life, maimed, then hauing two handes to goe into hell, into the fire that neuer shall be quenched,

44 * Where their worme dieth not, and the fire neuer goeth out.

45 Likewise, if thy foot cause thee to offend, cut it off: it is better for thee to goe halt into life, then hauing two feete to be cast into hell, into the fire that neuer shall be quenched,

46 Where their worme dieth not, and the fire neuer goeth out.

47 And if thine eye cause thee to offend, plucke it out, it is better for thee to goe into the kingdome of God with one eye, then hauing two eyes to be cast into hell fire,

48 Where their worme dieth not, and the fire neuer goeth out.

49 For euery man shall be salted with fire: and euery sacrifice shall be salted with salt.

50 * Salt is good: but if the salt be vnseasoned, wherewith shall it be seasoned? Haue salt in your selues, and haue peace one with another.

CHAP. X.

2 Of diuorcement. 17 The rich man questioneth with Christ. 30 Their reward that are persecuted. 35 Of the finnes of Zebedee. 46 Bartimeus hath his eyes opened.

And * hee arose from thence, and went into the coasts of Iudea by the farre side of Iordan, and the people resorted vnto him againe, and as he was wont, he taught them againe.

2 Then the Pharisees came and asked him, if it were lawfull for a man to put away his wife, and tempted him.

3 And he answered and said vnto them, What did * Moses command you?

4 And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of diuorcement, and to put her away.

5 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, For the hardnesse of your heart hee wrote this precept vnto you.

6 But at the beginning of the creation, * God made them male and female.
7 * For this cause shall man leave his father and mother, and cleave unto his wife.
8 And they twaine shall be one flesh: so that they are no more twaine, but one flesh.
9 * Therefore what God hath coupled together, let no man separate.
10 And in the house his disciples asked him againe of that matter.
11 And he said vnto them, * Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.
12 And if a woman put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.
13 * * Then they brought little children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.
14 But when Iesus saw it, he was displeased, and said to them. Suffer the little children to come vnto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdome of God.
15 Verily, I say vnto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdome of God as a little childe, he shall not enter therein.
16 And he tooke them vp in his armes, and put his hands vpon them, and blessed them.
17 * And when hee was gone out on the way, there came one * running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good master, what shall I do that I may possesse eternall life?
18 Iesus said vnto him, Why callest thou mee good? there is none good but one, even God.
19 Thou knowest the commandements, * Thou shalt not commit adultery. Thou shalt not kill. Thou shalt not steale. Thou shalt not beare false witness. Thou shalt hurt no man. Honour thy father and mother.
20 Then he answered and said to him, Master, all these things have I observed from my youth.
21 And Iesus beheld him, and loved him, and said vnto him, One thing is lacking vnto thee, Goe and sell all that thou hast, and give to the poore, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven, and come, & follow me, and take up the crosse.
22 But he was sad at that saying, and went away sorrowfull, for he had great possessions.
23 And Iesus looked round about, and said vnto his disciples, How hardly doe they that have riches, enter into the kingdome of God!
24 And his disciples were astonished at his words, But Iesus answered againe, & said vnto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches, to enter into the kingdome of God!
25 It is easier for a camel to go thorow the eye of a needle, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdome of God.
26 And they were much more astonished, saying with themselves, Who then can be saved?
27 But Iesus looked vpon them, and said, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.
28 * * Then Peter began to say vnto him, Lo, we have forsaken all, and have followed thee.
29 Iesus answered and said, Verily I say vnto you, there is no man that hath forsaken house, or brethren, or sisters, or father or mother, or wife, or children, or lands for my sake and the Gospels, 30 But he shall receive an hundred fold now at this present: houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers and children, and lands, with persecutions, and in the world to come eternall life.

31 * But many ~~that~~ that are first, shall be last, and the last first.
32 * * And they were in the way going vp to Ierusalem, and Iesus went before them, and they were amazed, and as they followed, they were afraid, and Iesus tooke the twelve againe, and began to tell them what things should come vnto him, 33 Saying, Behold, wee goe vp to Ierusalem, and the Sonne of man shall be deliuered vnto the high Priests, and to the Scribes, and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliuer him to the Gentiles.
34 And they shall mocke him, and scourge him, and spit vpon him, and kill him: but the third day he shall rise againe.
35 * * Then James and Iohn the sonnes of Zebedee came vnto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest doe for vs that that we desire.
36 And he said vnto them, What would yee I should doe for you?
37 And they said to him, Grant vnto vs that we may sit one at thy right hand, and the other at thy left hand in thy glory.
38 But Iesus said vnto them, Ye know not what ye aske. Can ye drinke of the cup that I shall drinke of, and be baptized with the baptism that I shall be baptized with?
39 And they said vnto him, We can. But Iesus said vnto them, Ye shall drinke indeed of the cup that I shall drinke of, and be baptized with the baptism wherewith I shall be baptized:
40 But to sit at my right hand, and at my left, is not mine to giue, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.
41 And when the ten heard that, they began to disdaine at James and Iohn.
42 But Iesus called them vnto him, and said to them, Ye * know that they which delight to beare rule among the Gentiles, have domination over them, and they that be great among them, exercise authoritie over them.
43 But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall bee your servant.
44 And whosoever will be chiefe of you, shall be the servant of all.
45 For euen the Sonne of man came not to beee served, but to serue, and to giue his life for the ransom of many.
46 * * Then they came to Iericho: and as hee went out of Iericho with his disciples, and a great multitude, Bartimeus the sonne of Timeus, a blind man, sat by the wayeside begging.
47 And when he heard that it was Iesus of Nazaret, he began to crie and to say, Iesus the sonne of David, haue mercy on me.
48 And many rebuked him, because hee should hold his peace: but he cried much more, O Sonne of David, haue mercy on me.
49 Then Iesus stood still, and commanded him to be called: and they called the blinde, saying vnto him, Be of good comfort: arise, he calleth thee.
50 So hee threw away his cloake, and rose, and came to Iesus.
51 And Iesus answered, & said vnto him, What wilt thou that I doe vnto thee? And the blinde said vnto him, Lord, that I may receive sight.
52 Then Iesus said vnto him, Goe thy way: thy faith hath saved thee. And by and by he received his sight, and followed Iesus in the way.

And * when they came neere to Ierusalem, to Bethphage and Bethania vnto the mount of Oliues, he sent forth two of his disciples,

2 And said vnto them, Go your wayes into that towne that is ouer against you, and as soone as yee shal enter into it, ye shall find a colt bound, whereon neuer man sate: loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say vnto you, Why doe yee this? Say that the Lord hath neede of him, and straightway he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found a colt tyed by the doore without, in a place where two wayes met, and they loosed him.

5 Then certaine of them that stood there, said vnto them, What do ye loosing the colt?

6 And they said vnto them, as Iesus had commanded them. So they let them goe.

Mat. 21.
Luk. 19.

7 * And they brought the colt to Iesus, and cast their garments on him, and he sate vpon him.

8 And many spred their garments in the way: other cut down branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cryed, saying, Hosanna: blessed be he that cometh in the Name of the Lord:

Mat. 21.

11 * So Iesus went into Ierusalem, and into the Temple: and when hee had looked about on all things, and now it was eueniug, he went forth vnto Bethania with the twelue.

Mat. 21.
Luk. 19.
20.

12 * And on the morow when they were come, out from Bethania, he was hungry.

13 And seeing a figtree as farre off, that had leaues he went to see if he might find any thing thereon: but when he came vnto it, he found nothing but leaues: for the time of figges was not yet.

14 Then Iesus answered, and said to it, Neuer man eate fruite of thee hereafter while the world standeth: and his disciples heard it.

15 * And they came to Ierusalem, and Iesus went into the Temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the Temple, and ouerthrew the tables of the money changers, and the seats of them that sold doves.

16 Neither would he suffer that any man should carry a vessel thorow the Temple.

Mat. 21.
Luk. 19.
20.

17 And he taught, saying vnto them, Is it not written, * Mine house shall be called the house of prayer vnto all nations? * but ye haue made it a den of theecus.

18 And the Scribes and hie Priests heard it, and sought how to destroy him: for they feared him, because the whole multitude was astonied at his doctrine.

19 But when euen was come, Iesus went out of the city.

Mat. 21.
Luk. 19.
20.

20 * And in the morning as they passed by, they saw the figtree dried vp from the rootes.

21 Then Peter remembered, and said vnto him, Master, behold, the figtree which thou cursedst, is withered.

22 And Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them, Haue faith in God.

23 For verily I say vnto you, that whosoever shal say vnto this mountaine, Take thy selfe away, and cast thy selfe into the sea, and shall not wauer in his heart, but shall beleuee that those things which he saith shall come to passe, whatsoeuer he saith, shall be done to him.

24 * Therefore I say vnto you, whatsoeuer ye desire when ye pray, beleuee that ye shall haue it, and it shalbe done vnto you.

25 * But when ye shall stand and pray, forgive, if ye haue any thing against any man, that your Father also which is in heauen, may forgive you your trespasses.

26 For if ye will not forgive, your Father which is in heauen, will not pardon you your trespasses.

27 * Then they came againe to Ierusalem: and as he walked in the Temple, there came to him the high Priests, and the Scribes, and the Elders, 28 And said vnto him, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gaue thee this authority, that thou shouldest doe these things?

29 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, I will also aske of you a certaine thing, and answer ye me, and I will tell you by what authority I doe these things.

30 The baptisme of Iohn, was it from heauen, or of men? answer me.

31 And they thought with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heauen, he will say, Why then did ye not beleuee him?

32 But if we say, Of men, wee feare the people: for all men counted Iohn, that he had bene a very Prophet.

33 Then they answered, and sayd vnto Iesus, We cannot tell. And Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Neither will I tell you by what authority I doe these things.

CHAP. XII.

1 The vineyard is let out. 14 Obedience tribute due to Princes. 25 The resurrection of the dead. 28 The summe of the Law. 35 Christ the sonne of Dauid. 38 Hypocrites must bee eschewed. 41 The offering of the poore widow.

And he began to speake vnto them in parables, A * A certaine man planted a vineyard, and compassed it with an hedge, and digged a pit for the winepresse, and built a tower in it, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a strange country.

2 And at a time, he sent to the husbandmen a seruant, that he might receiue of the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 But they tooke him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And againe he sent vnto them another seruant, and at him they cast stones, & brake his head, and sent him shamefully handled.

5 And againe he sent another, and they slew him, and many other, beating some, and killing some.

6 Yet had he one sonne, his deare beloved: him also he sent the last vnto them, saying, They will reuerence my sonne.

7 But the husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heire: come, let vs kill him, and the inheritance shalbe ours.

8 So they tooke him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall then the Lord of the vineyard doe? He will come and destroy these husbandmen, and giue the vineyard to others.

10 Haue ye not read so much as this Scripture? * The stone which the builders did refuse, is made the head of the corner.

11 This was done of the Lord, and it is maruelous in our eyes.

13 Then they went about to take him, but they feared the people: for they perceived that he spake that parable against them: therefore they left him, and went their way.

13 ¶ And they sent vnto him certaine of the Pharisees, & of the Herodians, that they might take him in his talke.

14 And when they came they said vnto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou considerest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God truly: is it lawfull to giue tribute to Cesar, or not?

15 Should we giue it, or should we not giue it? But hee knew their hypocrisie, and said vnto them, Why tempt ye me? Bring mee a penie, that I may see it.

16 So they brought it, and he said vnto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said vnto him, Cessars.

17 Then Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them, ¶ Giue to Cesar the things that are Cessars, and to God those that are Gods: and they marvelled at him.

18 ¶ Then came the Sadducees vnto him (which say there is no resurrection) and they asked him, saying, 19 Master, * Moyses wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother die, and leaue his wife, and leaue no children, that his brother should take his wife, & raise vp dead vnto his brother.

20 There were seuen brethren, & the first tooke a wife, and when he died left no issue.

21 Then the second tooke her, and he died, neither did he yet leaue issue: and the third likewise.

22 So seuen had her, and left no issue: last of all the wife died also.

23 In the resurrection then, when they shall rise againe, whose wife shall shee be of them? for seuen had her to wife.

24 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Are ye not therefore deceiued, because ye know not the Scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise againe from the dead, neither men marrie, nor wiuces are married, but are as the Angels which are in heauen.

26 And as touching the dead, that they shall rise againe, haue yee not read in the booke of Moyses, how in the bush God spake vnto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the liuing. Ye are therefore greatly deceiued.

28 ¶ Then came one of the Scribes that had heard them disputing together, and perceiuing that hee had answered them well, he asked him, Which is the first Commandement of all?

29 Iesus answered him, The first of all the Commandements is, * Heare Israel, the Lord our God is the only Lord.

30 Thou shalt therefore loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, & with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first Commandement.

31 And the second is like, that is, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbor as thy selfe. There is none other Commandement greater then these.

32 Then the Scribe said vnto him, Wel, Master, thou hast said the truth, that there is one God, and that there is none but he.

33 And to loue him with all the heart, and with all the vnderstanding, and with all the soule, and with all the strength, and to loue his neighbour as himselfe, is more then all burnt offerings and sacrifices.

34 Then when Iesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said vnto him, Thou art not farre from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst aske him any question.

35 ¶ And Iesus answered and said, teaching in the Temple, How say the Scribes that Christ is the sonne of Dauid?

36 For Dauid himselfe said by the holy Ghost, * The Lord sayd to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

37 Then Dauid himselfe calleth him Lord: by what meanes is he then his sonne? and much people heard him gladly.

38 ¶ Moreover, he said vnto them in his doctrine, Beware of the Scribes which loue to goe in long robes, and loue salutations in the markets,

39 And the chiefe seats in the Synagogues, and the first roomes at feasts, 40 Which deuoure widowes houses: euen vnder a colour of long prayers. These shall receiue the greater damnation.

41 ¶ And as Iesus sate ouer against the treasure, he beheld how the people cast money into the treasury, and many rich men cast in much.

42 And there came a certaine poore widow, and she threw in two mites, which make a quadrin.

43 Then hee called vnto him his disciples, and said vnto them, Verely I say vnto you, that this poore widow hath cast more in, then all they which haue cast into the treasury.

44 For they all did cast in of their superfluitie: but shee of her pouerty did cast in all that she had, euen all her lining.

CHAP. XIII.

2 The destruction of Ierusalem. 10 The Gospel shall be preached to all. 9, 21 The persecution and false prophesies which shall be before the coming of Christ, whose howe is vncertaine. 33 Hee exhorteth euery one to watch.

¶ And * as he went out of the Temple, one of his disciples said vnto him, Master, see what stones, and what buildings are here.

2 * Then Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Seeest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone vpon a stone, that shall not be thrown downe.

3 And as he sate on the mount of Oliues, ouer against the Temple, Peter, and Iames, and Iohn, and Andrew asked him secretly, 4 Tell vs, when shall these things be? and what shall be the signe when all these things shall be fulfilled?

5 And Iesus answered them, and began to say, ¶ Take heed least any man deceiue you.

6 For many shall come in my Name, saying, I am Christ, and shall deceiue many.

7 Furthermore when ye shall heare of warres, and rumors of warres, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be: but the end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there shall be earthquakes in diuers quarters, and there shall be famines and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorowes.

9 But take ye heede to your selues: for they shall deliuer you vp to the Councils, and to the Synagogues: ye shall be beaten, and brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimoniall vnto them.

10 And the Gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 ¶ But

Mat. 10. 11 * But when they lead you, and deliuer you vp,
29. Luke take ye no thought afore, neither premeditate what 12. 11. yee shall say: but whatsoever is giuen you at the and 21. same time, that speake: for it is not ye that speake, 24. but the holy Ghost.

12 Yea, and the brother shal deliuer the brother to death, and the father the sonne, and the children shall rise against their parents, and shall cause them to die.

13 And ye shal be hated of al men for my Names sake: but whosoever shall endure vnto the end, he shal be saued.

Mat. 24. 14 * Moreover, when ye shal see the abomination
25. of desolation (spoken of by * Daniel the Prophet)
Mat. 9. 27 [standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth
10. being consider it) * then let them that bee in Iudea flee
Luke 21. into the mountaines.
20. 31.

15 And let him that is vpon the house, not come down into the house, neither enter therein, to fetch any thing out of his house.

16 And let him that is in the field, not turne back againe vnto the things which he left behind him to take his clothes.

17 Then w<sup>o</sup> shalbe to them that are with child, and to them that giue sucke in those dayes,

18 Pray therefore that your flight be not in the winter.

19 For there shall bee in those dayes such tribulation, as was not from the beginning of the creation, which God created vnto this time, neither shalbe.

10. Mat. 20 And except that the Lorde had shortened those dayes, no flesh should be saued: but for the elects sake which he hath chosen, he hath shortened those dayes.

Mat. 24. 21 Then * if any man say to you, Lo, heere is 23. Luke Christ, or Lo, he is there, belecue it not.

21. 8. 22 For false Christes shall arise, and false prophets, and shall shew signes & wonders, to deceiue, if it were possible, the very elect.

23 But seeke ye heed: Behold, I haue shewed you all things before.

Mat. 24. 24 * Moreover * in those daies, after that tribu-
25. Luke lation, the Sunne shall waxe darke, and the Moone
21. 8. shall not giue her light,

25 And the starres of heauen shall fall: and the powers which are in heauen shall shake.

26 And then shall they see the Sonne of man coming in the cloudes, with great power and glory.

Mat. 24. 27 * And he shall then send his Angels, and shall 31. gather together his elect from the foure winds, and from the vtmost part of the earth to the vtmost part of heauen.

28 Now learne a parable of the figtree. When her bough is yet tender, & it bringeth forth leaues, ye know that Summer is neere.

29 So in like manner, when ye see these things come to passe, know that the kingdom of God is nere, even at the dores.

30 Verily I say vnto you, that this generation shall not passe till all these things be done.

31 Heauen and earth shall passe away: but my words shall not passe away.

32 But of that day and houre knoweth no man, no, not the Angels which are in heauen, neither the Sonne himselfe, save the Father.

Mat. 24. 33 * Take heed: watch and pray: for yee know
43. not when the time is.

34 For the Sonne of man is as a man going into a strange countrey, and leaueh his house and giveth authoritie to his servants, and to every man his worke, and commandeth the porter to watch.

35 Watch therefore (for ye know not when the Master of the house will come, at euen, or at midnight, at the cocke crowing, or in the dawning)

36 Lest if he come suddenly, he should find you sleeping.

37 And those things that I say vnto you, I say vnto to all men, Watch.

C H A P. XIII.

1 The Priestes conspire against Christ. 2 Mary Magdalene enoyneth Christ. 12 The Passouer is eaten.
 18 He selleth before of the treason of Iudas. 32 The Lordes Supper is instituted. 46 Christ is taken. 67
 Peter denieth him.

AND * two dayes after followed the feast of the Mat. 26
 Passouer, & of unleavened bread: and the hie 1. 1
 Priestes and Scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not in the feast dayes, lest there be any tumult among the people.

3 * And when he was in Bethania in the house Mat. 26 of Simon the Leper, as he sat at table, there came a 1. 1 woman hauing a boxe of ointment of a Spikenard, [or of very costly, and shee brake the boxe, and powred it on his head.

4 Therefore some disdained among them, Mat. 26
 felas, and said, To what ende is this waste of ointment?

5 For it might haue bene sold for more then three hundred pence, and bene giuen to the poore, and they grudged against her.

6 But Iesus said, I teler alone: why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good worke on me.

7 For ye haue the poore with you alwayes, and when ye will, ye may doe them good, but mee yee shall not haue alwayes.

8 She hath done that she could: shee came aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily I say vnto you, wheresoever this Gospel shalbe preached thoroughout the whole world, this also that she hath done, shalbe spoken of in remembrance of her.

10 * Then Iudas Iscariot one of the twelve, Mat. 26 went away vnto the hie Priestes to betray him vnto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised that they would giue him money: therefore he sought how he might conveniently betray
 him.

12 * Now the first day of unleavened bread, Mat. 26
 when they sacrificed the Passouer, his disciples 1. 1 said vnto him, Where wilt thou that wee go and prepare that thou mayest cate the Passouer?

13 Then he sent forth two of his disciples, and said vnto them, Go ye into the citie, and there shal a man meet you bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And whithersoever he goeth in, say ye to the good man of the house, The master saith, Where is the lodging, where I shall cate the Passouer with my disciples?

15 And hee shall shewe you an vpper chamber which is large, trimmed and prepared: there make it ready for vs.

16 So his disciples went forth, and came to the city, and found as he had said vnto them, and made ready the Passouer.

17 * And at euen he came with the twelve.

18 * And as they sat at table and did eat, Iesus Mat. 26 said, Verily I say vnto you, that one of you shall betray me, which eateth with me.

19 Then they began to be sorowfull, and to say Mat. 26
 one to another, I am not he.

10 him one by one, Is it I? And another, Is it I?
20 And hee answered and sayd vnto them, It is one of the twelue that * dippeth with mee in the 18 platter.

21 * Truly the Sonne of man goeth his way, as it is written of him: but woe bee to that man by whom the Sonne of man is betrayed: it had bene good for that man if he had neuer bene borne.

22 * And as they did eate, Iesus tooke the bread, and when hee had giuen thanks, hee brake it, and gaue it to them, and said, Take, eate, this is my bodie.

23 Also hee tooke the cuppe, and when hee had giuen thanks, gaue it to them: and they all dranke of it.

24 And hee said vnto them, This is my blood of the New Testament, which is shed for many.

25 Verely I say vnto you, I will drinke no more of the fruite of the vine, vntill that day that I drinke it new in the Kingdome of God.

26 And when they had sung a Psalm, they went out to the mount of Oliues.

27 * Then Iesus sayd vnto them, All ye shall be offended by this night: for it is written, * I will smite the shepherd, and the sheepe shall bee scattered.

28 But after that I am risen, I will goe into * Galilee before you.

29 And Peter sayd vnto him, Although all men shall be offended, yet would not I.

30 ¶ Then Iesus said vnto him, Verely I say vnto thee, this day, even in this night, before the cocke crow twice, thou shalt denie me thrise.

31 But hee sayd more earnestly, If I should die with thee, I will not denie thee: likewise also said they all.

32 ¶ After, they came into a place named Gethsemane: then he said to his disciples, Sit ye here till
I haue prayed.

33 And hee tooke with him Peter, and Iames, and Iohn, and he began to be afraid, and in great heau-nesse,

34 And said vnto them, My soule is very heauy
even vnto the death: tary here and watch.

35 So he went forward a little, and fell downe on the ground, and prayed that if it were possible, that houre might passe from him.

36 And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible vnto thee: take away this cup from mee, ne-uerthelesse, not that I will, but that thou wilt, be done.

37 Then he came and found them sleeping, and sayde to Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldst not thou watch one houre?

38 ¶ Watch ye and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is ready, but the flesh is weake.

39 And againe he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.

40 And he returned, and found them asleepe again: for their eies were heauy: neither knew they what they should answer him.

41 And hee came the third time, and said vnto them, Sleepe henceforth, and take your rest: it is enough: the houre is come: behold, the Sonne of man is deliuered into the hands of sinners.

42 Rise vp: let vs goe: loe, hee that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 * And immediately while hee yet spake, came Iudas that was one of the twelue, and with him a great multitude with swordes and staves from the hie Priests and Scribes, and Elders,

44 And hee that betrayed had giuen them a token, saying, Whomsoeuer I shall kisse, hee it is:
take him, and leade him away safely.

45 And assoone as he was come, he went straight way to him, and sayde, Master, Master, and kissed him.

46 Then they layd their hands on him, and took him.

47 And one of them that stood by, drewe out a sword, and smote a seruant of the hie Priest, and cut off his eare.

48 And Iesus answered and said vnto them, Yee be come out as vnto a thiefe, with swordes and with staves to take me.

49 I was daily with you teaching in the Temple, and ye tooke me not: but thus done that the Scriptures should be fulfilled.

50 Then they all forsooke him, and fled.

51 And there followed him a certaine young man clothed in linnen vpon his bare body, and the yong men caught him.

52 But hee left his linnen cloth, and fledde from them naked.

53 * So they led Iesus away to the hie Priest, and to him came all the hie Priests, and the Elders, and the Scribes. *Matth. 26
57, Luke
22, 54.*

54 And Peter followed him afarre off, even into the hall of the hie Priest, and sate with the seruants, 24.
and warmed himselfe at the fire.

55 And the * hie Priests, and all the Councill sought for witness against Iesus to put him to death, *Or, light Matth. 26
55,*
but found none.

56 For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together. Or, were not like.

57 Then there arose certaine, and bare false witnes against him, saying,

58 We heard him say, * I will destroy this Temple made with hands, and within three dayes I will build another made without hands. Iohn 2, 19

59 But their witness yet agreed not together.

60 Then the hie Priest stood vp among the,
and asked Iesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is the matter that these beare witness against thee?

61 But he held his peace, and answered nothing.
Again the hie Priest asked him, & said vnto him,
Art thou Christ the sonne of the Blessed?

62 And Iesus said, I am he, * and ye shall see the Sonne of man sit at the right hand of the power of God, and come in the cloudes of heauen. Mat. 24 30.

63 Then the hie Priest rent his clothes, and said,
What haue we any more need of witnesses?

64 Yee haue heard the blasphemie: what thinke yee? And they all condemned him to bee worthy of death.

65 And some began to spit at him, and to couer his face, and to beat him with fistes, and to say vnto him, Prophesie. And the sergeants smote him with their rods.

66 * And as Peter was beneath in the hall, there came one of the maids of the hie Priest. *Mat. 18
22, 55.*

67 And when the saw Peter warming himselfe, she looked on him, and said, Thou wast also with Iesus of Nazareth. Ioh. 18, 25

68 But he denied it, saying, I know him not, neither wote I what thou saiest. Then he went out into the porch, and the cocke crew. *Or, crow
Mat. 26
71, Luke
22, 58,
Ioh. 18,
25.*

69 * Then a maid saw him againe, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

70 But he denied it againe: and auon after, they that stood by, said againe to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art of Galilee, and thy speech is like,

Iesus led to Pilate.

S. Marke.

He is buried by Ioseph.

Mat. 16. 71 And hee began to curse, and sweare, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speake.
15. Iohn 72 * Then the second time the cocke crew, and Peter remembered the word that Iesus had said vnto him, Before the cocke crow twice, thou shalt denie me thrise, and saying that with himselfe, hee wept.

CHAP. XV.

Mat. 27. 1 Iesus was led to Pilate. 15 He is condemned, reuled and vs to death. 46 And is buried by Ioseph.
13. Iohn And anon in the dawning, the hie Priests held a counsell against the Elders, and the Scribes, and the whole Council, and bound Iesus, and led him away, and deliuered him to Pilate.

12. Iohn 2 Then Pilate asked him, Art thou the king of the Iewes? And he answered, and said vnto him, Thou sayest it.

11. Iohn 3 And the high Priestes accused him of many things.

12. Iohn 4 * Wherefore Pilate asked him againe, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.

13. Iohn 5 But Iesus answered no more at all, so that Pilate marvelled.

14. Iohn 6 Now at the feast Pilate did deliuer a prisoner vnto them whomsoever they would desire.

15. Iohn 7 Then there was one named Barabbas, which was bound with his fellowes, that had made insurrection, who in the insurrection had committed murder.

16. Iohn 8 And the people cryed aloud, and began to desire that he would doe as hee had euer done vnto them.

17. Iohn 9 Then Pilate answered them, and said, Wil ye that I let loose vnto you the king of the Iewes?

18. Iohn 10 For he knew that the hie Priests had deliuered him of enuie.

19. Iohn 11 But the hie Priests had moued the people to desire that he would rather deliuer Barabbas vnto them.

20. Iohn 12 And Pilate answered, and said againe vnto them, What will ye then that I do with him, whom ye call the king of the Iewes?

21. Iohn 13 And they cried againe, Crucifie him.

22. Iohn 14 Then Pilate saide vnto them, But what euill hath he done? And they cried the more feruently, Crucifie him.

23. Iohn 15 So Pilate willing to content the people, loosed them Barabbas, & deliuered Iesus when he had scourged him, that he might be crucified.

24. Iohn 16 Then the souldiers ledde him away into the hal, which is the common hal, and called together the whole band,

25. Iohn 17 And clad him with purple, & platted a crown of thornes, and put it about his head, 26. Iohn 18 And began to salute him, saying, Haile king of the Iewes.

27. Iohn 19 And they smote him on his head with a reed, and spat vpon him, and bowed their knees, and did him reuerence.

28. Iohn 20 And when they had mocked him, they tooke the purple off him, and put his owne clothes on him, and led him out to crucifie him.

29. Iohn 21 * And they compelled one that passed by, called Simon of Cyrene (which came out of the country, and was father of Alexander and Rufus) to beare his crosse.

30. Iohn 22 * And they brought him to a place named Golgotha, which is by interpretation the place of dead mens sculles.

31. Iohn 23 And they gaue him to drinke wine mingled with myrrhe: but he receiued it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments casting lots for them, what euer man should haue.

25 And it was the third houre when they crucified him.

26 And the title of his cause was written aboue, THE KING OF THE IEWEES.

27 They crucified also with him two theeues, the one on the right hand, and the other on his left.

28 Thus the Scripture was fulfilled, which saith, * And he was counted among the wicked.

29 And they that went by, railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, * Hey, thou that destroyest the Temple, and buildest it in three dayes, 30 Saue thy selfe, and come downe from the crosse.

31 Likewise also euen the hie Priests mocking, said among themselues with the Scribes, He saued other men, himselfe he cannot saue.

32 Let Christ the King of Israel now come down from the Crosse, that wee may see and beleue. They also that were crucified with him, reuled him.

33 ¶ Now when the sixth houre was come, darknes arose ouer all the land vntill the ninth houre.

34 And at the ninth houre, Iesus cryed with a loude voyce, saying, * Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is by interpretation, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elias.

36 And one ran, and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gaue him to drink, saying, Let him alone: let vs see if Elias will come and take him downe.

37 And Iesus cried with a loud voyce, and gaue vp the ghost.

38 ¶ And the vail of the Temple was rent in twaine from the top to the bottome.

39 Now when the Centurion which stood ouer against him, saw that he thus crying, gaue vp the ghost, hee said, Truely this man was the sonne of God.

40 ¶ There were also women, which beheld afarre off, among whome was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of Iames the lesse, & of Ioses, and Salome, 41 Which also when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministred vnto him, and many other women which came vp with him vnto Ierusalem.

42 ¶ And now when night was come, (because it was the day of the preparation, that is before the Sabbath)

43 Ioseph of Arimathea, an honourable counsellor, which also looked for the kingdome of God, came, and went in boldly vnto Pilate, and asked the body of Iesus.

44 And Pilate marvelled, if hee were already dead, and called vnto him the Centurion, & asked of him, whether he had been any while dead.

45 And when he knew the truth of the Centurion, he gaue the body to Ioseph, 46 Who bought a linnen cloth, and tooke him down, and wrapped him in the linnen cloth, & laid him in a tombe that was hewen out of a rocke, and rolled a stone vnto the doore of the sepulchre.

47 And Mary Magdalene, and Mary Ioses mother beheld where he should be laid.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The women come to the grave. 9 Christ being risen againe appeareth to Magdalene. 14 Also to the eleven, and reprooueth their unbelief. 16 Hee cometh missteth the preaching of the Gospel, and the ministracion of the baptisme vnto them.

And * when the Sabbath day was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of Iames, and Salome, bought sweet ointments, that they might come and embalme him.

2 Therefore early in the morning the first day of the weeke, they came vnto the sepulchre, when the Sunne was yf yet rising,

3 And they said one to another, Who shall roll vs away the stone from the doore of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they sawe that the stone was rolled away (for it was a very great one)

5 * So they went into the sepulchre, and saw a yong man sitting at the right side, clothed in a long white robe: and they were afraid.

6 But he said vnto them, Be not afraid: ye seeke Iesus of Nazareth, which hath been crucified: hee is risen: he is not here: beholde the place where they put him.

7 But goe your way, and tell his disciples, and Peter, that he will go before you into Galile: there shall ye see him, * as he said vnto you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fledde from the sepulchre: for they trembled, and were amazed: neither said .hey any thing to any man: for they were afraid.

9 * And when Iesus was risen againe, in the morrow, (which was the first day of the weeke) hee appeared first to Mary Magdalene, * out of whom hee had cast seven deuils.

10 And he went and told them that had beene with him, which mourned and wept.

11 And when they heard that he was aliue, and had appeared to her, they beleued it not.

12 * After that, he appeared vnto two of them Luke 24 in another forme, as they walked and went into the 13, 13. country.

13 And they went, and tolde it to the remnaue, but they beleued them not.

14 * Finally he appeared vnto the eleuen as Luke 24 they fate together, and reprooued them of their 36 ioh. 10, 19. vnbeliefe and hardnesse of heart, because they beleued not them which had seene him, being risen vp againe.

15 And hee said vnto them, * Goe yee into all Matt. 28 the world, and preach the Gospel to euery crea- 19. ture.

16 He that shall beleue, and be baptized, shall be saued: * but hee that will not beleue, shall bee damned. 10. 13. 48.

17 And these tokens shall follow them that beleue, * In my Name they shall cast out deuils, and * shall speake with new tongues, Act. 16, 18.

18 * And shall take away serpents, and if they shall drinke any deadly thing it shall not hurt them: * they shall lay their hands on the sicke, and they shall recouer. Act. 28. 3.

19 * So after the Lord had spoken vnto them, he was receiued into heauen, and sate at the right hand of God. Luke 24. 31.

20 And they went forth, & preached euery where. And the * Lord wrought with them, and confirmed the word with signes that followed, Heb. 4. 4. A M E N.

THE HOLY GOSPEL OF IESVS CHRIST, according to Luke.

CHAP. I.

5 Of Zacharias and Elizabeth. 11 The Angel sheweth him of the natiuite of Iohn Baptist. 20 His incredulitie is punished. 28 The talke of the Angel and Mary. 46 Her song. 74 The birch, circumcision, and graces of Iohn. 68 Zacharias giueth thanks to God, and prophesieth.

Insomuch as many haue take in hand to set forth the storie of those things, whereof we are fully perswaded, 2 As they haue deliuered them vnto vs, which from the beginning saw them their selues, and were ministers of the word:

3 It seemed good also to me (most noble Theophilus) as soone as I had searched out perfectly all things from the beginning, to write vnto thee thereof from point to point,

4 That thou mightest acknowledge the certaintie of those things whereof thou hast beene instructed.

5 In the time of Herod king of Iudea, there was a certaine Priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth.

6 Both were iust before God, and walked in all the commandements and ordinances of the Lord without reproofe.

7 And they had no child, because that Elizabeth was barren: and both were well stricken in age.

8 And it came to passe as he executed his Priests office before God, as his course came in order,

9 According to the custome of the Priests of Abie, his lot was to burne incense, when he went into the Temple of the Lord.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were without in prayer, * while the incense was burning.

11 Then appeared vnto him an Angel of the Lord, Exo. 30. 2 standing at the right side of the altar of incense. Leuit. 16.

12 And when Zacharias saw him, hee was troubled, and feare fell vpon him.

13 But the Angel said vnto him, Feare not Zacharias, for thy prayer is heard, and thy wife Elizabeth shall beare thee a sonne, and thou shalt call his name Iohn.

14 And thou shalt haue ioy and gladnesse, and many shall reioyce at his birth.

15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall neither drinke wine nor strong drinke: and he shall be filled with the holy Ghost, euen from his mothers wombe.

16 * And many of the children of Israel shall he turne to their Lord God. Matt. 4. 5, 6.

17 * For he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turne the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wise dome of the iust men, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord. Matt. 11. 14.

11 Then Zacharias said vnto the Angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife is of a great age.

19 And the Angel answered, and said vnto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God, & am sent to speake vnto thee, and to shew thee these good tidings.

20 And behold, thou shalt be dumbe, and not be able to speake, vntill the day that these things be done, done, because thou beleuedest not my words, which shalbe fulfilled in their season.

21 Now the people waited for Zecharias, and marueiled that he taried so long in the Temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speake vnto them: then they perceived that he had seene a vision in the Temple: for hee made signes vnto them, and remained dumbe.

23 And it came to passe, when the dayes of his office were fulfilled, that hee departed to his owne house.

24 And after those daies, his wife Elizabeth conceived, and hid her selfe sixe moneths, saying, 25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with mee, in the dayes wherein hee looked on mee, to take from me my rebuke among men.

26 ¶ And in the sixth moneth, the Angel Gabriel was sent from God vnto a citie of Galilee, named Nazaret, 27 To a virgine affianced to a man whose name was Ioseph, of the house of Dauid, and the virgines name was Mary.

28 And the Angel went in vnto her, and sayde, Hail thee that art freely beloued, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, shee was troubled at his saying, and thought what manner of salutation that should be.

30 Then the Angel said vnto her, Feare not Mary: for thou hast found fauour with God.

31 ¶ For loe, thou shalt conceive in thy wombe, and beare a Sonne, and shalt call his Name IESVS.

32 Hee shalbe great, and shalbe called the sonne of the most High, and the Lord God shal giue vnto him the throne of his father Dauid, 33 ¶ And he shal reigne ouer the house of Iacob for euer, and of his kingdome shalbe none end.

34 Then sayd Mary vnto the Angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not man?

35 And the Angel answered, and sayd vnto her, The holy Ghost shall come vpon thee, & the power of the most High shall ouershadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be borne of thee, shall be called the Sonne of God.

36 And behold, thy cousin Elizabeth, shee hath also conceived a sonne in her olde age, and this is her sixth moneth, which was called barren.

37 For with God shall nothing be vnpossible.

38 Then Mary said, Behold the seruant of the Lord: be it vnto me according to thy word. So the Angel departed from her.

39 ¶ And Mary arose in those dayes, and went into the hill countrey with haste to a citie of Iudah, 40 And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elizabeth.

41 And it came to passe, as Elizabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe sprang in her belly, & Elizabeth was filled with the holy Ghost.

42 And she cryed with a loud voyce, and sayd, Blessed art thou among women, because the fruite of thy wombe is blessed.

43 And whence cometh this to mee, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

44 For lo, alosome as the voyce of thy salutation sounded in mine eares, the babe sprang in my belly for ioy, 45 And blessed is shee that beleued: for those things shall be performed, which were told her from the Lord.

46 Then Mary said, My soule magnifieth the Lord,

47 And my spirit reioyceth in God my Saniour.

48 For he hath looked on the poore degree of his seruant: for behold, from henceforth shall all say, ages call me blessed.

49 Because he that is mighty hath done for mee great things, and holy is his Name.

50 And his mercy is from generation to generation on them that feare him.

51 ¶ Hee hath shewed strength with his arme: hee hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

52 Hee hath put downe the mightie from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

53 ¶ Hee hath filled the hungry with good things, and sent away the rich empty.

54 ¶ Hee hath vpholden Israel his seruant, being mindful of his mercie, 55 ¶ (As he hath spoken to our fathers, so will he do to Abraham and his seed) for euer.

56 ¶ And Mary abode with her about three moneths: after she returned to her owne house.

57 ¶ Now Elizabeths time was fulfilled that she should be deliuered, and she brought forth a sonne.

58 And her neighbours and cousins heard tell how the Lord had shewed his great mercie vpon her, and they reioyced with her.

59 And it was so, that on the eighth day, Zacharias came to circumcise the babe, and called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 But his mother answered and sayd, Not so, but he shalbe called Iohn.

61 And they sayd vnto her, There is none of thy kindred that is named with this name.

62 Then they made signes to his father, how hee would haue him called.

63 So he asked for writing tables, and wrote, saying, His name is Iohn: and they marueiled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake and praised God.

65 Then feare came on all them that dwelt nere vnto them, and all these words were noised abroad throwout all the hill countrey of Iudea.

66 And all they that heard them, layd them vp in their hearts, saying, What manner child shall this be! and the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 Then his father Zacharias was filled with the holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying,

68 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, because he hath visited & redeemed his people,

69 ¶ And hath raised vp the horne of saluation vnto vs in the house of his seruant Dauid,

70 ¶ As he spake by the mouth of his holy Prophets, which were since the world began, saying,

71 That he would send vs deliuerance from our enemies, and from the hands of all that hate vs,

72 That he would shew mercie towards our fathers, and remember his holy Couenant, 73 ¶ And the oath which hee sware to our father Abraham:

74 Which was that he would grant vnto vs, that we being deliuered out of the hands of our enemies should serue him without feare

75 All the dayes of our life, in holiness and righteousness before him.

76 And thou babe shalt be called the Prophet of the most High: for thou shalt goe before the face of the Lord to prepare his wayes, 77 And to giue knowledge of saluation vnto his people by the remission of their finnes,

78 Through the tender mercie of our God, whereby the day spring from an high hath visited vs,

79 To giue light to them that sit in darknesse, and

CHAP. II.

7 The birth and circumcision of Christ. 22 He was receiued into the Temple. 28 Simeon and Anna prophesie of him. 46 Her was found among the doctours, 51 His obedience to father and mother.

And it came to passe in those dayes, that there came a commandement from Augustus Cesar, that all the world should be taxed.

2 (This first taxing was made when Cyrenius was gouernour of Syria)

3 Then there went all to be taxed, euery man to his owne citie.

4 And Ioseph also went vpo from Galile, out of a citie called Nazaret, into Iudea, vnto the citie of ¶ Danid, which is called Bethlehem (because hee was of the house and linage of Dauid)

5 To bee taxed with Mary that was giuen him to wife which was with child.

6 ¶ And so it was, that while they were there, the dayes were accomplished, that she should be deliuered.

7 And shee brought forth her first begotten Sonne, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and layed him in a cratch, because there was no room for them in the Inn.

8 ¶ And there were in the same country, shepherds abiding in the field, and keeping watch by night, because of their flocke.

9 And loe, the Angel of the Lord came vpon them, and the glory of the Lord shone about them, and they were sore afraid.

10 Then the Angel said vnto them, Be not afraid: for behold, I bring you tidings of great ioy, that shall be to all the people:

11 That is, that vnto you is borne this day in the citie of Dauid a Saviour which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a signe to you, Yee shall find the child swaddled, and laid in a cratch.

13 And straightway there was with the Angel a multitude of heauenly Souldiers, praising God, and saying, 14 Glory be to God in the heauiens, and peace in earth, and towards men good will.

15 And it came to passe when the Angels were gone away from them into heauen, that the shepherds said one to another, Let vs goe then vnto Beth lehem, & see this thing that is come to passe, which the Lord hath shewed vnto vs.

16 So they came with haste, and found both Marie and Ioseph, and the babe laid in the cratch.

17 And when they had seene it, they published abroad the thing, which was tolde them of that childe.

18 And all that heard it, wondered at the things which were told them of the Shepherds.

19 But Mary kept all those sayings, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the Shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God, for all that they had heard and seene, as it was spoken vnto them.

21 ¶ And when the eight dayes were accomplished, that they should circumcise the child, his Name was then called * I E S V S, which was named of the Angel before he was conceived in the wombe.

22 ¶ And when the dayes of her purification after the Law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Ierusalem, to present him to the Lord,

23 (As it is written in the Law of the Lord, * Exo. 13. 1. euery manchild [that first] openeth the wombe, shall be called holy to the Lord:)

24 And to giue an oblation, * as it is commanded in the law of the Lord, a paire of turtle doves, or two yong pigeons.

25 And behold, there was a man in Ierusalem, whose name was Simeon: this man was iust, and feared God, and waite d for the consolation of Israel, and the holy Ghost was vpon him.

26 And a reuelation was giuen him of the holy Ghost, that he should not see death, before hee had seene the Lords [Christ].

27 And hee came [by the motion of the spirit] into the Temple, and when the parents brought in the child Iesus, to doe for him after the custome of the Law,

28 Then he tooke him in his armes, and praised God, and said,

29 Lord, now lettest thou thy seruant depart in peace, according to thy word:

30 For mine eyes haue seene thy Saluation,

31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people:

32 A light [to be reueiled] to the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

33 And Ioseph and his mother marueiled at those things which were spoken touching him.

34 And Simeon blessed them, and said vnto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is appointed for the * fall and rising againe of many in Israel, and for a signe which shall be spoken against,

35 (Yea and a sword shall pearce thorow thy soule): that the thoughts of many hearts may be opened.

36 And there was a Prophetesse, one Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser, which was of a great age, and had liued with an husband seuen yeeres from her virginity.

37 And shee was widow about fourescore and foure yeeres, and went not out of the Temple, but serued God with fastings and prayers night and day.

38 Shee then coming at the same instant vpon them, [confessed likewise] the Lord, and spake of him to all that looked for redemption in Ierusalem.

39 And when they had performed all things according to the Law of the Lord, they returned into Galile to their owne citie Nazaret.

40 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was with him.

41 ¶ Now his parents went to Ierusalem euery yeere * at the feast of the Passouer.

42 And when he was twelue yeere old, and they were come vp to Ierusalem, after the custome of Feast,

43 And had finished the dayes thereof, as they returned, the childe Iesus remained in Ierusalem, and Ioseph knew not, nor his mother, 44 But they supposing that he had beene in the company, went a dayes iourney, and sought him among their kinsfolke and acquaintance.

45 And when they found him not, they turned backe to Ierusalem, and sought him.

46 And it came to passe three dayes after, that they found him in the Temple, sitting in the mids of the [doctours], both hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 And all that heard him, were astonished at his understanding and answers.

48 So when they saw him, they were amazed, and his mother laid vnto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with vs? behold, thy father and I haue sought thee with heauie hearts.

49 Then said he vnto them, How is it that yee sought me? knew yee not that I must goe about my fathers businesse?

50 But they vnderstood not the word that hee spake to them.

51 Then hee went downe with them, and came to Nazaret, and was subiect to them, and his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

52 And Iesus increased in wisdom, and stature, and in fauour with God and men.

CHAP. III.

5 The preaching, baptisme, and imprisonment of John. 15 He is thought to be Christ. 21 Christ is baptized. 23 His age and genealogie.

Now in the fifteenth yere of the reigne of Tiberius Cesar, Pontius Pilate being gouernour of Iudea, and Herod being Tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip Tetrarch of Iturea, and of the countrey of Trachonitis, and Lyfanius the Tetrarch of Abilene,

2 (*When Annas and Caiaphas were the high priests) the word of God came vnto Iohn, the sonne of Zacharias in the wilderness.

3 *And hee came into all the coasts about Iordan, preaching the baptisme of repentance for the remission of finnes.

4 As it is written in the booke of the sayings of Esaias the Prophet, which faith, *The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness is, Prepare ye the way of the Lord: make his paths straight.

5 Euery valley shalbe filled, and euery mountain and hill shall be brought low, and crooked things shall be made straight, and the rough wayes shall be made smooth.

6 And all flesh shall see the saluation of God.

7 Then said hee to the people that were come out to be baptized of him, *O generations of vipers, who hath forewarned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy amendment of life, and begin now to say with your selues, Wee haue Abraham to our father: for I say vnto you, that God is able of these stoues to raise vp children vnto Abraham.

9 Now also is the axe laid vnto the root of the trees: therefore euery tree which bringeth not forth good fruit, shall be hewen downe, and cast into the fire.

10 ¶ Then the people asked him, saying, What shall we doe then?

11 And he answered, and said vnto them. *Hee that hath two coates, let him part with him that hath none: and hee that hath meate, let him doe likewise.

12 Then came there Publicanes also to be baptized, and said vnto him, Master, what shall we doe?

13 And hee said vnto them, Require no more then that which is appointed vnto you.

14 The souldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we doe? And hee said vnto them, Doe violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely, and be content with your wages.

15 As the people waited, and all men mused in their hearts of Iohn, if he were not the Christ,

16 Iohn answered and said vnto them all, *In deed I baptize you with water, but one stronger then I cometh, whose shoos latcher I am not worthy to vnloose: hee will baptize you with the holy Ghost, and with fire.

17 *Whose fanne is in his hand, and hee will make cleane his floore, and will gather the wheate into his garner, but the chaffe will he burne vp with fire that neuer shall be quenched.

18 Thus then exhorting with many other things, hee preached vnto the people.

19 *But when Herode the Tetrarch was rebuked of him for Herodias his brother Philips wife, and for all the euils which Herod had done, 20 He added yet this about all, that he shut vp Iohn in prison.

21 *Now it came to passe, as all the people were baptized, and that Iesus was baptized & did pray, that the heauen was opened:

22 And the holy Ghost came downe in a bodily shap like a doue vpon him, and there was a voice from heauen, saying, Thou art my beloued Sonne: in thee I am well pleased.

23 ¶ And Iesus himselfe began to be about thirtie yeeres of age, being as men supposed, the sonne of Ioseph, which was the sonne of Eli.

24 The sonne of Marthas, the sonne of Leui, the sonne of Melchi, the sonne of Ianna, the son of Ioseph, 25 The sonne of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the sonne of Naum, the sonne of Eli, the sonne of Nagee, 26 The sonne of Maath, the sonne of Mattathias, the sonne of Simee, the sonne of Ioseph, the sonne of Iuda, 27 The sonne of Ioanna, the sonne of Rhesa, the sonne of Zorobabel, the sonne of Salathiel, the sonne of Neri, 28 The sonne of Melchi, the son of Addi, the sonne of Cosam, the sonne of Elmodam, the sonne of Er,

29 The sonne of Iose, the sonne of Eliezer, the sonne of Iorim, the sonne of Marthas, the sonne of Leui, 30 The sonne of Simeon, the son of Iuda, the sonne of Ioseph, the sonne of Ionan, the sonne of Eliacin, 31 The sonne of Meleaz, the sonne of Mainan, the sonne of Mattatha, the sonne of Nathan, the sonne of David,

32 The sonne of Iesse, the sonne of Obed, the sonne of Booz, the sonne of Salmon, the sonne of Naasson, 33 The sonne of Aminadab, the son of Aram, the sonne of Elifrom, the sonne of Pharez, the son of Iuda, 34 The sonne of Iacob, the sonne of Isaac, the sonne of Abraham, the son of Thara, the sonne of Nachor, 35 The sonne of Saruch, the sonne of Ragau, the sonne of Phalec, the sonne of Eber, the sonne of Sala, 36 The sonne of Cainan, the son of Arphaxad, the sonne of Sem, the sonne of Noe, the son of Lamech, 37 The sonne of Mathusala, the sonne of Enoch, the sonne of Jared, the sonne of Malceel, the sonne of Cainan, 38 The sonne of Enos, the sonne of Seth, the sonne of Adam, the sonne of God.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Iesus is led into the wilderness to be tempted.

13 He ouercometh the deuill. 14 Hee goeth into Galilee, 16 preacheth at Nazaret, and Capernaum.

22 The Iewes despise him. 38 Hee cometh into Peters house, and healeth his mother in law. 41 The deuils acknowledge Christ 43 Hee preacheth in Ierusalem.

44 Hee cometh into Nazaret, and healeth many.

45 Hee cometh into Capernaum, and healeth many.

46 Hee cometh into Ierusalem, and healeth many.

47 Hee cometh into Ierusalem, and healeth many.

48 Hee cometh into Ierusalem, and healeth many.

49 Hee cometh into Ierusalem, and healeth many.

50 Hee cometh into Ierusalem, and healeth many.

when they were ended, he afterward was hungry.

3 Then the deuill sayd vnto him, If thou bee the sonne of God, commaund this stone that it bee made bread.

4 But Iesus answered him, saying, It is written, *That man shall not liue by bread onely, but by every word of God.

5 Then the deuill tooke him vp into an high mountaine, and shewed him all the kingdomes of the world in the twinkling of an eye.

6 And the deuill said vnto him, All this power will I giue thee, and the glory of those kingdomes: for that is deliuered to mee: and to whomsoeuer I will, I giue it.

7 If thou therefore wilt worship me, they shall be all thine.

8 But Iesus answered him, & said, Hence from me, Satan: for it is written, *Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him alone thou shalt serue.

9 Then he brought him to Ierusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the Temple, and said vnto him, If thou be the Sonne of God, cast thy selfe downe from hence.

10 For it is written, *That he will giue his Angels charge ouer thee, to keepe thee:

11 And with their hands they shall lift thee vp, lest at any time thou shouldst fall: thy foot shall not slip on a stone.

12 And Iesus answered, and said vnto him, It is said, *I thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the deuill had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season.

14 ¶ And Iesus returned by the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and there went a fame of him throughout all the region round about:

15 For he taught in their Synagogues, and was honoured of all men.

16 ¶ And he came to Nazaret where he had bin brought vp, and (as his custome was) went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood vp to reade.

17 And there was deliuered vnto him the book of the Prophet Esaias: and when hee had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

18 *The Spirit of the Lord is vpon me, because hee hath anoynted mee, that I should preach the Gospel to the poore, he hath sent me that I should heale the broken hearted, that I should preach deliuerance to the captiues, and recouering of sight to the blinde, that I should set at libertie them that are bruiſed, 19 And that I should preach the acceptable yere of the Lord.

20 And he closed the booke, and gaue it againe to the Minister and sat downe: and the eyes of all that were in the Synagogue were fastened on him.

21 Then he began to say vnto them, This day is this Scripture fulfilled in your eares.

22 And all bare him witnes, and wondred at the gracious wordes that proceeded out of his mouth, and said, Is not this Iosephs sonne?

23 Then he sayd vnto them, Yee will surely say vnto me this prouerbe, Philiscian, heale thy selfe: whatsoeuer we haue heard done in Capernaum, do it here likewise in thine owne country.

24 And he said, Verely I say vnto you, *No Prophet is accepted in his owne country.

25 But I tel you of a trueth, many widowers were in Israel in the dayes of * Elias, when heauen was shut three yeeres and sixe moneths, when great famine was throughout all the land.

26 But vnto none of them was Elias sent, saue into Sarepta a ciste of Sidon vnto a certaine widow.

27 Also many lepers were in Israel in the time of *Elicus the Prophet: yet none of them was made cleane, sauing Naaman the Syrian.

28 Then all that were in the Synagogue, when they heard it, were filled with wrath, 29 And rose vp, and thrust him out of the citie, and led him vnto the edge of the hill, whereon their citie was built, to cast him downe headlong.

30 But he passed thorow the mids of them, and went his way.

31 ¶ And came downe into Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and there taught them on the Sabbath dayes.

32 * And they were astonied at his doctrine: for his word was with authoritie.

33 And in the Synagogue there was a man which had a spirit of an vnclene deuill, which cried with a loud voice, 34 Saying, Oh, what haue we to doe with thee, thou Iesus of Nazaret? Art thou come to destroy vs? I knowe who thou art, euen the Holy one of God.

35 And Iesus rebuked him, saying, Holde thy peace, and come out of him. Then the deuill throwing him in the mids of them, came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 So feare came on them all, and they spake among themselves, saying, What thing is this? for with authoritie and power hee commaundeth the foule spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him spread abroad thorowout all the places of the country round about.

38 ¶ And he rose vp and came out of the Synagogue, and entred into Simons house. And Simons wifes mother was taken with a great feuer, and they required him for her.

39 Then he stood ouer her, and rebuked the feuer, and it left her: and immediatly she arose, and ministrd vnto them.

40 Now, when the Sunne was downe, all they that had sicke sorte of diuers diseases, brought them vnto him, and hee layed his hands on euery one of them, and healed them.

41 * And deuils also came out of many, crying, and saying, Thou art the Christ, the Sonne of God: 34.

but he rebuked them, and suffered them not to say that they knew him to be the Christ.

42 And when it was day he departed, and went forth into a desert place, and the people sought him, and came to him, and kept him, that he should not depart from them.

43 But hee said vnto them, Surely I must also preach the kingdome of God to other cities: for therefore am I sent.

44 And he preached in the Synagogues of Galilee.

CHAP. V.

1 Christ preacheth out of the shippe. 6 The great draught of fish. 10 Certaine disciples are called. 12 Hee cleanseth the Leper. 18 Hee healeth the man of the palsey. 27 Hee calleth Matthew the Customes, 30 eateth with sinners, 34 and exorciseth him, as touching fasting.

Then * it came to passe, as the people pressed vpon him to heare the word of God, that hee stood by the lake of Gennesaret,

2 And saw two ships stand by the lakes side, but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And hee entred into one of the ships, which was Simons, and required him that he would thrust off a little from the land: and hee sat downe, and taught which had the withered hand, Arise and stand vp in the mids. And he arose, and stood vp.

9 Then said Iesus vnto them, I will aske you a question, Whether is it lawfull on the Sabbath dayes to doe good, or to doe euill? to saue life, or to destroy it?

10 And he beheld them all in compasse, and said vnto the man, Stetch forth thine hand. And hee did so: and his hand was restored againe as whole as the other.

11 Then they were filled full of madnesse, and communed one with another, what they might do to Iesus.

12 ¶ And it came to passe in the dayes that he went into a mountaine to pray, and spent the night in prayer to God.

13 ¶ And when it was day, he called his disciples, and of them he chose twelue, which also hee called Apostles.

14 (Simon, whom he named also Peter, and Andrew his brother, James, and Iohn, Philip, and Bartholomew, 15 Matthew, and Thomas, James the sonne of Alphaeus, and Simon called Zealous:

16 Iudas James brother, & Iudas Iscariot, which also was the traitour.)

17 Then he came downe with them, and stood in a plaine place, with the companie of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Iudea and Ierusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyrus and Sidon, which came to heare him, and to bee healed of their diseases:

18 And they that were vexed with foule spirits, and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went vertue out of him, and healed them all.

20 ¶ And he lifted vp his eyes vpon his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poore: for yours is the kingdom of God.

21 * Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be satisfied: blessed are ye that weepe now: for ye shall laugh.

22 * Blessed are ye when men hate you, & when they separate you and reuile you, and put out your name as euill for the Sonne of mans sake.

23 Reioyce ye in that day and be glad: for behold, your reward is great in heauen: for after this manner their fathers did to the Prophets.

24 * But woe be to you that are rich: for ye haue received your consolation.

25 * Woe be to you that are full: for ye shall hunger. Woe be to you that now laugh: for ye shall waile and weepe.

26 Woe be to you when all men speakewell of you: for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

27 ¶ But I say vnto you which heare, Love your enemies: doe well to them which hate you.

28 Blesse them that curse you, and pray for them which hurt you.

29 * And vnto him that smiteth thee on the one cheeke, offer also the other: * and him that taketh away thy cloke, forbid not to take thy coat also.

30 Giue to euery man that asketh of thee: and of him that taketh away thy goods, aske them not againe.

31 * And as yee would that men should doe to you, so doe ye to them likewise.

32 * For if ye loue them which loue you, what thanke shall yee haue? for euen the sinners loue those that loue them.

33 And if ye doe good for them which doe good for you, what thanke shall yee haue? for euen the sinners doe the same.

34 * And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receiue, what thanke shall ye haue? for euen the sinners lend to sinners, to receiue the like.

35 Wherefore, loue your enemies, and doe good, and lend, looking for nothing againe, and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the most * High: for hee is kind vnto the vnkind, and to the euill.

36 Be ye therefore mercifull, as your Father also is mercifull.

37 * Iudge not, and ye shall not be iudged: condemn not, and ye shall not bee condemned: forgive and ye shall be forgiven.

38 Giue, and it shall be giuen vnto you: * a good measure, pressed downe, shaken together and running ouer shall men giue into your belome: for with what measure yee mete, with the same shall men mete to you againe.

39 And he spake a parable vnto them, * Can the blind leade the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch?

40 * The discipile is not aboue his master: but whosoever will be a perfect discipile, shall be as his master.

41 ¶ And why seekest thou a mote in thy brothers eye, and considerest not the beame that is in thine owne eye?

42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let mee pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou seekest not the beame that is in thine owne eye? Hypocrite, cast out the beame out of thine owne eye first, and then shalt thou see perfectly to pull out the mote that is in thy brothers eye.

43 ¶ For it is not a good tree that bringeth forth euill fruit: neither an euill tree that bringeth forth good fruit.

44 * For euery tree is knowne by his owne fruit: * for neither of thornes gather men figges, nor of baines gather they grapes.

45 A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth good, and an euill man out of the euill treasure of his heart bringeth forth euill: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

46 ¶ But why call ye me Master, Master, and doe not the things that I speake?

47 Whosoever commeth to me and heareth my words, and doth the same, I will salue him: whom he is like.

48 He is like a man which built an house, and digged deepe, and layd the foundation on a rocke: and when the waters arose, the flood beat vpon that house, and could not shake it: for it was grounded vpon a rocke.

49 But hee that heareth and doeth not, is like a man that built an house vpon the earth without foundation, against which the flood did beat, and it fell by and by: and the fall of that house was great.

CHAP. VII.

2 He healeth the captaines seruants. 11 He riseth up the widower from death to life. 19 He answereth the disciples whome Iohn Baptist sent vnto him. 24 He commendeth Iohn, 31 and reprooeth the Iewes for their unfaithfulness. 36 Hee eateth with the Pharise. 37 The woman washeth his feet with her teares, and be forgiveth her sinnes.

W Hen * he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entred into Capernaum:

2 And a certaine Centurions seruant was sicke and ready to die, which was deare vnto him.

3 And when he heard of Iesus, he sent vnto him the Elders of the Iewes, beseeching him that hee would come and heale his seruant.

4 So they came to Iesus, and besought him instantly, saying that hee was worthy that he should doe this for him.

5 For he loueth, say they, our nation, and he hath built vs a Synagogue.

6 Then Iesus went with them: but when he was now not farre from the house, the Centurion sent friends to him, saying vnto him, Lord, trouble not thy selfe: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter vnder my rooffe.

7 Wherefore I thought not my selfe worthy to come vnto thee: but say the word, and my seruant shall be whole.

8 For I likewise am a man set vnder authority, and haue vnder me souldiers, and I say vnto one, Goe, and he goeth: and to another, Come, and he cometh: and to my seruant, Doe this, and hee doeth it.

9 When Iesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him, and said to the people that followed him, I say vnto you, I haue not found so great faith, no not in Israel.

10 And when they that were sent turned backe to the house, they found the seruant that was sicke, whole.

11 And it came to passe the day after, that hee went into a citie called Nain, and many of his disciples went with him, and a great multitude.

12 Now when hee came neere to the gate of the citie, beholde, there was a dead man caried out, who was the onely begotten sonne of his mother, which was a widow, and much people of the citie was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said vnto her, Weepe not.

Or, here. 14 And hee went and touched the coffin (and they that bare him stood still) and he said, Young man, I say vnto thee, Arise.

15 And he that was dead sat vp, and began to speake, and he deliuered him to his mother.

16 Then there came a feare on them all, & they glorified God, saying, A great Prophet is raised vp among vs, and God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth thorowout all Iudea, and thorowout all the region round about.

18 ¶ And the disciples of Iohn shewed him of all these things.

19 So Iohn called vnto him two certaine men of his disciples, and sent them to Iesus, saying, Art thou he that should come, or shall we wait for another?

20 And when the men were come vnto him, they said, Iohn Baptiste hath sent vs vnto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come, or shall we wait for another?

21 And at that time he cured many of their sicknesses, and plagues, and of euil spirits, and vnto many blind men he gaue sight.

22 And Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Goe your wayes, and shew Iohn what things yee haue seene and heard: that the blind see, the halt go, the lepers are cleansed, the deafe heare, the dead rise againe, and the poore receiue the Gospel, 23 And blessed is he that shall not be offended in me.

24 And when the messengers of Iohn were departed, he began to speake vnto the people of Iohn, What went ye out into the wildernesse to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and liue delicately, are in kings courts.

26 But what went ye forth to see? A Prophet? yea, I say to you, and greater then a Prophet.

27 This is he, of whom it is written, * Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say vnto you, There is no greater Prophet then Iohn among them that are begotten of women: neuertheless, hee that is the least in the kingdome of God, is greater then he.

29 Then all the people that heard, and the Publicanes, iustified God, being baptised with the Baptisme of Iohn.

30 But the Pharisees and the expounders of the Law, despised the counsell of God against themselves, and were not baptised of him.

31 * And the Lord said, Whereunto shall I liken the men of this generation? and what thing are they like vnto?

32 They are like vnto children sitting in the market place, & crying one to another, and saying, We haue piped vnto you, and ye haue not danced: we haue mourned to you, and ye haue not wept.

33 For Iohn Baptiste came, neither eating bread nor drinking wine: and ye say, He hath the deuill.

34 The Sonne of man is come, and eateth and driuketh: and ye say, Behold, a man which is a glutton, and a drinker of wine, a friend of Publicanes and sinners.

35 But wisdom is iustified of all her children.

36 ¶ * And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him: and he went into the Pharisees house and sat downe at table.

37 And behold, a woman in the citie, which was a sinner, when she knew that Iesus sat at table in the Pharisees house, she brought a box of ointment:

38 * And she stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with teares, & did wipe them with the haire of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharise which bade him, saw it, he spake within himselfe, saying, If this man were a Prophet, he would surely haue knowne, who, and what manner of woman this is which toucheth him, for she is a sinner.

40 And Iesus answered, & said vnto him, Simon, I haue somewhat to say vnto thee. And he said, Master, say on.

41 There was a certaine lender which had two debtors: the one ought five hundred pence, and the other fiftie.

42 When they had nothing to pay, hee forgave them both. Which of them therefore, tell me, will loue him most?

43 Simon answered, and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said vnto him, Thou hast truly iudged.

44 Then he turned to the woman, and said vnto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entred into this house, and thou gauest me to water to my feet: but shee hath washed my feete with teares, and wiped them with the haire of her head.

45 Thou gauest mee no kisse: but shee since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kisse my feet.

46 Mine head with oyle thou didst not anoint, but she hath anointed my feet with ointment.

47 Wherefore I say vnto thee, Many sinnes are forgiven forgiuen her: for she loued much. To whom a little is forgiuen, he doth loue a little.

Or, the Gospel is preached to the poore.

48 And he said vnto her, Thy finnes are forgiuen thee.

49 And they that sate at table with him, began to say within themselves, Who is this that euen forgiueth finnes?

50 And he said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee: goe in peace.

CHAP. VII.

1 Christ with his Apostles goe from towne to towne and preach. 3 The women minister vnto shew of their goods. 5 Hee sheweth the parable of the feede.

21 Hee selleth who is his mother, and his brother. 24 He filleth the raring of the lake. 27 He debuereth the possessed. 33 The deuils enter into the herd of swine.

41 He healeth the sicke woman and Tairus daughter.

And it came to passe afterward, that he himselfe went thorow euery cite and towne, preaching and publishing the kingdom of God, & the twelue were with him.

2 And certaine women which were healed of euill spirits and infirmities, as Mary which was called Magdalene, out of whom went seuen deuils,

3 And Ioanna the wife of Chuza Herods steward, and Susanna, and many other which ministered vnto him of their substance,

4 * Now when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of all cities, hee spake by a parable,

5 A sower went out to sow his seede, and as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and it was troden vnder feet, and the foules of heauen deuoured it vp.

6 And some fell on the stones, and when it was sprung vp, it withered away, because it lacked moystnesse.

7 And some fell among thornes, and the thornes sprang vp with it, and choked it.

8 And some fell on good ground, and sprang vp, and bare fruit, an hundred fold. And as he said these things, he cried, Hee that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

9 Then his disciples asked him, demanding what parable that was.

10 And hee said, Vnto you it is giuen to know the secretes of the kingdom of God, but to oth- er in parables, that when * they see, they should not see, and when they heare, they should not vnderstand.

11 * The parable is this, The feede is the word of God.

12 And they that are beside the way, are they that heare: afterward commeth the deuill, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, least they should beleue and be saved.

13 But they that are on the stones, are they which when they haue heard, receiue the word with ioy: but they haue no rootes, which for a while beleue, but in the time of temptation goe away.

14 And that which fell among thornes, are they which haue heard, and after their departure are choked with cares and with riches, and voluptuous liuing, and bring forth no fruit.

15 But that which fell in good ground, are they which with an honest and good heart heare the word and keepe it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

16 * No man when he lighteth a candle, couereth it vnder a vessell, neither putteth it vnder the stable, but setteth it on a candlesticke, that they that enter in, may see the light.

17 * For nothing is secret that shall not be euident: neither any thing hid that shall not be known, and come to light.

18 Take heede therefore how ye heare: * for whosoever hath, to him shall be giuen, and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken euen that which he hath.

19 * Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come nere to him for the presse.

20 And it was told him by certaine which said, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, and would see thee.

21 But he answered and said vnto them, My mother, and my brethren are these which heare the word of God, and doe it.

22 * And it came to passe on a certaine day, that he went into a ship with his disciples, and hee said vnto them, Let vs goe ouer vnto the other side of the lake. And they lancheth forth.

23 And as they sailed hee fell asleepe, and there came downe a storme of winde on the lake, & they were filled with water, and were in ieopardie.

24 Then they went to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, Master, we perishe. And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and the waues of water: and they ceased, and it was calme.

25 Then he said vnto them, Where is your faith? and they feared, and wondred among themselves, saying, Who is this that commaundeth both the winds and water, and they obey him?

26 * So they sayled vnto the region of the Gadarens, which is ouer against Galilee.

27 And as hee went out to land, there met him a certaine man out of the city, which had a deuill long time, and he ware no clothes, neither abode in house, but in the graves.

28 And when he saw Iesus, he cried out, and fell down before him: & with a lowd voice said, What haue I to do with thee, Iesus the Sonne of God the most high? I beseech thee torment me not.

29 For he commaunded the foule spirit to come out of the man: (for so oftimes he had caught him: therefore he was bound with chaines, and kept in fetters: but he brake the bands, and was carryed of the deuill into wilderneses)

30 Then Iesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion, because many deuils were entred into him.

31 And they besought him that hee would not command them to goe out into the deepe.

32 And there was thereby a herd of many swine feeding on a hill, and the deuils besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. So he suffered them.

33 Then went the deuils out of the man, and entred into the swine: and the herd was carryed with violence from a sleepe downe place into the lake, and was choked.

34 When the herdmen saw what was done, they fled: and when they were departed, they told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they came out to see what was done, and came to Iesus, and found the man out of whom the deuils were departed, sitting at the feet of Iesus, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it, tolde them by what means he that was possessed with the deuill, was healed.

37 Then the whole multitude of the country about about the Gadarens, besought him that hee would depart from them: for they were taken with a great feare, and he went into the ship and returned.

38 Then the man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that hee might bee with him. but Iesus sent him away, saying, 39 Returne into thine owne house, and shew what great things God hath done to thee. So hee went his way, and preached thorowout all the city, what great things Iesus had done vnto him.

40 ¶ And it came to passe when Iesus was come againe, that the people receiued him: for they all waited for him.

Mat. 9. 18 41 ¶ And behold, there came a man named Iairus, and hee was the ruler of the Synagogue, who fell downe at Iesus feete, and besought him that he would come into his house.

42 For he had but a daughter only about twelue yeeres of age, and she lay dying, (and as he went, the people thronged him,

43 And a woma hauing an issue of blood twelue yeeres long, which had spent all her substance vpon Physicians, and could not be healed of any:

44 When she came behind him, she touched the hemme of his garment, and immediatly her issue of blood stanchd.

45 Then Iesus said, Who is it that hath touched me? When euery man denied, Peter said, and they that were with him, Master, the multitude thrust thee, and tread on thee, and sayest thou, Who hath touched me?

46 And Iesus said, Some one hath touched me: for I perceiue that vertue is gone out of me.

47 When the woman saw that shee was not hid, shee came trembling, and fell downe before him, and told him before all the people for what cause shee had touched him, and how shee was healed immediatly.

48 And hee said vnto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole: goe in peace.)

49 While he yet spake, there came one from the ruler of the Synagogues house, which said to him, Thy daughter is dead: diseafe not the Master.

50 When Iesus heard it, hee answered him, saying, Feare not: beleeue only, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he went in to the house, hee suffred no man to goe in with him, saue Peter, and Iames, and Iohn, and the father and mother of the maide.

52 And all wept and sorrowed for her: but hee said, Weepe not: for she is not dead, but sleepeth.

53 And they laught him to scorne, knowing that she was dead.

54 So hee thrust them all out, and took her by the hand, and cried, saying, Maide, arise.

55 And her spirit came againe, and shee arose straightway: and hee commanded to giue her meat.

56 Then her parents were astonied: but hee commanded them that they should tell no man what was done.

CHAP. IX.

2 Hee sendeth out the twelue Apostles to preach. 7 Herod beareth tell of him. 12 Hee feedeth fise thousand men with fise loaves and two fishes. 19 Diuers opinions of Christ. 28 He transfigureth himselfe vpon the mount. 41 Hee deliuereth the possessed, 47 and teacheth his disciples to be lowly. 54 They desire vengeance, but hee reprooueth them.

Mat. 10. 1 Then called he the twelue disciples together, and gaue them power and authoritie ouer all and 6. 7. deuils, and to heale diseases,

2 * And hee sent them to preach the kingdome of God, and to cure the sicke.

3 And hee said to them, Take nothing to your iourney, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, nor siluer, neither haue two coats.

4 And whatsoeuer house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And whosoever will not receiue you, when yee goe out of that citie, * shake off the very dust from your feete for a testimonie against them.

6 And they went out, and went thorow euery towne preaching the Gospel, and healing euery where.

7 ¶ Now Herod the Tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and hee doubted, because that it was said of some, that Iohn was risen againe from the dead:

8 And of some, that one of the old Prophets was risen againe.

9 Then Herod said, Iohn haue I beheaded: who then is this of whom I heare such things? and hee desired to see him.

10 ¶ And when the Apostles returned, they told him what great things they had done. * Then hee tooke them, and went aside into a solitary place, nere to the citie called Bethsaida.

11 But when the people knew it, they followed him: and hee receiued them, and spake vnto them of the kingdome of God, and healed them that had neede to be healed.

12 * And when they had begun to weare away, the twelue came, and said vnto him, Send the people away, that they may goe into the townes and villages round about, and lodge, and get meat: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he said vnto them, Giue yee them to eat. And they said, We haue no more but fise loaves, and two fishes, except we should goe and buy meat for all this people.

14 For they were about fise thousand men. Then he said to his disciples, Cause them to sit downe by fifties in a companie.

15 And they did so, and caused all to sit downe.

16 Then hee tooke the fise loaves, and the two fishes, and looked vp to heauen, and blessed them, and brake, and gaue to the disciples to set before the people.

17 So they did all eate and were satisfied: and there was taken vp of that remained to them twelue baskets full of broken meat.

18 ¶ And it came to passe as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him, and hee asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answered, and said, Iohn Baptist: and others say, Elias: and some say that one of the old Prophets is risen againe.

20 And hee sayd vnto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answered, and said, The Christ of God.

21 And he warned and commanded them, that they should tell that to no man, 22 Saying, * The sonne of man must suffer many things, and bee reprooued of the Elders and of the chief Priests and Scribes, and be slaine, and the third day rise againe.

23 ¶ And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him denie himselfe, and take up his crosse dayly, and follow me.

24 * For whosoever will saue his life, shall lose it: and whosoever shall lose his life for my sake, the same shall saue it.

35 For what advantage is a man if hee winne the whole world, and destroy himselfe, or lose himselfe?

36 * For whosoever shall be ashamed of me, and of my wordes, of him shall the Sonne of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his glory, and in the glory of the Father, and of the holy Angels.

37 * And I tell you of a surety, there bee some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they haue receiued the kingdom of God.

38 * And it came to passe about an eight dayes after those wordes, that he tooke Peter, and Iohn, and Iames, and went vp into a mountaine to pray.

39 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was changed, and his garment was white and glistered.

40 And behold, two men talked with him, which were Moses and Elias, 41 Which appeared in glory, and told of his departing, which he should accomplish at Ierusalem.

42 But Peter and they that were with him were heauie with sleepe, and when they awoke, they saw his glory, and the two men standing with him.

43 And it came to passe as they departed from him, Peter said vnto Iesus, Master, It is good for vs to be here: let vs make therefore three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias, and wist not what he said.

44 While hee thus spake, there came a cloud and ouershadowed them, and they feared when they were entering into the cloud.

45 * And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloued Sonne, heare him.

46 And when the voyce was past, Iesus was found alone: and they kept it close, and tolde no man in those dayes any of those things which they had seene.

47 * And it came to passe on the next day, as they came downe from the mountaine, much people met him.

48 * And behold, a man of the company cryed out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, behold my sonne: for he is all that I haue.

49 And loe, a spirit taketh him, and suddenly he cryeth, and he teareth him, that he someth, and with much paine departeth from him, when hee hath brenished him.

50 Now I haue befought thy disciples to cast him out, but they could not.

51 Then Iesus answered, and said, O generation faithlesse and crooked, how long now shal I be with you, and suffer you to bring thy sonne hither.

52 And while he was yet comming, the deuill rent him and tare him: and Iesus rebuked the vn-cleane spirit and healed the childe, and deliuered him to his father.

53 * And they were all amazed at the mightie power of God: and while they all wondered at all things which Iesus did, hee sayd vnto his disciples, 54 * Marke these wordes diligently: for it shall come to passe, that the Sonne of man shall be deliuered into the hands of men.

55 But they understood not that word: for it was hid from them, so that they could not perceiue it: and they feared to aske him of that word.

56 * * Then there arose a disputation among them, which of them should be the greatest.

57 When Iesus saw the thoughts of their hearts, he tooke a little child, and set him by him, 58 And said vnto them, Whosoever receiueth this little child in my Name, receiueth mee: & whosoeuer shall receiue mee, receiueth him that sent mee: for he that is least among you all, he shall be great.

49 * And Iohn answered, and said, Master, wee saw one casting out devils in thy Name, & we forbade him, because he followeth thee not with vs.

50 Then Iesus said vnto him, Forbid ye him not: for he that is not against vs, is with vs.

51 * And it came to passe, when the dayes were accomplished, that he should be receiued vp, hee sealed himselfe fully to goe to Ierusalem, 52 And sent messengers before him: and they went and entred into a towne of the Samaritanes, to prepare him lodging.

53 But they would not receiue him, because his behaviour was, as though hee would goe to Ierusalem.

54 And when his disciples, Iames and Iohn saw it, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command, that fire come downe from heauen, and consume them, euen as * Elias did?

55 But Iesus turned about, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not of what spirit ye are.

56 For the Sonne of man is not come to destroy mens liues, but to saue them. Then they went to another towne.

57 * And it came to passe, that as they went in the way, * a certaine man said vnto him, I will follow thee, Lord, whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Iesus said vnto him, The foxes haue holes, and the birdes of the heauen haue nestes, but the Sonne of man hath not whereon to lay his head.

59 But he said vnto another, Follow me: And the same said, Lord, suffer me first to goe and bury my father.

60 And Iesus said vnto him, Let the dead burie their dead: but goe thou and preach the kingdom of God.

61 Then another said, I will follow thee, Lord: but let me first goe bid them farewell which are at mine house.

62 And Iesus said vnto him, No man that putteth his hand to the plough, and looketh backe, is apt to the kingdom of God.

1 He sendeth the seuentie before him to preach, and giueth them a charge how to behaue themselves. 13 He threatneth the obstinate. 21 He giueth thanks to his heavenly Father. 25 Hee answereth the Scribe that tempteth him. 33 and by the example of the Samaritanes sheweth who is a mans neighbour. 38 Martha receiueth the Lord into her house. 40 Mary is firmer in hearing his word.

After * these things, the Lord appointed other seuentie also, and sent them two and two before him into euery citie and place whither hee himselfe should come.

2 And hee said vnto them, * The haruest is great, but the labourers are few. pray therefore the Lord of the haruest to send forth labourers into his haruest.

6 And if the sonne of peace be there, your peace shall rest vpon him: if not, it shall turne to you againe.

7 And in that house tary still, eating and drinking such things as by them shall be set before you: for 17 ¶ And the seauentie turned againe with ioi, saying, Lord, euen the deuils are subdued to vs through thy Name.

18 And he said vnto them, I saw Satan like lightening, fall downe from heauen:

19 Behold, I giue vnto you power to tread on serpents, and scorpions, and ouer all the power of the enemye, and nothing shall hurt you.

20 Neuerthelesse, in this reioyce not, that the spirits are subdued vnto you: but rather reioyce because your names are written in heauen.

 heauen and earth, that thou hast hidde these things from the wise and learned, and hast revealed them to babes: euen so Father, because it so pleased thee.

22 Then he turned to his disciples, and said, All things are giuen mee of my Father, and no man knoweth who the Sonne is, but the Father: neither who the Father is, saue the Sonne, and he to whom the Sonne will reueale him.

and wounded him, and departed, leauing him halfe dead.

31 And by chance there came downe a certaine Priest that same way, and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise also a Leuite, when hee was come neere to the place, went and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 Then a certaine Samaritan, as he iourneyed, came neere vnto him, and when he saw him, he had compassion on him,

34 And went to him, and bound vp his wounds, and powred in oyle, and wine, and put him on his owne beaft, and brought him to an Inne, and made provision for him.

35 And on the morrow when he departed, hee tooke out two pence, and gaue them to the hoste, and said vnto him, Take care of him, and whatsoe-uer thou spendest more, when I come againe, I will recompense thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour to him that fell among the reues?

37 And he said, Hee that shewed mercy on him.
 Then said Iesus vnto him, Goe, and doe thou like wise.

38 ¶ Now it came to passe as they went, that hee entred into a certaine towne, and a certaine woman named Martha receiued him into her house.

39 And theee had a sister called Mary, which also sat at Iesus feete, and heard his preaching.

40 But Martha was cumbered about much ser-uing, and came to him, and said, Master, doest thou not care that my sister hath left me to serue alone?
 bid her therefore that she helpe me.

41 And Iesus answered, and said vnto her, Martha, Martha, thou carest, and art troubled about many things:

42 But one thing is needfull, I may hath chose the good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

CHAP. XI.

1 He teacheth his disciples to pray. 24 He driueth out a deuill, 15 and rebuketh the blasphemous Phari-
 ses. 28 He prefigureth the spiritual conuersion. 39
 They require signes and tokens. 37 He eateth with the Pharise, and reproveth the hypocrisie of the 1 baristes, Scribes and hypocrites.

And so it was, that as hee was praying in a certaine place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said vnto him, Master, teach vs to pray, as Iohn also taught his disciples.

2 ¶ And he said vnto them, When ye pray, say,
 Our Father which art in heauen, hallowed bee thy Name: Thy kingdome come: Let thy wil be done, euen in earth, as it is in heauen:

3 Our daily bread giue vs for the day:

4 And I forgie vs our finnes: for euen we forgiue euery man that is indebted to vs: And leade vs not into temptation: but deliuer vs from euill.

5 ¶ Moreover he said vnto them, Which of you shall haue a friend, and shal goe to him at midnight, and say vnto him, Friend, lend me three loaves?

6 For a friend of mine is come out of the way to me, and I haue nothing to set before him:

7 And he within should answer, and say, Trouble me not: the doore is now shut, and my children are with me in bed: I cannot rise and giue them to thee.

8 I say vnto you, Though he would not rise and giue him, because he is his friend, yet doubtlesse because of his importunitie, hee would rise, and giue him as many as he needed.

9 *And I say vnto you, Aske, and it shal be giuen you: seeke, and ye shall finde: knocke, and it shal be opened vnto you.

10 For euery one that asketh, receiueth: and he that seeketh, findeth: and to him that knocketh, it shal be opened.

11 *If a sonne shal aske bread of any of you that is a father, will he giue him a stone? or if he aske a fish, will he for a fish giue him a serpent?

12 Or, if he aske an egge, will hee giue him a scorpion?

13 If ye then which are euil, can giue good gifts vnto your children, how much more thal your heavenly Father giue the holy Ghost to them that desire him?

14 *Then he cast out a deuill which was dumbe: and when the deuill was gone out, the dumbe spake, and the people wondred.

15 But some of them said, He casteth out deuils through Beelzebub the chiefe of the deuils.

16 And others tempted him, seeking of him a signe from heauen.

17 But hee knew their thoughts, and said vnto them, *Euery kingdom diuident against it selfe, shalbedesolate, & an house diuident against an house, shall ech.

18 So if Satan also be diuident against himselfe, how shall his kingdom stand, because ye say, that I cast out deuils through Beelzebub?

19 If I through Beelzebub cast out deuils, by whom doe your children cast them out? Therefore shall they be your iudges.

20 But if I by the finger of God cast out deuils, doubtlesse the kingdom of God is come vnto you.

21 When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, the things that he possedeth are in peace.

22 But when a stronger then he commeth vpon him, and ouercommeth him: he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and diuident his spoyle.

23 He that is not with me, is against me: and he that gathereth not with me, scattereth.

24 *When the vnclane spirit is gone out of a man, hee walketh thorow drie places, seeking rest, and when he findeth none, hee sayth, I will returne vnto mine house whence I came out.

25 And when hee commeth, he findeth it swept and garnished.

26 Then goeth he, & taketh to him seuen other spirits, worse then himselfe: and they enter in, and dwell there: so the last state of that man is worse then the first.

27 *And it came to passe as he said these things, a certaine woman of the company lifted vp her voice, and said vnto him, Blessed is the wombe that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.

28 But hee sayd, Yea, rather blessed are they that heare the word of God, and keepe it.

29 *And when the people were gathered thicke together, hee began to say, This is a wicked generation: they seeke a signe, and there shall no signe bee giuen them, but the signe of *Ionas the Prophet.

30 For as Ionas was a signe to the Nineuites, so shall also the Sonne of man bee to this generation.

31 *The Queene of the South shal rise in iudgement with the men of this generation, and shall condemne them: for she came from the vttermoost parts of the earth to heare the wisdom of Salomon, and behold, a greater then Salomon is here.

32 The men of Nineue shall rise in iudgement with this generation, & shall condemne it: for they *repented at the preaching of Ionas: and behold, Ionas is a greater then Ionas is here.

33 *No man lighteth a candle, and putteth it in a priue place, neither vnder a bushell: but on a candlesticke, that they which come in, may see the light.

34 *The light of the body is the eye, therefore when thine eye is single, then is thy whole bodie light: but if thine eye bee euill, then thy body is darke.

35 Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee, be not darknesse.

36 If therefore thy whole body shalbe light, hauing no part darke, then shall all bee light, euen as when a candle doth light thee with the brightness.

37 *And as he spake, a certain Pharise besought him to dine with him: and hee went in and late downe at table.

38 And when the Pharise saw it, hee marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner.

39 *And the Lord said to him, Indeepe ye Pharisees make cleane the outside of the cup, and of the platter: but the inward part is full of rauening and wickednesse.

40 Ye fooles, did not he that made that which is without, make that which is within also?

41 Therefore giue almes of those things which are within, and behold all things shal be cleane to you.

42 But woe be to you Pharisees: for ye tithe the mint, and the rue, and all manner herbes, and passe ouer iudgement, and the loue of God: these ought ye to haue done, and not to haue left the other vdone.

43 *Woe be to you Pharisees: for yee lone the vppermost seates in the Synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

44 Woe be to you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites: for ye are as graues which appeare not, and the men that walke ouer them, perceiue not.

45 *Then answered one of the exponders of the Law, and said vnto him, Master, thus saying, thou puttst vs to rebuke also.

46 And he said, Woe be to you also, ye interpreters of the Law: for yee *lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, & ye your selues touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 Woe be to you: for ye build the sepulchres of the Prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truly ye beare witnes, and allow the deeds of your fathers: for they killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

49 Therefore said the wisdom of God, I will send them Prophets & Apostles, and of them they shall slay and if persecute.

50 That the blood of all the Prophets, shed from the foundation of the world, may bee required of this generation, 51 From the blood of *Abel vnto the blood of *Zacharias, which was slaine betwene the Altar & the Temple: verely I say vnto you, it shall be required of this generation.

52 Woe be to you interpreters of the Law: for ye haue taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in your selues, and them that came in, yee forbade.

53 And as hee said these things vnto them, the Scribes and Pharisees began to vrge him fore, and to prouoke him to speake of many things, 54 Laying wait for him, & seeking to catch some thing of his mouth, whereby they might accuse him.

CHAP. XII.

1 Christ commandeth to avoid hypocrisie. 4 That we should not trust in man but God. 5 To confesse his Name. 10 Blaspheemie against the Spirit. 14 Not to passe our vocation. 15 Not to giue our selues to conuolous care of this life. 32 But to righteousnesse, aimes, watching, patience, wisdom and concord.

Matt. 16. ¶ N<sup>o</sup> the meane time, there gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, so that they trode one another: and hee began to say vnto his disciples first, Take heede to your selues of the leauen of the Pharises, which is hypocrisie.

Matt. 10. 2 *For there is nothing couered, that shall not be reuealed, neither hid that shall not be knowne.

36. mar. 3 Wherefore whatsoeuer yee haue spoken in darkness, it shall be heard in the light: & that which yee haue spoken in the eare in secret places, shall be preached on the houes.

4. 23. 4 *And I say vnto you my friends, be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that are not able to doe any more.

Matt. 10. 5 But I will forewarne you whom ye shal feare: feare him which after hee hath killed, hath power to cast into hell: yea, I say vnto you, him I feare.

28. 6 Are not fise sparrows bought for two farthings, and yet not one of them is forgotten before God?

7 Yea, and all the haire of your head are numbered: feare not therefore, ye are of more value then many sparrows.

Cha. 9. 26 8 *Also I say vnto you, Whosoever shall confesse me before men, him shall the Sonne of man

Matt. 10. 32. mar. 8 confesse also before the Angels of God.

38. 2. tim. 9 But he that shall deny me before men shall be denied before the Angels of God.

11. 12. 10 And whosoever shall speake a word against the Sonne of man, it shall be forgiven him: but vnto him that shall blaspheme the holy Ghost, it shal not be forgiven.

Matt. 10. 11 *And when they shal bring you vnto the Synagogues, and vnto the rulers and Princes, take no thought how or what thing yee shall answer, or what ye shall speake.

29. mar. 12 For the holy Ghost shal teach you in the same

33. 11. 13 And one of the company said vnto him, Master, bid my brother diuide the inheritance with mee.

¶ Or. mon. ment. 14 And he sayd vnto him, Man, who made me a iudge, or a diuider ouer you?

15 Wherefore he said vnto them, Take heed, and beware of conetoulnesse: for though a man haue abundance, yet his life standeth not in his riches.

¶ Or. conu. 27. p. 16 And he put forth a parable vnto them, saying, The ground of a certaine rich man brought forth fruits plenteously.

17 Therefore he thought with himselfe, saying, What shall I doe, because I haue no roome, where I may lay vp my fruits.

18 And he said, This will I do, I wil pull downe my barnes and build grater, and therein wil I gather all my fruits and my goods,

Hecl. 12. 19 And I will say to my Soule, Soule, thou hast much goods laid vp for many yeeres: lue at ease, eate, drinke, and take thy pastime.

19. 20 But God sayd vnto him, O foole, this night will they fetch a way thy soule fro thee: then whose shall those things be which thou hast prouided?

21 So he that gathereth riches to himselfe, and is not rich in God.

Mat. 6. 25 22 And he spake vnto his disciples, Therefore I say vnto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eate: neither for your body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more then meat: and the body more then the raiment.

24 Consider the rauens: for they neither sow nor reape: which neither haue stowhouse nor barn, and yet God feedeth them: how much more are ye better then foules?

25 And which of you with taking thought, can adde to his stature one cubite?

26 If ye then be not able to doe the least thing, why take ye thought for the remnant?

27 Consider the lilies how they grow: they labour not, neither spin they: yet I say vnto you, that Salomon himselfe in all his royaltie was not clothed like one of these.

28 If then God do clothe the grasse which is to day in the field, and to morow is cast into the ouen, how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 Therefore aske not what ye shal eat, or what ye shal drinke, neither stand in doubt.

30 For all such things the people of the world seeke for: and your Father knoweth that yee haue neede of these things.

31 But rather seeke yee after the kingdome of God, and all these things shall bee ministred vnto you.

32 Feare not, little flocke, for it is your fathers pleasure to giue you the kingdome.

33 *Sell that ye haue, and giue almes: make to you bagges which waxe not old, a treasure that can neuer faile in heauen, where no thiefe commeth, neither moth corrupteth.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your hearts be also.

35 *Let your loines be girded about, and your lights burning,

36 And yee your selues like vnto men that wait for their master, when hee will returne from the wedding, that when hee commeth and knocketh, they may open vnto him immediately.

37 Blessed are those seruants, whom the Lord when he commeth shall find waking: Verily I say vnto you, hee will gird himselfe about, and make them to sit downe at table, and will come forth and serue them.

38 And if he come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and shall finde them so, blessed are those seruants.

39 *Now vnderstand this that if the Goodman of the house had knownen at what houre the thiefe would haue come, hee would haue watched, and would not haue suffered his house to bee digged thorow.

40 Be ye also prepared therefore: for the Sonne of man will come at an houre when ye thinke not.

41 Then Peter said vnto him, Master, tellest thou this parable vnto vs, or euen to all?

42 And the Lord said, Who is a faithfull steward, and wise, whom the master shall make ruler ouer his household, to giue them their portion of meate in season?

43 Blessed is that seruant, whom his master when he commeth, shall finde so doing.

44 Of a truth, I say vnto you, that he will make him ruler ouer all that he hath.

45 But if that seruant say in his heart, My master doth deferre his coming, and shall begin to smite the seruants and maidens, and to eate and drinke, and to be drunken,

46 The master of that seruant wil come in a day when when he thinketh not, and at an houre when hee is not ware of, and will cut him off, and giue him his portion with the vnbelecuers.

47 ¶ And that seruant that knew his masters will, and prepared not him selfe, neither did according to his will, shalbe beaten with many stripes.

48 But he that knew it not, and yet did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes: for vnto whomsoeuer much is giuen, of him shall be much required, and to whom men much commit, the more of him will they aske.

49 ¶ I am come to put fire on the earth, & what is my desire, if it be already kindled?

50 Notwithstanding, I must be baptized with a baptisme, and how am I grieved till it be ended?

51 ¶ Think ye that I am come to giue peace on earth? I tell you, nay, but rather debate.

52 For from henceforth there shalbe fire in one house diuided, three against two, and two against three.

53 The father shalbe diuided against the sonne, and the sonne against the father: the mother against the daughter, & the daughter against the mother: the mother in law against her daughter in law, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

54 ¶ Then said he to the people, When ye see a cloud rise out of the West, it straightway ye say, A shewre commeth: and so it is.

55 And when ye see the South wind blow, ye say that it will be hote, and it commeth to passe.

56 Hypocrites, yee can discerne the face of the earth and of the skie: but why discerne ye not this time?

57 Yea, and why iudge yee not of your felues what is right?

58 ¶ While thou goest with thine aduersarie to the ruler, as thou art in the way, giue diligence in the way, that thou mayest bee deliuered from him, lest he bring thee to the Iudge, and the Iudge deliuer thee to the gaoler, and the gaoler cast thee into prison.

59 I tell thee thou shalt not depart thence till thou hast payed the vtmost mite.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The crucifix of Pilate. 2 We ought not to condemn all to bee wicked men which suffer. 3 Christ exhorteth to repentance. 4 Hee healeth the crooked woman, 15 answereth to the master of the Synagogue. 18 By diuers similitudes he declareth what the kingdome of God is. 23 Also that the number of sinners which shall be saued, is small. 33 Finally, hee sheweth that no worldly policie or force can let the worke and counsel of God.

There were certain men present at the same season, that shewed him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their owne sacrifices.

2 And Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Supposee that these Galileans were greater sinners then all the other Galileans, because they haue suffered such things?

3 I tell you nay: but except yee amend your liues, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or, thinke you that those eightene, vpon whom the tower of Siloam fell and slew them, were sinners aboue all men that dwell in Ierusalem?

5 I tell you nay: but except yee amend your liues, ye all shall likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this parable. A certaine man had a figtree planted in his vineyard: and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.

7 Then said hee to the dresser of his vineyard,

Beholde, this three yeeres haue I come and sought fruit of this figtree, and finde none: cut it downe: why keepeth it also the ground barren?

8 And hee answered, and sayd vnto him, Lord, let it alone this yeere also, till I digge round about it, and dung it.

9 And if it beare fruit, well: if not then after thou shalt cut it downe.

10 ¶ And he taught in one of the Synagogues on the Sabbath day.

11 And behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmitee eighteen yeeres, and was bowed together, and could not lift vp her selfe in any wise.

12 When Iesus saw her, he called her to him, and sayde to her, Woman, thou art loosed from thy diseafe.

13 And hee layd his handes on her, and immediately shee was made straight againe, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the Synagogue answered with indignation, because Iesus had healed on the Sabbath day, and sayd vnto the people, There are fixe dayes in which men ought to worke: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day.

15 Then answered him the Lord, and said, Hypocrite, doest not ech one of you on the Sabbath day loose his oxe or his asse from the stall, and lead him away to the water?

16 And ought not this daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, loe, eighteen yeeres, bee loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day?

17 And when hee said these things, all his aduersaries were ashamed: but all the people reioiced at all the excellent things that were done by him.

18 ¶ Then said hee, What is the kingdome of God like? or whereto shall I compare it?

19 It is like a graine of mustard seede, which a man tooke and sowed in his garden, and it grew, and waxed a great tree, & the fowles of the heauen made nests in the branches thereof.

20 ¶ And againe hee said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdome of God?

21 It is like leauen, which a woman tooke, and hid in three peckes of flour, till all was leauened.

22 ¶ And he went thorow all cities & townes, teaching and journeying toward Ierusalem.

23 Then said one vnto him, Lord, are these few that shalbe saued? And hee said vnto them, 24 ¶ Striue to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say vnto you, will seeke to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 When the good man of the house is risen vp, and hath shut to the doore, & ye begin to stand without, and to knocke at the doore, saying, Lord, Lord, open vnto vs, and hee shall answer, and say vnto you, I know you not whence ye are,

26 Then shall ye begin to say, Wee haue eaten and drunke in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.

27 But hee shall say, I tell you, I knowe you not whence ye are: depart from me all ye workers of iniquitie.

28 There shalbe weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Iacob, and all the Prophets in the kingdome of God, and you felues thrust out at doores.

29 Then shall come many from the East, and from the West, and from the North, and from the South, and shall sit at table in the kingdome of God.

Mat. 19. 30 * And behold, there are last, which shall bee first, and there are first which shall bee last.

20. 16. 31 The same day there came certaine Pharises and said vnto him, Depart, and goe hence: for Herod will kill thee.

32 Then said he vnto them, Goe ye and tell that foxe, Behold, I cast out devils, and will heale still to day and to morrow, and the third day shall I bee perfected.

33 Neuerthelesse, I must walke to day, and to morrow, & the day following: for it cannot be, that a Prophet should perish out of Ierusalem.

Mat. 23. 34 * O Ierusalem, Ierusalem, which killest the Prophets, & stonest them that are sent to thee, how often would I haue gathered thy children together as the henne gathereth her brood vnder her wings, and ye would not!

35 Behold, your house is left vnto you desolate, and verely I tell you, ye shall not see mee, vntill the time come, that ye shall say, Blessed u he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Iesus eateth with the Pharise. 4 He healeth the droppe upon the Sabbath, & teacheth to be lowly, & to bid the poore to our table. 15 He telleth of the great supper. 28 He warneth them that will follow him, to lay their accounts before what it will cost them. 34 The salt of the earth.

And it came to passe, that when hee was entred into the house of one of the chiefe Pharises on the Sabbath day, to eate bread, they watched him.

2 And behold, there was a certaine man before him, which had the droppe.

3 Then Iesus answering, spake vnto the expounders of the Law, and Pharises, saying, Is it lawfull to heale on the Sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. Then hee tooke him, and healed him, and let him go.

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall haue an asse or an oxe fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the Sabbath day?

6 And they could not answer him againe to those things.

7 He spake also a parable to the phetis, when he marked how they chose out the chiefe roomes, and said vnto them,

8 When thou shalt be bidden of any man to a wedding, set not thy selfe downe in the chiefe place, lest a more honorable man then thou be bidden of him,

9 And hee that bade both him and thee, come and say to thee, Giue this man a room, and thou then shalt haue shame to take the lowest room.

Pro. 25. 7 10 * But when thou art bidden, go and sit downe in the lowest room, that when he that bade thee, cometh, he may say vnto thee, Friend, sit vp higher: then shalt thou haue worship in the presence of them that sit at table with thee.

Mat. 23. 12 chap. 18. 19. 11 * For whosoever exalteth himselfe shall be brought low, and he that humbleth himselfe shall be exalted.

12 * Then said hee also to him that had bidden him, * When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy bretherne, neither thy kinmen, nor the rich neighbors, lest they also bid thee againe, and a recompense be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call the poore, the maimed, the lame, and the blind.

14 And thou shalt be blessed, because they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the iust.

15 ¶ Now when one of them that sate at table, heard these things, he said vnto him, Blessed u hee that eateth bread in the kingdome of God.

16 Then said he to him, * certaine man made a great supper, and bade many,

17 And sent his seruant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come: for all things are now ready.

18 But they all with one minde began to make excuse: The first sayd vnto him, I haue bought a farme, and I must needs goe out and see it: I pray thee haue me excused.

19 And another said, I haue bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to proue them: I pray thee haue me excused.

20 And another said, I haue married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that seruant returned, and shewed his master these things. Then was the good man of the house angry, and said to his seruant, Go out quickly into the places and streets of the citie, and bring in hither the poore, and the maimed, and the halfe, and the blinde.

22 And the seruant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.

23 Then the master said to the seruant, Goe out into the hie wayes and hedges, and compel them to come in, that mine house may be filled.

24 For I say vnto you, That none of those men which were bidden, shall taste of my supper.

25 Now there went great multitudes with him, and he turned and said vnto them, 26 * If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his owne life also, he cannot be my discipule.

27 * And whosoever beareth not his crosse, and cometh after me, cannot be my discipule.

28 For which of you minding to build a towre, or a fence, first setteth not downe before, & counteth the cost, whether he haue sufficient to performe it,

29 Lest that after hee hath laid the foundation, and is not able to performe it, all that behold it, begin to mocke him, 30 Saying, This man began to builde, and was not able to make an end?

31 Or what king going to make warre against another king, sitteth not downe first, and taketh counsell, whether hee be able with ten thousand to meete him that cometh against him with twenty thousand?

32 Or els while he is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, & desireth conditions of peace.

33 So likewise, whosoever hee be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my discipule.

34 * Salt is good: but if salt haue lost his savor, wherewith shall it be salted?

35 It is neither meet for the land, nor yet for the dunghill, but men cast it out. He that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

CHAP. XV.

2 The Pharises murmure because Christ receiveth sinners. 4 The living mercy of Gods openly set forth in the parable of the hundred sheepe. 7 10 in beaven for one sinner. 12 Of the prodigall sonne.

Then resorted vnto him all the Publicanes and sinners, to heare him.

2 Therefore the Pharises and Scribes murmured, saying, Hee receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.

3 Then spake he this parable to them, saying, ¶ What

4 *What man of you hauing an hundreth sheepe, if he lose one of them, doth not leaue niacety and nine in the wildernesse, and goe after that which is lost, vntill he find it?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders with ioy.

6 And when he commeth home, he calleth together his friends & neighbours, saying vnto them, Reioyce with me for I haue found my sheepe which was lost.

7 I say vnto you, that likewise ioy shall bee in heauen for one sinner that conuerterth, more then for ninety and nine iust men, which need none amendment of life.

8 Either what woman hauing tenne pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweepe the house, and seeke diligently till she find it?

9 And when shee hath found it, she calleth her friends and neighbours, saying, Reioyce with mee: for I haue found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise I say vnto you, There is ioy in the presence of the Angels of God, for one sinner that conuerterth.

11 ¶ He said moreover, A certaine man had two sonnes.

12 And the yonger of them said to his father. Father, giue me the portion of the goods that falleth to me. So he diuided vnto them his substance.

13 So not long after, when the yonger sonne had gathered al together, he tooke his iourney into a farre country, and there hee wasted his goods with riotous liuing.

14 Now when hee had spent all, there arose a great dearth thorowout that land, and he began to be in necessitie.

15 Then he went and claue to a citizen of that country, and hee sent him to his farme, to feed swine.

16 And he would faine haue filled his belly with the huskes that the swine ate: but no man gaue shew him.

17 Then he came to himselfe, and said, How many hired seruants at my fathers haue bread enough and I die for hunger?

18 I will rise and goe to my father, and say vnto him, Father, I haue sinned against heauen, and before thee.

19 And am no more worthy to bee called thy sonne, make me as one of thy hired seruants.

20 So he arose and came to his father, and when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran and fell on his necke, and kissed him.

21 And the sonne said vnto him, Father, I haue sinned against heauen, and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy sonne.

22 Then the father said to his seruants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shooes on his feete,

23 And bring the fat calfe, and kill him, and let vs eate and be merrie:

24 For this my sonne was dead, and is aliue againe: and he was lost, but hee is found. And they began to be merrie.

25 Now the elder brother was in the field, and when hee came and drew neere to the house, hee heard m-lodie and dancing, 26 And called one of his seruants, and asked what those things meant.

27 And he said vnto him, Thy brother is come, and thy father hath killed the fatted calfe, because he hath receiued him safe and found.

28 Then hee was angry and would not goe in: therefore came his father out, and intreated him.

29 But he answered, and said to his father, Loe, these many yeeres haue I done thee seruice, neither brake I at any time thy commandement, and yet thou neuer gauest me a kid that I might make merrie with my friends.

30 But when this thy sonne was come, which hath deuoured thy goods with harlots, thou hast for his sake killed the fat calfe.

31 And hee said vnto him, Sonne, thou art cuer with me, and all that I haue is thine. It was meete that wee should inake merrie and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is aliue againe: and hee was lost, but he is found.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Christ exhorteth vs to wisdom and liberalitie by the example of the steward. 13 None can serue two masters. 14 He reproveth the courtoynesse and hypocricie of the Pharisees. 16 Of the end and force of the Law. 18 Of the holy state of marriage. 19 Of the rich man and Lazarus.

¶ And he said also vnto his disciples, There was a certaine rich man, which had a steward, and he was accused vnto him, that he wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said vnto him, How is it that I heare this of thee? Giue an account of thy stewardship: for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himselfe, What shall I doe: for my master will take away from me the stewardship: I cannot digge, and to begge I am alshamed.

4 I know what I will doe, then when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receiue mee into their houses.

5 Then called he every one of his masters debtors, and said vnto the first, How much owest thou vnto my master?

6 And he said, An hundreth measures of oyle. And he said to him, Take thy writing and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said hee to another, How much owest thou? And he said, An hundreth measures of whear. Then hee said to him, Take thy writing, and write fourescore.

8 And the Lord commended the vniust steward, because he had done wisely. Wherefore the children of this world are in their generation wiser then the children of light.

9 And I say vnto you, Make you friends with the riches of iniquity, that when ye shall want, they may receiue you into euerglasting habitations.

10 Hee that is faithfull in the least, hee is also faithfull in much: and he that is vniust in the least, is vniust also in much.

11 If then ye haue not been faithfull in the wicked riches, who will trust you in the true treasure?

12 And if ye haue not bene faithfull in another mans goods, who shall giue you that which is yours?

13 * No seruant can serue two masters: for either he shall hate the one, and loue the other, or else he shall leane to the one, and despise the other. Ye can not serue God and riches.

14 All these things heard the Pharisees also, which were couetous, and they mocked him.

15 Then he said vnto them, Ye are they which iustifie your selues before men: but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men, is abomination in the sight of God.

Mat. 11. 16 * The Law and the Prophets endured vntill Iohn: and since that time the kingdome of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.

Mat. 5. 18 17 * Now it is more easie that heauen and earth should passe away, then that one tittle of the Law should fail.

Mat. 5. 32 18 * * Whoſoener putteth away his wife, and marieth another, committeth adultery: and whoſoever marieth her that is put away from her husband, committeth adultery.

and 19. 9. 19 * There was a certaine rich man which was clothed in purple, and fine linnen, and fared well and delicately every day.

1. Co. 7. 31. 20 Also there was a certaine begger, named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate full of sores, 21 And desired to be refreshed with the crumbs which fell from the rich mans table: yea, and the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it was so, that the begger died, and was carried by the Angels into Abrahams boſome. The rich man also died and was buried.

23 And being in hell in torments, he liſt vp his eyes, and ſaw Abraham aſſaſe off, and Lazarus in his boſome.

24 Then hee cryed, and ſaid, Father Abraham, haue mercy on me, and ſend Lazarus that hee may dippe the tippe of his finger in water, and coole my tongue: for I am tormented in this flame.

Or, good things. 25 But Abraham ſaid, Sonne, remember that thou in thy life time receiueſt thy pleasures, and likewise Lazarus paines: now therefore hee is comforted, and thou art tormented.

Or, small downy pit. 26 Besides all this, betweene you and vs there is a great gulfe ſet, ſo that they which would goe from hence to you, cannot: neither can they come from thence to vs.

27 Then he ſaid, I pray thee therefore father, that thou wouldest ſend him to my fathers house, 28 (For I haue ſiue brethren) that he may teſtifie vnto them, leaſt they alſo come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham ſaid vnto him, They haue Moſes and the Prophets: let them heare them.

30 And he ſaid, Nay, father Abraham, but if one come vnto them from the dead, they will amend their liues.

31 Then hee ſaid vnto him, If they heare not Moſes and the Prophets, neither will they be perſwaded, though one riſe from the dead againe.

1 Chriſt teacheth his diſciples to auoid occasions of offence. 2 One to forgive another. 3 Wee ought to pray for the increaſe of faith. 4 Hee magnifieth the vertue of faith. 5 and ſheweth the vniuerſality of man, 6 healeth ten lepers. 7 2 ſpeakes of the laſter dayes, 8 and of the end of the world.

Mat. 18. 7 9 Hen ſaid he to the diſciples. * It cannot bee auoided but that offences will come, but woe be to him by whom they come.

2 It were better for him that a great millſtone were hanged about his necke, and that he were caſt into the ſea, then that he ſhould offend one of theſe little ones.

3 * Take heed to your ſelues: if thy brother treipaſſe againſt thee, rebuke him: and if he repent, forgive him.

Matth. 18. 21. 4 * And though hee ſinne againſt thee ſeuē times in a day, and ſeuē times in a day turne again to thee, ſaying, It repenteth me, thou ſhalt forgive him.

5 And the Apoſtles ſaid vnto the Lord, Increaſe our faith.

6 And the Lord ſaid, * If ye had faith as much as a graine of muſtard ſeed, and ſhould ſay vnto this mulberry tree, Pluckethy ſelfe vp by the roots, and plant thy ſelfe in the ſea, it ſhould euen obey you.

7 * Who is it alſo of you, that hauing a ſeruant plowing or feeding cattell, would ſay vnto him by and by, when he were come from the field, Go, and ſit downe at table?

8 And would not rather ſay to him, Dreſſe wherwith I may ſuppe, and gird thy ſelfe and ſerue mee, till I haue eaten and drunken, and afterward eate thou, and drinke thou?

9 Doth he thanke that ſeruant, becauſe he did that which was commanded vnto him? I trow not.

10 So likewiſe yee, when ye haue done all thoſe things which are commanded you, ſay, We are vnprofitable ſeruants: wee haue done that which was our duty to doe.

11 * And ſo it was when hee went to Ieruſalem that hee paſſed thorow the middes of Samaria and Galilee.

12 And as he entred into a certaine towne there met him tenne men that were lepers, which ſtood aſſaſe off.

13 And they liſt vp their voices, and ſaid, Jeſus, Maſter, haue mercie on vs.

14 And when he ſaw them, hee ſayd vnto them, * Go, ſhew your ſelues vnto the Priests. And it came to paſſe that as they went, they were clenſed.

15 Then one of them, when hee ſaw that he was healed, turne backe, and with a loud voyce praized God, 16 And fell downe on his face at his feete, and gaue him thanks: and he was a Samaritan.

17 And Jeſus answered, and ſaid, Are there not ten clenſed? but where are the nine?

18 There are none found that returned to giue God praife, ſaue this ſtranger.

19 And he ſaid vnto him, Ariſe, goe thy way, thy faith hath made thee whole.

20 * And when he was demanded of the Phariſes, when the kingdome of God ſhould come, hee answered them, and ſaid, The kingdome of God commeth not with obſervation.

21 Neither ſhall men ſay, Loe here, or loe there: for behold, the kingdome of God is within you.

22 And he ſaid vnto the diſciples. The daies wil come, when yee ſhall deſire to ſee one of the dayes of the Sonne of man, and ye ſhall all not ſee it.

23 * Then they ſhall ſay to you, Behold here, or behold there: but goe not thither, neither follow them.

24 For as the lightening that lighteneth out of the one part vnder heauen, ſhineth vnto the other part vnder heauen, ſo ſhall the Sonne of man be in his day.

25 But firſt muſt hee ſuffer many things, and be reprooned of this generation.

26 * And as it was in the dayes of Noe, ſo ſhall it be in the dayes of the Sonne of man.

27 They ate, they dranke, they married wines, and gaue in marriage, vnto the day that Noe went into the Arke: and the flood came & deſtroyed them all.

28 * Likewiſe alſo, as it was in the dayes of Lot: when they ate, they dranke, they bought, they ſold, they planted, they built.

29 But in the day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimſtone from heauen, and deſtroyed them all.

30 After theſe enſamples ſhall it bee in the day when the Sonne of man ſhall be reuealed.

31 At that day, he that is vpon the houſe, and his staffe in the house, let him not come downe to take it out; and he that is in the field likewise, let him not turne backe to that he left behinde.

32 *Remember Lots wife.

33 *Whofoeuer will seeke to saue his soule, shall loose it, and whofoeuer shall loose it, shall get it life.

34 *Tell you, in that night there shall be two in one bed: the one shall be receiued, and the other shall be left.

35 Two women shall be grinding together: the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

36 Two shall be in the field, one shall be receiued, and another shall be left.

37 And they answered, and said to him, Where, Lord? and he said vnto them, *Wherefoeuer the body is, thither will also the Eagles resort.

CHAP. XVIII.

2 By the example of the widow, and the Publicane, Christ teacheth how to pray. 15 By the example of children he exhorteth to humilitie. 18 Of the way to be saved, and what things let. 29 The reward promised to him. 31 And of the crosse. 35 A blind man receiveth sight.

And he spake also a parable vnto them, to this end, that they ought alwayes to pray, and not to waxe faint,

1 Saying, There was a Iudge in a certaine city, which feared not God, neither reuerenced man.

2 And there was a widow in that citie, which came vnto him, saying, Do me iustice against mine aduersarie.

3 And he would not for a time: but afterward he said with himselfe, Though I feare not God, nor reuerence man, 4 Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will doe her right, lest at the last shee come and make me wearie.

5 And the Lord said, Heare what the vnrighteous Iudge saith.

6 Now shall not God auenge his elect which crye day and night vnto him, yea, though he suffer long for them?

7 I tell you, hee will auenge them quickly: but when the Sonne of man commeth, shall hee finde faith on the earth?

8 Hee spake also this parable vnto certaine which trusted in themselves that they were iust, and despised other.

9 Two men went vp into the Temple to pray: the one a Pharisee, and the other a Publicane.

10 The Pharisee stood and praised thus with himselfe, O God, I thank thee that I am not as other men, extortioners, vnjust, adulterers, or euen as this Publicane.

11 I fast twise in the weeke: I giuetithe of all that euer I possesse.

12 But the Publicane standing as farre off, would not lift vp so much as his eyes to heauen, but smote his breast, saying, O God, be mercifull to me a sinner.

13 I tell you this man departed to his house iustified, rather then the other: *For every man that exalteth himselfe, shall be brought low, and hee that humbleth himselfe shall be exalted.

14 They brought vnto him also babes that he should touch them. And when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

15 But Iesus called them vnto him, and said, Suffer the babes to come vnto mee, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdome of God.

17 Verely I say vnto you, whosoever receiveth not the kingdome of God as a babe, hee shall not enter therein.

18 *Then a certaine ruler asked him, saying, Good master, what ought I to doe, to inherite eternall life? Mat. 19. 16. mark 10. 17.

19 And Iesus said vnto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good save one, euen God.

20 Thou knowest the Commandements, *Thou shalt not commit adulterie: Thou shalt not kill: Thou shalt not steale: Thou shalt not beare false witness. Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these haue I kept from my youth.

22 Now when Iesus heard that, he said vnto him, Yet lackest thou one thing. Sell all that euer thou hast, and distribute vnto the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come follow me.

23 But when he heard those things, he was very heauie: for he was marvellous rich.

24 And when Iesus saw him sorrowfull, he said, With what difficultie shall they that haue riches, enter into the kingdome of God?

25 Surely it is easier for a camel to go thorow a needles eye, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdome of God.

26 Then said they that heard it, And who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The things which are vnpossible with men, are possible with God.

28 *Then Peter said, Lo, we haue left all, and haue followed thee. Mat. 19. 27. marke 10. 28.

29 And he said vnto them, Verely I say vnto you, there is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children for the kingdome of Gods sake, 30 Which shall not receive much more in this world, and in the world to come life everlasting.

31 * Then Iesus tooke vnto him the twelue, and said vnto them, Behold, we go vp to Ierusalem, and all things shall be fulfilled to the Sonne of man, that are written by the Prophets. Mat. 20. 17. marke 10. 33.

32 For he shall be deliuered vnto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and shall be spitefully intreated, and shall be spitted on.

33 And when they haue scourged him, they will put him to death: but the third day hee shall rise againe.

34 But they vnderstood none of these things and this saying was hid from them, neither perceived they the things which were spoken.

35 * And it came to passe, that as he was come neere vnto Iericho, a certaine blinde man sat by the way side begging. Mat. 20. 29. marke 10. 46.

36 And when he heard the people passe by, hee asked what it meant.

37 And they said vnto him, that Iesus of Nazaret passed by.

38 Then he cried, saying, Iesus the sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on me.

39 And they which went before, rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried much more, O Sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on me.

40 And Iesus stood still, and commaunded him to be brought vnto him. And when hee was come neere, he asked him, 41 Saying, What wilt thou that I do vnto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receiue my sight.

42 And Iesus said vnto him, Receiue thy sight: thy faith hath saved thee.

43 Then immediately he receiued his sight, and followed him, praying God: and all the people when they saw this, gaue prayse to God.

2 Of Zaccheus. 13 The ten pieces of money. 28 Christ rideth to Ierusalem, and weepeth for it. 45 He chaſeth out the merchants, 47 And his enemies ſeek to deſtroy him.

Now when Ieſus entred, and paſſed thorow Iericho,

2 Behold, there was a man named Zaccheus, which was the chiefe receiuer of the tribute, and he was rich.

3 And he ſought to ſee Ieſus, who he ſhould be, and could not for the preſe, becauſe hee was of a low ſtature.

4 Wherefore hee ranne before, and climed vp into a wild figtree, that hee might ſee him: for hee ſhould come that way.

5 And when Ieſus came to the place, hee looked vp and ſaw him, and ſaid vnto him, Zaccheus, come downe at once: for to day I muſt abide at thine houſe.

6 Then hee came downe haſtily, and receiued him ioyfully.

7 And when all they ſaw it, they murmured, ſaying, that he was gone in to lodge with a ſinfull man.

8 And Zaccheus ſtood forth, and ſaid vnto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the halfe of my goods I giue to the poore: and if I haue taken from any man by forged cauillation, I reſtore him fourefold.

9 Then Ieſus ſaid to him, This day is ſaluation come vnto this houſe, for ſo much as hee is alſo become the ſonne of Abraham.

10 *For the Sonne of man is come to ſeek, and to ſaue that which was loſt.

11 And whiles they heard theſe things, he continued, and ſpake a parable, becauſe hee was neere to Ieruſalem, and becauſe alſo they thought that the kingdome of God ſhould ſhortly appeare.

12 Hee ſaid therefore, *A certaine noble man went into a farre country, to receiue for himſelfe a kingdome, and ſo to come againe.

13 And hee called his ten ſeruants, and deliuered them ten pieces of money, and ſaid vnto them, Occupy till I come.

14 Now his citizens hated him, and ſent an ambaffage after him, ſaying, Wee will not haue this man to reigne ouer vs.

15 And it came to paſſe, when hee was come againe, and had receiued his kingdome, that he commaunded the ſeruants to be called to him, to whom hee gaue his money, that he might know what euery man had gained.

16 Then came the firſt, ſaying, Lord, thy piece hath increaſed ten pieces.

17 And hee ſaid vnto him, Well, good ſervant: becauſe thou haſt bene faithfull in a very little thing, take thou authoritie ouer ten cities.

18 And the ſecond came, ſaying, Lord, thy piece hath increaſed ſixe pieces.

19 And to the ſame hee ſaid, Be thou alſo ruler ouer ſixe cities.

20 So the other came, and ſaid, Lord behold thy piece, which I haue layed vp in a napkin:

21 For I feared thee, becauſe thou art a ſtraite man: thou takeſt vp, that thou layeſt not downe, and reapeſt that thou diſt not ſow.

22 Then hee ſaid vnto him, Of thine own mouth will I iudge thee, O ouil ſervant. Thou kneweſt that I am a ſtraite man, taking vp that I laide not downe, and reaping that I did not ſow.

23 Wherefore then gaueſt thou not my money into the banke, that at my coming I might haue required it with vantage?

24 And hee ſaid to them that ſtoode by, Take from him that piece, and giue it him that hath ten pieces.

25 (And they ſaid vnto him, Lord, he hath tenne pieces)

26 *For I ſay vnto you, that vnto all them that haue, it ſhalbe giuen: and from him that hath not, euen that he hath, ſhalbe taken from him.

27 Moreover, thoſe mine enemies which would not that I ſhould reigne ouer them, bring hither, and ſlay them before me.

28 ¶ And when hee had thus ſpoken, hee went forth before, aſcending vp to Ieruſalem.

29 ¶ And it came to paſſe, when hee was come neere to Bethphage, & Bethania, beſides the mount which is called the mount of Oliues, he ſent two of his diſciples, 30 Saying, Go ye to the towne which is before you, where ſo aſſoone as ye are come, ye ſhall find a colt tyed, whereon neuer man ſate, looſe him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man aſke you, why ye looſe him, thus ſhall yee ſay vnto him, Becauſe the Lord hath need of him.

32 So they that were ſent, went their way, and found it as he had ſaid vnto them.

33 And as they were looſing the colt, the owners thereof ſaid vnto them, Why looſe yee the colt?

34 And they ſaid, The Lord hath need of him.

35 ¶ So they brought him to Ieſus, and they caſt their garments on the colt, and let Ieſus thereon.

36 And as he went, they ſpread their clothes in the way.

37 And when hee was now come neere to the going downe of the mount of Oliues, the whole multitude of the diſciples began to reioyce and to praife God with a loude voice, for all the great workes that they had ſeene, 38 Saying, Bleſſed be the King that cometh in the Name of the Lord: peace in heauen, and glorie in the higheſt places.

39 Then ſome of the Pharifees of the companie ſaid vnto him, Maſter, rebuke thy diſciples.

40 But hee answered and ſaid vnto them, I tell you, that if theſe ſhould hold their peace, the ſtones would crie.

41 ¶ And when he was come neere, hee belied the citie and wept for it, 42 Saying, O if thou haſt euen knownen at the leaſt in this thy day thoſe things which belong vnto thy peace! but now are they hid from thine eyes.

43 For the daies that come vpon thee, that thine enemies that caſt a trench about thee, and compaſſe thee round, and keepe thee in on euery ſide, 44 And ſhall make thee euen with the ground, and thy children which are in thee, and they ſhall not leaue in thee a ſtone vpon a ſtone, becauſe thou kneweſt not the time of thy viſitation.

45 ¶ He went alſo into the Temple, and began to caſt out them that ſold therein, and them that bought, 46 Saying vnto them, It is written, *Mine houſe ſhall be the houſe of prayer, *but yee haue made it a den of theecues.

47 And he taught daily in the Temple. And the high Priests and the Scribes, and the chiefe of the people ſought to deſtroy him.

48 But they could not find what they might doe to him: for all the people hanged vpon him when they heard him.

CHAP. XX.

4 Christ stoppeth his aduersaries mouthes by another question. 9 sheweth their destruction by a parable. 22 The authoritie of Princes. 27 The resurrection, with diuine power. 46 Hee reprehendeth the ambition of the Scribes.

And it came to passe, that on one of those daies, as hee taught the people in the Temple, and preached the Gospell, the hie Priests & the Scribes came vpon him, with the Elders,

2 And spake vnto him, saying, Tell vs by what authority thou doest these things, or who is he that hath giuen thee this authority?

3 And he answered, and said vnto them, I also will aske you one thing: tell me therefore:

4 The baptisme of Iohn, was it from heauen, or of men?

5 And they reasoned within themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heauen, he will say, Why then beleueest ye him not?

6 But if we shall say, Of men, all the people will stone vs: for they bee perswaded that Iohn was a Prophet.

7 Therefore they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

8 Then Iesus said vnto them. Neither tel I you by what authority I doe these things.

9 ¶ Then beganne he to speake to the people this parable. * A certaine man plauted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a strange country for a great season.

10 And at a time hee sent a seruant to the husbandmen, that they should giue him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen did beate him, and sent him away empty.

11 Again he sent yet another seruant: and they did beate him, and soule intreated him, and sent him away empty.

12 Morcouer, hee sent the third, and him they wounded, and cast out.

13 Then said the Lord of the vineyard, What shall I doe? I will send my beloued Sonne: it may bee that they will doe reuerence when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned with themselves, saying, This is the heire: come, let vs kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, & killed him. What shall the Lord of the vineyard therefore doe vnto them?

16 He wil come and destroy these husbandmen, and will giue out his vineyard to others. But when they heard it, they sayd, God forbid.

17 ¶ And he beheld them, and said, What meaneth this then, that is written, * The stone that the builders refused, that is made the head of the corner:

18 Whosoever shall fall vpon that stone, shall be broken, & on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 Then the hie Priests & the Scribes the same houre went about to lay hands on him: (but they feared the people) for they perceiued that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 ¶ And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should faime themselves iust men, to take him in his talke, and to deliuer him vnto the power and authoritie of the gouernour.

21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest right, neither dost thou accept manerion, but teachest the way of God truly.

22 Is it lawfull for vs to giue Cesar tribute, or no?

23 But hee perceiued their craftinesse, and said vnto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shew mee a peny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered, and said, Cessars.

25 Then hee said vnto them, * Giue then vnto Cesar the things which are Cessars, & to God those which are Gods.

26 And they could not reprocue his saying before the people: but they wailed at his answer, and held their peace.

27 * Then came to him certaine of the Sadducees (which denie that there is any resurrection) and they asked him, 28 Saying, Master, * Moses wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother die hauing a wife, and hee die without children, that his brother should take his wife and raise vp seed vnto his brother.

29 Now there were seuen brethren, and the first tooke a wife, and hee died without children.

30 And the second tooke the wife, and hee died childlesse.

31 Then the third tooke her: and so likewise the seuen died, and left no children.

32 And last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore at the resurrection, whose wife of them shall she be? for seuen had her to wife.

34 Then Iesus answered, and said vnto them, The children of this world marrie wiues, and are married.

35 But they which shall bee counted worthy to enjoy that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marrie wiues, neither are married.

36 For they can die no more, inasmuch as they are equall vnto the Angels, and are the sonnes of God, since they are the children of the resurrection.

37 And that the dead shall rise againe, euen * Moses shewed it besides the bulsh, when hee said, The Lord is the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob.

38 For hee is not the God of the dead, but of them which liue: for all liue vnto him.

39 Then certaine of the Pharisees answered and said, Master, thou hast well said.

40 And after that durst they not aske him any thing at all.

41 ¶ * Then said hee vnto them, How say they that Christ is Dauids sonne?

42 And Dauid himselfe saith in the booke of the Psalmes, * The Lord said vnto my Lord, Sit at my ryght hand, 43 Til I shall makethine enemies thy footstoole.

44 Seeing Dauid calleth him Lord, how is hee then his sonne?

45 ¶ Then in the audiences of all the people he said vnto his disciples,

46 * Beware of the Scribes, which desire to goe in long robes, and loue salutations in the markets, and the highest seates in the Synagogues, and the chiefe roomes at feasts:

47 Which deuoure widowes houses euen vnder a colour of long praying: These shall receiue greater damnation.

22 For these be the dayes of vengeance to fulfil all thing that are written.

23 But woe be to them that be with childe, and to them that giue sucke in those dayes: for there shall be great distresse in this land, and wrath ouer this people.

24 And they shall fall on the edge of the sword,

27 And then shall they see the Sonne of man come in a cloud, with power and great glory.

28 And when these things beginne to come to passe, then looke vp, and lift vp your heads: * for your redemption draweth nere.

29 And he spake to them a parable, Behold the figtree, and all trees,

30 When they now shoot forth, ye seeing them, know of your owne selues that Summer is then nere.

31 So likewise ye when ye see these things come to passe, know ye that the kingdom of God is nere.

36 Watch therefore, and pray continually, leaue that shall come to passe, and that ye may stand be-

37 ¶ Now in the day time he taught in the tem-

Nowe * the feast of vnleavened bread drewe nere, which is called the Passouer.

2 And the high Priests and Scribes sought how they might kill him: for they feared the people.

3 Then entered Satan into Iudas who was called Iscariot, and was of the number of the twelue.

4 And hee went his way and communed with the hie Priests and captaines how he might betray him to them.

5 So they were glad, and agreed to giue him money.

6 And he consented and sought opportunity to betray him vnto them, when the people were away.

7 ¶ Then came the day of vnleavened bread, when the Passouer must be sacrificed.

8 And he sent Peter and Iohn, saying, Goe, and prepare vs the Passouer, that we may eat it.

9 And they sayd vnto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare it?

10 Then he said vnto them, Behold, when ye be entred into the citie, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water: follow him into the house that he entrech in,

11 And say vnto the Goodman of the house, The Master saith vnto thee, Where is the lodging where I shall eat my Passouer with my disciples?

12 Then he shall shew you a great high chamber trimmed: there make it ready.

13 So they went, and found as he had said vnto
 them,

them, and made ready the Pascheouer.
 14 * And when the houre was come, hee sat
 downe, and the twelue Apolles with him.
 15 Then he said vnto them, I haue earnestly desired to eat this Pascheouer with you before I suffer.
 16 For I say vnto you, Henceforth I will not eat of it any more vntill it be fulfilled in the kingdome of God.
 17 And he tooke the cup and gaue thanks, and said, Take this and diuide it among you.
 18 For I say vnto you, I will not drinke of the fruite of the vine vntill the kingdome of God bee come.
 19 * And he tooke bread, & when he had giuen thanks he brake it, and gaue to them, saying, This is my body, which is giuen for you: doe this in the remembrance of me.
 20 Likewise also after supper hee tooke the cup, saying, This cup is the new Testament in my blood, which is shed for you.
 21 * Yet behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me, is with me at the Table.
 22 And truly the Sonne of man goeth as it is appointed: but woe be to that man by whom he is betrayed.
 23 Then they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it should be that should doe
 that.
 24 * And there arose a strife also among them, which of them should seeme to be the greatest.
 25 But he said vnto them, The kings of the Gentiles reigne ouer them, and they that beare rule ou-er them are called Gracious lords.
 26 But yee shall not be so: but let the greatest among you be as the least: and the chiefeit as hee that serueth.
 27 For who is greater, he that sitteth at table, or he that serueth? Is not he that sitteth at table? And I am among you as he that serueth.
 28 And ye are they which haue continued with me in my tentations.
 29 Therefore I appoint vnto you a kingdome, as my Father hath appointed to me,
 30 * That yee may eate and drinke at my table in my kingdome, and sit on seates, and iudge the twelue tribes of Israel.
 31 * And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold,
 32 Satan hath desired you, to winow you as wheate.
 33 But I haue praied for thee, that thy faith faile not: therefore when thou art conuerted, strengthen thy brethren.
 34 * And he said vnto him, Lord, I am ready to goe with thee into prison and to death.
 35 But he said, I tell thee Peter, the cocke shall not crow this day before thou hast thrise denied that thou knowest me.
 36 * And he said vnto them, * When I sent you without bagge, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.
 37 Then he said to them, But now he that hath a bagge, let him take it, and likewise a scrip: and he that hath none, let him sell his coate, and buy a sword.
 38 For I say vnto you, that yet the same which is written, must be performed in me, * Euen with the wicked was hee numbered: for doubtlesse those things which are written of me haue an end.
 39 And they sayd, Lord, Behold, heere are two swords. And he sayd vnto them, It is enough.
 40 * And hee came out, and went (as hee was wont) to the mount of Oliues: and his disciples also followed him.

40 * And when he came to the place, he said to them, Pray, lest ye enter into tentation.
 41 And hee gate himselfe from them, about a stons cast, and kneeled downe, and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou wilt, take away this cup from me: neuerthelesse, not my will, but thine be done.
 43 And there appeared an Angel vnto him from heauen comforting him.
 44 But being in an agonie, he prayed more earnestly: and his sweate was like droppes of blood, trickling downe to the ground.
 45 And hee rose vp from prayer, and came to his disciples, and found them sleeping for heauinesse.
 46 And he said vnto them, Why sleepe ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into tentation.
 47 * And while he yet spake, beheld a company, and he that was called Iudas one of the twelue, went before them, and came neere vnto Iesus to kisse him.
 48 And Iesus said vnto him, Iudas, betrayest thou the Sonne of man with a kisse?
 49 Now when they which were about him, saw what would follow, they said vnto him, Lord, shall we smite with sword?
 50 And one of them smote a seruant of the high Priest, and strake off his right eare.
 51 Then Iesus answered, and said, Suffer them thus farre: and hee touched his eare, and healed
 him.
 52 Then Iesus said vnto the hie Priests and captaines of the Temple, and the Elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out as vnto a thiefe, with swords and staves?
 53 When I was daily with you in the Temple, ye stretched not forth y hands against me: but this is your very houre, and the power of darknesse.
 54 * Then tooke they him, and ledde him, and brought him to the high Priests house. And Peter followed afarre off.
 55 * And when they had kindled a fire in the mids of the hall, and were set downe together, Peter also sat downe among them.
 56 And a certaine maid beheld him as hee sat by the fire, and hauing well looked on him, said,
 This man was also with him.
 57 But hee denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.
 58 And after a litle while, another man saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. But Peter said, Man,
 I am not.
 59 And about the space of an houre after, a certaine other affirmed, saying, Vtely, euen this man was with him: for he is also a Galilean.
 60 And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediatly while hee yet spake, the cocke crew.
 61 Then the Lord turned backe, and looked vp-on Peter: and Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said vnto him, * Before the cocke crow thou shalt denie me thrise.
 62 And Peter went out and wept bitterly.
 63 * And the men that held Iesus, mocked him, and stroke him.
 64 And when they had blindfolded him, they smote him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophesie who it is that smote thee.
 65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.
 66 * And assoone as it was day, the Elders of the people, and the high Priests and the Scribes came together, and led him into their Council,
 67 Saying,

70 Then said they all, Art thou then the Sonne of God? And he said to them, Ye say that I am.

71 Then said they, What neede we any further witnesse? for wee our selues haue heard it of his owne mouth.

¶ But they were the more fierce, saying, He mocketh the people, teaching thorowout all Iudea, beginning at Galile, even to this place.

¶ Now when Pilate heard of Galile, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

¶ And when he knew that he was of Herods iurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, which was also at Ierusalem ¶ in those dayes.

¶ 19 Which for a certaine insurrection made in the citie, and murder, was cast in prison.

¶ 20 Then Pilate spake againe to them, willing to let Iesus loose.

¶ 21 But they cried, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him.

¶ 22 And he said to them the third time, But what will hath he done? I finde no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him and let him loose.

¶ 23 But they were instant with loud voices, and required that he might be crucified, and the voices of them and of the high Priests preuailed.

¶ 24 So Pilate gaue sentence that it should bee as they required.

¶ 25 And hee let loose vnto them, him that for insurrection and murder was cast into prison, whom they desired, and deliuered Iesus to doe with him what they would.

¶ 26 ¶ And as they led him away, they caught one Simon of Cyrene coming out of the field, & 32. Marke on him they laid the crosse to beare it after Iesus.

¶ 27 And there folowed him a great multitude of people, and of women, which women bewailed and lamented him.

¶ 28 But Iesus turned backe vnto them, and said, ¶ Daughters of Ierusalem, weepe not for mee, but weepe for your selues, and for your children.

¶ 29 For behold, the dayes will come, when men shall say, Blessed are the barren, & the wombes that neuer bare, and the paps which neuer gaue sucke.

¶ 30 Then shall they beginne to say to the mountaines, ¶ Fall on vs: and to the hills, Come vs.

¶ 31 ¶ For if they do thele things to a greene tree, what shall be done to the drie?

¶ 32 ¶ And there were two others which were euil doers, led with him to be slaine.

¶ 33 And when they were come to the place, which is called ¶ Caluarie, there they crucified him, and the euil doers: one at the right hand, and the other at the left.

¶ 34 Then said Iesus, Father, Forgiue them: for they know not what they doe. And they parted his raiment and cast lots.

¶ 35 And the people stood, and beheld: and the rulers mocked him with them, saying, He saued others: let him saue himselfe, if he be the Christ, the Chosen of God.

¶ 36 The fouldiers also mocked him, and came and offered him vineger, ¶ 37 And said, If thou be the King of the Iewes, saue thy selfe.

¶ 38 And a superscription was also written ouer him, in Greeke letters and in Latine, and in Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE IEWES.

¶ 39 ¶ And one of the euil doers which were hanged, railed on him, saying, If thou be the Christ, saue thy selfe and vs.

¶ 40 But the other answered, and rebuked him, saying, Fearest thou not God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

¶ 41 We are indeed righteously here: for we receiue things worthy of that we haue done: but this man hath done nothing amisse.

¶ 42 And he said vnto Iesus, Lord, remember me, when thou comest into thy kingdome.

¶ 43 Then said Iesus vnto him, Verely I say vnto thee, to day shalt thou be with me in Paradise.

¶ 44 ¶ And it was about the sixth houre: and there was a darknesse ouer all the land, vntill the ninth houre.

¶ 45 And the sunne was darkened, and the vail of the Temple rent thorow the mids.

¶ 46 And Iesus cryed with a loud voyce and said, ¶ Father, into thine handes I commend my spirit. And when he had thus said, he gaue vp the ghost.

¶ 47 ¶ Now when the Centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Of a surety this man was iust.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things that were done, smote their breasts, and returned.

49 And all his acquaintance stood as farre off, and the women that followed him from Galile, beholding these things.

50 ¶ And beholde, there was a man named Ioseph, which was a counsellor, a good man and a iust.

51 He did not consent to the counsell and deed of them, which was of Arimathea a citie of the Iewes: who also himselfe waited for the kingdome of God.

52 He went vnto Pilate, and asked the body of Iesus, 53 And tooke it downe, and wrapped it in a linnen cloth, and laide it in a tombe hewen out of a rocke, wherein was neuer man yet laid.

54 And that day was the Preparation, and the Sabbath drew on.

55 And the women also that followed after, which came with him from Galile, beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was layd.

56 And they returned, and prepared odours, and ointments: and rested the Sabbath day, according to the commandement.

C H A P. XXIIII.

1 The women came to the graue. 13 Christ appeareth vnto the two disciples that got toward Emman. 35 Her standeth in the middles of his disciples, and openeth their vnderstanding in the Scriptures. 47 He queth them a charge. 51 He ascendeth vp to heauen. 52 His disciples worship him, 53 And of their daily exercise.

Now the first day of the weeke early in the morning, they came vnto the sepulchre, and brought the odours which they had prepared, and certaine women with them.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre,

3 And went in, but found not the body of the Lord Iesus.

4 And it came to passe, that as they were amased thereat, beholde, two men suddenly stood by them in thining vesture.

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed downe their faces to the earth, they said to them, Why seeke ye him that lieth among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: remember *how he spake vnto you when he was yet in Galile, 7 Saying, that the Sonne of man must be deliuered into the handes of sinfull men, and be crucified, and the third day rise againe.

8 And they remembered his words,

9 And returned from the sepulchre, and tolde all these things vnto the eluen, and to all the remnant.

Now it was Marie Magdalene, and Ioanna and Marie the mother of Iames, and other women with them, which tolde these things vnto the Apostles.

11 But their words seemed vnto them as a fained thing, neither beleued they them.

12 Then arose Peter and ran vnto the sepulchre, and looked in and saw the linnen clothes laide by themselves, and departed wondring in himselfe at that which was come to passe.

13 ¶ And behold, two of them went that same day to a towne which was from Ierusalem about threescore furlongs, called Emman.

14 And they talked together of all these things that were done.

15 And it came to passe as they communed together, and reasoned, that Iesus himselfe drew neere, and went with them.

16 But their eyes were holden, that they could not know him.

17 And he said vnto them, What maner of communications are these that ye haue one to another as ye walke, and are sad?

18 And the one (named Cleopas) answered and said vnto him, Art thou onely a stranger in Ierusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to passe therein in these dayes?

19 And he said vnto them, What things? And they said vnto him, Of Iesus of Nazaret, which was a Prophet, mightie in deede and in word, before God, and all the people, 20 And how the hie Priests and our rulers deliuered him to bee condemned to death, and haue crucified him.

21 But we trusted that it had bin he that should haue deliuered Israel, & as touching all these things, to day is the third day that they were done.

22 Yea, and certaine women among vs, made vs astonied, which came early vnto the sepulchre.

23 And when they found not his bodie, they came, saying, that they had also seene a vision of Angels, which said that he was aliue.

24 Therefore certaine of them which were with vs, went to the sepulchre, and found it euen so as the women had said, but him they saw not.

25 Then he said vnto them, O fooles, and slow of heart to beleene all that y Prophets haue spoken, 26 Ought not Christ to haue suffered these things, and to enter into his glorie?

27 And hee began at Moses and at all the Prophets, and interpreted vnto them in all the Scriptures the things which were written of him.

28 And they drew neere vnto the towne, which they went to, but hee made as though he would goe further.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with vs: for it is towards night, and the day is far spent. So he went in to tary with them.

30 And it came to passe as he sat at table with them, hee tooke the bread, and gaue thanks, and brake it, and gaue it to them.

31 Then his eyes were opened, and they knew him: but he was taken out of their sight.

32 And they said betweene themselves, Did not our hearts burne within vs, while he talked with vs by the way, and when he opened to vs the scriptures?

33 And they rose vp the same houre, and returned to Ierusalem, and found the eluen gathered together and them that were with them.

34 Which said, The Lord is risen in deede, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 Then they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

36 ¶ And as they spake these things, Iesus himselfe stood in the mids of them, & said vnto them, Peace be vnto you. Mark. 16. 14. Iohn. 20. 19.

37 But they were abashed and afraid, supposing that they had seene a spirit.

38 Then he said vnto them, Why are ye troubled? and wherefore doe doubts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold mine handes and my feete: for it is I my selfe: handle me, and see: for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me haue.

40 And when hee had thus spoken, hee shewed them his handes and feete.

41 And while they yet beleueed not for ioy, and woodred, hee said vnto them, Haue yee heere any meate?

42 And they gaue him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honycombe.

43 And he tooke it, and did eat before them.

44 And he said vnto them, These are the words, which I spake vnto you, while I was yet with you, That all must be fulfilled which are written of me in the Law of Moses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalmes.

45 Then opened hee their vnderstanding, that they might vnderstand the Scriptures, 46 And sayd vnto them, Thus is it written, and thus it behooued Christ to suffer, and to rise againe from the dead the third day, 47 And that repentance and remission of sinnes should bee preached in his Name among all nations, beginning at Ierusalem.

48 Now ye are witnessers of these things.

49 And behold, I will send the * promise of my Father vpon you: but tary ye in the cite of Ierusalem, vntill ye be indured with power from an high.

50 Afterward hee led them out into Bethania, and lift vp his hands, and blessed them.

51 And it came to passe, that as he blessed them, * hee departed from them, and was caried vp into heauen.

52 And they worshipped him, and returned to Ierusalem with great ioy.

53 And were continually in the Temple, praising and lauding God, Amen.

THE HOLY GOSPEL OF IESVS CHRIST,
according to Iohn.

CHAP. I.

v. 14. 17. The diuinitie, humantie and office of Iesus Christ. 15 The testimonie of Iohn. 39 The calling of Andrew, Peter, &c.

Ioh. before the beginning

IN the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and that Word was God.

2 The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made by it, and without it was made nothing that was made.

4 In it was life, & the life was the light of men.

5 And the light shineth in the darkenesse, and the darkenesse comprehended it not.

Mat. 3. 1. mark. 1. 4. Ioh. 3. 2.

6 * There was a man sent from God, whose name was Iohn.

7 The same came for a witnesse, to beare witnesse of the light, that all men through him might beleuee.

8 Hee was not that light, but was sent to beare witnesse of the light.

Ioh. 1. 9.

9 That was the true light, which lighteneth every man that commeth into the world.

Mat. 1. 3.

10 Hee was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11 He came vnto his owne, and his owne receiued him not.

12 But as many as receiued him, to them hee gaue power to be the sonnes of God, euen to them that beleuee in his Name:

Mat. 1. 16.

13 Which are borne not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the wil of man, but of God.

Ioh. 3. 7.

14 * And the word was made flesh, and dwelt among vs (and we * saw the glorie thereof, as the glorie of the onely begotten Sonne of the Father)

Mat. 17. 3.

15 full of grace and truth.

Ioh. 1. 13.

16 * Iohn bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I said, Hee that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me.

Col. 1. 19.

17 And of his fulnesse haue we all receiued, and grace for grace.

Ioh. 1. 19.

18 * For the Law was giuen by Moses, but grace and truth came by Iesus Christ.

Ioh. 1. 19.

19 * No man hath scene God at any time: the onely begotten Sonne, which is in the bosome of the Father, he hath declared him.

1. Tim. 6.

20 * Then this is the record of Iohn, when the Iewes sent Priests and Leuites from Ierusalem, to aske him, Who art thou?

4. 13.

20 And hee confessed and denied not, and said plainly, I * am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And hee said, I am not. Art thou the Prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they vnto him, Who art thou, that we may giue an answer to them that sent vs? what sayest thou of thy selfe?

23 Hee said, I * am the voice of him that cryeth in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the Prophet Elias.

24 Now they which were sent, were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said vnto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not the Christ, neither Elias, nor the Prophet?

26 Iohn answered them, saying, I baptize with water, but there is one among you, whom ye know not.

27 * He it is that cometh after mee, which is preferred before me, whose shoos lachet I am not worthy to vnloose.

28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Iordan, where Iohn did baptize.

29 * The next day Iohn seeth Iesus coming vnto him, and saith, Behold the Lambe of God, which taketh away the sinne of the world.

30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man, which is preferred before me: for hee was before me.

31 And I knew him not: but because hee should bee declared to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 So Iohn bare record, saying, I saw the * Spirit come downe from heauen, like a dove, and it abode vpon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent mee to baptize with water, he said vnto mee, Vpon whom thou shalt see the Spirit come downe, and tary still on him, that is hee which baptizeth with the holy Ghost.

34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Sonne of God.

35 * The next day Iohn stood againe, and two of his disciples.

36 And hee beheld Iesus walking by, and said, Behold the Lambe of God.

37 And the two disciples heard him spake, and followed Iesus.

turned into wine.

Chap. ij. iij.

Christ conuerteth many. 389

38 Then Iesus turned about, and saw them follow, and said vnto them, What seeke ye? And they said vnto him, Rabbi (Which is to say by interpretation, Master) where dwellest thou?

39 He said vnto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth houre.

40 Andrew, Simon Peters brother, was one of the two which had heard it of Iohn, and that followed him.

41 The same found his brother Simon first, and said vnto him, Wee haue found the Meisias, which is by interpretation, The Christ.

42 And he brought him to Iesus. And Iesus beheld him, and said, Thou art Simon the sonne of Iona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, A stone.

43 ¶ The day following, Iesus would goe into Galilee, and found Philip, and said vnto him, Follow me.

44 Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the citie of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip found Nathanael, and said vnto him, We haue found him of whom * Moses did write in the Law, and the * Prophets, Iesus of Nazareth the sonne of Ioseph.

46 Then Nathanael said vnto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip said to him, Come and see.

47 Iesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and said of him, Behold in deed an Israelite, in whom is no guile.

48 Nathanael said vnto him, Whence knewest thou me? Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast vnder the figgetree, I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered, and said vnto him, Rabbi, thou art the Sonne of God: thou art the King of Israel.

50 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Because I said vnto thee, I saw thee vnder the figtree, I beleue thee: thou shalt see greater things then these.

51 And he said vnto him, Verily, verily I say vnto you, hereafter shall ye see heauen open, and the Angels of God * ascending, and descending vpon the Sonne of man.

C H A P. II.

8 Christ turneth the water into wine. 14 He driveth the buyers and sellers out of the Temple. 19 He forewarneth his death and resurrection. 23 Hee conuerteth many, and distrusteth man.

And the third day was there a mariage in Cana, A sonne of Galilee, and the mother of Iesus was there.

2 And Iesus was called also, and his disciples vnto the mariage.

3 Now when the wine failed, the mother of Iesus said vnto him, They haue no wine.

4 Iesus said vnto her, Woman, what haue I to doe with thee? mine houre is not yet come.

5 His mother said vnto the seruants, Whatsoeuer he saith vnto you, doe it.

6 And there were set there six water pots of stone, after the maner of the purifying of the Iewes, containing two or three Irkins apiece.

7 And Iesus said vnto them, Fill the water pots with water. Then they filled them vp to the brim.

8 Then he said vnto them, Draw out now and beare vnto the gouernour of the feast. So they bare it.

9 Now when the gouernour of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine (for he knewe not whence it was: but the seruants, which drewe the water, knew) the gouernour of the feast called the bridegrome,

10 And said vnto him, All men at the beginning set forth good wine, and when men haue well drunke, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept backe the good wine vntill now.

11 This beginning of miracles did Iesus in Ior. from Cana a sonne of Galilee, and shewed forth his glory, and his disciples beleued on him.

12 After that he went downe into Capernaum, he and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: but they continued not many dayes there.

13 For the Iewes Passeouer was at hand. Therefore Iesus went vp to Ierusalem.

14 * And hee found in the Temple those that sold oxen, and sheepe, and doves, and changers of money sitting there.

15 Then hee made a scourge of small cords, and draue them all out of the Temple with the sheepe, and oxen, and powred out the changers money, and ouerthrew the tables.

16 And said vnto them that sold doves, Take these things hence: make not my fathers house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered, that it was written, * The zeale of thine house hath eaten me vp.

18 Then answered the Iewes, and said vnto him, What? signe shewest thou vnto vs, that thou doest these things?

19 Iesus answered, and said vnto them, * Destroy this Temple, and in three dayes I will raise it vp againe.

20 Then said the Iewes, Fortie and sixe yeeres was this Temple a building, and wilt thou reare it vp in three dayes?

21 But he spake of the Temple of his body.

22 Alsoone therefore as hee was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that hee thus said vnto them: and they beleued the Scripture, and the word which Iesus had said.

23 Now when hee was at Hierusalem at the Passeouer in the feast, many beleued in his Name, when they saw his miracles which hee did.

24 But Iesus did not commit himselfe vnto them, because he knew them all.

25 And had no neede that any should testifie of man: for he knew what was in man.

C H A P. III.

3 Christ instructeth Nicodemus in the regeneration. 15 Of faith. 16 Of the lone of Gods towards the world. 23 The doctrine and baptisme of Iohn, 28 and the misse that he beareth of Ibrist.

There was now a man of the Pharises, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Iewes.

1 He came to Iesus by night, and said vnto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man could doe these miracles that thou doest, except God were with him.

2 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Verily, I say vnto thee, except a man bee borne againe, he cannot see the kingdome of God.

3 Nicodemus said vnto him, How can a man be borne which is olde? can he enter into his mothers wombe againe, and be borne?

4 Iesus answered, Verily, verily I say vnto thee, except that a man be borne of water, and of the Spirit, hee cannot enter into the kingdome of God.

6 That which is borne of the flesh is flesh: and that which is borne of the Spirit is Spirit.

7 Marueile not that I said vnto thee, Yee must be borne againe.

8 The wind bloweth wherelit lusteth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is euery man that is borne of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered, and said vnto him, How can these things be?

10 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Art thou a teacher of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily I say vnto thee, we speake that we know, and testifie that we haue seene: but ye receiue not our witnesse.

12 If when I tell you earthly things, ye beleeeue not, how should ye beleeeue, if I shall tell you of heauenly things?

13 For no man ascended vp to heauen, but he that hath descended from heauen, the Sonne of man which is in heauen.

Num. 21. 14 * And as Moyses lift vp the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Sonne of man be lift vp,

9. 15 That whosoever beleeeueth in him, should not perish, but haue eternall life.

2. Iob. 4. 9. 16 * For God so loued the world, that hee hath giuen his only begotten Sonne, that whosoever beleeeueth in him, should not perish, but haue euertlasting life.

Chs. 9. 39 17 * For God sent not his Sonne into the world, that hee should condemn the world, but that the world through him might be saued.

Chs. 12. 47. 18 Hee that beleeeueth in him shall not be condemned: but he that beleeeueth not, is condemned already, because he beleeeueth not in the Name of the only begotten Sonne of God.

Chap. x. 9. 19 * And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkenesse rather than light, because their deeds were euill.

20 For euery man that euill doeth, hateth the light, neither cometh to light, least his deedes should be reprobued.

21 But hee that doeth truth, cometh to the light, that his deedes might be made manifest, that they are wrought according to God.

Ior. ix 22 ¶ After these things came Iesus and his disciples into the land of Iudea, and there taried with them, and * baptized.

Ior. xxi. 23 And Iohn also baptized in Enon beside Salim, because there was much water there: and they came and were baptized.

Chs. 4. 1, 2 24 For Iohn was not yett cast into prison.

25 Then there arose a question betwene Iohns disciples and the Iewes about purifying.

26 And they came vnto Iohn, and said vnto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Iordan, to whom * thou barest witness, behold, he baptizeth, and all men come to him.

Chs. 1. 34 27 Iohn answered, and said, A man can receiue nothing, except it be giuen him from heauen.

Chs. 1. 20 28 Ye your selues are my witness, that * I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.

29 Hee that hath the bride, is the bridegrome: but the friend of the bridegrome which standeth and heareth him, reioyceeth greatly because of the bridegromes voyce. This my ioy therefore is fulfilled:

30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 He that is of the earth, is of the earth, and speaketh of the earth: hee that is come from heauen, is above all.

32 And what he hath seene and heard, that hee testifieth: but no man receiveth his testimonie.

33 Hee that hath received his testimonie, hath sealed that * God is true.

34 For he whom God hath sent, speaketh the words of God, for God giueth him not the spirit by measure.

35 The Father loueth the Sonne, and hath * giuen all things into his hand.

36 * He that beleeeueth in the Sonne, hath euertlasting life, & hee that obeyeth not the Sonne, shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him.

CHAP. IIII.

7 The communication of Christ with the woman of Samaria. 34 His zeale toward his Father, and his earnest. 39 The conversion of the Samaritanes, 45 and Galileans. 47 How he healeth the rulers sonne.

Now when the Lord knew, how the Pharisees had heard that Iesus made and baptized more disciples then Iohn,

2 (Though Iesus himselfe baptized not: but his disciples)

3 He left Iudea, & departed againe into Galile.

4 And he must needs goe thorow Samaria.

5 Then came hee to a citie of Samaria, called Sychar, nere vnto the possession that * Iacob gaue to his sonne Ioseph.

6 And there was Iacobs well. Iesus then wearied in the iourney, sate thus on the well: it was about the first houre.

7 There came a woman of Samaria to drawe water. Iesus said vnto her, Giue me drinke.

8 For his disciples were gone away into the citie, to buy meat.

9 Then said the woman of Samaria vnto him, How is it that thou being a Iewe, askest drinke of me, which am a woman of Samaria: For the Iewes meddle not with the Samaritanes.

10 Iesus answered, & said vnto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Giue me drinke, thou wouldest haue asked of him, and he would haue giuen thee the water of life.

11 The woman said vnto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deepe: from whence then hast thou that water of life?

12 Art thou greater then our father Iacob, which gaue vs the well, and he himselfe dranke thereof, and his children, and his cattell?

13 Iesus answered and sayd vnto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water, shall thirst againe:

14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall giue him, shall neuer be more athirst: but the water that I shall giue him, shall be in him a well of water springing vp into euertlasting life.

15 The woman said vnto him, Sir, giue mee of that water, that I may not thirst, neither come hither to draw.

16 Iesus said vnto her, Go call thy husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered, and said, I haue no husband. Iesus said to her, Thou hast well said, I haue no husband.

18 For thou hast had five husbands, & he whom thou now hast, is not thine husband: that saydest thou truly.

19 The woman said vnto him, Sir, I see that thou art a Prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountaine, and ye say, that in * Ierusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Iesus said vnto her, Woman, beleeeue me, the houre cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountaine, nor at Ierusalem, worship the Father.

22 Ye worship that which yee * know not: we worship

True worshippers.

worship that which wee know: for saluation is of the Iewes.

23 But the houre commeth, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and truth: for the Father requireth euen such to worship him.

24 * God is a Spirit, and they that worship him, must worship him in spirit and truth.

25 The woman said vnto him, I know well that Messias shall come, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell vs all things.

26 Iesus sayd vnto her, I am he that speake vnto thee.

27 ¶ And vpon that came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with a woman: yet no man sayd vnto him, What asketh thou? or why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her water pot, and went her way into the city, and said to the men, 29 Come see a man which hath told mee all things that euer I did: Is not he the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the citie, and came vnto him.

31 ¶ In the meane while the disciples prayed him, saying, Master eate.

32 But he said vnto them, I haue meate to eate, that ye know not of.

33 Then said the disciples between themselves, Hath any man brought him meate?

34 Iesus sayd vnto them, My meate is, that I may doe the will of him that sent mee, and finish his worke.

35 Say not ye, There are yet foure moneths, and then cometh harvest? Behold, I say vnto you, Lift vp your eyes, and looke on the regions: * for they are white already vnto harvest.

36 And he that reapeth, receiueeth wages, & gathereth fruit vnto life eternal, that both hee that soweth, & he that reapeth, might reioyce together.

37 For herein is the [saying true, That one soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reape that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are cutted into their labours.

39 Now many of the Samaritanes of that citie beleued in him, for the saying of the woman, which testified, Hee hath told mee all things that euer I did.

40 Then when the Samaritanes were come vnto him, they besought him that he would tary with them: and he abode there two dayes.

41 And many moe beleueed, because of his owne word.

42 And they said vnto the woman, Now we beleue, not because of thy saying: for we haue heard him our selues, and knowe that this is indeede the Christ the Saniour of the world.

43 ¶ So two daies after he departed thence, and went into Galilee.

44 For Iesus himselfe had * testified that a Prophet hath none honour in his owne countrey.

45 Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galileans receiued him, which had seene all y things that he did at Ierusalem at the feast: for they went also vnto the feast.

46 And Iesus came againe into * Cana a towne of Galilee, where he had made of water wine. And there was a certaine ruler, whose sonne was sicke: at Capernaum.

47 When hee heard that Iesus was come out of Iudea into Galilee, he went vnto him, and besought him that he would go downe and heale his sonne, for he was euen ready to die.

48 Then sayd Iesus vnto him, Except yee see signes and wonders, ye will not beleue.

49 The ruler sayd vnto him, Sir, goe downe before my sonne die.

50 Iesus said to him, Goe thy way, thy sonne liueth: and the man beleued the word that Iesus had spoken vnto him, and went his way.

51 And as he was now going downe, his seruants met him, saying, Thy sonne liueth.

52 Then enquired he of them the houre when he began to mend. And they said vnto him, Yesterday the seuenth houre the feuer left him.

53 Then the father knew, that it was the same houre in the which Iesus had sayd vnto him, Thy sonne liueth. And he beleued, and all his household.

54 This second miracle did Iesus againe, after he was come out of Iudea into Galilee.

CHAP. V.

8 He healeth the man that was sicke eight and thirtie yeeres. 10 The Iewes accuse him. 19 Christ answereth for himselfe, and reprooueth them, 32 shewing by the testimony of his father, 33 of Iohn, 36 of his works, 39 and of the Scriptures, who he is.

¶ After * that, there was a leafe of the Iewes, and A Iesus went vp to Ierusalem.

2 And there is at Ierusalem by [the place of the sheepe, a poole called in Ebrew Bethesda, hauing foue porches:

3 In the which lay a great multitude of sicke folke, of blin le, halt, and withered, wayting for the moouing of the water.

4 For an Angel went downe at a certaine season into the poole, and troubled the water: whosoever then first, after the stirring of the water, stepped in, was made whole of whatsoeuer disease hee had.

5 And a certaine man was there, which had bin diseased eight and thirtie yeeres.

6 When Iesus saw him lie, & knew that hee now long time had bin diseased, hee said vnto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The sicke man answered him, Sir, I haue no man, when the water is troubled, to put mee into the poole: but while I am coming, another steppeth downe before me.

8 Iesus said vnto him, Rise: take vp thy bedde, and walke.

9 And immediatly the man was made whole, and tooke vp his bedde and walked: and the same day was the Sabbath.

10 The Iewes therefore said to him that was made whole, It is the Sabbath day: * It is not law- full for thee to cary thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, he said vnto me, Take vp thy bed and walke.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said vnto thee, Take vp thy bed and walke?

13 And hee that was healed, knew not who it was: for Iesus had conueyed himselfe away from the multitude that was in that place.

14 And after that, Iesus found him in the Temple, & said vnto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sinne no more, lest a worse thing come vnto thee.

15 ¶ The man departed, and told the Iewes that it was Iesus that had made him whole.

16 And therefore the Iewes did persecute Iesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the Sabbath day.

17 But Iesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I worke.

The five barley loaves.

18 Therefore the Iewes sought the more to kill him: not only because he had broken the Sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, and made himselfe equall with God.

19 Then answered Iesus, and said vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, The Sonne can doe nothing of himselfe saue that he seeth the Father do: for whatsoever things hee doeth, the same things doeth the Sonne also.

20 For the Father loueth the Sonne, and sheweth him all things, whatsoever he himselfe doeth, and he will shew him greater works then these, that ye should marueile.

21 For likewise as the Father raiseth vp the dead, & quickeneth them, so the Sonne quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father iudgeth no man, but hath committed all iudgement vnto the Sonne, 23 Because that all men should honor the Sonne, as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Sonne, the same honoreth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verely, verely I say vnto you, He that heareth my word, and beleueth in him that sent mee, hath euermlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation, but hath passed from death vnto life.

25 Verely, verely I say vnto you, The houre shall come, and now is, when the dead shall heare the voice of the Sonne of God: and they that heare it, shall liue.

26 For as the Father hath life in himselfe, so likewise hath hee giuen to the Sonne to haue life in himselfe, 27 And hath giuen him power also to execute iudgement, in that he is the Sonne of man.

28 Marueile not at this: for the houre shall come in the which all that are in the graues shall heare his voice.

Mat. 25. 29 And they shall come forth * that haue done good, vnto the resurrection of life: but they that haue done euill, vnto the resurrection of condemnation.

30 I can doe nothing of mine owne selfe: as I heare, I iudge: and my iudgement is iust, because I seeke not mine own will, but the will of the Father who hath sent me.

Chas. 14 31 If I * should beare witness of my selfe, my witness were not true.

Mat. 3. 17 32 There is another that beareth witness of me, and I know that the witness which he beareth of me, is true.

Esa. 1. 27 33 * Ye sent vnto Iohn, and he bare witness vnto the truth.

34 But I receiue not the record of man: neuertheless, these things I say, that ye might be saued.

10r, lamp. 35 He was a burning and a shining candle: and ye would for a season haue reioyced in his light.

36 But I haue greater witness then the witness of Iohn: for the workes which the Father hath giuen me to finish, the same workes that I doe, beare witness of me, that the father sent me.

Mat. 3. 17 37 And the * Father himselfe which hath sent and 17. 5. me, beareth witness of me. Ye haue not heard his voice at any time, * neither haue yee seene his shape.

11. 38 And his word haue yee not abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye beleue not.

Mat. 17 39 * Search the Scriptures: for in them ye think to haue eternall life, and they are they which testify of me.

40 But ye will not come to mee, that ye might haue life.

41 I receiue not praise of men.

42 But I know you, that ye haue not the loue of God in you.

43 I am come in my Fathers Name, and yee receiue mee not: If another shall come in his owne name, him will ye receiue.

44 How can ye beleue which receiue * honour Chap. 18 one of another, and seeke not the honour that com- 45 meth of God alone?

45 Doe not thinke that I will accuse you to my Father: there is one that accuseth you, euem Moyses, in whom ye trust.

46 For had ye beleueed Moyses, ye would haue Gen. 22. 18 beleueed me: * for he wrote of me.

47 But if ye beleue not his writings, how shall Gen. 22. 18 ye beleue my words? den. 18. 13

CHAP. VI.

10 Iesus feedeth fise thousand men with fise loaves and two fishes. 15 He departeth away, that they should not make him king. 26 He reproveth the ffishly hearers of his word. 51 The carnall are offended at him. 63 The ffish propheth not.

After these things Iesus went his way ouer the sea of Galilee, or of Tiberias.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which hee did on them, that were diseased.

3 Then Iesus went vp into a mountaine, and there sate with his disciples.

4 Now the Passouer, a * feast of the Iewes, was Leu. 23. 35 neere. den. 16. 16

5 * Then Iesus lift vp his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude came vnto him, he said vnto Phil. 1. 6 Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these might 6. 37 cate? 19. 13

6 (And this he said to proue him: for he himselfe knew what he would doe)

7 Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that euery one of them may take a little.

8 Then said vnto him one of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peters brother, 9 There is a little boy here which hath five barley loaves, and two fishes: but what are they among so many?

10 And Iesus said, Make the people sit downe. (Now there was much grasse in that place) then the men sate downe in number about fise thousand.

11 And Iesus tooke the bread, and gaue thanks, and gaue to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set downe: and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

12 And when they were satisfied, hee said vnto his disciples, Gather vp the broken meate which remaineth, that nothing be lost.

13 Then they gathered it together, and filled twelue baskets with the broken meate of the fise barley loaves, which remained vnto them that had eaten.

14 Then the men when they had seene the miracle that Iesus did, said, This is of a truth the Prophet that should come into the world.

15 When Iesus therefore perceiued that they would come and take him to make him a king, he departed againe into a mountaine himselfe alone.

16 ¶ When euen was now come, his disciples went downe vnto the sea,

17 * And entred into a ship, and went ouer the Mat. 13. 36 sea towards Capernaum: and now it was darke, and 19. 13 Iesus was not come to them. 6. 47

19 And when they had rowed about five and twenty, or thirtie furlongs, they saw Iesus walking on the sea, and drawing neere vnto the ship: so they were afraid.

20 But he said vnto them, It is I: be not afraid.

Chap. 13.

21 Then willingly they receiued him into the ship, and the ship was by and by at the land, whither they went.

22 ¶ The day following the people which stood on the other side of the sea, sawe that there was none other ship there, save that one, whereinto his disciples were entred, and that Iesus went not with his disciples in the ship, but that his disciples were gone alone,

23 And that there came other ships from Tiberias neere vnto the place where they ate the bread, after the Lord had giuen thanks.

24 Now when the people saw that Iesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum seeking for Iesus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said vnto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Iesus answered them, and said, Verely, verely I say vnto you, ye seeke me not, because yee saw the miracles, but because ye ate of the loanes, and were filled.

27 Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for the meate that endureth vnto euerlasting life, which the sonne of man shall giue vnto you: for him hath * God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they vnto him, What shall we do, that we might worke the workes of God?

29 Iesus answered and said vnto them, * This is the worke of God, that ye beleue in him whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore vnto him, What signe shewest thou then, that we may see it, and beleue thee? what doest thou worke?

31 * Our fathers did eate Manna in the desert, as it is * written, He gaue them bread from heauen to eate.

32 Then Iesus said vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, Moses gaue you not bread from heauen, but my father giueth you the true bread from heauen.

33 For the bread of God is hee which cometh downe from heauen, & giueth life vnto the world.

34 Then they said vnto him, Lord, euermore giue vs this bread.

35 And Iesus said vnto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall not hunger, and he that beleueth in me shall neuer thirst.

36 But I said vnto you, that yee also haue seene me, and beleue not.

37 All that the Father giueth mee, shall come to mee: and him that cometh to mee, I cast not away.

38 For I came downe from heauen, not to doe mine owne will, but his will which hath sent mee.

39 And this is the Fathers will which hath sent me, that of all which hee hath giuen mee, I should lose nothing, but should raise it vp againe at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent mee, that euery man which seeth the Sonne, and beleueth in him (should haue euerlasting life: and I will raise him vp at the last day.

41 The Iewes then murmured at him, because hee said, I am the bread which is come down from heauen.

42 And they said, * Is not this Iesus the sonne of Ioseph, whose father and mother wee know? how then saith he, I came downe from heauen?

43 Iesus then answered, and said vnto them, Murmure not among your selues.

44 No man can come to mee, except the Father, which hath sent me, draw him: and I will raise him vp at the last day.

45 It is written in the * Prophets, And they shall bee all taught of God. Euery man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh vnto me.

46 * Not that any man hath seene the Father, save he which is of God, he hath seene the Father.

Mat. 11.
27.

47 Verely, verely I say vnto you, Hee that beleueth in me, hath euerlasting life.

48 I am the bread of life.

49 * Your fathers did eate Manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

Exod. 16.
15.

50 This is the breade which cometh downe from heauen, that hee which eateth of it should not die.

51 I am the liuing bread which came downe from heauen: if any man eat of this bread, hee shall liue for euer: and the bread that I will giue is my flesh, which I will giue for the life of the world.

52 Then the Iewes strone among themselves, saying, How can this man giue vs his flesh to eate?

53 Then Iesus said vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, Except ye eate the flesh of the Sonne of man, and drinke his blood, yee haue no life in you.

54 Whosoever * eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternall life, and I will raise him vp at the last day.

1. Cor. 12.
27.

55 For my flesh is meate in deed, and my blood is drinke in deed.

56 Hee that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the liuing Father hath sent mee, so liue I by the Father, and he that eateth me, euen hee shall liue by me.

58 This is the bread which came downe from heauen: not as your fathers haue eaten Manna, and are dead. Hee that eateth of this bread, shall liue for euer.

59 These things spake hee in the Synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his disciples (when they heard this) said, This is an hard saying: who can heare it?

61 But Iesus knowing in himselfe, that his disciples murmured at this, said vnto them, Doeth this offend you?

62 I say then if ye should see the Sonne of man ascend vp * where he was before?

Chap. 3. 13.

63 It is the spirit that quickeneth: the flesh profiteth nothing: the wordes that I speake vnto you, are spirit and life.

64 But there are some of you that beleue not: for Iesus knew from the beginning, which they were that beleued not, and who should betray him.

65 And hee said, Therefore said I vnto you, that no man can come vnto me, except it be giuen vnto him of my Father.

66 From that time many of his disciples went backe, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Iesus to the twelue, Will yee also goe away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Master, to whom shall we goe? Thou hast the wordes of eternall life:

Mat. 16. * 69 And wee beleuee and know that thou art
 16. the Christ the Sonne of the liuing God.
Mat. 26. 70 Iesus answered them, Haue not I * chosen you 14. twelve, and one of you is a deuill?
 71 Now he spake it of Iudas Iscariot, the sonne of Simon: for hee it was that should betray him, though he was one of the twelve.

CHAP. VII.

6 Iesus reproofeth the ambition of his cousins. 12
 There are diuers opinions of him among the people. 17
 Hee sheweth how to know the truth. 20 The minie they doe vnto him. 47 The Pharises reduce the officers because they haue not taken him, 52 and conde with Nicodemus for taking his part.

A Fter these things, Iesus walked in Galile, and would not walke in Iudea: for the Iewes sought to kill him.

Leuit. 23. 2 Now the Iewes * feast of the Tabernacles
 34. was at hand.

3 His brethren therefore said vnto him, Depart hence, and goe into Iudea, that thy disciples may see thy workes that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth any thing secretly, and himselfe seeketh to be famous. If thou doest these things, shew thy selfe to the world.

5 For as yet his brethren beleueed not in him.

6 Then Iesus said vnto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready.

7 The world cannot hate you, but me it hateth, because I testifie of it, that the workes thereof are euill.

8 Goe yee vp vnto this feast: I will not goe vp yet vnto this feast: for my time is not yet fulfilled.

9 ¶ These things he said vnto them, and abode still in Galile.

10 But as soon as his brethren were gone vp, then went he vp also vnto the feast, not openly, but as it were priuily.

11 Then the Iewes sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And much murmuring was there of him, among the people. Some said, He is a good man:
 other said, Nay: but he deceiuech the people.

13 Hewbeit no man spake openly of him, for feare of the Iewes.

14 Now when halfe the feast was done, Iesus went vp into the Temple, and taught.

15 And the Iewes marueiled, saying, How knoweth this man the Scriptures, seeing that hee neuer learned?

16 Iesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 If any man will doe his will, hee shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speake of my selfe.

18 Hee that speaketh of himselfe, seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no vnrighteousness is in him.

Exo. 24.3 19 * Did not Moses giue you a Law, and yet none
Chap. 5.18. of you keepeth the Law? * Why goe yee about to kill me?

20 The people answered, and said, Thou hast a deuill, who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Iesus answered, and said to them, I haue done one worke, and yee all marueile.

Leuit. 12. 22 * Moses therefore gaue vnto you circumcision,
Gen. 17. (not because it is of Moses, but of the * fathers) and yee on the Sabbath day circumsise a man.

23 If a man on the Sabbath receiue circumcision, that the Law of Moses should not be broken, be yee angry with mee, because I haue made a man euery whit whole on the Sabbath day?

24 * Iudge not according to the appearance, but iudge righteous iudgement.

25 ¶ Then said some of them of Ierusalem, Is not this he whom they goe about to kill?

26 And hehold, hee speaketh openly, and they say nothing to him: doe the rulers know in deepe that this is the very Christ?

27 Howbeit wee know this man whence hee is:
 but when the Christ cometh, no man shall know whence he is.

28 ¶ Then cryed Iesus in the Temple as hee taught, saying, Ye both know me, and know whence I am: yet am I not come of my selfe, but hee that sent me, is true, whom yee know not.

29 But I know him: for I am of him, and hee hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him, but no man laide hands on him, because his houre was not yet come.

31 Now many of the people beleueed in him, and said, When the Christ cometh, will he doe moe miracles then this man hath done?

32 The Pharises heard that the people murmured these things of him, and the Pharises and high Priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Iesus vnto them, Yet am I a little while with you, and then I goe vnto him that sent mee.

34 * Ye shall seeke me, and shall not find me, and where I am can yee not come.

35 Then said the Iewes among themselves, Whither will he goe that we shall not finde him? Will hee goe vnto them that are dispersed among the Grecians, and teach the Grecians?

36 What saying is this, that hee said, Yee shall seeke me, and shall not find me? And where I am, can yee not come?

37 Now in the last and * great day of the feast, Leuit. 23.35
 Iesus stood, and cryed, saying, If any man thirst, let him come vnto me, and drinke.

38 He that beleueth in me, * as saith the Scripture, out of his belly shall flow riuers of water of life.

39 (* This spake he of the Spirit, which they that beleueed in him, should receiue: for the holy Ghost was not yet giuen, because that Iesus was not yet glorified)

40 So many of the people, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the Prophet.

41 Other said, This is the Christ: and some said,
 But shall Christ come out of Galile?

42 * Saith not the Scripture that the Christ shall come of the seed of Dauid, and out of the towne of Beth-lehem, where Dauid was?

43 So was there diffension among the people for him.

44 And some of them would haue taken him, but no man laide hands on him.

45 Then came the officers to the hie Priests and Pharises, and they said vnto them, Why haue yee not brought him?

46 The Officers answered, Neuer man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Pharises, Are yee also deceiued?

48 Doeth any of the Rulers, or of the Pharises beleuee in him?

49 But this people which know not the Law, are cursed.

50 Nicodemus said vnto them, * hee that came to man taken in adultery.

to Iesus by night, and was one of them)
51 Dooth our Law iudge a man before it heare him, and * know what he hath done?
52 They answered and said vnto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search and looke: for out of Galilee ariseeth no Prophet.

53 And every man went vnto his owne house.

CHAP. VIII.

11 Christ delivereth her that was taken in adultery. 12 He is the light of the world. 13 He sheweth from whence he is come, wherefore, and whither he goeth. 14 Who are free, and who are bond. 15 Of freemen and slaves, and their reward. 16 He despiseth his enemies, 17 and being persecuted, withstandeth himselfe.

And Iesus went vnto the mount of Oliues,
2 And early in the morning came againe into the Temple, and all the people came vnto him, and he sate downe and taught them.

3 Then the Scribes and the Pharisees brought vnto him a woman taken in adultery, and set her in the mids,

4 And said vnto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very acte.

5 * Now Moyses in the Lawe commanded vs, that such should be stoned: what sayest thou therefore?

6 And thus they said to tempt him, that they might haue wherof to accuse him: But Iesus stouped downe, and with his finger wrote on the ground.

7 And while they continued asking him, hee lift himselfe vp, and said vnto them, * Let him that is among you without sinne, cast the first stone at her.

8 And againe he stouped downe and wrote on the ground.

9 And when they heard it, being accused by their owne conscience, they went out one by one, beginning at the eldest euen to the last: so Iesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the mids.

10 When Iesus had lift vp himselfe againe, and saw no man but the woman, he said vnto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Iesus said, Neither doe I condemne thee: goe, and sinne no more.

12 Then spake Iesus againe vnto them, saying,
* I am the light of the world: hee that followeth me shall not walke in darkenesse, but shall haue the light of life.

13 The Pharisees therefore said vnto him, Thou bearest record of thy selfe: thy record is not true.

14 * Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Though I beare record of my selfe, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I goe: but yee cannot tell whence I come, and whither I goe.

15 Ye iudge after the flesh: I iudge no man.

16 And if I also iudge, my iudgement is true:
for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent
mee.

17 And it is also written in your Lawe, * That the testimonie of two men is true.

18 I am one that beare witness of my selfe, and the Father that sent me, beareth witness of me.

19 Then said they vnto him, Where is thy Father? Iesus answered, Ye neither know me nor my Father. If yee had knowne me, yee should haue knowne my Father also.

20 These words spake Iesus in the treasure, as hee taught in the Temple, and no man laid hands on him: for his houre was not yet come.

Chap. viij.

Abrahams workes. 392

21 Then said Iesus againe vnto them, I goe my way, and yee shall seeke me, and shall die in your sinnes. Whither I goe can ye not come.

22 Then said the Iewes, Will he kill himselfe, because he sayeth, Whither I goe can ye not come?

23 And he said vnto them, Ye are from beneath:
I am from above: ye are of this world, I am not of this world.

24 I said therefore vnto you, that ye shall die in your sinnes: for except ye beleue that I am he, ye shall die in your sinnes.

25 Then said they vnto him, Who art thou?
And Iesus said vnto them, ¶ Euen the same thing that I said vnto you from the beginning.

26 I haue many things to say and to iudge of you: but he that sent me is true, and the things that I haue heard of him, those speake I to the world.

27 They vnderstood not that hee spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Iesus vnto them, When yee haue lift vp the Sonne of man, then shall yee know that I am he, and that I doe nothing of my selfe: but as my Father hath taught mee, so I speake these things.

29 For hee that sent me, is with me: the Father hath not left me alone, because I doe alwayes those things that please him.

30 ¶ As hee spake these things, many beleued in him.

31 Then said Iesus to the Iewes that beleued in him, If ye continue in my word, ye are verely my disciples.

32 And shall knowe the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

33 They answered him, We be Abrahams seed, and were neuer bond to any man: why sayest thou then, Ye shall be made free?

34 Iesus answered them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that whosoever committeth sinne, is the * seruant of sinne.

35 And the seruant abideth not in the house for euer, but the Sonne abideth for euer.

36 If the Sonne therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free in deed.

37 I know that ye are Abrahams seede, but yee seeke to kill mee, because my word hath no place in you.

38 I speake that which I haue seene with my Father: and yee doe that which yee haue seene with your father.

39 They answered, and said vnto him, Abraham is our father. Iesus said vnto them, If yee were Abrahams children, ye would doe the workes of Abraham.

40 But now ye goe about to kill mee, a man that haue tolde you the truth, which I haue heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41 Ye doe the workes of your father. Then said they to him, We are not borne of fornication: wee haue one Father, which is God.

42 Therefore Iesus said vnto them, If God were your father, then would yee loue me: for I proceded forth, and came from God, neither came I of my selfe, but he sent me.

43 Why doe yee not vnderstand my talke? because ye cannot heare my word.

44 * Ye are of your father the deuil and the lusts of your father: ye will doe: he hath been a murderer from the beginning, & abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When hee speaketh a lie, then speaketh he of his owne: for he is a liar, and the father thereof.

Rom. 6. 80
2. pet. 2.
19.

1. Job. 3. 8

45 And because I tell you the truth, ye beleue me not.

46 Which of you can rebuke me of sinne? and if I say the truth, why doe ye not beleue me?

1. Job. 4. 6. 47 He that is of God, heareth Gods wordes: yee therefore heare them not, because yee are not of God.

48 Then answered the Iewes, and said vnto him, Say wee not well that thou art a Samaritane, and haist a deuill?

49 Iesus answered, I haue not a deuill, but I honour my Father, and ye haue dishonoured me.

50 And I seeke not mine owne praise: but there is one that seeketh it and iudgeth.

51 Verely, verely I say vnto you, If a man keepe my word, he shall neuer see death.

52 Then said the Iewes vnto him, Now know we that thou hast a deuill. Abraham is dead, and the Prophets, and thou sayest, If a man keepe my word, he shall neuer taste of death.

53 Art thou greater then our father Abraham, which is dead? and the Prophets are dead: whom makest thou thy selfe?

54 Iesus answered, If I honour my selfe, mine honour is nothing worth: it is my Father that honoureth me, whom ye say that he is your God.

55 Yet ye haue not known him: but I know him, and if I should say, I know him not, I should be a liar like vnto you: but I know him, and keepe his word.

Cap. 12. 56 Your father Abraham reioyced to see my day, and he saw it, and was glad.

¶ And he passed thorow the midst of them, and so went his way. 57 Then said the Iewes vnto him, Thou art not yet hitte yere old, and hast thou seene Abraham?

58 Iesus said vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, before Abraham was, I am.

59 Then tooke they vp stones to cast at him, but Iesus hid himselfe, and went out of the Temple.

CHAP. IX.

¶ Of him that was borne blinde. 11 The confession of him that was borne blinde. 39 To what blindness Christ giueth sight.

¶ As Iesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sinne, this man, or his parents, that he was borne blinde?

3 Iesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the workes of God should be shewed on him.

4 I must worke the workes of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh when no man can worke.

Cap. 1. 9. and 8. 12. 5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

¶ 12. 35 6 As soone as he had thus spoken, he spate on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and anointed the eyes of the blind with the clay,

7 And said vnto him, Goe wash in the poole of Siloam (which is by interpretation, Sent). He went his way therefore, and washed, and came againe seeing.

8 Now the neighbours, and they that had seene him before when he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

9 Some said, This is he: and others said, He is like him: but he himselfe said, I am hee.

10 Therefore they said vnto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered, said, The man that is called Iesus, made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said vnto me, Goe to the poole of Siloam, and wash. So I went, and washed, and receiued sight.

12 Then they said vnto him, Where is hee? He said, I cannot tell.

13 ¶ They brought to the Pharises him that was once blinde.

14 And it was the Sabbath day, when Iesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then againe the Pharises also asked him, how hee had receiued sight. And hee said vnto them, He laid clay vpon mine eyes, and I washed, and doe see.

16 Then said some of the Pharises, This man is not of God, because hee keepeth not the Sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner, doe such miracles? and there was a dissention among them.

17 Then spake they vnto the, blinde againe, What sayest thou of him, because he hath opened thine eyes? And he said, He is a Prophet.

18 Then the Iewes did not beleue him (that he had been blinde, and receiued his sight) untill they had called, the parents of him that had receiued sight.

19 And they asked him, saying, Is this your sonne, whom ye say was borne blinde? How doeth he now see then?

20 His parents answered them, and said, Wee know that this is our sonne, and that hee was borne blinde:

21 But by what meanes he now seeth, we know not: or who hath opened his eyes can we not tell: he is old enough: aske him: hee shall answer for himselfe.

22 These words spake his parents, because they feared the Iewes: for the Iewes had ordained already, that if any man did confesse that he was the Christ, hee should be excommunicate out of the Synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is old enough: aske him.

24 Then againe called they the man that had beene blinde, and said vnto him, Giue glory vnto God: we know that this man is a sinner.

25 Then he answered, and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I cannot tell: one thing I know, that I was blind, and now I see.

26 Then said they to him againe, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I haue told you already, and ye haue not heard it: wherefore would ye heare it againe? will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then checked they him and said, Be thou his disciples, we be Moses disciples.

29 We know that God spake with Moses: but this man we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered, and said vnto them, Doubtlesse, this is a marvellous thing, that ye know not whence hee is, and yet hee hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now wee knowe that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him heareth hee.

32 Since the world began was it not heard, that any man opened the eyes of one that was borne blinde.

33 If this man were not of God, he could haue done nothing.

34 They answered and said vnto him, Thou art altogether borne in sinnes, and dost thou teach vs? so they cast him out.

35 Iesus heard that they had cast him out: and when when hee had found him, hee said vnto him, Doeſt thou beleue in the Sonne of God?

36 He answered and ſaid, Who is he, Lord, that I might beleue in him?

37 And Ieſus ſaid vnto him, Both thou haſt ſeene him and he it is that talketh with thee.

38 Then he ſaid, Lord, I beleue, and worſhipped him.

39 And Ieſus ſaid, I am come vnto iudgement into this world, that they which ſee not, might ſee: and that they * which ſee, might be made blind.

40 And ſome of the Phariſes which were with him, heard theſe things, and ſaid vnto him, Are wee blinde alſo?

41 Ieſus ſaid vnto them, If yee were blinde, yee ſhould not haue ſinne, but now yee ſay, Wee ſee: therefore your ſinne remaineth.

11 Chriſt is the true Shepheard, and the doore. 19 Diuers opinions of Chriſt. 24 Hee is asked if hee be Chriſt. 32 His worke declare that he is God. 34 The Princes called gods.

Verely, verely I ſay vnto you, Hee that entrencheth in by the doore into the ſheepfold, but climbeth vp another way, he is a thiefe and a robber.

2 But he that goeth in by the doore, is the ſhepherd of the ſheepe.

3 To him the porter openeth, and the ſheepe heare his voyce, and he calleth hiſ owne ſheepe by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he hath ſent forth hiſ owne ſheepe, hee goeth before them, and the ſheepe follow him: for they know his voyce.

5 And they will not follow a ſtranger, but they flee from him: for they knowe not the voyce of ſtrangers.

6 This parable ſpake Ieſus vnto them: but they vaderſtood not what things they were which hee ſpake vnto them.

7 Then ſaid Ieſus vnto them againe, Verely, verely I ſay vnto you, I am the doore of the ſheepe.

8 All that euer came before mee are theenes and robbers: but the ſheepe did not heare them.

9 I am the doore: by mee if any man enter in, he ſhall be ſaued, and ſhall goe in, and goe out, and find paſture.

10 The thiefe cometh not, but for to ſteale and to kill, and to deſtroy: I am come that they might haue life, and haue it in abundance.

11 * I am the good Shepheard: the good Shepheard giueth hiſ life for hiſ ſheepe.

12 But an hireling, and hee which is not the ſhepherd, neither the ſheepe are hiſ owne, ſeech the wolfe comming, and he leaueth the ſheepe, and fleeth, and the wolfe catcheth them, and ſcattereth the ſheepe.

13 So the hireling fleeth, becauſe he is an hireling, and careth not for the ſheepe.

14 I am the good Shepheard, and know mine, and am known of mine.

15 As the Father knoweth me, ſo know I the Father: and I lay downe my life for my ſheepe.

16 Other ſheepe I haue alſo, which are not of this fold: them alſo muſt I bring, and they ſhall heare my voyce: and * there ſhall bee one ſheepfold, and one Shepheard.

17 Therefore doſh my Father loue me, becauſe * I lay downe my life, that I might take it againe.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it downe of my ſelfe: I haue power to lay it downe, and haue power to take it againe: theſe * Commaundement haue I receiued of my Father.

19 ¶ Then there was a diſſention againe among the Iewes for theſe ſayings.

20 And many of them ſaid, He hath a deuill, and is mad: why heare ye him?

21 Others ſaid, Theſe are not the words of him that hath a deuill: can the deuill open the eyes of the blinde?

22 And it was at Ieruſalem the feaſt of the <sup>De- I. Mar. 4.</sup> <sup>59.</sup> dication, and it was winter.

23 And Ieſus walked in the Temple in Salomons porch.

24 Then came the Iewes round about him, and ſaid vnto him, How long doeſt thou make vs doubt? If thou be the Chriſt, tell vs plainly. [Or, doubt: Iſt thou be the Chriſt, tell vs plainly.]

25 Ieſus answered them, I told you, and ye beleeue not: the worke that I doe in my Fathers ſuſpenſe Name, they beare witneſſe of me.

26 But yee beleeue not: for yee are not of my ſheepe, as I ſaid vnto you.

27 My ſheepe heare my voyce, and I know them, and they follow me,

28 And I giue vnto them eternall life, and they ſhall neuer periſh, neither ſhall any plucke them out of mine hand.

29 My Father which gaue them mee, is greater then all, and none is able to take them out of my Fathers hand.

30 I and my Father are one.

31 * Then the Iewes againe tooke vp ſtones to ſtone him. Chap. 8. 59

32 Ieſus answered them, Many good worke haue I ſhewed you from my Father: for which of theſe worke doe yee ſtone me?

33 The Iewes answered him, ſaying, For the good worke wee ſtone thee not, but for blaſphemy, and that thou being a man, makeſt thy ſelfe God.

34 Ieſus answered them, Is it not written in your Law, * I ſaid, Ye are gods? Pſ. 82. 6.

35 If hee called them gods, vnto whom the word of God was giuen, and the Scripture cannot bee broken, 36 Say ye of him, whom the Father hath ſanctified and ſent into the world, Thou blaſphemelt, becauſe I ſaid, I am the Sonne of God?

37 If I doe not the worke of my Father, beleeue me not.

38 But if I doe, then though ye beleeue not me, yet beleeue the worke, that yee may know and beleeue, that the Father is in me, and I in him.

39 Againe they went about to take him: but hee eſcaped out of their hands, 40 And went againe beyond Iorden, into the place where Iohn firſt baptized, and there abode.

41 And many reſorted vnto him, and ſaid, Iohn did no miracles: but all things that Iohn ſpake of this man, were true.

42 And many beleeued in him there.

43 Chriſt rayſeth Lazarus from death. 47 The high Prieſts and Phariſes gather a counsell againſt him. 50 Caiaphas propheteſeth. 54 Chriſt getteth him out of the way.

And a certaine man was ſicke, named Lazarus of Bethania, the towne of Marie, and her ſiſter Martha.

2 (And it was that * Mary which anoynted the Lord with oyntment, and wiped hiſ teete with her hair, whoſe brother Lazarus was ſicke.) Chap. 12. 1. 50. 26. 7.

3 Therefore hiſ ſiſter ſent vnto him, ſaying, Lord, behold, he whom thou loueſt, is ſicke.

4 When Ieſus heard it, he ſaid, This ſickneſſe is Ddd 3 not not vnto death, but for the glory of God, that the Sonne of God might be glorified thereby.

5 ¶ Now Iesus loued Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 And after he had heard that he was sicke, yet abode hee two dayes still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that said hee to his disciples, Let vs goe into Iudea againe.

Chap. 7.
30. and 8.
59. and
10. 31.

8 The disciples said vnto him Master, the Iewes lately sought to stone thee, and doest thou go thither againe?

9 Iesus answered, Are there not twelue houres in the day? If a man walke in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man walke in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things spake he, and after he said vnto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeeth, but I go to wake him vp.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleepe, hee shall be safe.

Or, summing leepe.

13 Howbeit, Iesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of the naturall sleepe.

14 Then said Iesus vnto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, that yee may beleue: but let vs goe vnto him.

16 Then said Thomas (which is called Didymus) vnto his fellow disciples, Let vs also goe, that we may die with him.

17 ¶ Then came Iesus, and found that he had linen in the graue foure dayes already.

18 (Now Bethania was neere vnto Ierusalem, about fiftene furlongs off)

19 And many of the Iewes were come to Martha and Mary, to comfort them for their brother.

20 Then Martha when she heard that Iesus was comming, went to meete him: but Mary sate still in the house.

21 Then said Martha vnto Iesus, Lord, if thou hadst bene here, my brother had not bene dead.

22 But now I know also, that whatsoeuer thou askest of God, God will giue it thee.

23 Iesus said vnto her, Thy brother shall rise againe.

24 Martha said vnto him, I know that hee shall rise againe in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Iesus said vnto her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that beleueth in me, though hee were dead, yet shall he liue.

26 And whoeuer liueth, and beleueth in me, shall neuer die. Beleuest thou this?

27 She said vnto him, Yea, Lord, I beleuee that thou art the Christ the Sonne of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when she had so said she went her way and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 And when she heard it, she arose quietly, and came vnto him.

30 For Iesus was not yet come into the towne, but was in the place where Martha met him.

31 The Iewes then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she arose vp hastily, and went out, to follow her, saying, She goeth vnto the graue to weepe there.

32 Then when Mary was come where Iesus was and saw him, she fell downe at his feet, saying vnto him, Lord, if thou hadst bene here, my brother had not bene dead.

33 When Iesus therefore saw her weepe, and the Iewes also weepe which came with her, hee groined in the Spirit, and was troubled in himselfe.

34 And said, Where haue yee laide him? They said vnto him, Lord, come, and see.

35 And Iesus wept.

36 Then said the Iewes, Behold, how hee loued him.

37 And some of them said, Could not hee which opened the eyes of the blind, haue made also, that this man should not haue died?

38 Iesus therefore againe groined in himselfe, and came to the graue. And it was a caue, and a stone was laide vpon it.

39 Iesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha the sister of him that was dead, said vnto him, Lord, hee stinketh already, for he hath bene dead foure dayes.

40 Iesus said vnto her, Said I not vnto thee, that if thou diddest beleuee, thou shouldst see the glorie of God?

41 Then they tooke away the stone from the place where the dead was laide. And Iesus lift vp his eyes, and said, Father, I thanke thee, because thou hast heard me.

42 I know that thou hearest mee alwayes, but because of the people that stand by I said it, that they may beleuee that thou hast sent me.

43 As he had spoken these things, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.

44 Then hee that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with bands, and his face was bound with a napkin. Iesus said vnto them, Loose him, and let him goe.

45 ¶ Then many of the Iewes which came to Mary, and had seene the things which Iesus did, beleued in him.

46 But some of them went their way to the Pharisees, and told them what thing Iesus had done.

47 Then gathered the high Priestesses and the Pharisees a counsell, and said, What shall we doe? For this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will beleue in him, and the Romanes will come and take away both our place and the nation.

49 Then one of them, named Caiaphas, which was the high Priest that same yere, said vnto them, Ye perceiue nothing at all,

50 Nor yet doe you consider that it is expedient for vs that one man die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 This spake he not of himselfe: but being high Priest that same yere, hee prophesied that Iesus should die for the nation:

52 And not for the nation onely, but that hee should gather together in one the children of God which were scattered.

53 Then from that day forth they consulted together to put him to death.

54 Iesus therefore walked no more openly among the Iewes, but went thence vnto a country neere to the wilderness, into a citie called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ And the Iewes Passouer was at hand, and many went out of the countrey vp to Ierusalem before the Passouer, to purifie themselves.

56 Then sought they for Iesus, and spake among themselves as they stood in the Temple. What thinke yee that he cometh not to the feast?

57 Now both the high Priestesses, and the Pharisees had giuen a commaundement, That if any man knew where he were, hee should shew it, that they might take him.

7 Christ exhorteth Maries faith. 13 The affection of some toward him, and the rage of others against him and Lazarus. 25 The commoition of the crosse. 27 His prayer. 28 The answer of the Father. 32 His death and the fruit thereof. 36 Hee exhorteth to faith. 40 The blindness of some, and the infirmities of others.

Then* Iesus six dayes before the Passouer came to Bethania, where Lazarus was which was dead, whome he had raised from the dead.

2 There they made him a supper, and Martha serued: but Lazarus was one of them that sate at the table with him.

3 Then tooke Mary a pound of oymnt of spikenard very costly, and anoynted Iesus feete, and wiped his feete with her haire, and the house was filled with the sauour of the oymnt.

4 Then said one of his disciples, euen Iudas Iscariot Simons sonne, which should betray him, 5 Why was not this oymnt sold for three hundred pence, and giuen to the poore?

6 Now hee said this, not that hee cared for the poore, but because hee was a thiefe, and * had the bagge, and bare that which was giuen.

7 Then sayd Iesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying he kept it.

8 For the poore alwayes ye haue with you, but meye shall not haue alwayes.

9 Then much people of the Iewes knew that he was there: and they came, not for Iesus sake onely, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom hee had raised from the dead.

10 The high Priestes therefore consulted, that they might put Lazarus to death also, 11 Because that for his sake many of the Iewes went away, and ocleend in Iesus.

12 ¶ On the morrowe a great multitude that were come to the feast, when they heard that Iesus should come to Ierusalem, 13 Tooke branches of palme trees, & went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna, Blessed is the King of Israel, that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

14 And Iesus found a yong asse, and sate thereon, as it is written, 15 ¶ Feare not, daughter of Sion, beholde, thy King commeth, sitting on an asse colt.

16 But his disciples vnderstood not these things at the first: but when Iesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things vnto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him bare witness that hee called Lazarus out of the grane, and raised him from the dead.

18 Therefore met him the people also, because they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 And the Phariseis saide among themselves, Perceiue ye how ye preuaile nothing? Behold, the world goeth after him.

20 ¶ Now there were certaine Greekes among them, that came vp to worship at the Feast.

21 And they came to Philip, which was of Bethsaida in Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, wee would see Iesus.

22 Philip came and tolde Andrew: and againe Andrew and Philip told Iesus.

23 And Iesus answered them, saying, The houre is come that the Sonne of man must be glorified.

24 Verely, verely, I say vnto you, Except the wheat corne fall into the ground, and die, it bideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 ¶ He that loueth his life, shall lose it, and hee that hateth his life in this world, shall keepe it vnto life eternall.

26 ¶ If any man serue me, let him follow me: for where I am, there also shall my seruant be: and if any man serue me, him will my Father honour.

27 Now is my soule troubled: and what shall I say? Father, saue me from this houre: but therefore came I vnto this houre.

28 Father, glorifie thy Name. Then came there a voyce from heauen, saying, I haue both glorified it, and I will glorifie it againe.

29 Then said the people that stood by & heard, that it was a thunder: others said, An Angel spake to him.

30 Iesus answered, and said, This voyce came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the iudgement of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out.

32 ¶ And I if I were lift vp from the earth, will draw all men vnto me.

33 Now this said he, signifying what death he should die.

34 The people answered him, Wee haue heard out of the Law, that the Christ bideth for euer: and how sayest thou that the sonne of man must be lift vp? who is that sonne of man?

35 Then Iesus said vnto them, Yet a litle while is the light with you: walke while ye haue light, lest the darkenesse come vpon you: for he that walketh in the darke, knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye haue light, beleue in the light, that yee may bee the children of the light. These things spake Iesus, and departed, and hid himselfe from them.

37 ¶ And though he had done so many miracles before them, yet beleueed they not on him:

38 That the saying of Esaias the Prophet might be fulfilld, that he said, ¶ Lord, who beleueed our report? and to whome is the arme of the Lord reuelcd?

39 Therefore could they not beleuee, because that Esaias saith againe, 40 ¶ Hee hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart, that they should not see with their eyes, nor vnderstand with their heart, & should be conuerted, and I should heale them.

41 These things said Esaias when hee sawe his glory, and spake of him.

42 Neuertheless, euen among the chiefe rulers many beleueed in him: but because of the Pharisees they did not confesse him, lest they should be cast out of the Synagogue.

43 ¶ For they loued the praise of men more then the prayse of God.

44 And Iesus cryed, and said, He that beleueeth in me, beleueeth not in mee, but in him that sent me.

45 And hee that seeth mee, seeth him that sent me.

46 ¶ I am come a light into the world, that whosoener beleueeth in me, should not abide in darkenesse.

47 ¶ And if any man here, my wordes, and beleuee not, I iudge him not: for I came not to iudge the world, but to saue the world.

48 Hee that refuseth mee, and receiueeth not my wordes, hath one that iudgeth him: * the word that I haue spoken, it shall iudge him in the last day.

49 For I haue not spoken of my selfe: but the Father which sent mee, hee gaue me a Commandement what I should say, and what I should speake.

50 And I know that his Commandement is life euerslasting : the things therefore that I speake, I speake thus so as the Father said vnto me.

C H A P. XIII.

5 Christ walsheth the disciples feete, 14 exhorting them to humilitie and charitie, 21 Telleth them of Iudas the traitour, 34 and commaundeth them earnestly to loue one another. 38 He forewarneth of Peters deniall.

Matt. 26. 2. Marke 14. 1. Luk. 22. 1. Now * before the feast of the Pascheouer, when Iesus knew that his houre was come that hee should depart out of this world vnto the Father, forasmuch as he loued his owne which were in the world, vnto the end he loued them.

2 And when supper was done, (and that the deuill had now put in the heart of Iudas Iscariot, Simons sonne to betray him)

3 Iesus knowing that the Father had giuen all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God,

4 Hee riseth from Supper, and layeth aside his upper garments, and tooke a towell, and girded himselfe.

5 After that, he powred water into a basin, and began to waih the disciples feet, and to wipe them with the towell wherewith he was girded.

6 Then came he to Simon Peter, who saide to him, Lord, dost thou waih my feete?

7 Iesus answered, and saide vnto him, What I doe, thou knowest not now : but thou shalt knowe it hereafter.

8 Peter said vnto him, Thou shalt neuer waih my feet. Iesus answered him, If I waih thee not, thou shalt haue no part with me.

9 Simon Peter said vnto him, Lord, not my feet onely, but also the hands and the head.

10 Iesus said to him, He that is walshed, needeth not, saue to waih his feete, but is cleane euery whit: and ye are * cleane, but not all.

Eba. 15. 3. 11 For he knew who should betray him: therefore said he, Ye are not all cleane.

12 * So aliter he had walshed their feete, and had taken his garments, and was set downe againe, he said vnto them, Know ye what I haue done to you?

13 Ye call me Master, and Lord, and ye say well: for so am I.

14 If then your Lord and Master, haue washed your feete, ye ought also to waih one anothers feet.

15 For I haue giuen you an example, that ye should do, euen as I haue done to you.

Chap. 15. 20. Matt. 10. 24. Iuke 6. 40 16 Verely verely I say vnto you, * The seruant is not greater then his Master, neither the ambassadour greater then he that sent him.

17 If ye knowe these things, blessed are ye if ye doe them.

18 * I speake not of you all : I know whome I haue chofen : but it is that the Scripture might bee fulfilled, * He that eateth bread with me, liath lift vp his heele against me.

Psal. 41. 9 19 From henceforth tell I you before it come, that when it is come to passe, ye might beleuee that I am he.

20 * Verely verely I say vnto you, If I send any, he that receiueth him receiueth me, and he that receiueth me receiueth him that sent me.

Matt. 10. 40. Iuke 10. 16. 21 When Iesus had said these things, he was troubled in the Spirit, and testified and said, Verely verely I say vnto you, that one of you shall betray me.

Matt. 26. 21. Marke 14. 18. Iuke 22. 21. 22 * Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now there was one of his disciples which leaned on Iesus bosome, whome Iesus loued.

24 To him therefore beckned Simon Peter, that he should aske who it was of whom he spake.

25 He then as he leaned on Iesus breast, sayd vnto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Iesus answered, He it is to whom I shall giue a sop when I haue dipped it : and he wet a sop, and gaue it to Iudas Iscariot, Simons sonne.

27 And after the sop Satan entred into him, Then sayd Iesus vnto him, That thou doest, doe quickly.

28 But none of them that were at table knewe for what cause he spake it vnto him.

29 For some of them thought, because Iudas had the bag, that Iesus had said vnto him, Buy those things that we haue need of against the Feast : or that he should giue some thing to the poore.

30 Assoone then as he had receiued the sop, he went immediately out, and it was night.

31 * When he was gone out, Iesus said, Now is the Sonne of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorifie him in himselfe, and shall straightway glorifie him.

33 Little children, yet a little while am I with you: ye shal seek me, but as I said vnto the * Iewes, Whither I goe, can ye not come : also to you I say now, Eba. 7. 39.

34 * A new Commandement giue I vnto you, that ye loue one another : as I haue loued you, that ye also loue one another. Ierem. 18. man. 31. 39. Chap. 15. 12. 1. 1. 4. 31.

35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye haue loue one to another.

36 Simon Peter said vnto him, Lord, Whither goest thou? Iesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow mee now : but thou shalt follow me afterwards.

37 Peter said vnto him, Lord, Why can I not follow thee now? * I will lay downe my life for thee sake. Matt. 26. 33. man. 14. 29.

38 Iesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verely verely I say vnto thee, The cocke shal not crow til thou haue denied me thrise

C H A P. XIII.

1 He armeth his disciples with consolation against trouble. 2 He ascendeth into heauen to prepare a place. 6 The Way, the Truth, and the Life. 10 The Father and Christ one. 13 How wee should pray. 23 The promise vnto them that keepe his word.

And hee said vnto his disciples, Let not your heart be troubled : ye beleue in God, beleue also in me.

2 In my Fathers house are many dwelling places : if it were not so, I would haue tolde you : I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And though I go to prepare a place for you, I will come againe and receiue you vnto my selfe, that where I am, there may ye be also.

4 And whither I goe, ye know, and the way ye know.

5 Thomas said vnto him, Lord, wee know not whither thou goest : how can wee then knowe the way?

6 Iesus said vnto him, I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life. No man cometh vnto the Father, but by me.

7 If ye had known me, ye should haue knowne my Father also : and from henceforth ye knowe him, and haue seene him.

8 Philip said vnto him, Lord, shew vs thy Father, and it sufficeth vs.

9 Iesus said vnto him, I haue bin so long time with you, and hast thou not knowne me, Philip? he that hath seene me hath seen my Father : how then sayest thou, Shew vs thy Father?

10 Beleeuest thou not that I am in the Father, & the Father is in mee? the words that I speake vnto you I speake not of my selfe: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

11 Beleeue mee, that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: at the least, beleeue me for the very works sake.

12 Verely, verely I say vnto you, he that beleeueth me, the workes that I doe, hee shall doe also, and greater then these shall he doe: for I goe vnto my Father.

13 *And whatsoever ye aske in my Name, that will I doe, that the Father may be glorified in the Sonne.

14 If ye shall aske any thing in my Name, I will doe it.

15 If ye loue me, keepe my Commandements.

16 And I will pray the Father, and he shall giue you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever, 17 Even the Spirit of truth, whome the world cannot receiue, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him: for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

18 I will not leaue you comfortlesse: but I will come to you.

19 Yet a little while, and the world shall see me no more, but ye shall see me: because I live, ye shall live also.

20 At that day shall yee knowe that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.

21 He that hath my commandements, and keepeth them, is he that loueth me: and he that loueth me shall be loued of my Father: and I will loue him, and will shew mine owne selfe vnto him.

22 Iudas said vnto him (not Ifcariot) Lord, what is the cause that thou wilt shewe thy selfe vnto vs, and not vnto the world?

23 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, If any man loue mee, he will keepe my word, and my Father will loue him, and we will come vnto him, and will dwell with him.

24 He that loueth me not, keepeth not my words, and the word which ye heare, is not mine, but the Fathers which sent me.

25 These things haue I spoken vnto you, being present with you.

26 But the Comforter, which is the holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my Name, hee shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance which I haue told you.

27 Peace I leaue with you, my peace I giue vnto you: not as the world giueth, giue I vnto you. Let not your heart be troubled, nor feare.

28 Ye haue heard how I sayd vnto you, I goe away, and will come vnto you. If ye loued me, yee would verely reioyce, because I said, I goe vnto the Father: for my Father is greater then I.

29 And now I haue spoken vnto you before it come, that when it is come to passe, yee might beleeue.

30 Hereafter will I not speake many things vnto you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nought in me.

31 But is it, that the world may know that I loue my Father: and as the Father hath commanded me, so I doe. Arise, let vs go hence.

CHAP. XV.

6 The sweete consolation and mutuall loue betwene Christ and his members, vnder the parable of the vine.

18 Of their common afflictions, and persecutions. 26

The office of the holy Ghost, and the poples

I am the true Vine, and my Father is an husbandman.

2 *Euery branch that beareth not fruit in me he taketh away, and euery one that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 *Now are ye cleane through the word, which I haue spoken vnto you.

4 Abide in me and I in you: as the branch cannot beare fruit of it self, except it abide in the vine, no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me can ye do nothing.

6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and withereth: and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they burne.

7 If ye abide in me, & my words abide in you, aske what ye will, and it shall be done to you.

8 Herein is my Father glorified, that yee beare much fruit, and be made my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loued me, so haue I loued you: continue in my loue.

10 If ye shall keepe my commandments, ye shall abide in my loue, as I haue kept my Fathers commandments, and abide in his loue.

11 These things haue I spoken vnto you, that my ioy might remaine in you, and that your ioy might be full.

12 *This is my commaundement, that yee loue one another, as I haue loued you.

13 Greater loue then this hath no man, when any man beltogeth his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if yee doe whatsoever I command you.

15 Henceforth cal I you not seruants: for the seruant knoweth not what his master doeth: but I haue called you friends: for all things that I haue heard of my Father haue I made known vnto you.

16 Ye haue not chosen mee, but I haue chosen you, and ordained you, * that yee goe and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit remaine, that whatsoever ye shall aske of the Father in my Name hee may giue it you.

17 These things command I you, that yee loue one another.

18 If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before you.

19 If yee were of the world, the world would loue his owne: but because ye are not of the world but I haue chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

20 Remember the worde that I saide vnto you, * The seruant is not greater then his master. * If they haue persecuted me, they will persecute you also: if they haue kept my word, they will also keep yours.

21 But all these things wil they do vnto you for my Names sake, because they haue not known him that sent me.

22 If I had not come & spoken vnto them, they should not haue had sinne: but now haue they no cloake for their sinne.

23 He that hateth me, hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done workes among them, which none other man did, they had not had sinne: but now haue they both seene, and haue hated both me and my Father.

25 But is it that the world might be fulfilled, that is written in the Law, * They hated me without a cause,

CHAP. XVI.

2 Hee putteth them in remembrance of the Crosse, and of their owne infirmities to come, 7 and therefore doeth comfort them with the promise of the holy Ghost. 16 Of the coming againe of Christ. 17 Of his ascension. 23 To ask in the Name of Christ. 33 Peace in Christ, amid in the world affliction.

These things haue I said vnto you, that ye should not be offended.

† Greeke, put you out of the Synagogues.

3 They shall excommunicate you: yea, the time shall come, that whosoever killeth you, will thinke that he doeth God seruice.

3 And these things will they doe vnto you, because they haue not knowen the Father, nor me.

4 But these things haue I tolde you, that when the houre shall come, yee might remember that I tolde you them. And these things saide I not vnto you from the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I goe my way to him that sent mee, and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

6 But because I haue said these things vnto you, your hearts are full of sorrow.

7 Yet I tell you the truth, it is expedient for you that I goe away: for if I go not away the Comforter will not come vnto you: but if I depart, I will send him vnto you.

8 And when he is come, he will reprove y world of sinne, and of righteousnesse, and of iudgement.

9 Of sinne, because they beleue not in me.

10 Of righteousnesse, because I go to my Father and yet shall see me no more.

11 Of iudgement, because the prince of this world is iudged.

12 I haue yet many things to say vnto you, but ye cannot beare them now.

13 Howbeit, when he is come, which is the Spirit of truth, he will leade you into all truth: for he shall not speake of himselfe, but whatsoever he shall heare that he speake, and he will shew you the things to come.

14 Hee shall glorifie me: for he shall receiue of mine, and shall shew it vnto you.

15 All things that the Father hath; are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shew it vnto you.

16 A little while, and ye shall not see mee: and againe a little while, and ye shall see me: for I go to my Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this, that he saith vnto vs, A little while, and ye shall not see me, and againe, A little while, and yee shall see mee, and, For I goe to my Father?

18 They say therefore, What is this, that he saith, A little while? we know not what he saith.

19 Now Iesus knewe that they would aske him, & said vnto them, Doe ye inquire among your selues of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me, and againe, A little while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verely, verely I say vnto you, that yee shall weepe and lament, and the world shall reioyce, and ye shall sorrow, but your sorrow shall bee turned to ioy.

21 A woman when the trauaileth hath sorrow, because her houre is come. but as soone as she is delivered of the child, she remembreth no more the au-guish for ioy that a man is borne into the world.

22 And ye now therefore are in sorrow: but I will see you againe, and your hearts shall reioyce, and your ioy shall no man take from you.

23 And in that day shall yee aske mee nothing. Verely, verely I say vnto you, whatsoever ye shall aske the Father in my Name, he will give it you.

24 Hitherto haue yee asked nothing in my Name: aske and ye shall receiue, that your ioy may be full.

25 These things haue I spoken vnto you in parables: but the time will come, when I shall no more speake to you in parables: but I shall shewe you plainly of the Father.

26 At that day shall ye aske in my Name, and I say not vnto you, that I will pray vnto the Father for you.

27 For the Father himselfe loueth you, because ye haue loued me,* and haue beleueed that I came out from God.

28 I am come out from the Father, and came into the world: Again, I leaue the world, and goe to the Father.

29 His disciples said vnto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and thou speakest no parable.

30 Now know we that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should aske thee. By this we beleuee that thou art come out from God.

31 Iesus answered them, Doe ye beleue now?

32 Behold, the houre cometh, and is already come, that ye shall be scattered euery man into his owne, and shall leaue me alone: but I am not alone: for the Father is with me.

33 These things haue I spoken vnto you, that in me ye might haue peace: in the world ye shall haue affliction, but hee of good comfort: I haue overcome the world.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The prayer of Christ vnto his Apostles, both for himselfe and his Apostles, and also for all such as receiue the truth.

These things spake Iesus, and lift vp his eyes to heauen, and said, Father, the houre is come, glorifie thy Sonne, that thy Son also may glorifie thee.

2 As thou hast given him power over all flesh: that hee should giue eternall life to all them that thou hast given him.

3 And this is life eternall, that they know thee to be the onely very God, and whom thou hast sent, Iesus Christ.

4 I haue glorified thee on the earth: I haue finished the worke which thou gauest me to doe.

5 And now glorifie me, thou Father, with thine owne selfe, with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

6 I haue declared thy Name vnto the men which thou gauest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gauest them me, and they haue kept thy word.

7 Now they knowe that all things whatsoever thou hast giuen me, are of thee.

8 For I haue giuen vnto them the words which thou gauest me, and they haue receiued them,* and haue knowen surely that I came out from thee, and haue beleueed that thou hast sent me.

9 I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast giuen mee: for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine, and I am glorified in them.

11 And now am I no more in y world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keepe betrayed.

keepe them in thy Name, euem them whom thou hast giuen me, that they may be one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy Name: those that thou gauest me, haue I kept, and none of them is lost, but the childe of perdition: that the * Scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee, and these things speake I in the world, that they might haue my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I haue giuen them thy word, and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou keepest them from euill.

16 They are not of the world, as I am not of the world.

17 || Sanctifie them with thy truth: thy word is truth.

18 As thou didst send me into the world, so haue I sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes sanctifie I my selfe, that they also may be sanctified through the truth.

20 I pray not for these alone, but for them also which shall beleue in me through their word.

21 That they all may be one, as thou, O Father, art in mee, and I in thee, euem that they may be also one in vs, that the world may beleue that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory that thou gauest me, I haue giuen them, that they may be one, as we are one.

23 I in them, and thou in mee, that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may know, that thou hast sent me, and hast loued them as thou hast loued me.

24 * Father, I will that they which thou hast giuen me, bee with mee euem where I am, that they may behold my glory, which thou hast giuen mee: for thou louedst mee before the foundation of the world.

25 O righteous Father, the world also hath not known thee, but I haue known thee, and these haue known that thou hast sent me.

26 And I haue declared vnto them thy Name, and will declare it, that the loue wherewith thou hast loued me may be in them, and I in them.

C H A P. XVIII.

3 Christ is betrayed. 6 The words of his mouth smite the officers to the ground. 10 Peter smiteth off Malchus eare. 13 Iesus is brought before Annas and Caiaphas, 25 where Peter denieth him. 36 Hee telleth Pilate what his kingdom is.

W HEN Iesus had spoken these things, hee went forth with his disciples ouer the brooke * Cedron, where was a garden, into the which hee entered, and his disciples.

2 And Iudas which betrayed him, knew also the place: for Iesus oft times rested thither with his disciples.

3 * Iudas then after hee had receiued a band of men and officers of the hie Priests, and of the Pharisees, came thither with lanterns and torches, and weapons.

4 Then Iesus knowing all things that should come vnto him, went forth, and said vnto them, Whom seeke ye?

5 They answered him, Iesus of Nazaret: Iesus said vnto them, I am he. Now Iudas also which betrayed him stood with them.

6 Alsone then as hee had said vnto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Then hee asked them againe, Whom seeke ye? And they said, Iesus of Nazaret.

8 Iesus answered, I sayd vnto you that I am hee: therefore if yee seeke me, let these goe their way.

9 *This was that the word might bee fulfilled which he spake, * Of them which thou gauest mee haue I lost none.*

10 Then Simon Peter hauing a sword, drew it, and smote the hie Priests seruant, and cut off his right eare. Now the seruants name was Malchus.

11 Then said Iesus vnto Peter, Put vp thy sword into the sheath: shall I not drinke of the cup which my Father hath giuen me?

12 Then the band and the captaine, and the officers of the Iewes tooke Iesus and bound him,

13 And led him away to * Annas first (for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was the hie Priest the same yeere)

14 * And Caiaphas was hee, that gaue counsell to the Iewes, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 * Now Simon Peter followed Iesus, and another disciple, and that disciple was known of the hie Priest: therefore he went in with Iesus into the hall of the hie Priest.

16 But Peter stood at the doore without. Then went out the other disciple, which was known vnto the hie Priest, and spake to her that kept the doore, and brought in Peter.

17 Then said the maid that kept the doore, vnto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? He said, I am not.

18 And the seruants and officers stood there, which had made a fire of coles: for it was cold, and they warmed themselves. And Peter also stood among them and warmed himselfe.

19 ¶ The hie Priest then asked Iesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Iesus answered him, I spake openly to the world. I neuer taught in the Synagogue, and in the Temple, whither the Iewes resort continually, and in secret haue I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me aske them which heard me what I said vnto them, behold, they know what I said.

22 When hee had spoken these things, one of the officers which stood by, smote Iesus with his rod, saying, Answerest thou the hie Priest so?

23 Iesus answered him, If I haue euill spoken, beare witness of the euill: but if I haue well spoken, why smitest thou me?

24 ¶ Now Annas had sent him bound vnto Caiaphas the hie Priest)

25 * And Simon Peter stood and warmed himselfe, and they said vnto him, Art not thou also of his disciples? He denied it and said, I am not.

26 One of the seruants of the hie Priest, his cousin whose eare Peter smote off, said, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied againe, and immediately the cocke crew.

28 ¶ Then led they Iesus from Caiaphas into the common hall. Now it was morning and they themselves went not into the common hall, lest they should bee defiled, but that they might eate the Pasche.

29 Pilate then went out vnto them, & said, What accusation bring you against this man?

30 They answered, and said vnto him, If he were not an euil doer, we could not haue deliuered him vnto thee.

31 Then said Pilate vnto them, Take ye him, and iudge him after your owne Law. Then the Iewes said

Mat. 27. 33 * So Pilate entred into the common hall againe, and called Iesus, and said vnto him, Art thou the king of the Iewes?

35. luke 34 Iesus answered him, Sayest thou that of thy selfe, or did other tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Iewe? Thine owne nation, and the hie Priests haue deliuered thee vnto me. What hast thou done?

36 Iesus answered, My kingdome is not of this world. if my kingdome were of this world, my seruants would figherly fight, that I should not be deliuered to the Iewes: but now is my kingdome not from hence.

37 Pilate then said vnto him, Art thou a king then? Iesus answered, I thou sayest that I am a king: for this cause am I borne, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should beare witnesse vnto the trueth: euery one that is of the trueth, heareth my voice.

38 Pilate said vnto him, What is trueth? And when he had said that, he went out againe vnto the Iewes, and said vnto them, I finde in him no cause at all.

Mat. 27. 39 * But you haue a custome that I should deliuer you one loofe at the Passouer: wil ye then that I loofe vnto you the King of the Iewes?

CHAP. XIX.

1 When Pilate could not aswage the rage of the Iewes against Christ, he deliuered him up with his superscription to bee hanged betweene two theeues. 23 They cast lots for his garments. 26 Hee commendeth his mother vnto Iohn, 28 cauethe for drinke, 33 die, and his side is pierced, and taken downe from the crosse. 38 He is buried.

Mat. 27. 1 Then * Pilate couseth Iesus and scourged him.

27. Marke 2 And the Souldiers platted a crowne of thornes, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple garment,

3 And said, Haile king of the Iewes. And they smote him with their rods.

4 Then Pilate went forth againe, and said vnto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that you may know that I find no fault in him at all.

5 Then came Iesus forth wearing a crowne of thornes, and a purple garment. And Pilate said vnto them Behold the man.

6 Then when the hie Priestes and officers sawe him, they cried, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him. Pilate said vnto them, Take ye him and crucifie him: for I find no fault in him.

7 The Iewes answered him, We haue a law and by our law he ought to die, because he made himselfe the Sonne of God.

8 ¶ When Pilate then heard that word, he was the more afraid, 9 And went againe into the common hall, and said vnto Iesus, Whence art thou? But Iesus gaue him none answer.

10 Then said Pilate vnto him, Speakest thou not vnto mee? Knowest thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, and haue power to loofe thee?

11 Iesus answered, Thou couldest haue no power at all against me, except it were giuen thee from aboue: therefore hee that deliuered me vnto thee, hath the greater sinne.

12 From thenceforth Pilate fought to loofe him, but the Iewes cryed, saying, If thou deliuer him, thou art not Cæsars friend: for whosoever maketh himselfe a king, speaketh against Cæsar.

13 ¶ When Pilate heard that word, he brought Iesus forth, and sate downe in the iudgement seat in a place called the Panement, and in Hebrew Gabbatha.

14 And it was the preparation of the Passouer, and about the sixth houre: and hee said vnto the Iewes, Behold your king.

15 But they cried, Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate said vnto them, Shall I crucifie your king? The hie Priests answered, We haue no king but Cæsar.

16 Then deliuered he him vnto them to be crucified. * And they tooke Iesus and led him away.

17 And he bare his crosse, and came into a place named of dead mens skuls, which is called in Hebrew Golgotha:

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Iesus in the mids.

19 ¶ And Pilate wrote also a title, and put it on the crosse, and it was written, I E S V S OF NA Z A R E T T H E K I N G O F T H E I E W E S.

20 This title then read many of the Iewes: for the place where Iesus was crucified, was neere to the citie: and it was written in Hebrew, Greeke and Latine.

21 Then said the hie Priests of the Iewes to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Iewes, but that he said, I am King of the Iewes.

22 Pilate answered, What I haue written, I haue written.

23 ¶ Then the * souldiers, when they had crucified Iesus, tooke his garments, and made foure parts, to euery souldier a part, and his coat: and the coat was without seame, wouen from the top to the rowout.

24 Therefore they said one to another, Let vs not diuide it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be. *This was that the Scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, * They parted my garments among them, and on my coat did cast lots.* So the souldiers did these things in deede.

25 ¶ Then stood by the crosse of Iesus his mother, and his mothers sister, Mary the wife of Cleopas, and Mary Magdalene.

26 And when Iesus saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he lored, he said vnto his mother, Woman, behold thy sonne.

27 Then said he to the disciple, Behold thy mother: and from that houre, the disciple tooke her home vnto him.

28 ¶ After, when Iesus knew that all things were performed, that the * Scripture might be fulfilled, he said, I thirst.

29 And there was set a vessell full of vineger, and they filled a sponge with vineger, and put it about an hyssope stalk, and put it to his mouth.

30 Now when Iesus had receiued of the vineger, he said, It is finished, and bowed his head, and gaue vp the ghost.

31 The Iewes then (because it was the Preparation, that the bodies should not remaine vpon the crosse on the Sabbath day, for that Sabbath was an hie day) befought Pilate that their legges might be broken, and that they might be taken downe.

32 Then came the souldiers and brake the legges of the first, and of the other, which was crucified with Iesus.

33 But when they came to Iesus, and sawe that he was dead already, they brake not his legs.
 34 But one of the souldiers with a speare pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water.
 35 And he that saw it, bare record, and his record is true: and hee knoweth that he sayeth true, that ye might beleuee it.
 36 For these things were done, that the *Scripture (should be fulfilled, Not a bone of him shall be broken.
 37 And againe another Scripture sayth, * They shall see him whom they haue thrust thorow.
 38 *And after these things Ioseph of Arimathea (who was a discipule of Iesus, but secretly for feare of the Iewes) besought Pilate that hee might take downe the body of Iesus. And Pilate gaue him licence. He came then, and tooke Iesus body.
 39 And there came * also Nicodemus, (which first came to Iesus by night) and brought of myrrhe and aloes mingled together about an hundredth pound.
 40 Then tooke they the body of Iesus, & wrapped it in linnen clothes with the odors, as the manner of the Iewes is to bury.
 41 And in that place where Iesus was crucified, was a garden, and in the garden a new sepulchre wherein was neuer man yet laid.
 42 There then laid they Iesus, because of the Iewes preparation day, for the sepulchre was neere.

1 Mary Magdalene cometh to the sepulchre. 3 Saint Peter and John. 12 The two Angels appeare. 17 Christ appeareth to Mary Magdalene. 19 and to his disciples. 25 The incredulitie of Thomas. 28 His confession.
 N Owe * the first day of the weeke came Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet darke, vnto the sepulchre, and saw the stoue taken away from the tombe.
 2 Then she ran, and came to Simon Peter, and to the other discipule whom Iesus loued, and sayd vnto them, They haue taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and wee know not where they haue laid him.
 3 Peter therefore went forth, and the other discipule, and they came vnto the sepulchre.
 4 So they ran both together, but the other discipule did outrunne Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.
 5 And hee stooped downe and saw the linnen clothes lying: yet went he not in.
 6 Then came Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and saw the linnen clothes lye.
 7 And the kerchiefe that was vpon his head, not lying with the linnen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by it selfe.
 8 Then went in also the other discipule which came first to the sepulchre, and hee sawe it, and beleueed:
 9 For as yet they knew not the Scripture, that he must rise againe from the dead.
 10 And the disciples went away againe vnto their owne home.
 11 * But Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she bowed her selfe into the sepulchre.
 12 And sawe two Angels in white, sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the fete, where the body of Iesus had layen.

13 And they said vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She said vnto them, They haue taken away my Lord, and I know not where they haue laid him.
 14 When she had thus said, she turned her selfe backe, and saw Iesus standing, and knew not that it was Iesus.
 15 Iesus saith vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou? Whom seekest thou? She supposing that he had been the gardener, said vnto him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.
 16 Iesus saith vnto her, Mary. Shee turned her selfe, and laid vnto him, Rabboni, which is to say, Master.
 17 Iesus saith vnto her, Touch me not: for I am not yet ascended to my Father, but goe to my brethren, and say vnto them, I ascend vnto my Father, and to your Father, and to my God, and your God.
 18 Mary Magdalene came and tolde the disciples, that she had seene the Lord, and that hee had spoken these things vnto her.
 19 * The same day then at night, which was the first day of the weeke, & when the doores were shut where the disciples were assembled for feare of the Iewes, came Iesus, and stood in the middes, and said to them, Peace be vnto you.
 20 And when hee had so said, hee shewed vnto them his hands, and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they had seene the Lord.
 21 Then said Iesus to them againe, Peace be vnto you: as my Father sent me, so send I you.
 22 And when hee had said that, hee breathed on them, and sayd vnto them, Receiue the holy Ghost.
 23 * Whosoever sinnes yee remit, they are remitted vnto them: and whosoever sinnes yee retaine, they are retained.
 24 * But Thomas one of the twelue, called Didymus, was not with them when Iesus came.
 25 The other disciples therefore said vnto him, Wee haue seene the Lord: but he said vnto them, Except I see in his handes the print of the nailles, and put my finger into the print of the nailles, and put mine hand into his side, I will not beleuee it.
 26 * And eight dayes after, againe his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Then came Iesus when the doores were shut, and stood in the mids, and said, Peace be vnto you.
 27 After said he to Thomas, Put thy finger here, and see my handes: and put forth thine hand, and put it into my side, and be not faithlesse, but faithfull.
 28 Then Thomas answered, and said vnto him, Thou art my Lord and my God.
 29 Iesus said vnto him, Thomas, because thou hast seene me, thou beleuest: blessed are they that haue not seene, and haue beleueed.
 30 * And many other signes also did Iesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this booke.
 31 But these things are written, that yee might beleuee, that I E S V S is the Christ the Sonne of God, and that in beleueing yee might haue life thorow his Name.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Christ appeareth to his disciples againe. 15 Hee commandeth Peter earnestly to feede his sheepe. 18 He forewarneth him of his death. 25 Of Christes manifold miracles.

After

Or, like of Gennesareth. After these things, Iesus shewed himselfe againe to his disciples at the sea of Tiberias: and thus shewed he himselfe.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas, which is called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galile, and the sons of Zebedeus, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter said vnto him, I goe a fishing. They said vnto him, Wee also will goe with thee. They went their way, & entred into a ship straightway, and that night caught they nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Iesus stood on the shoare: neuerthelesse the disciples knew not that it was Iesus.

Or, children. 5 Iesus then said vnto them, || Sirs, haue ye any meate? They answered him, No.

6 Then he said vnto them, Cast out the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall fide. So they cast out, and they were notable at all to drawe it, for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore said the disciple, whom Iesus loved, vnto Peter, It is the Lord. When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, hee girded his coat to him, (for he was naked) and cast himselfe into the sea.

8 But the other disciples came by shippes (for they were not farre from land, but about two hundred cubites) and they drew the net with fishes.

9 Assoone then as they were come to land, they sawe hote coales, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Iesus said vnto them, Bring of the fishes, which ye haue now caught.

11 Simon Peter stepped forth, and drew the net to land, full of great fishes, an hundredth fiftie and three: and albeit there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Iesus said vnto them. Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst aske him, Who art thou, seeing they knew that he was the Lord.

13 Iesus then came, and tooke bread, and gaue them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now the third time that Iesus shewed himselfe to his disciples, after that he was risen againe from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Iesus said to Simon Peter, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou me more then these? He said vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. He said vnto him, Feede my lambes.

16 He said vnto him againe the second time, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou me? He said vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. Hee said vnto him, Feed my sheepe.

17 He said vnto him the third time, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou me? Peter was sorie because he said vnto him the third time, Louest thou me? and said vnto him, Lord, thou knowest all things: thou knowest that I loue thee. Iesus sayd vnto him, Feede my sheepe.

18 Verely, verely I say vnto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thy selfe, and walkedst whether thou wouldst: but when thou shalt bee olde, thou shalt stretch forth thine hands, and another shall girde thee, and leade thee whether thou wouldst not.

19 And thus spake he, signifying by what death he should glorifie God. And when he had said this, he said to him, Follow me.

20 Then Peter turned about, and saw the disciple whom Iesus loved, following, which had also leane on his breast at supper, and had said, Lord, Chap. 23. which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 When Peter therefore saw him, hee sayd to Iesus, Lord, what shall this man doe?

22 Iesus said vnto him, If I will that he tary till I come, what is that to thee? Follow thou me.

23 Then went this word abroad among the brethren, that this disciple should not die. Yet Iesus said not to him, He shall not die: but, If I will that he tary till I come, what is it to thee?

24 This is that disciple which testified of these things, and wrote these things, and wee know that his testimonie is true.

25 ¶ Now there are also many other things which Chap. 24. Iesus did, the which if they should be written euery one, I suppose the world could not containe the bookes that should be written. Amen.

THE ACTES OF THE HOLY APOSTLES, written by Luke the Euangelist.

THE ARGUMENT.

CHRIST after his ascension performed his promise to his Apostles, and sent them the holy Ghost, declaring thereby that hee was not onely mindfull of his Church, but would bee the head and maintainer thereof for ever. Wherein also his mightie power appeareth, who notwithstanding that Satan and the world resisted neuer so much against this noble worke, yet by a few simple men of no reputation, replenished all the world with the found of his Gospel. And here in the beginning of the Church, and in the increase thereof, wee may plainly perceiue the practise and malice which Satan continually useth to suppress and overthrow the Gospel: heereafter conspiracies, tumults, commotions, persecutions, slanders, and all kind of cruelty. Again, we shall here behold the pronancie of God, who overthroweth his enemies enterprises, deliuereth his Church from the rage of tyrants, strengtheneth and enuowageth his most valiantly and constantly to follow their Capitaine Christ: learning as it were by this historie, a perpetuall memorie to the Church, that the crosse is ioined with the Gospel: that they are fellowes inseparable, and that the end of our affliction is but the beginning of another. Yet neuerthelesse, God turneth the troubles, persecutions, imprisonings, and tentations of his, to a good issue, turning them as it were in sorrow, joy: in bonds, freedome: in prison, deliverance: in trouble, quietnesse: in death, life. Finally, this booke containeth many excellent Sermons of the Apostles and disciples, as touching the death, resurrection, and ascension of Christ. The mercie of God. Of his grace and remission of sinnes through Iesus Christ. Of the blessed immortalitie. An exhortation to the ministers of Christs Rocke. Of repentance: and feare of God, with other principall points of our faith: so that this onely historie, in a manner may be sufficient to instruct a man in all true doctrine and Religion.

C H A P. I.

7 The words of Christ and his Angels to the Apostles. 9 His ascension. 14 Wherein the Apostles are occupied till the holy Ghost be sent. 26 And of the death of Matthias.

HAue made the former Treatise, O Theophilus, of all that Iesus began to doe and teach,

2 Vntill the day that hee was taken vp, after that he through the holy Ghost had giuen commandements vnto the Apostles whom he had chosen :

3 To whom also hee presented himselfe aliae after that hee had suffered, by many infallible tokens, being scene of them by the space of fourtie dayes, and speaking of those things which appertaine to the kingdome of God.

4 And when he had gathered them together, hee commanded them that they should not depart from Ierusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, * which said he, ye haue heard of me,

* For Iohn indeede baptized with water, but ye shall be baptized with the holy Ghost within these few dayes.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore the kingdome to Israel ?

7 And hee said vnto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his owne power.

8 But ye shall receiue power of the holy Ghost, when he shall come on you: and ye shall be witnesses vnto me both in Ierusalem, and in all Iudea, and in Samaria, and vnto the vttermost part of the earth.

9 * And when he had spoken these things, while they behelde hee was taken vp: for a cloud tooke him vp out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heauen, as he went, beheld, two men stood by them in white apparell, 11 Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing into heauen ? This Iesus which is taken vp from you into heauen, shall so come, as ye haue seene him goe into heauen.

12 ¶ Then returned they vnto Ierusalem from the mount that is called the mount of Oliues, which is neere to Ierusalem, containing a Sabbath dayes iourney.

13 And when they were come in, they went vp into an vpper chamber, where abode both Peter, and Iames, and Iohn, & Andrew, Philip, & Thomas, Bartlemew, & Matthew, Iames the sonne of Alphaeus, and Simon Zelotes, and Iudas Iames brother.

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication with the women, and Mary the mother of Iesus, and with his brethren.

15 ¶ And in those dayes Peter stood vp in the mids of the disciples, and said, (now the number of names that were in one place, were about an hundredth and twentie)

16 Yee men and brethren, this Scripture must needs haue bin fulfilled, which the * holy Ghost by the mouth of Dauid spake before of Iudas, which was * guide to them that tooke Iesus.

17 For he was numbered with vs, and had obtained fellowship in this ministration.

18 He therefore had purchased a field with the reward of iniquitie: and when hee * had thrown downe himselfe headlong, hee brast asunder in the mids, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was knowen vnto all the inhabitants of Ierusalem, insomuch that that field is called in their owne language, Aceldama, that is, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the booke of Psalmes, * Let his habitation be void, and let no man dwell therein: also, * Let another take his charge.

21 Wherefore of these men, which haue companied with vs all the time that the Lord Iesus was with vs, conuerter among vs, 22 Beginning from the Baptisme of Iohn vnto the day that he was taken vp from vs, must one of them be made a witness with vs of his resurrection.

23 And they presented two, Ioseph, called Barsabas, whose surname was Iustus, and Matthias.

24 And they prayed, saying, Thou Lord which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen, 25 That he may take the roome of this ministration and Apostleship, from which Iudas hath gone astray to gee to his owne place.

26 Then they gaue forth their lots: and the lot fell vpon Matthias, and he was by a common consent counted with the eleuen Apostles.

C H A P. II.

3 The Apostles hauing receiued the holy Ghost, make their heauens glorified. 14 When Peter had stopped the mouthes of the mockers, he sheweth by the visible graces of the holy Spirit that Christ is come. 41 Hee baptiseth a great number that were conuersted. 42 The godly exercise, charitie, and diuers vertues of the faith full.

5 And there were dwelling at Ierusalem Iewes, men & feared God, of euery nation vnder heauen.

6 Now when this was noised, the multitude came together, and were astonished, because that euery man heard them speake his owne language.

7 And they wondered all and merueiled, saying among themselves, Beholde, are not all these which speake, of Galilee ?

11 They were all then amazed, and doubted, saying one to another, What may this be ?

13 And others mocked, and said, They are full of new wine.

14 ¶ But Peter standing with the eleuen, lift vp his voice, and said vnto them, Ye men of Iudea, and ye all that inhabite Ierusalem, be ye knowne vnto you, and hearken vnto my words.

Ps. 132. 31 He knowing this before, spake of the resurrection of Christ, that * his || soule should not be left in graue, neither his flesh should || see corruption.

Ps. 132. 32 This Iesus God hath raised vp, whereof wee all are witnesses.

Ps. 132. 33 Since then that he by the right hand of God hath bene exalted, and hath receiued of his Father the promise of the holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this which ye now see and heare.

Ps. 110. 34 For Dauid is not ascended into heauen, but hee faith, * The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, 35 Vntill I make thine enemies thy footstool.

36 Therefore let the house of Israel know for a surtie, that God hath made him both Lord, and Christ, this Iesus, I say, whom ye haue crucified.

37 Now when they heard it, they were pricked in their hearts, and said vnto Peter and the other Apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we doe?

38 Then Peter said vnto them, Amend your liues, and bee baptized euery one of you in the Name of Iesus Christ for the remission of finnes: and ye shall receiue the gift of the holy Ghost.

39 For the promise made vnto you, & to your children, and to all that are a farre off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And with many other words hee || besought and exhorted them, saying, Saue your selues from this froward generation.

41 Then they that gladly receiued his word were baptized: and the same day there were added to the Church about three thousand || soules.

42 And they continued in the Apostles doctrine, and fellowship, and breaking of bread, and praiers.

43 ¶ And feare came vpon euery soule: and many wonders and signes were done by the Apostles.

44 And all that belecued, were in one place, and had all things * common.

45 And they sold their possessions & goods, and parted them to all men, as euery one had need.

46 And they continued dayly with one accord in the Temple, * and breaking bread || at home, did eate their meat together with gladnesse and singleness of heart, 47 Praying God, and had fauour with all the people: and the Lord added to the Church from day to day such as should be saved.

CHAP. III.

7 The lame is restored to his feet. 12 Peter preacheth Christ vnto the people.

NOW Peter and Iohn went vp together into the Temple, at the ninth houre of prayer.

2 And a certaine man which was a creeple from his mothers wombe, was caried, whom they layd daily at the gate of the Temple called Beautiful, to aske almes of them that entred into the Temple.

3 Who seeing Peter and Iohn, that they would enter into the Temple, desired to receiue an alme.

4 And Peter earnestly beholding him with Iohn, said, Looke on vs.

5 And hee gaue heed vnto them, trusting to receiue something of them.

6 Then said Peter, Siluer and gold haue I none, but such as I haue, that giue I thee: in the Name of Iesus Christ of Nazaret rise vp, and walke.

7 And he tooke him by the right hand, and lift him vp, and immediatly his feete and ankle bones receiued strength.

8 And he leaped vp, stood, and walked, and entred with them into the Temple walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 And all the people saw him walke, and praying God.

10 And they knew him, that it was hee which sat for the almes at the beautiful gate of the Temple: and they were amazed, and were astonied at that which was come vnto him.

11 ¶ And as the creeple which was healed, held Peter and Iohn, all the people ranne amazed vnto them in the porch which is called Salomons.

12 So when Peter saw it, hee answered vnto the people, Ye men of Israel, why maraile ye at this? or why looke ye so fastidiously on vs, as though by our owne power or godliuesse wee had made this man goe?

13 The God of Abraham, and Isaac, and Iacob, the * God of our Fathers hath glorified his Some Iesus, whom ye betrayed, and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he had iudged him to be deliuered.

14 * But ye denied the Holy one and the lust, and desired a murderer to be giuen you, 15 And killed the Lord of life, whom God had raised from the dead, whereof wee are witnesses.

16 And his Name hath made this man sound, whom whom ye see & know, through faith in *his Name: and the faith which is by him, hath giuen to him this disposition of his whole body in the presence of you all.

17 And now brethren, I know that through ignorance ye did it, as did also your gouernours.

18 But those things which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his Prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath thus fulfilled.

19 Amend your liues therefore, and turne, that your finnes may be put away, when the time of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord.

20 And he shall send Iesus Christ, which before was preached vnto you.

21 Whom the heauen must containe vntill the time that all things be restored, which God had spoken by the mouth of all his holy Prophets since the world began.

22 *For Moses sayd vnto the Fathers, The Lord your God shall raise vp vnto you a Prophet, euens of your brethren like vnto me: yee shall heare him in all things, whatsoeuer he shall say vnto you.

23 For it shall be that eueri person which shall not heare that Prophet, shall be destroyed out of the people.

24 Also all the Prophets from Samuel, & thenceforth as many as haue spoken, haue likewise foretold of these dayes.

25 Ye are the children of the Prophets, & of the covenant which God hath made vnto our fathers, saying to Abraham, *Euen in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

26 First vnto you hath God raised vp his sonne Iesus, and him hath he sent to blesse you, in turning eueri one of you from your iniquities.

CHAP. IIII.

3 Peter and Iohn delivered out of prison, preach the Gospel boldly. 10 They confesse plainly the name of Christ. 16 They are commanded to preach no more in this name. 24 They pray for the good successe of the Gospel. 32 The increase, unity, and charity of the Church.

And as they spake vnto the people, the Priests and the Captaine of the Temple, and the Sadducees came vpon them.

2 Taking it grienously that they taught the people, and preached in Iesus the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they layd hands on them, and put them in holde vntill the next day: for it was now euen-tide.

4 Howbeit, many of them which heard the word, beleueed, and the number of the men was about fise thousand.

5 And it came to passe on the morrow, that their rulers, and Elders, and Scribes were gathered together at Ierusalem,

6 And Annas the chiefe Priest, and Caiaphas, and Iohn, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the hie Priests.

7 And when they had set them before them, they asked, By what power, or in what name haue ye done this?

8 Then Peter full of the holy Ghost, sayd vnto them, Yee Rulers of the people, and Elders of Israel,

9 Forasmuch as wee this day are examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, so wis, by what meanes he is made whole,

10 Be it known vnto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the Name of Iesus Christ of Nazaret, whom ye haue crucified, whom God raised again from the dead, euens by him doeth this man stand here before you whole.

11 *This is the stone cast aside of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

12 Neither is there situation in any other: for among men there is giuen none other name vnder heauen, whereby we must be saued.

13 Now when they saw the boldnesse of Peter and Iohn, and vnderstood that they were vnlearned men, and without knowledge, they marvelled, and knew them that they had been with Iesus:

14 And beholding also the man that was healed standing with them, they had nothing to say against it.

15 Then they commanded them to goe aside out of the Councell, and conferred among themselves, 16 Saying, What shall we do to these men? for surely a manifest signe is done by them, and it is openly known to all them that dwell in Ierusalem: and we cannot denie it.

17 But that it bee noyed no further among the people, let vs threaten and charge them, that they speake henceforth to no man in this Name.

18 So they called them, and commanded them, that in no wise they should speake or teach in the Name of Iesus.

19 But Peter and Iohn answered vnto them, and said, Whether it bee right in the sight of God to obey you rather then God, iudge ye.

20 For wee cannot but speake the things which we haue seene and heard.

21 So they threatened them, and let them goe, and found nothing how to punish them, because of the people: for all men praised God for that which was done.

22 For the man was aboute fourtie yeere old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 Then assoone as they were let goe, they came to their fellowes, and shewed all that the hie Priests and Elders had said vnto them.

24 And when they heard it, they lift vp their voyces to God with one accord, and sayd, O Lord, thou art the God which hast made the heauen and the earth, the sea, and all things that are in them, 25 Which by the mouth of thy seruant Dauid hast said, *Why did the Gentiles rage, and the people imagine vaine things?

26 The kings of the earth assembled, and the rulers came together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

27 For doubtlesse against thine holy Sonne Iesus, whom thou hadst annoynted, both Herode and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel gathered themselves together, 28 To do whatsoeuer thine hand, and thy counsell had determined before to be done.

29 And now, O Lord, behold their threatnings, and graunt vnto thy seruants with all boldnesse to speake thy word, 30 So that thou stretch forth thine hand, that healing, and signes, and wonders may be done by the Name of thy holy Sonne Iesus.

31 And when as they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together, and they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God boldly.

32 And the multitude of them ye beleueed, were of one heart, and of one soule: neither any of them said, that any thing of that which hee possessed, was his owne, but they had all things in common.

33 And with great power gaue the Apostles wit-nesse of the resurrection of the Lord Iesus, and great grace was vpon them all.

34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses, sold them, and brought the price of the things that were sold,

35 And laid it downe at the Apostles feete, and it was distributed vnto euery man according as he had need.

36 Also Ioses, which was called of the Apostles Barnabas (that is by interpretation the sonne of consolation) being a Leuite, and of the country of Cyprus, 37 Whereas hee had land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it downe at the Apostles feet.

CHAP. V.

5 The hypocrisie of Ananias and Sapphira is punished. 12 Miracles are done by the Apostles. 17 They are taken, but the Angel of God bringeth them out of prison. 29 Their bold confession before the Council. 40 The counsell of Gamaliel. 40 The Apostles are beaten, and reioice in trouble.

BUt a certaine man named Ananias with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession,

2 And kept away part of the price, his wife also being of counsell, and brought a certaine part, and laid it downe at the Apostles feet.

3 Then said Peter, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart, that thou shouldst lie vnto the holy Ghost, and keepe away part of the price of the possession?

4 Whiles it remained, appertained it not vnto thee? and after it was sold, was it not in thine owne power? how is it that thou hast deceiued this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied vnto men, but vnto God.

5 Now when Ananias heard these words, he fell downe & gaue vp the ghost. Then great feare came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the yong men rose vp, and tooke him vp, and caried him out, and buried him.

7 And it came to passe about the space of three houres after, that his wife came in, ignorant of that which was done.

8 And Peter sayd vnto her, Tell mee, fold ye the land for so much? And shee sayd, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said vnto her, Why haue ye agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which haue buried thine husband, are at the doore, and shall cary thee out.

10 Then she fell downe straightway at his feet, and yielded vp the ghost: and the yong men came in, and found her dead, and caried her out, and buried her by her husband.

11 And great feare came on all the Church, and on as many as heard these things.

12 Thus by the hands of the Apostles were many signes and wonders shewed among the people, (and they were all with one accord in Salomons porch.

13 And of the other durst no man ioine himselfe to them: neuertheless the people magnified them.

14 Also the number of them that beleeued in the Lord, both of men and women, grew more and more)

15 Insomuch that they brought the sick into the streetes, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least way the shadow of Peter, when he came by, might shadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about vnto Ierusalem, bringing sicke folkes, and them which were vexed with vnclean spirits, who were all healed.

17 ¶ Then the chiefe Priest rose vp, and all they that were with him, (which was the sect of the Sadducees) and were full of indignation, 18 And laid hands on the Apostles, & put them in the common prison.

19 But the Angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doores, and brought them forth, and said, 20 Goe your way and stand in the Temple, and speake to the people all the words of this life.

21 So when they heard it, they entred into the Temple early in the morning, and taught. And the chiefe Priest came, & they that were with him, and called the Council together, and all the Elders of the children of Israel, & sent to the prison, to cause them to be brought.

22 But when the officers came and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told it, 23 Saying, Certainly we found the prison shut as sure as was possible, and the keepers standing without before the doores: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Then when the chiefe Priest, and the captaine of the Temple, and the high Priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and shewed them, saying, Beholde, the men that ye put in prison, are standing in the Temple, and teach the people.

26 Then went the captaine with the officers and brought them without violence (for they feared the people, lest they should haue been stoned)

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the Council, and the chiefe Priest asked them, 28 Saying, Did not we straightly command you that ye should not teach in this Name? and behold, ye haue filled Ierusalem with your doctrine, and ye would bring this mans blood vpon vs.

29 Then Peter and the Apostles answered, and said, We ought rather to obey God than men.

30 The * God of our fathers hath raised vp Iesum, whom yee slew, and hanged on a tree.

31 Him hath God lift vp with his right hand, to be a Prince and a Saviour, to giue repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sinnes:

32 And wee are his witnesses concerning these things which we say: yea, & the holy Ghost, whom God hath giuen to them that obey him.

33 Nowe when they heard it, they brast for anger, and consulted to slay them.

34 Then stood there vp in y Council a certaine Pharise named Gamaliel, a doctour of the Law, honoured of all the people, and commanded to put the Apostles forth a little space, 35 And said vnto them, Men of Israel, take heed to your selues, what ye intend to do touching these men.

36 For before these times, rose vp Theudas boasting himselfe, to whom resorted a number of men, about a foure hundred, who was slaine: and they all which obeyed him, were scattered and brought to nought.

37 After this man arose vp Iudas of Galilee, in the dayes of the tribute, and drew away much people after him: he also perished, and all that obeyed him, were scattered abroad.

38 And now I say vnto you, Refraine your selues from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsell counsell, or this worke be of men, it will come to nought.

39 But if it be of God, yee cannot destroy it, lest ye be found enen fighters against God.

40 And to him they agreed, and called the Apostles: and when they had beate them, they commanded that they should not speake in the Name of Iesus, and let them goe.

41 So they departed from the Councill, reioicing that they were counted, worthy to suffer rebuke for his Name.

42 And dayly in the Temple, and from house to house they ceased not to teach, and preach Iesus Christ.

CHAP. VI.

3 Seuen Deacons are ordained in the Church. 8 The graces and miracles of Steuen, whom they accused falsely.

And in those dayes as the number of the disciples grew, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians towards the Hebrewes, because their widowers were neglected in the daily ministring.

3 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples together, and sayd, It is not meete that we should leaue the word of God to serue the tables.

3 Wherefore brethren, looke yee out among you seuen men of honest report, and full of the holy Ghost, and of wisdom, which we may appoint to this businesse.

4 And wee will giue our selues continually to prayer and to the ministring of the word.

5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude, and they chose Steuen, a man full of faith, and of the holy Ghost, and *Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a Proselyte of Antiochia.

6 Which they set before the Apostles: and they prayed, and laid their hands on them.

7 And the word of God encreased, and the number of the disciples was multiplied in Ierusalem greatly, and a great company of the Priests were obedient to the faith.

8 ¶ Now Steuen full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 Then there arose certaine of the Synagogue, which are called Libertines, and Cyrenians, and of Alexandria, and of them of Cilicia, and of Asia, and disputed with Steuen.

10 But they were not able to resist the wisdom, and the Spirit by the which he spake.

11 Then they suborned men which sayd, Wee haue heard him speake blasphemous words against Moses and God.

12 Thus they mooued the people and the Elders, & the Scribes: and running vpon him, caught him, and brought him to the Councill, 13 And set forth false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseeth not to speake blasphemous words against this holy place, and the Law.

14 For we haue heard him say, that this Iesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the ordinances which Moses gaue vs.

15 And as all that sate in the Councill looked stedfastly on him, they saw his face as it had bene the face of an Angel.

CHAP. VII.

2 Steuen maketh answer by the Scriptures to his accusers. 11 Hee rebueth the hardnecked Jewes, 37 and is stoned to death. 58 Saul keepeth the torments clothes.

Then sayd the chiefe Priest, Are these things so?

2 And he said, Yee men, brethren and fathers, hearken. The God of glory appeared vnto our father Abraham, while hee was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran,

3 *And said vnto him, Come out of thy country, and from thy kined, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.

4 Then came he out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charran. And after that his father was dead, God brought him from thence into this land, wherein ye now dwell,

5 And he gaue him none inheritance in it, no, not the breadth of a foote, yet he promised that he would giue it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.

6 But God spake thus, that his * seede should be a sojourner in a strange land, & that they should keepe it in bondage, and intreat it euill foure hundred yeeres.

7 But the nation to whom they shall be in bondage, will I iudge, saith God: and after that, they shall come forth, and serue me in this place.

8 *He gaue him also the covenant of circumcision: and so * Abraham begate Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day: and Isaac begate * Jacob, and Jacob the twelve * Patriarches.

9 And the Patriarches moued with enuie, sold Ioseph into Egypt: but God was with him,

10 And deliuered him out of all his afflictions, and *gaue him fauour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt, who made him gouernour ouer Egypt, and ouer his whole house.

12 ¶ Then came there a famine ouer all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction, that our fathers found no sustenance.

12 But when *Jacob heard that there was corne in Egypt, he sent our fathers first.

13 * And at the second time Ioseph was knowne of his brethren, & Iosephs kined was made knowne vnto Pharaoh.

14 Then sent Ioseph, and caused his father to be brought, and all his kined, euen threescore and fiftene soules.

15 So * Jacob went downe into Egypt, and hee died, and our fathers, 16 And were remoued into * Sychem, and were put in the sepulchre, that Abraham had bought* for money of the sonnes of Emor, soune of Sychem.

17 But when the time of the promise drew nere, which God had sworne to Abraham, the people grew, and multiplied in Egypt, 18 Till another king arose, which knew not Ioseph.

19 The same dealt subtilly with our kined, and euill intreated our fathers, and made them to cast out their young children, that they should not remaine aliae.

20 *The same time was Moses borne, and was acceptable vnto God, which was nourished vp in his fathers house three moneths.

21 And when he was cast out, Pharaohs daughter took him vp, and nourished him for her owne sonne.

22 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deedes.

23 Now when he was full forty yeeres olde, he came into his heart to visit his brethren, the children of Israel.

24 * And when he saw one of them suffer wrong,

Heauen answereth for himselfe.

The Actes.

He is stoned to death.

he defended him, and auenged his quarell that had the harme done to him, and smote the Egyptian.

25 For he supposed his brethren would haue vnderstood, that God by his hand should giue them deliuerance: but they vnderstood it not.

26 * And the next day he shewed himselfe vnto them as they stroue, and would haue set them at one againe, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren: why doe ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong, thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a Prince and a Iudge ouer vs?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou didst the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Then fledde Moses at that saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where hee begate two Ionnes.

30 And when fortie yeeres were expired, there appeared to him in the * wildernes of mount Sina an Angel of the Lord in a flame of fire, in a bush.

31 And when Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew neere to consider it, the voice of the Lord came vnto him, saying, 32 I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold it.

33 Then the Lord said to him, Put off thy shooes from off thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 I haue seene, I haue seene the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I haue heard their groning, and am come downe to deliuer them: and now come, and I will send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses whome they forooke, saying, Who made thee a Prince and a Iudge? the same God sent for a Prince, and a deliuerer by the hand of the Angel, which appeared to him in the bush.

36 He * brought them out, doing wonders and miracles in the land of Egypt, and in the red sea, and in the wildernesse * forty yeeres.

37 This is that Moses, which said vnto the children of Israel, * A Prophet shal the Lord your God raise vp vnto you, euens of your brethren, like vnto me: him shall ye heare.

38 * This is he that was in the Congregation, in the wildernes with the Angel, which spake to him in mount Sina, and with our fathers, who receiued the liuely oracles to giue vnto vs.

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but refused, and in their hearts turned backe againe into Egypt, 40 Saying vnto Aaron, * Make vs gods that may goe before vs: for wee know not what is become of this Moses that brought vs out of the land of Egypt.

41 And they made a calfe in those dayes, and offered sacrifice vnto the idole, and reioyced in the workes of their owne hands.

42 Then God turned himselfe away, and * gaue them vp to serue the host of heauen, as it is written in the booke of the Prophets, * O house of Israel, haue ye offered to me slaine beasts, and sacrifices by the space of fortie yeeres in the wildernesse?

43 And ye tooke vp the tabernacle of * Moloch, and the starre of your god Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them: therefore I will cary you away beyond Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wildernesse, as he had appoynted, speaking vnto * Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seene,

45 Which tabernacle alio our fathers receiued, and brought in with * Iesus into the possession of the Gentiles, which God drave out before our fathers, vnto the dayes of Dauid:

46 * Who found fauour before God, and desired that he might * finde a tabernacle for the God of Iacob.

47 * But Salomon built him an house.

48 Howbeit the most High * dwelleth not in temples made with hands, as saith the * Prophet, 49 Heauen is my Throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build for me, saith the Lord? or what place is it that I should rest in?

50 Hath not mine hand made all these things?

51 * Ye stiffnecked and of vncircumcised hearts and eares, ye haue alwayes resisted the holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so doe you.

52 Which of the Prophets haue not your fathers persecuted? and they haue slaine them which shewed before of the comming of that Iust, of whom ye are now the betrayers and murderers, 53 * Which haue receiued the Law by the ordinance of Angels, and haue not kept it.

54 But when they heard these things, their hearts brast for anger, & they gnashed at him with their teeth.

55 But he being full of the holy Ghost, looked stedfastly into heauen, and saw the glory of God, and Iesus standing at the right hand of God, 56 And said, Behold, I see the heauens open, and the Sonne of man standing at the right hand of God.

57 Then they gaue a shout with a loude voyce, and stopped their eares, and ranne vpon him all at once, 58 And cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the * witneses laid downe their clothes at a yong mans feet, named Saul.

59 And they stoned Steuen, who called on God, and said, Lord Iesus receiue my spirit.

60 And hee kneeled downe, and cryed with a loud voice, * Lord lay not this sinne to their charge. And when he had thus spoken, he slept.

CHAP. VIII.

2 Steuen is lamented, and buried. 3 The rage of the Iewes end of Saul against them. 4 The faithfull scattered, preach here and there. 5 Samaria won by Simon the sorcerer, but was converted by Philip, and confirmed by the Apostles. 19 The confession and hypocrisie of Simon, 26 And conversion of the Eunuch.

And Saul consented to his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the Church which was at Ierusalem, and they were all scattered abroad thorow the regions of Iudea and of Samaria, except the Apostles.

2 Then certaine men fearing God, caried Steuen among them to be buried, and made great lamentation for him.

3 But Saul made hauocke of the Church, and entred into euery house, and drew out both men and women, and put them into prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad, went to and fro preaching the word.

5 ¶ Then came Philip into the city of Samaria and preached Christ vnto them.

6 And the people gaue heede vnto those things which Philip spake, with one accord, hearing, and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For vncleane spirits crying with a loud voice, came out of many that were possessed of them, and many many taken with palsies, and that halted, were healed.

8 And there was great ioy in that citie.

9 And there was before in the citie a certaine man called Simon, which vsed witchcraft, and bewitched the people of Samaria, saying, that he himselfe was some great man.

10 To whom they gaue heed from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And they gaue heede vnto him, because that of long time hee had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But assoone as they beleueed Philip, which preached the things that concerned the Kingdome of God, and the Name of Iesus Christ, they were baptized both men and women.

13 Then Simon himselfe beleueed also, and was baptized, and continued with Philip, and wondered when hee saw the signes and great miracles which were done.

14 ¶ Now when the Apostles which were at Ierusalem, heard say, that Samaria had receiued the word of God, they sent vnto them Peter and Iohn.

15 Which when they were come downe, prayed for them, that they might receiue the holy Ghost.

16 For as yet hee was come downe on none of them, but they were baptized only in the Name of the Lord Iesus.

17 Then laid they their hands on them, and they receiued the holy Ghost.

18 And when Simon saw that through laying on of the Apostles hands the holy Ghost was giuen, he offered them money, 19 Saying, Giue mee also this power, that on whomsoever I lay the hands, hee may receiue the holy Ghost.

20 Then said Peter vnto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou thinkest that the gift of God may be obtained with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor fellowship in this business: for thine heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickednes, and pray God, that if it bee possible, the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I see that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquitie.

24 Then answered Simon, and said, Pray yee to the Lord for mee, that none of these things which ye haue spoken, come vpon me.

25 ¶ So they when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Ierusalem, and preached the Gospel in many townes of the Samaritanes.

26 Then the Angel of the Lord spake vnto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the South vnto the way that goeth downe from Ierusalem vnto Gaza, which is wastie.

27 And hee arose and went on: and behold, a certain Eunuch of Ethiopia, Candaces the Queene of the Ethiopians chiefe gouernour, who had the rule of all her treasure, and came to Ierusalem to worship:

28 And as he returned sitting in his charet, hee read Esaias the Prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said vnto Philip, Goe neere and ioynne thy selfe to yonder charet.

30 And Philip ran thither, and heard him read the Prophet Esaias, and saide, But vnderstandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, How can I, except I had a guide? And he desired Philip, that he would come vp and sit with him.

32 Now the place of the Scripture which hee read, was this, * Hee was led as a sheepe to the slaughter: and like a lambe dumbe before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth.

33 In his humilitie his iudgement hath beene exalted: but who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 Then the Eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the Prophet this? of himselfe, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same Scripture, and preached vnto him Iesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came vnto a certaine water, and the Eunuch said, See, here is water: what doeth let me to be baptized?

37 And Philip said vnto him, If thou beleuest with all thine heart, thou mayest. Then hee answered and said, I beleuee that Iesus Christ is the Son of God.

38 Then hee commaunded the charet to stand still: and they went downe both into the water, both Philip and the Eunuch, and he baptized him.

39 And assoone as they were come vp out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the Eunuch saw him no more: so hee went on his way reioicing.

40 But Philip [Or. perceived himselfe to be.] was found at Azotus, and hee walked to and fro preaching in all the cities, til he came to Cesarea.

3 The conversion of Saul. 15 His vocation to the Apostleship. 20 His zeale to execute the same. 25 How hee escapeth the Iewes conspiracies. 26 His access to the Apostles. 31 The prosperity of the Church. 34 Peter healeth Aenias, 40 Raiseth Tabitha. 42 Hee converteth many to Christ, 43 and lodgeth in a Tanners house.

And * Saul yet breathing out threatnings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went vnto the high Priest.

2 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the Synagogues, that if hee found any that were of that way (either men or women) hee might bring them bound vnto Ierusalem.

3 Now as hee journeyed, it came to passe, that as he was come neere to Damascus, suddenly there shined round about him a light from heauen.

4 And hee fell to the earth, and heard a voyce saying to him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

5 And hee said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Iesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kicke against pricks.

6 Hee then both trembling and astonished, said, Lord, what wilt thou that I doe? and the Lord said vnto him, Arise, and goe into the citie, and it shall be told thee what thou shalt doe.

7 The man also which journeyed with him stood amased, hearing his voice: but seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the ground, and opened his eyes, but saw no man. Then led they him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

9 Where hee was three dayes without sight, and neither ate nor dranke.

10 And there was a certaine disciple at Damascus named Ananias, and to him sayd the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And hee said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 Then the Lord said vnto him, Arise, and goe into the streete which is called Straight, & seeke in the house of Iudas after one called Saul of Tarsus : for behold he prayeth.

12 (And he saw in a vision a man named Ananias coming in to him , and putting his hands on him, that he might receiue his sight.)

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I haue heard by many of this man, how much euill hath he done to thy Saints at Ierusalem.

14 Moreover, here he hath authority of the high Priests, to binde all that call on thy Name.

15 Then the Lord said vnto him, Goe thy way: for hee is a chosen vessell vnto mee , to beare my Name before the Gentiles, and Kings, and the children of Israel.

16 For I will shew him how many things he must suffer for my Names sake.

17 Then Ananias went his way, and entred into the house, and put his hands on him, and said, Brother Saul, the Lord hath sent me (euen Iesus that appeared vnto thee in the way as thou camest ) that thou mightest receiue thy sight , and be filled with the holy Ghost.

18 And immediatly there fell from his eyes as it had bene scales, and suddenly hee receiued sight, and arose, and was baptized, 19 And receiued meate, and was strengthened, So was Saul certain dayes with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway hee preached Christ in the Synagogues, that he was the Soune of God.

21 So that all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this he, that destroyed them which called on this Name in Ierusalem, and came hither for that intent, that hee should bring them bound vnto the high Priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and conferring that this was the Christ, the Iewes tooke counsell together to kill him.

23 And after that many daies were fulfilled, the Iewes tooke counsell together to kill him.

24 But their laying await was knowne of Saul: now they * watched the gates day and night, that they might kill him.

25 Then the disciples tooke him by night, and put him thorow the wall, and let him downe in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come to Ierusalem, hee assayed to ioyne himselfe with the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and beleeued not that he was a discipule.

27 But Barnabas tooke him, and brought him to the Apostles, and declared to them how hee had seene the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken vnto him, & how hee had spoken boldly at Damascus in the Name of Iesus.

28 And hee † was conuersant with them at Ierusalem, 29 And spake boldly in the Name of the Lord Iesus, and spake and disputed with the Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

30 But when the brethren knew it, thy brought him to Cesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 Then had the Churches rest through all Iudea and Galilee, and Samaria, and were edified, and walked in the feare of the Lord, and were multiplied by the comfourt of the holy Ghost.

32 And it came to passe, as Peter walked thorowout all quarters, hee came also to the Saints which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there hee found a certaine man named Aeneas, which had kept his bed eight yeeres, and was sicke of the palse, 34 Then said Peter vnto him, Aeneas, Iesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make vp thy bed. And he arose immediatly.

35 And all that dwelt at Lydda and Saron saw together, and turned to the Lord.

36 There was also at Ioppa a certaine woman, a discipule, named Tabitha ( which by interpretation is called Dorcas ) she was full of good workes and almes which shee did.

37 And it came to passe in those dayes, that she was sicke & died: and when they had washed her, they laied her in an vpper chamber.

38 Now forasmuch as Lydda was neere to Ioppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent vnto him two men, desiring that he would not delay to come vnto them.

39 Then Peter arose and came with them: and when he was come they brought him into the vpper chamber, where all the widowes stood by him weeping, and shewing the coates and garments, which Dorcas made while shee was with them.

40 But Peter put them all fourth, and kneeled downe, and prayed, and turned him to the body, and said, Tabitha, arise. And shee opened her eyes, and when he saw Peter, shee vp.

41 Then hee gaue her the hand, and lift her vp, and called the Saints and widowes, and restored her alieue.

42 And it was knowne thorowout all Ioppa, and many beleeued in the Lord.

43 And it came to passe that hee taried many dayes in Ioppa with one Simon a tanner.

CHAPTER X.

3 Cornelius admonished by the Angel, 7. Hee sendeth to Ioppa. 11 The vision that Peter saw. 17 How hee was sent to Cornelius. 24 The Gentiles also receiue the Spirit, and are baptized.

¶ Furthermore, there was a certaine man in Cesarea, called Cornelius, a captain of the band, called the Italian band,

2 A deuout man, and one that feared God, with all his householde, which gaue much almes to the people, and prayed God continually.

3 Hee saw in a vision evidently (about the ninth houre of the day) an Angel of God comming in to him, and saying vnto him, Cornelius.

4 But when he looked on him, hee was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And hee said vnto him, Thy prayets and thine almes are come vp into remembrance before God.

5 Now therefore send men to Ioppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter.

6 Hee lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: hee shall tell thee what thou oughtest to doe.

7 And when the Angel which spake vnto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his seruants, and a souldier that feared God, one of them that waited on him,

8 And tolde them all things, and sent them to Ioppa.

9 On the morow as they went on their iourney, and drew neere vnto the city, Peter went vp vpon the house to pray about the sixth houre.

10 Then waxed hee an hungred, and would haue eaten: but while they made some thing ready, hee fell into a trance.

11 And hee saw heauen opened, and a certaine vessell come downe vnto him, as it had bene a great sheet knit at the foure corners, and was let downe to the earth, 13 Wherein were all manner of foure footed beasts of the earth, and wilde beasts, and creeping things, and fowles of the heauen.

13 And there came a voyce vnto him, Arise, Peter, kill, and eate.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord: for I haue neuer eaten any thing that is polluted or vncleane.

15 And the voyce spake vnto him againe the second time, The things that God hath purifed, pollute thou not.

16 This was so done thrice: and the vessell was drawen vp againe into heauen.

17 Now while Peter doubted in himselfe what this vision which hee had scene meant, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius had inquired for Simons house, and stood at the gate, 18 And called and asked whether Simon which was surnamed Peter were lodged there.

19 And while Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit sayd vnto him, Behold, three men seeke thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee downe, and go with them, and doubt nothing: for I haue sent them.

21 ¶ Then Peter went downe to the men which were sent vnto him from Cornelius, and sayd, Behold, I am he whom ye seeke: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they sayd, Cornelius the captaine, a iust man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Iews, was warned from heauen by an holy Angel to send for thee into his house, and to heare thy words.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them, and the next day Peter went forth with them, and certaine brethren from Ioppa accompanied him.

24 ¶ And the day after, they entred into Cesarea. Now Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen, and speciall friends.

25 And it came to passe, as Peter came in, that Cornelius met him, and fell downe at his feete, and worshipped him.

26 But Peter tooke him vp, saying, Stand vp: for I am I my selfe an man.

27 And as he talked with him, he came in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he sayd vnto them, Yee know that it is an vlawfull thing for a man that is a Iew, to company or come vnto one of another nation: but God hath shewed me, that I should not call any man polluted or vncleane.

29 Therefore came I vnto you without saying nay, when I was sent for. I aske therefore, for what intent haue ye sent for me?

30 Then Cornelius said, Four dayes agoe about this houre, I fasted, and at the ninth houre I prayed in mine house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, 31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine almes are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Ioppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter (hee is lodged in the house of Simon a tanner by the sea side) who when hee cometh, shall speake vnto thee.

33 Then sent I for thee immediately, and thou hast well done to come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to heare all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth, I perceiue that God is no acceptor of persons, 35 But in euery nation, he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

36 Ye know the word which God hath sent to the children of Israel, preaching peace by Iesus Christ, which is Lord of all,

37 Euen the word which came thoroughout all Iudea, beginning in Galilee after the Baptisme which Iohn preached, 38 To wit, how God anointed Iesus of Nazareth with the holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the deuill: for God was with him.

39 And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Iews and in Ierusalem, whom they slew, hanging him on a tree:

40 Him God raised vp the third day, and caused that he was shewed openly:

41 Not to all the people, but vnto the witnesses chosen before of God, euen to vs which did eat and drinke with him after he arose from the dead.

42 And hee commanded vs to preach vnto the people, and to testifie that it is he that is ordeined of God a Iudge of quicke and dead.

43 To him also giue all the Prophets witnesse, that through his Name all that beleeue in him shall receiue remission of finnes.

44 While Peter yet spake these words, the holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 So they of the circumcision, which beleeued, were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles was also powred out the gift of the holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them speake with tongues, and magnifie God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which haue receiued the holy Ghost as well as we?

48 So hee commanded them to be baptized in the Name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarie certaine dayes.

CHAP. XI.

4 Peter sheweth the cause wherefore hee went to the Gentiles. 18 The Church approoueth it. 21 The Church increaseth. 22 Barnabas and Paul preach at Antiochia. 28 Agellus propheseth death to come, 29 and the remede.

NOW the Apostles and the brethren that were in Iudea heard that the Gentiles had also receiued the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come vp to Ierusalem, they of the circumcision contended against him,

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men vncircumcised, and hast eaten with them.

4 Then Peter began and expounded the thing in order to them, saying,

5 I was in the citie of Ioppa praying, and in a trance I saw this vision. A certaine vessell comming downe, as it had bene a great sheete let downe from heauen by the foure corners, and it came to me.

6 Toward the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, & saw foure footed beasts of the earth, and wilde beasts, and creeping things, and fowles of the heauen.

7 Also I heard a voyce saying vnto me, Arise, Peter: slay and eate.

8 And I sayd, God forbid, Lord: for nothing polluted or vncleane hath at any time entred into my mouth.

9 But the voyce answered me the second time from heauen, The things that God hath purifed, pollute thou not.

10 And this was done three times, and all were taken vp againe into heauen.

11 Then behold, immediately there were three men already come vnto the house where I was, sent from Cesarea vnto me.

12 And the Spirit said vnto me, that I should go with them, without doubting: moreover, these sixe brethren came with mee, and wee entred into the mans house.

13 And he shewed vs how he had seene an Angel in his house, which stood and said to him, Send men to Ioppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter.

14 He shall speake wordes vnto thee, whereby both thou and all thine house shalt be saved.

15 And as I began to speake, the holy Ghost fell on them, * euen as vpon vs at the beginning.

16 Then I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, * Iohn baptized with water, but yee shall be baptized with the holy Ghost.

17 Forasmuch then as God gaue them a like gift, as he did vnto vs, when wee beleueed in the Lord Iesus Christ, who was I, that I could let God

18 When they heard these things, they helde their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance vnto life.

19 ¶ And they which were * scattered abroad because of the persecution that arose about Steuen, walked thorowout till they came vnto Phenice & Cyprus, and Antiochia, preaching the word to no man, but vnto the Iewes onely.

20 Now some of them were men of Cyprus, and of Cyrene, which when they were come into Antiochia, spake to the Grecians, and preached the Lord Iesus.

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them, so that a great number beleueed, and turned vnto the Lord.

22 Then tidings of those things came vnto the eares of the Church, which was in Ierusalem, and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should goe vnto Antiochia.

23 Who when he was come, and had seene the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted all, that with purpose of heart they would cleaue vnto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the holy Ghost, and faith, and much people ioyned themselves vnto the Lord.

25 ¶ Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus to seeke Saul:

26 And when hee had found him, hee brought him vnto Antiochia, & it came to passe, that a whole yere they were conuerfant with the Church, and taught much people, in somuch that the disciples were first called Christians in Antiochia.

27 In those dayes also came Prophets from Ierusalem vnto Antiochia.

28 And there stood vp one of them, named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit, that there should be great famine thorowout all the world, which also came to passe vnder Claudius Cesar.

29 Then the disciples, euery man according to his abilitie, purposed to send succour vnto the brethren which dwelt in Iudea.

30 Which thing they also did, and sent it to the Elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

C H A P. XII.

1 Herod persecuteth the Christians. 2 Hee killeth James, 4 and putteth Peter in prison, 7 whome the Lord deliuereth by an Angel. 23 The horrible death of Herod. 24 The Gospell flourisheth. 25 Barnabas and Saul returning to Antiochia; take Iohn Mark with them.

Now about that time Herod the King stretched forth his handes to vex certain of the Church.

2 And he killed James the brother of Iohn with the sword.

3 And when hee saw that it pleased the Iewes, he proceeded further to take Peter also (then were the dayes of vnleauened bread.)

4 And when he had caught him, hee put him in prison, and deliuered him to foure quaternions of souldiers to be kept, intending after the Passouer to bring him forth to the people.

5 So Peter was kept in prison: but earnest prayer was made of the Church vnto God for him.

6 And when Herod would haue brought him out vnto the people, the same night slept Peter betweene two souldiers, bound with two chaines, and the keepers before the doore kept the prison.

7 ¶ And behold, the Angel of the Lord came vpon them, and a light shined in the house, and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him vp, saying, Arise quickly. And his chaines fell off from his hands.

8 And the Angel said vnto him, Gird thy selfe and binde on thy sandals. And so he did. Then he said vnto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 So Peter came out and followed him, and knewe not that it was true which was done by the Angel, but thought he had seene a vision.

10 Now when they were past the first and the second watch, they came vnto the yron gate that leadeth vnto the citie, which opened to them by its owne accord, and they went out, and passed thorow one street, and by and by the Angel departed from him.

11 ¶ And when Peter was come to himselfe, he said, Now I know for a trueneth, that the Lord hath sent his Angel, and hath deliuered mee out of the hand of Herod, and from all the waiting for of the people of the Iewes.

12 And as hee considered the thing, hee came to the house of Mary the mother of Iohn, whose surname was Marke, where many were gathered together, and prayed.

13 And when Peter knocked at the entry doore, a maid came forth to hearken, named Rhode.

14 But when he knew Peters voice, he opened not the entry doore for gladnesse, but ranne in, and told how Peter stood before the entry.

15 But they said vnto her, Thou art mad. Yet she affirmed it constantly that it was so. Then saide they, It is his Angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened it, & saw him, they were astonished.

17 And hee beckened vnto them with the hand to holde their peace, and told them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things vnto James, and to the brethren: and he departed and went into another place.

18 ¶ Now assoone as it was day, there was no small trouble among the souldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commaunded them to be led to be punished. And hee went downe from Iudea to Cesarea, & there abode.

20 Then Herod intended to make war against them of Tyras and Sidon, but they came all with one accord vnto him, and perswaded Blasts the King chamberlaine, & they desired peace, because their country was nourished by the Kings land.

21 And vpon a day appointed Herod araid himselfe in roayall apparell, and fate on the Iudgement seat, and made an oration vnto them.

21 And the people gaue a shout, saying, The voyce of God, and not of man.

22 But immediately the Angel of the Lord smote him, because he gaue not glory vnto God, so that he was eaten of wormes, and gaue vp the ghost.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Paul and Barnabas are called to preach among the Gentiles. 7 Of Sergius Paulus, and Elymas the forcerer. 13 The departure of Marke. 14 Paul preaches at Antiochia. 23 The faith of the Gentiles. 26 The Jewes reiecteth. 48 They that are ordeined to suffer paine. 52 The fruit of faith.

There were also in the Church that was at Antiochia certaine Prophets and teachers, as Barnabas, and Simeon called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manabeh (which had bene brought vp with Herod the Tetrarch) and Saul.

1 Now as they ministred to the Lord, & fasted, the holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas & Saul, for the worke whereunto I haue called them.

3 Then fasted they and prayed, and layd their hands on them, and let them goe.

4 And they after they were * sent forth of the holy Ghost, came downe vnto Seleucia, and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the Synagogues of the Iewes: and they also had Iohn to their Minister.

6 So when they had gone thorowout the yle vnto Paphus, they found a certaine forcerer a false prophet, being a Iew, named Baricufus, 7 Which was with the Deputie Sergius Paulus, a prudent man. He called vnto him Barnabas and Saul, and desired to heare the word of God.

8 But Elymas the forcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, and sought to turne away the Deputie from the faith.

9 Then Saul (which also is called Paul) being full of the holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all subtiltie and all mischiefes, the child of the deuil, and enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to peruert the straight wayes of the Lord?

11 Now therefore behold, the hand of the Lord is vpon thee, and thou shalt be blinde, and not see the Sunne for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkenesse, and he went about seeking some to leade him by the hand.

12 Then the Deputie when hee sawe what was done, beleueed, and was astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and they that were with him, were departed by shippe from Paphus, they came to Perga a ciitie of Pamphylia: then Iohn departed from them, and returned to Ierusalem.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antiochia a ciitie of Pisidia, and went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day and fate downe.

15 And after the Lecture of the Law and Prophets, the rulers of the Synagogue sent vnto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye haue any word of exhortation for the people, say on, 16 Then Paul stood vp and beckened with the hand and said, Men of Israel, and ye that feare God, hearken.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt in the lande of * Egypt, and with an * high arme brought them out thereof.

18 And about the time * of fortie yeeres suffred he their maners in the wilderness.

19 And hee destroyed seuen nations in the land of Canaan, and * diuided their land to them by lot.

20 Then afterward he gaue vnto them * Iudges about foure hundredth and fiftie yeeres, vnto the time of Samuel the Prophet.

21 So after that, they desired a * King, and God gaue vnto them * Saul the sonne of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin by the space of fortie yeeres.

22 And after he had taken him away, he raised vp * Dauid to be their King, of whom hee witnessed, saying, I haue found Dauid the sonne of Iesse, a man after mine owne heart, which will doe all things that I will.

23 Of this mans seed, hath God * according to his promise raised vp to Israel the Sauiour Iesus.

24 When * Iohn had first preached before his coming the Baptisme of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And when Iohn had fulfilled his course, hee said, * Whom ye thinke that I am, I am not he: but behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loofe.

26 Ye men and brethren, children of the generation of Abraham, & whoseouer among you feareth God, to you is the word of this saluation sent.

27 For the inhabitants of Ierusalem and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet * words of the Prophets, which are read euery Sabbath day, they haue fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, * yet desired they Pilate to kill him.

29 And when they had fulfilled all things that were written of him, they tooke him downe from the tree, and put him a sepulchre.

30 But God * raised him vp from the dead.

31 And he was seene many dayes of them which came vp with him from Galile to Ierusalem, which are his witnesses vnto the people.

32 And we declare vnto you, that touching the promise made vnto the fathers, 33 God hath fulfilled it vnto vs their children, in that he raised vp Iesus, euen as it is written in the second Psalm, * Thou art my Sonne: this day haue I begotten thee.

34 Now as concerning that hee raised him vp from the dead, no more to returne to the graue, he hath said thus, * I will giue you the holy things of Dauid, which are faithfull.

35 Wherefore hee saith also in another place, * Thou wilt not suffer thine Holy one to see corruption.

36 Howbeit Dauid after he had serued his time by the counsell of God, he * slept and was laide with his fathers, and saw corruption.

37 But he whom God raised vp, saw no corruption.

38 Bee it knowne vnto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached vnto you the forgiveness of finnes.

39 And from all things from which yee could not be iustificed by the Law of Moses, by him euery one that beleueth is iustificed.

40 Beware therefore lest that come vpon you which is spoken of in the Prophets, 41 * Behold, yee despisers, and wonder, and vanish away: for I worke a worke in your dayes, a worke which ye shall not beleuee, if a man would declare it you.

42 ¶ And when they were come out of the Synagogue of the Iewes, the Gentiles besought that they would preach these words to them the next Sabbath day.

43 Now when the Congregation was dissolved, many of the Iewes and Profelytes that feared God followed Paul and Barnabas, which spake to them, & exhorted them to continue in the grace of God.

44 And the next Sabbath day came almost the whole cite together to heare the word of God.

45 But when the Iewes saw the people, they were full of enuie, and spake against those things which were spoken of Paul; contrariying them, and railing on them.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas spake boldly, and said, * It was necessary that the word of God should first haue bene spoken vnto you: but seeing ye put it from you, and iudge your selues vnworthy of euerlasting life, loe, we turne to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath the Lord commanded vs, saying, * I haue made thee a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldst bee the saluation vnto the ende of the world.

48 And when the Gentiles heard it, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord, and as many as were ordained vnto eternal life, beleueed.

49 Thus the word of the Lord was published thorowout the whole country.

50 But the Iewes stirred certaine deuout and honourable women, and the chiefe men of the cite, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

51 But they * shooke off the dust of their feete against them, and came vnto Iconium.

52 And the disciples were filled with ioy and with the holy Ghost.

CHAP. XIII.

3 God giueth successe to his word. 6. Paul and Barnabas preach at Iconium and are persecuted. 13 At Lystra they would doe sacrifice to Barnabas and Paul, which refused it, and exhort the people to worship the true God. 19 Paul is stoned. 21 They confirme the disciples in faith and patience, 23 appoint Ministers, 26 and passing thorow many places, make reports of their diligence at Antiochia.

And It came to passe in Iconium, that they went both together into the Synagogue of the Iewes, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Iewes and of the Grecians beleueed.

2 But the vnbeleueing Iewes stirred vp and corrupted the mindes of the Gentiles against the brethren.

3 So therefore they abode there a long time, and spake boldly in the Lord, which gaue testimonie vnto the word of his grace, and caused signes and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the people of the city were diuided: and some were with the Iewes, and some with the Apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and of the Iewes, with their rulers to doe them violence and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and fled vnto Lystra, and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and vnto the region round about.

7 And there were preaching the Gospel. ¶

8 ¶ Now there sat a certaine man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, which was a creeple from his mothers wombe, who had neuer walked.

9 He heard Paul speake: who beholding him, and perceiuing that he had faich to be healed, 10 Said with a lowd voyce, ¶ Stand vpright on thy feet. And he leaped vp, and walked.

11 Then when the people sawe what Paul had done, they lift vp their voyces, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, Gods are come downe to vs in the likenesse of men.

12 And they called Barnabas Iupiter, and Paul Mercurius, because he was the chiefe speaker.

13 Then Iupiters Priest, which was before their cite, brought bulles with garlands vnto the gates, and would haue sacrificed with the people.

14 But when the Apostles, Barnabas and Paul heard it, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying, 15 And saying, O men, why doe ye these things? We are euen men subiect to the like passions that yee be, and preach vnto you, that yee should turne from these vaine idols vnto the liuing God, which made heauen and earth, and the sea, and all things that in them are.

16 Who in times past * suffered all the Gentiles to walke in their owne wayes.

17 Neuerthelesse, he left not himselfe without witnesse, in that hee did good, and gaue vs raine from heauen, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladnesse.

18 And speaking these things, scarce refrained they the people, that they had not sacrificed vnto them. ¶

19 Then there came certaine Iewes from Antiochia and Iconium, which when they had perswaded the people, ¶ * stoned Paul, and drew him out of the cite, supposing he had bene dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, hee arose vp, and came into the cite, and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And after they had preached in that city, and had taught many, they returned to Lystra, and to Antiochia, Iconium, and to Antiochia.

22 Confirming the disciples hearts, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, affirming that we must thorow many afflictions enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had ordained them Elders by election in every Church, and praied and fasted, they commended them to the Lord in whom they beleueed.

24 Thus they went thorowout Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they came downe to Attalia, 26 And thence sailed vnto Antiochia, * from whence they had bene commended vnto the grace of God to the worke which they had fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the Church together, they rehearsed all the things that God had done by them, and how he had opened the doore of faith vnto the Gentiles.

28 So there they abode a long time with the disciples.

Apostles and Elders, which were at Ierusalem.

5 And so were the Churches stablished in the faith, and increased in number dayly.

6 ¶ Now when they had gone thorowout Phrygia, and the region of Galatia, they were forbidden of the holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia.

7 Then came they to Myfia, and sought to goe offesus. into Bithinya: but the Spirit ¶ suffered them not.

8 Therefore they passed thorow Myfia, and came downe to Troas, 9 Where a vision appeared to Paul in the night. There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come into Macedonia and help vs.

10 And after he had seene the vision, immediately we prepared to goe into Macedonia, being assured that the Lord had called vs to preach the Gospel vnto them.

11 Then went we forth from Troas, and with a straight course came to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis, 12 ¶ And from thence to Philippi, which is the chiefe citie in the parts of Macedonia, and whose inhabitants came from Rome to dwell there, and we were in that citie abiding certaine dayes.

13 And on the Sabbath day wee went out of the citie, besides a riuer where they were wont to pray: and wee sat downe, and spake vnto the women which were come together.

14 And a certaine woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the citie of the Thyatirians, which worshipped God, heard vs: whose heart the Lord opened that shee attended vnto the things which Paul spake.

15 And when shee was baptized, and her household, she besought vs, saying, If ye haue iudged me to be faithfull to the Lord, come into mine house, and abide there: and she constrained vs.

16 And it came to passe, that as we went to pray, Leuit. 20. 27. deus. a certaine maide hauing a * spirit of diuination, met vs, which gate her masters much vantage with diuining.

17 Shee followed Paul and vs, and cried, saying, These men are the seruants of the most high God, which shew vnto vs the way of saluation.

18 And this did she many daies: but Paul being grieved, turned about and said to the spirit, I command thee in the Name of Iesus Christ, that thou come out of her. And he came out the same houre.

19 Now when her masters saw that the hope of their gaine was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the market place, vnto the Magistrates,

20 And brought them to the gouernours, saying, These men which are Iewes trouble our citie, 21 And preach ordinances which are not lawfull for vs to receiue, neither to obserue, seeing we are Romans.

22 The people also rose vp together against them, and the gouernours rent their clothes, and 23 * commanded them to be beaten with rods. 2. Cor. 11. 28. 1. thes. 2. 2.

24 And when they had beaten them fore, they cast them into prison, commanding the gaoler to keepe them surely.

25 Who hauing receiued such commandement, ¶ Or, in the bottom of the prison or in a dungeon. cast them into the inner prison, and made their feete fast in the stocks.

26 Now at midnight Paul and Silas praied, and sung a Psalm vnto God: and the prisoners heard them.

27 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundation of the prison was shaken: and by and by all the doores opened, and euery mans bands were loosed.

27 Then the keeper of the prison waked out of his sleepe: and when hee saw the prison doores open, hee drewe out his sword, and would haue killed himselfe, supposing the prisoners had bene fled.

28 But Paul cried with a lowd voice, saying, Doe thy selfe no harme: for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and leaped in, and came trembling, and fell downe before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I doe to be saued?

31 And they said, Beleeue in the Lord Iesus Christ, and thou shalt bee saued, and thine household.

32 And they preached vnto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

33 Afterward he tooke them the same houre of the night, and washed their stripes, and was baptized with all that belonged vnto him, straightway.

34 And when hee had brought them into his house, hee set meate before them, and reioyced that he with all his household beleened in God.

35 And when it was day, ¶ the gouernours sent the sergeants, saying, Let those men goe.

36 Then the Keeper of the prison tolde these words vnto Paul, saying, The gouernours haue sent us to looke you: now therefore get you hence, and goe in peace.

37 Then said Paul vnto them, After that they haue beaten vs openly vnto condemnation, which are Romanes, they haue cast vs into prison, and now would they put vs out priuily? ¶ Nay verily: but let them come and bring vs out.

38 And the sergeants tolde these words vnto the gouernours, who feared when they heard that they were Romanes.

39 Then came they & praied them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the citie.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had scene the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Paul cometh to Thessalonica, 4 Where some receiue him, and others persecute him. 11 To stirre the Scriptures 17 He dispueth at Athens, and the fruits of his doctrine.

NOW as they passed thorow Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a Synagogue of the Iewes.

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in vnto them, and three Sabbath dayes disputed with them by the Scriptures,

3 Opening and alledging that Christ must haue suffered, and risen againe from the dead: and this is Iesus Christ, whom, said he, I preach to you.

4 And some of them beleened, and ioined in company with Paul and Silas: also of the Grecians that feared God, a great multitude, & of the chiefe women not a few.

5 But the Iewes which beleened not, moued with enuie, tooke vnto them certaine vagabonds, and wicked fellows, and when they had assembled the multitude, they made a tumult in the city, and made assault against the house of Iason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 But when they found them not, they drew Iason and certaine brethren vnto the heads of the city, crying, These are they which haue subuerted the state of the world, and here they are,

7 Whom Iason had receiued, and these all do against the decrees of Cesar, saying, that there is another king, one Iesus.

8 Then they troubled the people, and the heads of the citie, when they heard these things.

9 Notwithstanding, when they had receiued sufficient assurance of Iason and of the other, they let them goe.

10 And the brethren immediatly sent away Paul and Silas by night vnto Berea, which when they were come thither, entred into the Synagogue of the Iewes.

11 These were also more noble men then they which were at Thessalonica, which receiued the word with all readinesse, and searched the Scriptures dayly, whether these things were so.

12 Therefore many of them beleueed, and of honest women, which were Grecians, and men not a fewe.

13 ¶ But when the Iewes of Thessalonica knew that the word of God was also preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, & moued the people.

14 But by and by the brethren sent away Paul to goe, as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that did conduct Paul, brought him vnto Athens: and when they had receiued a commandement vnto Silas and Timotheus, that they should come to him at once, they departed.

16 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city subiect to idolatrie.

17 Therefore he disputed in the Synagogue with the Iewes, and with them that were religious, and in the market dayly with whomsoever he met.

18 Then certaine Philosophers of the Epicures and of the Stoikes, disputed with him, and some said, What will this babblers say? Others said, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods, (because hee preached vnto them Iesus, and the resurrection)

19 And they tooke him, and brought him into Mars street, saying, May we not know, what this new doctrine whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certaine strange things vnto our eares: we would know therefore what these things meane.

21 For all the Athenians, and strangers which dwelt there, gaue themselves to nothing else, but toicker to tell, or to heare some newes.

22 Then Paul stood in the mids of Mars street, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceiue that in all things ye are too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your deuotions, I found an altar wherin was written, VNTO THE VNKNOWN GOD. Whom yee then ignorantly worship, him shew I vnto you.

24 God that made the world, and all things that are therein, seeing that he is Lord of heauen and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands,

25 Neither is worshipped with mens hands, as though hee needed any thing, seeing hee giueth to all life, and breath, and all things,

26 And hath made of one blood all mankind, to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath assigned the times which were ordained before, and the bounds of their habitation, 27 That they should seeke the Lord, if so be they might haue groped after him, & found him, though doubtlesse he be not farre from euery one of vs.

28 For in him we liue, and moue, and haue our being, as also certain of your owne Poets haue said, For we are also his generation.

29 ¶ Forasmuch then, as we are the generation of God, wee ought not to thinke that the Godhead is like vnto gold, or siluer, or stone graven by Arte, and the inuention of man.

30 And the time of this ignorance God regarded not: but now hee admonisheth all men euery where to repent, 31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will iudge the world in righteousnesse, by that man, whom he hath appointed, whereof he hath giuen an assurance to all men, in that hee hath raised him from the dead.

32 Nowe when they heard of the resurrection from the dead, some mocked, and other said, Wee will heare thee againe of this thing.

33 And so Paul departed from among them.

34 Howbeit certaine men claue vnto Paul, and beleueed: among whom was also Denys, an Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and other with them.

Or, a iudge of Mars street.

CHAP. XVIII.

3 Paul laboureth with his hands, and preacheth at Corinthus. 6 He is detested of the Iewes, 8 They refused of many, 9 and comforted of the Lord. 14 Gallio refuseth to meddle with religion. 18 Pauls vow.

21 His faith in the prouidence of God, 22 and care for the brethren. 24 The praise of Apollos.

AFTER these things, Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinthus,

2 And found a certaine Iewe named Aquila, Rom. 16. 3 borne in Pontus, lately come from Italy, & his wife Priscilla (because that Claudius had commanded all Iewes to depart from Rome) and he came vnto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them and wrought (for their craft was to make tents)

4 And hee disputed in the Synagogue euery Sabbath day, and exhorted the Iewes, and the Grecians.

5 Now when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul burned in spirit, testifying to the Iewes that Iesus was the Christ.

6 And when they resisted and blasphemed, hee shooke his raiment, and said vnto them, Your blood be vpon your owne head: I am cleane: from henceforth will I goe vnto the Gentiles. (chap. 18. 10. 14.)

7 So he departed thence, and entred into a certaine mans house named Iustus, a worshipper of God, whose house ioyned hard to the Synagogue.

8 And Crispus the chiefe ruler of the Synagogue, beleueed in the Lord, with all his household: 1. Cor. 1. 14. and many of the Corinthians hearing it, beleueed, and were baptized.

9 Then said the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Feare not, but speake, & hold not thy peace.

10 For I am with thee, and no man shall lay hands on thee to hurt thee: for I haue much people in this citie.

11 So he continued there a yeece and fixe moneths, and taught the word of God among them.

12 ¶ Now when Gallio was depute of Achaia, the Iewes arose with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the iudgement seate.

Or, Greece.

13 Saying, This fellow perswadeth men to worship God contrary to the Law.

14 And as Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said vnto the Iewes, If it were a matter of wrong, or an euill deed, O ye Iewes, I would according to reason maintaine you:

15 But if it be a question of words, and names, and and of your lawe, looke ye to it your selues: for I will be no iudge of those things.

16 And he drave them from the iudgement seat.

17 Then tooke all the Grecians softenes the chiefe ruler of the Synagoge, and beat him before the iudgement seat: but Gallio cared nothing for those things.

18 But when Paul had taried there yet a good while, hee tooke leaue of the brethren, and failed into Syria (and with him Priscilla and Aquila) after that hee had (borne his head in Cenchrea: for he had a *vow.

19 Then he came to Ephesus & left them there: but hee entred into the Synagoge, and disputed with the Iewes, 20 Who desired him to tary a longer time with them: but he would not consent, 21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must needs keepe this feast that commeth, in Ierusalem: but I will returne againe vnto you *if God will. So hee failed from Ephesus.

1. Cor. 1.

24 And a certaine Iew, named *Apollos, borne at Alexandria, came to Ephesus, an eloquent man, and mighty in the Scriptures.

¶ Or, well instructed

25 The same was instructed in the way of the Lord, and he spake feruently in the spirit, & taught diligently the things of the Lord, and knew but the Baptisme of Iohn onely.

26 And he began to speake boldly in the Synagoge. Whome when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they tooke him vnto them, and expounded vnto him the way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was minded to go into Achaia, the brethren exhorting him, wrote to the disciples to receiue him: and after he was come thither, he holpe them much which had beleued through grace.

28 For mightily hee confuted publicly the Iewes with great vehemencie, shewing by the Scriptures, that Iesus was the Christ.

CHAP. XIX.

¶ The holy Ghost is given by Pauls hands. 9 The Iewes blasphemous doctrine, which was confirmed by miracles. 13 The rashnesse and punishment of the couurers, and the fruits that came thereof. 24 Demetrius raiseth sedition vnder pretence of Diana: 41 Yes God deliuereth him, and appeareth in by the Towne-clerke.

And it came to passe while Apollos was at Corinthus, that Paul when hee passed thorow the vpper coasts, came to Ephesus, and found certaine disciples,

2 And said vnto them, Haue yee receiued the holy Ghost since ye beleued? And they said vnto him, We haue not so much as heard whether there be an holy Ghost.

4 And hee said vnto them, Vnto what were yee then baptized? And they said, Vnto Iohns baptisme.

4 Then said Paul, *Iohn verily baptized with the baptisme of repentance, saying vnto the people, that they should beleue in him which should come after him, that is, in Christ Iesus.

5 So when they heard it, they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Iesus.

6 And Paul laid his hands vpon them, and the holy Ghost came on them, and they spake the tongues and prophesied.

8 ¶ Moreouer he went into the Synagoge, and spake boldly for the space of three moneths, disputing, and exhorting to the things that appertaine to the kingdom of God.

9 But when certaine were hardened and disobeyed, speaking euill of the way of God before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, and disputed dayly in the schoole of one Tyrannus. ¶ From sent a clerk to him.

10 And this was done by the space of two yeres, so that all they which dwelt in Asia, heard the word of the Lord Iesus, both Iewes and Grecians.

11 And God wrought no small miracles by the hands of Paul,

12 So that from his body were brought vnto the sicke *kerchiefs or handkerchiefs, and the diseases departed from them, and the euill spirits went out of them. ¶ Or, part knt.

13 Then certaine of the vagabond Iewes *exorcists, tooke in hand to name ouer them which had euill spirits, the Name of the Lord Iesus, saying, We adiuire you by Iesus, whom Paul preacheth.

14 (And there were certaine sonnes of Sceua a Iewe, the Priest, about seuen, which did this)

15 And the euill spirits answered, and said, Iesus Iacknowledge, and Paul I know: but who are yet

16 And the man in whom the euill spirit was, ranne on them, and ouercame them, and preailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked, and wounded.

17 And this was knowne to all the Iewes and Grecians also, which dwelt at Ephesus, and feare came on them all, and the Name of the Lord Iesus was magnified.

18 And many that beleued, came and confessed, and shewed their works.

19 Many also of them which vsed curious artes, brought their bookes, and burned them before all men, and they counted the price of them, & found it fifty thousand pieces of siluer.

20 So the word of God grew mightily, and preuailed.

21 ¶ Now when these things were accomplished, Paul purposed by the Spirit to passe thorow Macedonia and Achaia, and to go to Ierusalem, saying, After I haue bene there, I must also see Rome.

22 So sent he into Macedonia two of them that ministered vnto him, Timotheus and Erastus, but he remained in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no small trouble about that way.

24 For a certaine man named Demetrius, a siluer smith, which made siluer *temples of Diana, brought great gaines vnto the craftsmen. ¶ Or, furnaces

25 Whom hee called together, with the workemen of like things, and said, Sirs, yee know that by this craft we haue our goods.

26 Moreouer, yee see and heare, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost thorowout all Asia this Paul hath perswaded and turned away much people, saying, That they bee not gods which are made with hands:

27 So that not onely this thing is dangerous vnto vs, that the state should be reprobud, but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be nothing esteemed, and that it would come to passe that her magnificence, which all Asia and the world worshippeth, should be destroyed.

28 Now when they heard it, they were full of wrath and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

67 And the whole cite was full of confusion, and they rushed into the common place with one consent, and caught *Gaius, and *Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, and Pauls companions of his journey.

68 And when Paul would haue entred in vnto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

69 Certaine also of the chiefe of Asia, which were his friends, sent vnto him, desiring him that he would not present himselfe in the common place.

70 Some therefore cryed one thing, and some another: for the assembly was out of order, and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

71 And some of the company drew forth Alexander, the Iewes thrusting him forwards. Alexander then beckned with the hand, and would haue excused the matter to the people.

72 But when they knew that he was a Iew, there arose a shout almost for the space of two houres of all men, crying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

73 Then the towne Clerke, when hee had stayed the people, sayd, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is it that knoweth not how that the cite of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddesse Diana, and of the image which came downe from Iupiter?

74 Seeing then that no man can speake against these things, yee ought to be appealed, and to doe nothing rashly.

75 For ye haue brought higher these men, which haue neither committed sacrilege, neither do blaspheme your goddesse.

76 Wherefore if Demetrius and the craftsmen which are with him, haue a matter against any man, the lawe is open, and there are deputies: let them accuse one another.

77 But if ye inquire any thing concerning other matter, it may be determined in a lawfull assembly.

78 For we are enen in jeopardy to be accused of this dayes sedition, forasmuch as there is no cause whereby we may giue a reason of this concourse of people.

79 And when hee had thus spoken, he let the assembly depart.

1 Paul goeth into Macedonia and into Grecia. 7 He celebrateth the Lords Supper, & preacheth. 9 As Troas he raiseth vp Eutychus. 17 At Ephesus he calleth the Elders of the Church together, committeth the keeping of Gods flock vnto them, warneth them of false teachers, maketh his prayer, and departeth by ship towards Ierusalem.

NOW after the tumult was ceased, Paul called the disciples vnto him, and embraced them, and departed to goe into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone thorow those parts, and had exhorted them with many words, he came into Grecia.

3 And hauing tarried there three moneths, because the Iewes laid wait for him, as he was aboute to saile into Syria, hee purposed to returne thorow Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea, and of them of Thessalonica, Aristarchus, and Secundus, and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus, and of them of Asia Tychicus, and Trophimus.

5 These went before, and taried vs at Troas.

6 And we sailed forth from Philippi, after the dayes of vnleagened bread, and came vnto them to Troas in fise dayes, where we abode seuen dayes.

7 And the first day of the week, the disciples being come together to breake bread, Paul preached vnto them, ready to depart on the morrow, and continued the preaching vntill midnight.

8 And there were many lightes in an vpper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certaine young man, named Eutychus, fallen into a deepe sleepe: and as Paul was long preaching, he ouercome with sleepe, fell downe from the third loft, and was taken vp dead.

10 But Paul went down, and laid himselfe vpon him, and imbraced him, saying, Trouble not your selues: for his life is in him.

11 So when Paul was come vp againe, and had broken bread, & eaten, he communed a long while till the dawning of the day, and so he departed.

12 And they brought the boy aliue, and they were not a little comforted.

13 ¶ Then we went forth to ship, and sailed vnto the cite Assos, that we might receiue Paul: therfor so had he appointed, and would himselfe goe a foote.

14 Now when he was come vnto vs to Assos, and we had receiued him, we came to Mitylenes.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day ouer against Chios, and the next day we arrived at Samos, and taried at Trogyllium: the next day we came to Miletum.

16 For Paul had determined to saile by Ephesus, because hee would not spend the time in Asia: for he halted to be, if hee could possibly, at Ierusalem, at the day of Pentecost.

17 ¶ Wherefore from Miletum he sent to Ephesus, and called the Elders of the Church.

18 Who when they were come to him, hee sayd vnto them, Ye know from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I haue bene with you at all seasons,

19 Seruing the Lord with all modesty, and with many teares and tentations, which came vnto mee by the layings await of the Iewes,

20 And how I kept backe nothing that was profitable, but haue shewed you, and taught you openly, and thorowout euery house, 21 Witnessing both to the Iewes, and to the Grecians the repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Iesus Christ.

22 And now, behold, I goe bound in the spirit vnto Ierusalem, and know not what things shall come vnto me there, 23 Saue that the holy Ghost witnesseth in euery cite, saying, that baudes and afflictions abide mee.

24 But I passe not at all, neither is my life deare vnto my selfe, so that I may fulfill my course with ioy, and the ministration, which I haue receiued of the Lord Iesus, to testifie the Gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now behold, I know that henceforth ye all, thorow whom I haue gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.

27 For I haue kept nothing back, but haue shewed you all the counsell of God.

28 Take heed therefore vnto your selues, and to all the flocke, wherof the holy Ghost hath made you ouersheers, to feede the Church of God, which he hath purchased with his owne blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grieuous griuous wolues enter in among you , not sparing the flocke.

30 Moreover, of your owne selues shall men arise speaking peruerse things, to draw disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch and remember, that by the space of three yeeres, I ceased not to warne every one, both night and day with teares.

32 And now brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build further , and to giue you an inheritance among all them, which are sanctified.

33 I haue coveted no mans siluer, nor gold, nor apparell.

34 Yea, yee know that these handes haue ministered vnto my * necessities , and to them that were with me.

35 I haue shewed you all things, how that so labouring, ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Iesus, how that hee said, It is a blessed thing to giue, rather then to receive.

36 And when hee had thus spoken, hee kneeled downe, and prayed with them all.

37 Then they wept all abundantly, and fell on Pauls necke, and kissed him, 38 Being chiefly sorry for the wordes which hee spake, That they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him vnto the ship.

C H A P. XXI.

5 The common prayers of the faithfull. 9 Philips foure daughters Prophetesses. 13 Pauls constancie to beare the crosse, as Agabus and others foretold, although hee was otherwise counselled by the brethren. 28 The great danger that hee was in, and how he escaped.

And as we lanced forth, & were departed from them, we came with a strait course vnto Coos, and the day following vnto the Rhodes, and from thence vnto Patara.

2 And wee found a shippe that went ouer vnto Phenice, and went aboard and set forth.

3 And when we had discouered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sayled towards Syria, and arrived at Tyrus : for there the shippe vnladed the burden.

4 And when we had found disciples, we taried there seven dayes. And they told Paul thorow the Spirit, that he should not goe vp to Ierusalem.

5 But when the dayes were ended, we departed and went our way, & they all accompanied vs with their wines and children euen out of the city : and we kneeling downe on the shore, prayed.

6 Then when wee had embraced one another, we tooke ship, and they returned home.

7 And when we had ended the course from Tyrus, wee arrived at Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day, Paul and they that were with him, departed, and came vnto Cesarea : and we entred into the house of * Philip the Euangelist, which was one of the seven Deacons, and abode with him.

9 Now hee had foure daughters virgins, which did prophesie.

10 And as wee taried there many dayes, there came a certaine Prophet from Iudea, named Agabus.

11 And when hee was come vnto vs, hee tooke Pauls girdle, and bound his owne hands and feete, and sayd, Thus sayeth the holy Ghost, So shall the Iewes at Ierusalem binde the man that oweth this girdle, and shall deliuer him into the handes of the Gentiles.

12 And when wee had heard these things, both we and other of the same place besought him that he would not goe vp to Ierusalem.

13 Then Paul answered and sayd, What doe ye weeping and breaking mine heart? For I am ready not to be bound onely, but also to die at Ierusalem for the Name of the Lord Iesus.

14 So when he would not be perswaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those dayes, wee trusted vp our sundels, and went vp to Ierusalem.

16 There went with vs also certaine of the disciples of Cesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus an olde disciple , with whome wee should lodge.

17 And when wee were come to Ierusalem, the brethren received vs gladly.

18 And the next day Paul went in with vs vnto Iames: and all the Elders were there assembled.

19 And when hee had embraced them, he tolde by order all things that God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministration.

20 So when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said vnto him, Thou seeest, brother, howe many thousand Iewes there are which beleuee, and they are all zealous of the Law.

21 Nowe they are enformed of thee, that thou teachest all the Iewes, which are among the Gentiles, to forsake Moses, and sayest that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to line after the customes.

22 What is then to be done? the multitude must needs come together: for they shal heare that thou art come.

23 Doe therefore this that we say to thee, We haue foure men which haue made a vow:

24 Them take and purifie thy selfe with them, and contribute with them, that they may * haue Names on their heads: and all shall know that those things whereof they haue bin enformed concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thy selfe also walkest and keepest the Law.

25 For as touching the Gentiles which beleuee, wee haue written and determined * that they observe no such thing, but that they keep themselves from things offered to idoles, and from blood, and from that that is strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul tooke the men, and the next day was purified with them, and entred into the Temple, * declaring the accomplishment of the dayes of the purification, vntill that an offering should be offered for euery one of them.

27 And when the seven dayes were almost ended, the Iewes which were of Asia (when they saw him in the Temple) moued all the people, and laid hands on him, 28 Crying, Men of Israel, helpe: this is the man that teacheth all men euery where against the people, and the Law, and this place: moreover, he hath brought Grecians into the Temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 For they had sene before Trophimus an Ephesian with him in the citie, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the Temple.

30 Then all the citie was moued, and the people ranne together : and they tooke Paul and drew him out of the Temple, and forthwith the doores were shut.

31 But as they went about to kill him, tidings came came vnto the chiefe captaine of the band, that all Ierusalem was on an vprore.

32 Who immediatly tooke souldiers and Centurions, and ran downe vnto them: and when they saw the chiefe captaine and the souldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chiefe Captaine came neere and tooke him, and commaunded him to bee bound with two chaines, and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And one cryed this. another that. among the people. So when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commaunded him to be led into the castle.

35 And when he came vnto the grieues, it was so that he was borne of the souldiers, for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

37 And as Paul should haue bene led into the castle, hee said vnto the chiefe Captaine, May I speake vnto thee? Who saide, Canst thou speake Greeke?

38 Art not thou the *Egyptian, who before these dayes raised a sedition, and led out into the wilderness foure thousand men that were murderers?

39 Then Paul said, Doubtlesse I am a man which am a Iew, and citizeen of *Tarsus, a famous citie in Cilicia, and I beseech thee, suffer me to speake vnto the people.

40 And when hee had giuen him licence, Paul stood on the grieues, and beckened with the hand vnto the people: and when there was made great silence, he spake vnto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

CHAP. XXII.

3 Paul rendreth an account of his life & doctrine.
15 Hee escapes the whip, by reason he was a citizeen of Rome.

Yemen, brethren, and fathers, heare my defence I now toward you.

1 (And when they heard that hee spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence, and he said)

2 I am verely a man, which am a Iew, borne in *Tarsus in Cilicia, but brought vp in this citie at the secte of Gamaliel, and instructed according to the perfect manner of the Law of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day.

3 And I persecuted this way vnto the death, binding and deliuering into prison both men and women,

4 As also the chiefe Priest doeth beare me witnesse, and all the state of the Elders: * of whom also I receiued letters vnto the brethren, and went to Damascus to bring them which were there, bound vnto Ierusalem, that they might be punished.

5 And so it was, as I iourneyed and was come neere vnto Damascus about noone, that suddenly there shone from heauen a great light round about mee.

6 So I fell vnto the earth, & heard a voice saying vnto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

7 Then I answered, Who art thou Lord? And he said to mee, I am Iesus of Nazaret, whom thou persecutest.

8 Moreover they that were with mee, saw indeed a light, and were afraid: but they heard not the voice of him that spake vnto me.

9 Then I sayd, What shall I doe, Lord? And the Lord said vnto mee, Arise, and goe into Damascus: and there it shall betoide thee of all things, which are appointed for thee to doe.

10 So when I could not see for the glory of that light, I was led by the hand of them that were with me, and came into Damascus.

11 And one Ananias a godly man, as pertaining to the Law, hauing good report of all the Iewes which dwelt there, 12 Came vnto me, and stood, and said vnto me, Brother Saul, receiue thy sight: and that same honre I looked vpon him.

13 And he said, The God of our fathers hath appointed thee that thou shouldest know his will, and shouldest see that Iust one, and shouldest heare the voice of his mouth.

14 For thou shalt bee his witnesse vnto all men of the things, which thou hast seene and heard.

15 Now therefore why tarigest thou? Arise and be baptized, and walk away thy sinnes, in calling on the name of the Lord.

16 And it came to passe, that when I was come againe to Ierusalem, and prayed in the Temple, I was in a trance, 17 And I saw him saying vnto mee, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Ierusalem: for they will not receiue thy witnesse concerning me.

18 Then I said, Lord, they know that I * prisoned, and beat in euery Synagogue them that beleeued in thee.

19 And when the blood of thy martyr Steuen was shed, I also stood by, and consented vnto his death, and kept the clothes of them that slew him.

20 Then he said vnto me, Depart: for I will send thee farre hence vnto the Gentiles.

21 And they heard him vnto this worde, but then they lift vp their voices and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not meet that he should liue.

22 And as they cryed and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the aire, 23 The chiefe Captaine commaunded him to be ledde into the castle, and bade that hee should bee scourged, and examined, that he might know wherefore they cryed so on him.

24 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said vnto the Centurion that stood by, Is it lawfull for you to scourge one that is a Romane, and not condemned?

25 Now when the Centurion heard it, hee went and told the chiefe Captaine, saying, Take heede what thou doest: for this man is a Romane.

26 Then the chiefe Captaine came, and sayd to him, Tell me, Art thou a Romane? And he said, Yea.

27 And the chiefe Captaine answered, With a great summe obtained I this Burgesship. Then Paul said, But I was borne.

28 Then straightway they departed from him, which should haue examined him: and the chiefe captaine also was afraid after he knew that hee was a Romane and that he had bound him.

29 On the next day, because hee would haue known the certaintie, wherefore hee was accused of the Iewes, hee looted him from his bonds, and commaunded the high Priests and all their Councill to come together: and he brought Paul, and set him before them.

CHAP. XXIII.

3 The answer of Paul being smitten, and the overthrow of his enemies. 11 The Lord encouraged him.

23 And because the Iewes laid wait for him, hee is sent to Cesarea.

And Paul behelde earnestly the Councill, and sayd, Men and brethren, I haue in all good conscience serued God vntill this day.

2 Then the high Priest Ananias commaunded them that stood by, to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul to him, God will smite thee, thou whited wall: for thou sittest to iudge mee according to the law, and commaundest thou me to be smitten contrary to the law?

4 And they that stood by, saide, Reuilest thou Gods hie Priest?

5 Then said Paul, I knew not brethren, that hee Exod. 22. was the high Priest: for it is written, * Thou shalt not speake euill of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceiued that the one part were of the Sadduces, and the other of the Pharises, Phil. 3. he cryed in the Council, Men and brethren, I am a Pharise, the sonne of a Pharise: I am accused of the hope and resurrection of the dead.

7 And when hee had said this, there was a dissension betwene the Pharises and the Sadduces, so that the multitude was diuided.

8 *For the Sadduces say that there is no resurrection, neither Angel, nor spirit: but the Pharises confesse both. Mat. 23.

9 Then there was a great cry: and the Scribes of the Pharises part rose vp, and stroue, saying, We finde none euill in this man: but if a spirit or an Angel hath spoken to him, let vs not fight against God.

10 And when there was a great dissension, the chiefe captaine fearing lest Paul should haue bene pulled in pieces of them, commaunded the souldiers to goe downe, and to take him from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 ¶ Now the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good courage, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Ierusalem, so must thou beare witnesse also at Rome.

12 And when the day was come, certaine of the Iewes made an assembly, & bound themselves with an othe, saying, That they would neither eate nor drinke till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more then fortie, which had made this conspiracie.

14 And they came to the chiefe Priests and Elders, and said, We haue bound our selues with a solemne othe, that we will eat nothing vntill we haue slaine Paul.

15 Now therefore, ye and the Council signifie to the chiefe captaine, that he bring him forth vnto you to morrow, as though yee would know some thing more perfectly of him, and wee, or euer hee come neere, will be ready to kill him.

16 But when Pauls sisters sonne heard of their laying await, he went and entred into the castle and told Paul.

17 And Paul called one of the Centurions vnto him, and said, Bring this yong man vnto the chiefe captaine: for he hath a certaine thing to shew him.

18 So hee tooke him, and brought him to the chiefe captaine, and said, Paul the prisoner called mee vnto him, and prayed mee to bring this yong man vnto thee, which hath some thing to say vnto thee.

19 Then the chiefe captaine tooke him by the hand, and went apart with him alone, and asked him, What hast thou to shew me?

20 And hee said, The Iewes haue conspired to desire thee that thou wouldest bring forth Paul to morrow into the Council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But let them not perswade thee: for there lie in wait for him of them, more then fortie men, which haue bound themselves with an othe, that they will neither eate nor drinke, till they haue killed him: and now are they ready and wait for thy promise.

22 The chiefe captaine then let the yong man depart, and charged him to speake it to no man, that he had shewed him these things.

23 And hee called vnto him two certaine Centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred souldiers, that they may goe to Cesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and two hundred with darts, at the third houre of the night.

24 And let him make ready an horse, that Paul being set on, may be brought safe vnto Felix the Gouernour.

25 And he wrote an Epistle in this manner:

26 Claudius Iulias vnto the most noble Gouernour Felix, sendeth greeting.

27 As this man was taken of the Iewes, and should haue bin killed of them, I came vpon them with the garison, and rescued him, perceiuing that he was a Romane.

28 And when I would haue knowne the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their Council.

29 There I perceiued that he was accused of questions of their Lawe, but had no crime worthe of death, or of bonds.

30 And when it was shewed mee how that the Iewes laid wait for the man, I sent him straightway to thee, and commaunded his accusers to speake before thee the things that they had against him, Farewell.

31 Then the souldiers, as it was commaunded them, tooke Paul, and brought him by night to Aactipatris.

32 And the next day they left the horsemen to goe with him, and returned vnto the castle.

33 Now when they came to Cesarea, they delivered the Epistle to the gouernour, and presented Paul also vnto him.

34 So when the gouernour had read it, he asked of what prouince he was: and when he vnderstood that he was of Cilicia, 35 I will heare thee, said he, when thine accusers also are come, and commaunded him to be kept in Herods iudgement hall.

C H A P. XXIIII.

10 Paul being accused, answereth for his life and doctrine against his accusers. 25 Felix propeth him, thinking to haue a bribe, 28 And after leaueth him in prison.

NOW after five dayes, Ananias the high Priest came downe with the Elders, and sub Tertullus a certaine Oratour, which appeared before the Gouernour against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that wee haue obtained great quietnes through thee, and that many worthy things are done vnto this nation through thy prouidence,

3 We acknowledge it wholly, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thanks.

4 But that I be not tedious vnto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest heare vs of thy courteisie a few words.

5 Certainly we haue found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mouer of sedition among al the Iewes thoroughout the world, and a chiefe maintainer of the sed of the Nazarites:

6 And hath gone about to pollute the Temple: therefore wee tooke him, and would haue iudged him him according to our Law:

7 But the chiefe Captaine Lyfias came vpon vs, and with great violence tooke him out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come to thee: of whom thou mayest (if thou wilt inquire) know all these things, whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jewes likewise affirmed, saying, that it was so.

10 Then Paul after that the Gouvernour had beckened vnto him that he should speake, answered, I doe the more gladly answer for my selfe, forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many yeeres a iudge vnto this nation, 11 Seeing that thou mayest know, that there are but twelue dayes since I came vp to worship in Ierusalem.

12 And they neither found mee in the Temple disputing with any man, neither making vproare among the people, neither in the Synagogues, nor in the citie.

13 Neither can they prouoe the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confesse vnto thee, that after the way, which they call heresie, so worship I the God of my Fathers, beleauing all things which are written in the Law and the Prophets, 15 And haue hope towards God, that the resurrection of the dead, which they themselves looke for also, shalbe both of iust and iust.

16 And herein I endeavour my selfe to haue alway a cleare conscience toward God, and toward men.

17 Now after many yeeres I came and brought almes to my nation and offerings.

18 * At what time certaine Jewes of Asia found me purified in the Temple, 19 Neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

20 Who ought to haue beene present before thee, and accuse me, if they had ought against me.

21 Or let these themselves say, if they haue found any vniust thing in me, while I stood in the Council, 22 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, * Of the resurrection of the dead am I accused of you this day.

23 Now when Felix heard these things, hee deferred them, and said, When I shall more perfectly know the things which concerne this way, by the coming of Lyfias the chiefe captaine, I will decide your matter.

24 Then he commanded a Centurion to keepe Paul, and that he should haue ease, & that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister vnto him, or to come vnto him.

25 ¶ And after certaine dayes came Felix with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewesse, and he called fourth Paul, and heard him of the faith in Christ.

26 And as he disputed of righteousness & temperance, and of the iudgement to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Goe thy way for this time, and when I haue convenient time, I will call for thee.

27 He hoped also that money should haue beene giuen him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore hee sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

28 When two yeres were expired, Porcius Festus came into Felix rouse: and Felix willing to get fauour of the Jewes, left Paul bound.

C H A P. XXV.

2 The Jewes accuse Paul before Festus. 8 Hee answereth for himselfe, 21 And appealeth vnto the Emperour. 24 His matter is rehearsed before Agrippa. 23 And he is brought forth.

¶ When Festus was then come into the prouince, after three dayes hee went vp from Cesarea vnto Ierusalem.

2 Then the high Priest, and the chiefe of the Jewes appeared before him against Paul: and they besought him,

3 And desired fauour against him, that hee would send for him to Ierusalem: and they laide wait to kill him by the way.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, and that he himselfe would shortly depart thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, come downe with vs: and if there be any wickednesse in the man, let them accuse him.

6 ¶ Now when hee had taried among them more then ten dayes, hee went downe to Cesarea, and the next day late in the iudgement seate, and commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when hee was come, the Jewes which were come from Ierusalem, stood about him, and laid many and gricuous complaints against Paul, which they could not prouoe,

8 Forasmuch as he answered, that he had neither offended any thing against the Lawe of the Jewes, neither against the Temple, nor against Cesar.

9 Yet Festus willing to get fauour of the Jewes, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou goe vp to Ierusalem, and there be iudged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cesars iudgement seat, where I ought to be iudged: to the Jewes I haue done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I haue done wrong, or committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof they accuse me, no man can deliuer me to them: I appeale vnto Cesar.

12 Then when Festus had spoken with the Council, hee answered, Hast thou appealed vnto Cesar? vnto Cesar shalt thou goe.

13 ¶ And after certaine dayes, King Agrippa and Bernice came downe to Cesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had remained there many dayes, Festus proposed Pauls cause vnto the King, saying, There is a certaine man left in prison by Felix, 15 Of whom when I came to Ierusalem, the high Priests and Elders of the Jewes enformed me, and desired to haue iudgement against him.

16 To whom I answered, that it is not the manner of the Romanes for saour to deliuer any man to death, before that he which is accused, haue the accusers before him, and haue place to defend himselfe, concerning the crime.

17 Therefore when they were come hither, without delay the day following, I sate on the iudgement seate, and commanded the man to be brought fourth.

18 Against whom when 5 accusers stood vp, they brought no crime of such things as I supposed:

19 But had certaine questions against him of their owne superstition, and of one Iesus which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be aloue.

20 And because I doubted of such maner of question, I asked him whether he would goe to Ierusalem, and there be iudged of these things.

21 But because hee appealed to be referred to the examination of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cesar.

22 Then Agrippa said vnto Festus, I would also heare the man my selfe. To morow, said hee, thou shalt heare him.

W<sup>or</sup>, audi-toris.

23 And on the morow when Agrippa was come, and Bernice with great pompe, and were entred into the y<sup>e</sup> Common hall, with the chiefe Capitaines, and chiefe men of the citie, at Festus commandement Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are present with vs, yee see this man about whom all the multitude of the Iewes haue called vpon me both at Ierusalem, and here, crying, that he ought not to liue any longer.

25 Yet haue I found nothing worthy of death, that he hath committed: neuerthelesse, seeing that hee hath appealed to Augustus, I haue determined to send him.

26 Of whom I haue no certaine thing to write vnto my lord: wherefore I haue brought him forth vnto you, and specially vnto thee, King Agrippa, that after examination had, I might haue somewhat to write.

27 For me thinketh it verereasonable to send a prisoner, and not to shew the causes which are laid against him.

C H A P. XXVI.

1 The innocencie of Paul is approved by rehearsing his conuersation. 25 His modest answere against the iniurie of Festus.

Then Agrippa said vnto Paul, Thou art permitted to speake for thy selfe. So Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himselfe.

2 I thinke my selfe happy, King Agrippa, because I shall answere this day before thee, of all the things whereof I am accused of the Iewes, 3 Chiefly because thou hast knowledge of all customes, and questions which are amongst the Iewes: wherefore I beseech thee to heare mee patiently.

4 As touching my life from my childhood, and what it was from the beginning among mine owne nation at Ierusalem, know all the Iewes, 5 Which knew me heretofore (if they would testifie) that atrey the most strait sect of our religion I liued a Pharisee.

6 And now I stand and am accused for the hope of the promise made of God vnto our fathers.

7 Whereunto our twelue tribes instantly sending God day and night, hope to come: for the which hopes sake, O King Agrippa, I am accused of the Iewes.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible vnto you, that God should raise againe the dead?

9 I also verely thought in my selfe, that I ought to doe many contrary things against the Name of Iesus of Nazaret,

Chap. 8.3.

10 * Which thing I also did in Ierusalem: for many of the Saints I shut vp in prison, hauing receiued authoritie of the hie Priests, and when they were put to death, I gaue my sentence.

11 And I punished them thorowout all the Synagogues, and compelled them to blaspheme, and being more made againt them, persecuted them euen vnto strange citis.

*Chap. 9.
233.*

12 At which time, euen as I went to * Damascus with authoritie, and commission from the high Priests, 13 At midday, O King, I saw in the way a light from heauen, passing the brightnesse of the Sunne, shine round about me, and them which went with mee.

14 So when wee were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking vnto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, * Saul, why persecuest thou me? It is hard for thee to kicke against prickes.

15 Then I said, Who art thou, Lord? And hee said, I am Iesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise and stand vp on thy feet: for I haue appeared vnto thee for this purpose, to appoint thee a minister and a witnesse, both of the things which thou hast seene, & of the things in the which I will appeare vnto thee,

17 Deliuering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, vnto whom now I send thee, 18 To open their eyes, that they may turne from darkenesse to light, and from the power of Satan vnto God, that they may receiue forgiveness of finnes, and inheritance among them, which are sanctified by faith in me.

19 Wherefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient vnto the heauenly vision, 20 * But shewed first vnto them of Damascus, (Chap. 9.) and at Ierusalem, and thorowout all the coasts of Iudea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent, and turne to God, and doe workes worthy amendment of life.

21 For this cause the Iewes caught mee in the * Temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Neuerthelesse, I obtained helpe of God, and continue vnto this day, witnessing both to small and to great, saying none other things, than those which the Prophets, and Moses did say should come.

23 To wit, that Christ should suffer, and that he should bee the first that should rise from the dead, and should shewe light vnto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus answered for himselfe, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art besides thy selfe: much learning doeth make thee mad.

25 But hee said, I am not mad, O noble Festus, but I speake the words of trueth and soberesse.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speake boldly: for I am perswaded that none of these things are hid from him: for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 O king Agrippa, beleeneest thou the Prophets? I know that thou beleeneest.

28 Then Agrippa said vnto Paul, Almost thou perswadest me to become a Christian.

29 Then Paul said, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that heare me to day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the King rose vp, and the gouernour, and Bernice, and they that sate with them.

31 And when they were gone apart, they talked betwene themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death, nor of bonds.

32 Then said Agrippa vnto Festus, This man might haue bene loosed, if hee had not appealed vnto Cesar.

C H A P. XXVII.

1 Pauls dangerous voyage and his company toward Rome. 44 How, and where they arrive.

Now when it was concluded, that wee should saile into Italy, they deliuered both Paul, and certaine other prisoners vnto a Centurion named Iulius, of the band of Augustus.

2 And we entred into a ship of Adramyttium, purposing to saile by the coasts of Asia, and lauched forth, and had Aristarchus of Macedonia, a Thessalonian, with vs.

3 And the next day we arrived at Sidon: and Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to goe vnto his friends, that they might refresh him.

4 And from thence we lanchèd, and sailèd hard by Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 Then sailèd wee ouer the sea by Cilicia, and Pamphylia, and came to Myra, a citie in Lybia.

6 And there the Centurion found a ship of Alexandria, sailing into Italy, and put vs therein.

7 And when we had sailèd slowly many dayes, and scarce were come against Gnidum, because the winde suffered vs not, wee sailèd hard by ¶ Candy, nere to Salmone,

8 And with much adoe sailèd beyond it, and came vnto a certaine place called the faire hauens, nere vnto the which was the citie Lasea.

9 So when much time was spent, and sailing was now ieopardous, because also the Fast was now passed, Paul exhorted them,

10 And said vnto them, Sirs, I see that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not of the lading and ship onely, but also of our liues.

11 Neuertheles, the Centurion beleued rather the gouernour and the Master of the ship, then those things which were spoken of Paul.

12 And because the hauens was not commodious to winter in, many tooke counsell to depart thence, if by any means they might attaine vnto Phenice, thert to winter, which is an haven of Candy, and lieth toward the Southwest and by West, & Northwest and by West.

13 And when the Southerne winde blew softly, they supposing to obtaine their purpose, loosed anchor, and sailèd by Candy.

14 But anon after, there arose by it a stormie wind called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not resist the wind, we let her goe, and were caried away.

16 And we ran vnder a little yle, named Clanda, and had much adoe to get the boat.

17 Which they tooke vp, and vied all helpe, vndergirding the ship, fearing lest they should haue fallen into Syrtes, and they let downe the ¶ vessell, and so were caried.

18 The next day when wee were tossed with an exceeding tempest, they ¶ lightened the ship:

19 And the third day we cast out with our owne hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither Sunne nor starres in many dayes appeared, and no small tempest lay vpon vs, all hope that we should be saued was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the mids of them, and said, Sirs, yee should haue hearkned to me, and not haue looled from Candy, so should yee haue gained this hurt and losse.

22 But now I exhort you to be of good courage: for here shall bee no losse of any mans life among you, save of the ship onely.

23 For there stood by mee this night the Angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serue, 24 Saying, Feare not Paul: for thou must bee brought before Cesar: and loe, God hath giuen vnto thee all that saile with thee.

25 Wherefore, Sirs, be of good courage: for I beleue God, that it shall bee so as it hath bene said me.

26 Howbeit, wee must bee cast into a certaine land.

27 And when the fourteenth night was come, as we were caried to and fro in the Adriaticall Sea, about midnight the shipmen deemed that some countrey approached vnto them, 28 And lounded, and found it twentie fathoms, and when they had gone a litle further, they lounded againe and found fiftene fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest they should haue fallen into some rough places, they cast foure anchors out of the sterne, and wished that the day were come.

30 Now as the Mariners were about to see out of the ship, and had let down the boat into the Sea vnder a colour, as though they would haue cast anchors out of the foreship, 31 Paul said vnto the Centurion and the souldiers, Except these abide in the ship, yee cannot be safe.

32 Then the souldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let it fall away.

33 And when it began to be day, Paul exhorted them all to take meat, saying, This is the fourteenth day that yee haue taried and continued fasting, receiuing nothing.

34 Wherefore I exhort you to take meate: for this is for your safegard: for their shall not an haire fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when hee had thus spoken, hee tooke bread, and gave thanks to God, in presence of them all, and brake it, and began to eat.

36 Then they were all of good courage, and they also tooke meat.

37 Now we were in the ship in all, two hundred, threescore, and sixteene soules.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the Sea.

39 And when it was day, they knewe not the countrey, but they spied a certaine creeke with a banke, into the which they were minded (if it were possible) to thrust in the ship.

40 So when they had taken vp the anchors, they committed the ship vnto the Sea, and loosed the rudder bonds, and hoised vp the maine saile to the wind, and drew to the shore.

41 And when they fell into a place, wheretwo Seas met, they thrust in the ship: and the forepart stucke fast, and could not be moued, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waues.

42 Then the souldiers counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them, when he had swomme out, should flee away.

43 But the Centurion willing to saue Paul, staied them from this counsell, and commaunded that they which could swimme, should cast themselves first into the Sea, and goe out to land:

44 And the other, some on boards, and some on certaine pieces of the ship: and so it came to passe, that they came all safe to land.

C H A P. XXVIII.

1 Paul with his companie are gently intreated of the barbarous people. 5 The ruler hurteth him not.

8 Hee healeth Publius father and others, and being furnished by them of things necessarie, hee sailed toward Rome. 25 where being receiued of the brethren, hee declared his businesse, 30 and there preached two yeeres.

A Nd when they were come safe, then they knew that theyle was called Melita.

2 And the Barbarians shewed vs no litle kindness: for they kindled a fire, and receiued vs every one because of the present showre, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a number of Ior, sticks, and layed them on the ¶ fire, there came a vi-heaps, per out of the heat, and leapt on his hand.

4 Now when the Barbarians sawe the worme hang on his hand, they said among themselves, This man surely is a murderer, whom though hee hath escaped the Sea, yet Vengeance hath not suffered to liue.

5 But he shook off the worme into the fire, and felt no harme.

6 Howbeit they waited when hee should haue swolne, or fallen downe dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no inconuenience come to him, they changed their minds, and said, That he was a God.

7 In the same quarters, the chiefe man of the yle (whose name was Publius) had possessions: the same receiued vs, and lodged vs three dayes courteously.

8 And so it was, that the father of Publius lay sicke of the seauer, and of a bloody Rixe, to whom Paul entred in, & when he prayed, he laid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 When this then was done, other also in the yle, which had diseales, came to him and were healed.

10 Which also did vs great honour: and when we departed, they laded vs with things necessarie.

11 ¶ Now after three moneths we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the yle, whose badge was Castor and Pollux.

12 And when we arriued at Syracuse, we taried there three dayes.

13 And from thence we fet a compasse, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the South winds blew, and we came the second day to Puteoli.

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tary with them seuen dayes, and so wee went toward Rome.

15 ¶ And from thence, when the brethren heard of vs, they came to meet vs at the market of Appius, and at the three Tauerne, whome when Paul saw, he thanked God, and waxed bold.

16 So when wee came to Rome, the Centurion deliuered the prisoners to the generall capitaine: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himselfe with a souldier that kept him.

17 And the third day after, Paul called the chiefe of the Iewes together: and when they were come, he said vnto them, Men and brethren, though I haue committed nothing against the people, or Lawes of the Fathers, yet was I deliuered prisoner from Ierusalem into the hands of the Romanes.

18 Who when they had examined mee, would haue let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Iewes spake contrarie, I was constrained to appeale vnto Cesar, not because I had ought to accuse my Nation of.

20 For this cause therefore haue I called for you, to see you, and to speake with you: for the hope of Israels sake I am bound with this chaine.

21 Then they said vnto him, We neither receiued letters out of Iudea concerning thee, neither came any of the brethren that shewed or spake any enill of thee.

22 But we wil heare of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this fact, wee knowe that euery where it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many vnto him into his lodging, to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, and preached vnto them concerning Iesus, both out of the Law of Moses, and out of the Prophets, from morning to night.

24 And some were periuaded with the things which were spoken, and some belceued not.

25 Therefore when they agreed not among them selues, they departed after that Paul had spoken one word, to wit, Well spake the holy Ghost by Esaus the Prophet vnto our fathers, 26 Saying, * Goe vnto this people, and say, By hearing ye shall heare and shall not vnderstand, and seeing ye shall see and not perceiue.

27 For the heart of this people is waxed fat, and their eares are dull of hearing, and with their eyes haue they winked, lest they should see with their eyes, and heare with their eares, and vnderstand with their hearts, and should returne that I might heale them.

28 Rec it knowne therefore vnto you, that this Saluation of God is sent to the Gentiles, and they shall heare it.

29 And when he had said these things, the Iewes departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.

30 And Paul remained two yeres full in an house hired for himselfe, and receiued all that came in vnto him, 31 Preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concerne the Lord Iesus Christ, with all boldnesse of speech without let.

THE EPISTLE OF THE APOSTLE Paul to the Romanes.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe great mercie of God is declared toward a man in Christ Iesus, whose righteousnesse is made ours through faith. For when man by reason of his owne corruption could not fulfill the Law, yea, committed many abominations, both against the Law of God and nature, the infinite bountie of God, mindful of his promise made to his seruants Abraham, the father of all belceuers, ordeined that mans saluation should onely stand in the perfect obedience of his Sonne Iesus Christ: so that not onely the circumcised Iewes, but also the uncircumcised Gentiles should bee saved by faith in him: euen as Abraham before hee was circumcised, was counted iust onely through faith, and yet afterward receiued Circumcision as a seale or badge of the same righteousnesse by faith. And is the intent that none should thinke that the Covenant which God made to him & his posteritie was not performed, either because the Iewes receiued not Christ, (which was the blessed seed) or els belceued not that hee was the true Redemer, because hee did not onely, or at least more notably preserve the Iewes, the example of Israel and Elau declare that all are not Abrahams posteritie which come of Abraham according to the flesh: but also the verie straungers and Gentiles grafted in him by faith, are made heires of the promise: the cause whereof whereof is the onely will of God, forasmuch as of his free mercy hee eleceth some to be saved & of his iust indignation reiecteth others: so bee damned, as appeareth by the testimonies of the Scriptures. To the intent that the Iewes should not bee too much beaten downe, nor the Gentiles too much puffed vp, the example of Elias proueth that God hath yet his elect euen of the naturall posterity of Abraham, though it appeareth not so to many eyes: and for this purpose that the Gentiles haue, is proceeded of the liberrall mercy of God, which hee as length will stretch toward the Iewes againe, and so gather the whole Israel (which is his Church) of them both. This ground-wooke of faith and doctrine layed, instructions of Christian manners follow, teaching every man to walke in roundness of conscience in his uocation, with all patience and humbleness, reuerencing and obeying the Magistrate, exercising charitie, putting off the old man, and putting on Christ, bearing with the weakes, and louing one another, according to Christs example. Finally, S. Paul after his commendations to the brethren, exhorteth them to vniuersall, and to seeke false teachers and flatterers, and so concludeth with a prayer.

CHAP. I.

1 Paul sheweth by whom and to what purpose hee is called. 13 His ready will. 16 What the Gospel is. 20 The vse of creatures, and therefore they were made. 21. 24 The ingratitude, peruersitie, and punishment of all mankind.

RAVLA 2 A servant of Iesus Christ, called to bee an Apostle, * put apart to preach the Gospel of God,

2 (Which he had promised afore by his * Prophets in the holy Scriptures)

3 Concerning his Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord (which was made of the seede of Dauid according to the flesh,

4 And declared mightily to bee the Sonne of God, touching the spirit of sanctification by the resurrection from the dead.)

5 By whom wee haue received grace and Apostleship (that obedience might be giuen vnto the faith) in his Name among all the Gentiles,

6 Among whom yee be also the called of Iesus Christ:

7 To all you that bee at Rome beloued of God, called to be Saints: * Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

8 First I thanke my God through Iesus Christ for you all, because your faith is published throughout the whole world.

9 For God is my witness (whom I serue in my spirit in the Gospel of his Sonne) that without ceasing I make mention of you

10 Alwayes in my prayers, beseeching, that by some meanes one time or other I might haue a prosperous iourney by the wil of God to come vnto you.

11 * For I long to see you, that I might bestow among you some spirituall gift to strengthen you, 12 That is, that I might be comforted together with you, through our mutuall faith, both yours and mine.

13 Now my brethren, I would that yee should not bee ignorant, how that I haue often times purposed to come vnto you (but haue bene let hitherto) that I might haue some fruit also among you, as I haue among the other Gentiles.

14 I am debter both to the Grecians and to the Barbarians, both to the wise men and to the vniuers.

15 Therefore as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the Gospel to you also that are at Rome.

16 For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ: for it is the * power of God vnto saluation to euery one that beleueth, to the Iewes first, and also to the Grecians.

17 For by it the righteousness of God is renewed from faith to faith: as it is written, * The iust shall liue by faith,

18 For the wrath of God is renewed fro heauen against all vngodlines and vnrighteousnes of men, which withhold the truth in vnrighteousnesse, 19 Forasmuch as that which may be knowne of God, is manifest in them: for God hath shewed it vnto them.

20 For the inuisible things of him, that is, his eternall power and Godhead, are seene by the creation of the world, being considered in his works, to the intent that they should be without excuse:

21 * Because that when they knew God, they Ephes. 4. glorified him not as God, neither were thankfull, 18. but became vaine in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was full of darkenesse.

22 When they professed themselves to be wise, they became fooles.

23 For they turned the glory of the incorruptible God to the similitude of the image of a corruptible man, and of birds, and foure footed beasts, and of creeping things.

24 Wherefore also God gaue them vp to their hearts lusts, vnto vncleanness, to defile their owne bodies between themselves:

25 Which turned the truth of God vnto a lie, and worshipped and serued the creature, forsaking the Creator, which is blessed for euer, Amen. for, about the reason.

26 For this cause God gaue the vp vnto vile affections: for euen their women did change the naturall vse into that which is against nature.

27 And likewise also the men left the naturall vse of the woman, and burned in their lust one toward another, and man with man wrought filthinesse, and received in themselves such recompence of their errour, as was meet. Or, appeare.

28 For as they regarded not to know God, when so God deliuered them vp vnto a reprobate minde, to do those things which are not conuenient,

22 Being full of all vnrighteousnes, fornication, wickednesse, couetousnesse, malitiousnes, full of enuy, of murder, of debate, of deceit, taking all things in the evil part, whisperers, 30 Backbiters, haters of God, doers of wrong, proud, boasters, inuentors of euill things, disobedient to parents, without vnderstanding, couenant breakers, without naturall affection, such as can neuer be appeased, mercilesse.

31 Which men, though they knew the Law of God, how that they which commit such things are worthy of death, yet not onely do the same, but also fauour them that do them. Or, righteousnes.

CHAP. II.

1 He sheweth the hypocrites with Gods iudgements, 7 and comforteth the faithfull. 12 To beat downe all vaine pretence of ignorance, holinesse, and of alliance with God, bee proueth all men to be sinners: 15 The Gentiles by their conscience, 17 the Iewes by the Law written.

I Herefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whose Or, blasphe. euery thou art that iudgeth: * for in that thou mes. iudgeth another, thou condemnest thy selfe: for Mat. 7. thou that iudgeth, doest the same things. 12. 1.

2 But we know that the iudgement of God is cor. 4. 5. against all vngodlines and vnrighteousnes of men, Eccl 4 acor.

according to truth, against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O thou man, that iudgest them which doe such things, & doest the same that thou shalt escape the iudgement of God?

4 Or despisest thou the riches of his bountifullnesse, and *patience, and long sufferance, not knowing that the bountifullnesse of God leadeth thee to repentance?

5 But thou after thine hardnesse, and heart that cannot repent, *heapst vnto thy selfe wrath against the day of wrath, and of the declaration of the iust iudgement of God,

6 *Who will reward euery man according to his workes:

7 That is to them which by continuance in well doing seeke glory, and honour, and immortalitie, eternall life:

8 But vnto them that are contentious, and disobey the truth, and obey vnrighteousnesse shall be indignation and wrath.

9 Tribulation and anguish shall bee vpon the soule of euery man that doeth euil, of the few first, and also of the Grecian.

10 But to euery man that doth good, shall be glory, and honour, and peace, to the few first, and also to the Grecian.

11 *For there is no respect of persons with God

12 For as many as haue sinned without the Law, shall perishe also without the Law: and as many as haue sinned in the Law, shall bee iudged by the Law, 13 (*For the hearers of the Law are not righteous before God: but the deers of the Law shall be iustified.

14 For when the Gentiles which haue not the Law, do by nature the things contained in the Lawe, they hauing not the Lawe, are a Lawe vnto themselves, 15 Which shew the effect of the Law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts accusing one another or excusing)

16 At the day when God shall iudge the secrets of men by Iesus Christ, according to my Gospel.

17 *Behold, thou art called a Jew, and retest in the Law, and *gloriest in God,

18 And knowest his will, and *allowest the things that are excellent, in that thou art instructed by the Law:

19 And perfwadest thy selfe that thou art a guide of the blinde, a light of them which are in darknesse, 20 An instructor of them which lack discretion, a teacher of the vnlearned, which hast the forme of knowledge and of the truth in the Law.

21 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thy selfe? thou that preachest, A man should not steale, doest thou steale?

22 Thou that sayest, A man should not commit adulterie, doest thou commit adulterie? thou that abhorrest idoles, committest thou sacrifice?

23 Thou that gloriest in the Law, through breaking the Law, dishonourest thou God?

24 For the Name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, *as it is written, 25 For circumcision verely is profitable, if thou doe the Lawe: but if thou be a transgressor of the Law, thy circumcision is made vncircumcision.

26 Therefore if the vncircumcision keepe the ordinances of the Law, shall not his vncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shal not vncircumcision which is by nature (if it keepe the Law) iudge thee, which by the letter and circumcision art a transgressor of the Law?

28 For he is not a Jew which is one outward: neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Jew which is one within, and the *circumcision is of the heart, in the Spirit, not in the letter, whose praye is not of men, but of God.

CHAP. III.

1 Hauing granted some prerogative to the Iewes, because of Gods free and stable promise, to keep promise by the Scriptures both Iewes and Gentiles to be sinners, 21. 24 and to be iustified by grace, through faith, and not by workes, 31 and so the Lawe to be established.

What is then the preferment of the Iewe? or what is the profit of Circumcision?

2 Much euery maner of way: for chiefly, because vnto them were committed the Oracles of God.

3 For what though some did not beleene: shall their vnbeliefe make the faith of God without effect?

4 God forbid: yea, let God be true, and *euery man a liar, as it is written, *That thou mightest be iustified in thy word, and ouercome when thou art iudged.

5 Now if our vnrighteousnesse commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? is God vnrighteous, which punisheth? (I speake as a man)

6 God forbid: els howe shall God iudge the world?

7 For if the veritie of God hath more abounded through my lie vnto his glory, why am I yet condemned as a sinner?

8 And (as we are blamed, and as some asseme that we say) why doe we not euill that good may come thereof? whose damnation is iust.

9 What then? are we more excellent? No, in no wise: for wee haue already proued, that all, both Iewes and Gentiles, are *vnder sinne, 10 As it is written, *There is none righteous, no one.

11 There is none that vnderstandeth: there is none that seeketh God.

12 They haue all gone out of the way, they haue bene made altogether vnprofitable: there is none that doeth good, no not one.

13 *Their throat is an open sepulchre: they haue vsed their tongues to deceit: *the payson of Aspes vnder their lips.

14 *Whole mouth is full of cursing & bitterness.

15 *Their feet are swift to shed blood.

16 Destruction and calamitie are in their wayes.

17 And the way of peace they haue not known.

18 *The feare of God is not before their eyes.

19 Nowe we knowe that whatsoever the Lawe saith, it saith it to them which are vnder the Lawe, that euery mouth may be stopped, and all the world be culpable before God.

20 *Therefore by the workes of the Lawe shall no flesh be iustified in his sight, for by the Lawe cometh the knowledge of sinne.

21 But now is the *righteousnesse of God made manifest without the Lawe, hauing witness of the Law and of the Prophets, 22 To wit, the righteousness of God by the faith of Iesus Christ, vnto all, and vpon all that beleene.

23 For there is no difference: for all haue sinned and are deprived of the glory of God,

24 And are iustified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Iesus.

25 Whom God hath set forth to be a reconciliation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness, by the forgiveness of the finnes that are passed thorow the patience of God, 26 To shew at this time his righteousness, that he might be iust, and a iustifier of him, which is of the faith of Iesus.

27 Where is then the reioicing? it is excluded. by what Law? of workes? Nay: but by the Lawe of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude, that a man is iustified by faith without the workes of the Law.

29 God is he the God of the Iewes onely, & not of the Gentiles also? Yes, even of the Gentiles also.

30 For it is one God who shal iustifie circumcision of faith, and vncircumcision through faith.

31 Doe we then make the Lawe of none effect through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the Law.

CHAP. IIII.

1. 17. Hee declareth that iustification is a free gift, not by them themselves, of whom the Iewes most boast, as of Abraham and of David, 15 and also by the Office of the Law and faith.

What shall we say then, that Abraham our father hath found concerning the flesh?

2 For if Abraham were iustified by workes, hee hath wherein to reioyce, but not with God.

3 For what faith the Scripture? * Abraham beleeued God, and it was counted to him for righteousness.

4 Now to him that worketh, the wages is not counted by fauour but by debt:

5 But to him that worketh not, but beleeueth in him that iustifieth the vngodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 Euen as David declareth the blessednesse of the man vnto whom God imputeth righteousness without workes, saying,

7 *Blessed are they, whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose finnes are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord imputeth not sinne.

9 Came this blessednesse then vpon the circumcision onely, or vpon the vncircumcision also? for we say, that faith was imputed vnto Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then imputed? when he was circumcised, or vncircumcised? not when he was circumcised, but when he was vncircumcised.

11 *After he receiued the signe of circumcision, as the scale of the righteousness of the faith which he had, when he was vncircumcised, that he should be the father of all them that beleeue, not being circumcised, that righteousness might be imputed to them also,

12 And the father of circumcision, not vnto them onely which are of the circumcision, but vnto them also that walke in the steppes of the faith of our father Abraham, which hee had when hee was vncircumcised.

13 For the promise that hee should be the heire of the world, was not given to Abraham, or to his seede through the Law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For if they which are of the Law be heires, faith is made voyde, and the promise is made of none effect.

15 For the Lawe causeth wrath: for where no Law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is by faith, that it might come by grace, and the promise might be sure to all the seed, not to that onely which is of the Lawe, but also to that which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of vs all,

17 (As it is written, * I haue made thee a father of many nations) euen before God whom he beleeued, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not, as though they were.

18 Which Abraham about hope beleeued vnder hope, that he should be the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken to him, * So shall thy seed be.

19 And hee not weake in the faith, considered not his owne body, which was now dead, being almost an hundred yeere old, neither the deadnesse of Saras wombe.

20 Neither did hee doubt of the promise of God through vnbelife, but was strengthened in the faith, and gaue glory to God, 21 Being fully assured that hee which had promised was also able to doe it.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Now it is not written for him onely, that it was imputed to him for righteousness,

24 But also for vs, to whom it shall be imputed for righteousness, which beleeue in him that raised vp Iesus our Lord from the dead, 25 Who was deliuered to death for our finnes, and is risen againe for our iustification.

CHAP. V.

1 Hee declareth the fruite of faith. 7 and by comparison setteth forth the loue of God, and obedience of Christ, which is the foundation and grownd of the same.

Then being iustified by faith, we haue peace toward God through our Lord Iesus Christ.

2 *By whom also we haue access through faith vnto this grace, wherein we stand, and reioyce vnder the hope of the glory of God.

3 Neither doe we so onely, but also we *reioyce in tribulations, knowing that tribulation bringeth fourth patience,

4 And patience experience, and experience hope,

5 And hope maketh not ashamed, because the loue of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the holy Ghost, which is given vnto vs.

6 For Christ when we were yet of no strength, at his time died for the * vngodly.

7 Doubtlesse one wil scarce die for a righteous man: but yet for a good man it may be that one dare die.

8 But God setteth out his loue toward vs, seeing that while we were yet sinners Christ died for vs.

9 Much more then, being now iustified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.

10 For if when we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.

11 And not onely so, but we also reioyce in God through our Lord Iesus Christ, by whom wee haue now receiued the atonement.

12 Wherefore, as by one man sinne entred into the world, and death by sinne, and so death went ouer all men, forasmuch as all men haue sinned.

13 For vnto the time of the Law was sinne in the world, but sinne is not imputed while there is no Law.

14 But death reigned from Adam to Moyses, euen ouer them also that sinned not after the like manner of the transgression of Adam, which was the figure of him that was to come.

15 But yet the gift is not so, as is the offence: for if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God and the gift by grace, which is by one man Iesus Christ, hath abounded vnto many.

16 Neither is the gift so, as that which entered in by one that sinned. For the fault came of one offence vnto condemnation: but the gift is of many offences to iustification.

17 For if by the offence of one, death reigned through one, much more shall they which receiue the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness, reigne in life through one, that is, Iesus Christ.

18 Likewise then, as by the offence of one, the fault came on all men to condemnation, so by the iustifying of one the benefit abounded toward all men to the iustification of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience many were made sinners: so by the obedience of one shall many also be made righteous.

20 Moreover, the Law entered thereupon, that the offence should abound: neuertheless when sin abounded, there grace abounded much more:

21 That as sin had reigned vnto death, so might grace also reigne by righteousness vnto eternall life, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

Because no man should glory in the flesh, but rather seek to subdue it to the spirit, 3 he sheweth by the vertue and end of Baptisme, 5 that regeneration is toynd with iustification, and therefore exhorteth to godly life, 21 setting before mens eyes the reward of faue and righteousness.

What shall we say then? Shall we continue still in sinne, that grace may abound? God forbid.

2 How shall we that are dead to sinne, liue yet therein?

Galat. 3. 27. 3 Know ye not, that *all we which haue bene baptized into Iesus Christ haue bene baptized into his death?

Col. 2. 12. 4 *We are buried then with him by Baptisme into his death, that like as Christ was raised vp fro the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also should * walke in newnesse of life.

Eph. 4. 23 5 *For if we be grafted with him to the similitude of his death, euen so shall we be to the similitude of his resurrection,

1. Cor. 6. 11. 6 Knowing this, that our olde man is crucified with him, that the body of sinne might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serue sinne.

1. Cor. 6. 11. 7 For he that is dead is freed from sinne.

8 Wherefore if we be dead with Christ, we beleeue that we shall liue also with him, 9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead, dieth no more: death hath no more dominion ouer him.

10 For in that he died, he died once to sinne: but in that he liueth, he liueth to God.

11 Likewise thinke ye also, that ye are dead to sinne, but are alieue to God in Iesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sinne reigne therefore in your mortall body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither giue ye your members as weapons of vnrighthousnes vnto sinne: but giue your selues vnto God, as they that are alieue from the dead, and giue your members as weapons of righteousness vnto God.

14 For sinne shall not haue dominion ouer you:

for ye are not vnder the Law, but vnder grace.

15 What then? shall we sinne, because wee are not vnder the Law, but vnder grace? God forbid.

16 * Know ye not that to whomsoever ye giue Iohn 1. your selues as seruants to obey, his seruants ye are 34. 2. p. to whom ye obey, whether it be of sinne vnto 2. 19. death, or of obedience vnto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye haue bene the seruants of sin, but ye haue obeyed from the heart vnto the forme of the doctrine wherunto ye were deliuered.

18 Being then made free from sinne, ye are made the seruants of righteousness.

19 I speake after the manner of man, because of the infirmities of your flesh: for as ye haue giuen your members seruants to uncleannesse and to iniquitie, to common iniquitie, so now giue your members seruants vnto righteousness in holinesse.

20 For when ye were the seruants of sinne, ye were freed from righteousness.

21 What fruit had ye then in those things, whereof ye are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death.

22 But now being freed from sinne, and made seruants vnto God, ye haue your fruit in holinesse, and the end, euermolting life.

23 For the wages of sinne is death: but the gift of God is eternal life through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VII.

1. 7. 12 The use of the Law. 6. 24 And how Christ hath deliuered vs from it. 16 The infirmities of the flesh. 23 The dangerous fight betwene the flesh and the spirit.

Now ye not brethren, (for I speake to them that know the Law) that the Law hath dominion ouer a man as long as he liueth?

2 *For the woman which is in subiection to a husband, is bound by the Law to the man while hee liueth: but if the man be dead, she is deliuered from the Law of the man.

3 So then, if while the man liueth, shee take another man, shee shall be called an * adulteresse: Matt. but if the man be dead, she is free from the Law, so that she is not an adulteresse, though she take another man.

4 So ye, my brethren, are dead also to the Law by the body of Christ, that ye should be vnto another, euen vnto him that is raised vp from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit vnto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the Law forced us of finnes which were by the Law, had force in our members, to bring forth fruit vnto death.

6 But now we are deliuered from the Law, being dead vnto it, wherein we were holden, that we should serue in newnesse of spirit, and not in the oldnesse of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the Law sinne? God forbid. Nay, I knew not sinne, but by the Law: for I had not known lust, except the Law had said, * Thou shalt not lust.

8 But sinne tooke an occasion by the Commandement, and wrought in me al manner of concupiscence: for without the Law sinne is dead.

9 For I once was alieue without the Law: but when the Commandement came, sinne reuiued, 10 But I died: and the same Commandement which was ordained vnto life, was found to bee vnto me vnto death.

11 For sinne tooke occasion by the Commandement, and decieued me, and thereby slew me.

13 Where

*1. 7. in-

12 Wherefore the Law is holy, and the Commandment is holy, and just, and good.

13 Was that then which is good made death vnto me? God forbid: but sinne, that is might appeare sinne, wrought death in me by that which is good, that sinne might be out of measure sinnefull by the Commandement.

14 For we know that the Law is spirituall, but I am carnall, sold vnder sinne.

15 For I allow not that which I doe: for what I would, that doe I not: but what I hate, that doe I.

16 If I doe then, that which I would not, I consent to the Law that it is good.

17 Now then it is no more I that doe it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that in mee, that is, in my flesh dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me: but I finde no meanes to performe that which is good.

19 For I do not the good thing which I would, but the euill which I would not, that doe I.

20 Now if I doe that I would not, it is no more I that doe it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

21 I finde then by the Lawe, that when I would doe good, euill is present with me.

22 For I delight in the Law of God, concerning the inner man:

23 But I see another lawe in my members, rebelling against the lawe of my minde, and leading me captiue vnto the law of sinne, which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am, who shal deliuer me from the body of this death?

25 I thank God through Iesus Christ our Lord. Then I my selfe in my mind serue the law of God, but in my flesh the Law of sinne.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The assurance of the faithfull, and of the fruites of the holy Ghost in them. 2 The weaknes of the Lawe, and who accomplished it, and wherefore. 3 Of what sort the faithfull ought to be. 4 The fruit of the Spirit in them. 5 Of hope. 6 Of patience vnder the crosse. 7 Of the minde all loue betwixt God and his children. 8 Of his foreknowledge.

Now then there is no condemnation to them that are in Christ Iesus, which walke not after the flesh but after the Spirit.

2 For the Lawe of the Spirit of life which is in Christ Iesus, hath freed mee from the law of sinne and of death.

3 For that that was impossible to the Lawe, inasmuch as it was weake, because of the flesh, God sending his owne Sonne in the similitude of sinnefull flesh, and for sinne condemned sinne in the flesh.

4 That the righteousnesse of the Law might be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh, saue the things of the flesh: but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

6 For the wisdom of the flesh is death: but the wisdom of the Spirit is life and peace,

7 Because the wisdom of the flesh is enmitie against God: for it is not subiect to the Lawe of God, neither in deed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh, can not please God.

9 Now ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, because the Spirit of God dwelleth in you: but if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, the same is not his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead, because of sinne: but the Spirit is life for righteousness sake.

11 But if the Spirit of him which raised vp Iesus from the dead, dwell in you, hee that raised vp Christ from the dead, shall also quicken your mortall bodies, because that his Spirit dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore brethren, we are debtors not to the flesh to liue after the flesh:

13 For if ye liue after the flesh ye shall die: but if ye mortifie the deedes of the body by the Spirit, ye shall liue.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the Sonnes of God.

15 For ye haue not receiued the Spirit of bondage to feare againe: but yee haue receiued the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, \ Abba, Father.* Gal. 4. 3, 6

16 The Same Spirit beareth witnesse with our spirit, that we are the children of God.

17 If we be children, we are also heires, euen the heires of God, and heires annexed with Christ if so be that we suffer with him, that wee may be also glorified with him.

18 For I count that the afflictions of this present time, are not worthy of the glory which shall be shewed vnto vs. 10, of like 2, 3.

19 For the seruent desire of the creature waiteth, when the sonnes of God shall be reueiled, 20 Because the creature is subiect to vanity, not of it owne will, but by reason of him which hath subdued it vnder hope, 21 Because the creature also shall bee deliuered from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious libertie of the sonnes of God.

22 For wee knowe that euerie creature groaneth with vs also, and trauaileth in paine together vnto this present.

23 And not only the creature, but we also which haue the first fruites of the Spirit, euen we do sigh in our selues, waiting for the adoption, euen the redemption of our body. Luke 21. 28.

24 For we are faued by hope: but hope that is seene is not hope: for how can a man hope for that which he seeth?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, wee doe with patience abide for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what to pray as wee ought: but the Spirit it selfe maketh request for vs with sighes, which cannot be expressed.

27 But hee that searcheth the hearts, knoweth what is the meaning of the Spirit: for hee maketh request for the Saints, according to the will of God.

28 Also we know that all things worke together for the best vnto them that loue God, euen to them that are called of his purpose.

29 For those which he knew before he also predestinate to bee made like to the image of his Sonne, that he might be the first borne among many brethren.

30 Moreover, whom he predestinate, them also he called, and whom hee called, them also hee iustified, and whom hee iustified, them hee also glorified.

31 What shall wee then say to these things? If God be on our side, who can be against vs?

32 Who spared not his owne Sonne, but gave him for vs all to death, how shall he not with him giue vs all things also?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of Ro. 50.8. Gods chosen? is a God that * iustificth.

34 Who shall condemne? is a Christ, which is 35 Who shall separate vs from the loue of Christ?

 shall tribulation, or anguish, or persecution, or fam-

Psal. 44.
 36 As it is written, * For thy sake are we killed all the day long: we are counted as sheepe for the slaughter.

37 Neuertheles, in all these things we are more then conquerours through him that loued vs.

38 For I am perswaded that neither death, nor life, nor Angels, nor principallities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall bee able to separate vs from the loue of God, which is in Christ Iesus our Lord.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles which followed not righteousness, haue attained vnto righteousness, euen the righteousness which ousnesse.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the workes of the Law: for they haue stumbled at the stumbling stone.

33 As it is written, * Beholde, I lay in Sion a stumbling stone, and a rocke to make men fall:
 and euery one that beleueth in him, shall not bee ashamed.

C H A P. X.

1 After that hee had declared his zeale toward them, 3 he sheweth the cause of the ruine of the Iewes. 4 The end of the Law. 5 The difference be-twene the iustice of the Law & of faith. 17 Whereof faith commeth, and to whom it belongeth. 19 The refection of the Iewes, and calling of the Gentiles.

D Rethren, mine hearts desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

2 For I beare them record, that they haue the zeale of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of the righteousness of God, and going about to stablish their owne righteousness, haue not submitted themselves to the righteousness of God.

4 * For Christ is the end of the Law for righte-ousnesse vnto euery one that beleueth.

5 For Moses thus describeth the righteousness which is of the Lawe, * That the man which doeth these things, shall liue thereby.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith, speaketh hath on this wife, * Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heauen? (that is to bring Christ from above)

7 Or, who shall descend into the deepe? (that is to bring Christ againe from the dead)

8 But what sayth it? * The word is neere thee, new in thy mouth, and in thine heart. This is the word of faith which we preach.

9 For if thou shalt confesse with thy mouth the Lord Iesus, & shalt beleue in thine heart, that God raised him vp from the dead, thou shalt be saued.

10 For with the heart man beleueth vnto righteousness, and with the mouth man confesseth to salvation.

11 For the Scripture sayth, * Whofoeuer beleueth in him, shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference betweene the Iewe and the Grecian: for he that is Lord ouer all, is rich vnto all that call on him.

13 * For whofoeuer shall call vpon the name of the Lord, shall be saued.

14 But how shall they call on him in whom they haue not beleued? and how shall they beleue in him of whom they haue not heard? and how shall they heare without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach except they be sent? as it is written, * They shall be sent in the feet of them which bring glad tidings of peace, & bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they haue not all obeyed the Gospel: for Eisaia sayeth, * Lord, who hath beleued our report?

17 Then faith is by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I demand, Haue they not heard? * No doubt their sound went out thorow all the earth, and their words into the ends of the world.

19 But I demand, Did not Israel know God? First Moses sayth, * I will prouoke you to enuie by a nation that is not my nation, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 * And Eisaia is bold, and sayth, I was found of them that sought me not, and haue bene made manifest to them that asked not after me.

21 And vnto Israel he sayth, * All the day long haue I stretcht forth mine hand vnto a disobedient and gainfaying people.

CHAP. XI.

3 God hath bu Church, although it be not seme to many eye. 5 The grace shewed to the elect. 7 The iudgement of the reprobate. 8 God hath blinded the Iewes for a time, and reuealed himselfe to the Gentiles: 18 Whom he warneth to humble themselves. 29 The gifts of God without repentance. 33 The depth of Gods iudgements.

I Demand then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid: for I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people, which he knew before. Know ye not what the Scripture saith of Elias, how he maketh request vnto God against Israel, saying,

3 * Lord, they haue killed thy Prophets, and digged downe thine altars: and I am left alone, and they seeke my life?

4 But what sayth the answer of God to him? I haue reserved vnto my selfe seuen thousand men, which haue not bowed the knee to Baal.

5 Euen so then at this present time is there a remnant through the election of grace.

6 And if it be of grace, it is no more of workes: else were grace no more grace: but if it be of workes, it is no more grace: or else were worke no more worke.

7 What then, Israel hath not obtained that he sought: but the election hath obtained it, and the rest haue bene hardened.

8 According as it is written, * God hath given them the spirit of slumber: eyes that they should not see, and eares that they should not heare vnto this day.

9 And David sayth, * Let their table be made a snare, and a net, and a stumbling block, euen for a recompence vnto them.

10 Let their eyes be darkened that they see not, and bow downe their backe alwayes.

11 I demand then, Haue they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but through their fall salvation cometh to the Gentiles, to prouoke them to follow them.

12 Wherefore if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles, how much more shall their abundance be?

13 For in that I spake to you Gentiles, in as much as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles, I magnifie mine office,

14 To trie if by any meanes I might prouoke them of my flesh to follow them, and might saue some of them

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving be, but life from the dead?

16 For if the first fruits be holy, so is the whole lump: and if the roote be holy, so are the branches.

17 And though some of the branches be broken off, and thou being a wild olive tree, wast grafted in for them, and made partaker of the roote, and fatnesse of the Olive tree, 18 Boast not thy selfe against the branches: and if thou boast thy selfe, thou bearest not the roote, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches are broken off, that I might be grafted in.

20 Well: through vnbeliefe they are broken off, and thou standest by faith: be not hie minded, but reioyce.

21 For if God spared not the naturall branches, take heed, lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the bountifullnesse, and seueritie of God: toward them which haue fallen, seueritie: but toward thee, bountifullnesse, if thou continue in his bountifullnesse: or else thou shalt also be cut off.

23 And they also if they abide not still in vnbeliefe shall bee grafted in: for God is able to graffe them in againe.

24 For if thou wast cut out of the Olive tree, which was wilde by nature, and wast grafted contrary to nature in a right olive tree, how much more shall they that are by nature, bee grafted in their owne olive tree?

25 For I would not brethren that yee should be ignorant of this secret (lest yee should be arrogant in your selues) that partly obdinate is come to Israel, vntill the fulnesse of the Gentiles be come in.

26 And so all Israel shall be saued, as it is written, * The deliuerer shall come out of Sion, and shall turne away the vngodlinesse from Jacob.

27 And this is my couenant to them, * When I shall take away their sinnes.

28 As concerning the Gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are

The conuersation, loue, and workes of such as beleue in Christ. 19 Not to seeke reuengeance.

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye giue vp your bodies a liuing sacrifice, holy, acceptable vnto God, which is your reasonable seruing of God.

Eph. 5. 17 2 And fashion not your selues like vnto this world, but be ye changed by the renewing of your mind, that yee may * proue what is the good will of God, and acceptable, and perfect.

4. 7. 4 For as we haue many members in one body, and all members haue not one office,

C H A P. XIII.

1 The obedience to the Rulers. 4 Why they haue the sword. 8 Whatte ought to measure all our doings. 11 An exhortation to innocencie and puritie of life.

*L*et every soule be subiect vnto the higher power. Wisd. 1. 10. 1. tim. 2. 1. pet. 1. 13. 1. 14. For there is no power but of God: and the powers that be, are ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist, shall receiue to themselves iudgement.

3 For princes are not to bee feared for good workes, but for euill. Wilt thou then be without feare of the power? doe well: so shalt thou haue praise of the same.

4 For he is the minister of God for thy wealth: but if thou doe euill, feare: for he beareth not the sword for nought: for hee is the minister of God, to take vengeance on him that doeth euill.

5 Wherefore ye must be subiect, not because of wrath onely, but also for conscience sake.

6 For, for this cause yee pay also tribute: for they are Gods ministers, applying themselves for the same thing.

7 * Giue to all men therefore their duty: tribute to whom ye owe tribute: custome, to whome custome: feare, to whome feare: honour, to whom ye owe honour.

8 Owe othing to any man, but to loue one another: for he that loueth another, hath fulfilled the Lawe.

9 For this, * Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steale, Thou shalt not beare false witness, Thou shalt not couer: and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, euen in this, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

10 Loue doth not euill to his neighbour: therefore is loue the * fulfilling of the Law.

11 And that considering the season, that it is now time that wee should arise from sleepe: for now is our saluation neerer then when we beleueed it.

12 The night is past, and the day is at hand: let vs therefore cast away the workes of darkenesse, and let vs put on the armour of light, 13 So that wee walke honestly, as in the day: not in ¶ gluttonie, and drunkennesse, neither in chambering and wantonnesse, nor in strife and enuie.

14 * But put yee on the Lord IESVS Christ, and take no thought for the flesh, to fulfill the lusts of it.

C H A P. XIII.

1 The weakes ought not to be despised. 10 Nemo should offend another mans conscience. 15 But one is to support another in charitie and faith.

*H*im that is weak in the faith, receiue vnto you, but not for controuersies of disputations.

2 One beleueeth that he may eat of all things: and another which is weak, eateth herbes.

3 Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth eth not : and let not him which eateth not , iudge him that eateth : for God hath receiued him.

4 * Who art thou that condemnest another mans seruant ? hee standeth or falleth to his owne master : yea, he shalbe established : for God is able to make him stand.

5 This man esteemeth one day aboue another day : and another man counteth euery day alike : let euery man be fully persuaded in his minde.

6 He that obserueth the day, obserueth it to the Lord : and that obserueth not the day, obserueth it not to the Lord. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord : for he giueth God thanks : and hee that eateth not, eateth not to the Lord, and giueth God thanks.

7 For none of vs liueth to himselfe, neither doeth any die to himselfe.

8 For whether we liue, we liue vnto the Lord, or whether we die, we die vnto the Lord : whether we liue therefore, or die, we are to the Lords.

9 For Christ therfore died, and rose againe, and reuiued, that hee might be Lord both of the dead and the quicke.

10 But why doest thou iudge thy brother ? or why doest thou despise thy brother ? for wee shall all appeare before the iudgement seat of Christ.

11 For it is written, * I liue, saith the Lord, and euery knee shall bow to mee, and all tongues shall confesse vnto God.

12 So then euery one of vs shall giue accounts of himselfe to God.

13 Let vs not therefore iudge one another any more : but vse your iudgement rather in this, that so man put an occasion to fall, or a stumbling block before his brother.

14 I know, and am perswaded through the Lord Iesus, that there is nothing vncleane of it selfe, but vnto him that iudgeth any thing to be vncleane, to him it is vncleane.

15 But if thy brother be grieved for the meate, now walkest thou not charitably : * destroy not him with thy meate, for whom Christ died.

16 Cause not your commeditie to be euill spoken of.

17 For the kingdome of God is not meate nor drinke but righteousness, and peace, and ioy in the holy Ghost.

18 For whosoever in these things serueth Christ, is acceptable vnto God, and is approved of men.

19 Let vs then follow those things which concerne peace, and wherewith one may edifie another.

20 Destroy not the worke of God for meates sake : * all things indeed are pure : but it is euill for the man which eateth with offence.

21 * It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drinke wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended or made weake.

22 Hast thou faith ? haue it with thy selfe before God : blessed is hee that condemneth not himselfe in that thing which he alloweth.

23 For hee that doubteth, is condemned if hee eat, because he eateth not of faith : and whatsoever is not of faith, is sinne.

C H A P. X V.

1 Paul exhorted them to support and loue one another by the example of Christ, 9 and by the only mercie of God which is the cause of saluation both of one and the other. 14 Hee sheweth his zeale toward them and the Church, 30 and requesteth the loue of them.

W Ee which are strong, ought to beare the infirmities of the weake, and not to please our selues.

2 Therefore let euery man please his neighbour in that that is good to edification.

3 For Christ also would not please himselfe, but as it is written, * The rebukes of them, which rebuke thee, fell on mee. Psal. 69. 7. 9.

4 For whatsoever things are written aforetime, are written for our learning, that we through patience, and comfort of the Scriptures, might haue hope.

5 Now the God of patience and consolation, giue you that you bee * like minded one towards another, according to Christ Iesus, 1. Cor. 1. 10. Phil. 2. 16. and

6 That ye with one minde, and with one mouth may praise God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ. 4. 3.

7. Wherefore receiue ye one another, as Christ also receiued vs to the glorie of God.

8 Now I say that Iesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirme the promises made vnto the fathers.

9 And let the Gentiles praise God for his mercie, as it is written, * For this cause I will confesse thee among the Gentiles, and sing vnto thy Name. Psal. 118. 49. 3. 32. 50. 43. 32.

10 And againe he sayth, * Reioyce yee Gentiles with his people. Deut. 32. 43.

11 And againe, * Praise the Lord, all yee Gentiles, and laud ye him all people together. Psa. 117. 1.

12 And againe Eiasa saith, * There shalbe a root of Iesse, and hee that shall rise to reigne ouer the Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust. Isa. 11. 1.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all ioy, and peace in belecuing, that yee may abound in hope, through the power of the holy Ghost.

14 And I my selfe also am perswaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodnesse, and filled with all knowledge, and are able to admonish one another.

15 Neuerthelesse, brethren, I haue somewhat boldly after a sort written vnto you, as one that putteth you in remembrance, through the grace that is giuen me of God,

16 That I should be the minister of Iesus Christ toward the Gentiles, ministring the Gospel of God, that the offering vp of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the holy Ghost.

17 I haue therefore whereof I may reioyce in Christ Iesus in those things which pertaine to God.

18 For I dare not speake of any thing which Christ hath not wrought by mee, to make the Gentiles obedient in word and deed, 19 With the power of signes and woonders, by the power of the Spirit of God : so that from Ierusalem, and round about vnto Illyricum, I haue caused to abound the Gospel of Christ.

20 Yea so I enforced my selfe to preach the Gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should haue built on another mans foundation.

21 But as it is written, * To whom hee was so spoken of, they shall see him, and they that heard not, shall vnderstand him. Isa. 52. 15.

22 Therefore also I haue beene * oft let to come vnto you. Cha. 1. 13. 1. 3. 1. 3. 1. 3.

23 But now seeing I haue no more place in these quarters, and also haue * bene desirous many yeres agoe to come vnto you, Cha. 1. 10.

24 When I shall take my iourney into Spaine, I will come to you : for I trust to see you in my iourney, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you.

you, after that I haue beene somewhat filled with your company.

25 But now goe I to Ierusalem, to minister vnto the Saints.

26 For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia, to make a certaine distribution vnto the poore Saints, which are at Ierusalem.

1. Cor. 9. 11. 27 For it hath pleased them, and their debtors are they: * for if the Gentiles bee made partakers of their spirituall things, their duty is also to minister vnto them in carnall things.

28 When I haue therefore performed this, and haue sealed them this fruit, I will passe by you into Spaine.

Phi. 1. 11 29 * And I know when I come, that I shal come to you with abundance of the bleising of the Gospel of Christ.

30 Also brethren, I beseech you for our Lord Iesus Christs sake and for the loue of the Spirit, that yee * would stric with me by prayers to God for mee,

2. Cor. 1. 11. 31 That I may bee deliuered from them which are disobedient in Iudea, and that my seruice which I haue to doe at Ierusalem, may be accepted of the Saints.

32 That I may come vnto you with ioy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed.

He. 9. 6. 33 Thus the * God of peace bee with you all. Amen.

¶ Written to the Romanes from Corinthus, and sent by Phebe, seruant to the Church which is at Cenchrea.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL to the Corinthians.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that Saint Paul had preached at Corinthus a yeere and an halfe, hee was compelled by the wickednesse of the Iewes to saile into Syria. In whose absence false apostles entred into the Church, who being puff'd up with vaine glorie, and affectate eloquence, sought to bring into contempt the simplicitie which Paul vied in preaching the Gospel. By whose ambition such factions and schismes sprang up in the Church, that from opinions in policies and ceremonies, they fell to false doctrine and heresies, calling into doubt the resurrection from the dead, one of the chiefest points of Christian religion. Against these euils the Apostle proceeded, preparing the Corinthians hearts and eares with gentle salutations: but soone after hee reproofeth their continuing

ambitions and debates, their arrogancie and pride, and exhorteth them to concord and familiarity, setting before their eyes the spirituall vertue and heavenly wisdom of the Gospel, which cannot be perswaded by worldly wit, and eloquent reasons, but is revealed by Gods Spirit, and so sealed in mens hearts. Therefore this salutation may not be attributed to the ministers, but onely to God, whose servants they are, and have received charge to edifie his Church: wherein Saint Paul behaued himselfe skilfully, building according to the foundation (which is Christ) and exhorteth others to make the end proportionable to the beginning, taking diligent heede that they bee not polluted with vaine doctrine, seeing they are the Temple of God. And as for those that doubted of his Apostleship, hee sheweth them that hee dependeth not on mans iudgement, albeit hee had declared by manifest signes that hee neuer sought his owne glorie, neither yet how hee might liue, but only the glory of Christ: which thing as hee conueniently hee would declare more amply, so the shame of those vaine glorious braggers, who sought themselues onely, and therefore suffered most horrible vices vntreproued, and unpunished, as incest, contentions, pleadings before iudicials, fornication, and such like, to the great slander of the Gospel. This done, hee answereth to certaine points of the Corinthians letter, as touching single life, abstinence of marriage, of discord and diuision among the married, of virginities and second marriage. And because some thought it nothing to be present as idle seruies, seeing in their hearts they worshipped the true God, hee warneth them to haue respect to their weaker brethren, whose faith by that assembling was hindered, and their consciences wounded, which thing rather then hee would doe, hee would neuer use that libertie which God hath giuen him. But forasmuch as priuie and selfwill was the cause of those great evils, hee admonisheth them by the example of the Iewes, not to glory in these outward gifts, whose horrible punishment for the abuse of Gods creatur, ought to be a warning to all men to follow Christ vprightly, without all pollution and offence of others. Then hee correcteth diuers abuses in their Church, as touching the behaviours of men and women in the assemblies: of the Lords Supper, the abuse of the spirituall gifts, which God hath giuen to maintaine loue, and edifie the Church, concerning the resurrection from the dead, without the which the Gospel serueth to no use. Last of all hee exhorteth the Corinthians to relieue the poore brethren at Ierusalem, to perseuere in the loue of Christ and well doing, sending his commendations, and wishing them peace.

C H A P. I.

2 Hee praiseth the great graces of God shewed toward them, 10 exhorting them to concord and humility. 19 Hee beateh downe all pride, and wisdom which is not grounded on God, 26 shewing whom God hath chosen to confound the wisdom of the world

AV L called to be an Apostle of IESVS CHRIST, through the will of God, and our brother Softnes,

2 Vnto the Church of God which is at Corinthus, to them that are sanctified in Christ Iesus, *Saints by calling, *with all they that call on the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ in every place, both their Lord and ours:

3 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

4 I thanke my God alwayes on your behalfe for the grace of God which is giuen you in Iesus Christ.

5 *That in all things yee are made rich in him, in all kind of speech, and in all knowledge:

6 As the testimonie of Iesus Christ hath beene confirmed in you:

7 So that yee are not destitute of any gift, *waiting for the appearing of our Lord Iesus Christ.

8 *Who shall also confirme you vnto the end, that yee may be blamelesse in the day of our Lord Iesus Christ.

9 *God is faithfull, by whom ye are called vnto the fellowship of his Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, *that yee all speake one thing, and that there be no diuisions among you: but be you knit together in one minde, and in one iudgement.

11 For it hath beene declared vnto me, my brethren, of you by them that are of the house of Cloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now thus I say, that euery one of you sayth, I am Pauls, and I am *Apollis, and I am Cephas, and I am Christs.

13 Is Christ diuided? was Paul crucified for you: either were ye baptized into the name of Paul?

14 I thanke God, that I baptized none of you,

but *Crispus and Gaius,

15 Lest any should say, that I had baptized into mine owne name.

16 I baptized also the household of Stephanas: furthermore know I not, whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent mee not to baptize, but to preach the Gospel, not with *wisdom of words, least the Crosse of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the Crosse is to them that perish, foolishnesse: but vnto vs, which are saved, it is the *power of God.

19 For it is written, *I wil destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will cast away the vnderstanding of the prudent.

20 Where is the wise? where is the Scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made the wisdom of this world foolishnesse?

21 For seeing the world by wisdom knew not God in the wisdom of God, it pleased God by the foolishnesse of preaching to saue them that beleue:

22 Seeing also that the Iewes require a *signe, and the Grecians seeke after wisdom.

23 But wee preach Christ crucified, vnto the Iewes, euen a stumbling blocke, and vnto the Grecians, foolishnesse:

24 But vnto them which are called, both of the Iewes and Grecians, we preach Christ, the power of God, and the wisdom of God.

25 For the foolishnesse of God is wiser then men, and the weaknesse of God is stronger then men.

26 For brethren, you see your calling, how that not many wise men after the flesh, nor many mighty, nor many noble are called.

27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world, to confound the wise, and God hath chosen the weak things of the world, to confound the mighty things.

28 And vile things of the world, & things which are despised, hath God chosen. And things which are not to bring to nought things that are,

29 That no flesh should reioyce in his presence.

30 But ye are of him in Christ Iesus, who of God is made vnto vs *wisdom, and righteousnesse, 5, 6.

CHAP. II.

1 He putteth for example his manner of preaching, which was according to the tenour of the Gospel. 8
Which Gospel was contemptible and hidde to the carnell. 10 and againe honourable and manifest to the spirituall.

And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with * excellencie of wordes, or of wisdome, shewing vnto you the || testimonie of God.

2 For I || esteemed not to know any thing among you, save Iesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 *And I was among you in weaknesse, and in feare, and in much trembling.

4 Neither stood my word and my preaching in the * enticing speech of mans wisdome, but in plaine evidence of || the Spirit and of power,

5 That your faith should not bee in the wise-dome of men, but in the power of God.

6 And wee speake wisdome among them that are perfect: not the wisdome of this world, neither of the princes of this world, which come to nought.

7 But we speake the wisdome of God in a mysterie, even the hid wisdome, which God had determined before the world, vnto our glory.

8 Which none of the princes of this world hath known: for had they known it, they would not haue crucified the Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, *The things which eye hath not seen, neither eare hath heard, neither came into mans heart, are, which God hath prepared for them that loue him.

10 But God hath reuealed them vnto vs by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deepe things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of a man which is in him? euen so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now wee haue receiued not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God, that wee might know the things that are given to vs of God.

13 Which things also wee speake, not in the words which mans wisdome teacheth, but which the holy Ghost teacheth, comparing spirituall things with spirituall things.

14 But the naturall man perceiueeth not || things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishnesse vnto him: neither can hee know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 But he that is || spiritual, discerneth all things:
yet he himselfe is iudged of no man.

16 *For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he might instruct him? But we haue the mind of Christ.

34.

CHAP. III.

3 Paul rebuketh the sects and authors thereof: 7
No man ought to attribute his saluation to the ministers, but to God. 10 That they beware of erroneous doctrines. 11 Christ is the foundation of his Church. 16
The dignitie and office both of the ministers, and also of all the faithfull.

And I could not speake vnto you, brethren, as vnto spirituall men, but as vnto carnall, euen as vnto babes in Christ.

2 I gaue you milke to drinke and not meate:
for ye were not yet able to beare it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnall: for whereas there is among you enuying, and strife, and diuisions, are ye not carnall, and walke as men?

4 For when one sayth, I am Pauls, and another,
I am Apollos, are ye not carnall?

5 Who is Paul then, and who is Apollos, but the ministers by whom ye beleeeued, & as the Lord gaue to euery man?

6 I haue planted, Apollos watered, but God gane the increase.

7 So then, neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth, but God that giueth the increase.

8 And he that planteth, and he that watereth, are one, * and euery one shall receiue his wages according to his labour.

9 For we together are Gods labourers: ye are Gods husbandry, and Gods building.

10 According to the grace of God giuen to me, as a skilful master builder, I haue laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon: but let euery man take heed how he buildeth vpon it.

11 For other foundation can no man lay, then that which is layd, which is Iesus Christ.

12 And if any man build on this foundation gold, siluer, precious stones, timber, hay, or stubble,

13 Euery mans worke shall bee made manifest:
for the day shall declare it, because it shall be reuealed by the fire: and the fire shall trie euery mans worke of what sort it is.

14 If any mans worke, that he hath built vpon, abide, he shall receiue wages.

15 If any mans worke burne, he shall lose, but he shalbe safe himselfe, neuertheless, yet as it were by the fire.

16 *Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, (C. 1. 16.)
and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man destroy the temple of God, him shall God destroy: for the temple of God is holy, which ye are.

18 Let no man deceive himselfe. If any man among you seeme to be wise in this world, let him be a foole that he may be wise.

19 For the wisdome of this world is foolishnesse with God: for it is written, *Hee catcheth the wise in his owne craftinesse.

20 *And againe, The Lord knoweth that the thoughts of the wise be vaine.

21 Therefore let no man reioyce in men: for all things are yours.

22 Whether it be Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or || world, or life, or death: whether they be things present, or things to come, euen all are yours,

23 And ye Christs, and Christ Gods.

CHAP. IIII.

1 After that hee had described the office of a true Apostle, 3 Seeing they did not acknowledge him such one, 4 Hee appealeth to Gods iudgement, 7 Beating downe their glory, which hindered them to praise that, which they dispraised in him. 16 Hee sheweth what hee requirerh on their parts and what they ought to looke for of him as his resurre.

Let a man so thinke of vs, as of the ministers of Christ, and disposers of the secrets of God.

2 And as for the rest, it is required of the dispo-sers, that euery man be found faithfull.

3 *As touching mee, I passe very little to bee iudged of you, or of || mans iudgement: no, I iudge not mine owne selfe.

4 For I know nothing by my selfe, yet am I not thereby iustificed: but hee that iudgeth mee, is the Lord.

5 Therefore

Therefore * Iudge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who will lighten things that are hid in darkenesse, and make the counsels of the hearts manifest: and then shall euery man haue praise of God.

Now these things brethren, I haue figuratiuely applied vnto mine owne selfe, and Apollos, for your sakes, that ye might learne by vs, that no man presume aboue that which is written, that one swel not against another for any mans cause.

For who separateth thee? and what hast thou, that thou hast not receiued? If thou hast receiued it, why reioycst thou, as though thou hadst not receiued it?

Now ye are full: now ye are made rich: yee reigne as kings without vs, and would to God yee did reigne, that we also might reigne with you.

For I thinke that God hath set fourth vs the last Apostles, as men appointed to death: for we are made a gazing stocke vnto the world, and to the Angels, and to men.

We are fooles for Christes sake, and yee are wise in Christ: we are weake, and ye strong: ye are honourable, and we are despised.

Vnto this houre we both hunger and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and haue no certaine dwelling place,

* And labour, working with our own hands: we are reuiled, and yet we bleste: we are persecuted, and suffer it.

* We are euill spoken of, and we pray: wee are made as the filth of the world, the offscouring of all things vnto this time.

I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloued children I admonish you.

For though ye haue ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet haue ye not many fathers: for in Christ Iesus I haue begotten you through the Gospel.

Wherefore I pray you, bee yee followers of mee.

For this cause haue I sent vnto you Timotheus, which is my beloued sonne, and faithfull in the Lord, which shall put you in remembrance of my wayes in Christ, as I teach euery where in euery Church.

Some are puffed vp, as though I would not come to you.

But I will come to you shortly, * if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed vp, but the power.

For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

What will ye? shall I come vnto you with a rod, or in loue, and in the spirit of meeknesse?

C H A P. V.

He reproveeth sharply their negligence in punishing him that had committed incest, 3 Willing them to excommunicate him, 7 To embrace puritie, 9 And for wickednesse.

It is heard certainly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not once named among the Gentiles, * that one should haue his fathers wife.

And ye are puffed vp, and haue not rather feared, that he which hath done this deede, might be put from among you.

* For I verely as absent in body, but present in spirit, haue determined already, as though I were present, that he that hath thus done this thing,

When ye are gathered together, and my spirit is in the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, that such one, I say, by the power of our Lord Iesus Christ, * Be deliuered vnto Satan, for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saued in the day of the Lord Iesus.

Your reioycing is not good: * Know yee not that a little leauen leaueneth the whole lump?

Purge out therefore the old leauen, that yee may be a newe lump, as yee are vneleauened: for Christ our Pasche is sacrificed for vs.

Therefore let vs keepe the feast, not with old leauen, neither in the leauen of maliciousnesse, and wickednes: but with the vneleauened bread of sinceritie and trueth.

I wrote vnto you in an Epistle, * that ye should not companie together with fornicators,

And not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the couetous, or with extortioners, or with idolaters: for then ye must goe out of the world.

But now I haue written vnto you, that yee company not together: if any that is called a brother, be a fornicator, or couetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner, with such one eate not.

For what haue I to doe, to iudge them also which are without? doe yee not iudge them that are within?

But God iudgeth them which are without. Put away therefore from among your selues that wicked man.

C H A P. VI.

He rebuketh them for going to law together before the heathen, 7 Christians ought rather to suffer.

He reproveeth the abusing of Christian libertie, 15 and sheweth that we ought to serue God purely, both in body and soule.

Are any of you hauing businesse against another, be iudged vnder the vnuiult, and not vnder the Saints?

* Doe ye not know that the Saints shall iudge the world? If the world then shall be iudged by you, are yee vnworthy to iudge the smallest matters?

Know ye not that we shall iudge the Angels? how much more things that pertaine to this life?

It then ye haue iudgements of things pertaining to this life, set vp them which are least esteemed in the Church.

I speake it to your shame. Is it so that there is not a wise man among you? no not one that can iudge betweene his brethren?

But a brother goeth to lawe with a brother, and that vnder the infidels.

Now therefore there is verely a fault among you, because ye goe to law one with another: * why rather suffer ye not wrong? why rather sustaine ye not harme?

* Nay, yee your selues doe wrong, and doe harme, and that to your brethren.

Know ye not that the vnrighteous shall not inherite the kingdome of God? Bee not deceived: * neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor wantons, nor buggers, Nor theues, nor couetous, nor drunkards, nor railers, nor extortioners shall inherite the kingdome of God.

And such * were some of you: but yee are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are iustified in the Name of the Lord Iesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

* All things are lawfull vnto mee: but all things are not profitable. I may do all things, but I will not be brought vnder the power of any thing.

The duty of Mariage.

I. Corinthians. Of virginitie, and second mariage.

13 Meats are ordained for the belly, and the belly for the meats: but God shall destroy both it, and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body.

14 And God hath also raised up the Lord, and Rom. 6. 5 * shall raise vs up by his power.

15 Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid.

16 Doye not know, that he which completh himselfe with an harlot, is one body? for two, saith he, mas. 19. 5 shalbe one flesh.

17 But he that is ioyned vnto the Lorde, is one spirit. eph. 5. 31 18 Flee fornication: euery sinne that a man doeth, is without the body: but he that committeth fornication, sinneth against his owne body.

19 Know ye not that your body is the temple of the holy Ghost, which is in you, whom ye haue of God? and ye are not your owne.

20 * For ye are bought for a price: therefore glorifie God in your body, and in your spirit: for they are Gods.

CHAP. VII.

1 The Apostle answereth to certain questions which the Corinthians desired to know. 2 As of single life, 3 Of the duty of marriage, 11 Of discord and dissolution in marriage, 13 Of marriage between the faithfull and unfaithfull, 15 Of circumcising the circumcised. 21 Of seruitude, 25 Of virginitie, 39 and second marriage.

Now concerning the things wherof ye wrote vnto me, it were good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Neuerthelesse, to auoid fornication, let euery man haue his wife, and let euery woman haue her owne husband,

1. Pet. 3. 7 3 * Let the husband giue vnto the wife due beneuolence, and likewise also the wife vnto the husband.

4 The wife hath not the power of her owne body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not the power of his owne body, but the wife.

5 Defraud not one another, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may giue your selues to fasting and prayer, and againe come together, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinencie.

6 But I speake this by permission, not by commandement.

7 For I would that all men were euen as I myself am: but euery man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 Therefore I say vnto the vnmarried, and vnto the widowers, it is good for them if they abide euen as I doe.

9 But if they cannot abstaine, let them marry: for it is better to marrie then to burne.

10 And vnto the married I command, not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife * depart from her husband, and 19. 9, band.

11 But and if she depart, let her remaine vnmarried, or be reconciled vnto her husband, and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the remnant I speake, and not the Lorde. If any brother haue a wife that beleueth not, if she be content to dwell with him, let him not forsake her.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that beleueth not, if hee be content to dwell with her, let her not forsake him.

14 For the vnbeleeuing husband is sanctified by the wife, and the vnbeleeuing wife is sanctified by the husband, else were your children vnclane: but now are they holy.

15 But if the vnbeleeuing depart, let him depart: a brother or a sister is not in subiection in such things: but God hath called vs in peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife whether thou shalt saue thine husband? Or what knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt saue thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to euery man, as the Lord hath called euery one, so let him walke: and so ordaine I in all Churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised: let him not gather his vn-circumcision: is any called vn-circumcised? let him not be circumcised.

19 Circumcision is nothing, and vn-circumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 * Let euery man abide in the same vocation wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a seruant? care not for it: but if yet thou mayest be free, vie it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a seruant, is the Lords freeman: likewise also he that is called being free, is Christs seruant.

23 * Ye are bought with a price: be not the seruants of men.

24 Brethren, let euery man wherein he was called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgines, I haue no commandement of the Lord: but I giue mine aduice, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.

26 I suppose then this to be good for the present necessitie: I mean that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound vnto a wife? seeke not to be loosed: art thou loosed from a wife? seeke not a wife.

28 But if thou takest a wife, thou sinnest not: and if a virgine marrie, she sinneth not: neuerthelesse, such shall haue trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 And this I say, brethren, because the time is short, I hereafter that both they which haue wives, be as though they had none:

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not: and they that reioyce, as though they reioyced not: and they that buy, as though they possessed not:

31 And they that vie this world, as though they vied it not: for the fashion of this world goeth away.

32 And I would haue you without care. The vnmarried careth for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

33 But he that is married, careth for the things of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is a difference also between a virgine and a wife: the vnmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but the that is married, careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speake for your owne commodity, not to tangle you in a snare, but that ye follow that which is honest, and that ye may cleaue fast vnto the Lord without separation.

36 But if any man thinke that it is vncomely for his virgine, if the passe the floure of her age, and need so require, let him doe what he will, be sinneless: let them be married.

37 Neuerthelesse, hee that standeth firme in his heart heart, that he hath no neede, but haue power ouer his owne will, and hath so decreed in his heart, that he will keepe his virgine, he doth well.

38 So then he that giueth her to marriage, doth well: but he that giueth her not to marriage, doth better.

39 The wife is bound by the Law, as long as her husband * liueth: but if her husband be dead, shee is at libertie to marrie with whom shee will, onely in the Lord.

40 But he is more blessed, if he so abide, in my iudgement: * and I thinke that I haue also the Spirit of God.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Hee rebuketh them that vse their libertie to the slander of others, in going to the idolatrous sacrifices, 9 And sheweth how men ought to behaue themselues toward such as be weak.

And as touching things sacrificed vnto idoles, we know that wee all haue knowledge: knowledge puffeth vp, but loue edifieth.

2 Now, if any man thinke that hee knoweth my thing, he knoweth nothing yet as hee ought to know.

3 But if any man loue God, the same is * known of him.

4 Concerning therefore meate sacrificed vnto idoles, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there bee that are called gods, whether in heauen, or in earth, (as there bee many gods and many lords)

6 Yet vnto vs there is but one God, which is the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him: and one Lord Iesus Christ, by whome are all things, and we by him.

7 But euery man hath not knowledge, for some hauing conscience of the idle vnto this houre, eat as a thing sacrificed vnto the idol, and so their conscience being weak, is defiled.

8 But meat maketh not vs acceptable to God: for neither if we eate, haue wee the more: neither if we eat not, haue wee the lesse.

9 But take heed lest by any means this * power of yours bee an occasion of falling to them that are weak:

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge, sit at table in the idoles temple, (shall not the conscience of him which is weak, bee * boldned to eate those things which are sacrificed to idoles)

11 And through thy knowledge shal the * weak brother perish, for whom Christ died.

12 Now when yee sinne so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, yee sinne against Christ.

13 * Wherefore if meat offend my brother, I will eate no flesh while the world standeth, that I may not offend my brother.

CHAP. IX.

He exhorteth them by his example to vse their libertie to the edification of other, 24 to runne on fourth in the course wher they haue begun.

Am I not an Apostle? am I not free? haue I not scene Iesus Christ our Lord? are yee not my worke in the Lord?

2 If I be not an Apostle vnto other, yet doubtles I am vnto you: for ye are the scale of mine Apostleship in the Lord.

3 My defence to them that examine me, is this,

4 Haue we not power to eate and to drinke?

5 Or, haue wee not power to lead about a wife being a sister as well as the rest of the Apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

6 Or I onely and Barnabas, haue not we power for con- fins not to worke?

7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his owne cost? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flocke, and eateth not of the milke of the flocke?

8 Say I these things according to man? saith not the Law the same also?

9 For it is written in the Law of Moses, * Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corne. doth God take care for oxen? 4. 1. 12. 5 18.

10 Either saith hee it not altogether for our sakes? For our sake no doubt it is written, that hee which eateth, should care in hope, and that hee that thirsteth in hope, should be partaker of his hope.

11 * If we haue sowed vnto you spiritual things, Rom. 15. is it a great thing if we reape your carnall things? 27.

12 If others with you be partakers of the power, are not we rather? neuerthelasse we haue not vsed this power: but * suffer all things, that wee should not hinder the Gospel of Christ. Or, sake in worth.

13 Doe ye not know, that they which minister about the * holy things, eate of the things of the Temple: and they which wait at the Altar, are partakers with the Altar? Deu. 18. 1

14 So also hath the Lord ordeined, that they which preach the Gospel, should liue of the Gospel

15 But I haue vsed none of these things: neither wrote I these things, that it should bee so done vnto me: for it were better for me to die, then that any man should make my reioicing vaine.

16 For though I preach the Gospel, I haue nothing to reioyce of: for necessitie is laid vpon me, and woe is vnto me, if I preach not the Gospel.

17 For if I do it willingly, I haue a reward: but if I doe it against my will, notwith- standing the dispensation is committed vnto me.

18 What is my reward then? Verely that when I preach the Gospel, I make the Gospel of Christ free that I abuse not mine authoritie in the Gospel.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet haue I made my selfe seruant vnto all men, that I might winne the more.

20 * And vnto the Iewes I become as a Jew, that I may winne the Iewes: to them that are vnder the Lawe, as though I were vnder the Lawe, that I may winne them that are vnder the Law.

21 To them that are without Lawe, as though I were without Law, (when I am not without Law as pertaining to God, but am in the Lawe through Christ) that I may win them that are without Law.

22 To the weak I become as weak, that I may win the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all meanes sue some.

23 And this I doe for the Gospels sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know yee not, that they which run in a race, runne all, yet one receiue the prize? so runne that yee may obtaine.

25 And euery man that proueth masteries, abstaineth from all things: and they do it to obtaine a corruptible crowne, but we for an vncorruptible.

26 I therefore so runne, not as vncertainly: so fight I, not as one that beate the aire.

27 But I beate downe my body and bring it into subiection, lest by any means after that I haue preached to other, I my selfe should be reprobous.

CHAP. X.

Hee feareth them with the examples of the Iewes, that they put not their trust carnally in the graces of God, 14. exhorting them to flee idolatry, 23 and offence of their neighbour.

Moreouer, brethren, I would not that ye should bee ignorant that all our fathers were vnder the cloud, and all passed thorow the * Sea,

Exod. 13. 21. num. 9. 18.

2 And were all baptized vnto Moses, in the cloud, and in the Sea,

Exod. 14. 16. 22.

3 *And did all eate the same spirituall meate,

Exod. 16. 25.

4 *And did all drinke the same spirituall drinke: (for they dranke of the spirituall Rocke that folowed them: and the Rocke was Christ)

5 But with many of them God was not pleased: for they were ouerthrowen in the wilderness.

Num. 26. 65. Num. 11. 4. & 26. 64. psal. 106. 14.

6 Now these are ensamples to vs, to the intent that we should not lust after euill things, * as they also lusted.

Exo. 32. 6 Num. 25. 9.

7 Neither bee yee idolaters as were some of them as it is written, * The people sate downe to eat and drinke, and rose vp to play.

Num. 11. 4. & 26. 64. psal. 106. 14.

8 Neither let vs commit fornication, as some of them committed fornication, and fel in one * day three and twentie thousand.

Num. 11. 4. & 26. 64. psal. 106. 14.

9 Neither let vs tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted him, and were * destroyed of serpents.

Num. 14. 37.

10 Neither murmure yee, as some of them * also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.

Num. 14. 37.

11 Now all these things came vnto them for ensamples, and were written to admonish vs, vpon whom the ends of the world are come.

Num. 14. 37.

12 Wherefore, let him that thinketh hee standeth, take heed lest he fall.

Num. 14. 37.

13 There hath no temptation taken you, but such as appertaineth to man: and God is faithful, which will not suffer you to bee tempted aboue that you bee able, but will euen giue the issue with the temptation, that ye may be able to beare it.

Num. 14. 37.

14 Wherefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry.

Num. 14. 37.

15 I speake as vnto them which haue vnderstanding: Iudge yee what I say.

Num. 14. 37.

16 The cup of blessing which wee blesse, is it not the Communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we breake, is it not the Communion of the body of Christ?

Num. 14. 37.

17 For we that are many, are one bread and one body, because we all are partakers of one bread.

Num. 14. 37.

18 Behold Israel, which is after the flesh: are not they which eate of the sacrifices, partakers of the Altar?

Num. 14. 37.

19 What say I then? that the idole is any thing? or that that which is sacrificed to idoles, is any thing?

Num. 14. 37.

20 Nay, but that these things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to deuils, and not vnto God: and I would not that yee should haue fellowship with the deuils.

Num. 14. 37.

21 Yee cannot drinke the cup of the Lord, and the cup of the deuils. Ye cannot be partakers of the Lords Table, and of the table of deuils.

Num. 14. 37.

22 Doe we prouoke the Lord to anger? are wee stronger then he?

Num. 14. 37.

23 *All things are lawfull for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawfull for mee, but all things edifie not.

Num. 14. 37.

24 Let no man seeke his owne, but euery man an others wealth.

Num. 14. 37.

25 Whatsoeuer is sold in the shambles, eat yee, and aske no question for conscience sake.

Num. 14. 37.

26 *For the earth is the Lords, and al that there- in is.

Num. 14. 37.

27 If any of them which beleene not eat yee to a feast, and if ye will go, whatsoeuer is set before you, eate, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But if any man say vnto you, This is sacrificed vnto idols, eat it not, because of him that shewed it, and for the conscience, (for the earth is the Lords, and all that therein is.)

29 And the conscience, I say, not thine, but of that other: for why should my libertie bee condemned of another mans conscience?

30 For if I through Gods benefite bee partaker, why am I euill spoken of for that, wherefore I giue thanks?

31 *Whether therefore yee eate or drinke, or do any thing, whatsoeuer ye doe, doe all to the glory of God.

32 Giue none offence, neither to the Iewes nor to the Grecians, nor to the Church of God:

33 Euen as I please al men in all things, not seeking mine owne profit, but the profit of many, that they might be saved.

CHAP. XI.

Herebucketh the abuses which were crept into their Church, 4. as touching prayer, prophcing, 18 and ministring the Lords Supper, 23 bringing them againe to the first institution thereof.

BE ye the followers of me, euen as I am of Christ

2 Now brethren, I commend you that you remember all my things, and keepe the ordinances, as I deliuered them vnto you.

3 But I will that yee knowe that Christ is the head of euery man, and the man is the womans head: and God is Christs head.

4 Euery man praying or prophcing, haue any thing on his head, dishonoureth his head.

5 But euery woman that prayeth or prophc- eth bare headed, dishonoureth her head: for it is euen one very thing, as though shee were shauen.

6 Therefore if the woman bee not couered, let her also be shorne: and if it be a shame for a woman to be shorne or shauen, let her be couered.

7 For a man ought not to couer his head: for as much as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

8 For the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man.

9 *For the man was not created for the womans sake: but the woman for the mans sake.

10 Therefore ought the woman to haue power on her head, because of the Angels.

11 Neuertheless, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, so is the man also by the woman: but all things are of God.

13 Iudge in your selues, Is it comely that a woman pray vnto God vncouered?

14 Doeth not nature it selfe teach you, that if a man haue long haire, it is a shame vnto him?

15 But if a woman haue long haire, it is a praise vnto her: for her haire is giuen her for a couering.

16 But if any man lust to be contentious, we haue no such custome, neither the Churches of God.

17 ¶ Now in this that I declare, I praise you not, that ye come together, not with profit, but with hurt.

18 For sife of all when ye come together in the Church, I heare that there are dissensions among you, and I beleue it to be true in some part.

19 For there must be heresies euen among you, that they which are approoued among you, might be knowne.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place,

For, shaukef giuing

Supper.

place, this is not to eate the Lords Supper.

21 For euey man when they should eat, taketh his owne supper afore, and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

22 Haue yee not houses to eate and drink in? despise ye the Church of God, and shame them that haue not? what shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you net.

23 For I haue receiued of the Lord that which I also haue deliueged vnto you, to wit, That the Lord Iesus in the night that hee was betrayed, tooke bread:

24 *And when he had giuen thanks, he brake it and said, Take, eate: this is my body, which is broken for you: this doe ye in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also hee tooke the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the New testament in my blood: this do as oft as ye drinke it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as yee shall eate this bread, and drinke this cup, yee shew the Lords death till hee come.

27 Wherefore whoeuer shall eate this bread and drinke the cup of the Lord vnworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 *Let a man therefore examine himselfe, and so let him eat of this bread, and drinke of this cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh vnworthily, eateth and drinketh his owne damnation, because he discerneth not the Lords body.

30 For this cause many are weake, and sicke among you, and many sleepe.

31 For if we would iudge our selues, we should not be iudged.

32 But when we are iudged, we are chastened of the Lord, because wee should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tary one for another.

34 And if any man bee hungry, let him eate at home, that ye come not together vnto condemnation. Other things will I set in order when I come.

CHAP. XII.

The diuersity of the gifts of the holy Ghost ought to be vsed to the edifying of Christs Church, 12 as the members of mans body to serue the use one of another.

Nowe concerning spirituall gifts, brethren, I would not haue you ignorant.

2 Ye know that ye were Gentiles, and were carried away vnto the dumbe idoles, as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I declare vnto you, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God, calleth Iesus **ex*ecrable: also no man can say that Iesus is the Lord, but by the holy Ghost.

4 Now there are diuersities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are diuersities of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diuersities of operations, but God is the same which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is giuen to euey man to profit withall.

8 For to one is giuen by the Spirit the word of Wisdome: and to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit.

9 And to another is giuen faith, by the same spirit: and to another the gifts of healing, by the same Spirit:

10 And to another the operations of great works: and to another prophetic: and to another the discerning of spirits: and to another diuersities of tongues: and to another the interpretation of tongues.

11 *And all these things worketh euen the selfe same Spirit, distributing to euey man severally as 3 ephes. he will. 4.7.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, which is one, though they be many, yet are but one body: *eu*en so is Christ.

13 For by one Spirit are wee all baptized into one body, whether we be Iewes or Grecians, whether we be bond, or free, and haue bene all made to drinke into one Spirit.

14 For the body also is not one member, but many 15 If the foote would say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the eare would say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God disposed the members euey one of them in the body at his owne pleasure.

19 For if they were al one member, where were the body?

20 But now are there many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say vnto the hand, I haue no need of thee: nor the head againe to the feete, I haue no neede of you.

22 Yea, much rather those members of the body, which seeme to be more feeble, are necessary.

23 And vpon those members of the body, which we thinke most vnholiest, put we more honesty on: and our vncomely parts haue more comeliness on.

24 For our comely parts neede it not: but God hath tempered the body together, and hath giuen the more honour to that part which lacked, 25 Left there should bee any diuision in the body: but that the members should haue the same care one for another.

26 Therefore if one member suffer, all suffer with it: if one member be had in honour all the members reioyce with it.

27 Now ye are the body of Christ, and members for your part.

28 * And God hath ordained some in the Church: as first Apostles, secondly Prophets, thirdly Teachers, then them that doe miracles: after that, the gifts of healing, helpers, gouernours, diuersitie of tongues.

29 Are all Apostles? are all Prophets? are all Teachers?

30 Are all doers of miracles? haue all the gifts of healing? doe all speake with tongues? doe all interpret?

31 But I desire you the best gifts, and I will yet shew you a more excellent way.

CHAP. XIII.

Because lone is the fountaine and rule of edifying the Church, he setteth forth the nature, office and praise thereof.

I though I speake with the tongues of men and Angels, and haue not loue, I am as sounding brasie, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I had the gifts of prophetic, and knew all secrets and all knowledge, yea, if I had all faith, so that I could *remoue mountaines, and had not loue, I were nothing.

3 And though I feede the poore with all my goods, goods, and though I giue my body that I bee burned, and haue not loue, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Loue suffereth long : it is bountifull : loue enuyeth not : loue doeth not boast it selfe : it is not puffed vp :

5 It disdaineth not : it seeketh not her owne things : it is not prouoked to anger : it thinketh not euill :

6 It reioyceth not in iniquitie, but reioyceth in the truth.

7 It suffereth all things : it beleeueth all things : it hopeth all things : it endureth all things.

8 Loue doeth neuer fal away, though that prophecies bee abolished, or the tongues cease, or knowledge vanish away.

¶ Or, teach 9 For wee know in part, and we ¶ prophecie in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be abolished.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I vnderstood as a child, I thought as a child : but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see thorow a glasse darkely : but then shall we see face to face. Now I know in part : but then shall I know euen as I am ¶ known.

¶ Or, saught of God.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, and loue, euen these three : but the chiefest of these is loue.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Hee exhorteth to loue, commendeth the gift of tongues, and other spirituall gifts, 5 but chiefly prophecying. 34 He commendeth women to keepe silence in the Church, 40 and sheweth what good order ought to be obserued in the Church.

Follow after loue, and couet spirituall gifts, and rather that ye may prophecie.

2 For he that speaketh a strange tongue, speaketh not vnto men, but vnto God : for no man heareth him : howbeit in the spirit he speaketh secret things.

3 But hee that prophesieth, speaketh vnto men to edifying, and to exhortation, and to comfort.

4 Hee that speaketh strange language edifieth himselfe : but hee that prophesieth, edifieth the Church.

5 I would that yee all spake strange languages, but rather that ye prophesied : for greater is he that prophesieth, then he that speaketh diuers tongues, except he expound it, that the Church may receiue edification.

6 And now, brethren, if I come vnto you speaking diuers tongues, what shall I profite you, except I spake to you either by reuelation, or by knowledge, or by prophecying, or by doctrine ?

¶ Or, flute.

7 Moreover, things without life, which giue a sound, whether it be a pipe or an harp, except they make a distinction in the sounds, how shall it bee known what is piped or harped ?

8 And also, if the trumpet giue an vncertaine sound, who shall prepare himselfe to battell ?

9 So likewise you by the tongue, except ye utter words that haue signification, how shall it bee vnderstood what is spoken ? for yee shall speake in the aire.

¶ Or, as the singing re- quireth.

10 There are so many kindes of voyces (as it cometh to passe) in the world, and none of them is dumbe.

11 Except I know then the power of the voyce, I shall be vnto him that speaketh, a Barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a Barbarian vnto me.

12 Euen so, forasmuch as ye couet spirituall gifts, seeke that yee may excell vnto the edifying of the Church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh a strange tongue, pray, that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in a strange tongue, my spirit prayeth : but mine vnderstanding is without fruit.

15 What is it then ? I will pray with the spirit, but I will pray with the vnderstanding also : I will sing with the spirit : but I will sing with the vnderstanding also.

16 Els, when thou blestest with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the roomes of the vnlearned, say, Amen, at thy giuing of thanks, seeing he knoweth not what thou sayest ?

17 For thou verely giuest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thanke my God, I speake languages more then ye all.

19 Yet had I rather in the Church to speake few words with mine vnderstanding, that I might also instruct others, then ten thousand words in a strange tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in vnderstanding, but as concerning malicioussnesse bee children, but in vnderstanding be of a ripe age.

21 In the Lawe it is written, * By men of other tongues, and by other languages will I speake vnto this people : yet so shall they not heare me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore strange tongues are for a signe, not to them that beleee, but to them that beleee not, but prophecying serueth not for them that beleee not, but for them which beleee.

23 If therefore when the whole Church is come together in one, and all speake strange tongues, there come in they that are vnlearned, or they which beleee not, will they not say that yee are out of your wits ?

24 But if all prophecie, and there come in one that beleueth not, or one vnlearned, he is rebuked of all men, and is iudged of all.

25 And so are the secrets of his heart made manifest, and so he will fall downe on his face, and worshippes God, and say plainly that God is in you indeede.

26 What is to be done then, brethren ? when ye come together according as euery one of you hath a Psalme, or hath doctrine, or hath a tongue, or hath reuelation, or hath interpretation, let all things be done vnto edifying.

27 If any man speake a strange tongue, let it bee by two, or at the most by three, and that by course, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keepe silence in the Church, which speaketh languages, and let him speake to himselfe, and to God.

29 Let the Prophets speake two or three, and let the other iudge.

30 And if any thing be reuiled to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesie one by one, that all may learne, and all may haue comfort.

32 And the spirits of the Prophets are subiect to the Prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as we see in all the Churches of the Saints.

34 * Let your women keepe silence in the Churches : for it is not permitted vnto them to speake : but they ought to be subiect, as also the Law saith.

35 And if they will learne any thing, let them aske their husbands at home : for it is a shame for women to speake in the Church.

36 Came the word of God out from you : rather came it vnto you onely ?

37 If any man thinke himselfe to be a Prophet, or spirituall, let him acknowledge that the things that I write vnto you, are the Commandemens of the Lord.

38 And if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore brethren conet to prophesie, and forbid not to speake languages.

40 Let all things be done honestly, and by order.

CHAP. XV.

Hee proueth the resurrection of the dead, 3 and first that Christ is risen. 22 Then that we shall rise, 32 and the manner how.

1 MOreouer, * brethren, I declare vnto you the Gospell, which I preached vnto you, which ye haue also receiued, and wherein ye continue.

2 And whereby ye are saved, if ye keepe in memorie, after what manner I preached it vnto you, except ye haue beleued in me.

3 For first of all, I deliuered vnto you that which I receiued, how that Christ died for our finnes, according to the * Scriptures,

4 And that he was buried, and that he rose the third day according to the * Scriptures,

5 * And that hee was seene of Cephas then of the twelue.

6 After that, hee was seene of more then fise hundred brethren at once: whereof many remaine vnto this present, and some also are asleepe.

7 After that, he was seene of Iames: then of all the Apostles.

8 * And last of all, he was seene also of me, as of one borne out of due time.

9 For I am * the least of the Apostles, which am not meete to be called an Apostle, because I persecuted the Church of God.

10 * But by the grace of God I am that I am: and his grace which is in me, was not in vaine: but I laboured more abundantly then they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which is in me.

11 Wherefore, whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so haue ye beleued.

12 ¶ Now if it bee preached that Christ is risen from the dead, how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 For if there bee no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.

14 And if Christ bee not risen, then is our preaching vaine, and your faith is also vaine.

15 And we are found also false witnesses of God: for we haue testified of God, that he hath raised vp Christ: whome hee hath not raised vp, if so be the dead be not raised.

16 For if the dead be not raised, then is Christ not raised.

17 And if Christ bee not raised, your faith is vaine: ye are yet in your finnes.

18 And so they which are asleepe in Christ, are perished.

19 If in this life I onely we haue hope in Christ, we are of all men the most miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and was made * the first fruits of them that sleepe.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, euen so in Christ shall all be made aliue, 23 But euerie man in his * owne order: the first fruite is Christ, afterward they that are of Christ, at his coming shall rise againe.

24 Then shall be the end, when he hath deliuered vp the kingdome to God, euen the Father, when he hath put downe all rule, and all authoritie and power.

25 For hee must reigne * till hee hath put all his enemies vnder his feete. Psal. 110. 1. act. 2.

26 The last enemy that shall bee destroyed, is death. 1. Cor. 15. 26.

27 * For he hath put downe all things vnder his feete. (And when he saith that all things are subdued to him, it is manifest that hee is excepted which did put downe all things vnder him) Psal. 8. 6. bcl. 2. 8.

28 And when all things shall bee subdued vnto him, then shall the Sonne also himselfe bee subiect vnto him that did subdue all things vnder him, that God may be all in all.

29 Els what shall they doe which are baptized for dead? if the dead rise not at all, why are they then baptized for dead?

30 Why are we also in ieopardie every houre?

31 By our reioicing which I haue in Christ Iesus our Lord, I die daily.

32 If I haue fought with beasts at Ephesus after the manner of men, what aduantage it mee, if the dead be not raised vp? * let vs eate and drinke: for to morrow we shall die. 1. Cor. 15. 32. 13. 2. Cor. 12. 2. 6.

33 Bee not deceived: * euill speakings corrupt good manners. 1. Tim. 6. 20.

34 Awake to liue righteously, and sinne not: for some haue not the knowledge of God, I speake this to your shame. 1. Tim. 4. 1.

35 But some man will say, How are the dead raised vp? and with what body come they forth?

36 O foole, that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die.

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare come, as it falleth, of wheat, or of some other.

38 But God giueth it a body at his pleasure, euen to every seede his owne body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also heauenly bodies, and earthly bodies: but the glory of the heauenly is one, and the glory of the earthly is another.

41 There is another glory of the Sonne, and another glory of the Moone, and another glory of the Starres: for one Starre differeth from another Starre in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sown in corruption, and is raised in incorruption.

43 It is sown in dishonour, and is rayed in glory: it is sown in weakenesse, and is rayed in power.

44 It is sown a naturall body, and is raised a spirituall body: there is a naturall body, and there is a spirituall body.

45 As it is also written, The first man * Adam was made a liuing soule: and the last Adam made a quickening Spirit. Gen. 2. 7.

46 Howbeit, that was not first made which is spirituall: but that which is naturall, and afterward that which is spirituall.

47 The first man is of the earth, earthly: the second man is the Lord from heauen.

48 As is the earthly, such are they that are earthly: and as is the heauenly, such are they also that are heauenly.

49 And as we haue borne the image of the earthly, so shall we beare the image of the heauenly.

50 This say I, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot not inherite the kingdome of God, neither doeth corruption inherite incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a secret thing, we shal not all sleepe, but we shall all be changed,

52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at Mat. 24. the *last trumpet: for the trumpet shall blow, and 31. 1. 3. 4. the dead shall be raised vp incorruptible, and wee
4. 16. shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption:
and this mortall must put on immortallitie.

54 So when this corruptible hath put on incor-ruption, and this mortall hath put on immortality, then shall bee brought to passe the saying that is 1 Cor. 15. 8. written, * Death is swallowed vp into victory.

rust.7.17 55 ¶ *O death, where is thy sting? O graue, where ¶ O death is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sinne : and the strength of sinne is the Law.

57 *But thanks be vnto God, which hath giuen vs victorie through our Lord Iesus Christ.

58 Therefore my beloved brethren, be ye fled-fast, vnmoueable, abundant alwayes in the worke

13. of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor
14. is not in vaine in the Lord.

for the poore brethren at Jerusalem. 13 Wee must perseuere in faith, in the loue of Christ and our neighhour. 15 After his commendations, he wished to them all prosperity.

29. & 12. Concerning * the gathering for the Saints as I haue ordeined in the Churches * of Galatia, so doe ye also.

25. rom. 2. Eueri first day of the weeke, let eueri one of 12 13. you put aside by himselfe, and lay vp as God hath
 18. prospered him, that then there bee no gatherings
 27. when I come.

3 And when I am come, whomsoever ye shall allow by letters, them will I send to bring your liberalitie vnto Ierusalem.

4 And if it be meete that I goe also, they shall goe with me.

5 Now I will come vnto you, after that I haue gone thorow Macedonia, ( for I will passe thorow Macedonia)

6. And it may be that I will abide, yea, or winter with you, that yee may bring mee on my way whither soeuer I goe.

7 For I will not see you now in my passage: but I trust to abide awhile with you, if the Lord permit.

8 And I will tary at Ephesus vntill Pentecost.
9 For a great doore and effectual is opened vnto me: but there are many aduersaries.

10 ¶ Now, if Timotheus come, see that he be without feare with you : for he worketh the worke of the Lord, euen as I doe.

11 Let no man therefore despise him: but conuey him forth in peace, that he may come vnto me, for I looke for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come vnto you with the brethren: but his minde was not at all to come at this time.

but his mind was not at all to come at this time, howbeit he will come, when he shall haue convenient time.

13 ¶ Watch ye: stand fast in the faith: quit you like men, ~~and~~ be strong.

14 Let all your things be done in love.

15 Now brethren, I beseech you (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first fruits of Achaia, and that they have giuen themselves to minister vnto the Saints.)

16 That ye be obedient euen vnto such, and to all that helpe with vs, and labour.

17 I am glad of the coming of Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus : for they have supplied the want of you.

18 For they haue comforted my spirit & yours acknowledge therefore such men.

19 The Churches of Asia salute you: Aquila, and Priscilla, with the Church that is in their house, salute you greatly in the Lord.

20 All the brethren greet you. Greet ye one another with *an holy kisse.

21 The salutation of me Paul with mine owne hand.

22 If any man loue not the Lord Iefus Chrift, let him be had in execration, ~~yea excommunicate~~ to death.

23 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ bee with you.

24 My lone be with you all in Christ Iesus. Amen.

¶ The first Epistle to the Corinthians, written from Philippi, and sent by Stephanas and Fortunatus, and Achaicus, and Timotheus.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL to the Corinthians.

THE ARGUMENT.

As nothing can be written either so perfectly, or with so great affection and zeale, which is not impossible to many, and resisted by some: so the first Epistle written by S. Paul to the Corinthians, besides the purity and perfection of the doctrine, sheweth a love toward them farre passing all natural affections: which did not onely not profit all, but hardened the hearts of many to remaine in their stubbornnesse, and contemne the Apostles authoritie. By reason whereof S. Paul bringeth in such occasions to come unto them, worse then the Epistle from Macedonia, vntoing to accomplish the work which he had begun among them. First therfor he the writeth sheweth well in the Lord, declaring that albeist certaine wicked persons abused his affections, so contemner therby his authoritie, yet they were necessary schooling, and sent to him by God for: to be bettering. And where as they blame his long absence, it came of no inconstancie, but to beare with their inabilitie and imperfection, lest contrary to his faithfull affection, he should have bene compelled to vie rigor and severitie. And as teaching his up writing in the forme: Epistle, it came through their default: as is now evident: both in that that he pardoneth the trespassour, seeing hee doeth repent: and also in that hee was vnquiet in his minde, till he was comforted by Titus of their efface. But forasmuch as the false apostles went about to undermine his authoritie, hee conuicteth their error most brags, and commendeth his office, and the diligent execution of the same: so that Salom must have greatly blinded their eyes, which see not the brightnesse of the Gospel in his preaching: the effect whereof whereof is our weisse of life, for taking our selues, cleaung to God, fleeing from idolatrie, embracing the true doctrine, and that sorrow which mighdeth true repentance: to the which is ioyned mercie and compassion toward our brethren: also wisdom to put difference betwixt the simplicitie of the Gospel and the arrogancie of the false preachers, who vnder pretence of preaching the truth, sought onely to fill their bellies, whereas he contrariwise sought them and not their goods, as those ambitious persons slandered him: wherefore as his comming he menaceth such as rebel against his authority, that he wil declare by liuely example, that he is the faithfull ambassador of Iesus Christ

CHAP. I.

4 Hee declareth the great profite that cometh to the faithful by their afflictions. 15, 17 And because they should not impute to lightnesse, that hee deferred his coming contrary to his promise, hee prometh his comfort both by the sinceritie of his preaching, and also by the immutable truth of the Gospel, 21 which truth is grounded on Christ, and sealed in our hearts by the holy Ghost.

Paul an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the will of God, and our brother Timotheus, to the Church of God which is at Corinthus, with all the Saints which are in all Achaia:

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 *Blessed be God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort, 4 Which comforteth vs in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any affliction, by the comfort wherewith wee our selues are comforted of God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in vs, to our consolation aboundeth through Christ.

6 And whether wee bee afflicted, it is for your consolation and saluation, which is wrought in the enduring of the same sufferings, which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and saluation.

7 And our hope is stedfast concerning you, in as much as wee knowe, that as yee are partakers of the sufferings, so shall yee bee also of the consolation.

8 For brethren, wee would not haue you ignorant of our affliction, which came vnto vs in Asia, how wee were pressed out of measure, passing strength, so that wee altogether doubted, euen of life.

9 Yea, we receiued the sentence of doath in our selues, because we should not trust in our selues, but in God, which raiseth the dead.

10 Who deliuered vs from so great a death, and doth deliuer vs: in whom we trust, that yet hereafter he will deliuer vs, 11 *So that yee labour together in prayer for vs, that for the gift bestowed vpon vs for many, thanks may be giuen by many persons for vs.

12 For our reioycing is this, the testimony of our conscience, and in simplicitie and godly purencie, and not in fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God wee haue had our conuersation in the world, and most of all to youwards.

13 For wee write none other things vnto you, then that yee reade, or else that ye acknowledge, and I trust yee shall acknowledge vnto the end.

14 Euen as yee haue acknowledged vs partly, that we are your reioycing, euen as yee are ours, in the day of our Lord Iesus.

15 And in this confidence was I minded first to come vnto you, that yee might haue had a double grace, 16 And to passe by you into Macedonia, and to come againe out of Macedonia vnto you, and to be led forth toward Iudaea of you.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I vse lightnesse? or mind I those things, which I minde, according to the flesh, that with me should be, Yea, yea, and Nay, nay?

18 Yea, God is faithfull, that our word toward you was not Yea and Nay.

19 For the Sonne of God Iesus Christ, who was preached among you by vs, that is, by me, and Siluanus, and Timotheus, was not Yea, and Nay: but in him it was Yea.

20 For all the promises of God in him are Yea, and are in him Amen, vnto the glorie of God through vs.

21 And it is God which stablisheth vs with you in Christ, and hath anoynted vs.

22 Who hath also sealed vs, and hath giuen the earnest of the spirit in our hearts.

23 Now, I call God for a record vnto my soule, that to spare you, I came not as yet vnto Corinthus.

24 Not that wee haue dominion ouer your faith, but wee are helpers of your ioy: for by faith yee stand.

CHAP. II.

He sheweth his loue toward them, 7 requiring likewise that they would bee sauourable to the iudicious adulterer, seeing he did repent. 14 He also reioyceth in God for the efficacy of his doctrine, 17 confuting thereby such quarell pictures, as vnder pretence of speaking against his person, sought making but the owners shew of his doctrine.

BUT I determined thus in my selfe, that I would not come againe to you in heauinesse.

2 For if I make you sorie, who is he then that should make me glad, but the same which is made sorie by me?

3 And I wrote this some thing vnto you, lest when I came, I should take heauinesse of them, of whom I ought to reioyce: this confidence haue I in you all, that my ioy is the ioy of you all.

4 For in great affliction, and anguish of heart I wrote vnto you with many teares, not that yee should be made sorie, but that yee might perceiue the loue which I haue, specially vnto you.

5 And if any haue caused sorrow, the same hath not made me sorie, but partly (least I should more charge him) you all.

6 It is sufficient vnto the same man, that he was rebuked of many.

7 So that now contrariwise ye ought rather to forgine him, and comfort him, lest the same should be swallowed vp with ouermuch heauinesse.

8 Wherefore, I pray you that you would confirme your loue towards him.

9 For this cause also did I write, that I might know the proofe of you, whether you would be obedient in all things.

10 To whome yee forgine any thing, I forgine also: for verely, if I forgave any thing, to whome I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it in the fight of Christ, 11 Lest Satan should circumuent vs: for we are not ignorant of his enterprises.

12 Furthermore when I came to Troas, I preach Christs Gospel, and a doore was opened vnto me of the Lord, and 4. 30

chap. 5. 5

107. in my 13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found Quide. not Titus my brother, but took my leave of them, and went away into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be vnto God which alwayes maketh vs to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the fauour of his knowledge by vs in euery place.

Rom. 1. 16 15 For wee are vnto God the sweete fauour of Rom. 16. Christ, in them that are saved, and in them which 18. chap. perish:
4. 3.

16 To the one wee are the fauour of death vnto death, and to the other the fauour of life vnto life:
and who is sufficient for these things?

107. 17 * For we are not as many, which make mer-through chandise of the word of God: but as of sincerity, Christ, or but as of God in the sight of God, speake wee in of Christ. Christ.

CHAP. III.

1 Hee taketh for example the faith of the Corinthians for approbation of the truth which he preached.
6 And to exalt his Apostleship against the brags of the false apostles. 7, 12 he maketh comparison betwixt the Law and the Gospel.

DO we begin to praise our selues again? or need we, as some other, Epistles of recommendation vnto you, or letters of recommendation from you?

2 Yee are our Epistle, written in our hearts, which is vnderstood and read of all men,

3 In that yee are manifest to bee the Epistle of Christ, ministered by vs, and written, not with inke, but with the spirit of the liuing God, not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.

4 And such a trust haue wee through Christ to God.

5 Not that wee are sufficient of our selues, to thinke any thing as of our selues: but our sufficien-cie is of God,

6 Who also hath made vs able ministers of the New Testament, not of the letter, but of the Spirit: for the letter killeth, but the Spirit giueth life.

7 If then the ministration of death written with letters, and ingrauen in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not behold the face of Moses, for the glory of his countenance (which glorie is done away)

8 How shall not the ministration of the Spirit be more glorious?

9 For if the ministerie of condemnation was glorious, much more doth the ministration of righteousnesse exceed in glory.

10 For euen that which was glorified, was not glorified in this point, that is, as touching the exceeding glory.

11 For if that which should bee abolished was glorious, much more shall that which remaineth, be glorious.

12 Seeing then that we haue such trust, wee vse great boldnesse of speech.

Exod. 37. 13 * And we are not as Moses, which put a vail 83. vpon his face, that the children of Israel should not looke vnto the end of that which should be abolished.

14 Therefore their minds are hardened: for vntill this day remaineth the same couering vtaken away in the reading of the olde Testament, which vail in Christ is put away.

15 But euen vnto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is laide ouer their hearts.

16 Neuertheles, when their hearti shall be turned to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.

17 Now the Lord is the * Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is libertie.

18 But wee all beheld as in a mirrour the glory of the Lord with open face, and are changed into the same image, from glory to glory as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAP. IIIII.

1 Hee declareth his diligence and roundnesse in his Office. 8 And that which his enemies took for his disadvantage, so was, the crosse, and afflictions, which be endureth, hee turneth to his great advantage. 11. 17
Shewing what profits commeth thereby.

HEREFORE seeing that we haue this ministry, as we haue receiued mercie, we faint not:

2 But haue caft from vs the cloakes of shame, and * walke not in craftines, neither handle we the word of God deceitfully: but in declaration of the truth wee approue our selues to euery mans conscience in the sight of God.

3 If our Gospel bee then hid, it is hid to them that are lost.

4 In whom the God of this world hath blinded the mindes, that is, of the Infidels, that the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, which is the image of God, should not shine vnto them.

5 For wee preach not our selues, but Christ Jesus the Lord, and our selues your seruants for Iesus sake.

6 For God that * commanded the light to shine out of darkenesse, is hee which hath shined in our hearts, to giue the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Iesus Christ.

7 But we haue this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellencie of that power might bee of God, and not of vs.

8 We are afflicted on euery side, yet are we not in distresse: in pueritie, but not overcome of pueritie:

9 We are persecuted: but not forsaken: cast downe, but we perish not.

10 Euery where wee beare about in our body the dying of the Lord Iesus, that the life of Iesus might also be made manifest in our bodies.

11 For we which liue, are alwayes deliuered vnto death for Iesus sake, that the life also of Iesus might be made manifest in our mortall flesh,

12 So then death worketh in vs, and life in you.

13 And becaufe we haue the same Spirit of faith, according as it is written, * I beleueed, & therefore haue I spoken, we also beleuee, and therefore speake.

14 Knowing that hee which hath raised vp the Lord Iesus, shall raise vs vp also by Iesus, and shall set vs with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that most plenteous grace by the thanksgiving of many, may redound to the praise of God.

16 Therefore we faint not, but though our outward man perishe, yet the inward man is renewed dayly.

17 For our light affliction which is but for a moment, causeth vnto vs a farre more excellent and an eternall waight of glory,

18 While we looke not on the things which are seene, but on the things which are not seene: for the things which are seene, are temporall: but the things which are not seene, are eternall.

CHAP. V

1 Paul proceedeth to declare the vtilitie that commeth by the crosse. 4 How wee ought to prepare our selues vnto it, 5 By whom, 9 And for what ends.
14. 19 He setteth forth the grace of Christ, 30 And the Office of Ministers, and all the faithfull.

of God, that is, an house not made with hands,
eternall in the heauens.

3 For therefore we sigh, desiring to be clothed with our house, which is from heauen:

3 Because that if we be clothed, wee shall not be found * naked.

4 For in deed wee that are in this tabernacle sigh and are barded, because we would not be vnclothed, but would be clothed vpon, that mortali-tie might be swallowed vp of life.

5 And he that hath created vs for this thing, is God, who also hath giuen vnto vs the * earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore wee are alway bolde, though wee know that whiles we are in at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord.

7 (For we walke by faith, and not by sight.)
8 Nevertheless, wee are bold, and loue rather to remouee out of the body, and to dwell with the Lord.

9 Wherefore also wee couet, that both dwelling at home, and renouing from home, wee may be acceptable to him:

10 * For we must all appeare before the iudge-ment seate of Christ, that every man may receiue the things which are done in his body according to that he hath done, whether it be good or euill.

11 Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we perswade men, and we are made manifest vnto God, and I trust also that we are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For we praise not our selues againe vnto you, but giue you an occasion to reioyce of vs, that yee may haue to anyone against them, which reioyce in the face, and not in the heart.

13 For whether we be out of our wit, we are it to God: or whether we be in our right mind, wee are it vnto you.

14 For the loue of Christ constraineth vs: because we thus iudge, that if one be dead for all, then were all dead.

15 And hee died for all, that they which liue should not henceforth liue vnto themselves, but vnto him which died for them, and rose againe.

16 Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh, yea though we had knowen Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know wee him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, let him be a new creature. * Olde things are passed away: behold, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, which hath reconciled vs vnto himselfe by Iesus Christ, and hath gi-uen vnto vs the ministry of reconciliation.

19 For God was in Christ, and reconciled the world to himselfe, not imputing their sinnes vnto them, and hath committed to vs the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then are we ambassadors for Christ:
as though God did beseech you through vs, we pray you in Christes stead, that ye be reconciled to God.

21 For he hath made him to be sinne for vs, which knew no sinne, that we should be made the righte-ousnesse of God in him.

CHAP. VI.

An exhortation to Christian life, 11 and to beare him like affliction, as he doth them. 14 Also to keepe themselves from all pollution of idolatry both in body and soule, and to haue none acquaintance with idolatry.

So we therefore, as workers together beseech you, that ye receiue not the grace of God in vaine.

2 For he sayth, * I haue heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of saluation haue I succour-ed thee: behold now the accepted time, behold now the day of saluation.

3 We giue no occasion of offence in any thing, that our ministry should not be reprehended.

4 But in all things we approue our selues as the * ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in prisons, in tumults, in labours,
6 By watchings, by fastings, by purity, by knowledge, by long suffering, by kindnesse, by the holy Ghost, by loue vniained,

7 By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness in the right hand and on the left.

8 By honour and dishonour, by euill report, and good report, as deceivers, and * true.

9 As vnknewen, and yet knewen: as dying, and behold we liue: as chastened, and yet not killed:

10 As sorrowing, and yet alwayes reioicing: as poore, and yet make many rich: as hauing nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O Corinthians, our mouth is open vnto you:
our heart is made large.

12 Yee are not kept strait in vs, but ye are kept strait in your owne bowels.

13 Now for the same recompence, I speake as to my children, Be ye also enlarged.

14 Be not vnequally yoked with the infidels: for * what fellowship hath righteousness with vnrighteousnesse? and what communion hath light with darkenesse?

15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? Or, the or what part hath the beleener with the infidel? deuill.

16 And what agreement hath the Temple of God with idols? * For ye are the Temple of the liuing God: as God hath said, * I will dwell among them, and walke there, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 * Wherefore come out from among them, and separate your selues sayth the Lord: and touch none vncleane thing, and I will receiue you.

18 * And I will be a father vnto you, and ye shall be my sonnes and daughters, sayth the Lord Almighty.

CHAP. VII.

1 Hee exhorteth them by the promises of God to keepe themselves pure. 3. 7 Assuring them of his loue, 8. 13 And doth not excuse his severity toward them, but reioyceth therat, considering what profite came therby. 10 Of two sorts of fornication.

Seeing then we haue these promises, dearly be-loured, let vs cleanse our selues from all filthines of the flesh and spirit, and grow vp vnto full holi-nesse in the feare of God.

2 Receiue vs: we haue done wrong to no man:
we haue consumed no man: we haue defrauded no man.

3 I speake it not to your condemnation: for I haue said before, that yee are in our hearts to die and liue together.

4 I vnto great boldnesse of speech toward you:
I reioyce greatly in you: I am filled with comfort, and am exceeding ioyous in all our tribulation.

5 For when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but wee were troubled on euery side, fightings without, and tedious within.

6 But God that comforteth the afflicted, comforted vs at the coming of Titus:
7 And not by his coming onely, but also by the consolation wherewith hee was comforted of you, when he told vs your great desire, your mourning, your feruent munde to me-ward, so that I reioyce much more.

8 For though I made you sory with a letter, I repent not, though I did repent: for I perceiue that the same Epistle made you sory, though it were but for a season.

9 Innow reioyce, not that ye were sory, but that ye sorowed to repentance: for ye sorowed godly, so that in nothing ye were hurt by vs.

10 * For godly sorow caueth repentance vnto saluation not to bee repented of: but the worldly sorow caueth death.

11 For behold, this thing that ye haue been godly sory, what great care it hath wrought in you: yea, what clearing of your selues: yea, what indignation: yea, what feare: yea, how great desire: yea, what a zeale: yea, what punishment: in all things ye haue shewed your selues, that ye are pure in this matter.

12 Wherefore though I wrote vnto you, I did not it for his cause that had done the wrong, neither for his cause that had the iniurie, but that our care toward you in the fight of God might appeare vnto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted, because yee were comforted: but rather wee reioycd much more for the ioy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if that I haue boasted any thing to him of you, I haue not been ashamed: but as I haue spoken vnto you all things in truth, euen so our boasting vnto Titus was true.

15 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, when hee remembereth the obedience of you all, and how with feare and trembling yee receiued him.

16 I reioyce therefore that I may put my confidence in you in all things.

CHAP. VIII.

1 By the example of the Macedonians, 9 and Christ, he exhortheth them to continue in relieuing the poore Saints, commending their good beginning. 23 After he commendeth Titus and his fellowes vnto them.

W Ee doe you also to wit, brethren, of the grace of God bestowed vpon the Churches of Macedonia,

2 Because in great triall of affliction their ioy abounded, and their most extreme poutie abounded vnto their rich liberalitie.

3 For to their power (I beare record) yea, and beyond their power, they were willing.

4 And prayed vs with great instance that wee would receiue the grace and fellowship* of the ministering which is toward the Saints.

5 And thus they did, not as we looked for: but gaue their owne selues: first to the Lord, and after vnto vs by the will of God,

6 That we should exhort Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also accomplish the same grace among you also.

7 Therefore as yee abound in euery thing, in faith and word, and knowledge, & in all diligence, and in your loue toward vs, euen so see that yee abound in this grace also.

8 This say I not by commandement, but because of the diligence of others: therefore prouoe it the naturalnesse of your loue.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord IESVS CHRIST, that he being rich, for your sakes became poore, that ye through his poutie might be made rich.

10 And I shewe my mind herein: for this is expedient for you, which haue begun not to doe only, but also to will a yeere agoe.

11 Now therefore performe to doe it also, that as there was a readinesse to will, euen so ye may performe it of that which ye haue.

12 For if there be first a willing minde, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 Neither is it that other men should be eased, and you grieved.

14 But vpon like condition, at this time your abundance supplyeth their lacke, that also their abundance may be for your lacke, that there may be equalitie.

15 As it is written, * He that gathered much, had Enuied nothing ouer, and he that gathered little, had not the lesse.

16 And thanks be vnto God, which hath put in the heart of Titus the same care for you.

17 Because he accepted the exhortation, yea, he was so carefull, that of his owne accord hee went vnto you.

18 And we haue sent also with him the brother, whose praise is in the Gospel thorowout all the Churches,

19 (And not so only, but is also chosen of the Churches to be a fellow in our iourney, concerning this grace that is ministered by vs vnto the glory of the same Lorde, and declaration of your prompt minde)

20 Auiding this, that no man should blame vs in this abundance that is ministered by vs, 21 * Prouiding for honest things, not only before the Lord, but also before men.

22 And wee haue sent with them our brother, whom we haue oft times prouoed to be diligent in many things, but now much more diligent for the great confidence, which I haue in you.

23 Whether any doe enquire of Titus, hee is my fellow and helper to you ward: or of our brethren, they are messengers of the Churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shew toward them, and before the Churches the proofe of your loue, and of the reioicing that we haue of you.

CHAP. IX.

3 The cause of Titus and his companions coming to them. 6 He exhortheth to giue almes cheerefully, 7 shewing what fruits will come thereof.

FOR as touching the ministering to the Saints, it is superfluous for me to write vnto you.

2 For I know your readinesse of mind, whereof I boast my selfe of you vnto them of Macedonia, and say, that Achaia was prepared a yeere agoe, and your zeale hath prouoked many.

3 Now haue I sent the brethren, lest our reioicing ouer you should bee in vaine in this behalfe, that ye (as I haue said) be ready:

4 Lest if they of Macedonia come with me, and finde you vnprepared, wee (I need not to say you) should be ashamed in this my constant boasting.

5 Wherefore, I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren to come before vnto you, and to finish your beneuolence appointed afore, that it might be ready, and come as of beneuolence, and not as of sparing.

6 This yet remember, that hee which soweth sparingly, shall reape also sparingly, and hee that soweth shall liberally, shall reape also liberally.

7 As euery man wisheth in his heart, *so let him give, not grudgingly, or of necessity: * for God loveth a cheerefull giuer.*

8 And God is able to make all grace to abound toward you, that ye alwayes hauing all sufficiencie in all things, may abound in euery good worke, 9 * As it is written, Hee hath speared abroad, and hath giuen to the poore: his beneuolence remaineth for euer.

10 Also hee that findeth seed to the sower, will minister likewise bread for foode, and multiplie your seed, and increase the fruites of your beneuolence, 11 That on all parts ye may be made rich vnto all liberality, which causeth through vs thanksgiving vnto God.

12 For the ministracion of this seruice not only supplieth the necessities of the Saints, but also is abundant by the thankgiuing of many vnto God.

13 (Which by the experiment of this ministracion praise God for your voluntary submission to the Gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution to them, and to all men)

14 And by their prayer for you, & desiring after you greatly for the abundant grace of God in you.

15 Thanks therefore beevnto God for his vnumspokeable gift.

CHAP. X.

He toucheth the false apostles, and defendeth his authority, exhorting them to obedience, 11 and sheweth what his power is, 12 and how he useth it.

NOW I Paul my selfe beseech you by the meeknesse, and gentleuise of Christ, which when I am present among you, am bafe, but am bolde toward you being absent:

2 And this I require you, that I need not to bee bold when I am present, with that same confidence, wherewith I thinke to be bold against some, which esteeme vs as though wee walked according to the flesh.

3 Neuerthelesse, though we walke in the flesh, yet we doe not warre after the flesh,

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnall, but mightie through God, to cast downe holds)

5 Casting downe the imaginations, and euery high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringeth into captiuitie euery thought to the obedience of Christ,

6 And hauing ready the vengeance against all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Looke yee on things after the appearance? If any man trust in himselfe that he is Christs, let him consider this again of himselfe, that as he is Christs, even so are we Christs.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authoritie, which the Lorde hath giuen vs for edification, and not for your destruction, I should haue no shame.

9 This I say, that I may not seeme as it were to feare you with letters.

10 For the letters, saith hee, are sore and strong, but his bodily presence is weake, and his speech is of no value.

11 Let such one thinke this, that such as wee are in word by letters, when we are absent, such will we be also in deed, when we are present.

12 For we dare not make our selues of the number, or to compare our selues to them, which praise themselves: but they vnderstand not that they compare themselves with themselves, and compare themselves with themselves.

13 But wee will not reioyce of things which are not within our measure, * but according to the measure of the line, wherof God hath distributed vnto vs a measure to attaine euen vnto you.

14 For we stretch not out our selues beyond our measure, as though wee had not attained vnto you: for euen to you also haue we come in preaching the Gospel of Christ,

15 Not boasting of things which are without our measure: that is, of other mens labours: and we hope, when your faith shall increase, to be magnified by you according to our line abundantly,

16 And to preach the Gospel in those regions which are beyond you: not to reioyce in another mans line, that is, in the things that are prepared alreadie.

17 * But let him that reioyceth, reioyce in the Lord. I Cor. 13.

18 For he that praiseth himselfe, is not allowed, but he whom the Lord praiseth,

CHAP. XI.

He declareth his affliction toward them, 5 The excellencie of his ministration, 9 and his diligence in the same. 12 The fetches of the false apostles. 16 The peruerse iudgements of the Corinthians, 22 and his owne praises.

WOULD to God, yee could suffer a little my foolishnesse, and indeed ye suffer me.

2 For I am ieaalous ouer you with godly ieaunosie: for I haue prepared you for one husband, to present you as a pure virgine to Christ:

3 But I feare lest as the * serpent beguiled Eue through his subtiltie, so your minds should be corrupt from the simplicitie that is in Christ.

4 For if hee that commeth, preacheth another Iesus then him whom we haue preached: or if yee receiue another spirit then that which yee haue receiued: either another Gospel then that yee haue receiued: ye might well haue suffered him.

5 Verely I suppose that I was not inferiour to the very chiefe Apostles.

6 And though I be rude in speaking, yet I am not so in knowledge, but among you we haue bene made manifest to the vtmost in all things.

7 Haue I committed an offence, because I abased my selfe, that ye might be exalted, and because I preached to you the Gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other Churches, and tooke wages of them to doe you seruice.

9 And when I was present with you, and had need, I was not slothfull to the hinderance of any man: for that which was lacking vnto me the brethren which came from Macedonia, supplied, and in all things I kept and will keepe my selfe, that I should not be * grieuous vnto you.

10 The trueth of Christ is in me, that this reioycing shall not be shut vp against me in the regions of Achaia. Chap. 12.

11 Wherefore? because I loue you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I doe, that will I doe: that I may cut away occasion from them which desire occasion, that they might bee found like vnto vs in that wherein they reioyce.

13 For such false apostles are deceitful workers, and transforme themselves into the Apostles of Christ.

14 And no maruile: for Saran himselfe is transformed into an Angel of light:

15 Therefore it is no great thing, though his ministers transforme themselves, as though they were the the ministers of righteousness, whose end shall be according to their works.

16 I say again, Let no man think that I am foolish, or else take me euen as a foole, that I also may boast my selfe a little.

17 That I speake, I speake it not after the Lord. but as it were foolishly, in this my great boasting.

18 Seeing that many reioyce after the flesh, I will reioyce also.

19 For ye suffer fooles gladly, because that yee are wise.

20 For yee suffer, euen if a man bring you into bondage, if a man deuoure you, if a man take your goods, if a man exalt himselfe, if a man smite you on the face.

21 I speake as concerning the reproch: as though that we had beene weaker: but wherein any man is bold (I speake foolishly) I am bold also.

Phil. 3. 5. 22 They are Hebrewes, * so am I: they are Israelites, so am I: they are the seed of Abraham, so am I:

23 They are the ministers of Christ (I speake as a foole) I am more: in labours more abundant: in stripes about measure: in prison more plentifully: in death oft:

24 Of the Iewes fiae times receiued I fourtie stripes * save one.

Den. 25. 3. 25 I was thrice * beaten with rods: I was * once stoned: I suffered thrise * shipwracke: night & day haue I beene in the deepe sea.

Acts 14. 26 In iourneying I was often, in perils of waters,

Acts 19. 27 in perils of robbers, in perils of mine own iurisdiction,

Acts 27. in perils among the Gentiles, in perils in the citie,

Eccl. 28 in perils in wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren, 27 In wearinesse and painefulnesse, in watching often, in hunger, and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakednesse.

28 Beside the things which are outward, I am cumbered daily, and haue the care of all the Churches.

29 Who is weake, and I am not weake? who is offended, and I burne not?

30 If I must needs reioyce, I will reioyce of mine infirmities.

31 The God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which is blessed for euermore, knoweth that I lie not.

Act. 9. 32 In * Damascus, the gouernour of the people vnder king Aretas, laide watch in the citie of the Damascenes, and would haue caught mee.

33 But at a window was I let downe in a basket thorow the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAP. XII.

1 Hee reioyceth in his preferment, 5. 7 but chiefly in his humblenesse, 11 And layeth the cause of his boasting upon the Corinthians, 14 Hee sheweth what good will hee beareth them, 20 And promisseth to come vnto them.

IT is not expedient for me no doubt to reioyce: for I will come to visions and reuelations of the Lord.

Act. 9. 3. 2 * I knowe a man in Christ about fouretee yeres agoe, (whether he were in the body, I cannot tell, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth) which was taken vp into the third heauen.

3 And I know such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth):

4 How that he was taken vp into paradise, and heard wordes which cannot be spoken, which are not possible for man to vtter.

Jon. law. 5 Of such a man will I reioyce: of my selfe will

I not reioyce, except it be of mine infirmities.

6 For though I would reioyce, I should not be a foole: for I will say the truth, but I reframe, lest any man should thinke of mee about that hee seeth in me, or that he heareth of me.

7 And least I should be exalted out of measure through the abundance of reuelations, there was giuen vnto me a prick in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, because I should not be exalted out of measure.

8 For this thing I befought the Lord thrise, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said vnto mee, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made perfect through weaknesse. Very gladly therefore will I reioyce rather in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ may dwell in mee.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproches, in necessities, in persecutions, in anguish for Christs sake: for when I am weake, then am I strong.

11 I was a foole to boast my selfe: ye haue compelled me: for I ought to haue beene commended of you: for in nothing was I inferiour vnto the very chiefe Apostles, though I be nothing.

12 The signes of an Apostle were wrought among you with all patience, with signes and wonders, and great works.

13 For what is it, wherein yee were inferiours vnto other Churches, * except that I haue not been || slothfull to your hinderance? forgiue me this wrong.

14 Beholde, the third time I am ready to come vnto you, and yet wil I not be slothfull to your hinderance: for I seeke not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay vp for the fathers, but the fathers for the children.

15 And I will most gladly bestow, and will be bestowd for your || soules: though the more I lose you, the lesse I am loued.

16 But be it that I charged you not: yet forasmuch as I was craftie, I tooke you with guile.

17 Did I pill you by any of them whome I sent vnto you?

18 I haue desired Titus, and with him I haue sent a brother: did Titus pill you of anything? walked we not in the selfe same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 Again, thinke ye that wee excuse our selues vnto you? we speake before God in Christ. But we doe all things, dearly beloued, for your edifying.

20 For I feare, lest when I come, I shall not finde you such as I would: and that I shall be found vnto you such as ye would not, and lest there be strife, enuying, wrath, contentions, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, and discord.

21 I feare least when I come againe, my God shall be among you, and I shall bewaile many of them which haue sinned alreadie, and haue not repented of the vncleannes and fornication, and wantonnesse, which they haue committed.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Hee threatneth the obstinate, 5 and declareth what his power is by their own estimation, 10 Also he sheweth what is the office of this Epistle, 11 After hauing exhorted them to their duty, he wisheth them all prosperitie.

His is the third time that I come vnto you. * In 15. the mouth of two or three witnesses shall be every word stand.

2 I tolde you before, and tell you before though

though I had bene present the second time, so write I now being absent to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all others, that if I come againe, I will not spare, 3 Seeing that ye seek experience of Christ, that speaketh in mee, which toward you is not weake, but is mightie in you.

4 For though hee was crucified concerning his infirmities, yet lueth he through the power of God. And we no doubt are weake in him: but wee shall live with him, through the power of God toward you.

5 * Prouee your selues whether yee are in the faith: examine your selues: know yee not your owne selues, how that Iesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray vnto God that ye doe none euill, nor that wee should seeme approued, but that yee should doe that which is honest, though wee bee as reprobates.

8 For we cannot doe any thing against the truth, but for the truth.

9 For we are glad when we are weake, and that ye are strong: this also we wish for, even your perfection.

10 Therefore write I these things being absent, lest when I am present, I should vse sharpe penne, according to the power which the Lord hath giuen me to edification, and not to destruction.

11 Finally brethren, fare yee well: be perfect: be of good comfort: be of one mind: live in peace, and the God of loue and peace shall be with you.

12 Greete one another with an * holy kisse. All the Saints salute you.

13 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ, and the loue of God, and the communion of the holy Ghost be with you all, Amen.

¶ THE EPISTLE OF THE APOSTLE Paul to the Galatians.

THE ARGUMENT.

The Galatians after they had bene instructed by S. Paul in the truth of the Gospel, gave place to false apostles, who entering in in his absence, corrupted the pure doctrine of Christ, and taught that the ceremonies of the Law must necessarily be observed, which thing the Apostle so earnestly reasoneth against, that hee prooueth that the granting thereof is the ouerthrow of mans saluation purchased by Christ: for thereby the light of the Gospel is obscured: the conscience burdened: the Testament confounded: mans iustice established. And because the false teachers did pretend as though they had bene sent of the chiefe Apostles, and that Paul had no authority to speake of himselfe, hee prooueth both that hee is an Apostle ordained by God, and also that hee is not inferior to the rest of the Apostles: which thing established, hee proceedeth to his purpose, proving that we are freely iustificd before God without any workes or ceremonies: which notwithstanding in their time had their use and commoditie: but now they are not onely unprofitable finnes, but also pernicious, because Christ the truth and the end thereof is come: wherefore men ought now to embrace that libertie which Christ hath purchased by his blood, and not to haue their consciences snared in the gremis of mans traditions: finally, hee sheweth wherein this libertie standeth, and what exercises appertaine thereto.

CHAP. I.

6 Paul rebuketh their inconstancie which suffered themselves to be seduced by the false apostles, who preached that the obseruation of the ceremonies of the Law were necessarie to saluation, 8 and detesteth them that preach any otherwise then Christ purely. 13 He sheweth his own conuersion, magnifieth his office and Apostleship, and declareth himselfe to be equall with the chiefe Apostles.

A V L * an Apostle (not of men, neither by man, but by Iesus Christ, and God the Father, which hath raised him from the dead.)

2 And all the brethren which are with me, vnto the Churches of Galatia:

3 Grace be with you, and peace from God the Father and from our Lord Iesus Christ,

4 Which gaue himselfe for our finnes, that he might deliuer vs * from this present euill world, according to the will of God euen our Father,

5 To whom be glory for euer and euer, Amen.

6 I marueile that ye are so soone remooued away vnto another Gospel, from him that had called you in the grace of Christ,

7 Which is not another Gospel, saue that there be some which trouble you, and intend to peruert the Gospel of Christ.

8 But though that we, or an Angel from heauen preach vnto you otherwise, then that which wee haue preached vnto you, let him be accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now againe, if any man preach vnto you otherwise then that yee haue receiued, let him be accursed.

10 For now preach I mans doctrine, or Gods? or go I about to please men? for if I should yet please men, I were not the seruant of Christ.

11 * Now I certifie you, brethren, that the Gospel which was preached of me, was not after man.

12 For neither receiued I it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the reuelation of Iesus Christ.

13 For ye haue heard of my conuersation in time past in the Iewish religion, how that I persecuted the Church of God extremely, and waited it, 14 And profited in the Iewish religion aboue many of my companions of mine owne nation, and was much more zealous of the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God (which had separated me from my mothers wombe, and called me by his grace)

16 To reueale his sonne in mee, that I should preach him * among the Gentiles, immediately I communicated not with flesh and blood:

17 Neither came I againe to Ierusalem to them which were Apostles before me, but I went into Arabia, and turned againe into Damascus.

18 Then after three yeres I came againe to Ierusalem to visite Peter, & abode with him fiftene daies.

¶ Or, abominable.

1. Cor. 1. 9.

Act. 9. 1.

¶ Or, age.

¶ Or, some Epb 5. 8.

19 And none other of the Apostles, saw I, save James the Lords brother.

20 Now the things which I write vnto you, behold, I witness before God, that I lie not.

21 After that I went into the coasts of Syria and Cilicia: for I was vakouew by face vnto the Churches of Iudea, which were in Christ.

22 But they had heard only some say, He which persecuted vs in time past, now preacheth the faith which before he destroyed.

23 And they glorified God for me.

CHAP. II.

Confirming his Apostleship to be of God, 3 He sheweth why Titus was not circumcised. 6 and that hee is nothing inferiour to other Apostles: 11 Yea, and that hee hath reprooued Peter the Apostle of the Iewes. 16 After he cometh to the principall scope, which is to proue that iustification onely cometh of the grace of God by faith in Iesus Christ, and not by the workes of the Law.

Then fourteene yeeres after, I went vp againe to Hierusalem with Barnabas, and tooke with me Titus also.

2 And I went vp by reuelation, and communicated with them of the Gospel, which I preach among the Gentiles, * but particularly with them that were the chiefe, least by any meanes I should runne, or had runne in vaine:

3 But neither yet Titus which was with mee, though hee were a Grecian, was compelled to bee circumcised,

4 For all the false brethren that crept in: who came in prinly to spie out our libertie, which wee haue in Christ Iesus, that they might bring vs into bondage.

5 To whome wee gaue not place by subiection for an houre, that the trath of the Gospel might continue with you.

6 And of them which seemed to be great, I was not taught (what they were in time past), it maketh no matter to mee: * God accepteth no mans person) neuertheless they that are the chiefe, did communicate nothing with me.

Dent. 10. 17. 2. chr. 19. 9. iob. 34. 19. 7 But contrariwise when they saw that the Gospel was committed vnto me, as the Gospel over the circumcision was vnto me:

8 Peter: (For he that was mighty by Peter in the Apostleship over the circumcision, was also mighty by me toward the Gentiles)

9 And when James, and Cephas & Iohn knew of the grace that was giuen vnto me, which are counted to be pillars, they gaue to me, and to Barnabas the right hands of fellowship, that we should preach vnto the Gentiles, and they vnto the Circumcision, 10 * Warning onely that wee should remember the poore: which thing also I was diligent to doe.

11 And when Peter was come to Antiochia, I withstood him to his face: for hee was to be blamed.

12 For before that certaine came from James, he ate with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himselfe, fearing them which were of the Circumcision, 13 And the other Iewes dissembled likewise with him, insomuch that Barnabas was brought in to their disimulation also.

14 But when I saw that they went not the right way to the truth of the Gospel, I said vnto Peter before all men, If thou being a Iew, liuest as the Gentiles, and not like the Iewes, why constrainest thou the Gentiles to doe like the Iewes?

15 Wee which are Iewes by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles,

16 Know that a man is not iustified by the workes of the law, but by the faith of Iesus Christ, euen we, I say, haue beleueed in Iesus Christ, that we might be iustified by the faith of Christ, and not by the workes of the Law, because that by the workes of the Law no flesh shalbe iustified.

17 If then while wee seekte to be made righteous by Christ, we our selues are found sinners, is Christ therefore the minister of sinne? God forbid. For if I builde againe the things that I haue destroyed, I make my selfe a trespasser.

19 For I through the Law am dead to the Law, and that I might liue vnto God, I am crucified with Christ.

20 Thus I liue, yet not I now, but Christ liueth in me, and in that that I know liue in the flesh, I liue by the faith in the Sonne of God, who hath loued me, and giuen himselfe for me.

21 I doe not abrogate the grace of God: for if righteousnesse bee by the Law, then Christ dyed without a cause.

25 Wee which are Iewes by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles,

16 Know that a man is not iustified by the workes of the law, but by the faith of Iesus Christ, euen we, I say, haue beleueed in Iesus Christ, that we might be iustified by the faith of Christ, and not by the workes of the Law, because that by the workes of the Law no flesh shalbe iustified.

17 If then while wee seekte to be made righteous by Christ, we our selues are found sinners, is Christ therefore the minister of sinne? God forbid.

18 For if I builde againe the things that I haue destroyed, I make my selfe a trespasser.

19 For I through the Law am dead to the Law, and that I might liue vnto God, I am crucified with Christ.

20 Thus I liue, yet not I now, but Christ liueth in me, and in that that I know liue in the flesh, I liue by the faith in the Sonne of God, who hath loued me, and giuen himselfe for me.

21 I doe not abrogate the grace of God: for if righteousnesse bee by the Law, then Christ dyed without a cause.

CHAP. III.

1 He rebuketh them sharply, 2 and proueth by diuers reasons that iustification is by faith, 6 as appeareth by the example of Abraham, 10. 19. 24 and by the office, and the end, both of the Law, 11. 25 and of faith.

2 Foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you that yee should not obey the truth, to whome Iesus Christ before was described in your sight, and among you crucified?

3 This onely would I learne of you, Received yee the Spirit by the workes of the Law, or by the hearing of faith preached?

4 Are ye so foolish, that after ye haue begun in the Spirit, yee would now be made perfect by the flesh?

21 I doe not abrogate the grace of God: for if righteousnesse bee by the Law, then Christ dyed without a cause.

but a mans covenant, when it is confirmed, yes no man doth abrogate it, or addeth any thing thereto.

16 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He faith not, And to the seeds, as speaking of many: but, Unto, and thy seed, as of one, which is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the Law which was foure hundredth and thirtie yeeres after, cannot disanull the Covenant that was confirmed afore of God in respect of Christ, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance be of the Lawe, it is no more by the promise, but God gaue it vnto Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serueth the Law? It was added because of the transgressions, till the seed came vnto the which the promise was made: and it was ordained by Angels in the hand of a mediator.

20 Now a Mediatour is not a Mediatour of one: but God is one.

21 Is the Law then against the promise of God? God forbid: for it there had beene a Lawe giuen which could haue giuen life, surely righteousness should haue been by the Law.

22 But the Scripture hath concluded all vnder sinne, that the promise by the faith of Iesus Christ should be giuen to them that beleue.

23 But before faith came, we were kept vnder the Law, and shut vp vnto the faith, which should afterward be reuealed.

24 Wherefore the Law was our Schoolemaster to bring vs to Christ, that wee might be made righteous by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer vnder a Schoolemaster.

26 For yee are all the sonnes of God by faith in Christ Iesus.

27 For all ye that are baptized into Christ, haue put on Christ.

28 There is neither Iewe nor Grecian: there is neither bond nor free: there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Iesus.

29 And if ye be Christs, then are ye Abrahams seed, and heires by promise.

CHAP. IIII.

2 He sheweth wherefore the ceremonies were ordained. 3 Which being shadowes, must end when Christ the truth commeth. 9 He monneth them by certaine exhortations. 22 And confirmeth his arguments with a strong example, or allegorie.

Then I say, that the heire, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a seruant, though hee be lord of all,

2 But is vnder tutors and gouernours, vntill the time appointed of the Father.

3 Euen so, we when we were children were in bondage vnder the rudiments of the world.

4 But when the fulnesse of time was come, God sent forth his sonne made of a woman, and made vnder the Law,

5 That hee might redeeme them which were vnder the Law, * that wee might receiue the adoption of the sonnes.

6 And because yee are sonnes, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Soane into your hearts, which cryeth, Abba Father.

7 Wherefore, thou art no more a seruant, but a sonne: now if thou be a sonne, thou art also the heire of God through Christ.

8 But euen then when ye knew not God, ye did seruice vnto them, which by nature are not gods.

9 But now, seeing ye know God, yea rather are known of God, how turne yee againe vnto impotent and beggerly rudiments, whereunto as from the beginning ye will be in bondage againe?

10 Yee oblige dayes, and monthes, and times, and yeeres.

11 I am in feare of you, lest I haue bestowed on you labour in vaine.

12 Be ye as I: for I am euen as you: brethren, I beseech you: ye haue not hurt me at all.

13 And ye know, how through infirmities of the flesh I preached the Gospel vnto you at the first.

14 And the trial of me which was in my flesh, ye despised not, neither abhorred: but ye receiued me as an Angel of God, yea, as Christ Iesus.

15 What was then your felicitie? for I beare you record, that if it had been possible, yee would haue plucked out your owne eyes, and haue giuen them vnto me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the trueth?

17 They are ieaalous of you amisse: yea they would exclude you, that ye should altogether loue them.

18 But it is a good thing to loue earnestly alwayes in a good thing, and not onely when I am present with you.

19 My little children of whom I trauaile in birth againe, vntill Christ be formed in you.

20 And I would I were with you now, that I might change my voice: for I am in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that will be vnder the Law, doe ye not heare the Law?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sonnes, * one by a seruant, and * one by a free woman.

23 But hee which was of the seruant was borne after the flesh: and hee which was of the free woman, was borne by promise.

24 By the which things another thing is meant: for these mothers are the two Testaments, the one which is Agar of mount Sina, which gendereth vnto bondage, 25 (For Agar, or Sina is a mountaine in Arabia and it answereth to Ierusalem which now is) and she is in bondage with her children.

26 But Ierusalem which is is above, is free, which is the mother of vs all.

27 For it is written, * Reioyce thou barren that bearest no children: breake forth and crye, thou that trauailest not: for the desolate hath many moe children, then she which hath an husband.

28 * Therefore, brethren, we are after the maner of Isaac children of the promise.

29 But as then he that was borne after the flesh, persecuted him that was borne after the spirit, euen so it is now.

30 But what faith the Scripture? * Put out the seruant & her sonne: for the son of the seruant shall not be heire with the sonne of the free woman.

31 Then brethren, we are not children of the seruant, but of the free woman.

CHAP. V.

2 He laboureth to draw them away from circumcision. 17 And sheweth them the lasell betwixt the spirit and the flesh, and the fruits of them both.

Stand fast therefore in the libertie wherewith Christ hath made vs free, and be not intangled againe with the yoke of bondage.

cumcised, that he is bound to keep the whole Law.

4 Ye are <sup>1</sup>abolished from Christ: whose cause are fulfilled by the Law, yee are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness through faith.

6 For in Iesus Christ neither circumcision auaieth any thing, neither vncircumcision, but faith, which worketh by loue.

7 Ye did runne well: who did let you, that yee did not obey the truth?

8 It is not the perswasion of him that calleth you.

Cor. 5. 6. 9 <sup>1</sup>A litle leauen doth leauen the whole lump.

10 I haue trust in you through the Lord, that yee will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you, shall beare his condemnation, whose euer he be.

11 And brethren, If I yet preach circumcision, why doe I yet suffer persecution? Then is the slander of the crosse abolished.

12 Would to God they were euen cut off, which doe disquiet you.

13 For brethren, ye haue been called vnto libertie: onely vse not your libertie as an occasion vnto the flesh, but by loue serue one another.

14. 1. pet. 11. 18 And if ye be led by the Spirit, ye are not vnder the Law.

19 Moreover, the workes of the flesh are manifest, which are adultery, fornication, vncleanness, wantonnesse, 20 Idolatrie, witchcraft, hatred, debate, emulations, wrath, contentions, seditious, heresies, 21 Enuie, murders, drunkennesse, gluttony, and such like, whereof I tell you before, as I also haue told you before, that they which doe such things, shall not inherit the kingdome of God.

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is loue, ioy, peace, long suffering, gentlenesse, goodnesse, faith, 23 Meeknesse, temperancie: against such there is no Law.

24 For they that are Christes, haue crucified the flesh with the affections and the lustes.

25 If we liue in the Spirit, let vs also walke in the Spirit.

26 Let vs not be desirous of vaine glory, prouoking one another, enuying one another.

1 He exhorteth them to use gentlenesse toward the weaker, and to shew their brotherly loue & modesty:

6 Also to provide for their ministers 9 to perseuere

14 To reioyce in the crosse of Christ, 15 to newnesse of life. 16 And last of all, wisheth to them with the rest of the faithfull, all prosperitie.

17 Brethren, if a man be fallen by occasion into any fault, yee which are spirituall, restore such one with the spirit of meeknesse, considering thy selfe, lest thou also be tempted.

2 Beare ye one anothers burden, and so fulfill the Law of Christ.

3 For if any man seeme to himselfe, that hee is somewhat, when he is nothing, he deceiueh himselfe in his imagination.

4 But let every man prouee his owne worke, and then shall he haue reioycing in himselfe onely, and not in another.

5 <sup>1</sup>For every man shall beare his owne burden. 1. Cor. 9.

6 Let him that is taught in the word, make him that hath taught him, partaker of all <sup>1</sup>his goods. 1. Cor. 9.

7 Be not deceiued: God is not mocked: for whatsoeuer a man sowerh, that shall he also reape.

8 For hee that soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reape corruption: but hee that soweth to the Spirit, shall of the Spirit reape life euerlasting.

9 <sup>1</sup>Let vs not therefore be weary of well doing: for in due season we shall reape, if we faint not. 2. Thess. 3. 13.

10 While wee haue therefore time, let vs doe good vnto all men, but especially vnto them which are of the household of faith.

11 <sup>1</sup>Ye see how large a letter I haue written vnto you with mine owne hand.

12 As many as desire to make a faire shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised, onely because they would not suffice perfection for the crosse of Christ.

13 For they themselues which are circumcised keepe not the Law, but desire to haue you circumcised, that they might reioyce in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should reioyce, but in the Crosse of our Lord Iesus Christ, whereby the world is crucified vnto me, and I vnto the world.

15 For in Christ Iesus neither circumcision auaieth any thing, nor vncircumcision, but a new creature.

16 And as many as walke according to this rule, peace shall be vpon them, and mercie, and vpon the Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man put me to businesse: for I beare in my body the markes of the Lord Iesus.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with your spirit. A MEN, to the Ephesians.

¶ THE EPISTLE OF PAUL

THE ARGVMENT.

WHILE Paul was prisoner at Rome, there entred in among the Ephesians false teachers, who corrupted the true doctrine which he had taught them. By reason whereof he wrote this Epistle to confirme them in that thing which they had learned of him. And first, after his salutation, he assureth them of saluation, because they were therunto predestinate by the free election of God, before they were borne, and sealed vp to his eternall life by the holy Ghost, giuen vnto them by the Gospel, the knowledge of the which mystérie he prayeth God to confirme toward them. And so the intent they should not glory in themselues, he sheweth them their extreme misery, wherein they were plunged before they knewe Christ, as people without God, Gentiles, & whom the promises were made, and by the free mercy of God in Christ Iesus they were saved, and bee appointed to their Apostles, as of all other Gentiles: therefore he desired God to bestow the same grace in him, the first utter flaming of his Sonnes, and exhorted them likewise to be mindful of so great benefits, neither to be moved with the false apostles, in his keele to overthrow their faith, and to receive another force the Gospel, which was no preached to them as by chance or fortune, but according to the eternall counsel of God, who by this means preferreth only his Church. Therefore the Apostle commendeth his ministry, forasmuch as God thereby reigneth among men, and causeth it to bring forth most plentiful fruits, as innocency, holinesse, with all such offices appertaining to godlinesse. Left of alſe declared not only in generall, what ought to bee the life of the Christians, but also sheweth particularly what things concerne every mans vocation.

CHAP. I.

1 After his salutation, he sheweth that the chief cause of their salvation lieth in the free election of God through Christ. 16 He declareth his good will toward them, giving thanks, and praying God for their sake. 21 The Majesty of Christ.

4 There is one body, and one Spirit, euen as ye are called in one hope of your vocation.

5 There is one Lord, one Faith, one Baptisme,

*6 * One God and Father of all, which is aboue all, and through all, and in you all.*

*7 * But vnto euery one of vs is giuen grace, according to the measure of the gift of Christ.*

*8 Wherefore he faith, * When hee ascended vp on high, he led captiue captiue, and gaue gifts vnto men.*

9 (Now in that he ascended, what is it but that he had also descended first into the lowest parts of the earth?

10 He that descended, is euen the same that ascended farre aboue all heauens, that he might fill all things)

*11 * He therefore gaue some to be Apostles, and some Prophets, and some Euangelists, and some Pastors, and Teachers,*

12 For the gathering together of the Saints, for the worke of the ministration, and for the edification of the body of Christ,

13 Till wee meet together (in the vniue of faith and knowledge of the Sonne of God) vnto a perfect man, and vnto the measure of the age of the fullnes of Christ,

14 That we henceforth be no more children, waxing and caried about with euery winde of doctrine, by the deceit of men, and with craftinesse: whereby they lie in wait to deceive.

15 But let vs follow the truth in loue, and in all things grow vp into him, which is the head, that is, Christ,

16 By whom all the body being coupled & knit together by euery ioynt, for the furniture thereof (according to the effectual power, which is in the measure of euery part) receiveth increase of the body, vnto the edifying of it selfe in loue.

*17 This I say therefore and testifie in the Lord, that yee henceforth walke not as * other Gentiles walke, in vanitie of their minde,*

18 Hauing their cogitation darkened, and being strangers from the life of God, through the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardnesse of their heart:

*19 Which being * past feeling, haue giuen themselves vnto wantonnesse, to worke all uncleannesse euen with greedinesse.*

20 But ye haue not so learned Christ.

21 If so be yee haue heard him, and haue bene taught by him, as the truth is in Iesus,

*22 That is, * that ye cast off concerning the conuersation* any man doeth, that same shall he receiue of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.

 ¶ Or, both yours and their master.
 9 And ye masters, do the same things vnto them, putting away threatening: and knowe that euen your master also is in heauen, neither is there respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

11 Put on the whole armour of God, that yee may be able to stand against the assaults of the deuill.

12 For wee wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, and against the worldly gouernours, the princes of the darkenesse of this world, against spiritual wickednesse, which are in the high places.

13 For this cause take vnto you the whole armour of God, that yee may be able to resist in the euill day, and hauing finished all things, stand fast.

14 Stand therefore, and your loynes gird about with veritie, and hauing on the brestplate of righteousness, 15 And your feete shod with the preparation of the Gospel of peace.

16 About all, take the shield of faith, wherewith ye may quench all the fiery darts of the wicked,

17 * And take the helmet of saluation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

18 And pray alwayes with all manner prayer, and supplication in the Spirit: and * watch thereunto Col. 4. with all perseverance & supplication for all Saints,

19 * And for mee, that vtterance may be given vnto me, that I may open my mouth boldly to publish the secret of the Gospel, 20 Whereof I am the ambassador in bonds, that therein I may speake boldly, as I ought to speake.

21 ¶ But that yee may also know mine affaires, and what I doe, Tychicus my deare brother, and faithfull minister in the Lord, I shall shew you of all things, 22 Whome I haue sent vnto you for the same purpose, that ye might know mine affaires, and that he might comfort your hearts.

23 Peace bee with the brethren, and loue with faith from God the Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

24 Grace be with all them which loue our Lord Iesus Christ, to their immortallitie. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL to the Philippians.

THE ARGUMENT.

Paul being warned by the holy Ghost to goe to Macedonia, planted first a Church at Philippi, a city of the same countrey: but because his charge was to preach the Gospel vniuersally to all the Gentiles, he trauailed from place to place, till at length hee was taken prisoner at Rome, whereof the Philippians being aduersified, sent their Minister Epaphroditus with reliefe vnto him: who declaring him the state of the Church, caused him to write this Epistle, wherein he commendeth them that they stood manfully against the false apostles, putting them in mind of his good will toward them, and exhorteth them that his imprisonments make them not to shrink: for the Gospel thereby was confirmed, and not diminished: especially hee desirith them to flee ambition, and to embrace modesty, promising to send Timotheus vnto them, who should instruct them in matters more amply: yea, and that he himselfe would also come vnto them, adding likewise the cause of their Ministers so long abode. And because there were a greater enemie to the crosse then the false apostles, hee confuteth their false doctrine, by prouing onely Christ to be the end of all true Religion, with whom we haue all things, and without whom we haue nothing, so that his death is our life, and his resurrection our iustification. After this followe certaine admonitions both particular and general, with reification of his affection toward them, and thankfull accepting of their beneuolence.

CHAP. I.

1 Saint Paul discovereth his heart toward them, 3 by his thanksgiving, 4 prayers, 8 and wishes for their faith and saluation. 7. 12. 20 Hee sheweth the fruit of his crosse, 15. 27 and exhorteth them to patience, 28 and patience.

Paul and Timotheus the seruants of Iesus Christ, to all the Saints in Christ Iesus which are at Philippi, with the Bishops and Deacons:

2 Grace bee with you and peace from God our Father & from the Lord Iesus Christ

3 * I thanke my God, hauing you in perfect memorie,

4 (Alwayes in all my prayers for all you, praying with gladnesse)

5 Because of the fellowship which yee haue in the Gospel from the first day vnto now.

6 And I am perswaded of the same thing, that he that hath beguene this good worke in you, will performe it vntill the day of Iesus Christ,

7 As it becommeth mee so to iudge of you all, because I haue you in remembrance, that both in my bands, and in my defence, and confirmation of the Gospel you all were partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my record, how I long after you all, from the very heart root in Iesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your loue may abound yet more and more in knowledge, and in all iudgement,

10 That ye may discern things that differ one from another, that ye may be pure and without offence, vntill the day of Christ, 11 Filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Iesus-Christ, vnto the glory and prayse of God.

12 ¶ I would ye vnderstood, brethren, that the things which haue come vnto mee are turned rather to the furthering of the Gospel,

13 So that my bands in Christ are famous thoroughout all the Iudgement hall, and in all other places, 14 Insomuch, that many of the brethren in the Lord are boldened through my bandes, and dare more frankly speake the word.

15 Some preach Christ euen through enuie and strife, and some also of good will.

16 The one part preacheth Christ of contention, and not purely, supposing to adde more affliction to my bands.

17 But the others of loue, knowing that I am set for the defence of the Gospel.

18 What then? yet Christ is preached all manner wayes, whether it bee vnder pretence, or sincerely: and I therein ioy. yea, and will ioy.

19 For I know that this shall turne to my saluation through your prayer, and by the helpe of the Spirit of Iesus Christ, 20 As I heartily looke for, and hope, that in no thing I shall be ashamed, but that with all confidence, as alwayes, so now Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life or by death.

21 For Christ was to me both in life and in death aduantage.

22 And whether to liue in the flesh were profitable for me, and what to chuse, I know not.

23 For I am greatly in doubt on both sides, desiring to be loosed, and to be with Christ, which is best of all.

24 Neuertheless, to abide in the flesh is more needfull for you.

25 And this am I sure of, that I shall abide, and with you all continue, for your furtherance and ioy of your faith, 26 That ye: may more abundantly reioice in Iesus Christ for me, by my coming to you againe.

27 *Only let your conuersation be as it becometh the Gospel of Christ, that whether I come and see you, or els be absent, I may heare of your matters that ye continue in one spirit, and in one mind, fighting together through the faith of the Gospel.

28 And in nothing feare your aduersaries, which isto them a token of perdition, and to you of saluation, and that of God.

29 For vnto you it is given for Christ that not onely ye should beleue in him, but also suffer for his sake, 30 Hauing the same fight, which yee saw in me, and now heare to be in me.

CHAP. II.

3 He exhorts them aboue all things to humilitie, whereby pure doctrine is chiefly maintained, 19 Promising that he and Timotheus will speedily come vnto them, 27 And excuseth the long tarrying of Epaphroditus.

If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of loue, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any compassion and mercie,

2 Fulfill my ioy, that ye be like minded, hauing the same loue, being of one accord, & of one iudgement,

3 That nothing be done through contention or vaine glory, but that in meekenesse of minde euery man esteeme other better then himselfe.

4 Look not euery man on his owne things, but euery man also on the things of other men.

5 Let the same minde be in you that was euen in Christ Iesus,

6 Who being in the forme of God, thought it no robbery to be equal with God:

7 *But he made himselfe of no reputation, and tooke on him the forme of a seruant, and was made like vnto men, and was found in shape as a man.

8 *He humbled himselfe, and became obedient vnto the death, euen the death of the Crosse.

9 Wherefore God hath also highly exalted him, and giuen him a Name aboue every name,

10 * That at the Name of Iesus should euery knee bow, both of things in heauen, and things in earth, and things vnder the earth,

11 *And that euery tongue should confesse that Iesus Christ is the Lord, vnto the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore my beloved, as ye haue alwayes obeyed, not as in my presence onely, but nowe much more in mine absence, so make an ende of your owne saluation with feare and trembling.

13 For it is God which worketh in you, both the will and the deed, euen of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things without murmuring and reasonings,

15 That ye may be blamelesse and pure, and the sonnes of God, without rebuke in the middes of a naughty and crooked nation, among whome yee shine, as lights in the world, 16 Holding forth the word of life, that I may reioyce in the day of Christ, that I haue not runne in vaine, neither haue laboured in vaine.

17 Yea, and though I be offered vp vpon the sacrifice and seruite of your faith, I am glad, and reioyce with you all.

18 For the same cause also be yee glad, and reioyce with me.

19 And I trust in the Lord Iesus, to send Timotheus shortly vnto you, that I may also be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I haue no man like minded, who will faithfully care for your matters.

21 *For all seeke their owne, & not that which is Iesus Christs.

22 But yee know the prooue of him, that as a son with the father, he hath serued with me in the Gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send asoone as I know how it will go with me, 24 And trust in the Lord that I also my selfe shall come shortly.

25 But I supposed it necessary to send my brother Epaphroditus vnto you, my companion in labor, & fellow toildier, euen your messenger, and he that ministred vnto me such things as I wanted.

26 For he longed after you, & was full of heauines, because ye had heard that he had bene sicke.

27 And no doubt hee was sicke very neere vnto death: but God had mercie on him: and not on him only, but on me also: lest I should haue sorrow vpon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more diligently, that when ye should see him againe, ye might reioyce, and I might be the lesse sorrowfull.

29 Receiue him therefore in the Lord with all gladnesse, and make much of such:

30 Because that for the worke of Christ he was neere vnto death, and regarded not his life, to fulfill that seruite which was lacking on your part toward me.

CHAP. III.

2 Hee warneth them to beware of false teachers, 3 Against whom he setteth Christ, 4 Likewise himselfe, 9 And his doctrine, 12 And reprooeth mans owne righteousness.

MORouer, my brethren, reioyce in the Lord. It grieveth mee not to write the same things to you, and for you it is a sure thing.

2 Beware of dogs, beware of euil workers, beware of the circumcision.

3 For wee are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and reioyce in Christ Iesus, and haue no confidence in the flesh:

4 Though I might also haue confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof

5 Let your patient minde bee knowne vnto all men. The Lord is at hand.

7 And the peace of God which passeth all vnderstanding, shall preserve your hearts and mindes in Christ Iesus.

8 Furthermore, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are iust, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things pertaine to loue, whatsoever things are of good report, if there be any vertue, or if there be any praysie, thinke on these things,

10 Now I reioyce also in the Lord greatly, that now at the last ye are reuiued againe to care for me, wherein notwithstanding ye were carefull, but yet lacked opportunitie.

11 I speake not because of want: for I haue learned in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.

12 And I can be abased. & I can abound: enery where in all things I am instructed, both to be full, and to be hungry, and to abound, and to haue want.

13 I am able to doe all things through the helpe of Christ, which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding ye haue well done, that ye did communicate to mine affliction.

15 And ye Philippians know also that in the beginning of the Gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no Church communicated wth me concerning the matter of giuing and receiuing, but ye onely.

16 For, even when I was in Theffalonica, ye sent once, and afterward againe for my necessities, 17 Not that I desire a gift: but I desire the fruit which may further your reckoning.

18 Now I haue receiued al & haue plenty: I was euen filled, after I I had receiued of Epaphroditus that which came from you, an odour that smelleth sweete, a sacrifice acceptable and pleasant to God.

19 And my God shall fulfill all your necessities through his riches with glory in Iesus Christ.

20 Vnto God euen our Father be praise for euermore, Amen.

21 Salute all the Saints in Christ Iesus. The brethren which are with me, greet you.

22 All the Saints salute you, and most of al they which are of Cæsars household.

23 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ, be with you all, Amen.

¶ Written to the Philippians from Rome, and sent by Epaphroditus.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL to the Colossians.

THE ARGUMENT.

In this Epistle Saint Paul setteth difference betweene the truly, effectuall and true Christ, and the fained counseller and imagined Christ, whome the false Apostles taught. And first hee confirmeeth the doctrine which which Epaphras had preached, wishing them increase of faith, to esteeme the excellencie of Gods benefite toward them, teaching them also that saluation, and whatsoeuer good thing can bee desired, standeth wholly in Christ, whom onely wee embrace by the Gospel. But forasmuch as the false brethren would haue mixed the Law with the Gospel, hee toucheth those flatterers vehemently, and exhorteth the Colossians to stay onely on Christ, without whom all things are but meere vanitie. And as for circumcision, alstinence from meates, exorcismes and balme, worshipping of Angels, as meanes whereby to come to Christ, hee vnto them condemneth, shewing what was the office and nature of ceremonies which by Christ are abrogate: so that now the exercises of the Christians stand in mortification of the flesh, newnesse of life with other like offices appertaining both generally and particularly to all the faithful.

CHAP. I.

3 He giueth thanks to God for their faith, 7 Counsell the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 Prayeth for the mortale of their faith. 13 He sheweth vnto them the new Christ, and discouereth the counterfeite Christ of the false apostles. 25 Hee approoueth his authoritie and charge, 28 and of his faithful execution of the same.

PAVL an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother,

2 To them which are at Colosse, Saints & faithful brethren in Christ. Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 We giue thanks to God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ alwayes praying for you:

4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Iesus, and of your loue toward all Saints,

5 For the hopes sake which is laide vp for you in heauen, whereof yee haue heard before by the word of truth, which is the Gospel,

6 Which is come vnto you, euen as it is vnto all the world, and is fruitfull, as it is also among you, from the day that ye heard and truly knewe the grace of God.

7 As ye also learned of Epaphras our deare fellow seruant, which is for you a faithful minister of Christ:

8 Who hath also declared vnto vs your loue, which ye haue by the Spirit.

9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard of it, cease not to pray for you, and to desire that yee might bee fulfilled with knowledge of his will, in all wisdom and spirituall understanding,

10 * That ye might walke worthy of the Lord, and please him in all things, being * fruitfull in all good workes, and increasing in the knowledge of God,

11 Strengthened with all might through his glorious power, vnto all patience and long suffering with ioyfullnesse,

12 Giuing thanks vnto the Father, which hath made vs meete to bee partakers of the inheritance of the Saints in light,

13 Who hath deliuered vs from the power of darkness, and hath translated vs into the kingdom of his deare Sonne,

14 In whome wee haue redemption through his blood, that is, the forgiveness of finnes, 15 Who is the * image of the inuisible God, the first borne of euery creature.

16 * For by him were all things created which are in heauen, and which are in earth, things visible and inuisible: whether they be Thrones, or Dominions, or Principalities, or Powers, all things were created by him, and for him.

17 And hee is before all things, and in him all things consist.

18 And hee is the head of the body of the Church: hee is the beginning, * and the first borne of the dead, that in all things hee might haue the preeminence.

19 * For it pleased the Father, that in him should all fulnesse dwell,

20 And by him to reconcile all things vnto himselfe, and to set at peace through the blood of his crosse, both the things in earth, and the things in heauen.

21 And you which were in times past strangers and enemies, because your mindes were set in euill workes, hath he now also reconciled,

22 In the body of his flesh through death, to make you * holy and vblameable, and without fault in his sight,

23 * If ye continue grounded and stablished in the faith, and be not moued away from the hope of the Gospel, whereof yee haue heard, and which hath bene preached to euery creature which is vnder heauen, whereof I Paul am a minister.

24 Now reioyce I in my sufferings for you, and fulfill the rest of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh, for his bodies sake, which is the Church,

25 Whereof I am a minister, according to the dispensation of God, which is giuen mee vnto you, to fulfill the word of God,

26 * Which is the myserie hid since the world began, and from all ages, but now is made manifest to his Saints,

27 To whome God would make known what is the riches of his glorious myserie among the Gentiles, which riches is Christ in you, * the hope of glory,

28 Whom we preach, admonishing euery man, and teaching euery man in all wisdom, and that wee may present euery man perfect in Christ Iesus:

29 Whereunto I also labour & strue according to his working, which worketh in me mightily,

CHAP. II.

1 Having protested his good will toward them, 4 hee admonisheth them not to turne backe from Christ, 8 to the seruice of Angels or any other invention, or else ceremonies of the Law, 17 which haue finished their office, and are ended in Christ.

FOR I would yee knewe what great fighting I haue for your sakes, and for them of Laodicea: and for as many as haue not sene my person in the flesh,

2 That their hearts might bee comforted, and they knit together in loue, and in all riches of the full assurance of vnderstanding to know the myserie of God, euen the Father, and of Christ:

3 In whom are hid all the treasures of Wisdom, and Knowledge.

4 And this I say, least any man should beguile you with enticing words:

5 * For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, reioicing, and beholding your order, and your stedfast faith in Christ.

6 As yee haue therefore receiued Christ Iesus the Lord, so walke in him, 7 Rooted and built in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye haue bene taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

8 Beware lest there be any man that spoyle you through Philosophy, and vaine deceit, through the tradition

23 Which things haue indeede a shew of wisdom, inuoluntary religion, and humbleness of minde, and in not sparing the body, neither haue they it in any estimation to satisfie the flesh.

CHAP. III.

10r. 5. 3. 1 He sheweth where we should seeke Christ. 5 He exhorteth to mortification. 10 To put off the olde man, and to put on Christ. 12 To the which hee adueth exhortations both generall and particular to charitie and humilitie.

If ye then be risen with Christ, seeke those things which are aboue, where Christ sitteth at the right hand of God.

2 Set your affections on things which are aboue, and not on things which are on the earth.

3 For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 When Christ which is our life shall appeare, then shall ye also appeare with him in glory.

Eph. 5. 3. 5 * Mortifie therefore your members which are on the earth: fornication, vncleanness, the inordinate affection, enuill concupiscence, and couetousnes, which is idolatry.

Rom. 6. 4 6 For the which things sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience

6b. 12. 1. 7 Wherein ye also walked once, when ye liued in them.

2. pet. 2. 1. 8 * But now put ye away euen all these things, wrath, anger, malicioussesse, cursed speaking, filthy speaking out of your mouth.

9 Lie not one to another, seeing that yee haue put off the old man with his workes,

10 And haue put on the new, which is renewed in knowledge, * after the image of him that created him, 11 Where is neither Grecian nor Iew, circumcision nor vncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond, free: but Christ is all and in all things.

12 * Now therefore as the elect of God holy and beloved, put on 10r. 12. 12. tender mercie, kindnesse, humblenesse of minde, meekenesse, long suffering:

13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man haue a quarrell to another: euen as Christ forgave you, euen so doe ye.

14 And aboute all these things put on loue, which is the bond of perfectnesse.

15 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which ye are called in one body, and be ye 10r. 15. 15. amiable.

16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you plenteously in all wisdom: teaching and admonishing your owne selues in Psalmes and Hymnes, and spiritual songs, singing with a * grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 * And whatsoever yee shall doe, in word or deed, doe all in the Name of the Lord iesus, giuing thanks to God, euen the Father by him.

18 * Wives, submit your selues vnto your husband, as it is comely in the Lord.

19 * Husbands, loue your wives, and be not bitter vnto them.

20 * Children, obey your parents in all things: for that is well pleasing vnto the Lord.

21 Fathers, prouoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22 * Seruants, bee obedient vnto them that are your masters according to the Lord, in all things, not with eye seruice as men please, but in singleness of heart, fearing God.

23 And whatsoever ye doe, doe it heartily, as to the Lord, and not vnto men, 24 Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for yee serue the Lord, not men.

25 But he that doth wrong, hee shall receive for the wrong that hee hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth them to be seruents in prayer, 5 To walke wisely toward them that are not yet come to the true knowledge of Christ. Hee salueth them, and wisheth them all prosperitie.

Ye masters, doe vnto your seruants that which is iust and equall, knowing that yee also haue a master in heauen.

2 * Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving,

3 * Praying alwaies for vs, that God may open vnto vs the doore of vitanence, to speake the mysterie of Christ: wherefore I am also in bonds,

4 That I may vtter it, as it becommeth mee to speake.

5 * Walke wisely toward them that are without, and redeem the time.

6 Let your speech bee gracious alwayes and powdered with salt, that yee may know how to answer euery man.

7 * Tychicus our beloved brother and faithful minister, and fellow seruant in the Lord, shall declare declare vnto you my whole state,

8 Whome I haue sent vnto you for the same purpose, that he might know your state, and might comfort your hearts,

9 * With Carmisus a faithfull and a beloued brother, who is one of you. They shall shewe you of all things here.

10 Aristarchus my prison fellow salueth you, and Marcus, Barnabas sisters sonne (touching whom ye received commandements. If he come vnto you, receive him)

11 And Iesus which is called Iustus, which are of the circumcision. These only are my workfellows wth the kingdome of God, which haue been vnto my consolation.

12 Epaphras the seruant of Christ, which is one of you, salueth you, and alwayes striueth for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and full in all the will of God.

13 For I beare him record that he hath a great zeale for you, and for them of Laodicea, and them of Hierapolis.

14 * Luke the beloued Physician greeteth you, 1. Tim. 4. 10, 11.

15 Salute the brethren which are of Laodicea, and Nymphas, & the Church which is in his house.

16 And when this Epistle is read of you, cause that it be read in the Church of the Laodiceans also, and that yee likewise read the Epistle written from Laodicea.

17 And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry, that thou hast receiued in the Loude, that thou fulfill it.

18 The salutation by the hand of me Paul. Remember my bands. Grace be with you, Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGUMENT.

After that the Thessalonians had bene well instructed in the faith, persecution, which perpetually followeth the preaching of the Gospel, arose, against the which although they did constantly stand, yet S. Paul (as most careful for them) sent Timothee to strengthen them, who some after admonishing them of their estate, gave occasion to the Apostle to confirme them by diuers arguments to be constant in faith, and to suffer whatsoever God calleth them vnto for the testimonie of the Gospel, exhorting them to declare by their goodly living the purity of their religion. And as the Church can neuer be so purged, that some cockle remaine not among the wheate, so there were among them wicked men, which by mouing vaine and curious questions to ouerthrow their faith, taught falsly, as touching the point of the resurrection from the dead: whereof hee briefly instructed them what to thinke, earnestly forbidding them to seeke curiously to know the times, willing them rather to watch, lest the iudgment comming of Christ come upon them as vnawares: mid so after certaine exhortations, and his commendations to the brethren, hee endeth.

C H A P. I.

2 Hee thanketh God for them, that they are so stedfast in faith and good workes, 6 and receiue the Gospel with such earnestnesse, 7 that they are an example to all others.

PAUL and Siluanus, and Timotheus, vnto the Church of the Thessalonians, which is in God the Father, and in the Lord Iesus Christ: Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

2 * We giue God thanks alwayes for you all, making * mention of you in our prayers

3 Without ceasing, remembreing your effectual faith, and diligent loue, and the patience of your hope in our Lord Iesus Christ, in the sight of God, our Father,

4 Knowing, beloued brethren, that ye are elect of God.

5 For our Gospel was not vnto you in word onely, but also in power and in the holy Ghost, and in much assurance, as ye know after what manner we were among you for your sakes:

6 And yee became followers of vs, and of the Lord, and receiued the word in much affliction, with ioy of the holy Ghost.

7 So that ye were as an example to all that beleeue in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you sounded out the word of the Lord, not in Macedonia and in Achaia onely: but your faith also which is toward God, spread abroad in all quarters, that we need not to speake any thing.

9 For they themselves shewe of you what manner of entering in we had vnto you, and how ye turned to God from idoles, to serue the liuing and true God, 10 And to looke for his sonne from heauen, whome hee raised from the dead, euen Iesus which deliuereth vs from the wrath to come.

C H A P. II.

1 To the intent they should not faint vnder the crosse, 2 hee commendeth his diligence in preaching, 13 and theirs in obeying: 18 He excuseth his absence, that he could not come and open his heart to them.

FOR ye your selues know brethren, that our entrance in vnto you was not in vaine.

2 But euen after that wee had suffered before, and were shamefully intreated at * Philippi (as ye know) wee were bolde in our God, to speake vnto you the Gospel of God with much strining: Acts 16. 12, 23.

3 For our exhortation was not by deceit, nor by vncleannesse, nor by guile.

4 But as we were allowed of God that the Gospel should be committed vnto vs, we so speake not as they that please men, but God, which tryeth our hearts.

5 Neither yet did we euer vse flattering words, as ye know, nor coloured couctousnesse, God is record.

6 Neither sought wee praise of men, neither of you, nor of others,

7 When we might haue bene chargeable, as the Apostles of Christ: but we were gentle among you, euen as a nurse cherisheth her children. 1 Cor. 13.

8 Thus beeing affectioned towards you, our good will way to haue dealt vnto you, not the Gospel of God onely, but alſo our owne ſoules, becauſe ye were deare vnto vs.

1. Cor. 13. 2. Cor. 12. 2. Cor. 13. 2. Cor. 13. 2. Cor. 13. 2.
9 For ye remember brethren, * our labour and trauaile: for wee laboured day and night, becauſe we would not be chargeable vnto any of you, and preached vnto you the Goſpel of God.

10 Ye are witneſſes, and God alſo, how holily, and iuſtly, and vnblameably we behaue our ſelues among you that beleue.

11 As ye know how that we exhorted you, and comforted, and beſought euery one of you (as a father his children)

1. Cor. 4. 1. 2. Cor. 1. 2. Cor. 1. 2. Cor. 1. 2. Cor. 1. 2.
12 That ye would * walke worthy of God, who hath called you vnto his kingdome and glory.

13 For this cauſe alſo thanke we God without ceaſing, that when ye receiued of vs the word of the preaching of God, ye receiued it not as ſe word of men, but as it is indeed the word of God, which alſo worketh in you that beleue.

14 For brethren, ye are become followers of the Churches of God, which in Iudea are in Chriſt Ieſus, becauſe ye haue alſo ſuffered the ſame things of your owne countrymen, euen as they haue of the Iewes, 15 Who both killed the Lord Ieſus, and their owne Prophets, and haue persecuted vs, and God they pleaſe not, and are contrary to all men, 16 And forbid vs to preach vnto the Gentiles, that they might be ſaued, to fulfill their finnes alwayes: for the wrath of God is come on them to the vtmoſt.

Rom. 1. 1. 2. Cor. 1. 2. Cor. 1. 2. Cor. 1. 2. Cor. 1. 2.
17 Forasmuch, brethren, as we were kept from you for a ſeaſon, concerning ſight, but not in the heart, we * enforced the more to ſee your face with great deſire.

18 Therefore we would haue come vnto you (I Paul at leaſt once or twice) but Satan hindered vs.

19 For what is our hope or ioy, or crowne of reioycing? are not euen you it in the preſence of our Lord Ieſus Chriſt at his coming?

20 Yes, ye are our glory and ioy.

CHAP. III.

2 Hee ſheweth how greatly hee was affectioned towards them, both in that he ſent Timotheus to them, 10 and alſo prayed for them.

Wherefore ſince we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to remaine at Athens alone,

1. Cor. 16. 1. 2. Cor. 1. 2. Cor. 1. 2. Cor. 1. 2. Cor. 1. 2.
2 * And haue ſent Timotheus our brother, and miniſter of God, and our labour fellow in the Goſpel of Chriſt, to eſtabliſh you, and to comfort you touching your faith,

3 That no man ſhould be moued with theſe afflictions: for ye your ſelues know, that wee are appointed thereunto.

4 For verely when we were with you, we tolde you before that we ſhould ſuffer tribulations, euen as it came to paſſe, and ye know it.

5 Euen for this cauſe, when I could no longer forbear, I ſent him, that I might knowe of your faith, leſt the temper had tempted you in any ſort, and that our labour had beene in vaine.

6 But now lately when Timotheus came from you vnto vs, and brought vs good tidings of your faith and loue, and that ye haue good remembrance of vs alwayes, deſiring to ſee vs, as we alſo doe you.

7 Therefore brethren, wee had conſolation in you, in all our affliction and neceſſitie through your faith.

8 For now are wee aliue, if ye ſtand faſt in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we recompence to God againe for you for all the ioy, wherewith we reioyce for your ſakes before our God,

10 Night and day * praying exceedingly that we might ſee your face, and might accompliſh that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himſelfe, euen our Father, and our Lord Ieſus Chriſt guide our iourney vnto you,

12 And the Lord increaſe you, and make you abound in loue one toward another, and toward all men, euen as we doe toward you:

13 * To make your hearts ſtable and vnblameable in holineſſe before God, euen our Father: at the coming of our Lord Ieſus Chriſt with all his Saints.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhortheth them to holineſſe, 6 Innocency, 9 Loue, 11 Labor, 13 and moderation in learning for the dead, 17 Deſcribing the end of the reſurrection.

And furthermore we beſeech you, brethren, and exhort you in the Lord Ieſus, that ye increaſe more and more, as ye haue receiued of vs, how ye ought to walke, and to pleaſe God.

2 For ye know what commaundements we gaue you by the Lord Ieſus.

3 * For this is the will of God, euen your ſanctification, and that ye ſhould abſtaine from fornication,

4 That euery one of you ſhould know, how to poſſeſſe his veſſell in holineſſe and honour, 5 And not in the luſt of concupiſcence, euen as the Gentiles which know not God:

6 * That no man oppreſſe or defraud his brother in any matter: for the Lord is auenger of all ſuch things, as wee alſo haue tolde you beforetime and teſtified.

7 * For God hath not called vs vnto vncleaneſſe, but vnto holineſſe.

8 He therefore that deſpiſeth theſe things, deſpiſeth not man, but God who hath euen giuen * you his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly loue, ye neede not that I write vnto you: * for ye are taught of God to loue one another.

10 Yea, and that thing verely ye doe vnto all the brethren, which are thoroughout all Macedonia: but we beſeech you brethren, that ye increaſe more and more,

11 * And that ye ſtudie to be quiet, and to meddle with your owne buſineſſe, and to worke with your owne hands, as we commaunded you,

12 That ye may behaue your ſelues honeſtly toward them that are without, and that nothing be lacking vnto you.

13 ¶ I would not brethren, haue you ignorant concerning them which are aſleepe, that ye ſorrow not euen as other which haue no hope.

14 For if we beleue that Ieſus is dead, and is riſen, euen ſo them which ſleepe in Ieſus, will God bring with him.

15 For this ſay we vnto you by the word of the Lord, * that wee which liue, and are remaining in the coming of the Lord, ſhall not prevent them which ſleepe.

16 For the Lord himſelfe ſhall deſcend from heaven with a ſhout, & with the voice of the Archangel, and * with the trumpet of God: and the dead in Chriſt ſhall riſe firſt.

17 Then ſhall wee which liue and remaine, be caught vp with them alſo in the cloudes, to meete the Lord in the aire: and ſo ſhall wee encreaſe with the Lord.

Wherefore comfort your selues one another with these words.

CHAP. V.

1 Hee informeth them of the day of iudgement and coming of the Lord, & exhorteth them to watch, and to regard such as preach Gods word among you.

2 Of the times and seasons, brethren, yee haue no need that I write vnto you.

3 For yee your selues know perfectly, that the day of the Lord shall come, euen as a thiefe in the night.

4 For when they shal say, Peace, and safety, then shall come vpon them suddaine destruction, as the trauile vpon a woman with childe, and they shall not escape.

5 But yee, brethren, are not in darkenesse, that that day should come on you, as it were a thiefe.

6 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: wee are not of the night, neither of darkenesse.

7 Therefore let vs not sleepe as doe other, but let vs watch and be sober.

8 For they that sleepe, sleepe in the night, and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

9 But let vs which are of the day, be sober, * putting on the breastplate of faith and loue, and the hope of saluation for an helmet.

10 For God hath not appointed vs vnto wrath, but to obtaine saluation by the meanes of our Lord Iesus Christ, 11 Which died for vs, that whether wee wake or sleepe, we should liue together with him.

12 Wherefore exhort one another, and edifie one another, euen as ye doe.

13 Now we beseech you, brethren that ye know them, which labour among you, and are oner you in the Lord, and admonish you, 14 That ye haue them in singular loue for their workes sake. Be at peace among your selues.

15 Wee desire you, brethren, admonish them that are vnuly: comfort the feeble minded: beare with the weake, be patient toward all men.

16 * See that none recompense euill for euill vnto any man: but euer follow that which is good, both toward your selues, and toward all men.

17 Reioyce euermore.

18 * Pray continually.

19 In all things giue thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Iesus toward you.

20 Quench not the Spirit.

21 Despise not prophecying.

22 Try all things, and keepe that which is good.

23 Abstaine from all appearance of euill.

24 Now the very God * of peace sanctifie you throughout: and I pray God that your whole spirit 12, 13, and soule and body may be kept blamelesse vnto the coming of our Lord Iesus Christ.

25 * Faithfull is he which calleth you, which wil also doe it.

26 Brethren, pray for vs.

27 Greet all the brethren with an holy kisse.

28 I charge you in the Lord, that this Epistle be read vnto all the brethren the Saints.

29 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you. Amen.

¶ The first Epistle vnto the Thessalonians, written from Athens.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGUMENT.

1 East the Thessalonians should thinke that Paul neglected them, because he went to other places rather then come to them, hee writeth vnto them and exhorteth them to patience and other fruits of faith, neither to be moued with that vaine opinion of such as taught, that the coming of Christ was at hand, forasmuch as before that day there should be a falling away from true Religion, euen by a great part of the world, and that Antichrist should rigne in the Temple of God: finally commending himselfe to their prayers, and encouraging them to constancie, hee willeth them to correct such sharply, as liue idely of other mens labours, whom, if they doe not obey his admonitions, he commandeth to excommunicate.

CHAP. I.

3 Hee thanketh God for their faith, loue, and patience. 11 Hee prayeth for the increase of the same, 12 And sheweth what fruits shall come thereof.

Paul, and Siluanus, and Timotheus, vnto the Church of the Thessalonians, which is in God our Father, and in the Lord Iesus Christ:

2 Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 * We ought to thanke God alwayes for you, brethren, as it is meete, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the loue of euery one of you toward another aboundeth.

4 So that wee our selues reioyce of you in the Churches of God, because of your patience and faith in all your psecutions and tribulations that ye suffer.

5 Which is a token of the righteous * iudgement of God, that yee may be counted worthie of the kingdome of God, for the which yee alin suffer,

6 For it is a righteous thing with God, to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you,

7 And to you which are troubled, rest with vs, * when the Lord Iesus shal shew himselfe from heauen with his mightie Angels,

8 In flaming fire rending vengeance vnto them, that doe not know God, and which obey not vnto the Gospel of our Lord Iesus Christ,

9 Which shal be punished with euerlasting perdition, from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power,

10 When hee shall come to bee glorified in his Saints, and to be made marueilous in all them that beleeeue (because our testimonie toward you was beleueed) in that day.

11 Wherefore wee also pray alwayes for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling, and fulfill all the good pleasure of his goodnesse, and the worke of faith with power, 12 That the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him according to the grace of our God, and of the Lord Iesus Christ.

CHAP.

CHAP. II.

3 He comforteth them that the day of the Lord shall not come, till the departing from the faith come first, 9 And the kingdom of Antichrist, 13 and therefore he exhorteth them not to be deceived, but to stand fast in the things that he hath taught them.

NOW wee beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Iesus Christ, and by our assembling vnto him, 3 That yee be not suddenly mooued from your mind, nor troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter, as it were from vs, as though the day of Christ were at hand.

Ep. 5. 6. 3 *Let no man deceiue you by any meanes: for that day shall not come, except there come a departing first, and that that man of sinne bee disclosed euen the sonne perdition,

4 Which is an aduersary, and exalteth himselfe against all that is called God, or that is worshipped: so that hee doeth sic as God in the Temple of God, shewing himselfe that he is God.

5 Remember yee not, that when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what witholdeth that he might be reueiled in his time.

7 For the myserie of iniquitie doeth already worke: onely hee which now witholdeth, shall les till he be taken out of the way.

Ep. 11. 4. 8 And then shall the wicked man be reueiled, *whom the Lord shall consume with the Spirit of his mouth, and shall abolish with the brightnesse of his coming.

9 Euen him whose coming is by the working of Satan, with all power, and signes, and lying wonders,

10 And in all deceiuablenesse of vnrigh- tounesse, among them that perish, because they receiued not the loue of the truth, that they might be saued.

11 And therefore God shall send them strong delusion, that they should beleue lies, 12 That all they might be damned that beleue not the truth, but had pleasure in vnrigh- tounesse.

13 But we ought to giue thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloued of the Lord, because that God hath from the beginning chosen you to saluation through sanctification of the Spirit, and the faith of truth, 14 Whereunto he called you by our Gospell, to obtaine the glory of our Lord Iesus Christ.

15 Therefore brethren, stand fast, and keepe the instructions which ye haue bene taught, either by word, or by our Epistle.

16 Now the same Iesus Christ our Lord, and our God, euen the Father which hath loued vs, and hath giuen vs everlasting consolation, and good hope through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in eu- ry word and good worke.

CHAP. III.

1 He desireth them to pray for him, that the Gospell may prosper, 6 and giueth them warning to reprove the idle. 16 Anaso willbeth them all wealth.

FURTHERMORE, brethren, * pray for vs, that the word of the Lord may haue free passage, and be glorified, euen as it is with you.

2 And that wee may be deliuered from vnre- sonable and euill men: for all men haue not faith.

3 But the Lord is faithfull, which will stablish you, and keepe you from euill.

4 And wee are persecuted of you through the Lord, that yee both doe, and will doe the things which we command you.

5 And the Lord guide your hearts to the loue of God, and the waiting for of Christ.

6 We command you, brethren, in the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, that yee withdraw your selues from euery brother that walketh inordinate- ly, and not after the * instruction, which hee recei- ued of vs,

7 For ye your selues know, * how ye ought to follow vs: *for we behaued not our selues inordi- nately among you,

8 Neither tooke wee bread of any man for shew: but wee wrought with * labour and tra- uaille night and day, because wee would not bee chargeable to any of you.

9 Not but that we had authoritie, *but that we might make our selues an example vnto you to fol- low vs.

10 For euen when wee were with you, this wee warned you of, that if there were any, which would not worke, that he should not eate.

11 For wee heard, that there are some which walke among you inordinately, and worke not at all, but are busie bodies.

12 Therefore them that are such, wee command & exhort by our Lord Iesus Christ, that they worke with quietnesse, and eate their owne bread.

13 * And yee, brethren, be not wearie in well doing.

14 If any man obey not our sayings, note him by a letter, *and haue no company with him, that he may be ashamed.

15 Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother, 16 Now the Lord of peace giue you peace al- wayes by all meanes. The Lord be with you all.

17 The saluation of mee Paul, with mine owne hand, which is the token in euery Epistle: so I write,

18 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you all, Amen.

¶ The second Epistle to the Thessalonians, written from Athens.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL to Timotheus.

THE ARGUMENT.

IN writing this Epistle Paul seemed not onely to haue respect to teach Timotheus, but chiefly to keepe other in awe, which would haue rebelled against him, because of his youth. And therefore hee doeth arme him against those ambitious questionists, which vnder pretence of zeale to the Law, disquieted the roddy with foolish and vnprofitable questions, whereby they declared, that professe the Law, they know not what was the chief end of the Law. And as for himselfe, hee so couerseth in his unworthinesse, that hee sheweth to what worshepp the grace of God hath preferred him: and therefore hee willett prayers to be made for all degrees and sorts of men, manly that God by offering his Gospel and Christ his Sonne to them all, is indifferent to every sort of men, as his Apostleship, which is peculiar to the Gentiles, witnesseth. And forasmuch as God hath left ministers, as ordinary menues in his Church, to bring men to salvation, hee describeth what manner of men they ought to be in whom the mystery of the Sonne of God manifested in flesh is committed to be preached. After this sheweth him what troubles the Church as all times shall sustaine, but especially in the latter dayes, when as vnder pretence of religion men shall teach things contrary to the word of God. This done, he teacheth what widows should be received or refused to minister to the sick: also what elders ought to be choosen into office, exhorting him neither to be hasty in admitting, nor in iudging any: also what is the duty of servants, the nature of false teachers of vaine speculations, of couetousnesse, of rich men, and above all things he chargeth him to beware of false doctrine.

C H A P. I.

3 Hee exhorteth Timotheus to wait vpon his office, namely, to see that nothing bee taught but Gods word, etc. 5. Declaring that faith, with a good conscience, charity, and edification are the end thereof, 20 And admonisheth of Hymeneus and Alexander.

Aul an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the commandement of God our Saviour, and of our Lord Iesus Christ our hope,

2 * Vnto Timotheus my naturall sonne in the faith: Grace, mercie, and peace from God our Father, and from Christ Iesus our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still in Ephesus, when I departed into Macedonia, so doe, that thou mayest command some, that they teach none other doctrine, 4 Neither that they giue heed to * fables, and genealogies, which are endlesse, which breed questions rather then godly edifying which is by faith.

5 For * the end of the commandement is loue out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of a faith vnfeined,

6 From the which thing some haue erred, and haue turned vnto vaine iangling.

7 They would be doctours of the Law, and yet vnderstand not what they speake, neither whereof they affirme.

8 * And wee know that the Law is good, if a man vse it lawfully,

9 Knowing this, that the law is not giuen vnto righteous man, but vnto the lawlesse and disobedient, to the vngodly, and to sinners, to the vnholly, and to the prophane, to murderers of fathers and mothers, to manslayers,

10 To whoremongers, to buggerers, to menstealers, to liars, to the periured, and if there bee any other thing, that is contrarie to wholesome doctrine,

11 Which is according to the Glorious Gospel of * blessed God, which is committed vnto me,

12 Therefore I thanke him, which hath made mee strong, that is, Christ Iesus our Lord: for hee counted me faithfull and put me in his seruice:

13 When before I was a blasphemour, and a persecutor, & an oppressor: but I was receiued to mercie: for I did it ignorantly through vnbeliefe.

14 But the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and loue, which is in Christ Iesus.

15 This is a true saying, and by al meanes worthy to be receiued, that * Christ Iesus came into the world to saue sinners, of whom I am chiefe.

16 Notwithstanding, for this cause was I receiued to mercy, that Iesus Christ first should shew on me all long suffering vnto the ensample of them, which shal in time to come beleue in him vnto eternall life.

17 Now vnto the King euerlasting, immortal, immisible, vnto God only wise, be honour and glory, for euer and euer, Amen.

18 This commandement commit I vnto thee, son Timotheus, according to the propheties, which went before vpon thee, that thou by them shouldest * fight a good fight, 19 Hauing faith and a good conscience, which some haue put away, and as concerning faith, haue made shipwracke.

20 Of whom is Hymeneus, and Alexander, * whome I haue deliuered vnto Satan, that they might learne not to blaspheme.

C H A P. II.

1 He exhorteth to pray for all men, 4 wherefore, 8 and how. 9 As touching the apparell and modestie of women.

Exhort therefore, that first of all supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giuing of thanks bee made for all men,

2 For Kings, and for all that are in authoritie, that we may lead a quiet and a peaceable life, small godlinesse and honestie.

3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour.

4 * Who will that all men should be saved, and come vnto the knowledge of the truth.

5 For there is one God, and one Mediatour betwene God & man, which is the man Christ Iesus,

6 Who gaue himselfe a ranfome for all men to be a testimonie in due time,

7 * Whereunto I am ordained a preacher and an Apostle (I speake the truth in Christ, and lie not) euen a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and veritie.

8 I wil therefore that the men pray, euery where, lifting vp pure hands without wrath or doubting.

9 * Likewise alio the women, that they aray themselves in comely apparell, with shamefastnesse and modestie, not with braided haire, or golde, or pearles, or costly apparell, 10 But (as becommeth women that profess the feare of God) with good workes.

11 Let the woman learne in silence with all subiection.

12 I permit not a woman to teach, neither to vsurpe authority ouer the man, but to be in silence.

13 For * Adam was first formed, then Eue.

14 * And Adam was not decieued, but the woman was decieued, and was in the transgression.

15 Notwithstanding through bearing of children shal shee shall be saued, if she continue in faith, and loue, and holinesse with modestie.

C H A P. III.

1 He declareth what is the office of ministers, 11 and as touching their families. 15 the dignitie of the Church, 16 and the principall point of the heavenly doctrine.

This is a true saying, * if any man desire the office of a Bishop, he desireth a worthy worke.

2 A Bishop therefore must be vnreprouable, the husband of one wife, watching, sober, modest, harberous, apt to teach,

3 Not giuen to wine, no striker, not giuen to filthy lucre, but gentle, no fighter, not couetous,

4 One that can rule his owne house honestly, hauing children vnder obedience with all honesty. reuce.

For if any cannot rule his owne house, how shall he care for the Church of God?

6 He may not be a young scholar, least hee being puffed vp fall into the condemnation of the deuil.

7 He must also be wel reported of, even of them which are without, lest he fall into rebuke, and the snare of the deuil.

8 Likewise must Deacons be honest, not double tongued, not giuen vnto much wine, neither to filthie lucre.

6 b. 1. 19 9 * Having the mystrie of the faith in pure conscience.

10 And let them first be proued: then let them minister, if they be found blamelesse.

11 Likewise their wiues must be honest, not euil speakers, but sober and faithfull in all things.

12 Let the Deacons be the husbands of one wife, and such as can rule their children well, and their owne households.

13 For they that haue ministered well, get themselves a good degree, and great liberty in the faith, which is in Christ Iesus.

14 These things write I vnto thee, trusting to come very shortly vnto thee.

15 But if it tary long, that thou mayest yet know how thou oughtest to behaue thy selfe in the house of God, which is the Church of the liuing God, the pillar and ground of truth.

16 And without controuersie great is the mystrie of godlinesse, which is, God is manifested in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seene of Angels, preached vnto the Gentiles, beleene on in the world, and receiued vp in glory.

CHAP. III.

2 He teacheth him what doctrine he ought to see, 6. 8. 11 and what to follow, 15 and wherein hee ought to exercise himselfe continually.

2 Tim. 3. 1 2. pet. 3. 3- inude 1. 18 3 Now the Spirit speaketh evidently, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith and shall giue heed vnto spirits of error, and doctrines of deuils,

3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstaine from meates, which God hath created to be receiued with giuing thanks of them, which beleue and know the truth.

4 For euery creature of God is good, and nothing ought to be refused, if it be receiued with thanksgiuing.

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Iesus Christ, which hath been nourished vp in the words of faith and of good doctrine, which thou hast continually followed.

Chap. 1. 4. and 6. 20. 2 Tim. 2. 16. 23. sit 3. 9. 7 But cast away profane, and old wiues fables, and exercise thy selfe vnto godlinesse.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godlinesse is profitable vnto all things, which hath the promise of the life present, and of that that is to come.

9 This is a true saying, and by all meanes worthy to be receiued.

10 For therefore wee labour, and are rebuked, because we trust in the liuing God which is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that beleue.

11 These things command and teach.

12 Let no man despise thy youth, but bee vnto them that beleue an ensample, in word, in conversation, in loue, in spirit, in faith, and in purenesse.

13 Till I come, giue attendance to reading, to exhortation, and to doctrine.

14 Despise not the gift that is in thee, which was giuen thee by prophetic with the laying on of the hands of the company of the Eldership.

15 These things exercise, and giue thy selfe vnto them, that thou mayest see how thou profitest among all men.

16 Take heed vnto thy selfe, and vnto learning: continue therein: for in doing this thou shalt both saue thy selfe, and them that heare thee.

CHAP. V.

1 He teacheth him how he should behaue himselfe in rebuking all degrees. 3 An order concerning widows. 17 The establishing of Ministers. 23 The governance of his body, 24 and the iudgements of sinners.

Rebuke not an Elder, but exhort him as a father, and the yonger men as brethren,

2 The Elder women as mothers, the yonger as sisters with all purenesse.

3 Honour widows, which are widows in deede.

4 But if any widow haue children or nephewes, let them learne first to shew godlinesse toward their owne house, and to recompense their kinned: for that is an honest thing, and acceptable before God.

5 And she that is a widow in deede, and left alone, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But the that liueth in pleasure is dead, while she liueth.

7 These things therefore command, that they may be blamelesse.

8 If there bee any that prouideth not for his owne, and namely for them of his household, hee denieth the faith, and is worse then an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be taken into the number vnder threescore yere old, that hath bene the wife of one husband,

10 And well reported of for good workes, if she haue nourished her children, if she haue lodged the strangers, if she haue washed the Saints feete, if she haue ministered vnto them which are in aduersitie, if she were continually giuen vnto euery good worke.

11 But refuse the yonger widows: for when they haue begun to waxe wanton against Christ, they will marry, 12 Having damnation, because they haue broken the first faith.

13 And likewise also being idle, they learne to goe about from house to house: yea, they are not onely idle, but also praters, and busibodies, speaking things which are not comely.

14 I wil therefore that the yonger women marrie, and beare children and gouerne the house, and giue none occasion to the aduersary to speake euill.

15 For certaine are already turned backe after Satan.

16 If any faithfull man or faithfull woman haue widows, let them minister vnto them, and let not the Church be charged, that there may be sufficient for them that are widows in deede.

17 The Elders that rule well are worthy of double honour, specially they that labour in the word and doctrine.

18 For the Scripture saith, *Thou shalt not mousell the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the come: and, * The labourer is worthy of his wages.

 19 Against an elder receiue none accusation, but vnder two or three witnesses.
 20 Them that sinner, rebuke openly, that the rest also may feare.
 21 ¶ I charge thee before God, and the Lord Iesus Christ, and the elect Angels, that thou obserue these things, without ¶ preferring one to another, and doe nothing partially.
 22 Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither bee partaker of other mens sinnes: keepe thy selfe pure.
 23 Drink no longer water, but vse a little wine for thy stomackes sake, and thine often infirmities.
 24 Some mens sinnes are open beforehand, and goe before vnto iudgement, but some mens follow after.
 25 Likewise also the good workes are manifest before hand, and they that are otherwise, cannot be hid.

CHAP. VI.

1 The duty of seruants toward their masters. 3 Against such as are not satisfied with the word of God. 6 Of true godlinesse, and contentation of mind. 9 Against covetousnesse. 11 A charge giuen to Timotheus.
 ¶ Et as many * seruants as are vnder the yoke, count their masters worthy of all honour, that the Name of God, and his doctrine be not euill spoken of.
 2 And they which haue beleeuing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren, but rather doe seruice, because they are faithfull, and beloued, and partakers of the benefite. These things teach, and exhort.
 3 If any man teach otherwise, and consenteth not to the wholesome wordes of our Lorde Iesus Christ, and to the doctrine, which is according to godlinesse,
 4 He is puffed vp, and knoweth nothing, but doctech about * questions and strife of wordes, whereof cometh enuie, strife, railings, euill furnishings,
 5 Vaine disputations of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, which thinke that gaine is godlinesse: from such seperate thy selfe.
 6 But godlinesse is great gaine, if a man be content with that he hath.
 7 For we brought nothing into the world, and it is certaine that we can carry nothing out.

8 Therefore when we haue food and raiment, let vs therewith be content.
 9 For they that will be rich, fall into temptation and snares, and into many foolish and noisome lusts, which drowne men in perdition and destruction.
 10 For the desire of money is the roote of all euill, which while some lusted after, they erred from the faith, and pierced themselves thorow with many sorowes.
 11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things, and follow after righteousnes, godlinesse, faith, loue, patience, and meekenesse.
 12 Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold of eternall life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.
 13 * I charge thee in the sight of God, who quickneth all things, and before Iesus Christ, which vnder Pontius Pilat * witnessed a good confession, 14 That thou keepe this commandment without spot, and vnrubekable, vntill the appearing of our Lord Iesus Christ.
 15 Which in due time hee shall shewe, that is * blessed and Prince ouerly, the * King of kings, and Lord of lords.
 16 Who onely hath immortalitie, and dwelleth in the light that none can attaine vnto, * whom no man saw, neither can see, vnto whom be honour and power euertlasting. Amen.
 17 Charge them that be rich in this world, that they be not hie minded, and that they * trust not in vncertaine riches, but in the liuing God, (which giueth vs abundantly all things to enioy)
 18 That they doe good, and be rich in good workes, and ready to distribute, and communicate.
 19 * Laying vp in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may obtaine eternall life.
 20 O Timotheus, keepe that which is committed vnto thee, and * auoid profane and vaine babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called, 21 Which while some professe, they haue erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. A M E N.

THE SECONDE EPISTLE OF Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGUMENT.

THE Apostle being now ready to confirme that doctrine with his blood, which he had professed and taught, encourageth Timotheus (and in him all the faithfull) in the faith of the Gospell, and in the constant and sincere confession of the same: willing him not to shrinke for feare of afflictions, but patiently to attend the issue, as doe husbandmen, which at length receiue the fruits of their labours, and to cast off all feare and care, as soldiers do, which seeketh onely to please their capitaine: shewing him briefly the summe of the Gospell, which he preached, commanding him to preach the same to others, diligently saking breede of contentions, carious disputations, and vaine questions, to the intent that his doctrine may altogether edifie, considering that the examples of Hymeneus and Philetus, which subuerted the true doctrine of the resurrection, were so horrible: and yet to the intent that no man should be offended at their fall, being men of authority and in estimation he sheweth that all that professe Christ, are not his, and that the Church is subiect to this calamitie, that the euill must dwell among the good: till Gods triall come: yet hee referreth them whom he hath elected, euen to the end. And that Timotheus should not be discouraged by the wicked, hee declareth what abominable men and dangerous times shall follow, willing him to arme himselfe with the hope of the good issue that God will giue vnto his, and to exerce himselfe diligently in the Scriptures, both against the aduersaries, and for the edification of the Church, desiring him to come to him for certaine necessary affaires, and so with his and other salutations endeth.

2 To Timotheus my beloved sonne: Grace, mercy and peace from God the Father, and from Iesus Christ our Lord.

3 I thanke God, * whom I serue from mine elders with pure conscience, that without ceasing I haue remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day,

4 Desiring to see thee, mindfull of thy teares, that I may be filled with ioy:

5 When I call to remembrance the vnfaigned faith that is in thee: which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice, and am assured that it dwelleth in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stirre vp the gift of God, which is in thee, by the putting on of mine hands.

7 For God hath not giuen to vs the spirit of feare, but of power, and of loue, & of a sound mind.

10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Iesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortallitie vnto light through the Gospel.

11 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and Apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things, but I am not ashamed: for I know whome I haue beleueed, and I am perswaded that he is able to keepe that which I haue committed to him against that day.

13 Keepe the true paterne of the wholesome words which thou hast heard of me, in faith and loue which is in Christ Iesus.

14 That worthy thing which was committed to thee, * keepe through the holy Ghost, which dwelleth in vs.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia, be turned from me: of which sort are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord giue mercy vnto the house of Onesiphorus: for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chaine.

17 But when he was at Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant vnto him, that he may finde mercie with the Lord at that day: and in how many things hee hath ministered vnto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

C H A P. II.

2 He exhorteth him to be constant in trouble, to suffer manly, and to abide fast in the wholesome doctrine of our Lord Iesus Christ, 11 shewing him the fidelitie of Gods counsell touching the saluation of his, 19 and the marks thereof.

THOU therefore, my sonne, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Iesus,

2 And what things thou hast heard of me by many witnesses, the same deliuer to faithfull men, which shall be able to teach others also.

3 Thou therefore suffer affliction as a good souldier of Iesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth, entangleth himselfe with y affairs of this life, because he would please him that hath chosen him to be a souldier.

5 And if any man also strue for a mastery, he is not crowned, except he strue as he ought to doe.

6 The husbandman must labour before he receiue the fruits.

7 Consider what I say, and the Lord giue thee vnderstanding in all things.

8 Remember that Iesus Christ made of the seed of Dauid, was raised againe from the dead according to my Gospel:

9 Wherein I suffer trouble as an euill doer, euen vnto bonds: but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore I suffer all things for the * elects sake, that they might also obtaine the saluation which is in Christ Iesus, with eternal glory.

11 It is a true saying, * For if wee be dead with him, we also shall liue with him.

12 If wee suffer, we shall also reigne with him: * If we denie him, he also will denie vs.

13 If * we beleene not, yet abideth he faithfull: he cannot denie himselfe.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, and protest before the Lord, that they strue not about words, which is to no profit, but to the peruer-ting of the hearers.

15 Study to shew thy selfe approved vnto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, diuiding the word of truth aright.

16 * Stay prophane and vaine babblings: for they shall increase vnto more vngodlinesse.

17 And their words shall fret as a canker: of which sort is Hymeneus and Philetus, 18 Which as concerning the truth haue erred, saying, that the resurrection is past already, and doe destroy the faith of certaine.

19 But the foundation of God remaineth sure, and hath this seale, The Lord knoweth who are his, and, Let euery one that calleth on the Name of Christ, depart from iniquitie.

20 Notwithstanding in a great house are not on-ly vessels of golde and of siluer, but also of wood and of earth, and some for honour, and some vnto dishonour.

21 If any man therefore purge himselfe from these, he shall be a vessel vnto honour, sanctified and meet for the Lord, and prepared vnto euery good worke.

22 Flee also from the lusts of youth, and follow after righte ousnes, faith, loue, and peace, with them that * call on the Lord with pure heart.

23 * And put away foolish and vnlearned questions, knowing that they engender strife.

24 But the seruant of the Lord must not strue, but must be gentle toward all men, apt to teach, suffering the euill men patiently,

25 Instructing them with meeknesse that are contrary minded, * proouing if God at any time will giue them repentance, that they may know the truth, 26 And that they may come to amendment out of the snare of the deuill, which are taken of him at his will.

C H A P. III.

1 Hee propheseth of the perillous times, 2 seeth out hypocrites in their colours, 11 sheweth the signs of the Christians, 14 and how to avoide dangers, 16 also what profit cometh of the Scriptures.

His knowe also, that in the last dayes shall come perilous times.

1 For men shall be louers of their owne felues, covetous, boasters, proud, cursed speakes, disobedient to parents, vnthankfull, vnholly,

2 Without naturall affection, truce breakers, false accusers, intemperate, fierce, despisers of them which are good,

3 Traitors, heady, hie minded, louers of pleasures more then louers of God,

4 Hauing a shew of godlinesse, but haue denied the power thereof: turne away therfore from such.

5 For of this sort are they which creepe into houses, and lead captiue simple women laden with finnes, and led with diuers lusts,

6 Which women are euil learning, and are neuer able to come to the knowledge of the truthe.

7 And as Iannes and Iambres withstood Moses, so doe these also resist the truthe, men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith.

8 But they shall preuaile no longer: for their madnesse shall bee euident to all men as theirs also was.

9 But thou hast fully knowen my doctrine, manner of liuing, purpose, faith, long suffering, loue, patience,

10 Persecutions, And afflictions which came vnto mee at Antiochia, at Iconium, and at Lystra, which persecutions I suffered: but from them all the Lord deliuered me.

11 Yea, and all that will liue godly in Christ Iesus, shall suffer persecution.

12 But the euill men and deceiuers shall waxe worse and worse, deceiuing and being deceiued.

13 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned, and art perswaded thereof, knowing of whom thou hast learned them.

14 And that thou hast knowen the holy Scriptures of a childe, which are able to make thee wise vnto saluation, through the faith which is in Christ Iesus.

15 For the whole Scripture is giuen by inspiration of God, and is profitable to teach, to improue, to correct, and to instruct in righteousnesse, 16 That the man of God may be absolute, being made perfect vnto all good workes.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Hee exhorteth Timotheus to bee seruent in the word, and to suffer aduersitie, 6 maketh mention of his owne death, 9 and biddeth Timothee come vnto him.

Charge thee therefore before God, & before the Lord Iesus Christ, which shall iudge the quicke and dead at his appearing, and in his kingdom,

2 Preach the word: be instant, in season and out of season: improue, rebuke, exhort with all long suffering and doctrine.

3 For the time will come, when they will not suffer wholesome doctrine: but hauing their eares itching, shall alter their owne lustes get them an heape of teachers,

4 And shall turne their eares from the truthe, and shall be giuen vnto fables.

5 But watch thou in all things: suffer aduersitie: doe the worke of an Euangelist: make thy ministerie fully knowne.

6 For I am now ready to bee offered, and the time of my departing is at hand.

7 I haue fought a good fight, and haue finished my course: I haue kept the faith.

8 For henceforth is layd vp for me the crowne of righteousness, which the Lord the righteous Iudge shall giue me at that day. and not to me only, but vnto all them also that loue his appearing.

9 Make speede to come vnto me at once.

10 For Demas hath forsaken mee, and hath embraced this present world, and is departed vnto Thessalonica, Crescens is gone to Galatia, Titus vnto Dalmatia.

11 Only Luke is with mee. Take Marke and bring him with thee: for hee is profitable vnto me to minister.

12 And Tychicus haue I sent to Ephesus.

13 The cloake that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest, bring with thee, & the books, but specially the parchments.

14 Alexander the Coppermith hath done mee much euill. the Lord reward him according to his workes, 15 Of whome be thou ware also: for hee withstood our preaching sore.

16 At my first answering no man assisted me, but all forsooke mee: I pray God, that it may not bee laied to their charge.

17 Notwithstanding, the Lord assisted me, and strengthened me, that by mee the preaching might bee fully knowen, and that all the Gentiles should heare, and I was deliuered out of the mouth of the Lion.

18 And the Lord will deliuer me from euery euill worke, and will preferue me vnto his heavenly kingdom: to whom bee praise for ever and euer, Amen.

19 Salute Prisca, and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus.

20 Erastus abode at Corinthus: Trophimus I left at Miletum sicke.

21 Make speed to come before winter. Eubulus greeteth thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren.

22 The Lord Iesus Christ bee with thy spirit. Grace be with you. A M E N.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL to Titus.

THE ARGUMENT.

When Titus was left in Creta to finish that doctrine which Paul had there begunne, Satan stirred up certain which went about not only to overthrow the government of the Church, but also to corrupt the doctrine: for some by ambitious would haue thrust in themselves to bee pastors, others, under pretence of Moses Law,

Law brought in many troubles. Against these two sorts of men Paul armeth Titus: First, teaching him what manner of ministers he ought to choose, chiefly requiring that they be men of sound doctrine, to the intent they might resist the adulteries, and among other things hee noteth the Iewes which put a certaine holinesse in meates and such outward ceremonies, teaching them which are the true exercises of a Christian life, & what things appertain to every mans vocation. Against the which if any man rebell, or els doth not obey, hee willeth him to be avoided.

AVL a servant of God, and an Apostle of Iesus Christ, according to the faith of Gods elect, and the knowledge of the truth, which is according to godliness,

2 Vnder the hope of eternall life, which God, Rom. 16. that cannot lye, hath promised before * the world 25. ephe. 3 began:

3 But hath made his word manifest in due time, through the preaching, which is * committed vnto me, according to the Commandement of God, our Saviour:

4 To Titus my naturall sonne according to the common faith, Grace, mercie, and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Creta, that thou shouldest continue to redresse the things that remaine, and shouldest ordeine Elders in every citie, as I appointed thee.

6 * If any be vnreprouceable, the husband of one wife, hauing faithfull children, which are not slandered of riot, neither are disobedient,

7 For a bishop must be vnreprouceable, as Gods steward, not * froward, not angry, not giuen to wine, no striker, not giuen to filthy lucre,

8 But harberous, one that loneth * goodnesse, wife, righteous, holy, temperate,

9 Holding fast the faithfull word according to doctrine, that he also may be able to exhort with wholesome doctrine, and imppoue them that say againt it.

10 For there are many disobedient and vaine talkers, and deceiuers of minds, chiefly they of the circumcision.

11 Whose mouthes must be stopped, which subuert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre sake.

12 One of themselves, euen one of their owne prophets said, The Cretians are alwayes liars, cruel beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witness is true: wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be found in the faith, 14 And not taking heed to * Iewish fables and commandements of men, that turne from the truth.

15 Vnto the pure * are all things pure, but vnto them that are defiled, and vnbeleuing, is nothing pure, but euen their minds and consciences are defiled.

16 They professe that they know God, but by works they denie him, and are abominable and disobedient, and vnto euery good worke reprobate.

CHAP. II.

1 Hee commendeth vnto him the wholesome doctrine, and willeth him how hee shall teach all degrees to behaue themselves, 11 through the benefite of the grace of Christ.

2 That the elder men be sober, honest, discrete, found in the faith in loue, and in patience:

3 The elder women likewise, that they be in such behauiour, as becometh holinesse, not false accusers, not giuen to much wine, but teachers of honest things,

4 That they may instruct the young women to be sober minded, that they loue their husbands, that they loue their children,

5 That they be discrete, chaste, keeping at home, good and * subiect vnto their husbands, that the word of God be not euill spoken of.

6 Exhort young men likewise, that they be sober minded.

7 About all things shew thy selfe an ensample of good workes with vncorrupt doctrine, with grauitie, integritie,

8 And with the wholesome word, which cannot be reproved, that hee which with standeth may be ashamed, hauing nothing concerning you to speake euill of.

9 * Let seruants be subiect to their masters, and please them in all things not answering againe,

10 Neither pickers, but that they shew all good faithfulness, that they may adorne the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things,

11 * For the grace of God, that bringeth saluation vnto all men, hath appeared,

12 And teacheth vs that we should deny vngodliness, and worldly lusts, and that we should liue soberly, and righteously, and godly in this present world, 13 Looking for the blessed hope, and appearing of the glory of the mighty God, and of our Saviour Iesus Christ.

14 Who gaue himselfe for vs, that he might redeeme vs from all iniquitie, and purge vs to be a peculiar people vnto himselfe, zealous of good workes.

15 These things speake, and exhort, and rebuke with all authoritie. See that no man despise thee.

CHAP. III.

1 Of obedience to such as be in authoritie. 9 Hee warneth Titus to beware of foolish and vnprofitable questions, 12 concluding with certaine private matters, 15 an exhortation.

Put them in remembrance, that they * be subiect to the principalities, and powers, and that they be obedient, and ready to euery good worke.

2 That they speake euill of no man, that they be no fighters, but softe, shewing all meeknes vnto all men.

3 * For we our selues also were in times past vnwise, disobedient, deceiued, seruing the lusts and diuers pleasures, liuing in maliciounesse and enuy, hateful, and hating one another.

4 But when the bountifullnesse and loue of God our Saviour toward man appeared,

5 * Not by the workes of righteousness which we had done, but according to his mercie hee saved vs, by the washing of the New-birth, and the renewing of the holy Ghost,

6 Which hee shed on vs abundantly, through Iesus Christ our Saviour.

7 That we being iustified by his grace, should be made heires according to the hope of eternall life.

8 This is a true saying, and these things I will thou shouldest affirme, that they which have beleueed in God might be carefull to shew forth good workes. These things are good and profitable vnto men,

- 9 But stay foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and braulings about the Law: for they are vnprofitable and vaine.
- 10 Reiect him that is an heretike, after once or twice admonition,
- 11 Knowing that hee that is such, is peruered, and sinneth, being damned of his owne felie.
- 12 When I shall send Artemas vnto thee, or Ty-chicus, be diligent to come to me vnto Nicopolis: for I haue determined thee to winter.
- 13 Bring Zenas the expounder of the Law, and Apollos on their iourney diligently, that they lack nothing.

14 And let ours also learne to shew forth good workes for necesarie vses, that they bee not vnfruitfull.

15 All that are with me salute thee. Greet them that loue vs in the faith. Grace bee with you all. AMEN.

¶ To Titus, elect the first bishop of the Church of the Cretians, written from Nicopolis in Macedonia.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL to Philemon.

THE ARGUMENT.

Albeit the excellencie of Pauls spirit wonderfully appeareth in other his Epistles, yet this Epistle is a great witness and dylaration of the same. For farre passing the busynesse of his matter, he stirreth up as it were to heauen, and speaketh with a diuine grace and maiestie. Onesimus seruant to Philemon both robbed his master, and fled away, whom Paul hauing wonne to Christ, sent againe to his master, earnestly begging his pardon, with most weightie arguments, prouing the dutie of one Christian to another, and so with salutations endeth.

¶ Hee vniuerseth to heare of the faith and loue of Philemon, 9 whom he desireth to forgive his seruant Onesimus, and loaningly to receiue him againe.

PAUL prisoner of Iesus Christ and our brother Timotheus, vnto Philemon our deare friend and fellowe helper,

2 And to our deare sister Apphia, and to Archippus our fellow souldier, and to the Church that is in thine house:

3 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

4 I giue thanks to my God, making mention alwayes of thee in my prayers,

5 (When I heare of thy loue and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Iesus, and toward all Saints)

6 That the fellowship of thy faith may be made fruitfull, and that whatsoeuer good things is in you through Christ Iesus, may be knownen.

7 For we haue great ioy and consolation in thy loue, because by thee, brother, the Saints hearts are comforted.

8 Wherefore, though I be very bold in Christ to command thee that which is conuenient, 9 Yet for louses sake I rather beseech thee, though I be as I am euen Paul aged, and euen now a prisoner for Iesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my son * Onesimus, whom I haue begotten in my bonds,

11 Which in time past was to thee vnprofitable, but now profitable both to thee and to me,

12 Whom I haue sent againe: thou therefore receiue him, that is, mine owne bowels,

13 Whom I would haue reined with me, that in thy stead hee might haue ministred vnto mee in the bonds of the Gospell, 14 But without thy mind would I doe nothing, that thy benefite should not be as it were of necessitie, but willingly.

15 It may be that hee therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldst receiue him for euer, 16 Not nowe as a seruant, but aboute a seruant, euen as a brother beleued, specially to mee: howe much more then vnto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17 If therefore thou count our things common, receiue him as my selfe.

18 If he haue hurt thee, or oweth thee ought, that put on mine accounts.

19 I Paul haue written this with mine owne hand: I will recompense it, albeit I do not say to thee, that thou owest vnto me euen thine owne selfe.

20 Yea, brother, let me obtaine this pleasure of thee in the Lord: comfort my bowels in the Lord.

21 Trusting in thine obedience, I wrote vnto thee, knowing that thou wilt doe euen more then I say.

22 Moreouer also prepare mee lodging: for I trust through your prayers I shall be giuen vnto you.

23 There salute thee Epaphras my fellowe prisoner in Christ Iesus, 24 Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas and Luke my fellow helpers.

25 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ bee with your spirit. AMEN.

¶ Written from Rome to Philemon, and sent by Onesimus a seruant.

THE EPISTLE TO THE Hebrewes.

THE ARGUMENT.

Forasmuch as diuers, both of the Greeke writers and Latines, iudges that the writer of this Epistle for trust causes, would not haue his name knownen, it were curiositie of our part to latow much therein. For seeing the Spirit of God is the authour thereof, it diminisheth nothing the authoritie, though we know not with what pen he wrote it. Whether it were Paul (as it is not like) or Luke, or Barnabas, or Clement, or some other, his chiefe purpose is to persuade vnto the Hebrewes (whereby hee principally meaneth) that abode at Ieru- saalem, and vnder them all the rest of the Iewes :) that Christ Iesus was not onely the redeemer, but also that as his comming all ceremonies must haue an end : forasmuch as his doctrine was the conclusion of all the prophetes, and therefore not onely Moses was inferior to him, but also the Angels : for they were all seruants, and hee the Lord, but so Lord, that he hath also taken our flesh, and is made our brother, to assure vs of our saluation through himselfe : for he is that eternall Priest, whereof all the Lewiticall Priestes were but shadowes, and therefore at his comming they ought to cease, and all sacrifices for sinne to be abolished, as he prometh from the 1. chapter verse 11. vnto the 12. Chapter verse 18. Also he was that Prophet of whom all the Prophetes in time past witnessed, as declared from the 12. Chapter verse 18. so that 25. verse of the same Chapter yea, and in the King to whom all things are a subiect, as appeareth from the 25. verse to the beginning of the last Chapter. Wherefore, according to the examples of the olde fathers, wee must constantly beleue in him, that being sanctified by his iustice, taught by his wisdom, and gouerned by his power, wee may stedfastly and courageously perseuere vnto the end, in hope of that ioy that is set before our eyes, occupying our selues in Christian exercises, that wee may both be thankfull to God, and sweetfull to our neighbour.

C H A P. I.

1 He sheweth the excellencie of Christ 4 above the Angels, 7 and of their office.

1 In sundry times, and in diuers maners, God spake in the olde time to our fathers by the Prophetes :

2 In these last dayes hee hath spoken vnto vs by his sonne, whome hee hath made heire of all things, by whome also hee made the worlds,

3 * Who being the brightnesse of the glory, and the ingraued forme of his person, and bearing vp all things by his mighty word, hath by himselfe purged our finnes, and sitteth at the right hand of the Maiestie in the highest places,

4 And is made to much more excellent then the Angels, inasmuch as he hath obtained a more excellent Name then they.

5 For vnto which of the Angels said he at any time, *Thou art my Sonne, this day begate I thee ? and againe, *I will be his father, and he shall be my Sonne ?

6 And againe, when he bringeth in his first begotten Sonne into the world, he saith, * And let all the Angels of God worship him.

7 And of the Angels he saith, * He maketh the spirits his messengers, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But vnto the Sonne hee saith, * O God, thy Throne is for euer & euer : the scepter of thy kingdom is a scepter of righteousness.

9 Thou hast loued righteousness, and hated iniquity. Wherefore God, euen thy God hath anointed thee wth the oile of gladnes above thy fellows.

10 And, *Thou Lord, in the beginning hast established the earth, and the heauens are the works of thine hands.

11 They shall perish, but thou doest remaine : and they all shall waxe old as doeth a garment.

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them vp, and they shall be changed : but thou art the same, and thy yeeres shall not faile.

13 Vnto which also of the Angels said he at any time, * Sit at my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool ?

14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for their sakes, which shall be heires of saluation ?

C H A P. II.

1 He exhorteth vs to be obedient vnto the new Law which Christ hath giuen vs, 9 and not to be offended at the infirmities and low degree of Christ, 10 Because it was necessary that for our sakes he should take such a humble state vpon him, that he might be like vnto his brethren.

Wherefore wee ought diligently to giue heede to the things which we haue heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.

2 For if the word spoken by Angels was steadfast, and euery transgression and disobedience received a iust recompence of reward,

3 How shall we escape, if wee neglect so great saluation, which at the first began to be preached by the Lord, and afterward was confirmed vnto vs by them that heard him,

4 * God bearing witness thereto, both with signes and wonders and with diuers miracles and gifts of the holy Ghost, according to his owne will :

5 For he hath not put in subiection vnto the angels the world to come, whereof we speake.

6 But one in a certaine place witnessed, saying, What is man, that thou shouldst bee mindfull of him ? or the sonne of man, that thou wouldst consider him ?

7 Thou madest him a little inferior to the Angels : thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and hast set him above the works of thine hands.

8 * Thou hast put all things in subiection vnder his fecte. And in that he hath put all things in subiection vnder him, he left nothing that should not be subiect vnto him. But we yet see not all things subdued vnto him.

9 But we see Iesus crowned with glory and honour, which was made a little inferior to the Angels through the suffering of death, that by Gods grace he might taste death for all men.

10 For it became him, for whom are all things and by whom are all things, seeing that he brought many children vnto glory, y<sup>e</sup> he should consecrate the prince of their saluation through afflictions.

11 For he that sanctifieth, & they which are sanctified are all of one : wherefore he is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12 Saying, * I will declare thy Name vnto my brethren, in the mids of the Church will I sing praise vnto thee.

13 And againe, * I will put my trust in him. And againe, * Behold, here am I, and the children which God hath giuen me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children were partakers of flesh and blood, hee also himselfe likewise tooke part with them, that hee might destroy * through death him that had the power of death, that is, the deuil, 15 And that he might deliuer all them, which for feare of death were all their life time subiect to bondage.

16 For hee in no sort tooke the Angels, but hee tooke the seede of Abraham, 17 Wherefore in all things it became him to be made like vnto his brethren, that he might be mercifull, and a faithful high Priest in things concerning God, that hee might make reconciliation for the finnes of the people.

18 For in that he suffered and was tempted, hee is able to succour them that are tempted.

C H A P. III.

1 Here requireth them to be obedient vnto the word of Christ. 3 who is more worthy then Moses. 12 The punishment of such as wil harden their hearts, and not beleue, that they might haue eternall rest.

Therefore holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly vocation, consider the Apostle and high Priest of our profession, Christ Iesus:

2 Who was faithfull to him that hath appointed him, euen as * Moses was in all his house.

3 For this man is counted worthy of more glory then Moses, in as much as he which hath builded the house, hath more honour then the house.

4 For euery house is builded of some man, and he that hath built all things is God.

5 Now Moses verely was faithfull in all his house as a seruant, for a witnes of the things which should be spoken after.

6 But Christ as the Son ouer his owne house, whose house we are, if we hold fast the confidence and the reioicing of the hope vnto the end.

7 Wherefore as the holy Ghost saith, * To day if ye shall heare his voyce,

8 Harden not your hearts as in the prouocation, according to the day of the temptation in the wilderness, 9 Where your fathers tempted mee, prouoed me, and saw my works forty yeeres long.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They erre euer in their heart, neither haue they knownen my wayes.

11 Therefore I sware in my wrath, If they shall enter into my rest.

12 Take heede brethren, lest at any time there be in any of you an euill heart, and vnfaithfull, to depart away from the liuing God.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day, lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sinne.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if wee keepe sure vnto the end the beginning wherewith we are vpholden, 15 So long as it is said, To day if ye heare his voyce, harden not your hearts, as in the prouocation.

16 For some when they heard, prouoked him to anger: howbeit, not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was hee displeased fortie yeeres? Was he not displeased with them that sinned? whose carkeites fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but vnto them that obeyed not?

19 So wee see that they could not enter in, because of vnbeliefe.

C H A P. IIIII.

2 The word without faith is vnprofitable. 3 The Sabbath or rest of the Christians. 6 Punishment of vnbelieuers. 12 The nature of the word of God

Let vs feare therefore, lest at any time by forsaking the promise of entering into his rest, any of you should seeme to be deuiued.

2 For vnto vs was the Gospel preached as also vnto them: but the word that they heard profited not them, because it was not mixed with faith in those that heard it.

3 For we which haue beleueed, doe enter into rest, as hee said to the other, * As I haue sware in my wrath, If they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world,

4 For he spake in a certaine place, of the seuenth day on this wise, * And God did rest the seuenth day from all his works.

5 And in this place againe, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter thereinto, and they to whom it was first preached, entered not therein, for vnbeliefes sake:

7 Againe, hee appointed in Dauid a certaine day, by, To day, after so long a time, saying, as it is said, * This day if ye heare his voyce, harden not your hearts.

8 For if Iesus had ginen them rest, then would he not after this day haue spoken of another.

9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

10 For hee that is entered into his rest, hath also ceased from his owne workes, as God did from his.

11 Let vs study therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same ensample of disobedience.

12 For the word of God is liuely, and mighty in operation, and sharper then any two edged sword, and entreth thorow, euen vnto the diuiding asunder of the soule & the spirit, and of the ioynts, and the marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts, and the intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature which is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and open vnto his eyes, || with whom we haue to doe.

14 Seeing then that we haue a great high Priest, which is entered into heauen, euen Iesus the Sonne of God, let vs hold fast our profession, 15 For we haue not an high Priest, which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but was in all things tempted in like sort, yet without sinne.

16 Let vs therefore goe boldly vnto the throne of grace that we may receiue mercy, and find grace to helpe in time of need.

C H A P. V.

5 Hee compareth Iesus Christ with the Levitical Priests, shewing wherein they either agree or dissent. 11 Afterward hee reprehendeth the negligence of the Iewes.

For euery hie Priest is taken from among men, and is ordeined for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sinnes,

2 Which is able sufficiently to haue compassion on them that are ignorant, and that are out of the way, because that he also is compassed with infirmities.

3 And for the sames sake hee is bound to offer for sins, as well for his owne part as for the peoples.

4 * And no man taketh this honour vnto himselfe, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So likewise Christ tooke not to himselfe this honour to be made the hie Priest, but hee that laid vnto him, * Thou art my Sonne, This day begate I thee, gaue it him.

6 As he also in another place speaketh, * Thou art a Priest for euer after the order of Melchisedec.

7 Which in the dayes of his flesh did offer vp prayers and supplications, with strong crying and teares vnto him, that was able to saue him from death, and was also heard in that which hee feared.

8 And though hee were the Sonne, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered.

9 And being consecrated, was made the author of eternall saluation vnto all them that obey him.

11 Of whom we haue many things to say, which are hard to be vttered, because ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when as concerning the time yee ought to be teachers, yet haue yee need againe that wee teach you the first principles of the word of God, and are become such as haue neede of milke, and not of strong meat.

13 For euery one that vseth milke is inexpert in the word of righteousnesse: for he is a babe.

14 But strong meate belongeth to them that are of age, which through long custome haue their wits exercised to discern both good and euill.

CHAP. VI.

1 He proceedeth in reproving them, and exhorteth them not to faint. 12 But to bee steadfast and patient, forasmuch as God is sure in his promise.

Herfore, leauing the doctrine of the beginning of Christ, let vs be led forward vnto perfection, not laying againe the foundation of repentance from dead workes, and of faith toward God,

2 Of the doctrine of baptisms, and laying on of hands, and of the resurrection from the dead, and of eternall iudgement.

3 And this will we do if God permit.

4 * For it is vnpossible that they which were once enlightened, and haue tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the holy Ghost,

5 And haue tasted of the good word of God, and of the powers of the world to come,

6 If they fall away, should be renewed againe by repentance: seeing they crucifie againe to themselves the Sonne of God, and make a mocke of him.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the raine that cometh oft vpon it, and bringeth forth herbes meete for them by whom it is dressed, receiueh blessing of God.

8 But that which beareth thornes and briars, is reprobued, and is neere vnto cursing, whose end is to be burned.

9 But beloued, we haue perswaded our selues better things of you, and such as accompany saluation, though we thus speake.

10 For God is not vnrighteous, that hee should forget your worke and labour of loue, which yee shewed toward his Name, in that ye haue ministered vnto the Saints, and yet minister.

11 And wee desire that euery one of you shewe the same diligence, to the full assurance of hope vnto the end, 12 That ye bee not slothfull, but followers of them which through faith and patience inherite the promises.

13 For when God made the promise to Abraham, because he had no greater to sweare by, hee swaie by himselfe, 14 Saying, * Surely I wil abundantly blesse thee, and multiply thee maruellously.

15 And so after that he had taried patiently, hee enjoyed the promise.

16 For men verely sweare by him that is greater then themselves, and an oath for confirmation is among them an end of all strife.

17 So God willing more abundantly to shewe vnto the heires of promise the stableness of his counsell, bound himselfe by an oath,

18 That by two immutable things wherein it is vnpossible that God should lie, wee might haue strong consolation, which haue our refuge to hold fast the hope that is set before vs,

19 Which wee haue as an anker of the soule, both sure & stedfast, and it entrencheth into that which is within the vaile, 20 Whither the forerunner is for vs entred in, when Iesus that is made an high Priest for euer, after the order of Melchi-sedec.

CHAP. VII.

1 Hee compareth the Priesthood of Christ vnto Melchi-sedec, 11 also Christes Priesthood with the Leuites.

For this Melchi-sedec * was King of Salem, the Priest of the most high God, who met Abraham as he returned from the slaughter of the Kings, and blessed him:

2 To whom Abraham also gaue the tithe of all things: who first is by interpretation king of righteousnesse: after that, hee is also King of Salem, that is, King of peace.

3 Without father, without mother, without kined, and hath neither beginning of his daies, neither end of his life: but is likened vnto the Sonne of God, and continueth a Priest for euer.

4 Now consider how great this man was, vnto whom euen the Patriarke Abraham gaue the tithe of the spoiles.

5 For verely they which are the children of Leui, which receiue the office of his daies, haue a * commandement to take, according to the Lawe, tithes of the people (that is, of their brethren) though they came out of the loynes of Abraham.

6 But hee whose kined is not counted among them, receiued tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction, the lesse is blessed of the greater.

8 And here men that die, receiue tithes: but there hee receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed, that he liueth.

9 And to say as the thing is, Leui also which receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loynes of his father Abraham, when Melchi-sedec met him.

11 If therefore perfection hath bene by the Priesthood of the Leuites (for vnder it the Lawe was stablished to the people) what needed it furthermore, that another Priest should rise after the order of Melchi-sedec, and not to be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For if the Priesthood be changed, then of necessity must there be a change of the Lawe.

13 For he of whom the things are spoken, pertaineth vnto another tribe, whereof no man serued at the Altar.

14 For it is euident, that our Lord sprung out of Iuda, concerning the which tribe Moses spake nothing touching the Priesthood.

15 And it is yet a more euident thing, because that after the similitude of Melchi-sedec there is risen vp another Priest, 16 Which is not made Priest after the Lawe of the carnall Commandement, but after the power of the endless life.

17 For he testifieth thus, * Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchi-sedec.

18 For the Commandement that went afore, is made disnaulled, because of the weakenesse therof, and of vnprofitableness.

19 For the Lawe made nothing perfit, but the hope bring-

20 And forasmuch as it is not without an oath therfore are made Priests without an oath:
21 But this, hee is made with an oath by him that said vnto him, *The Lord hath sworne, and wil not repent, Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec.)

22 By so much is Iesus made a suretie of a better Testament.

23 And among them many were made Priests, because they were not suffered to endure, by the reason of death.

24 But this man, because hee endureth for euer, hath an euertlasting Priesthood.

25 Wherefore hee is able alio perfectly to saue them that come vnto God by him, seeing hee euer liueth, to make intercession for them.

26 For such an high Priest it became vs to haue, which is holy, harmelesse, vndefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher then the heauens:

27 Which needed not dayly as those hie Priests to offer vp sacrifice, * first for his owne finnes, and then for the peoples: for that did he once, when he offered vp himselfe.

28 For the Law maketh men hie Priests, which haue infirmitie: but the word of the oath that was since the Law, maketh the Sonne, who is consecrated for euermore.

C H A P. VIII.

6 He prooueth the abolishing of well of the Levitical Priesthood, and of the old Covenant by the spiritual and euertlasting Priesthood of Christ, & anby the new Covenant.

N Ow of the things which we haue spoken, this is the summe, that we haue such an hie Priest, that sitteth at the right hand of the Throne of the Maiestic in heauen.

2 And is a minister of the Sanctuarie, and of the true Tabernacle which the Lord pight, and not man.

3 For euer hie Priest is ordeined to offer both gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it was of necessitie, that this man should haue somewhat alio to offer.

4 For hee were not a Priest, if hee were on the earth, seeing there are Priests that according to the Law offer gifts,

5 Who serue vnto the patene and shadow of heauenly things. as Moyses was waied by God, when he was about to finish the Tabernacle * See, said he, that thou make all things according to the patene, shewed to thee in the Mount.

6 But now our high Priest hath obtained a more excellent Office, in as much as he is the Mediatour of a better Testament, which is established vpon better promises.

7 For if that first Testament had bene faultlesse, no place should haue bene sought for the second.

8 For in rebuking them he saith, * Behold, the dayes will come, saith the Lord, when I shall make with the house of Israel, and with the house of Iuda a new Testament.

9 Not like the Testament that I made with their fathers, in the day that I tooke them by the hand, to leade them out of the land of Egypt: for they continued not in my Testament, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the Testament that I will make with the house of Israel, After those dayes saith the Lord, I will put my Lawes in their minde, and in their heart will I write them, and I will bee their God, and they shall be my people, 11 And they shal not teach euery man his neighbour, and euery man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least of them, to the greatest of them.

12 For I will be mercifull to their vnrighteousnes, and I will remember their finnes and their iniquities no more.

13 In that he saith, A new Testament, he hath abrogate the Olde: nowe that which is disanulled, and waxed old, is ready to vanish away.

C H A P. IX.

1 How that the ceremonies and sacrifices of the Law are abolished, 11 by the eternitie and perfection of Christs sacrifice.

1 Hen the first Testament had alio ordinances of Religion, and a worldly Sanctuarie.

2 For the first Tabernacle was made, wherein was the Candlestick, and the Table, and the Shewbread, which Tabernacle is called The holy places.

3 And after the second vaile was the Tabernacle which is called The Holiest of all,

4 Which had the golden Censer, and the Arke of the Testament ouerlaid round about with gold, wherein the golden pot which had Manna was, and * Aarons rod that had budded, and the Tables of the Testament.

5 * And ouer the Arke were the glorious Cherubims, shadowing the Mercie-seate: of which things we will not now speake particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordeined, the Priests went alwayes into the first Tabernacle, and accomplished the seruice.

7 But into the second went the high Priest alone once euery yeere, not without blood which he offered for himselfe, and for the ignorances of the people.

8 Whereby the holy Ghost this signified, that the way into the Holiest of all was not yet opened, while as yet the first Tabernacle was standing,

9 Which was a figure for the time present, wherein were offered gifts and sacrifices that could not make holy concerning the conscience, him that did the seruice,

10 Which onely stood in meats and drinks, and diuers washings, and carnall rites, vntill the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come an hie Priest of good things to come, by a greater and a more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is, not of this building, 12 Neither by the blood of goates and calues: but by his owne blood entred hee in once vnto the Holy place, and obteneid eternall redemption for vs.

13 * For if the blood of bulles and of goates, and the ashes of an heifer, sprinkling them that are vncleane, sanctifieth as touching the purifying of the flesh,

14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, which through the eternall Spirit offered himselfe without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead workes, to serue the liuing God?

15 And for this cause is he the Mediatour of the new Testament, that through death which was for the redemption of the transgressions that were in the former Testament, they which were called, might receiue the promise of eternall inheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must bee the death of him that made the testament.

17 * For the testament is confirmed when men are dead: for it is yet of no force as long as he that made it is aliae.

18 Wherefore neither was the first ordained without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken euery precept to the people according to the Law, hee tooke the blood of calues and of goats, with water and purple wooll and hysope, and sprinkled both the booke, and all the people,

Exo. 24.8 20 *Saying, This is the blood of the Testament, which God hath appointed vnto you.

21 Moreouer he sprinkled likewise the Tabernacle with blood also, and all the ministring vessels.

22 And almost all things are by the Law purged with blood, and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was then necessarie, that the similitudes of heavenly things should bee purified with such things: but the heavenly things themselues are purified with better sacrifices then are these.

24 For Christ is not entred into the holy places that are made with hands, which are || similitudes of the true Sanctuarie: but is entred into very heauen, to appeare now in the sight of God for vs.

25 Not that hee should offer himselfe often, as the high Priest entred into the holy place euery yeere with other blood, 26 (For then must hee haue often suffered since the foundation of the world) but now in the end of the world hath hee appeared once to put away sin, by the sacrifice of himselfe.

27 And as it is appointed vnto men that they shal once die, & after that commeth the iudgement,

Rom. 5.8. 28 So* Christ was once offered to take away the finnes of many, and vnto them that looke for him shal he appeare the second time without sinne vnto saluation.

C H A P. X.

1 The olde law had no power to cleanse away sinne, so but Christ did it with offering of his body once for all. 22 An exhortation to receive the goodnesse of God thankfully with patience and steadfast faith.

For the *Law hauing the shadow of good things to come, and not the very || image of the things, can neuer, with those sacrifices which they offer yeere by yeere continually. || sanctifie the commers thereunto.

2 For would they not then haue ceased to haue bene offered, because that the offerers once purged, should haue had no more conscience of finnes?

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance againe of finnes euery yeere.

4 For it is impossible that the blood of bulles and goates should * take away finnes.

Leuit. 16. 5 Wherefore when he commeth into the world he saith, * Sacrifice and offering thou wouldst not: but a body hast thou ordained me.

6 In burnt offerings and sinne offerings thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then I said, Loe, I come (in the beginning of the booke it is written of me) that I should doe thy will, O God.

8 Above, when he said, Sacrifice and offering, and burnt offerings, and sinne offerings thou wouldst not haue, neither hadst pleasure therein (which are offered by the Law)

9 Then said he, Loe, I come to doe thy will, O God: he taketh away the first, that he may stablish the second.

10 By the which will wee are sanctified, euen by the offering of the body of Iesus Christ once made.

11 And euery Priest appeareth daily ministring, and oft times offereth one manner of offering which can neuer take away finnes:

12 But this man after hee had offered one sacrifice for finnes,* sitteth for euer at the right hand of God, 13 And from henceforth tarieth, * till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For with one offering hath he consecrated for vs, euer them that are sanctified.

15 For the holy Ghost also beareth vs record: for after that he had said before,

16 * This is the Testament that I will make vnto them, After those daies, saith the Lord, I will put my lawes in their heart, and in their minds I will write them, 17 And their finnes and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these things is, there is no more offering for sinne.

19 Seeing therefore, brethren, that by the blood of Iesus wee may bee bold to enter into the holy place,

20 By the new and liuing way, which hee hath prepared for vs, through the vaile, that is his flesh:

21 And seeing wee haue an high Priest, which is ouer the house of God, 22 Let vs drawe neere with a true heart in assurance of faith, sprinkled in our hearts from an euill conscience, and washed in our bodies with pure water.

23 Let vs keepe the profession of our hope, without wauering, (for he is faithfull that promised)

24 And let vs consider one another, to prouoke vnto loue, and to good workes, 25 Not forsaking the fellowship that we haue among our selues, as the manner of some is: but let vs exhort one another, and that so much the more, because yee see that the day draweth neere.

26 * For if we sinne willingly after that we haue receiued the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for finnes, 27 But a fearefull looking for of iudgement and violent fire, which shall deuoure the aduersaries.

28 He that despiseth Moses Law, dieth without mercie: * vnder two or three witnesses.

29 Of how much foreer punishment suppose yee shall he be worthy, which treadeth vnder foote the Sonne of God, and counteth the blood of the Testament as an vnholly thing, wherewith he was sanctified, and doth despite the spirit of grace?

30 For we know him that hath said * vengeance belongeth vnto me: I wil recompense, saith the Lord, And againe, The Lord shall iudge his people.

31 It is a fearefull thing to fall into the hands of the liuing God.

32 Now call to remembrance the dayes that are passed, in the which, after ye had receiued light, ye endured a great fight in afflictions,

33 Partly, while yee were made a gazing stocke both by reproches, and afflictions, and partly while yee became companions of them which were || tossed to and fro.

34 For both ye sorowed with me for my boads, and suffered with ioy the spoiling of your goods, knowing in your selues how that ye haue in heauen a better, and an enduring substance.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence which hath great recompence of reward.

36 For yee haue neede of patience, that after ye haue done the will of God, yee might receiue the promise.

37 For yet a very little while, and hee that shall come, will come and will not tarry, 38 *Now the iust shall line by faith: but if any withdraw himselfe, my soule shall haue no pleasure in him.

39 But wee are not they which withdraw our selues vnto perdition, but follow faith vnto the conseruation of the soule.

C H A P. XI.

1 What faith is, and a commendation of the same.
2 Without faith we cannot please God. 16 The steadfast beliefe of the fathers in old time.

N Ow faith is the ground of things which are hoped for, and the euidence of things which are not seene.

2 For by it our elders were well reported of.

3 *Through faith we vnderstand that ŷ world was ordained by the worde of God, so that the things which we see, are not made of things which did appeare.

4 By faith Abel *offered vnto God a greater sacrifice then Cain, by *the which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: by the which faith also hee being dead, yet speaketh.

5 By faith was *Enoch taken away, that hee should not see death: neither was hee found: for God hath taken him away: for before he was taken away, he was reported of that he had pleased God.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for hee that commeth to God, must beleue that God is, and that he is a rewarder of them that seeke him.

7 By faith *Noe being warned of God by the things which were as yet not seene, moued with reuerence, prepared the Arke to the sauing of his household, through the which Arke hee condemned the world, and was made heire of the righteounes which is by faith.

8 By faith *Abraham when hee was called obeyed God, to goe out into a place, which he should afterward receiue for inheritance, and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he abode in the land of promise, as in a strange country, as one that dwelt in tents, with Isaac and Iacob heires with him of the same promise.

10 For he looked for a citie hauing a foundation, whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith *Sarrah also receiued strength to conceiue seed, & was deliuered of a childe when she was past age, because shee iudged him faithfull which had promised.

12 And therefore sprang there of one, euen of one which was dead, so many as the *starres of the skie in multitude, and as the sand of the sea shore which is innumerable.

13 All these died in faith, and receiued not the promises, but saw them as far off, & beleued them, and receiued them thankfully, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things, declare plainly that they seeke a country.

15 And if they had been mindfull of that country from whence they came out, they had leifute to haue returned.

16 But now they desire a better, ŷ is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed of them to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a citie.

17 By faith *Abraham offered vp Isaac, when he was tryed, and he that had receiued the promises, offered his onely begotten sonne.

18 (To whom it was said, *Isaac shall thy seed be called)

19 For he considered that God was able to raise him vp euen from the dead: from whence he receiued him also after a fort.

20 By faith *Isaac blessed Iacob and Esau, concerning things to come.

21 By faith *Jacob when he was a dying blessed both the sonnes of Ioseph, and **leaning* on the end of his staffe, worshipped God.

22 By faith *Ioseph when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel, and gaue commendement of his bones.

23 *By faith Moses, when he was borne, was hid three moneths of his parents, because they saw hee was a proper childe, neither feared they the Kings *commandement.

24 By faith *Moses when he was come to age, refused to be called the son of Pharaohs daughter, Exod. 2.2

25 And chose rather to suffer aduersitie with the people of God, then to enioy the pleasures of sinnes for a season, Exo. 2.11

26 Esteeming the rebuke of Christ greater riches then the treasures of Egypt: for he had respect vnto the recompence of the reward.

27 By faith he forsooke Egypt, and feared not the fiercenesse of the king: for hee endured, as hee that saw him which is inuisible.

28 Through faith he ordeined the *Passouer, Exod. 12. and the effusion of blood, lest he that destroyed the first borne, should touch them.

29 By faith they *passed thorow the red sea as Exod. 14. by drie land, which when the Egyptians had assayed to doe, they were drowned.

30 By faith the *walles of Iericho fell downe Iosh. 6.10 alter they were compassed about seuen dayes.

31 By faith the harlot *Rahab perished not with them which obeyed not, when **she* had receiued Iosh. 2.1 the spies peaceably.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time would be too short for me to tell *of Gedeon, *of Barac, and of *Samson, and of *Iephth, also of Iudg. 6.11 *David, and Samuel, and of the Prophets: Iudg. 4.6.

33 Which through faith subdued kingdomes, wrought, righteounesse, obtained the promises, Iudg. 11.1 stopped the mouthes of lions, and 12.7.

34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, of weak were made strong, and waxed valiant in battell, turned to flight the armies of the aliantes. 1 Sam. 17.

35 The women receiued their dead raised to life: others also were racked, and would not be deliuered, that they might receiue a better resurrection.

36 And others haue beene tried by mockings and scourgings, yea, moreouer by bonds and imprisonment.

37 They were stoned, they were hewen asunder, they were tempted, they were slain with the sword, they wandered vp and downe in shepes skinner, and in goats skinner, being destitute, afflicted, and tormented:

38 Whom the world was not worthy of: they wandered in wildernesses and mountaines, and dens, and caues of the earth.

39 And these all through faith obtained good report, and receiued not the promise, 40 God providing a better thing for vs, that they without vs should not be made perfect.

C H A P. XII.

1 An exhortation to bee patient and steadfast in trouble and aduersitie, vpon hope of everlasting reward. 25 A commendation of the new Testament aboue the old.

Where.

Rom. 6. 4. Wherefore,* let vs also, seeing that we are compassed with so great a cloud of witnesses, cast away every thing that presseth downe, and the sinne which hangeth so fast on: let vs runne with patience the race that is set before vs,

2 Looking vnto Iesus the authour and finisher of our faith, who for the ioy that was set before him, endured the crosse, and despised the shame, and is set at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 Consider therefore him that endured such speaking against sinners, lest ye should be wearied and faint in your mindes.

4 Ye haue not yet resisted vnto blood, struiuing against sinne.

5 And ye haue forgotten the consolation, which speaketh vnto you as vnto children, * My sonne, despise not the chastening of the Lord, neither faint when thou art rebuked of him.

6 For whom the Lord loueth hee chasteneth: and he scourgeth every sonne that he receiveth.

7 If yee endure chastening, God offereth himselfe vnto you as vnto sonnes: for what sonne is it whom the father chasteneth not?

8 If therefore ye be without correction, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sonnes.

9 Moreover, we haue had the fathers of our bodies, which corrected vs, and wee gaue them reuerence: should we not much rather be in subiection vnto the Father of spirits, that we might liue?

10 For they verely for a few dayes chastened vs after their owne pleasure: but he chasteneth vs for our profit, that wee might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be ioyous, but grievous: but afterward it bringeth the quiet fruit of righteousness vnto them, which are thereby exercised.

12 Wherefore lift vp your hands which hang downe, and your weak knees,

13 And make straight steps vnto your feete, lest that which is halting, be turned out of the way, but let it rather be healed.

14 * Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without the which no man shall see the Lord.

15 Take heede that no man fall away from the grace of God: let no roote of bitterness spring vp and trouble you, lest thereby many be defiled.

16 Let there be no fornicator, or profane person, as * Elau, which for a portion of meat solde his birthright.

17 * For ye know how that afterward also when he would haue inherited the blessing, he was reiecte: for he found no place to repentance, though he sought the blessing with teares.

18 For yee are not come vnto the * mount that might bee touched, nor vnto burning fire, nor to blacknesse, and darkenesse, and tempest,

19 Neither vnto the found of a trumpet, and the voice of words: which they that heard it, excused themselves, that the word should not be spoken to them any more.

20 (For they were not able to abide that which was commanded, * Yea, though a beast touch the mountaine, it shall be stoned, or thrust thorow with a dart:

21 And so terrible was the sight which appeared, that Moses said, I feare and quake)

22 But ye are come vnto the mount Sion, and to the citie of the liuing God, the celestiall Ierusalem, and to the company of innumerable Angels,

23 And to the congregation of the first borne, which are written in heauen, and to God the Iudge of all, and to the spirits of iust and perfect men,

24 And to Iesus the Mediator of the new Testament, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things then that of * Abel

25 See that ye despise not him that speaketh: for if they escape not, which refused him, that spake on earth: much more shall we not escape, if we turne away from him that speaketh from heauen.

26 Whose voice then shooke the earth, and now hath declared, saying, * Yet once more will I shake, Hea not the earth onely, but also heauen.

27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things which are shaken, as of things which are made with hands, that the things which are not shaken may remaine.

28 Wherefore seeing wee receiue a kingdom, which cannot be shaken, let vs haue grace, whereby we may forserue God, that we may please him with reuerence and feare.

29 For * euen our God is a consuming fire.

CHAP. XIII.

1 He exhorteth vs vnto loue, to hospitalitie, to thinke vpon such as be in aduersitie, to maintaine wedlocke, to avoid conuersion, to make much of them that preach Gods wordes, to beware of strange learning, to be content to suffer rebuke with Christ, to see thankfull vnto God, to be obedient vnto our gouernours.

2 Et * brotherly loue continue.

3 Be not forgetfull to ledge strangers: for thereby some haue * receiued Angels into their houses vnto waies.

4 Remember them that are in bonds, as though yee were bound with them: and them that are in affliction, as if yee were also afflicted in the body.

5 Marriage is honourable among all, and the bed vndefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will iudge.

6 Let your conuersation be without conuention, and be content with those things which yee haue: for he hath said, * I will not faile thee, neither forsake thee:

7 So that we may boldly say, * The Lord is my helper, neither will I feare what man can doe vnto me.

8 Remember them which haue the oversight of you, which haue declared vnto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering what hath bene the end of their conuersation.

9 Iesus Christ yesterday, and to day, the same also is for euer.

10 Be not caried about with diners and strange doctrine: for it is a good thing that the heart bee stablished with grace, and not with meates, which haue not profited them that haue been occupied therein.

11 We haue an altar whereof they haue no authoritie to eate which serue in the Tabernacle.

12 For the bodies of those beasts whose blood is brought into the holy place by the hie Priest for sinnes, are burnt without the campe.

13 Therefore euen Iesus, that he might sanctifie the people with his owne blood, suffered without the gate.

¶ THE EPISTLE GENERAL OF IAMES.

THE ARGUMENT.

Iames the Apostle and some of Alphaus wrote this Epistle to the Iewes which were converted to Christ, but dispersed thorowout diuers countreys, therefore hee exhorteth them to patience and prayer, to embrace the true word of God, and not to be partiall, neither to boast of auidel faith, but to declare a true faith by liuely fruits, to avoid ambition, to bridle the tongue, to rule the affections, to be humble, and loue their neighbours, to beware of swearing, to utter their faults when they haue offended, to pray one for another, and to bring him which is out of the way, to the knowledge of Christ.

CHAP. I.

1 He exhorteth to reioyce in trouble, & so be feruunt in prayer with stedfast beliefs, 17 to looke for all good things from above, 21 To forsake all vice, and thoughtfully to receive the word of God, 22 not only hearing it, and speaking of it, but to doe thereafte in deed. 27 What true Religion is.

IAMES a seruant of GOD and of the Lorde Iesus Christ, to the twelue tribes which are scattered abroade, salutation.

2 My brethren, count it exceeding ioy, when yee fall into diuers ¶ tentations.

3 *Knowing that the trying of your faith bringeth forth patience.

4 And let patience haue her perfect worke, that ye may be perfect, and entire, lacking nothing.

5 If any of you lacke wisdom, let him aske of God, which giueth to all men liberally, and reprocheth no man, and it shall be giuen him.

6 *But let him aske in faith, and wauer not: for he that wauereth, is like a waue of the sea tost of the winde, and caried away.

7 Neither let that man thinke that hee shall receiue any thing of the Lord.

8 A wauering minded man is vnsable in all his wayes.

9 Let the brother of low degree reioyce in that he is exalted:

10 Againe, hee that is rich, in that hee is made low: for as the flowre of the grasse, shall hee * vauish away.

11 For as when the Sunne ariseth with heat, then the grasse withereth & his flower falleth away, and the beauty of the fashion of it perisheth: euen so shall the rich man fade away ¶ in all his wayes.

12 *Blessed is, the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tryed, he shall receiue the crowne of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that loue him, 13 Let no man say when hee is ¶ tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with euill, neither tempteth he any man.

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away by his owne concupiscence, and is enticed.

15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sinne, and sinne when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Erre not, my deare brethren,

17 Euery good giuing, and euery perfect gift is from above, and cometh downe from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadowing by turning.

18 Of his owne wil begate he vs with the word of trueth, that we should be as the first fruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore my deare brethren, * let euery man be swift to heare, slow to speake, and slow to wrath.

20 For the wrath of man doeth not accomplish the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart al filthinesse, and superfluitie of maliciousnesse, and receiue with meeknesse the word that is grafted in you, which is able to saue your soules.

22 *And be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiuing your owne selues.

23 For, if any heare the word, and doe it not, he is like vnto a man that beholdeth his naturall face in a glasse:

24 For when he hath considered himselfe, he goeth his way, and forgetteth immediatly what manner of one he was.

25 But who so looketh in the perfect law of libertie, & continueth therein, he not being a forgetfull hearer, but a doer of the worke, shall be blessed in his deed.

26 If any man among you seemeth religious, and reframeth not his tongue, but deceiuet his owne heart, this mans religion is vaine.

27 Pure religion & vndefiled before God, euen the Father, is this, to visite the fatherlesse, and widowes in their aduersity, and to keepe himselfe vnspotted of the world.

C H A P. II.

1 Hee forbiddeth to haue any respect of persons, 5 but to regarde the poore as well as the rich, 8 to be loving and mercifull, 14 and not to boast of faith where no deeds are: 17 For it is but a dead faith, where good workes follow not.

27. ac-caption.

MY brethren, haue not the faith of our glorious Lord Iesus Christ in || respect of persons.

2 For if there come into your company a man with a gold ring, and in goodly apparell, and there come in also a poore man in vile raiment,

3 And yee haue a respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say vnto him, Sit thou here in a good place, and say vnto the poore, Saand thou there, or sit here vnder my footstoole,

4 Are ye not partial in your selues, and are become iudges of euill thoughts?

5 Hearken my beloued brethren, Hath not God chesed the poore of this world, that they should be rich in faith, and heires of the kingdome which he promised to them that loue him?

6 But ye haue despised the poore. Doe not the rich oppresse you by tyrannic, and doe not they draw you before the iudgement seates?

7 Doe not they blasphem the worthy Name after which ye be named?

8 But if ye fulfill the royall Law, according to the Scripture, which sayth, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe, ye doe well.

9 * But if yee regard the persons, yee commit sinne, and are rebuked of the Law, as transgressors, 10 For * whosoener shal keepe the whole Law, and yet faileth in one point, he is guiltie of all.

11 For hee that said, * Thou shalt not commit adultery, said also, Thou shalt not kill. Now though thou dost none adultery, yet if thou killest, thou art a transgressour of the Law.

12 So speake ye, and so doe, as they that shal be iudged by the Law of libertie.

13 For there shalbe iudgement mercifull to him that sheweth no mercie, and mercie reioyceth against iudgement.

14 What auaileth it, my brethren, though a man faith he hath faith, when he hath no workes? can the faith saue him?

15 For if a brother or a sister be * naked, and destitute of daily food, 16 And one of you say vnto them, Depart in peace: warme your selues, and fill your bellies: notwithstanding ye giue them not those things which are needfull to the body, what helpeth it?

17 Euen so the faith, if it haue no workes, is dead in it selfe.

18 But some man might say, Thou hast the faith and I haue workes: shew mee thy faith out of thy

[Or, with out workes workes.

19 Thou belonest that there is one God: thou doest well: the deuils also beleue it, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou vnderstand, O thou vaine man, that the faith which is without workes, is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father iustified thowrow workes, when hee offered Isaac his sonne vpon the altar?

22 Seest thou not that the faith wrought with his workes? and through the workes was the faith made perfect.

23 And the Scripture was fulfilled, which faith,

* Abraham beleueed God, and it was imputed vnto him for righteousnesse: and hee was called the friend of God.

24 Yee see then how that of workes a man is iustified, and not of faith onely.

25 Likewise also was not * Rahab the harlot iustified through workes, when shee had receiued the messengers, and sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, enen so the faith without workes is dead.

C H A P. III.

1 He forbiddeth all ambition to seeke honour among our brethren. 3 Hee describeth the propertie of the tongue, 15. 16 And what difference there is betwixt the wisdom of God, and the wisdom of the world.

MY brethren, bee not many masters, knowing that wee shall receiue the greater condemnation.

2 For in many things wee || sinne all. * If any man sinne not in word, hee is a perfect man, and able to bridle all the body.

3 Behold, we put bits into the horses mouthes, that they should obey vs, and wee turne about all their body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driuen of fierce windes, yet are they turned about with a very small rudder, whither soeuer the gouernour lusteth.

5 Euen so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth of great things: behold, how great a thing is a little fire kindleth,

6 And the tongue is fire, yet, a world of wickednesse: so is the tongue set among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature, and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For the whole nature of beasts, and of birds, and of creeping things, and things of the sea istamed, and hath bene tamed of the nature of man.

8 But the tongue can no man tame, it is an vnruely euill, full of deadly poyson.

9 Therewith blesse wee God euen the Father, and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of one mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing: my brethren, these things ought not so to bee.

11 Doeth a fountaine send forth at one place sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the figge tree, my brethren, bring forth olives, either a vine figs? so can no fountaine make both salt water and sweet.

13 Who is a wise man, and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew by good conseruation his workes in meekenesse of wisdom.

14 But if ye haue bitter enuying, & strife in your hearts, reioyce not, neither be liars against y<sup>e</sup> truth.

15 This wisdom descendeth not from aboue, but is earthly, sensuall, and deuilish.

16 For where enuying and strife is, there is sedition and all manner of euill workes.

17 But the wisdom that is from aboue, is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, easie to be intreated, full of mercie and good fruites, without iudging, and without hypocrisie.

18 And the fruit of righteousnesse is sown in peace, of them that make peace.

C H A P. IIII.

1 Having shewed the cause of all wrong and wickednesse, and also of all graces and goodnesse, he exhorteth them to loue God, 7 and submit themselves to him, 11 not speaking euill of their neighbours, 13 but patiently to depend on Gods providence.

From whence are warres and contentions among you? are they not hence, enem of your lusts, that fight in your members?

Ye lust, and haue not: yee enuy and haue indignation, and cannot obtayne: yee fight and warre, and get nothing, because ye aske not.

Yee aske, and receiue not, because yee aske amisse, that ye might consume it on your lusts.

Ye adulterers, and adulteresses, know yee not that the amitie of the world is the enmity of God? whoeuer therefore will be a friend of the world, maketh himselfe the enemy of God.

Doe yee thinke that the Scripture sayeth in vaine, The spirit that dwelleth in vs, lusteth after enuie?

But the Scripture offereth more grace, and therefore saith, * God resisteth the proud, and giueth grace to the humble.

* Submit your selues to God: resist the deuill, and he will flee from you.

Draw neere to God, and hee will draw neere to you. Cleanse your hands, yee sinners, and purge your hearts, ye wauering minded.

Suffer afflictions, and sorrow yee, and weepe: let your laughter be turned into mourning, & your joy into heauinesse.

* Cast down your selues before the Lord, and he will lift you vp.

Speake not euill one of another, brethren. He that speaketh euill of his brother, or hee that condemneth his brother, speaketh euill of the lawe, and condemneth the law: and if thou condemnest the law, thou art not an obseruer of the lawe, but a Iudge.

There is one Lawgiuer, which is able to saue, and to destroy. * Who art thou that iudgest another man?

Goe to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will goe into such a citie, and continue there a yeere, and buy and sell, and get gaine.

(And yet ye cannot tell what shall be to morrow. For what is your life? It is euen a vapour that appeareth for a litle time, and afterward vanisheth away)

For that ye ought to say, * If the Lord will, and, if we liue, we will doe this or that.

But now yee reioyce in your boastings: all such reioycing is euill.

Therefore to him that knoweth how to doe well, and doeth it not, to him it is sinne.

CHAP. V.

He threatneth the wicked rich men, 7 exhorteth vnto patience, 12 to beware of swearing, 16 one to knowledg his faults to another, 20 and one to labour to bring another to the truth.

Goe to now, ye rich men: weepe, and howle for your miseries that shall come vpon you.

Your riches are corrupt: and your garments are motheaten.

Your gold and silver is cankered, and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eate your flesh as it were fire. * Ye haue heaped vp treasure for the last daies.

Behold, the hire of the labourers, which haue reaped your fields (which is of you kept backe by fraud) cryeth, and the cries of them that haue reaped, are eured into the eares of the Lord of hostes.

Ye haue liued in pleasure on the earth, and in wantonnesse, Ye haue nourished your hearts as in a day of slaughter.

Ye haue condemned, and haue killed the iust, and he hath not resisted you.

Be patient therefore brethren, vnto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruite of the earth, and hath long patience for it, vntill he receiue the former, and the latter raine.

Be ye also patient therefore, and settle your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth neere.

Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the Iudge standeth before the doore.

Take, my brethren, the Prophets for an example of suffering aduersity, and of long patience, which haue spoken in the name of the Lord.

Behold, we count them blessed which indure. Yee haue heard of the patience of Iob, and haue known what end the Lord made. For the Lord is very pitifull and mercifull.

But before all things, my brethren, * sweare not, neither by heauen, nor by earth, nor by any other othe: but let your yea be yea, and your nay, lest ye fall into condemnation.

Is any among you afflicted? Let him pray. Is crisie, any merry? Let him sing.

Is any sicke among you? Let him call for the Elders of the Church, and let them pray for him, and anoynt him with oyle in the Name of the Lord.

And the prayer of faith shall saue the sicke, and the Lord shall raise him vp: and if hee haue committed sinne, it shall be forgiven him.

Acknowledge your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed: for the prayer of a righteous man availeth much, if it be feruent.

* Helias was a man subiect to like passions as we are, and hee prayed earnestly that it might not raine, and it rained not on the earth for three yeres and sixe moneths.

And hee prayed againe, and the heauen gaue raine, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

Brethren, if any of you haue erred from the truth, and some man hath conuerted him,

Let him know that he which hath conuerted the sinner from going astray out of his way, shall saue a soule from death, and shall hide a multitude of finnes.

THE FIRST EPISTLE

Generall of Peter.

THE ARGVMENT.

He exhorteth the faithfull to denie themselves, and to contemne the world, that being deliuered from all carnall affections and impediments, they may more speedily attaine to the heavenly kingdome of Christ, whereunto wee are called by the grace of God reuealed to us in his Sonne, and haue already receiued in faith, possessed possessed is by hope, and as therein confirmed by holinesse of life. And to the intent this faith should not faint, for we Christ condemned and reuelled almost of the whole world, he declareth that this is nothing els but the accomplishing of the Scriptures, which testifie that he should be the stumbling stone to the reprobate, and the sure foundation of saluation to the faithfull: therefore hee exhorteth them conragiously to goe forward, considering what they were, and to what dignitie God hath called them. After he intreateth particular points teaching subtile how to obey their governors, and seruants their masters, and how married folks ought to behaue the wifely. And because it is appointed for all that are godly, to suffer persecutions, he sheweth them what good issue their afflictions shall haue, and comforteth with promise that God reserueth for the wicked. Last of all, he teacheth how the ministers ought to behaue themselves, forbidding them to vsurpe authoritie ouer the Church: also that young men ought to be modest, and apt to learne, and so enaeth with an exhortation.

Kkk

CHAP. I.

2 He sheweth that through the abundant mercie of God we are elect, & regenerate to a liuely hope, and how faith must be tried, 10 that the saluation in Christ is no newes, but a thing prophesied of old. 13 He exhorteth them to a godly conuersation, so much as they are now borne anew by the word of God.

Eter an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to the strangers that dwell heere and there thorowout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,

2 Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father vnto sanctification of the Spirit [through obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Iesus Christ: Grace and peace bee multiplied vnto you.]

3 *Blessed be God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercie hath begotten vs againe vnto a liuely hope by the resurrection of Iesus Christ from the dead,

4 To an inheritance immortal & vndefiled, and that faderth not away, reserued in heauen for you,

5 Which are kept by the power of God throw faith vnto saluation, which is prepared to bee shewed in the last time:

6 Wherein yee reioyce, though now for a season (if neede require) yee are in heauinesse, through manifold tentations,

7 That the trial of your faith being much more precious then gold that perisheth (though it be tried with fire) might bee found vnto your praise, and honour, and glory at the appearing of Iesus Christ:

8 Whom yee haue not seene, and yet loue him, in whom now, though ye see him not, yet doe you beleene, and reioice with ioy vspeakable and glorious,

9 Receiving the ende of your faith, euen the saluation of your soules.

10 Of the which saluation the Prophets haue enquired and searched, which prophesied of the grace that should come vnto you, 11 Searching when or what time the Spirit which testified before of Christ which was in them, should declare the sufferings that should come vnto Christ, and the glory that should follow.

12 Vnto whome it was reuealed, that not vnto themselves, but vnto vs they should minister the things which are now shewed vnto you by them which *haue preached vnto you the Gospel by the holy Ghost sent downe from heauen, the which things the Angels desire to behold.

13 Wherefore, gird vp the *loynes of your mind: be sober, and trust perfectly on the grace that is brought vnto you, by the reuelation of Iesus Christ.

14 As obedient children, not fashioning your selues vnto the former lusts of your ignorance:

15 But as he which hath called you is holy, so be holy in *all manner of conuersation, and 19 2. 16 Because it is writton, *Bee ye holy, for I am holy.

17 And if yee call him Father, which without respect of person iudgeth according to euery mans worke, passe the time of your dwelling heere in feare,

18 Knowing that yee were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and golde, from your vaine conseruation, receiued by the traditions of the fathers,

19 *But with the precious blood of Christ, of a lambe vndefiled, and without spot,

20 Which was *ordemed before the foundation of the world, but was declared in the last times for your sakes, 21 Which by this meanes doe beleene in God that raised him from the dead, and gaue him glory, that your faith and hope might be in God.

22 Seeing your foules are purified in obeying the truth through the Spirit, to *loue brotherly without faining, loue one another with a pure heart, feruently,

23 Being borne anew, not of mortall seede, but of immortal, by the word of God who liueth and endureth for euer:

24 For all *flesh is as grasse, and all the glory of man is as the floure of grasse. The grasse withereth, and the floure falleth away.

25 But the word of the Lord endureth for euer: and this is the word which is preached among you,

CHAP. II.

1 He exhorteth them to lay aside all vice, shewing that Christ is the foundation whereupon they build. 9 The excellent estate of the Christians. 11 He praiseth them to abstaine from fleshly lusts. 13 To obey the rulers. 18 How seruants should behaue themselves toward their masters. 20 He exhorteth to suffer after the ensample of Christ.

Wherefore, *laying aside all malicioufnes, and all guile and dissimulation, and enue, and all euill speaking,

2 As new borne babes desire the sincere milke of the word, that they may grow thereby,

3 If so be that yee haue tasted how bounefull the Lord is.

4 To whom ye come as vnto a liuing stone disallowed of men, but chosen of God, and precious.

5 And ye as liuely stones, bee made a spiritual house, an holy *Priesthood to offer vp spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God by Iesus Christ.

6 Wherefore it is contained in the Scripture, *Behold, I put in Zion a chiefe corner stone, elect and precious: and hee that beleueth therein, shall not be ashamed.

7 Vnto you therefore which beleene, it is precious, but vnto them which bee disobedient, the *stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

8 And a *stone to stumble at, and a rocke of offence, euen to them which stumble at the word being disobedient, vnto the which thing they were enen ordigned,

9 But yee are a chosen generation, a royall Priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people, that ye should shewe forth the vertues of him that hath called you out of darknes into his marvellous light,

10 * Which in time past were not a people, yet now the people of God, which in time past were not vnder mercie, but now haue obtained mercie.

11 Dearly beloued, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, * abstaine from fleshly lusts, which fight against the soule.

12 * And haue your conuersation honest among the Gentiles, that they which speake euill of you as of euill doers, may by your good woorkes which they shall see, glorifie God in the day of the visitation.

13 * Submit your selues vnto all manner ordinance of man for the Lords sake, whether it be vnto the King as vnto the superiour, 14 Or vnto gouernours, as vnto them that are sent of him, for the punishment of euill doers, and for the praise of them that doe well.

15 For so is the will of God, that by well doing yee may put to silence the ignorance of the foolish men, 16 As free, and not as hauing the libertie for a cloke of malicioufnes, but as the seruants of God.

17 Honour all men: * loue brotherly fellowship: feare God: honour the King.

18 * Seruants, bee subiect to your masters with all feare, not onely to the good and courteous, but also to the froward.

19 * For this is thankeworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grieue, suffering wrongfully.

20 For what praise is it, if when ye be buffetted for your faults, ye take it patiently: but and if when ye doe well, yee suffer wrong and take it patiently, this is acceptable to God.

21 For hereunto are yee called: for Christ also suffered for vs, leauing vs an example that ye should follow his steps.

22 * Who did no sinne, neither was there guile found in his mouth.

23 Who when hee was reuiled, reuiled not againe. when he suffered, he threatened not, but committed it to him that iudgeth righteously.

24 * Who his owne selfe bare our sinnes in his body on the tree, that wee being deliuered from sinne, should liue in righteoufnes, by whose stripes ye were healed.

25 For yee were as sheepe going astray: but are now returned vnto the Shepheard and Bishop of your soules.

CHAP. III.

1 How wines ought to orde themselves toward their husbands, 3 and in their apparell. 7 The duty of men toward their wines. 8 Hee exhorteth all men to vniue and loue, 14 and patiently to suffer trouble by the example and benedict of Christ.

1 Likewise * let the wines bee subiect to their husbands, that euen they which obey not the word may without the word be wonne by the conuersation of the wines,

2 While they behold your pure conuersation, which is with feare.

3 * Whose apparelling, let it not be outward, as with broided haire, and golde put about, or in putting on of apparell:

4 But let the hidden man of the heart be vnecorrupt, with a meeke and quiet spirit, which is before God a thing much set by.

5 For euen after this manner in time past did the holy women which trusted in God, tire themselves, and were subiect to their husbands.

6 As Sara obeyed Abraham, and * called him Sir: whose daughters ye are, whiles yee doe well, not being afraid of any terrour.

7 * Likewise ye husbands, dwell with them as men of knowledge, giuing honor vnto the woman, as vnto the weaker vessel, euen as they which are heires together of the grace of life, that your prayers be not interrupted.

8 Finally, be ye all of one mind: one suffer with another: loue as brethren: be pitifull: be courteous.

9 * Not rendering euill for euill, neither rebaue for rebuke: but contrariwise, bleffe, knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should be heires of blessing.

10 * For if any man after life, and to see good dayes, let him restraîne his tongue from euill, and his lips that they speake no guile.

11 * Let him eschew euill and doe good: let him seeke peace, and follow after it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are ouer the righteous, and his eares are open vnto their prayers: and the face of the Lord is vpon them that doe euill.

13 And who is it that will harme you, if ye follow that which is good?

14 * Notwithstanding, blessed are ye, if ye suffer for righteousefles sake. Yea, feare not their feare, neither be troubled.

15 * But sanctifie the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready alwayes to giue an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you,

16 * And that with meekefnesse and reuerence, hauing a good conscience, that when they speake euill of you, as of euill doers, they may be ashamed, which blame your good conuersation in Christ.

17 For it is better (if the will of God be so) that ye suffer for well doing then for euill doing.

18 * For Christ also hath once suffered for sinnes: the iust for the vniuist, that hee might bring vs to God, and was put to death concerning the flesh, but was quickened in the spirit.

19 By the which also he went and preached vnto the spirits that are in prison, 20 Which were in time past disobedient, when once the long suffering of God abode in the dayes of Noe, whiles the Arke was preparing: wherein few, that is, eight soules were saued in the water.

21 To the which also the figure that now saucth vs, euen Baptisme agreeth (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but in that a good conscience maketh request to God) by the resurrection of Iesus Christ, 22 Which is * at the right hand of God, gone into heauen: to whom the Angels, and powers, and might are subiect.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth men to cease from sinne, 2 to spend no more time in vice, 7 to be sober and apt to pray, 8 to loue each other, 12 to be patient in trouble, 15 to beware that no man suffer as an euill doer, 16 but as a Christian man, and so not to be ashamed.

Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for vs in the flesh, arme your selues likewise with the same mind which is, that he which hath suffered in the flesh, hath ceased from sinne,

2 That he henceforward should liue (as much time as remaineth in the flesh) not after the lusts of men, but after the will of God.

3 * For it is sufficient for vs that wee haue spent the time past of the life, after the lust of the Gentiles, walking in wantonnesse, lustes, drunkenesse, in gluttonie, drinkings, and in abominable idolatries,

4 Wherein it seemeth to them strange, that ye runne not with them vnto the same excellē of riot: therefore speake they euill of you :

5 Which shall giue accounts to him, that is ready to iudge quicke and dead.

6 For vnto this purpose was the Gospel preached also vnto the dead, that they might bee condemned according to men in the flesh, but might liue according to God in the spirit.

7 Now the end of all things is at hand, Bee yee therefore sober, and watching in prayer.

8 But aboue all things haue seruent loue among you : * for loue couereth the multitude of sinnes.

9 * Bee yee harberous one to another without grudging.

10 * Let euery man as he hath receiued the gift, minister the same one to another, as good disposers of the manifold grace of God.

11 If any man speake, let him talke as the words of God, If any man minister, let him doe it as of the ability which God ministreth, that God in all things may be glorified through Iesus Christ, to whom is praife and dominion for euer and euer, Amen.

12 Dearly beloued, thinke it not strange concerning the fiery triall which is among you, to proue you, as though some strange thing were come vnto you :

13 But reioice in as much as ye are partakers of Christs sufferings, that when his glory shal appeare, ye may be glad and reioyce.

14 * If ye be railed vpon for the Name of Christ, blessed are yee : for the spirit of glory, and of God, resteth vpon you : which on their part is euill spoken of : but on your part is glorified.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thiefe, or an euill doer, or as a busie body in other mens matters.

16 But if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed : but let him glorifie God in this behalfe.

17 For the time is come, that Iudgement must begin at the * house of God. If the first begin at vs, what shall the end be of them which obey not the Gospel of God ?

18 * And if the righteous scarcely bee saved, where shall the vngodly and the sinner appeare ?

19 Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God, commit their soules to him in well doing, as vnto a faithfull Creator.

CHAP. V.

2 The duty of pastors is to feed the flocke of Christ, and what reward they shall haue if they be diligent. 3 He exhorteth yong persons to submit themselues to the Elders, & to be sober, and to watch, that they may resist the enemy.

The Elders which are among you, I beseech, which am also an Elder, and a witnesse of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shal be revealed,

2 Feed the flocke of God, which dependeth vpon you, caring for it not by constraint, but willingly : not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind :

3 Not as though ye were lords ouer Gods heritage, but that ye may be examples to the flocke,

4 And when the chiefe shepheard shal appeare, ye shall receiue an incorruptible crowne of glory.

5 Likewise ye yonger, submit your selues vnto the Elders, and submit your selues euery man one to another : * decke your selues inwardly in lowlinesse of minde: for God * reuifeth the proud, and giueth grace to the humble.

6 Humble * your selues therefore vnder the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time.

7 * Cast all your care on him : for he careth for you.

8 Be sober and watch: for your * aduersary deuill as a roaring lyon, walketh about, seeking whom he may deuoure :

9 Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren which are in the world.

10 And the God of all grace, which hath called vs vnto his eternall glory by Christ Iesus, after that ye haue suffered a litle, make you perfect, confirme, strengthen, and stablish you.

11 To him be glory and dominion for euer, and euer. Amen.

12 By Siluanus a faithfull brother vnto you, as I suppose, haue I written briefly, exhorting and testifying how that this is the true grace of God where in ye stand.

13 The Church that is at Babylon elected toge, ther with you, salute you, and Marcus my sonne.

14 Greete yee one another with the * kisse of loue. Peace be with you all which are in Christ Iesus, Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE
Generall of Peter.

THE ARGUMENT.

THE effect of the Apostle here is to exhort them which haue once professed the true faith of Christ, to stand to the same vnto the last breath: also that God by his effectuall grace towards men, moueth them to holinesse of life, in punishing the hypocrites which abuse his name, and in increasing his gifts in the goodly: wherefore by godly life, he being now at the doore of death, exhorteth them to approve their vocation, not setting their affections on worldly things (as hee had oft written vnto them) but lifting their eyes toward heauen, as they be taught by the Gospel, whereof he is a cleare witnesse, chiefly in that hee heard with his owne eares that Christ was proclaimed from heauen to be the Sonne of God, as likewise the Prophets testified. And lest they should promise to themselues quietnesse by professing the Gospel, hee warneth them both of troubles which they should sustaine by the false teachers, and also by the mockers and censurers of Religion, whose manners and trade hee liuely setteth forth as in a table: aduersifying the faithfull not onely to waite diligently for Christ, but also to behold presently the day of his coming, and to preserve themselues vnspotted against the same.

C H A P. I.

¶ Forasmuch as the power of God hath giuen them all things pertaining vnto life, he exhorteth them to flee the corruptio of worldly lusts, 10 to make their calling sure with good works, and fruits of faith. 14 He maketh mention of his owne death, 17 declaring the Lord Iesus to bee the true Sonne of God, as hee himselfe had ſene vpon the mount.

Simon Peter a seruant and an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to you which haue obtained like precious faith with vs by the righteousnes of our God and Saviour Iesus Christ :

2 Grace and peace be multiplied to you, by the knowledge of God, and of Iesus our Lord,

3 According as his godly power hath giuen vnto vs all things that pertaine vnto life and godlines, through the knowledge of him that hath called vs ¶ vnto glory and vertue.

4 Whereby most great, and precious promises are giuen vnto vs, that by them ye should be partakers of the godly nature, in that ye flee the corruption, which in the world through lust.

5 Therefore giue euen all diligence therunto: ioyne moreouer vertue with your faith : and with vertue, knowledge:

6 And with knowledge, temperance; and with temperance, patience: and with patience, godliness:

7 And with godlinesse, brotherly kindness: and with brotherly kindnesse, loue.

8 For if these things be among you, & abound, they will make you that yee neither shall be idle, nor fruitfull in the knowledge of our Lord Iesus Christ.

9 For he that hath not these things, is blinde, and cannot see larre off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old finnes.

10 Wherefore, brethren, giue rather diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall neuer fall.

11 For by this meanes an entring shall be ministered vnto you abundantly, into the euermlasting kingdome of our Lord and Saviour Iesus Christ.

12 Wherefore, I will not be negligent to put you alwayes in remembrance of these things, though that yee haue knowledge, and be established in the present truth.

13 For I thinke it meete as long as I am in this tabernacle, to irrite you vp by putting you in remembrance, 14 Seeing I know that the time is at hand that I must lay downe this my tabernacle, euen as our Lord Iesus Christ hath shewed me.

15 I will endeavour therefore alwayes, that yee also may be able to haue remembrance of these things after my departing.

16 For wee followed not ¶ deceiueable fables when wee opened vnto you the power & comming of our Lord Iesus Christ, but with our eyes we saw his Maiestie :

17 For hee receiued of God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voyce to him from the excellent Glory. ¶ This is my beloued Sonne, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voyce we heard when it came from heauen, being with him in the holy Mount.

19 Wee haue also a most sure word of the Prophets, to the which yee doe well that yee take heed, as vnto a light that shineth in a darke place, vntill the day dawne, and the day starre arise in your hearts.

20 ¶ So that ye first know this, that no prophetic in the Scripture is of any priuate motion.

¶ Or, m.

21 For the prophetic came not in old time by the will of man, but holy men of God spake as they were moued by the holy Ghost.

C H A P. II.

He prophesieth of false teachers, and sheweth their punishment.

¶ Vt ¶ there were false prophets also among the people, euen as there shall be false teachers among you : which priuily shall bring in damnable heresies, euen denying the Lord, that hath bought them, & bring vpon themselves swift damnation.

2 And many shall folow their damnable waies, by whom the way of truth shall be euill spoken of, by whom the way of truth shall be euill spoken of,

3 And through couetousnesse shall they with fained wordes make merchandise of you, whose iudgement long agoe is not farre off, and their damnation sleepeth not.

4 For if God spared not the ¶ Angels that had sinned, but cast them downe into hell, and deliuered them into chaines of darknesse, to be kept vnto damnation :

5 Neither hath spared the old world, but saved ¶ Noe the eight person a preacher of righteousnes, and brought in the flood vpon the world of the vngodly,

6 And ¶ turned the cities of Sodome and Gomorreh into ashes, condemned them & ouerthrew them, and made them an ensample vnto them that after should liue vngodly,

7 ¶ And deliuered iust Lot vexed with the vncleanse conuersation of the wicked,

8 (For he being righteous, and dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soule from day to day, with their vnlawfull deeds)

9 The Lord knoweth to deliuer the godly out of temptation, and to reterue the vniuſt vnto the day of Iudgement to be punished :

10 And chiefly them that walke after the flesh, in the lust of vncleannes, and despise ¶ gouernment, which are presumptuous, and stand in their owne conceit, and feare not to speake euill of them that are in dignitie.

11 Whereas the Angels which are greater both in power and might, ¶ giue not railing iudgement against them before the Lord.

12 But these as brut beasts, led with sensualitye, and made to be taken and destroyed, speake euill of those things which they know not, and shall perish through their owne corruption,

13 And shall receiue the wages of vnrighteousnesse, as they which count it pleasure to liue deliciouſly for a season. Spots they are and blots, deliting themselves in their deceiuings, in feasting with you,

14 Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease to sinne, beguiling vnfayſtable ſoules : they haue hearts exercised with couetousnes, cursed children :

15 Which forsaking the right way, haue gone astray, following the way of ¶ Balaam, the sonne of Boſor, which loued the wages of vnrighteousnes, 16 But he was rebuked for his iniquitie : for he dumme and speaking with mans voice, forbad the foolishnesse of the Prophet.

17 ¶ These are wel without water, and cloudes carried about with a tempest, to whom the blacke darkenesse is reserved for euer.

18 For in speaking swelling wordes of vanitie, they beguile with wantonnesse through the lusts of the flesh, them that were cleane escaped from them which are wrapped in error,

19 Promising vnto them liberty, and are themselves

II. Peter.

The manner of Iudgement.

John 8. felues the *seruants of corruption: for of whom sooner a man is ouercome, quen vnto the same is he in bondage.

34. 100. 20 *For if they, after they haue escaped from the fi lthinesse of the world, through the knowledge of the Lorde, and of the Saujour Iesus Christ, are yet tangled againe therein, and ouercome, the latter end is worke with them then the beginning.

Mat. 12. 21 For it had bene better for them, not to haue knowne the way of righteounesse, then after they haue knowen it, to turne from the holy & commandement giuen vnto them.

As hebr. 22 But it is come vnto them according to the true prouerbe, * The dog is returned to his owne vomit: and, The sow that was washed, to the wallowing in the mire.

CHAP. III.

3 He sheweth the suipety of them, which mocke at Gods promyses. 7 After what sort the end of the world shalbe. 8 That they prepare themselves therunto. 16 Who they are which abuse the writings of Saint Paul, and thereof the Scriptures: 18 Concluding with eternal thanks to Christ Iesus.

THis second Epistle I nowe write vnto you beloued, wherewith I flirte vp, and warne your pure mindes,

2 To call to remembrance the wordes, which were told before of the holy Prophets, and also the commandement of vs the Apostles of the Lord and Saujour.

3 * This first vnderstand, that there shall come in the last dayes, mockers, which will walke after their lusts.

4 And say, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers died, all things continue alike from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly know not, that the heauens were of old, & the earth that was of the water, and by the water, by the word of God.

6 Wherefore the world that then was, perished, ouerflowed with the water.

7 But the heauens and earth which are now, are kept by the same word to store, and reserved vnto fire against the day of iudgment, and of the destruction of vngodly men.

8 Dearly beloued, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord, * as a thousand yeres, and a thousand yeres as one day.

9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise (as some men count slacknes) but it patient toward vs, and * would haue no man to perish, but would haue all men to come to repentance.

10 * But the day of the Lord will come as a theefe 34. in the night, in the which the heauens shall passe a way with a noyse, and the elements shall melt with heat, and the earth with the works that are therein, shall be burnt vp.

11 Seeing therefore that all these things must be dissolved, what manner persons ought yee to be in holy conseruation and godlinesse, 12 Looking for, and hasting vnto the coming of the day of God, by the which the heauens being on fire shalbe dissolved, and the elements shal melt with heat?

13 But wee looke for * new heauens, and a new earth, according to his promise, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloued, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent, that yee may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blamelesse.

15 * And suppose that the long suffering of our Lord is saluation, euen as our beloued brother Paul according to the wisdome giuen vnto him wrote vnto you, 16 As one, that in all his Epistles speaketh of these things; among the which some things are hard to be vnderstood, which they that are vnelearned and vnstable * peruert as they doe also other Scriptures vnto their owne destruction.

17 Ye therefore beloued, seeing ye know these things before, beware, lest ye be also plucked away with the error of the wicked, and fall from your owne stedfastnesse.

18 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saujour Iesus Christ: to him be glory both now and for euermore, A M E N.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERALL of Iohn.

THE ARGVMENT.

After that S. Iohn had sufficiently declared how that our whole saluation doeth consist onely in Christ, let as that any man should thereby take a boldnesse to sinne, he sheweth that no man can beleene in Christ, vnlesse he doth and vouch himselfe to keepe his Commandments: which thing being done, he exhorteth them to beware of false prophets, whom he callith Antichrists, and to trie the spirits. Last of all he doth earnestly exhort them vnto brotherly loue, and to beware of deceiuers.

CHAP. I.

2 True witness of the euerlasting word of God. 7 The blood of Christ is the purgation of sinne. 10 No man is without sinne.

THat which was from the beginning, which we haue heard, which we haue seene with our eyes, which wee haue looked vpon, and our handes haue handled of the Word of life,

3 (For the life appeared, and we haue seene it, and beare witness, and shew vnto you the eternall life which was with the Father, and appeared vnto vs)

3 That, I say, which we haue seene and heard, declare we vnto you, that ye may also haue fellowship with vs, and that our fellowship also may be with the father, and with his Sonne Iesus Christ.

4 And these things write we vnto you, that your ioy may be full.

5 This then is the message, which wee haue heard of him, and declare vnto you, that God * is light, and in him is no darknesse.

6 If wee say that wee haue fellowship with him, and walke in darknesse, wee lye, and doe not truly.

7 But if wee walke in the light, as hee is in the light, wee haue fellowship one with another, and * the blood of Iesus Christ his Sonne cleanseth vs from all sinne.

8 * If we say that we haue no sinne, we deceiue our selues, and truth is not in vs.

9 If we acknowledge our sinnes, he is faithful and iust to forgiue vs our finnes, and to cleanse vs from all vnrighteousnesse.

10 If we say we haue not sinned, we make him a lyar, and his word is not in vs.

C H A P. II.

1 Christ is our aduocate. 10 Of true loue and how it is tried. 18 To beware of Antichrist.

MY babes, these things write I vnto you, that ye sinne not: and if any man sinne, we haue an Aduocate with the Father, Iesus Christ, the iust.

2 And hee is the reconciliation for our finnes: and not for ours onely, but also for the finnes of the whole world.

3 And hereby we are sure that we know him, if we keepe his Commandements.

4 Hee that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his Commandements, is a lyar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But hee that keepeth his word, in him is the loue of God perfect indeed: hereby we know that we are in him.

6 He that saith, he remaineth in him, ought euen so to walke, as he hath walked.

7 Brethren, I write no new [commandement vnto you: but an old Commandement, which ye haue had from the beginning: the olde Commandement is the word, which ye haue heard from the beginning.

8 Again, a new Commandement I write vnto you, that which is true in him, and also in you: for the darkenesse is past, and the true light now shineth.

9 He that saith that he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darknesse vntill this time.

10 * He that loveth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of euill in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother is in darknesse, and walketh in darknesse, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darknesse hath blinded his eyes.

12 Little children, I write vnto you, because your finnes are forgiven you for his Names sake.

13 I write vnto you, Fathers, because yee haue known him that is from the beginning: I write vnto you, young men, because yee haue overcome the wicked.

14 I write vnto you, babes, because yee haue known the Father. I haue written vnto you, fathers, because ye haue known him that is from the beginning. I haue written vnto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye haue overcome the wicked.

15 Loue not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man loue the world, the loue of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world (as the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life) is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that fulfilleth the will of God, abideth euer.

18 Babes, it is the last time, and as ye haue heard that Antichrist shall come, euen now are there many Antichrists: whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: for if they had bene of vs, they would haue continued with vs. But this cometh to passe, that it might appeare, that they are not all of vs.

20 But yee haue an oymntment from him that is holy, and ye haue knownen all things.

21 I haue not written vnto you, because ye know not the truth: but because yee know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 Who is a lyar, but he that denieth that Iesus is Christ? the same is the Antichrist that denieth the Father and the Sonne.

23 Whosoever denieth the Sonne, the same hath not the Father.

24 Let therefore abide in you the same which ye haue heard from the beginning. If that which ye haue heard from the beginning, shall remaine in you, ye shall also continue in the Sonne, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that he hath promised vs, euen eternall life.

26 These things haue I written vnto you, concerning them that deceiue you.

27 But the anointing which ye receiued of him, dwelleth in you: and yee neede not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and it is true and is not lying, and as it taught you, ye shall abide in him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him, that when he shall appeare, we may be bold, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 If yee know that hee is righteous, know yee that he which doeth righteously is borne of him.

C H A P. III.

1 The singular loue of God towards vs, 7 and how we againe ought to loue one another.

BEhold, what loue the Father hath shewed on vs that we should be called the sonnes of God: for this cause the world knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.

2 Dearly beloued, now are wee the sonnes of God, but yet it doeth not appeare what we shall be: and we know that when he shall appeare, we shall be like him: for we shall see him as he is.

3 And every man that hath this hope in him, purgeth himselfe, euen as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sinne, transgresseth also the Law: for sinne is the transgression of the Law.

5 And ye know that he appeared that he might take away our finnes, and in him is no sinne.

6 Whosoever abideth in him, sinneth not: whosoever sinneth, hath not seene him, neither hath knownen him.

7 Little children, let no man deceiue you: hee that doeth righteoulnesse, is righteous, as he is righteous.

8 He that committeth sinne, is of the deuill: for the deuill sinneth from the beginning: for this purpose appeared the Sonne of God, that he might loofe the works of the deuill.

9 Whosoever is borne of God, sinneth not: for his seed remaineth in him, neither can he sinne, because he is borne of God.

10 In this are the children of God knownen, and the children of the deuill: whosoever doeth not righteoulnesse is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 For this is the message, that yee heard from the beginning, that we should loue one another, 12 Not as Cain which was of the wicked, and slew his brother: and wherefore slew he him? because his owne workes were euill, and his brothers good.

13 Marueille not, my brethren, though the world hate you.

14 We know that we are translated from death vnto life, because we loue the brethren: * he that loueth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 Whosoener hateth his brother, is a manslayer: and ye know that no manslayer hath eternal life abiding in him.

16 * Hereby haue wee perceiued loue, that hee layed downe his life for vs: therefore wee ought also to lay downe our liues for the brethren.

17 * And whosoever hath this worlds good, and seeth his brother haue neede, and shutteth vp his compassion from him, how dwelleth the loue of God in him?

18 My little children, let vs not loue in worde, neither in tongue onely, but in deed and in truth.

19 For thereby wee know that wee are of the truth, and shall before him assure our hearts.

20 For if our heart condemne vs, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, then haue we boldnesse toward God:

22 * And whatsoeuer we ask, we receiue of him, because wee keepe his Commandements, and doe those things which are pleasing in his sight.

23 * This is then his Commandement, That we beleue in the Name of his Sonne Iesus Christ, and loue one another, as he gaue Commandement.

24 * For he that keepeth his Commandements, dwelleth in him, and hee in him. and hereby wee knowe that hee abideth in vs, euen by the Spirit, which he hath giuen vs.

CHAP. III.

1 Difference of spirits, 2 How the Spirit of God may be knowne from the spirit of error. 7 Of the loue of God and of our neighbours.

Dearely beloued, beleue not euery spirit, but trie the spirits whether they are of God: for many false Prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby shall yee know the Spirit of God. Euery spirit that confesseth that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

3 And euery Spirit which confesseth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: but this is the spirit of Antichrist, of whom yee haue heard, how that he should come, and now already he is in the world.

4 Little children, ye are of God, and haue overcome them: for greater is he that is in you, then he that is in the world.

5 They are of the world, therefore speake they of the world, and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God, * he that knoweth God, heareth vs: he that is not of God, heareth vs not. Hereby know wee the Spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloued, let vs loue one another: for loue commeth of God, and euery one that loueth is borne of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loueth not, knoweth not God: for God is loue.

9 * In this appeared the loue of God toward vs, because God sent his onely begotten Sonne into the world, that we might liue through him.

10 Herein is loue, not that wee loued God, but that he loued vs, and sent his Sonne to be a reconciliation for our sinnes.

11 Beloued, if God so loued vs, wee ought also to loue one another.

12 * No man hath scene God at any time. If we loue one another, God dwelleth in vs, and his loue is perfect in vs.

13 Hereby know we, that we dwell in him, and he in vs: because he hath giuen vs of his Spirit.

14 And we haue scene and doctefifie, that the Father sent his Sonne to be the Sauour of the world.

15 Whosoever confesseth that Iesus is the Sonne of God, in him dwelleth God, and he in God.

16 And we haue knownen, and beleuened the loue that God hath in vs: God is loue, & he that dwelleth in loue, dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is the loue perfect in vs, that we should haue boldnesse in the day of Iudgement: for as he is, euen so are we in this world.

18 There is no feare in loue, but perfect loue casteth out feare: for feare hath painfullnesse: and he that feareth, is not perfect in loue.

19 We loue him, because he loued vs first.

20 If any man say, I loue God, and hate his brother, he is a liar: for how can he that loueth not his brother whom he hath scene, loue God whom he hath not scene?

21 * And this Commandement haue we of him, that hee that loueth God, should loue his brother also.

CHAP. V.

1. 10. 13 Of the fruits of faith. 14. 20 The Office, authoritie, and diuinitie of Christ. 21 Against Images.

Whosoever beleueneth that Iesus is the Christ, is borne of God, and euery one that loueth him which begate, loueth him also which is begotten of him.

2 In this we know that we loue the children of God, when we loue God, and keepe his Commandements.

3 For this is the loue of God, that we keepe his Commandements: and his * Commandements are not grieuous.

4 For all that is borne of God, ouercommeth the world: and this is the victorie that ouercometh the world, euen our faith.

5 * Who is it that ouercommeth the world, but he which beleueneth that Iesus is the Son of God?

6 Thus is that Iesus Christ that came by water and blood, not by water onely, but by water and blood. and it is the Spirit that beareth witness, for the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three, which beare record in heauen, the Father, the Word, and the holy Ghost: and these three are one.

8 And there are three, which beare record in the earth, the Spirit, and the Water, and the Blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we receiue the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God, which he testified of his Sonne.

10 * He that beleueth in the Son of God, hath the witness in himselfe: he that beleueth not God, hath made him a liar, because he beleueth not the record that God witnessed of his Sonne.

11 And this is the record that God hath giuen vnto vs eternal life, and this life is in his Sonne.

12 He that hath the Sonne, hath life: and hee that hath not the Sonne of God, hath not life.

13 These things haue I written vnto you that beleue in the Name of the Sonne of God, that ye may know that yee haue eternal life, and that yee may beleue in the Name of the Sonne of God.

14 And this is the assurance that we haue in him, * that if we aske any thing according to his will, he heareth vs.

15 And if we know that he heareth vs, what-

For we aske, we know that we haue the petitions that we haue desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sinne a sinne that is not vnto death, let him aske, & he shall giue him life for them that sinne not vnto death. * There is a sinne vnto death: I say not that thou shouldest die for it.

17 All vnrighteousnesse is sinne, but there is a sinne not vnto death.

18 We know that whosoever is borne of God, finneſh not : but hee that is begotten of God, keepeth himſelfe, and the wicked toucheth him not.

19 We know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickednesse.

20 But wee knowe that the Sonne of God is * come, and hath giuen vs a minde to know him Luke 24.
which is true: and we are in him, that is true, ibid 45.
is in his Sonne Iesus Christ: this same is very God, and eternall life.

21 Babes,keepe your selues from idoles. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE
of Iohn.

He writeth vnto a certaine Ladie, 4 reioicing that her children walke in the truthe, 5 and exhor-teth them vnto loue, 7 warneth them to beware of such deceiuers as denie that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, 8 prayeth them to continue in the doctrine of

THE GENERAL EPISTLE of Iude.

THE ARGUMENT.

Saint Iude admonisheth all Churches generally to take heed of deceivers, which goe about to drawe away the hearts of the simple people from the truth of God, and willett them to have no societie with such, whom hee setteth forth in their lively colours, shewing by diuers examples of the Scriptures what horrible vengeance is prepared for them: finally, he comforteth the faithfull, and exhorteth them to perseuere in the doctrine of the Apostles of Iesus Christ.

I Vde a seruant of Iesus Christ, and brother of Iames, to them which are called and sanctified of God the Father, and referred to Iesus Christ:

2 Mercie vnto you, and peace, and love be multiplied.

3 Beloued, when I gaue all diligence to write vnto you of the common saluation, it was needfull for me to write vnto you, to exhort you, that yee should earnestly contend for the maintenance of the faith, which was once giuen vnto the Saints.

4 For there are certaine men crept in, which were before of old ordeined to this condemnation: vngodly men they are which turne the grace of

2. Pet. 2. 1. our God into wantonnesse, and * denie God the only Lord, and our Lord Iesus Christ.

5 I wil therefore put you in remembrance, so much as ye once knew this, how that the Lord, after that he had deliuered the people out of Egypt,

Num. 14. * destroyed them afterward which beleued not.

37. 6 The * Angels also which kept not their first

2. Pet. 2. 4 estate, but left their owne habitation, hee hath reserved in euermlasting chaines, vnder darknesse vnto the Iudgement of the great day.

Gen. 19. 7 As * Sodome and Gomorreh, and the cities about them, which in like maner as they did, committed fornication, and followed strange flesh, 24, 25. are set forth for an example, and suffer the vengeance of eternall fire.

8 Likewise notwithstanding these dreamers also defile the flesh, and despise gouernement, and speake euill of them that are in authoritie.

9 Yet Michael the Archangel, when he stroue against the deuill, and disputed about the body of Moses, durst not blame him with caried speaking, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.

10 But these speake euill of those things, which they know not: and whatsoeuer things they know naturally, as beasts which are without reason, in those things they corrupt themselves.

Gene. 4. 8 11 Woe be vnto them: for they haue followed 3, 2.

13 These are spots in your feasts of charity when they feast with you, without all feare, feeding themselves: * clouds they are without water, carried about of winde, corrupt trees and without figge, twice dead, and plucked vp by the roots.

13 They are the raging waues of the sea, foming out their owne shame: they are wandering starres, to whom is reserved the blacknes of darknes for euer.

14 And Enoch also the seventh from Adam prophesied of such, saying, * Behold, the Lord cometh with thousands of his Saints, 15 To giue iudgement against all men, and to rebuke all the vngodly among them of all their wicked deedes, which they haue vngodly committed, and of all their cruell speakings, which wicked sinners haue spoken against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their owne lusts: * whose mouthes speake proud things, hauing mens persons in admiration, because of a vantage.

17 But ye, beloued, remember the words which were spoken before of the Apostles of our Lord Iesus Christ, 18 How that they told you that there should be mockers * in the last time, which should walke after their owne vngodly lusts.

19 These are makers of sects, fleshly, hauing not the Spirit.

20 But yee, beloued, edifie your selves in our most holy faith, praying in the holy Ghost.

21 And keepe your selves in the loue of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Iesus Christ, vnto eternall life.

22 And haue compassion of some, in putting difference:

23 And other saue with feare, pulling them out of the fire, and hate euen the garment spotted by the flesh.

24 Now vnto him that is able to keepe you that ye fall not, and to present you faultlesse before the presence of his glory with ioy, 25 Thou, to God onely wise, our Saviour, be glory, and maiestie, and dominion, and power, both now and for euer, A MEN.

THE REVELATION OF IOHN the Diuine.

THE ARGUMENT.

It is manifest, that the holy Ghost would, as it were, gather into this most excellent booke a summe of those prophecies which were written before, but should be fulfilled after the coming of Christ, adding also such things as should be expedient, as well to forewarne vs of the dangers to come, as to admonish vs to beware of some, and encourage vs against others. Herein therefore is liuely set forth the Diuinitie of Christ, and the promises of our Redemption: what things the Spirit of God alloweth in the Ministers, and what things be reproved: the prouidence of God for his elect, and of their glory, and consolation in the day of vengeance: how that the hypocrites which sing like scorpions the members of Christ, shall be destroyed, but the Lambe Christ shall defend them which beare witness to the truest, who in despite of the beast and Satan, will reigne ouer all. The last description of Antichrist is set forth, whose sinne and power notwithstanding is limited: and altho that he is permitted to rage against the elect, yet his power stretcheth no further then to the hurt of their bodies, and at length he shall be destroyed by the wrath of God: when as the elect shall giue praise to God for the victory: neuertheless, for a season God will permit this Antichrist and his trumpet, vnder colour of faire speech, and pleasant doctrine, to decieve the world: wherefore he aduertiseb the goodlie (which are but a small portion) to avoid this horrible flatteries. & brags, whose ruine without mercy they shall see, & with the heavenly companies sing continually praises: for the Lambe is married: the word of God hath gotten the victory: Satan is as a long time was vanquished, is now cast with his ministers into the pit of fire to be tormented for ever: where as contrariwise the faithful (which are the holy City of Jerusalem, and wife of the Lambe) shall enjoy perpetuall glory. Reade diligently, wisely (soberly), and call earnestly to God for the true understanding hereof.

The cause of this Reuelation. 3 Of them that readeth. 4 John writeth to the seven Churches. 5 The Mainie and Office of the Sonne of God. 20 The vision of the Candlestickes and starres.

He Reuelation of Iesus Christ, which God gaue vnto him, to shewe vnto his seruants things which must shortly bee done: which he sent, & shewed by his Angel vnto his seruant Iohn.

2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Iesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.

3 Blessed is he that readeth, and they that heare the words of this prophesie, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

4 Iohn, to the seven Churches which are in Asia, Grace be with you, and peace from him, Which is, and Which was, and Which is to come, and from the seven Spirits, which are before his throne.

5 And from Iesus Christ, which is a * faithfull witness, and * the first begotten of the dead, and Prince of the kings of the earth, vnto him that loued vs & washed vs from our finnes in his * blood.

6 And made vs * Kings and priestes vnto God euen his Father, to him be glory and dominion for euermore, Amen.

7 Behold, he cometh with * clouds, and euery eye shall see him: yea, euen they which pierced him through: and all kindreds of the earth shall waile before him, Euen so, Amen.

8 I * am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, faith the Lord, Which is, and Which was, and Which is to come, euen the Almighty.

9 I Iohn, euen your brother and companion in tribulation and in the kingdome and patience of Iesus Christ, was in the yle called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the witnessing of Iesus Christ.

10 And I was ranshed in spirit on the Lords day, and heard behind me a great voice, as it had bene of a trumpet, 11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and that which thou seest, write in a book, and send it vnto the seven Churches which are in Asia, vnto Ephesus, and vnto Smyrna, and vnto Pergamos, and vnto Thyatira, and vnto Sardi, and vnto Philadelphia, and vnto Laodicea.

12 Then I turned backe to see the voyce that spake with me, and when I was turned, I saw seven golden Candlestickes.

13 And in the mids of the seven Candlestickes, one like vnto the Sonne of man, clothed with a garment downe to the feet, and girded about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head, and haire were white as white wooll, and as snow, and his eyes were as a flame of fire,

15 And his feete like vnto * fine brasse, burning as in a furnace: and his voyce as the sound of many waters.

16 And hee had in his right hand seven starres and out of his mouth went a sharpe two edged sword: and his face shone as the Sunne shineth in his strength.

17 And when I sawe him, I fell at his feete as * dead: then he laid his right hand vpon me, saying vnto me, Feare not: I am the * first and the last.

18 And am aliu, but I was dead: and behold, I am aliu for euermore, Amen: and I haue the keyes of hell and of death.

19 Write the things which thou hast scene, and the things which are, and the things which shall come hereafter.

20 The mysterie of the seven starres which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlestickes, is this. The seven Starres, are the Angels of the seven Churches: and the seven Candlestickes which thou sawest, are the seven Churches.

C H A P. II.

Hee exhorteth foure Churches to repentance, to perseuerance, patience, and amendment. 5. 14. 20. 23. as well by threatnings, 7. 10. 17. 26 as promises of reward.

Vnto the Angel of the Church of Ephesus write, These things faith hee that holdeth the seven Starres in his right hand, and walketh in the mids of the seven golden Candlestickes.

1 I know thy workes, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not forebare them which are euill, and hast examined them which say they are Apostles and are not, and hast found them liars.

2 And thou hast suffered, and hast patience, and for my Names sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

3 Neuertheless, I haue somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first loue.

4 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and dee the first works: or els I will come against thee shortly, and will remove thy Candlesticke out of his place, except thou amend.

5 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the works of the Nicolaitanes, which I also hate.

6 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches, to him that overcometh, will I giue to eat of the tree of life, which is in the mids of the Paradise of God.

8 ¶ And vnto the Angel of the Church of the Smyrnians write, These things faith he that is first and last, which was dead, and is aliu.

9 I know thy workes, and tribulation, and poertie (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemie of them, which say they are Iewes, and are not, but are the Synagogue of Satan.

10 Feare none of those things, which thou shalt suffer: behold, it shall come to passe, that the deuil shall cast some of you into prison, yee may be tried, and yee shall haue tribulation ten dayes: but thou shalt faile

And I will glasse the crosse of life.

12 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches: Hee that ouercommeth shall not be hurt of the second death.

13 ¶ And to the Angel of the Church which is at Pergame, write, This saith hee which hath the sharpe sword with two edges, 14 I know thy workes, and where thou dwellest, even where Satans throne is, and thou keepest my Name, and hast not denied my faith, euē in those dayes when Antipas my faithfull Martyr was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

15 But I haue a few things against thee, because thou hast them that maintaine the doctrine of * Balaam, which taught Balac to put a stumbling block before the childre of Israel, that they should eate of things sacrificed vnto idoles, and commit fornication.

16 Euen so hast thou them, that maintaine the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate.

17 Repent thy selfe, or else I will come vnto thee shortly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

18 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches. To him that ouercommeth, will I giue to eate of the Manna that is hid, and will giue him a white stone, & in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

19 ¶ And vnto the Angel of the Church, which is at Thyatira write, These things saith the Sonne of God, which hath his eyes like vnto a flame of fire, and his feete like the i fine brasse.

20 I know thy workes, and thy loue, and seruice, and faith, and thy patience, and thy workes, and that they are moe at the last, then at the first.

21 Notwithstanding I haue a few things against thee, that thou sufferest the woman * Iezabel, which calleth her selfe a propheteesse, to teach and to deceiue my seruants, to make them to commit fornication, and to eate meate sacrificed vnto idoles.

22 And I gaue her space to repent of her fornication, and she repented not.

23 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit fornication with her, into great affliction, except they repent them of their workes.

24 And I will kill her children with death: and all the Churches shall know that I am hee which search the reins and hearts: and I will giue vnto euery one of you according vnto your workes.

25 ¶ And vnto you I say, the rest of them of Thyatira, As many as haue not this learning, neither haue known the deepenesse of Satan (as they speake) I will put vpon you none other burden, 26 But that which ye haue already, Hold fast till I come.

27 For hee that ouercommeth and keepeth my workes vnto the ende, to him will I giue power ouer nations.

28 ¶ And hee shall rule them with a rod of yron: and as the vessels of a potter, shall they bee broken.

29 Euen as I receiued of my Father, so will I giue him the morning starre.

30 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith to the Churches.

CHAP. III.

Hee exhorteth the Churches or ministers to the true profession of faith, and to watching, 12 with promises to them that perseuer.

Revelation. Perseuerance.

¶ And write vnto the Angel of the Church which is at Sardis. These things saith he that hath the seven spirits of God, and the seven starres, I know thy workes: for thou hast a name that thou livest, but thou art dead.

2 Be awake, and strengthen the things which remaine, that are ready to die: for I haue not found thy workes perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore, how thou hast receiued and heard, and hold fast and repent. * If therefore thou wilt not watch, I will come on thee as a thiefe, and thou shalt not knowe what houre I will come vpon thee.

4 Notwithstanding thou hast a few names yet in Sardis, which haue not defiled their garments: and they shall walke with me in white: for they are worthy.

5 He that ouercommeth, shall be clothed in white aray, and I will not put out his name out of the booke of life, but I will confesse his name before my Father, and before his Angels.

6 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

7 ¶ And write vnto the Angel of the Church which is of Philadelphia: These things saith he that is Holy, and True, which hath the * key of Dauid, which openeth and no man shutteth, and shutteth and no man openeth.

8 I know thy workes, behold, I haue feare thee an open doore, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my Name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the Synagogues of Satan, which call themselves Iewes, and are not, but do lie: behold, I will make them, that they shall come and worshipping before thy feete, and shall know that I haue loued thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, therefore I will deliuer thee from the houre of temptation, which will come vpon all the world, to trie them that dwell vpon the earth.

11 Behold, I come shortly, hold that which thou hast, that no man take thy crowne.

12 Him that ouercommeth, will I make a pillar in the Temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write vpon him the Name of my God, and the name of the citie of my God which is the new Ierusalem. which commeth downe out of heauen from my God, and I will write vpon him my new Name.

13 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

14 And vnto the Angel of the Church of the Laodiceans write, These things saith AMEN the faithfull and true witnesse, the beginning of the creatures of God, 15 I know thy workes, that thou art neither cold nor hote: I would thou werest cold or hote.

16 Therefore, because thou art luke warme, and neither cold nor hote, it will come to passe, that I shall spue thee out of my mouth.

17 For thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and haue need of nothing, and knowest not how thou art wretched, and miserable, and poore, and blind and naked.

18 I counsell thee to buy of me golde tryed by the fire, that thou mayest bee made rich: and white rayment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that thy filthie nakednesse doe not appeare: and anoynt thine eyes with eye salve, that thou mayest see.

19 As many as I loue, * I rebuke and chasten.

andalous therefore, and amend.

Behold, I stand at the doore, and knocke. If any man heare my voice and open the doore, I will come in vnto him, and will suppe with him, and he with me.

To him that ouercommeth will I grant to sit with me in my throne, euen as I ouercame, and sit with my Father in his throne.

Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The vision of the Maiestie of God. 2 Hee seeth the throne, and one sitting vpon it, 8 and foure and twentie scales about it, with foure and twentie Elders sitting vpon them, and foure beastes praising God day and night.

After this I looked, and beheld, a doore was opened in heauen, & the first voice which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet, talking with mee, saying, Come vp hither, and I will shew thee things which must be done hereafter.

And immediatly I was rauished in the spirit, and beheld, a throne was set in heauen, and one sat vpon the throne.

And he that sat, was to looke vpon, like vnto a lapis stone, and a Sardine, and there was a rainbow round about the throne in sight like to an emerauld.

And round about the throne were foure and twentie seates, and vpon the seates I saw foure and twentie Elders sitting, clothed in white raiment, and had on their heads crownes of gold.

And out of the throne proceeded lightnings, and thunders, and voices, and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven spirits of God.

And before the throne there was a sea of glasse like vnto Chrystal: and in the mids of the throne, and round about the throne were foure beastes full of eyes before and behind.

And the first beast was like a Lion, and the second beast like a calfe, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying Eagle.

And the foure beastes had each one of them fixe wings about him, and they were full of eyes within, and they ceased not day nor night, saying, Holy, holy, holy Lord God Almighty, Which was, and Which is, and Which is to come.

And when those beastes gaue glory, and honour, and thanks to him that sat on the throne, which liueth for euermore and euer,

The foure and twentie Elders fell downe before him that sat on the throne, and worshipped him that liueth for euermore, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

Thou art * worthy, O Lord, to receiue glory, and honour, and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy wils sake they are, and haue been created.

CHAP. V.

1 He seeth the Lambe opening the booke. 2 And therefore the foure beastes, the foure and twentie Elders, and the Angels praise the Lambe, and do him worship, 9 for their redemption and other benefis.

And I saw in the right hand of him that sat vpon the throne, a booke written within, and on the backe side, sealed with seven seales.

And I sawe a strong Angel which preached with a loud voyce, Who is worthy to open the booke, and to loofe the scales thereof?

And no man in heauen, nor in earth, neither vnder the earth was able to open the booke, neither to looke thereon.

Then I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open, and to reade the Booke, neither to looke thereon.

And one of the Elders said vnto me, Weepe not: behold, the * Lion which is of the tribe of Iuda, the root of Dauid, hath obtained to open the Booke, and to loofe the seven scales thereof.

Then I beheld, and loe, in the middes of the throne, and of the foure beastes, and in the mids of the Elders, stood a Lambe as though he had bene killed, which had seven hornes, and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent into all the world.

And he came and tooke the Booke out of the right hand of him that sat vpon the throne.

And when he had taken the Booke, the foure beastes and the foure and twentie Elders fell downe before the Lambe, hauing euery one harpes, and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of Saints.

And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the Booke, and to open the scales thereof, because thou wast killed, and hast redeemed vs to God by thy blood, out of euery kindred and tongue, and people, and nation,

And hast made vs vnto our God * Kings and Priests, and we shall reigne on the earth.

Then I beheld, and I heard the voice of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beastes, and the Elders, and there were * thousand thousands, Saying with a loud voyce, Worthy is the * Lambe that was killed, to receiue power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and praise.

And all the creatures which are in heauen, and on the earth, and vnder the earth, and in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I, saying, Praise, and honour, and glory, and power be vnto him that sitteth vpon the throne, and vnto the Lambe for euermore.

And the foure beastes said, Amen, and the foure and twentie Elders fell downe and worshipped him that liueth for euermore.

CHAP. VI.

The Lambe openeth the sixe scales, and many things follow the opening thereof, so that shu containeth a generall prophecie to the end of the world.

After, I beheld when the Lambe had opened one of the scales, & I heard one of the foure beastes say, as it were the noise of thunder, Come and see.

Therefore I beheld, and lo, there was a white horse, and hee that sat on him, had a bowe, and a crowne was giuen vnto him, and hee went forth, conquering that he might ouercome.

And when he had opened the second scale, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

And there went out another horse, that was red, and power was giuen to him that sat thereon, to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another, and there was giuen vnto him a great sword.

And when he had opened the third scale, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. Then I beheld, and lo, a blacke horie, and hee that sat on him had balances in his hand.

And I heard a voyce in the mids of the foure beastes say, A measure of wheat for a peny, & three measures of barley for a peny, and oyle, and wine hurt thou not.

7 And

great.

And when he had opened the fourth scale, I heard the voyce of the fourth beast say Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold, a pale horse, and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed after him, and power was given vnto them ouer the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fift scale, I saw vnder the altar the soules of them that were killed for the word of God, and for the testimony which they maintained.

10 And they cryed with a loud voyce, saying, How long, Lord, holy and true! dost thou not indge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And long white robes were giuen vnto euery one, and it was said vnto them, that they should rest for a little season, vntill their fellow seruants and their bretheren that should be killed euen as they were, were fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixt scale, and loe, there was a great earthquake, and the sunne was as blacke as sackcloth of haire, and the moone was like blood.

13 And the starres of heauen fell vnto the earth, as a figtree casteth her greene figs when it is shaken with a mightie winde.

14 And heauen departed away, as a scrole when it is rolled, and euery mountaine and yle were moued out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chiefe captaynes, and the mightie men, and euery boudnian, and euery free man hid themselves in denes, and among the rockes of the mountaynes, 17 For the great day of his wrath is come, and who can stand?

CHAP. VII.

4. 9 Hee seeth the seruants of God sealed in their foreheades out of all the nations and people. 15 Which though they suffer trouble, yet the Lambe feedeth them, leadeth them to the fountains of liuing water, 17 And God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes.

And after that I saw foure Angels stand on the foure corners of the earth, holding the foure winds of the earth, that the winds should not blow on the earth, neither on the sea, neither on any tree.

For Christ.

2 And I saw another Angel come vp from the East, which had the seale of the liuing God, and hee cried with a loud voyce to the foure Angels to whom power was giuen to hurt the earth & the sea,

3 Saying, Hurt ye not the earth, neither the sea, neither the trees, till we haue sealed the seruants of our God, in their foreheades.

4 And I heard the number of them which were sealed, and there were sealed an hundred and foure and fourtie thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Iuda were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelue thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Nephthali were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelue thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Leui were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelue thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Ioseph were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelue thousand.

9 After these things I beheld, and loe, a great multitude which no man could number, of all nations, and kinreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lambe clothed with long white robes, and palmes in their hands,

10 And they cried with a loud voyce, saying, Salvation cometh of our God, that sitteth vpon the throne, and of the Lambe.

11 And all the Angels stood round about the throne, and about the Elders, and the foure beasts, and they fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, 12 Saying, Amen, Praise, and glory, and wisdom, and thanks, and honour, and power, and might be vnto our God for euermore, Amen.

13 And one of the Elders, spake, saying vnto me, What are these which are arrayed in long white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said vnto him, Lord, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they, which came out of great tribulation, and haue washed their long robes, and haue made their long robes white in the blood of the Lambe.

15 Therefore are they in the presence of the throne of God, and serue him day and night in his Temple, and he that sitteth on the throne wil dwell among them.

16 * They shal hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shall the sunne light on them, neither any heate.

17 For the Lambe which is in the mids of the throne shall gouerne them, and shal lead them vnto the liuely fountains of waters, and * God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The seventh scale was opened: there is silence in heauen. 6 The foure Angels blow their trumpets, and great plagues follow vpon the earth.

And when hee had opened the seuenth scale, there was silence in heauen about halfe an heure.

2 And I saw the seuen Angels which stood before God, and to them were giuen seuen trumpets.

3 Then another Angel came and stood before the Altar, hauing a golden censer, and much odours was giuen vnto him that he should offer with the prayers of all Saints vpon the golden altar, which is before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the odours with the prayers of the Saints went vp before God, out of the Angels hand.

5 And the Angel tooke the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth, and there were voyces, and thundrings, and lightnings, and earthquake.

6 Then the seuen Angels which had the seuen trumpets, prepared themselues to blow the trumpets.

7 So the first Angel blew the trumpet, and there was haile and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast into the earth, and the third part of trees was burnt, and all greene grasse was burnt.

8 And the second Angel blew the trumpet, and as it were a great mountaine, burning with fire, was cast into the sea, and the third part of the sea became blood.

9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died, & the third part of ships were destroyed.

10 Then the third Angel blew the trumpet, and there fell a great starre from heauen burning like a torch, and it fell into the third part of the riuers, and into the fountaines of waters.

11 And the name of the starre is called wormewood: therefore the third part of the waters became wormewood, and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth Angel blew the trumpet, and the third part of the Sunne was smitten, and the third part of the Moone, and the third part of the starres, so that the third part of them was darkned: and the day was smitten, that the third part of it could not shine, and likewise the night.

13 And I behelde, and heard one Angel flying thorow the middes of heauen, saying with a loud voyce, Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the sounds to come of the trumpet of the three Angels, which were yet to blow the trumpets.

CHAP. IX.

1 The fifth & sixth Angel blow their trumpets: the first falleth from heauen. 3 The locusts come out of the smoke. 12 The first woe is past. 13 The four Angels that were bound, are loosed, 18 and the third part of men is killed.

And the fifth Angel blew the trumpet, and I sawe a star which was fallen from heauen vnto the earth, and to him was giuen the key of the bottomlesse pit.

2 And hee opened the bottomlesse pit, and there arose the smoke of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace, and the sunne, and the aire were darkened by the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke locusts vpon the earth, and vnto them was giuen power, as the scorpions of the earth haue power.

4 And it was commanded them, that they should not hurt the grasse of the earth, neither any greene thing, neither any tree: but only those men which haue not the seale of God in their foreheades.

5 And to them was commanded, that they should not kill them, but that they should be vexed five moneths, and that their paine should be as the paine that cometh of a scorpion, when hee hath stung a man.

6 * Therefore in those dayes shall men seeke death, and shall not finde it, and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 * And the forme of the locusts was like vnto horses prepared to battell, and on their heades were as it were crownes, like vnto golde, and their faces were like the faces of men.

8 And they had haire as the haire of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had habergions like to habergions of yron: and the sound of their wings was like the sound of charrets when many horses runne to battell.

10 And they had tailles like vnto scorpions, and there were stinges in their tailles, and their power was to hurt men five moneths.

11 And they haue a king ouer them, which is the Angel of the bottomlesse pit, whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greeke he is named Apollyon.

12 One woe is past, and beholde, yet two woes come after this.

13 ¶ Then the sixth Angel blew the trumpet, and I heard a voyce from the foure hoines of the golden Altar, which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth Angel, which had the trumpet, Loose the foure Angels, which are bound in the great riuer Euphrates.

15 And the foure Angels were loosed, which were prepared at an houre, at a day, at a moneth, and at a yeere, to slay the third part of men.

16 And the number of horsemen of warre were twentie thousand times ten thousand: for I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I sawe the horses in a vision, and them that sat on them, hauing fierie habergions, and of iacinth, and of brimstone, and the heades of the horses were as the heades of lions: and out of their mouthes went forth fire and smoke, and brimstone.

18 Of these three was the third part of men killed, that is, of the fire, and of the smoke, and of the brimstone, which came out of their mouthes.

19 For their power is in their mouthes, and in their tailles: for their tailles were like vnto serpents, and had heads wherewith they hurt.

20 And the remnant of the men which were not killed by these plagues, repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship deuils, and * idoles of gold, and of silver, and of bras, and of stone, & of wood, which neither can see, neither hear nor goe.

21 Alio they repented not of their murder, and of their sorcery, neither of their fornication, nor of their theft.

CHAP. X.

1 The Angel hath the booke open. 6 Hee sweareth there shall bee no more time. 9 Hee giueth the booke vnto Iohn which eateth it vp.

And I saw another mightie Angel come downe from heauen clothed with a cloude, and the rainbow vpon his head, and his face was as the sunne, and his feete as pillars of fire.

2 And he had in his hand a little booke open, and he put his right foote vpon the sea, and his left on the earth,

3 And cryed with a loud voyce, as when a lion roareth, and when hee had cryed, seven thunders vttered their voyces.

4 And when the seven thunders had vttered their voyces, I was about to write: but I heard a voice from heauen, saying vnto me, * Seale vp those things which the seven thunders haue spoken, and write them not.

5 And the Angel which I sawe stand vpon the sea, and vpon the earth, lift vp his hand to heauen,

6 And sware by him that liueth for euermore, which created heauen, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things that therein are, that time should be no more.

7 But in the dayes of the voyce of the seventh Angel, when he should begin to blow the trumpet, even the mystery of God shall be finished, as he hath declared to his seruants the Prophets.

8 And the voyce which I heard from heauen, spake vnto me againe & sayd, Go, and take the little booke which is open in the hand of the Angel, which standeth vpon the sea, and vpon the earth.

9 So I went vnto the Angel, and saide to him, Giue me the little booke. And hee sayd to mee, * Take it, and eate it vp, and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth as sweete as hony.

Psal. 115. 4-6 133. 15.

Deu. 12. 4

Ezek. 3. 1

10 Then I took the little booke out of the Angels hand, and ate it vp; and it was in my mouth as sweet as hony: but when I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said vnto mee, Thou must prophesie againe among the people and nations, & tongues, and to many kings.

CHAP. XI.

1 The Temple is measured. 3 Two witnesses raised vp by the Lord, are murdered by the beast, 11 but after receiued to glory. 15 Christ is exalted, 16 And God praised by the foure and twenty Elders.

Then was giuen me a reede, like vnto a rod, and the Angel stood by, saying, Rise and mete the Temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But the court which is without the Temple, cast out, and mete it not: for it is giuen vnto the Gentiles, and the holy citie shall they treade vnder foot, two and forty moneths.

3 But I will giue power vnto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesie a thousand two hundred and threescore daies, clothed in sackcloth.

4 These are two olive trees, and two candle-sticks, standing before the God of the earth.

5 And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouthes, and deuoureth their enemies: for if any man would hurt them, thus must hee be killed.

6 These haue power to shut heauen, that it raine not in the daies of their prophesying, & haue power ouer waters to turne them into blood, and to smite the earth with all maner plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they haue finished their testimony, the beast that cometh out of the bottomlesse pit, shall make warre against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their corpses shall lie in the streets of the great citie, which spiritually is called Sodome and Egypt, where our Lord also was crucified.

9 And they of the people and kindreds, and tongues, and Gentiles shall see their corpses three dayes and an halfe, and shall not suffer their carkeises to be put in graues.

10 And they that dwell vpon the earth, shall reioyce ouer them, and bee glad, and shall send gifts one to another: for these two prophets vexed them that dwelt on the earth.

11 But after three dayes and a halfe, the spirit of life comming from God, shall enter into them, and they shall stand vp vpon their feete: and great feare shall come vpon them which saw them.

12 And they shall heare a great voyce from heauen, saying vnto them, Come vp hither. And they shall ascend vp to heauen in a clond, and their enemies shall see them.

13 And the same houre shall there bee a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city shall fall, and in the earthquake shall be slaine in number seven thousand: and the remnant shall be afraid, and giue glory to the God of heauen.

14 The second woe is past, and behold, the third woe will come anon.

15 And the seventh Angel blew the trumpet, and there were great voices in heaue saying, The kingdomes of this world are our Lords, and his Christs, and he shall reigne for euermore.

16 Then the foure and twenty Elders, which sate before God on their seates, fell vpon their faces, and worshipped God, 17 Saying, We giue thee thanks, Lord God Almighty, Which art, and which wast, and which art to come: for thou hast receiued thy great might, and hast obtained thy kingdome.

18 And the Gentiles were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should bee indged, and that thou shouldst giue reward vnto thy seruants the Prophets, and to the Saints, and to them that feare thy Name, to small and great, and shouldst destroy them, which deliuey the earth.

19 Then the Temple of God was opened in heauen, and there was scene in his Temple the Ark of his Couenant: and there were lightnings, and voyces, and thundrings, and earthquake, and much haile.

CHAP. XII.

1 There appeareth in heauen a woman clothed with the sunne. 7 Michael fighteth with the dragon, which persecuteth the woman. 11 The victory is gotten to the comfort of the faithfull.

And there appeared a great wonder in heauen: A woman clothed with the Sunne, and the Moone was vnder her feete, and vpon her head a crowne of twelue starres.

2 And shee was with childe, and cryed traouling in birth, and was pained, ready to be deliuered.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heauen: for beholde, a great red dragon, hauing seven heads and ten hornes, and seven crownes vpon his heads:

4 And his taile drew the third part of the stars of heauen, and cast them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be deliuered, to deuoure her childe when shee had brought it forth.

5 So shee brought forth a man child, which should rule all nations with a rod of yron: and her sonne was taken vp vnto God, and to his throne.

6 And the woman fledde into wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feede her there a thousand two hundred and threescore dayes.

7 And there was a battell in heauen, Michael and his Angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon fought and his Angels.

8 But they preuailed not, neither was their place found any more in heauen.

9 And the great dragon that old serpent, called the deuill and Satán, was cast out, which deceueth all the world: he was euen cast into the earth, and his Angels were cast out with him.

10 Then I heard a loud voyce, saying, Now is saluation in heauen, and strength, and the kingdome of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast downe, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 But they overcame him by the blood of the lambe, and by the word of their testimonie, and they loued not their liues vnto the death.

12 Therefore reioyce yee heauens, and ye that dwell in them, Wo to the inhabitants of the earth, and of the sea: for the deuill is come downe vnto you, which hath great wrath, knowing that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that hee was cast vnto the earth, hee persecuted the woman which had brought forth the man child.

14 But to the woman were giuen two wings of a great eagle, that she might flee into the wilderness, her place, where ſhee is nourished for a time, and ſometimes, and halfe a time from the preſence of the ſerpent.

15 And the ſerpent caſt out of his mouth water vnto the woman, like a flood, that hee might cauſe her to be caried away of the flood.

16 But the earth holpe the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and ſwallowed vp the flood, which the dragon had caſt out of his mouth.

17 Then the dragon was wroth with the woman and went and made warre with the remnant of her ſeede, which keepe the commandments of God, and haue the teſtimonie of Ieſus Chriſt.

18 And I flood on the ſea ſand.

C H A P. XIII.

1.8. The beaſt deceiueth the reprobate, 2.4.12. and confirmed by another beaſt. 17 The priuiledge of the beaſts marke.

And I ſaw a beaſt riſe out of the ſea, hauing ſeuen heads, and ten hornes, and vpon his hornes ſeuen crownes, and vpon his heads the name of blaſphemie.

2 And the beaſt which I ſaw, was like a Leopard, and his feete like a beares, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gaue him his power, and his throne, and great authoritie.

3 And I ſaw one of his heads, as it were wounded to death, but his deadly wound was healed, and all the world wondred, and followed the beaſt.

4 And they worſhipped the dragon which gaue power vnto the beaſt, & they worſhipped the beaſt, ſaying, Who is like vnto the beaſt? who is able to warre with him?

5 And there was giuen vnto him a mouth, that ſpake great things and blaſphemies, and power was giuen vnto him to doe two and forty moneths.

6 And he opened his mouth vnto blaſphemie againſt God, to blaſpheme his Name and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heauen.

7 And it was giuen vnto him to make warre with the Saints, and to overcome them, and power was giuen him ouer euery kinned, and tongue, and nation.

8 Therefore all that dwell vpon the earth, ſhall worſhip him, whoſe names are not * written in the Booke of life of the Lambe, which was ſlaine from the beginning of the world.

9 If any man haue an eare, let him heare, 10 If any leade into captiuitie, hee ſhall goe into captiuitie: if any kill with a ſword, he muſt be killed by a ſword: here is the patience and the faith of the Saints.

11 And I beheld another beaſt coming vp out of the earth, which had two hornes like the Lamb, but he ſpake like the dragon.

12 And he did all that the firſt beaſt could doe before him, and he cauſed the earth, and them that dwell therein, to worſhip the firſt beaſt, whoſe deadly wound was healed.

13 And hee did great wonders, ſo that he made fire to come downe from heauen on the earth, in the ſight of men, 14 And deceiued them that dwell on the earth by the ſignes, which were permitted to him to doe in the ſight of the beaſt, ſaying to them that dwell on the earth, that they ſhould make the image of the beaſt, which had the wound of a ſword, and did liue.

15 And it was permitted to him to giue a ſpirit vnto the image of the beaſt, ſo that the image of the beaſt ſhould ſpeake, and ſhould cauſe that as many as would not worſhip the image of the beaſt, ſhould be killed.

16 And hee made all, both ſmall and great, rich and poore, tree and bond, to receiue a marke in their right hand, or in their forehead, 17 And that no man might buy or ſell, ſaue hee that had the marke, or the name of the beaſt, or the number of his name.

18 Here is wiſedome. Let him that hath wit, count the number of the beaſt: for it is the number of a man, & his number is ſixe hundredth threſcore and ſixe.

C H A P. XIIII.

1 The notable company of the Lambe. 6 One Angel announceth the Goſpel, 8 another the fall of Babylon, 9 and the third warneth to flee from the beaſt.

13 Of ſiher bleſſedneſſe which die in the Lord, 18 Of the Lords harueſt.

Then I looked, & loe, a Lambe ſtood on mount Siſon, and with him an hundredth ſortie & ſoure thouſand, hauing his Fathers name written in their forehead.

2 And I heard a voice from heauen as the ſound of many waters, and as the ſound of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harpes.

3 And they ſung as it were a new ſong before the throne, and before the ſoure beaſts, and the Elders, and no man could learne that ſong, but the hundred ſortie and ſoure thouſand, which were bought from the earth.

4 Theſe are they, which are not defiled with women: for they are virgins: theſe followe the Lambe whitherſoeuer hee goeth: theſe are bought from men, being the firſt fruits vnto God, and to the Lambe.

5 And in their mouthes was found no guile: for they are without ſpot before the throne of God.

6 ¶ Then I ſaw another Angel ſlie in the midſ of heauen, hauing an euerlaſting Goſpel, to preach vnto them that dwell on the earth, and to euery nation, and kinned, and tongue, and people.

7 ¶ Saying with a loud voice, Feare God, and giue glorie to him: for the houre of his iudgement is come: and worſhip him that made * heauen and earth, and the ſea, and the fountaines of waters.

8 And there followed another Angel, ſaying, * It is fallen, it is fallen, Babylon the great citie: for ſhee made all nations to drinke of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 ¶ And the third Angel followed them, ſaying with a loud voice, If any man worſhip the beaſt and his image, and receiue his marke in his forehead, or on his hand,

10 The ſame ſhall drinke of the wine of the wrath of God, yea, of the pure wine which is poured into the cup of his wrath, and hee ſhall be tormented in fire and brimſtone before the holy Angels, and before the Lambe.

11 And the ſmoke of their torment ſhall aſcend enermore: & they ſhall haue no reſt day nor night, which worſhip the beaſt and his image, and whoſoeuer receiue the print of his name.

12 Here is the patience of Saints: here are they that keepe the commandments of God, and the faith of Ieſus.

13 Then I heard a voyce from heauen, ſaying vnto me, Write, Bleſſed are the dead which hereafter die in the Lord. Euen ſo ſaith the Spirit: for they reſt from their labours, and their workes follow them.

16 And hee that sat on the cloud, thrust in his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 Then another Angel came out of the Temple, which is in heauen, hauing also a sharpe sickle.

18 And another Angel came out from the altar, which had power ouer fire, and cried with a loud crie to him that had the sharpe sickle, and said, Thrust in thy sharpe sickle, and gather the clusters of the vineyard of the earth: for her grapes are ripe.

19 And the Angel thrust in his sharpe sickle on the earth, and cut downe the vines of the vineyard of the earth, and cast them into the great winepresse of the wrath of God.

20 And the winepresse was troden without the citie, and blood came out of the winepresse, vnto the horie bridle, by the space of a thousand and sixe hundred furlongs.

1 Seuen Angels haue the seuen last plagues. 3 The song of them that ouer come the beast. 7 The seuen vials full of Gods wrath.

And I saw another signe in heauen, great and marueilous, seuen Angels hauing the seuen last plagues: for by them is fulfilled the wrath of God.

2 And I sawe as it were a glasse sea, mingled with fire, and them that had gotten victorie of the beast, and of his image, and of his marke, and of the number of his name, stand at the glasse sea, hauing the harps of God.

Exo. 15. 1. 3 And they sing the song of Moses the *fermant of God, & the song of the Lambe, saying, Great and marueilous are thy workes, Lord God Almighty:

Psal. 145. iust and true are thy * wayes, King of Saints.

17. 4 * Who shall not feare thee, O Lord, and glorifie thee thy Name: for thou only art holy, and all nations that come and worship before thee: for thy iudgements are made manifest.

17. 10. 7. And after that, I looked, and behelde, the Temple of the tabernacle of testimony was open in heauen.

6 And the seuen Angels came out of the Temple, which had the seuen plagues. Clothed in pure and bright linnen, and hauing their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of the foure beasts gaue vnto the seuen Angels, seuen golden vials full of the wrath of God, which liuech for euermore.

8 And the Temple was full of the smoke of the glory of God, and of his power, and no man was able to enter into the Temple, till the seuen plagues of the seuen Angels were fulfilled.

CHAP. XVI.

2 The Angels powre out their vials full of wrath, 6 and what plagues follow thereof. 15 Admonition to take heed and watch.

And I heard a great voyce out of the Temple, saying to the seuen Angels, Go your wayes, and powre out the seuen vials of the wrath of God vpon the earth.

2 And the first went, and powred out his viall vpon the earth: and there fell a noisome and a griuous sore vpon the men which had the marke of the beast, and vpon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second Angel powred out his viall vpon the sea, and it became as the blood of a dead man: and euery liuing thing died in the sea.

4 And the third Angel powred out his viall vpon the riuers and fountaines of waters, and they became blood.

5 And I heard the Angel of the waters say, Lord, thou art iust, Which art, and Which wast, and holy, because thou hast iudged these things.

6 For they shedde the blood of the Saints, and Prophets, and therefore hast thou giuen them blood to drinke: for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the Sanctuary say, Euen so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy iudgements.

8 And the fourth Angel powred out his viall on the sunne, and it was giuen vnto him to torment men with heate of fire, 9 And men boyled in great heat, and blasphemed the Name of God, which hath power ouer these plagues, and they repented not, to giue him glorie.

10 And the fifth Angel powred out his viall vpon the throne of the beast, and his kingdom waxed darke, and they gnawed their tongues for sorrow, 11 And blasphemed the God of heauen for their pains, and for their sores, and repented not of their workes.

12 And the sixth Angel powred out his viall vpon the great riuier Euphrates, and the water thereof dried vp, that the way of the kings of the East should be prepared.

13 And I saw three vncleane spirits like frogs, come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the falsie prophet.

14 For they are the Spirits of deuils, working miracles, to goe vnto the kings of the earth, and of the whole world, to gather them to the battell of that great day of God Almighty.

15 (* Behold, I come as a thiefe. Blessed is hee that watcheth and keepeth his garments, least hee walke naked, and men see his filthinesse.)

16 And they gathered them together into a place called in Hebrew, Arma-gedon.

17 ¶ And the seventh Angel powred out his viall into the ayre: and there came a lowde voice out of the Temple of heauen from the throne, saying, It is done.

18 And there were voices and thundrings, and lightnings, and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were vpon the earth, euen so mightie an earthquake.

19 And the great citie was diuided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell, and great Babylon came into remembrance before God, to giue vnto her the cup of the wine of the fiercenesse of his wrath.

20 And euery yle fled away, and the mountaines were not found.

21 And there fell a great haile, like talents, out of heauen vpon the men, & men blasphemed God, because of the plague of the haile: for the plague hereof was exceeding great.

CHAP. XVII.

3 The description of the great whore. 8 Her sinnes and punishment. 14 The victorie of the Lambe,

Thm

Then there came one of the seven Angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying vnto me, Come, I will shew thee the damnation of the great whore, that sitteth vpon many waters.

2 With whom haue committed fornicatio the Kings of the earth, and the inhabitants of the earth are drunken with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he caried me away into the wilderness in the Spirit, and I saw a woman sit vpon a scarlet coloured beast full of names of blasphemy, which had seven heads, and ten hornes.

4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and gilded with golde and precious stones, and pearles, and had a cup of golde in her hand, full of abominations, and filthinefle of her fornication.

5 And in her forehead was a name written, A mystery, Great Babylon, the mother of whoredoms and abominations of the earth.

6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of Saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Iesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great marueile.

7 Then the Angel said vnto mee, Wherefore marueilest thou? I will shew thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that beareth her, which hath seven heads, and ten hornes.

8 The beast that thou hast seene, was, and is not, and shall ascend out of the bottomlesse pit, and shall goe into perdition, and they that dwell on the earth, shall wonder (whose names are not written in the booke of life, from the foundation of the world) when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 Here is the mind that hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountaines, whereon the woman sitteth: they are also seven kings.

10 Five are fallen, and one is, and another is not yet come, and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, is even the eight, and is one of the seven, and shall goe into destruction.

12 And the ten hornes which thou sawest, are ten kings, which yet haue not receiued a kingdom, but shall receiue power, as Kings at one houre with the beast.

13 These haue one minde, and shall giue their power and authority vnto the beast.

14 These shall fight with the Lambe, and the Lambe shall ouercome them: * for hee is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are on his side, called, and chosen, and faithfull.

15 And he said vnto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are people, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the ten hornes which thou sawest vpon the beast, are they that shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burne her with fire.

17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to doe with one consent, for to giue their kingdome vnto the beast, vntill the words of God be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest, is the great citie, which reigneth ouer the Kings of the earth.

3. 9. The louers of the world are sorry for the fall of the whore of Babylon. 4 An admonition to the people of God to flee out of her dominion. 20 But they that bee of God haue cause to reioyce for her destruction.

And after these things, I saw another Angel come down from heauen, hauing great power, so that the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried out mightily with a loud voice, saying, * It is fallen, it is fallen, Babylon, the great citie, and is become the habitation of deuils, and the hold of all foule spirits, and a cage of euery vnclan: and hatefull bird.

3 For all nations haue drunken of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the Kings of the earth haue committed fornicatio with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxen rich of the abundance of her pleasures.

4 And I heard another voyce from heauen say, Goe out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers in her sinnes, & that ye receiue not of her plagues.

5 For her sinnes are come vp vnto heauen, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 Reward her, euen as shee hath rewarded you, and giue her double according to her workes: and in the cuppe that she hath filled to you, fill her the double.

7 Inasmuch as she glorified her selfe, & liued in pleasure, so much giue ye to her torment & sorow: for the faith in her heart, "I sit being a Queene, and am no widow, and shall see no mourning." 1/2. 47. 8.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come at one day, death, and sorow, and famine, and she shall be burnt with fire: for strong is the Lorde God which will condemne her.

9 And the Kings of the earth shall bewaile her, and lament for her, which haue committed fornication, & liued in pleasure with her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning.

10 And shall stand afarre off for feare of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, the great citie Babylon, the mighty citie: for in one houre is thy iudgement come.

11 And the merchants of the earth shall weepe and waile ouer her: for no man buyeth her ware any more.

12 The ware of gold and siluer, and of precious stone, and of pearles, and of fine linnen, and of purple, and of silke, and of scarlet, and of all manner of Thynne wood, and of all vessels of yuorie, and of all vessels of most precious wood, and of brasie, and of yron, and of marble,

13 And of cinnamon, and odours, and oynments, and frankincense, and wine, & oyle, and fine flowre, and wheate, and beasts, and sheepe, and charrets, and seruants and soules of men.

14 (And the apples that thy foule lusted after, are departed from thee, and all things which were fat and excellent are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more)

15 The merchants of these things which were waxed rich, shall stand afarre off from her, for feare of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas, the great citie that was clothed in fine linnen, and purple, and scarlet, and gilded with gold, and precious stone and pearles.

17 For in one houre so great riches are come to desolation: And euery shipmaster, and al the people that occupy ships and shippmen, and whosoever trauell on the sea, shall stand afarre off, 18 And crie, when they see the smoke of her burning, saying, What citie was like vnto this great citie?

19 And they shall cast dust on their heads, and cry, weeping and wayling, and say, Alas, alas, the great city wherein were made rich all that had ships on the sea by her: for in one houre she is made desolate.

20 O heauen, reioyce of her, and ye holy Apostles and Prophets: for God hath giuen your iudgement on her.

21 Then a mighty Angel tooke vp a stone like a great millstone, * & cast it into the sea, saying, With such violence shall the great city Babylon bee cast, and shalbe found no more.

22 And the voyce of harpers and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters shall bee heard no more in thee, and no craftiman of whatsoever craft he be, shalbe found any more in thee: and the sound of a millstone shalbe heard no more in thee.

23 And the light of a candle shal thine no more in thee: and the voyce of the bridegrome and of the bride shal be heard no more in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth: and with thine enchantments were deceiued all nations.

24 And in her was found the blood of the Prophets, and of the Saints, and of all that were slaine vpon the earth.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Praise is giuen vnto God for iudging the whore and for auenging the blood of his seruants. 10 The Angel will not be worshipped. 17 The soules and birds are called to the slaughter.

AND after these things I heard a great voyce of a great multitude in heauen, saying, Halleluiah, saluation and glory, and honour, and power bee to the Lord our God.

2 For true & righteous are his iudgements: for he hath cōdemned the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, & hath auenged the blood of his seruants shed by her hand.

3 And againe they said, Halleluiah: and her smoke rose vp for euermore.

4 And the foure and twenty elders, & the foure beasts fell downe and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen, Halleluiah.

5 Then a voyce came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his seruants, and ye that feare him, both small and great.

6 And I heard like a voyce of a great multitude, and as the voyce of many waters, and as the voyce of strong thunderings, saying, Halleluiah: for our Lord God almighty hath reigned.

7 Let vs be glad and reioyce, and giue glory to him: for the marriage of the lambe is come, and his wife hath made her selfe ready.

8 And to her was granted, that she should be arrayed with pure fine linnen & shining: for the fine linnen is the righteousness of Saints.

9 Then he said vnto me, Write, * Blessed are they which are called vnto the Lambs supper. And he said vnto me, These words of God are true.

10 And I fell before his feete, * to worship him: but he said vnto me, See thou doe it not: I am thy fellow seruant, & one of thy brethren, which have the testimony of Iesus. Worship God: for the testimony of Iesus is the Spirit of prophesie.

11 And I saw heauen open, and behold a white horse, and hee that sat vpon him was called Faithfull and true, as I heere iudgeth and fighteth righteously.

12 And his eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crownes: and hee had a name written that no man knew but himselfe.

13 And * hee was clothed with a garment dipt in blood, and his name is called, THE WORD OF GOD.

14 And the warriors which were in heauen, followed him vpon white horses, clothed with fine linnen white and pure.

15 And out of his mouth went out a sharpe sword, that with it he should smite the heathen: for he * shall rule them with a rod of yron: for he it is that treadeth the winepresse of the fiercenesse and wrath of Almighty God.

16 And he hath vpon his garment, and vpon his thigh a name written, * THE KING OF THE KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an Angel stand in the Sunne, who cryed with a loude voyce, saying to all the foules that did flie by the mids of heauen, Come, and gather your selues together vnto the supper of the great God, 18 That ye may eate the flesh of Kings, and the flesh of hie captaines, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, & of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all free men and bondmen, and of small and great.

19 And I saw the beast, & the kings of the earth, and their warriors gathered together to make battell against him that sat on the horse, and against his souldiers.

20 But the beast was taken, and with him that false prophet that wrought miracles before him, whereby he deceiued them that receiued the beasts marke, and them that worshipped his image. These both were aliuie cast into a lake of fire, burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant were slaine with the sword of him that sitteth vpon the horse, which cometh out of his mouth, and all the foules were filled full with their flesh.

CHAP. XX.

2 Satan being bound for a certaine time, 7 and after let loose, vexeth the Church grievously. 10. 14. And after the world is iudged, he and his are cast into the lake of fire.

AND I saw an Angel come downe from heauen, hauing the key of the bottomlesse pit, and a great chaine in his hand.

2 And hee tooke the dragon that olde serpent, which is the deuill and Satan, and hee bound him a thousand yeres,

3 And cast him into the bottomlesse pit, and he shut him vp, and sealed the doore vpon him, that he should deceiue the people no more, till the thousand yeres were fulfilled: for after that he must be loosed for a little season.

4 And I sawe seates: and they sat vpon them, and iudgement was giuen vnto them, and I saw the foules of them that were beheaded for the witness of Iesus, and for the worde of God, and which did not worship the beast, neither his image, neither had taken his marke vpon their foreheades, or on their hands: and they liued & reigned with Christ a thousand yeres.

5 But the rest of the dead men shall not liue againe, vntill the thousand yeres be finished: this is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is hee that hath part in the first resurrection: for on such the second death hath no power: but they shall bee the Priestes of God, and of Christ, and shall reigne with him a thousand yeere.

7 And when the thousand yeres are expired, Satan shalbe loosed out of his prison,

8 And shal go out to deccie the people, which are in the foure quarters of the earth: euen * Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battell, whose number is as the sand of the sea.

9 And they went vp into the plaine of the earth, which compassed the tents of the Saints about, and the beloued citie: but fire came downe from God out of heauen, and deuoured them.

10 And the Devil that deceiued them, was cast into a lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet shall be tormented euery day and night for euermore.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and one that sat on it, from whose face fled away both the earth and heauen, and their place was no more found.

12 And I saw the dead both great and small stand before God: & the bookes were opened, and another booke was opened, which is the booke of life, and the dead were iudged of those things which were written in the bookes, according to their workes.

13 And the sea gaue vp her dead, which were in her, and death & hell deliuered vp the dead which were in them: and they were iudged euery man according to their workes.

14 And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire: this is the second death.

15 And whosoever was not found written in the booke of life, was cast into the lake of fire.

CHAP. XXI.

3.24 The blessed estate of the godly. 8. 27 and the miserable condition of the wicked. 11 The description of the heavenly Ierusalem, and of the wife of the Lambe.

AND I saw * a new heauen and a new earth: for the * first heauen and the first earth were passed away, and there was no more sea.

2 And I Iohn saw the holy citie new Ierusalem come downe from God out of heauen, prepared as a bride trimmed for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heauen, saying, Beholde, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them: and they shall be his people, and God himselfe shall be their God with them.

4 * And God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, neither crying, neither shall there bee any more paine: for the first things are passed.

5 And hee that sat vpon the throne, said, * Behold, I make all things new: and he sayd vnto me, Write: for these words are faithfull and true.

6 And hee sayd vnto me, It is done, * I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, I will giue to him that is athirst, of the well of the water of life freely.

7 Hee that ouercommeth, shall inherite all things, and I will bee his God, and hee shall bee my sonne.

8 But the fearefull and vnbeleeuing, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and forcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall haue their part in the lake, which burneth with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.

9 And there came vnto mee, one of the seuen Angels which had the seuen vials full of the seuen last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come: I will shew thee the Bride, the Lambs wife.

10 And hee caried mee away in the spirit to a great and an hie mountaine, and he shewed me the great citie, holy Ierusalem, descending out of heauen from God,

11 Having the glory of God, and her shining was like vnto a stone most precious, as a Iasper stone cleare as crysfall, 12 And had a great wal and high, & had twelue gates, and at the gates twelue Angels, & the names written, which are the twelue tribes of the children of Israel.

13 ¶ On the East part there were three gates, and on the North side three gates, on the Southside three gates, and on the Westside three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelue foundations, and in them the names of the Lambs twelue Apostles.

15 And hee that talked with mee, had a golden reede to measure the citie withall, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lay foure square, and the length is as large as the breadth of it, and he measured the citie with the reede, twelue thousand furlongs: and the length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equall.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred forty and foure cubits, by the measure of man, that is, of the Angel.

18 And the bulding of the wall of it was of Iasper: and the city was pure gold, like vnto cleare glasse.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones: the first foundation was Iasper: the second of Saphire: the third of a Chalcedonie: the fourth of an Emeraud:

20 The fifth of a Sardonix: the sixth of a Sardius: the seventh of a Chrysolite: the eighth of a Beryl: the ninth of a Topaze: the tenth of a Chrysoprasus: the eleuenth of a Iacinth: the twelfth an Amethyst.

21 And the twelue gates were twelue pearles, and euery gate is of one pearle, and the street of the city is pure gold, as shining glasse.

22 And I saw no Temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lambe are the Temple of it.

23 * And the citie had no neede of the Sunne, neither of the Moone to shine in it: for the glorie of God did light it: and the Lambe is the light of it.

24 * And the people which are fained, shall walke in the light of it: and the kings of the earth shall bring their glorie and honour vnto it.

25 * And the gates of it shall not be shut by day: for there shall be no night there.

26 And the glorie and honour of the Gentiles shall be brought vnto it.

27 And there shall enter into it none vnclane thing, neither whatsoever worketh abomination or lies: but they which are written in the * Lambes booke of life.

CHAP. XXII.

1 The river of the water of life. 2 The fountains and light of the citie of God. 6 The Lord giueth euer his seruants morning of things to come. 9 The Angel will not be worshipped. 18 To the word of God may nothing be added, nor diminished therefrom.

AND he shewed me a pure river of water of life, cleare as crysfall, proceeding out of the throne of God, and of the Lambe.

2 In the midst of the street of it, and of either side of the riuer, was the tree of life, which bare twelue maner of fruits, & gaue fruit euery monerh: and the leaues of the tree serued to heale the nations with.

3 And there shall bee no more curse, but the throne of God, and of the Lambe shall be in it, and his seruants shall serue him.

4 And they shall see his face, and his Name shall be in their foreheads.

19, 20.

5 * And there shall be no night there, and they need no candle, neither light of the Sonne: for the Lord God giueth them light, and they shall reigne for euermore.

6 And he said vnto me, These words are faithfull and true: and the Lord God of the holy Prophets sent his Angel to shew vnto his seruants the things which must shortly be fulfilled.

7 Behold, I come shortly, Blessed is he that keepeth the words of the prophesie of this booke.

Chap. 19.

10.

8 And I am Iohn, which sawe and heard these things: and when I had heard and seene, * I fell downe to worship before the feete of the Angel, which shewed me these things.

9 But he said vnto mee, See thou doe it not: for I am thy fellow seruant, and of thy brethren the Prophets, and of them which keepe the wordes of this Booke: worship God.

10 And he said vnto mee, Seale not the wordes of the Prophecie of this Booke: for the time is at hand

11 He that is vnioſt, let him bee vnioſt ſtill: and he which is filthy, let him bee filthy ſtill: and hee that is righteous, let him be righteous ſtill: and he that is holy, let him be holy ſtill.

12 And behold, I come ſhortly, and my reward is with me, * to giue euery man according as his workes shall be.

13 I am * Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14 Blessed are they that do his commandments, that their right may bee in the tree of life, and may enter in thorow the gates into the city.

15 For without shall be dogs and inchanters, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whoſoeuer loueth or maketh lyes.

16 I Ieſus haue ſent mine Angel to teſtifie vnto you theſe things in the Churches: I am the roote, and the generation of Dauid, and the bright morning ſtarre.

17 And the Spirit and the bride ſay, Come. And let him that heareth ſay, Come, and let him that is athirſt come: and * let whoſoeuer will, take of the water of life freely.

18 For I proteſt vnto euery man that heareth the words of the prophesie of this booke, * If any man shall adde vnto theſe things, God shall adde vnto him the plagues that are written in this booke:

19 And if any man shall diminiſh of the words of the booke of this prophesie, God shall take away his part out of the booke of life, and out of the holy city, and from thoſe things which are written in this booke.

20 He which teſtifieth theſe things, ſaith, Surely, I come quickly. Amen. Euen ſo, come Lord Ieſus.

21 The grace of our Lord Ieſus Chriſt be with you all, Amen.

A briefe Table of the Interpretation of the proper names, which are chiefly found in the Olde Testament, wherein the first number signifeth the Chapter, the second the Verse.

X Hereas the wickednesse of time, and the blindness of the former age hath bene such, that all things altogether have bene abused and corrupted, so that the very right names of diuers of the holy men named in the Scriptures have bene forgotten, and now seeme strange vnto vs: and the names of infants that should euer have some goodly aduertisements in them, and should be memorials and markes of the children of God receiued into his household, haue bene herely also changed and made the signes and badges of idolatrie, and heathenish impietie, wee haue now set forth this table of the names that be most used in the Olde Testament, with their interpretation, as the Hebrew importeth, partly to call backe the godly from the abuse, when they shall know the names of the godly Fathers: and what they signifie, that their children now named after them, may haue testimonies by their very names, that they are within that faithfull family, that in all their doings had euer God before their eyes, and that they are bound by these their names to serue God from their infancy, and haue occasion to praise him for his wondrous wrought in them and their fathers: but chiefly to restore the names to their interprise, whereby many places of the Scriptures, and secret mysteries of the holy Ghost shalbe better understood. We haue medled rarely with the Greeke names, because their interpretation is vncertaine, and many of them are corrupted from their originall, as we may see these Hebrew names set in the margent of the Table, which haue bene corrupted by the Grecians. Now for the other Hebrew names which are not here interpreted, let not the diligent Reader be carefull: for he shall finde them in places most conuenient amongst the annotations: at least so many as may seeme to make for any edification, and vnderstanding of the Scriptures.
